Therefore, in any time, like our time, instead of regret for the painful events and terrible corruptions that have surrounded Muslims from every side, they should actively set forth and produce some sound and useful books and publications in front of the enemies' evil books and publications. They should utilize the best and modern propaganda means of the time against the enemy's equipped means of propaganda. To stand against the designs, philosophies, and doctrines that different political, economical and social schools introduce, Muslims must offer the inclusive Islamic designs to all human kind. It is only by this method that they can protect their being .and live as a progressive group in the world

Commentary: verse 104

Following the verses concerning the Holy struggle and migration, to stir the spirit of :self-sacrifice in Muslims, this verse says

"...And do not flag in pursuit of the enemy "

This statement is a hint to the fact that to stand against the arrogant enemy, you should preserve the spirit of attack in yourselves, because, psychologically it has an .extraordinary effect in knocking down the spirit of the enemy

Then, it states a clear and living reasoning for this commandment, and says why you :may linger while

.If you suffer pain, then they also suffer pain as you suffer ..."

"...But you hope from Allah what they do not hope

And, at the end of the verse, the Qur'ān emphasizes more and implies that all these annoyances, injuries, efforts and endeavours, and, perhaps, indulgences and :negligences are not hidden from the knowledge of Allah. It says

" .And Allah is All-Knowing, All-Wise ..."

.Thus, you will see the result of all of them

Point

- Not to take up the cause of the dishonest – the Apostle may pray for his followers

Forgiveness of Allah always there is for those who seek it after doing any .evil with the necessary amendment

۱۰۵- اِنَّا اَنْزَلْنَا اِلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ بِالْحَقِّ لِتَحْكُمَ بَيْنَ النَّاسِ

بِمَا اَرَاكَ اللهُ

وَلَا تُكُنْ لِلْخَائِنِينَ خَصِيْمًا

Verily We have sent down the Book to you with the Truth that you may judge " ۱۰۵ .
.between people by what Allah has shown (taught) you

".And be not an advocate for the treacherous

Commentary: verse ۱۰۵

Basing on what is recorded in some authentic commentary books, once it happened
.that, in one of the battles, a Muslim stole a chain mail

When he was going to be marked by ignominy, he threw the chain mail into the house of a Jew, and then gathered some men saying that the Jewish person was a thief, not that Muslim. The subject was brought to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and the verse was :revealed, announcing such

Verily We have sent down the Book to you with the Truth that you may judge "
"...between people by what Allah has shown (taught) you

In this verse, at first Allah recommends the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) that the purpose of sending down this heavenly Book is that these rules of the truth and equity should be :practiced among people. It says

Verily We have sent down the Book to you with the Truth that you may judge "
"... .between people by what Allah has shown (taught) you

:Then, it awares the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) by saying that

".And be not an advocate for the treacherous ..."

p: ۱۴۹

It is cited in Majma`-ul-Bayān (vol. ۶, p. ۳۲ Persian translation) that although this verse addresses the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), the target is the Ummat of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) not the Prophet himself, because, upon the consensus of Ummat, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is
.immaculate from all sins and disgraces

Therefore, since the revelation of the Qur'ān is based on the truth, the judgements should be performed upon the basis of the truth, too, not upon the relations. Thus, in Islam, treating on justice is also necessary even towards a non-Mulsim person,
.(regarding to the occasion of revelation of the verse

" .١٠٦ And seek forgiveness of Allah. Verily Allah is Forgiving, Merciful "

Commentary: verse ١٠٦

In this holy verse, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is commanded that he seeks the forgiveness
.of Allah, for certainly Allah (s.w.t.) is forgiving and merciful

Yet, as it was mentioned in the commentary of the previous verse, cited by the author of Majma`-ul-Bayān, that the verse was addressing the Prophet's Ummat, here, too, it means to seek forgiveness for the Ummat, and we know that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.)
:is free from any fault. The verse says

" .And seek forgiveness of Allah. Verily Allah is Forgiving, Merciful "

" .And do not plead on behalf of those who deceive themselves " .١٠٧

" .Verily Allah does not love any who is treacherous, sinful

Commentary: verse ١٠٧

The leaders of Islam and Muslims ought to find the treacherous ones and know their plans, so that they can decide on a suitable situation for themselves

However, injustice and treachery unto people is doing wrong to oneself. Treachery pollutes the society and this social pollution reaches ourselves. Then, pleading a treacherous person is unlawful, and it is considered as participating in the crime and .being content with the treachery

We should know, of course, that the state of the slight treacheries, which are done unknownly and gullibly, is different from the state of the treachery of the mischievous conspirators. (The Arabic words / yaxtānūn/ (those who deceive), /xawwān/ (.treacherous), and /'aīm/ (sinful) indicate to a state of permanent treachery

:Then in this verse, it says

" .Verily Allah does not love any who is treacherous, sinful ..."

Allah (s.w.t.) blames the treacherous ones in this verse. The verse says they shrink from people that the inward of their deeds be manifested, but they are not ashamed of Allah

"...;They (the treacherous) hide from people but they hide not from Allah "

Allah, the One Who is Omnipresent, is always with them. So, at that time of night, when they are designing some treacherous plans and saying some words that are displeasing unto Him, He is with them and is aware of whatever they do. It says

Commentary: verse ١١٠

.The Qur'ānic word /sū'/, in philology, means `to harm others', too

.Thus, the verse refers to both being unjust to people and being cruel to oneself

" ...And whoever does evil or acts unjustly to his own self "

The previous verse, criticized the treacherous and protection of the treacherous. Here, in this verse, it states the way of rescue from it. The Qur'ān says that gate of the .path of return is open to the wrong doers

:Now, it is they who should decide and return from doing sin and repent. It says

" .then seeks forgiveness of Allah, shall find Allah Forgiving, Merciful ... "

Commentary: verse 111

Sin, which is a transgression against the bound of Divine law, destroys the inner purity, virtue of the spirit, and justice; and this very effect is the greatest damage. In the system of existence and also in Allah's way of treatment, the result of injustice toward people, soon or late, reaches to our own selves

"...And whoever commits a sin, indeed he commits it only against his own self "

And, at the end of the verse, it implies that the Lord is both All-Knowing, and is aware of all the deeds of the servants, and is All-Wise, and punishes every wrong doer fitting :with whatever the one deserves. It says

And whoever commits a fault or a sin, then accuses of it an innocent, he indeed " ١١٢ ".burdens (himself) with the calumny and a manifest sin

Commentary: verse ١١٢

Point

This verse has pointed to the importance of committing the sin of calumny upon some innocent people. It says

And whoever commits a fault or a sin, then accuses of it an innocent, he indeed " ".burdens (himself) with the calumny and a manifest sin

:Calumny Is a Crime

To denigrate an innocent is one of the most disgraceful actions that Islam has seriously condemned

:It has been narrated from the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) who said

The one who slander a believing man or woman, or says something about them " which is not in him (her), on the Day of Resurrection Allah sets the one on a heap of (fire until he (she) comes out (of the responsibility) of what the one has said." (1)

In deed, making current this unjust manner as a custom in a society causes to disturb the order and probity of that society, to pollute the truth unto untruth, the innocent be involved into difficulty and the sinner be saved, and the common confidence be .vanished

" .and great is Allah's grace on you

In some preceding verses, (verse ۱۰۵), a part of the event of the tribe called Banī-Abīraq was explained. Now, in this verse, another part of that event is referred to. The
:verse says

،And had it not been Allah's grace on you and His Mercy "

"...a party of them had certainly resolved to lead you astray

By accusing an innocent person and then involving the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) in this event, they wanted both to defame the social and spiritual personality of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), and to fulfil their own evil intentions

p: ۱۵۸

upon an innocent Muslim. But, the Lord, who is the protector of His Messenger, .obliterated their plans totally

:Then, the Qur'ān says but they do not lead astray but their own selves, and they shall not harm you at ..."

"...all

Finally, the Qur'ān states the reason of immunity of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) from fault,
:such

And Allah has revealed to you the Book and the Wisdom, and He has taught you ..."
"...what you did not know

:And, it concludes the verse by saying

".and great is Allah's grace on you..."

In the above-mentioned sentence, one of the basic reasons of the subject of inerrancy is shortly pointed out. It implies that Allah has taught the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) some knowledge and science that he is saved from any fault and mistake, because knowledge and sciences, especially the knowledge of hidden things and unknown secrets, (in final stage) are the causes of light and inerrancy

114. "There is no good in most of their secret conferences " except for him who enjoins charity or goodness or reconciliation between people; and ,whoever does this, seeking Allah's pleasure

"We will give him a great reward

Commentary: verse 114

In the former verses, there was a hint to the mischievous hidden nightly meetings of some hypocrites or the like of them. In this holy verse, the subject is discussed more 'detailed under the title of `secret conference

:The Arabic term /najwā/ `conspiring whisper', does not mean only

'the secret whispered words'. It includes any secret and hidden meetings, too`

The holy verse denotes that: there is no goodness in their most private meetings
:which such people hold secretly, and they are based on some evil plans. It says

"...,There is no good in most of their secret conferences "

Then, in order that it might not be thought that any conspiring and whisper, or secret meeting, is blameworthy and prohibited, a few instances are mentioned at the end of :this very verse in the form of exceptions. It says except for him who enjoins charity or goodness or reconciliation between ..."

"...;people

If such conspirings may not be for pretence or dealing hypocrisy but for the purpose of obtaining the pleasure of Allah, the Lord will assign a great recompense for them.

:The verse says

".and whoever does this, seeking Allah's pleasure, We will give him a great reward..."

p: ١٤٠

In principle, conspiring and secret whispering, or holding hidden meetings have been introduced in the Qur'ān as 'Satanic work'. Sura Mujādelah, No. ٥٨, verse ١٠ says: "

"...Secret counsels are only (the work) of Satan

Essentially, if secret conspiring is performed at the presence of a crowd, it may raise the suspicion of men. It can even sometimes create mistrust between friends. That is why it is better not to apply this manner except for the necessary aspects. The philosophy of this ordinance in the Qur'ān may also be the very fact to him, and follows other than the way of the believers, him We shall turn over to what ,he has turned to

,and We shall expose him to Hell

" and an evil destination it is

Commetnary: verse ١١٥

The Arabic term /mašāqqah/ means that you put yourself one side and the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) another side and begin hindering the affairs, and showing hostility
.by intentional opposition

Therefore, after the truth being manifest to a person, it is obligatory for the one to .obey the Messenger of Allah, and, evidently, opposing him (p.b.u.h.) is unlawful

And whoever opposes the Messenger after the guidance has become manifest to "
" ...,him

However, the Lord does not punish anyone by taking him into Hell without completing
.the argument

" ...,after the guidance has become manifest to him ..."

Thus, the result of opposing the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) and the Islamic Ummah
:is to assume the mastership of other than Allah and falling down into Hell. It says and follows other than the way of the believers, him We shall turn over to what he ..."

"... ,has turned to

That is, the person follows a way other than the religion of the believing people. In such a case, Allah (s.w.t.) will leave that person to the idols which he relies on and .imagines as his shelter and his support in all circumstances

p: ۱۶۲

And, as a recompense of choosing aberration and leaving off the way of guidance, he

Commentary: verse ۱۱۶

Polytheism is an earnest deep disease. Therefore as long as it has not been rooted out in a person, morals and righteous deeds are not spiritually of avail. Repentance is the remedy of polytheism. So, a polytheist should come out of the circle of paganism in order to be involved in the forgiveness and Mercy of Allah. The ways toward the forgiveness of Allah are: repentance, pardon, good deed, and avoidance of committing great sins

Verily Allah does not forgive that (anything) be associated with Him, but He forgives "

Commentary: verse ١١٩

:Satan has sworn to persuade some programs

.١ :He has said that he would take an appointed share from Allah's servants

"...and he said, most certainly I will take of Your servants an appointed share ..."

Satan knows that he has not the authority of leading all the servants of Allah astray. There are only the persons who indulge in their desires, and the people of weak faith .and weak will who submit to Satan

Therefore, the second thing that he has promised to do upon human beings is that .٢ :he says

"... And most certainly I will lead them astray"

.٣ :Then, he says

"...,and certainly I will arouse desires in them ..."

Satan says that he will invite the servants of Allah to superstitious acts, including the .٤

:following action

"...,and certainly I will bid them that they slit the ears of the cattle ..."

This action refers to one of the disgraceful deeds of the Age of Ignorance. It was customary among the idol worshippers that they would split the ears of some certain cattles, or they cut their ears utterly. They

p: ۱۶۷

.believed that it was forbidden to ride on them and, thus, they took no benefit of them

What Satan says in this stage is an irreparable damage that he causes against the .
:basis of the prosperity of man. Satan says

"...and I will certainly command them that they alter the creation of Allah..."

This sentence shows that Allah has settled monotheism and any other admirable attributes in the first nature of man, but some Satanic temptations and low desires .deviate man from the straight path and lead him astray

When the verse of forgiveness of sins was revealed from the origin of Allah (Sura 'Āl-i-`Imrān, No. ٣, verse ١٣٥), 'Iblis gathered his supporters by a cry and told them that all their efforts would result no avail when a person repented. Each of them said something about it, and one of the Satans said: "Whenever a person decides to repent, I will entangle him with vain desires and promises, so that he delays his repentance. ### Commentary: verse ١٢٢

We recited in the previous verses that: whoever takes Satan for a guardian rather than Allah has indeed suffered a manifest loss; and, Satan promises them and fills them with desires, and Satan does not promise them except delusion. Here, comparing them, the Qur'ān states the fate of the believing persons. It says

" ,But (as for) those who believe and do righteous deeds "

" ... .shortly we will admit them into gardens beneath which rivers flow

:This bounty is not like the fleeting and transitory bounties of this world, but

" ...Therein they will abide forever ..."

This promise is not alike with the false promises of Satan, but it is a true promise from :the side of Allah

" ....Allah's promise is the truth ..."

It is evident that none can be truer in speech than Allah, because breach of promise is either for inability or ignorance or need, all of which are far from His Holy presence. It

Commentary: verse ١٢٣

Muslims were proud of the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) as the seal of the prophets, and that they are the best Ummah (community). The People of the Book boasted of their background, too. They said that they would not remain in Hell Fire but a few days. This verse was revealed to correct the imagination of both groups, and assigned ' the action of a person ' as a document

.Therefore, vain imaginations and baseless hopes must be avoided of

:It says

"It is not your vain desires, nor the vain desires of the people of the Book "

Islam is founded on realities, not on untruth, delusions or desires of individuals.
(Untruth, originated from anyone and from any school, is condemned to destruction

However, Allah is just and His reward or retribution is based upon the ' action' that .individuals perform

,whoever does evil shall be recompensed for it ..."

".and, besides Allah, he will find for himself neither a guardian nor a helper

124. "And whoever does deeds of righteousness, whether male or female " and is a believer, then these shall enter Heaven and they shall not be dealt with a jot

" .unjustly

Commentary: verse ١٢٤

It seems that the Arabic word /naqīr/ is taken from the sense of `pecking', and it is .applied for the hole of a date-stone, as if it has been pecked

In the previous verse the meaning was about `whoever does evil', and here, in this verse, it is about whoever does deeds of righteousness, the reward or retribution of

Commentary: verse ١٢٥

In the verse before this verse, the word was upon the fruit of Faith and deed and it implied that merely belonging to a doctrine or a school of thought has no effect. Yet, in order that no misunderstanding arises from the former discussion, in this verse, the preference of the religion of Islam over all religions has been stated by the following sense:

And who is better in religion than the one who surrenders himself entirely to Allah "
"... ?while he is righteous and follows the creed of Abraham, the upright one

:In this verse, three things have been considered as the criterion of the best creed

:The first thing is the absolute submission before Allah (s.w.t.). The verse says

"...the one who surrenders himself entirely to Allah ..."

The second thing is righteousness. The purpose of that, here, is doing any righteousness by the heart, the tongue, and action

"... while he is righteous ..."

The third thing is to follow the creed of Abraham, the upright. The verse continues

:saying

" ... ?and follows the creed of Abraham, the upright one ..."

Then, at the end of the verse, it reasons its emphasis on the creed of

p: ۱۷۴

:Abraham as follows

" .And Allah took Abraham as a Friend ..."

According to the Islamic literature, this rank of Abraham, being chosen as a friend by Allah, was because of his abundant prostrations, feeding the indigent, his midnight prayers, accepting the problems, and his hospitality. \(1\)

This verse points to the absolute sovereignty of Allah and His domination over all things. It says

Commentary: verse ١٢٨

It happened that at the beginning of Islam, a Muslim believer by the name of Rāfi'-ibn-Khadīj had got two wives. One of them was old and the other was young. He had to divorce the old wife because of some discords that they had. But before ending the waiting period, he told her that if she desired he could revoke upon condition that she would be patient when he might prefer his young wife, else they should separate after finishing the waiting period. The woman accepted the reconciliation: and then this verse was revealed

The Arabic term /nusūz/ is derived from the root /nasz/ in the sense of: 'an elevated place', which, here, means: 'disobedience'. In verse No. ٣٤ from the current Sura, the speech was about the disobedience of the wife, and here the statement is also upon ill treatment

The Arabic word /suhḥ/, when concerning a wife, means: 'avoiding of wearing appropriate clothing and lack of ornamentation'; and when concerning a man, it refers to: his avoidance of paying dower sum, necessaries, and the absence of .showing affection

In any case, for the family affairs, the first stage is reconciliation

p: 179

between the couple without the interference of others. If it does not end to peace,
:others may interfere

"...if they effect a reconciliation between them ..."

And it does not matter for a person to remit a right in order to obtain a higher general
.interest and to make safe the atmosphere in the family

"... there is no sin ..."

The origin of instability in many families is the insularities, envy and avarice that has .surrounded human-kind

"...but avarice has been made to be present in the (people's) minds ..."

Renunciation of man from his venereal desires and being careful of justice between his two wives, are among the examples of piety and kindness. If a man remits his own right, and does good and kindness unto his wife, all of these actions are at the .presence of Allah

".then verily Allah is aware of what you do..."

Heavenly Law Has no Contradiction with Natural Disposition

It is natural that a man shows more affection to his young wife than his aged wife.
That is why the commandment of Justice is only due to the treatment of man unto his .wives, not due to his heartily love

"...,You will never be able to deal equitably between (your) wives "

.Now that heartily justice is not possible, then, there should be equity in action

In Islam, there is no duty beyond the ability of a person. A human being is not usually .able to adjust affection, but he is able to apply justice in dealing the affairs

.It is unlawful for a man to leave his wife undecided

Commentary: verse ١٣٠

Next to the former discussion, in this verse it points to this fact that if the continuation of conjugal life is tiresome for the couple and there have come forth some things that the circumstance can never be remediable, they do not have to continue such a marriage and to be prisoner of a bitter family life like that. They can separate from each other and, without having any fear from their future, they should decide bravely, because in this condition, if they separate, Allah will enrich both of them out of His abundance and Mercy. They can be hopeful to have better spouses and more .delightful lives in future

" ...,Yet if they (should) separate, Allah will enrich each out of His abundance "

This situation exists, because Allah has a vast inclusive Mercy and abundance,
:together with Wisdom. It says

" .and Allah is All-Embracing, the Wise ..."

Commentary: verse ١٣١

The Holy Qur'ānic phrase: " And to Allah belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth, ..." has occurred two times in this verse and one time in the next verse. This repetition is because of its belief function, in order that we know Allah, the Almighty, is capable in performing His promises in all affairs, and that He (enriches the servants (including enriching them in both marriage and divorce

However, the Power and Sovereignty of Allah is the guarantee of execution for His .promises

"... ,And to Allah belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth "

Allah is Self-Sufficient, and having the possession of what is in the heavens and what

Next to the meaning in the previous verse, it continues to imply that it is no problem for Allah (s.w.t.) that He vanishes you and substitutes you some other people who will be more receptive and more decided in the path of His obedience. And Allah (s.w.t.) is :powerful to accomplish this action. The holy verse says

.whether the one be rich or poor, Allah is closer to them both

;Therefore do not follow any passion so that you can deal justly

،(and if you swerve or decline (the right

".then verily Allah is aware of what you do

Commentary: verse ۱۳۵

:Social Justice

Following the instructions that were pointed out through previous verses about the execution of justice upon orphans and wives, here in this verse, the statement is upon a basic principle and a general law. It is about the execution of justice in all aspects

:and without any exception. It says

"... O' you who have Faith! be maintainers of justice "

p: ۱۸۸

That is, you should accomplish justice so that you might not have the least inclination toward any side

Then, to emphasize the matter, the verse refers to the subject of bearing witness. It recommends upon affairs concerning the witnesses, in particular, and that you should put aside all circumspections and bear witness rightfully for the sake of Allah, even if it is against you or your parents or your near relatives. It says and) witnesses for Allah's sake, though it be against your own selves or (your)) ..." ;parents or near relatives

It can be understood from this holy phrase that it is possible for relatives to bear witness for or against each other when they observe the principles of justice

Then, it points to other factors of perversion from the principle of justice. It implies that neither the wealth of the rich nor the emotions arisen from the poverty of the poor should hinder to bear witness rightfully

It is because Allah is more aware of the condition of the person against whom the rightful attestation is performed whether the one is rich or poor

Therefore, neither the possessors of wealth and force can damage the rightful witnesses when there is the support of Allah, nor the poor remain hungry when justice is executed. The verse says

"...whether the one be rich or poor, Allah is closer to them both ..."

Again, to emphasize on the matter, it instructs us not to follow our desires, because, in that case, there come forth some barriers for executing justice

This sentence clearly leads us to the fact that the origin of transgressions and cruelties is carnal desires. Thus, if a group of people be not the followers of carnal desires, injustice and cruelty may not be found among them

For the importance that there lies in the execution of justice, it emphasizes again on this commandment. It indicates that if you hinder the right from reaching the rightful person, or pervert the right, or turn aside from the right when it becomes clear to you, :Allah is well aware of what you do. It says and if you swerve or decline (the right), then verily Allah is ..."

".aware of what you do

The above verse makes completely manifest the extraordinary attention of Islam to the subject of social justice in whatever form and in whatever case it may be. The application of different emphasis mentioned in these sentences shows how much

.Islam is sensitive for this important social subject among humankind

But, unfortunately, there is a long distance between the action of Muslims and this excellent Islamic commandment! This very fact, of course, is one of the secrets of .their retardation

Commentary: verse ١٣٦

The meaning of the verse may be such: O' you who have faith! go a step further; or,

.be firm in your faith forever

A believer should elevate himself to a higher degree of faith every day, since there

.are degrees in faith

"...O' you who have Faith! Believe "

In this regard, Sura Muhammad, No. ٤٧, verse ١٧ says: " And those who avail of the guidance, He adds unto them guidance..." And, Sura Al-Fath, No. ٤٨, verse ٤ says: "...

"... ;that they might add further faith to their faith

,disbelieved, then increased in (their) disbelief, Allah will not forgive them

" .nor will He guide them to the (right) way

Commentary: verse ١٣٧

Formerly a verse similar in meaning to this holy verse was detailed, saying that the repentance of such persons is not accepted and they are the real misguided ones. Also, Sura 'Āl-i-`Imrān, No.٣, verse ٩٠ in this field says: " Verily those who disbelieve after their belief, then increase in infidelity; their repentance will never be accepted; " .and these are they who are astray

There are some people who change their features every day. This is either for the lack of research in Truth and religion, or it is a plot in order to weaken the belief of the believers. Sura 'Āl-i-`Imrān, No.٣, verse ٧٢ also manifests this plan by stating that they believed at the opening of the day, and disbelieved at the end of it, with the purpose that they might weaken the Muslims in their Faith. The clear example of the content of this verse is the persons such as Shabth-ibn-Rib`ī whose instability can be :illustrated as follows

He became Muslim but, after the death of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), he disbelieved. After that, he repented and joined to the adherents of Ali (a.s.). Later, he changed to be the commander of Kharijites. Again he repented and went on to be as an adherent of Imam Hassan (a.s.) and Imam Husayn (a.s.). He wrote an invitation letter to Imam Husayn (a.s.) but he showed his disloyalty to Muslim-ibn-`Aghīl in Kūfa (an ancient city in Mesopotamia). He accepted to be the commander of Yazīd's troop in Karbalā, and built a mosque in Kūfa as a sign of gratitude for the slain of Imam Husayn (a.s.). The

" .Announce to the hypocrites that they shall have a painful chastisement " .١٣٨

Commentary: verse ١٣٨

When the Qur'ānic word / bišārat / ` glad tidings ' is used for punishment, it is either as a mockery due to their baseless vain thoughts, or for the sake that the Arabic term / bišārat /, which is originally derived from the Arabic word /bušr/ in the sense of ` face ', has a vast meaning. It concludes any news that affects on the face and usually makes :it happy or sad. The verse says

" .Announce to the hypocrites that they shall have a painful chastisement "

Hypocrites are) those who take the disbelievers for (their) friends instead of the) " ١٣٩ .
? believers do they seek glory in them
" .Then, verily, all glory belongs to Allah

Commentary: verse ١٣٩

:In this holy verse, the hypocrites are characterized as follows Hypocrites are) those who take the disbelievers for (their) friends instead of the) "

"... believers

Then the Qur'ān inquires what their purpose is from this choice. Do they really want to obtain a credit and honour for themselves by making friends with them? They should know that honour and glory totally belongs to Allah, because glory always originates
' from ` knowledge ' and ` power

Therefore, those whose knowledge and power is little are not in a position that they .can be the origin of glory

" .do they seek glory in them ? Then, verily, all glory belongs to Allah..."

This verse warns all the Muslims not to seek for the disbelievers' glory in all aspects of life, irrespective of: economical glory, cultural glory, political glory, and the like of them, in making friends with the enemies of Islam. Whenever their interest requires, they immediately leave out their own most intimate allies and refer to their own affairs, so that as if they have never been acquainted with each other. The present
.era is a clear witness to this fact

So, in the foreign policy, we must not seek our glory in attachment with pagans.) We) recite in Munājāt-Sha` bāniyyah: " O' Lord! my abundance and my deficiency is in Your

Commentary: verse ١٤٠

Point

Sura Al-'An`ām, No. ٦, verse ٦٨ contains a similar meaning to that of this holy verse. It :addresses the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) and says

And when you see those who enter into false discourses about Our Signs, withdraw " " ...from them until they enter into a discourse other than that

In that verse, the addressee is the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), while in the above-mentioned .verse, the Qur'ān addresses people in general

:Explanations

A person should not usually be inattentive when confronting the false discourses of ١ . (others, (since, being silent or inattentive where a sin is being committed, is sinful

" ... do not sit with them until they engage in some other discourse ... "

.٢ .You may either alter the evil environment, or come out of it "

"... do not sit with them ... "

It is not enough to abandon committing sin only, but we should cause the performance of sin to be stopped totally. Mere being straight is not enough; the perversion of others should be hindered of, too

p: 196

It is not allowed to be silent in front of sin under the pretext of freedom of speech, .۴
.negligence, good morals, easy circumstances, courtesy, civility; shame, and so on

.The person who is content with the sin of others, has a share of that sin .۵

" ... otherwise you would be like them ... "

.To be silent in front of the idle talks of the infidels, is a kind of hypocrisy .۶

Commentary: verse ١٤١

:The Qualities of Hypocrites

This verse and some verses after that point to some other qualities of the hypocrites and their incoherent thoughts. The verse describes the hypocrites as those who always want to make profit from any incident. If you gain the victory, they quickly show themselves in the row of the believers and say whether they were not with you, and their worthy aids were not helpful in your victory. Therefore, they claim to have a share in its all spiritual and material incomes. The verse says

" (The hypocrites are) those who wait and watch about you; then if there be a victory )
:for you from Allah, they say

"...? Were we not with you`

But, if the enemies of Islam obtain a part of this victory, the hypocrites immediately approach them and express their consent to them about that victory. They say that it was they who encouraged them to combat with Muslims without showing any sign of :resignation, therefore they have a share in that victory. The verse says

But if the ..."

disbelievers get a share, they tell (them): ` Did we not help you win, and held off the "...! ? believers from you

Thus, this group of hypocrites, by their own particular misusing opportunities, sometimes come toward the believers and sometimes approach the disbelievers, and
.spend their lives double-dealingly

Yet, the Qur'ān manifests their fate with stating a short phrase. It implies that finally there will come a day that the curtains will be removed, the masks will be taken off
:and their real ugly faces will be seen. Yet, it is true when it says

" ... ,Therefore, Allah shall judge between you on the Day of Judgement ... "

And, in order that the true believers should not be afraid of them, at the end of the :verse it adds and Allah will by no means give the disbelievers a way (of success) against the..."

" .believers

This part of the verse means that the disbelievers not only from the point of logic but also from the point of political, martial, cultural, and economical aspects will not really
.overcome the believers

So, if we see their victory with our own eyes in different fields against Muslims, it is for .the reason that many of Muslims are not true believers

They have neither the unity and Islamic brotherhood among them, nor the knowledge and necessary awareness which Islam has counted necessary for all from birthday
,until the moment of death. Then, when they are like that

.consequently, they have remained like this

۱۴۲. "Verily the hypocrites seek to trick Allah, but He is tricking them"

And, when they stand up for prayer they stand up lazily; showing off to the people,
"and they do not remember Allah save a little"

Commentary: verse ۱۴۲

The purpose of 'the hypocrites seek to trick Allah', perhaps, is the same expression of Faith by them and playing with the commandments of Allah. And, as Imam Ridā (a.s.) says: since Allah gives the retribution of their trick, this divine retribution is called 'trick'.

"... Verily the hypocrites seek to trick Allah, but He is tricking them"

However, they are far from Allah and, consequently, they do not enjoy telling Allah their secrets and praying for their needs. That is why when they stand for prayer they are thoroughly full of listlessness and laziness. It says

"... ;And, when they stand up for prayer they stand up lazily ..."

The hypocrites, in fact, do not believe in Allah and His magnificent promises. Then, if they worship or do a righteous deed, it is also for showing off to people, not for the sake of Allah " ... ,showing off to people ... "

Commentary: verse ١٤٣

The Arabic word /taabub/ phylogically means: ` to be moved to and fro, as anything (suspended in the air ' . (١)

Therefore, the hypocrites do not have a firm thing to rely on, and they sway between this and that, like a thing which is suspended in the air and moves by the movement of a wind. They depend on others, so they wander without having any proper aim

Also, they have not tranquility and peace, because they must always change their

Point

The believers have not the right of accepting the mastership of the disbelievers. But it is in the case that the hypocrites have a close tie with the disbelievers. The Qur'ān introduces the disbelievers as Satans of the hypocrites

There are some unaware Muslims who accept the friendship of the hypocrites. To :make clear the situation of the hypocrites, the Qur'ān in this verse says

Verily the hypocrites are in the lowest stage of the Fire, and never you shall find a "
" .helper for them

It is well understood from this verse that hypocrisy is the worst kind of infidelity from the point of view of Islam, and the hypocrites are the furthest distant people from Allah. So, it is for this reason that their abode is in the worst place and the lowest

Commentary: verse ١٤٦

.The way of repentance is open to all, even to the worst ones

Repentance can take a person from the position of ' the lowest stage of the Fire ' to ' the Exalted Heaven '. The Qur'ān says

" ... ,Except those who repent "

:Human beings are free and can change the way, i.e. they can repent

" ... ,those who repent ... "

Repentance is not only an expression of regret, but it is an inclusive improvability. The :verse continues saying and amend and hold fast (the grace of) Allah and make their religion pure for Allah ... " " ...

Those hypocrites who repent should not feel loneliness for the absence of their .fellow-mindeds, because they find some better colleagues instead of them

?What can Allah gain by your punishment, if you are grateful and you believe " .١٤٧

" .And Allah is All-Thankful, All-Knowing

Commentary: verse ١٤٧

If you believe and do righteous deeds and, in the meantime, you do not abuse the bounties of Allah, and be grateful for the bounties of Allah, without doubt, there will .not be any divine punishment upon you

:The verse says

" ... What can Allah gain by your punishment if you are grateful "

Then, in order to emphasize this matter, it adds that the Lord is both aware of your deeds and your thoughts, and is thankful and giver of reward for your righteous :deeds. It says

" .And Allah is All-Thankful, All-Knowing ... "

In the above-mentioned verse, the subject of ` thankfulness ' has occurred before the sense of ` belief ' . This precedence is for the fact that as long as a person does not know the bounties and graces of Allah and does not reach the position of gratitude, .(cannot know Him, Himself (s.w.t

Commentary: verse ١٤٨

In this verse and the verse next to it, a part of the ethical instructions of Islam are pointed out. At first, the verse indicates that Allah does not like that ill-speaking be performed or the vice and disgraceful actions of people be manifested by the speech of others. It says

" ... Allah does not love open utterance of evil in speech "

As Allah Himself is the Concealer of Faults, He does not love that individuals betray secrets and make manifest the vices of people so that they disgrace them

Then, the Qur'ān refers to some affairs that can be counted as the authority for such betraying secrets and ill-speaking. It says

" ... ,except by one to whom injustice has been done ... "

Such persons are right to defend themselves against the cruelty of transgressors. They can complain of them, criticize them, blame them, and backbite them. They are also right to continue doing that until they get their right and ward off the transgression

And, as the style of the Qur'ān is, in order that some persons do not misuse this exception and do not make manifest the vices of people under the pretext that they :have been transgressed, at the end of the verse, it says

" .And Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing ... "

Commentary: verse ١٥٠-١٥١

The Jews and the Christians believed in some prophets and disbelieved in some other ones. This kind of behaviour was because of their foolishly desires and bigotries, and .also because of some unreasonable insularities

:The verse says

Verily those who disbelieve in Allah and His Messengers, and desire to make division " :between Allah and His Messengers, and say

"... , ' We believe in some and disbelieve in others `

It should also be attended that the process of messengership is the permanent Allah's way of treatment which are linked together like a chain, and we must believe in this \(١\). (process totally)

In this verse, the Qur'ān points to the position and the fate of the believers. It implies that those who believed in Allah and all His prophets and did not make any separation between them, have proved their own submission and sincerity unto the Truth and also proved to struggle against any bigotry. As for these Allah will bestow their :rewards soon. The verse says

And those who believe in Allah and His Messengers and make no division between "
" ... ,any of them, He will grant them their rewards

And, at the end of the verse, another fact is referred to. It indicates that if this group of the believers had formerly committed such bigotries, divisions, and some other .sins, and now have purified their Faith and returned to Allah, He will forgive them

Commentary: verse ۱۵۳

The demand of the Jews from the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) was that the Qur'ān, like the Turah, should be sent down together, too. But, that demand was nothing save a mere pretext. In Sura Al-'An`ām, concerning the matter, Allah says: " And if We had sent to you a writing on a paper, then they had touched it with their hands, certainly those who disbelieve would have said : ` This is nothing but clear enchantment ' . " (۱)

Commentary: verse ١٥٤

The verse implies that the Children of Israel, the Jews, did not awaken from the sleep of negligence and did not come down from the mount of pride and obstinacy. It was for that reason that Allah raised the Sinai Mount above them, and in the meanwhile, .He took covenant from them

The holy verse implies that Allah (s.w.t.) told them to enter the door of Jerusalem in the state of prostration and humility as a sign of repentance from their sins. Allah also decreed emphatically for them not to work on Saturday and not to transgress, (and not to use the sea-fish that the hunting of which was prohibited for them). Allah (s.w.t.) took serious covenant for all of these things from them. But they fulfilled none of .those confirmed promises

So, for their breaking their covenant and their disbelief in the Signs of Allah and " ١٥٥ . their slaying the prophets wrongfully and their saying: ` Our hearts are covered ', nay! ,but Allah sealed them for their disbelief " .so they do not believe save a few

In this verse, the Qur'ān points to some other parts of the wrong doings of the Children of Israel, and also those committing offenses and hostilities that the Jews performed against the prophets of Allah

At first, it refers to the breach of promise and disbelief of a group of them, by whom :the slaughter of many prophets occurred. It says

" ... So, for their breaking their covenant "

Following to this breach of promise, they rejected the Signs of Allah and paved the .way of opposition

" ... and their disbelief in the Signs of Allah ... "

They did not suffice only to this wrong-doing, but also they set their hands to another great crime. They killed the leaders and the guides of the way of Truth, viz. the .prophets. They slew the prophets without having any reason for their action

" ... and their slaying the prophets wrongfully ... "

They were so insolent in committing offenses that they mocked the statements of the prophets and they used to explicitly say to them that their hearts were locked so that they hindered them to hear and accept the invitation of the prophets

" ... ;' and their saying ` Our hearts are covered ... "

Here, the Qur'ān adds a sense that their hearts are sealed totally and no truth penetrates into them, but the reason of that situation is their own infidelity and disbelief. That is why they do not believe in truth, except a small group of them :who avoid these kinds of obstinacies and that they pave the path of truth. It says

,nay! but Allah sealed them for their disbelief ..."

" .so they do not believe save a few

The question of calumny against Mary is also referred to in Sura Maryam No.١٩, verse

The calumny of fornication unto Mary was not only a sin but it was also a calumny of bastardy to Jesus (a.s.) and his incompetency for guidance and leadership. This very .(sin was the reason of their disbelief unto Jesus (a.s

Therefore, calumny is counted in the same row with infidelity, and, consequently, a
.grievous calumny deserves a grievous chastisement

١٥٨. " .But Allah took him up unto Himself; and Allah is the Mighty, the Wise "

Commentary: verse ١٥٧-١٥٨

They (the Children of Israel) were even proud of slaying Jesus, and they said that they :themselves slew Jesus, son of Mary, the Messenger of Allah. The verse says

And because of their saying (in boast): ` Verily we slew Messiah, Jesus, son of Mary, "
"...! ;Allah's Messenger

Perhaps, the sense of ` Allah's Messenger ' that they said about Jesus (a.s.) was said mockingly in order to scorn him, while they were not true in their claim. The verse
:continues saying but they did not slay him nor did they crucify him, but it appeared to them (a ..."

" ... ;(likeness of that

:Then, the Qur'ān, as an emphasis on the matter, says

p: ۲۱۹

" .and, certainly, they did not slay him ... "

:Then, the Qur'ān, as a separate verse, continues saying

" ... But Allah took him up unto Himself "

The reason that the Qur'ān has emphasized particularly on the subject that Jesus (a.s.) has not been crucified, is for the purpose of perfectly nullifying the superstitious belief of ransom and making ummah (community) free from sin by payment, so that the Christians find rescue in the pledge of their own good deeds not in seeking refuge .to the Cross

We are absolutely certain that both the birth and departure of Jesus from this world .occurred abnormally. He (a.s.) was taken up to be a provision for future

And there is not anyone of the People of the Book but surely believes in him " ١٥٩ .
(Jesus) before his death, and on the Day of Resurrection, he will be a witness over .them

Commentary: verse ١٥٩

There are two probabilities in commenting on this verse, each of which is considerable
.for some views

١- The verse says -

And there is not anyone of the People of the Book but surely believes in him (Jesus) "
"... ,before his death

The above-mentioned time is when a person is going to die and his connection with the world becomes weak while it becomes more serious with the world after death.
The curtains will be removed from before his eyes and he will see many things of the reality. It is at this time that his inward eye of seeing the truth will see Jesus (a.s.) and he will surrender before him (a.s.). Those who denied him will believe in him, and those who considered him God, will recognize their error. But it is too late and this belief is of no vail for them. Then, it is better for them to believe just now, when belief is useful
.for them

The purpose of the verse is that all the People of the Book will believe in Jesus (a.s.) -٢ before death. The Jews will accept him for his messengership, and the Christians will leave out the godship of Jesus. This circumstance will happen, according to the Islamic literature, when Jesus (a.s.) comes down from heaven at the time of the reappearance of Hadrat Mahdī (may Allah hasten his glad advent) and establishes prayer at the back of him. The Jews and Christians will see him and will believe both in him (a.s.) and Imam Mahdī (May Allah hasten his glad advent). So, it is clear that, at this time, Jesus, whose religion relates to the former times, has to follow the present

.creed, i.e. Islam, the executor of which is Mahdī (May Allah hasten his glad advent

Basing on the recorded Islamic traditions, at the time of Mahdī's rightful government, the security will be so much so that wolf and sheep, lion and cow, and other savage animals will graze in the same pasture. The security of life, wealth and honour will be found in the world thoroughly

There will be no cruelty and transgression anywhere, and justice will cover the whole world of existence

:However, at the end of the verse, it says

"and on the Day of Resurrection, he will be a witness over them ..."

The objective meaning of the 'witness of Jesus against them' is that he (a.s.) will bear witness that he has preached the messengership but he has never invited them to his own divinity and godship. On the contrary, he has invited them to the Divinity of Allah.

Commentary: verse ١٦٠

Point

Perhaps, the objective meaning of the good things that became forbidden for them is the same things which are mentioned in Sura Al-'An`ām, No. ٥, verse ١٤٦. It says: " And to those who were Jews We made unlawful every animal having claws, and of oxen and sheep ..." This very prohibition is also found in the present Turah. (Leviticus, Chapter ١١)

:Explanations

.Injustice is the preparation for deprivation from bounties

Sometimes, some economical deprivations and material straitened circumstances are signs for the wrath and retribution of Allah

And for the injustice from those of the Jews We did forbid them those good things " "... , (which had been made lawful for them (before

Hindering people from the path of Allah, in any form it may be, (including: distortion, concealment, innovation, corruption, and deviation), is the cause of deprivation

" .and for their much hindering (people) from the path of Allah ..."

In fact, the main punishments will be given in Hereafter, yet the worldly retributions are for awareness. They are as penalty for the evil doers and as trial for the good doers

١٦١. "And (for) their taking usury when indeed they were forbidden from it "

,and (for) their devouring the property of people unrightfully

"and We prepared for the disbelievers from among them a painful chastisement

Commentary: verse ١٦١

The prohibition of usury is also mentioned in the present Turah (Deuteronomy, Chapter ٢٣, No ١٩ ٢٠):

Thou shalt not lend upon usury to thy brother; usury of money, usury of victuals, .١٩
:usury of anything that is lent upon usury

Unto a stranger thou mayest lend upon usury; but unto thy brother thou shalt not .٢٠ lend upon usury: that the Lord thy God may bless thee in all that thou settest thine
.hand to in the land whither thou goest to possess it

Usury seems to be the source of profit and the factor of happiness, but it is the cause
.of deprivations and punishments

All heavenly religions are sensitive, and have words, due to the material and financial .connections between human-beings and also due to their gains and expenditures

As long as injustice, usury, and living on unlawful money have not set a person in the course of infidelity, it is easy for him to return to the right path, otherwise the sins may .become the cause of infidelity, and infidels are involved in punishment

And (for) their taking usury when indeed they were forbidden from it, and (for) their "

".Upon these We shall give a great reward

Commentary: verse ١٦٢

In this verse, a great fact is referred to, on which the Holy Qur'ān has repeatedly emphasized. This fact is that the reproach and reprimanding of the Qur'ān upon the Jews has never had an aspect of racial or tribal combat. Islam reproaches no race as a 'race', but it blames and reprimands the filthy and deluded persons. That is why this verse separates the believers and virtuous ones from among the Jews as an exception and admires them when it gives them the glad tidings of a great reward.

:The Qur'ān says

But those firmly rooted in knowledge among them and the believers believe in what " has been revealed to you and what has been revealed (to the messengers) before you, and the establishers of prayer and the givers of poor-rate, and the believers in "Allah and the Last Day. Upon these We shall give a great reward

The proof for this meaning is the fact that at the time of the advent of the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.), when some of the prominent people of the Jews saw the reasons of his rightfulness, embraced Islam and defended it heartily. These persons were respected by the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) and other Muslim members

Point

The names of twenty-five prophets of Allah have been mentioned in the Qur'ān. Eleven names of these prophets are referred to in the verse under discussion, and the rest of them are: 'Adam, Andreas, Hūd, Ṣāliḥ, Lot, Yūsuf (Joseph), Shu`aib (Jethro), Thilkafī, Moses, Elyās (Elija), Yasa` (Elisha), Zakaria (Zachariah), Yaḥyā (John), and Uzair (Ezra).

Some Islamic recorded traditions denote that whatever had been revealed to the former prophets (a.s.) were revealed to Prophet Muhammad (p.b.u.h.), too

The Qur'ānic term /'asbāt/ is a title for those prophets who are the children of Ya`qūb (Jacob).

,The word /zabūr/ in philology means `book', but, as a technical term

p: ۲۲۶

it is used for David's Book. Psalms of David can be found in the Books of the Old Testament. This book contains ۱۵۰ Chapters, each of which is a Psalm. (p.p. ۶۰۶ to ۶۸۱ :of the Holy Bible). Here is the verse

Verily We revealed to you as We revealed to Noah and the prophets after him, and " We (also) revealed to Abraham and Ishmael and Isaac and Jacob and the Tribes, and " Jesus and Job and Jonoh and Aaron, and Solomon, and We gave David the Psalms

Allah sent down revelations to all prophets one after another. But here, in this regard, before mentioning the names of some other prophets, Allah says: " We revealed to .you ". This precedence may be for the superiority of the holy Prophet's rank

:Explanations

In the history of man, revelation and Messengership has been an unalterable – ۱ .process and rule

In revelation both aim, and style, and the generality of the content, and the origin of –۲ .them, wholly is the same; and that origin is Allah

" ... Verily We revealed "

The divine revelations unto the prophets have repeatedly occurred in the history. –۳ Yet, why do the opponents of prophethood not accept the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) ?and do differ between him and other prophets

.Such people are certainly astray

١٦٤- وَرُسُلًا قَدْ قَصَصْنَاهُمْ عَلَيْكَ مِنْ قَبْلُ

164. "And earlier (there were) messengers We have already told you of "

;and messengers We have not told you of

".and Allah spoke directly unto Moses a (peculiar) speech

Commentary: verse ١٦٤

Suras Hūd (No. ١١) and Al-'Anbiyā (No. ٢١), comparing other Suras of the Qur'ān, are more inclusive in stating the stories of the prophets. In regard to learning good qualities, acquainting oneself with the history of the lives of prophets is so useful for men that Allah (s.w.t.) has paid to it, too. It says

"... ,messengers We have already told you of ... "

The history of prophets, of course, is more abundant than what has been mentioned in the Qur'ān. Neither the length of the life of a person is enough to listen to the whole history, nor listening to the whole history is necessary. But listening to it should be as much as to take example and to take lesson from it. This very thing shows that the Qur'ān is a Book of guidance and teaching, not a Book for telling stories

However, the styles of receiving revelations are different, inspiration in heart, or sending down the angel, or revealing from behind the (curtain), and all prophets had been the addressee of Allah (s.w.t.), but among them only Moses (a.s.), as his epithet, ' was entitled /kalīm-ul-lah/ ` The Interlocutor of Allah

".and Allah spoke directly unto Moses a (peculiar) speech ..."

This title was given to Moses (a.s.) maybe for the reason that it was necessary for him to communicate repeatedly with Allah in order to struggle and work hard against

.Pharaoh, or against obstinacy and stubbornness of the Children of Israel

so that people might have no argument against Allah after the (invitations of) the ,messengers

"and Allah is the Mighty, the Wise

Commentary: verse ١٦٥

This verse expresses the words of prophets' invitation and the method of their effort,
.together with the purpose of the mission of prophets to prophethood

:The method of the work of prophets is based on two pivots ` warning ' and ' glad tidings '!

"(We sent) messengers as givers of glad tidings and as warners) "

so that people might have no argument against Allah after the (invitations of) the ".messengers, and Allah is the Mighty, the Wise

The philosophy of the mission of prophets is Allah's ` completing the argument ' for .humankind so that they cannot say that they had not any leader or guide

It is necessary to mention that from the point of personal epithets, background of life, social, political, genealogical, and physical situation, and also from the point of having miracles, clear statements, and being aided by hidden helps, prophets should be in a state that no one be able to object anythings of theirs. And, since ` Allah is the Mighty, the Wise ' , none has any proof against Him, as the Qur'ān states: " Say: ` Then Allah's (is the conclusive argument;'..." (١)

١٦٦- لَكِنَ اللّٰهُ يَشْهَدُ بِمَا اَنْزَلَ اِلَيْكَ اَنْزَلَهُ بِعِلْمِهِ

But Allah bears witness to what He has sent down to you that He has sent it " .١٦٦
;down with His knowledge, and the angels (also) bear witness
".and Allah is sufficient as witness

Commentary: verse ١٦٦

This very fact that the high standard of knowledge of the Qur'ān has been delivered by an illiterate person in an environment full of ignorance and enmity, and that it changed the state of people from dispersion to unity, from avarice to donation, from paganism to theism, from ignorance to knowledge, and from descent to spiritual ascent so that they reached to the condition of formation of ' the Islamic Ummah ', is an evidence for Allah's grace (s.w.t.) toward the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and for His .favour to his religion

That is why the best shelter and the source of hope in all prophets has been the .support and aid of Allah

"... But Allah bears witness to what He has sent down to you "

By the way, the origin of revelation is the infinite knowledge of Allah. So, with the .advance of science, every day some parts of the Qur'ānic wisdom will be manifested

"... ,that He has sent it down with His knowledge..."

It should be regarded that if there are some obstinate sinful persons in some corners of the world who seek pretexts, inspite of that, there are all the pure knowledgeable angels in the world of existence who bear witness alongside the Holiness of Allah. It :says

".and the angels (also) bear witness; and Allah is sufficient as witness ..."

Commentary: verses ١٦٧-١٦٩

In the first verse of the above verses, the phrase ` have gone astray far away (from .felicity) ' denotes to the intensive stray of the disbelievers

.Infidelity is an aberration, and hindering others from Faith is another one

Disbelief is a deviation, while a disbeliever considering oneself rightful, is a deviation greater than that. Disbelief in a person is injustice to his own self, while hindering .others from the right path is injustice unto generation, in the history

Verily, those who disbelieve and hinder (people) from the way of Allah, have gone " ".(astray far away (from felicity

The objective meaning of the phrase 'act unjustly', mentioned in verse No. ۱۶۸, may .be in the same sense of hindering others to be guided

Which injustice, in comparison, can be higher than the mental, cultural, and creedal
?injustice

,Verily, those who disbelieve and act unjustly "

Commentary: verse ١٧٠

The invitation of Islam is an invitation to all humankind throughout the world. The
:verse says

"...!O' mankind "

The means of the spread of this invitation, and the weapon of the prophets for the .aim, has been its rightfulness

"... ;with the truth from your Lord ..."

Before the advent of the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.), the People of the Book, and even the pagans, were waiting for a prophet to come. When the same prophet came, they should believe in him and they would know that believing in him is beneficial for the people themselves. So, they might not hold Islam under obligation for their belief in it,
.but Allah has conferred a favour upon them for that He has guided them

"... .then believe (in him), it is good for you..."

;messengers, and do not say (Allah is) a Trinity. Desist! it is good for you verily Allah is only One God. Far be it from His Glory that there be for Him a son; to Him belongs whatever is in heavens and whatever is in the earth; and Allah is ".sufficient as a Protector

Commentary: verse ١٧١

Adapting to the contents of the previous verses which were about the People of the Book and pagans, in this verse the Qur'ān has pointed to one of the most important deviations of the society of the Christians, i.e. trinity or believing in three foldness (the father, the son, and the Holy Gost). In a short and reasonable sentence, it tells them
.to avoid this great aberration

:At first, it warns them that

,O' People of the Book! do not exaggerate in your religion "

"... and do not say upon Allah save the truth

The subject of exaggeration about the religious leaders has been one of the most important origins of deviation in heavenly religions. For this reason, Islam has treated 'with a severe strictness against Extremists, ` Qalāt

.So, in Islamic jurisprudence, Qalāt have been introduced as the worst infidels

Then the verse hints to some points where each of which is as a reason for the :nullification of trinity, and divinity of Jesus (a.s.). They are as follows

:Jesus (a.s.) was but a son of Mary –۱

"... ,The Messiah, Jesus son of Mary ..."

This phrase indicates that Jesus, similar to every other human being, was in the womb of his mother, and passed the foetal course. Like any other members of men, he was born, sucked milk and grew up in the bosom of his mother. In other words, all the human qualities existed in him (a.s.). How can such a person, who is object to the laws of nature and the changes of the world of matter, be a God without beginning and .without end

Jesus was the messenger of Allah and he was sent by Him. This rank does not fit –۲
:with his divinity

"... ,was only a messenger of Allah..."

Jesus was the ` word ' of Allah that He cast unto Mary. This meaning is for hinting to –۳ the fact that Jesus was a creature of Allah. In the same manner that ` words ' are His .creatures, all the things of the world of creation are creatures of Allah, too

Jesus is a ` spirit ' that has been created by Allah (s.w.t.). This expression that has –۴ been mentioned in the Qur'ān for the creation of ` Adam ', or, in another sense for the creation of humankind, points to that spirit which Allah created and set in the selves of .human beings, in general, and in Jesus and prophets, in particular

"... and a spirit from Him..."

:Next to stating this meaning, the Qur'ān says

So believe in Allah and His messengers, and do not say (Allah is) a Trinity. Desist! it ..."

"... ;is good for you

Here, the Qur'ān emphasizes on the unity of Allah once more and

p: ۲۳۵

:says

"... .verily Allah is only One God ..."

This phrase means that you believe in oneness of God, and yet in the meantime, you accept trinity. But if Allah had a child, the child would be like Him, and, in this case, .oneness of God is meaningless

How can Allah have a child while He is far from being in need of the deficiency of wife .and child, and from the deficiency of body and of being a body

"... ;Far be it from His Glory that there be for Him a son ..."

Besides that, He is the possessor of what is in the heavens and the earth. They are all His creatures and He is the Creator of them all. And, Moses (a.s.) is one of these .creatures

"... ;to Him belongs whatever is in heavens and whatever is in the earth..."

How can an exceptional case be assumed for Him? Can a slave and a creature be both the child and the creator of his possessor! Allah not only is the Creator and the Possessor of them but also is a controller, protector, sustainer, and guardian of them. .And, He is sufficient to direct and guard them

".and Allah is sufficient as a protector..."

Basically, how is the Lord in need of a child, the One Who is without beginning and without end, and Who is in charge of the guardianship of all creatures from beginning to the end ? Is He like us, the mortals, to demand a child in order to substitute that ?child after His death

Commentary: verse ۱۷۲

Jesus himself declares that he is the servant of Allah. Why do you know him the Allah's
:child? Be not more royalistic than the king. The holy verse says

" ... ,Never would Messiah disdain to be a servant of Allah "

.The one who is a worshipper cannot he an object of worship Concerning this matter, Imam Ridā (a.s.) told Jāthliq, the leader of the Christians: " All the qualities of Jesus were good save that he was not a good worshipper." Jāthliq became inconvenient and said that Jesus did the best worship. Imam (a.s.) enquired: " Whom did he worship? " Jāthliq said nothing, since he understood that the purpose of Imam (a.s.) was to teach that a ` worshipper' could not be an ` object of worship ', and

! ` God

Near-stationed angels (including ' Rūḥ-ul-Ghudus ', Holy spirit) also

p: ۲۳۷

?do worship Allah, why do you count Holy spirit one of the three gods

"... ;nor would the near-stationed angels ..."

The main cause of leaving worship is usually pride. Then, when the spirit of .haughtiness comes, it brings forth all kinds of danger at its back

"... ,and whoever disdains His service, and prides ..."

?If Jesus and the nearstationed angels worship Allah, why do we not worship Him

However, the return of all human beings is unto Allah. So, we should be in awe of the .Hereafter and be not haughty

O' mankind! there has come for you a (firm) proof from your Lord and "

".We have sent down to you a manifest light

Commentary: verse ١٧٤

Point

Basing on the Islamic literature, the purpose of the Qur'ānic phrase ` a (firm) proof ', in this verse, is the Prophet himself (p.b.u.h.) , and the purpose of ` a manifest light ' is \(the Qur'ān.١\)

The Prophet of Allah, indeed, is the proof of his religion, because such a book and knowledge has been introduced by an illiterate person that the more the time progresses and sciences develop, the rightfulness of the religion and the depth of its teachings will become more clear

:Explanations

١- Islam talks to all peoples, all generations, and all periods. Its message is worldly

"...!O' mankind "

٢- The Qur'ān is a book of reasoning, guidance and light

"...and We have sent down to you a manifest light ..."

٣- Sending light and proof is from among the signs of Allah's Lordship

"... there has come for you a (firm) proof from your Lord ..."

١٧٥- فَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَاعْتَصَمُوا بِهِ

فَسَيُدْخِلُهُمْ فِي رَحْمَةٍ مِنْهُ وَفَضْلٍ وَيَهْدِيهِمْ إِلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمًا

,Then as for those who believe in Allah, and hold fast to Him " .١٧٥

;shortly He will admit them to Mercy from Him and Grace

".and will guide them toward Himself through a straight way

Commentary: verse ١٧٥

The objective meaning of the above-mentioned holy phrase: ' and hold fast to Him ' may be holding fast to the godly saints and leaders which works as a barrier against dispersion and division. It is cited in ' Jāmi` ah Supplication ' thus

" ... .the person who holds fast to you, he has verily held to Allah..."

It was pointed out in the two previous verses that the means of receiving the grace and favour of Allah should be faith and good deeds, while, in this verse, the means is faith and holding fast to Allah. This shows that ' faith and holding fast to Allah ' is the same as faith and good deeds. These two meanings have frequently been mentioned beside each other in the Qur'ān

Then as for those who believe in Allah, and hold fast to Him, shortly He will admit " " ... ;them to Mercy from Him and Grace

Therefore, the straight way, or the way of guidance, is the way which leads man to :Allah. It says

".and will guide them toward Himself through a straight way..."

This fact should also be noted that according to the Islamic authentic narrations, the Qur'ānic phrase ' straight way ' has been rendered into Amir-ul-Mu'mineen Ali (a.s.)

Occasion of Revelation: verse ١٧٦

It is narrated from Jābir-ibn-` Abdillāh Anṣāry who said that once he was seriously ill.

The holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) went to visit him in his house where he (p.b.u.h.) made ablution and besprinkled Jābir with some drops from the water of his ablution (as a remedy). Abdillāh, who was thinking of his death, told the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.): " My

" ?heirs are my sisters. How is their heritage

Then, this verse, which is called ` the verse of duties ', was revealed and made the .standard of their inheritance clear

p: ۲۴۲

Some commentators of the Qur'ān believe that this holy verse is the last verse that was revealed to the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) about the commandments of Islam

Commentary: verse ۱۷۶

This verse states the amounts of the inheritance of brothers and sisters. As it was mentioned in the commentary upon the beginning verses of this Sura, verse ۱۲, there are two verses in the Qur'ān revealed upon the inheritance of brothers and sisters

One of them is the very verse ۱۲ which speaks about the maternal brothers and sisters, and the second one is the verse under discussion which is about the parental sisters and brothers or about only paternal brothers and sisters. It says

They ask you for a pronouncement. Say: Allah pronounces to you concerning the " ... (Kalālah (paternal, or paternal and maternal, brother and sister

:Then, the Qur'ān points to a few commandments as follows

:The verse says –۱

" ... ;what he leaves

It continues the statement that: if a woman dies and she has no child but she has –۲ one brother (a parental brother or a mere paternal brother) all his heritage belongs to
:that one brother. It says

" ... ;and he shall inherit from her (wholly) if she has no offspring..."

If a person dies and there remains two sisters after his death, they shall have two–۳
" ... ;thirds of what he leaves

" ... ;but if there be two (sisters), then they shall have two-thirds of what he leaves..."

Sura Al-Ma'idah (No. 5) The beginning

Introduction to the Sura Al-Mā'idah

(Sura Al-Mā'idah (The Food) No. 5 (120 Verses

In The Name of Allah, The Beneficent, The Merciful

This Sura has been called Al-Mā'idah (the food), because of the invocation of Jesus (a.s.) that he asked for the descent of heavenly food, mentioned in this Sura, verse 114

.The Arabic term /Mā'idah/ originally is used for a tray with food inside

Sura Al-Mā'idah contains 120 verses, and, comparing all Suras of the Qur'ān, the most frequency of the phrase ' O' you who have Faith!' has occurred in this Sura. For example, in Sura Al-Baqarah, No. 2, this phrase has been repeated eleven times, but in this Sura it has been recited 16 times

:The subject matters referred to in this Sura are questions such as mastership and leadership, rejecting the belief of trinity in Christians, fulfilling the promise, testifying with justice, prohibition of murder, some commandments upon edibles, ablution, dry ablution, social justice, and so on

Since it is the last Sura which was revealed, at the beginning of the Sura it enjoins to fulfilling all the promises and pledges by the phrase

' fulfil the promises '

Commentary: verse 1

Muslims should earnestly fulfil any covenant and every kind of contract that they have made. These covenants are irrespective of the recorded contracts and the oral contracts, whether they are political, economical, social, and both with authoritative and weak people, friend or

.enemy

The Holy Qur'ān enjoins Muslims that the contracts with pagans should be fulfilled, too. Sura At-Taubah, No. ٩, verse ٤ says: "... so fulfil their contract ...". According to a tradition from Imam Sādiq (a.s.), recorded in Al-Kāfī, vol. ١, p. ١٤٢ even the fulfilment of agreements with the sinners is necessary

These covenants may be with Allah (s.w.t.) (like vows and promises), or with people who can be an individual or a group, young or old. The contracts may be with the countries in neighbourhood, or those of international formation. However, as in the same manner that breach of promise and iniquity is the secret of deprivations, (١) fulfilling the promises is the cause of gains and enjoyments

And it ought to be noted that the heavenly Books are also Allah's covenants to which should we be loyal and fulfil them entirely. The Old Testament (the Turah), the New Testament (the Evangel) and the Present Testament (the Qur'ān) all are referred to in the Islamic literature. In a tradition, Imam Sādiq (a.s.) said: " Al-Qur'ān is the covenant (of Allah unto His people..." (٢)

However, faith is the basis of fulfilling the promises and vows. The holy Prophet Muhammad (p.b.u.h.) said: " There is no religion for the person who does not fulfil his promise." If the agreements and promises be not kept, the basis of the society and common confidence will fail, and, at that line, disorder comes forth

"... (O' you who have Faith! fulfil the contracts (made by you or people "

Then, following the ordinance of fulfilling the promises, which involves the entire ordinances and divine covenants, the Qur'ān states a number of Islamic ordinances.

:At first, it refers to the meat of some animals that can be lawful. It says

"... (The four-footed animals are lawful to you (for food..."

:But, in this ordinance, it has excepted the meat of two animals to be lawful. It says

In this verse, several Islamic magnificent ordinances, among the latest ordinances .that were revealed to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), are referred to

All of these ordinances, or most of them, are related to Hajj pilgrimage and visiting the :Sacred House

At first it addresses the believers and enjoins them not to violate –۱ the sanctity of the symbols of Allah and not to consider their prohibition as lawful. It

:says

"... ,O' you who have Faith! do not profane Allah's Monuments "

Keep the sanctity of the sacred months and refrain from fighting in these sacred – ۲
.months

"... ,nor the sacred month..."

Do not consider lawful the offering and the sacrificial animals which you bring for – ۳ Hajj, whether they are with garlands or without garlands, and let them reach the .place of sacrifice and then they can be sacrificed there

All the pilgrims to the Sacred House should be enjoyed a complete freedom in the – ۴ rites of this Islamic great duty. In this work, there is not any privilege between .nations, individuals, races, and languages

Therefore, you must not bring into trouble those who set out for visiting the Sacred House and seeking the grace and pleasure of Allah, or even for obtaining some comercial gains, whether they are friends or enemies of yours. When they are simply .Muslims and are called as pilgrims of the Sacred House, they are in immunity

The prohibition of hunting, in Hajj performances, is limited to the time of wearing – ۵ pilgrim garment. Thus, when you come out of pilgrim garment while performing the .rites of Hajj or Umrah, hunting is allowed for you

And when you are free from the pilgrim garb (and acts of Umrah), then (you can) ..."
"... .hunt

House and did not allow you to perform the concerning sacred rites of the Pilgrimage, this happening should not cause you to renew the old hostilities after they becoming .Muslims, and hinder them from going into the Sacred House

And let not hatred of a people (once) hindered you from the sacred Mosque move ..."

"...you to commit aggression

A general law can be extracted from this statement. This law is that never should .Muslims be malicious and revenge the incidents that happened in old times

Then, in order to complete the former discussion, the holy verse

p: ۲۵۰

:continues saying

And cooperate in righteousness and piety, but do not cooperate in sin and..."
"... ;transgression

:The Arabic term /birr/ has a vast meaning, including: having faith in Allah, Resurrection, prophets, heavenly Books, and angels. The word also means: helping the deprived in the society, fulfilling the contracts properly, being patient in affairs, and helping in righteousness. For example, if the act of studying and learning is a work of righteousness, its facilities, such as: building schools, libraries, laboratories, providing books, vehicles, training teachers, encouraging both teachers and students, etc, all are the examples of ' helping in righteousness '. There are many traditions in Islamic literature in which we have been instructed to helping in goodness and assisting the oppressed and the deprived, and we have also been prohibited from assisting the oppressors. Here, we mention only a few of them as a :blessing

Helping a Muslim believer, in comparison, is better than performing one month

He (a.s.) also said: " And whoever assists a transgressor, he himself is as a

.dread Me

Today have I perfected your religion for you, and completed My favour on you, and I ,have chosen for you Islam as a religion. But, whoever is helplessly forced by hunger without inclining to sin, (can enjoy the forbidden food), then verily Allah is forgiving, ".Merciful

p: ۲۵۲

Point

At the beginning of this Sura, there was a statement which pointed out to the meat of the beast being lawful for eating, except what would be said thereafter. This verse, in fact, is the explanation upon the same exceptions. Here, there are eleven things .which have been ordained to be prohibited

:At first, it says

Forbidden to you (for food) are carrion, blood, the flesh of swine, what has been " ... ,(slaughtered) in the name of any other than that of Allah, the beast strangled

The meat of this kind of beast is forbidden to be eaten, whether the action is done spontaneously, or by the beast, or by a person. It had been customary at the Age of Ignorance that sometimes the animal was put between two sticks or two branches of a tree, and then it was pressed thereby so much so that it died. After that, the meat of such animal was consumed by them. It is also forbidden in Islam to eat the meat of .the animals which are tortured, or beaten to death, or die because of a disease

"... beaten to death, killed by a fall, the gored to death by a horn ..."

It is cited in At-Tafsir-ul-Qurtubī that it was a custom among some Arabs that, for the sake of idols, they would beat a few sorts of animals until they died. They considered .that action a kind of worship

:The verse also continues saying

"... ,(and that which a wild beast has begun to eat, (all are unlawful..."

Then, following the prohibition of the aforementioned items, the Qur'ān implies: if, before that those animals die, they can be taken and slaughtered in accordance with the Islamic laws, and sufficient blood comes out of their bodies, they will be lawful.

:The verse says

"... (except what you slaughter (in accordance with the prescribed law..."

At the Age of Ignorance, some idol worshippers had settled some pieces of stone
.around Ka` bah which had had no special form or shape

They called them /nuṣub/ and they sacrificed animals before them and poured some blood of the sacrificial animal over the idols. The only distinguished difference between these stones and idols was that idols had a special shape and face, but ./nuṣub/ had not. In the verse under discussion

p: ۲۵۳

Islam has forbidden eating the meat of such animals, and says the animals which are slaughtered on the idols or before them are all forbidden for you to eat

"... ,And (also forbidden is to you) what has been slaughtered before idols..."

It is clear, of course, that the prohibition of this kind of meal has a moral and spiritual aspect, not a bodily and material one Another kind of animal which the verse points out as unlawful, are those which are killed and divided in the form of lottery. The action was in this manner that: ten persons among themselves laid a bet and bought an animal to kill . Then they put ten arrow shafts in a bag, on seven of them was written `gainer', while on the rest was written `loser '. They took those shafts out of the bag as the manner of lottery one after another by the name of the ten persons. Those for whose names the seven `gainers 'came out, had a share of meat without paying anything; but those three persons, for whose names the three `losers' were given, had to pay one-third of the price of the animal without having a share of its meat. These arrow shafts were called /'azlām/. Islam prohibited eating such meat. It was not for the reason that the meat itself was unlawful, but for the reason that it had a form of gambling and lottery. So, it says

"... ;or that you divide by the arrows ..."

It is evident that the prohibition of gambling, and the like of it, is not allocated to the meat of animals, but when it is done on a thing, it is forbidden, because it is a place where all unexpected social harms and superstitions can be assembled

:Then, finally, in order to emphasize more on the prohibition of all these deeds, it says

"... .all) that is ungodliness) ..."

Moderation in the Usage of Meat

From the totality of the above discussions, as well as other Islamic literature, it is understood that the style of Islam in consuming kinds of meat, like its other commandments, is a perfectly moderate style. That is, neither it is like the people of the Age of Ignorance, who consumed the meat of lizard, carrion, blood, and the like of them or like many people of the West who, today, do not remanciate eating even the meat of crabs and some worms, nor it is like some Hindus, who believe that eating meat is absolutely forbidden. Thus, Islam ordains that the meat of those animals which contains pure nutriment and is not hatred, to be lawful (halāl), and, by giving some conditions for the .usage of some kinds of meat, has rejected the styles of excess and defect

Next to the statement of the above-mentioned ordinances, there are also two .expressive phrases mentioned in the verse under discussion. At first, it says

Today those who disbelieve have despaired of your religion, so do not dread them ..."

"... .but dread Me

:Then, it continues saying

Today have I perfected your religion for you, and completed My favour on you, and ..."

"... .I have chosen for you Islam as a religion

The Day of Qadir-i-Khum

Which day is the day of the perfection of religion? What is the purpose of the word ` ?today ' which has been repeated in the couple of above sentences

."The answer to the first question is: " The Day of Qadir-i-Khum

This fact has been cited by Shi` ite commentators in their books, in the case that many .traditions referred to by the scholars of both great sects of Islam

Sunnites and Shi` ites confirm it, and it completely fits with the contents of the verse. That day was the day when the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) formally assigned Amir-ul-Mu'mineen Ali (a.s.) as his successor. It was on that day that Islam reached its final perfection and pagans sank deep inside the waves of their despair. They expected Islam to be subsistent in person and, by diminishing the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), the circumstances would change to the former state, so that Islam could gradually vanish.

But when they observed that a man was elected as the successor of the Prophet and people paid allegiance to him who, next to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), was peerless among Muslims from the point of knowledge, virtue, power, and justice, despair and hopelessness, due to the future of Islam, surrounded them, and they found that it .was a fixed and permanent religion

An interesting point, which must be paid attention to here, is that the Qur'ān in Sura
:An-Nūr, No. ۲۴, verse ۵۵ says

Allah has promised to those of you who believe and do good that He will most " certainly make them rulers in the earth as He made rulers those before them, and that He will most certainly establish for them their religion which He has chosen for " ... ;them and that He will certainly, after their fear, give them security in exchange

In this verse, Allah says that He will establish for them on the earth the religion which He has chosen for them. Regarding the fact that Sura An-Nūr has been revealed before Sura Al-Mā'idah, and noting that the sentence " and chosen for you Islam as a religion," which has been revealed in the verse under discussion upon the mastership of Ali (a.s.), we deduce that Islam will be firmly established and grounded on the earth when it be combined with ` mastership ', because this is the very Islam that Allah has chosen and has promised those who believe to establish it firmly on the earth. In other more clear words, Islam will be a world-wide religion in the case that it be not separated from the subject of love of Ahlul-Bayt /wilāyah/ (the loyalty or allegiance to .(the Imams

Another matter that can be deduced from the combination of Sura An-Nūr, verse ۵۵ with the verse under discussion is that: in the former verse three promises have been given to the believers. The first is that they be made rulers in the earth. The second is security and peace for the worshippers of the Lord; and the third is the establishment .of a religion that Allah has chosen

Those three promises were actually done on the day of Qadīr-i-Khum (۱۰th Zul-Hijjah) when the verse: "... Today have I perfected your religion for you ..." was revealed, because the perfect complete example of a believing person with good deed meant Ali (a.s.), the one who was assigned as the successor of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). It was :then that with the meaning of

Inside the verse of prohibition sorts of forbidden meat of carrion were mentioned ۱ –۱ in order that they be protected from the perversion of opponents. Just like a person who puts his jewels inside other ordinary goods to be protected from bring taken away

At the end of the verse, it has returned again to the discussion of the sorts of prohibited meat and expresses the ordinance of the case of exigency. It says

But, whoever is helplessly forced by hunger, without inclining to sin, (can enjoy the ..." forbidden food), then verily Allah is forgiving, Merciful

:Explanations

The firmness of the religious school depends on a correct leadership. So, with its – ۱ existence, all the infidels became hopeless at that time

If the leader of the day of Qadīr (and wilāyah) exists in the society, Muslims must – ۲ not have any fear

The most important window of the hope of infidels was the departure of the – ۳ Muslims' leader (p.b.u.h.). By the assignment of Amir-ul-Mu'mineen Ali (a.s.) for the leadership, that window was closed

.However, the religion without having a leader is not complete

The infidels, without the leader of Qadīr, have many hopes and with that leader – ۴ being appointed, they become hopeless. Then all infidels are on one side and `Ali-ibn-Abī-Tālib is on another side

Occasion of Revelation: verse ٤

There are several occasions of revelation mentioned upon this verse, the most appropriate of which is as follows

Two companions of the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) by the names of Zayd-ul-Khayr and `Uday-ibn-Hātam once went to him (p.b.u.h.) and said that they were among a group who used to hunt with falcons and hunting-dogs. Those hunting-dogs would take the animals whose meat were lawful (for eating). Some of the animals would be fetched alive and killed by them, but some others would be killed by the hunting-dogs, before they had opportunities to kill them according to the Islamic law. They asked that while they knew that the meat of carrion was unlawful for them to eat, what their duty was .to do. Then, the verse was revealed and answered them

A Lawful Hunting

Following the commandments stated in the previous couple of verses upon the lawful and unlawful sorts of meat, another part of that subject is referred to in this verse, and, as an answer to their question, the Divine

p: २५४

:revelation says

.O' Muhammad!) they ask you what has been made lawful for them)"

"...; Say: ` Good things have been made lawful for you

This means that what Islam has ordained as unlawful are among malignant and impure things. Thus, never the Divine law prohibits a pure animal which has naturally .been created for the usage and utility of human beings

:Then, the verse refers to the huntings when it says and such hunting creatures as you teach, training them as hounds, and teaching..."

"... ,them of what Allah has taught you

Therefore, the animals that hunting-dogs bring for you should be killed according to the law of Islam when they are alive. But, if the hunts die before the dogs can reach .them, they are lawful (ḥalāl), although they are not slaughtered

At the end of the verse, it points to two other circumstances of the conditions of such :hunt being lawful, saying

"...then eat what they seize for you..."

Thus, if the hunting-dogs have accustomed themselves to eat a portion of their own hunt and leave another portion, such hunt is not lawful. In fact, such a dog has neither been trained, nor what it leaves can be as an aspect of the Qur'ānic word / `alaykum/ .(for you), for the dog has hunted the animal for itself

:The second condition is

"... and mention Allah's Name over it..."

:Then, in conclusion, in order that all these godly commandments be observed, it says

"And be in awe of Allah; verily Allah is swift in reckoning ..."

:Consuming Food of the People of the Book and Marrying them

:In this verse, which is the supplementary of the former verses, the Qur'ān says

Today (all) good things have been made lawful for you, and (also) the food of those " "...who have been given the Book is lawful for you, and your food is lawful for them

The objective meaning of the phrase: "...the food of those who have been given the .Book..." is something other than the meat of animals slaughtered by them

It is narrated in a tradition from Imam Sādiq (a.s.) who, on commenting this verse, said: " The purpose of ` the food of those who have been given the Book ' is cereals and fruits, not their slaughtered (animals), since they do not recite the Name of Allah
".(when they slaughter (them

:Marrying with Non–Muslim Women

After referring the lawfulness of the food of the People of the Book, this verse speaks about the marriage of the immaculate women from among Muslims and the People of :the Book. It says

And (so are) the chaste women from the believers and the chaste women from ..." those who have been given the Book before you (are lawful for you) when you give "... ,them their dowries taking them in marriage

:Then the verse adds the statement

.taking (them) in marriage, not fornicating, nor taking them for paramours in secret..."

In fact, this part of the verse decreases also some restrictions which had existed before upon the marriage of Muslims with non–Muslims, and, thereby, it authorizes their marriage with the women of the People of the Book under some conditions.

.More details about this subject should be studied in the Islamic jurisprudent books

This fact should also be said that in this world of today that many of customs of the Age of Ignorance have been revived in different forms, this sort of thought has also come into being that: there is no objection for single men or women to take paramours. It has appeared not only in a hidden form, similar to that manner that .existed in pre–Islamic era of Ignorance, but also manifestly

The world of today, from the point of sexual libertinism, indeed, has gone beyond what had existed in the Age of Ignorance. At that time, they considered only taking paramours in secret permissible, while these recent people know its manifest form unobjective, too, so that, with ultimate impudence, they are even proud of it. This shameful custom, which can be counted a manifest obscene act, is one of the inauspicious presents which has been brought from West to East and has proved to be the origin of

p: ۲۶۱

.many misfortunes and crimes

In view of the fact that the above-mentioned facilities upon association with the People of the Book and marrying their women may be misused by some persons and, they, knowingly or unknowingly, may be driven towards them, at the end, the verse :warns the Muslims, saying

And whoever dinies the faith, his work indeed is vain, and he will be of the losers in ..."
".the Hereafter

This statement implies that these facilities, besides bringing some relief into your life, should work as a cause of influence and development of Islam among foreigners. It should not cause, of course, that you may be influenced by it and leave your own .religion. If it happens, your chastisement will be very hard and heavy

Allah does not intend to put on you any difficulty, but He intends to purify you, and to complete His favour " .upon you in order that you might be thankful

In the former verses there were different statements mentioned about 'bodily purification and some material bounties'. This verse has pointed to the 'soul purification' and what causes the purification of the self of Man. Here, a notable amount of the ordinances upon ablution, major ritual ablution, and dry ablution have been referred to, which are effective in soul purification. At first, it addresses the believing people and states the ordinances of ablution as follows

"O' you who have Faith! when you stand up for prayer, wash your faces, and your hands up to the elbows, and wipe a part of your heads and your feet up to the ankles"

Thus, only that part of the hand that has been mentioned in the verse must be washed. But its manner in the practice of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) that has been conveyed to us by Ahlul-Bayt (a.s.), denotes that the elbows must be washed down to the fingers

Then, the verse pays to the ordinance of the major ritual ablution when it says

"...;and if you are polluted, then perform a total ablution..."

It is clear that the objective meaning of the phrase: 'then perform a total ablution' is to wash the whole body thoroughly

'The Arabic term /junub/ philologically means 'something goes away

So, a person in a state of ritual impurity is called /junub/ for the reason that the one must avoid doing actions such as: establishing prayers, staying in a mosque and the like of them while the person is in that state

By the way, when the Holy Qur'ān in this verse enjoins the persons in the state of ritual impurity to perform a major ritual ablution for establishing prayers, it is understood that the major ritual ablution substitutes ablution

Then, the verse continues its words referring to the statement of the ordinance of

:dry ablution ', for the person who gets up and intends to keep prayers. It says and if you are sick or on a journey, or one of you comes from the privy, or you have..."
,(touched the women and you can find no water (for ablution or major ritual ablution

p: ۲۶۴

"... then betake yourselves to clean soil

:Next to this statement, the style of performing dry ablution is shortly stated. It says

"... .and wipe a part of your faces and your hands with some of it..."

And, to make it clear that there has been no restriction in the previous commandments when all of them have been legitimated for the sake of some :considerable expediences, at the end of the verse, it says

,Allah does not intend to put on you any difficulty ..."

,but He intends to purify you

".and to complete His favour upon you in order that you might be thankful

In deed, the statements mentioned in the above holy verse once more emphasizes on this fact that all divine commandments and Islamic enjoiments are assigned for the sake of people and for the protection of their rights. There has been no aim other than that. By these instructions, Allah intends people provide both spiritual and bodily .purification for themselves

.However, the final sentence of the holy verse conveys a general law

It denotes that the divine ordinances, in no aspect, are in the form of difficult .proposals, or onerous duties

Commentary: verse ٧

Divine Convictions

In this verse, the Qur'ān attracts the attention of the Muslims to the importance of the :endless bounties of Allah, the most magnificent of which is faith and guidance. It says

"... And remember Allah's favour on you "

What favour is greater than that Muslims obtained all kinds of merits, honours and effective possibilities owing to Islam? Islam caused a group of people who had been before dispersed, ignorant, blood-thirsty immoral, and corrupter to change into a society who became organized, united, and intelligent, with abundant material and .spiritual privileges and possibilities

Then, the holy verse reminds them the covenant that they have compacted with :Allah, and says and His covenant with which He has bound you, when you said: ` We heard and we..."

"... ! obeyed

This verse can be a hint to all the genetic and divine covenants, (the covenants that Allah has bound Man through primordial nature, or those that the holy Prophet

.(p.b.u.h.) has bound Muslims with in different circumstances

Basing on many Islamic authentic traditions, the objective meaning of ' covenant ', mentioned in the verse under discussion, is the mastership of Amir-ul-Mu'mineen Ali (a.s.). It is the covenant that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) took from them in Qadīr-i-Khum, on the day of Farewell Pilgrimage, and

:An Earnest Invitation unto Justice

This verse invites to establishment of justice. At first, it addresses the believers and
:says

" ... ,O' you who have Faith! be always uprite for Allah, bearers of witness with justice "

After that, the verse points to one of the factors of deviation from justice, and warns Muslims as such that tribal hatreds and hostilities, or personal accounts, should not stand as a barrier in the way of the execution of justice and should not cause transgression over the rights of others, because justice is something beyond all of
:them. It says

"... .and let not hatred of a people incite you not to act equitably..."

For the importance of the matter, it emphasizes on the subject of justice once more,
:and says

"... ,Act equitably, that is nearer to piety..."

And, since justice is the most important element of piety and righteousness, for the :third time, it adds as an emphasis that

".forgiveness and a great reward

And (as for) those who disbelieve and deny Our Signs (revelations), these are the " .١٠

Commentary: verses ٩-١٠

Allah's way of treatment is such that, in the Qur'ān, next to the statement of some particular commandments, in order to emphasize and complete them, He points to some general laws and principals. So, here, in verse ٩, to emphasize on the subject of :the execution of justice and rightfully bearing witness, it says

Allah has promised those who believe and do good deeds that they will have "
".forgiveness and a great reward

In contrast with the above-mentioned group, there are those who reject Allah and :deny His Signs, i.e. the verses of the Qur'ān. Such people will be in Hell. It says

And (as for) those who disbelieve and deny Our Signs (revelations), these are the "
".companions of Hell

It is worthy of attention that the phrases: ` forgiveness ' and ` a great reward ' are referred to in the verse as a promise of Allah (s.w.t.) where it says: " Allah has promised ...", while the ` retribution of Hell ' has been mentioned as a result of ` deeds .'

The verse implies that those who have deeds such as so and so, will have a fate so and so. In fact, this meaning is a hint to the grace and favour of Allah (s.w.t.) regarding the rewards in the Hereafter which will never be paralleled with the insignificant deeds of the mortals in this world

Also, the chastisements in the coming world have no aspect of vengeance, but they are the fruit of the evil deeds of human beings in the present world

Point

The opinions are divided on that which happening this verse was revealed for. Yet, it can be considered for all the instances that Muslims have relied on Allah and have victoriously rescued when confronting the evil attempt or attack of the enemy

Still, the remembrance of the bounties of Allah (s.w.t.) is a kind of thanksgiving. It takes away pride and negligence from man and increases his love to the Lord

Commentary: verse ۱۲

Point

The chiefs of the Israelites were twelve persons. The ministers of Moses (a.s.) and the .custodians of the twelve tribes were from among them

,It is narrated from the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) who, in a tradition

p: ۲۷۲

said: " The vicegerents after me are twelve. They are as many as the chiefs of the Israelites " (۱) The attempt of the opponents of Ahlul-Bayt (a.s.) is in vain when they try to adapt this figure to Orthodox Caliphs, Umayyid Caliphs, and the Caliphs of Abbasids, though it adapts to neither of them. There are, of course, many traditions recorded which denote that the Prophet himself (p.b.u.h.) mentioned the names of these twelve persons. According to his statement recorded in a tradition (۲) the first of them is Ali-ibn-Abitālib and their last one is Hadrat Mahdī (May Allah hasten his .(auspicious advent

The Arabic phrase: /`azzartumūhum/ is derived from the word /`azzara/ which means: to assist with honour '. Therefore, the Arabic term /ta`zīr/ refers to a kind of .assistance to the sinner in abandoning the crime

That is why that Islamic punishments have the function of education rather than .vengeance

The Qur'ānic phrase /sawā'-us-sabīl/ means the middle way that swerving from which .is going towards aberration and fall

:Explanations

Allah is with us when we observe some conditions including: prayers, poor-rate, – ۱ .belief in Trugh, assisting prophets, and giving charity

.So, if we leave them, the Grace of Allah will be ceased

Prayer, poor-rate, and charity have existed in all the Divine religions. However, – ۲ performing obligations alone is not enough, but following the totality of obligatory and .recommended deeds, without approaching the prohibited things, is effective

Commentary: verse ١٣

In the first verse of this Sura, the fulfilment of contracts was referred to. In the previous verse, the covenant of Allah (s.w.t.) with the Israelites, and the heedlessness of those people unto the Divine covenant, was pointed out. In the current verse, the effects of breaching promise are stated. Therefore, this Sura has been entitled ' the covenant ' too

However, the contents of the verses, as a whole, also warn about a great breach of .promise

Breach of promise causes deprivation from Allah's grace. (١) It is also an origin of the .appearance of hard-heartedness in persons

The Israelites have always been treacherous. They used to pervert the religion of :Allah, therefore, they encountered with punishment. The verse says

So, for their breaking their covenant, We cursed them and made their hearts hard. Commentary: verse ١٤

Point

In the previous verse, the words were about the breach of promise among the Children of Israel. Now, in this verse, the statement is upon the breach of promise among the Christians. That verse introduced almost all the Israelites as breachers of promise, (except a few of them). But, in this verse, from the beginning, it separates a part of the Christians as breachers of promise when it says

"... 'of those who say: ` We are Christians ... "

This shows that the number of the deluded people among the Jews is larger than those among the Christians

And of those who say: ` We are Christians ' We did take their covenant, but they " (also like Israelites) have neglected a part of what they were admonished with

Therefore We have stirred up among them enmity and hatred till the Day of Resurrection; and soon Allah will inform them of what they have been doing

The Qur'ānic term /naṣārā/ (Christians), mentioned in this holy verse, is the plural form of the word /naṣrānī/, and, therein, the Christians are entitled /nasārā/ since the :helpers and companions of Jesus (a.s.) used to say

Therefore, we must take an example by the bitter results emerged from breach of promise that other people had suffered. The verse indicates that Allah took covenant from the Christians, but since they neglected it they encountered the infliction of .Aḥzāb

Commentary: verse ١٦

The Arabic term /salām/ (peace) is one of the Names of God (His Attributes). In this regard, the Holy Qur'ān says: " He is Allah, there is no god save He; the king, the Holy, the Peace, ..." Paradise has also been called ' Dār-us-Salām ' (the house of peace). So, guiding towards the ways of peace and safety can be rendered into ' the way of Allah (s.w.t.) and Paradise '. The person who wants to reach these two, should go via /subul- ' as-salām/, ' the ways of safety ', the which is specific to the followers of ' Truth

The concept of /salām/ (peace, safety) includes the peace of individuals and society, family members and offsprings, thought and soul, and, even, the peace of honour

Only those people are guidable who try to obtain the pleasure of Allah (s.w.t.). Then, those who try to gain the ranks and the wealth of this fleeting world, and also follow their low desires and do revenge, are not guidable

Certainly, all the ways toward safety and prosperity are found in gaining the pleasure of Allah. So, whoever tries to please other than Him, is in aberration

However, all the various secondary ways towards the Truth, lead to the main unity. ' The ways of safety ' end to the Straight Way. Hence, all those who, by performing different good accomplishments, in variety of

.conditions, try to gain the pleasure of Allah (s.w.t.), reach to one single proper way

With it Allah guides whoever follows His pleasure into the ways of safety, and He " brings them out of darkness towards the Light by His Will and guides them to a right ".path

However, the Qur'ān is the best remedy and it can save its followers from any darkness the darkneses of dubious things, lusts, superstitions, crimes, agitations, .and so on

Commentary: verse ١٨

It is cited in the commentary of the Qur'ān by Fakhr-i-Rāzī that some of the Jews said:
" We are the sons of Allah and his beloved " when the Messenger of Allah invited them (to embrace Islam. (١)

The Jews and the Christians did not consider themselves the real sons of God, but .they imagined a kind of formal adoption for themselves

The Arabic phrase /abnā'-ul-lah/ (the sons of Allah) is an implicit declaration of their
.undue expectation and extravagance in ambitions

This fact should also be mentioned that in Islam racial superiority, privilege demanding, knowing right only themselves and their own party, and applying `
.relationship instead of regulations ' totally are forbidden

Another fact is that neither any person nor a nation nor a race should absolutely be assured of the forgiveness of Allah, nor despaired of His favour. But, the bold Jews, with those crimes they committed, inspite of having those abundant Divine signs, still knew themselves the specific friends of Allah

Slaying prophets, concealing the glad tidings upon the advent of the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.), breach of promises, perverting the heavenly Books, being afraid of entering the city, worshipping the Calf, seeking for excuses, gluttonies, and being impatient regarding the uniformity of their food (Manna and Salwa) are some examples of their crimes

Also, for the wrath of Allah upon them, there are some examples of divine retribution such as moving the mount from its place, being wandered for forty years, transformation and humiliation

 " .and Allah is All-Powerful over all things

Commentary: verse ١٩

The intermission between the time of Hadrat Messiah (Jesus Christ) (a.s.) and the .advent of Prophet Muhammad (p.b.u.h.) lasted about six hundred years

,During the time when there exists not an appointed Divine prophet the globe is not empty of Allah's Authority, because the prophets' successors have always existed. As the words of Amir-ul-Mu'mineen Ali (a.s.) indicates, the earth never lacks godly authority whether he has power or not, because the way of Allah should (not be concealed for those who want to pave it. (1)

Hence, the existence of the time of intermission between coming one prophet after
 .the former does not mean that people are left alone to themselves

O' People of the Book! Indeed Our Messenger has come to you to explain (things) to " you after a cessation of the (mission of the) messengers, lest you say: ` there did not

By the way, the intermissions, whether they are long or short, are certainly useful in the system of divine educational arrangements. There are several examples of this meaning in the length of the history of prophets. For instance: the separation of Moses (a.s.) from people, the spiritual retirement of prophets, the cease of revelation unto the Prophet Muhammad (p.b.u.h.), and minor occultation and major occultation .are some distinguished references for the idea

Commentary: verse ۲۰

,The remembrance of divine bounties is the motive of love, gratitude and worship. Now, the greatest bounties given by Allah (s.w.t.) are: the bounty of .prophecy, the bounty of government and power, and the bounty of freedom

For the invitation of people, the factor of emotion in populations should be utilized.
That is why we ought to make them prepared through reminding them the favours of .Allah (s.w.t.) before inviting them to action and assistance

(One of the responsibilities of prophets (a.s.) is reminding people of Allah's favours. (۱)

"... remember the favour of Allah..."

.However, we must take an example from the history of the past

Some of the specific bounties given to the Children of Israel are: crossing the Red Sea, the Nile, the movement of Mount Sinai, Manna and Quail coming down from heaven, the water of twelve springs, and so on.

Commentary: verse ٢١

In this verse, the Qur'ān states the process of the arrival of the Children of Israel into the holy land as follows

Moses (a.s.) told his people to arrive the holy land which Allah (s.w.t.) had assigned for them, and as for that arrival, they should not afraid of its difficulties. They were enjoined not to refrain from any self-sacrifice, because had they turned on their backs, they would have been of the losers. The Qur'ān from the tongue of Moses says:

O' my people! enter the holy land which Allah has ordained for you and do not turn " ".your backs, for then you will return (Us) losers

The objective meaning of the Qur'ānic phrase /'ard-al-muqaddas/ (the holy land) is either the whole region of ancient Shāmāt (Syria, Jordan, Palestine, etc.), or Jerusalem.

Commentary: verse ٢٢

The Arabic term /jabbār/ is derived from /jabr/ with the meaning of ` improving something accompanied with force and pressure

Yet, the term has been applied with both of these meanings: ١) to compensate, ٢) power, might, overcome. The Qur'ānic word /jabbār/ has been used as a title or an appellation for Allah (s.w.t.) with both of the above two meanings

The phrase /qaum-an-jabbārīn/ (a very arrogant race), mentioned in the above verse, refers to the people of the very tribe of ` Amāliqah from the Semitic race who were living in Sinaie desert located in the north of old Arabia. They (Amāliqah tribe) invaded Egypt and ruled there for five hundred years. \(1\)

However, the existence of some corrupted people somewhere can not be a reason for eligible persons that they retire. Enemy should be sent out. We ought not to wait .until the enemy himself goes out

They (Israelites) said: ` O' Moses! verily there is a very arrogant race in it, and verily, " we will never enter it until they get out from it. So if they get out from it, then certainly, ".we will enter

٢٣. "Two men of those that feared (Allah) whom Allah had blessed, said "

Enter against them by the gate! for when you have entered it, you will certainly be ` .victorious. So, upon Allah should you rely if you are believers

Commentary: verse ٢٣

As the Qur'ānic commentary books indicate, those two men, who are mentioned in the verse, were from among those twelve chiefs of the Israelites. They were called Yūsha` -ibn-Nūn (Joshua, the son of Nūn), and Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, whose names are mentioned in the Turah, Numbers. (١) The verse says

"Two men of those that feared (Allah) whom Allah had blessed, said "

Enter against them by the gate! for when you have entered it, you will certainly be ` .victorious

By the way, fearing God is a cause for absorbing the favours of Allah (s.w.t.) and His bounties. So, the one who is in awe of Allah (s.w.t.), does not fear any other might, and .therefore, he must rely only on Allah

"So, upon Allah should you rely if you are believers ..."

Commentary: verse ٢٤

Mecca and Jerusalem are both holy lands. When Moses (a.s.) told his people to enter it and struggle against enemy, they made a pretext and offended against his command. But, in the sixth year A.H., when the Muslims, accompanied with the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.), went toward Mecca in order to perform the rites of Umrah (lesser Pilgrimage), they would invade the city vigorously if there were not the hinderance of (.the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h

It was in this journey that the agreement of ` Hudaibiyyah peace ' was made. Yes, both those two peoples reached to the gates of two sacred cites while one of them were so coward that refused the command of their prophet, and the others were so

٢٥. "O' my Lord " He (Moses) said:

I have power over none but myself and my brother, therefore make a separation

Commentary: verse ٢٥

This verse denotes that Moses (a.s.) became completely disappointed from that crowd of people. He (a.s.) supplicated and asked Allah his separation from them, so that they would see the fruit of their deeds and try to improve themselves. He said

O' my Lord! I have power over none but myself and my brother, therefore make a `..."
".separation between us and these rebellious people

Of course, the action that the Children of Israel did was almost a kind of disbelief.
.They manifestly rejected the command of their prophet

If we recite that the Qur'ān has qualified them as `rebellious people ', it is because the Arabic word /fāsiq/ has a vast scoup of meaning which envelops any departure .from the institution of worship and servitude forty years that they will wander about in the earth, therefore do not grieve for the

Commentary: verse ٢٦

Point

The Arabic term /yatihūn/ is derived from the word /tayaha/ with the sense of ` wander '. But, in the lapse of time, the word /tiyah/ was applied for the plain of Sinai. It has also been called to the place where that group of people (the Israelites) lived for .forty years without having the material and spiritual merits of the ground

He (The Lord) said: ` So it (the Holy Land) will surely be forbidden to them for forty " years that they will wander about in the earth, therefore do not grieve for the ".rebellious people

The story of the disobedience of the Children of Israel and the Divine Wrath, and their .wandering state in Tiyah is mentioned in the Old Testament, Numbers, Chapter four

According to a tradition stated by Imam Bāqir (a.s.), after wandering for forty years and losing Moses and Aaron (a.s.), the Israelites entered the zone by a martial attack, .and their seeking comfort had no result for them but retardation and wandering

Imam Bāqir (a.s.) has said that there will occur a similar situation for Muslims, like .what happened for the Children of Israel

:The one) said: ` I shall certainly slay you!' (The other) said)

"!' verily Allah accepts only from the pious ones `

Commentary: verse ۲۷

The objective meaning of ` reciting the truth ', maybe, is an indication to the idea that the explanation of this event has been distorted in the Turah and it has been ' combined with superstitions; hence, what is stated in the Qur'ān is ` the truth

O' Prophet!) Recite to them the truth of the story of the two sons of Adam when) " they offered each a sacrifice, but it was accepted from one of them and was not

In Islamic literature and in the Turah, (Genesis, Chapter ۴, No. ۳ to it is recorded that Abel was a shepherd and he offered his best lamb as the (1), (12) sacrificial animal. But, Cain who was a farmer, brought the worst part of his agricultural product to sacrifice. The Qur'ān also says: " You will never attain (righteousness unless you spend out of what you love..." (2)

Therefore, the main principle is striving to draw near to Allah, not to simply sacrifice. Whatever the sacrificial thing may be, the criterion of the acceptance of deeds is .piety

If you stretch out your hand toward me to slay me, I am not one to stretch out my "
" ... .hand toward you to slay you

By the way, refraining from murder because of the awe of Allah (s.w.t.) is a value, not because of disability and weakness. However, piety and God-fearing is the restraining .factor from committing sin and transgression in the most sensitive circumstances

" .Verily, I fear Allah, the Lord of the Worlds ..."

٣٠. " Then his soul (through temptation of envy) facilitated to him the murder of his " brother

" .So he murdered him, and thus became one of the losers

Commentary: verses ٢٩-٣٠

Abel did not want to carry the burden of another person's sins, hence he did not take action on slaying his brother and shedding blood. Besides, he put the burden of his own sins on the killer's shoulder

Imam Bāqir (a.s.) in a tradition said: " Whoever kills a believer intentionally, Allah records all the sins upon the killer and make the slain free from them; and this is Allah's word

٢٩. " Verily I desire that you should bear my sin and your (own) sin, and so you would be "

" .of the inmates of the (Hell) Fire, and this is the recompense of the unjust

This verse does not mean, of course, that silence before a tyrant with the hope that he carries the responsibility of our sins is proper

****

One of the styles of 'forbidding from doing evil' is attracting the attention of a transgressor to the fact that besides the retribution of his own cruelties, he should suffer the burden of the sins of the oppressed, too, and his punishment will be added

However, the pure nature of man dislikes homicide, but the despotic soul makes a .parade of this action and persuades him to murder

Then his soul (through temptation of envy) facilitated to him the murder of his "
".brother. So he murdered him, and thus became one of the losers

Thus, we ought to know that the faith in Resurrection has been a part of the fundamental creed of human beings on the earth, and the very faith keeps a person
.from homicide and other crimes

Commentary: verse ٣١

It is narrated in a tradition that Imam Sādiq (a.s.) said that when Cain killed his brother, he left him in the desert, because he did not know what to do. Soon after that .the sawage rushed toward the corpse of Abel

At that time, as the Qur'ān says, Allah sent a raven to dig up the land and, by hiding the dead body of another raven, or by concealing a part of its own prey, (as it is the habit of a raven) showed Cain how to hide the corpse of his brother in the ground. The
:verse says

Then Allah sent a raven digging up the ground to show him (the murderer) how he "
"... .should cover the dead body of his brother

Next to that statement, the Qur'ān adds that at that moment Cain became worried of :his own negligence and cried Woe unto me! Am I unable to be like this raven and cover the corpse of my ` ..."

"... ' ?brother

Yet, finally he felt sorry about what he had done, but that regret was not a reference
.for his repentance from the sin

".So he became one of the remorseful..."

The Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) is narrated that he has said: " No blood of a person is shed unjustly unless there is a portion of its responsibility upon (Cain) the son of Adam (who was the first homicide as a custom)." \(1\)

.and whoever saves a life (from death), it is as if he had saved mankind as a whole

;And certainly Our messengers came to them with clear evidences

".then verily, even after that, many of them became prodigals in the earth

Commentary: verse ٣٢

:The Oneness of Human Beings

Next to the statement of the story of the Children of Adam, there has been mentioned
:a general conclusion in this holy verse which fits with humanities. At first, it says

For this reason We decreed upon the Children of Israel that whoever slays a human " being for other than manslaughter or mischief in the earth, it is as he had slain
" ... ;mankind as a whole

How is it that slaying a human being is equal to slaying all human beings, and saving a ?person is equal to saving all human beings

To answer this question, it is only possible to say that in this verse, the Qur'ān has referred to a social and training fact. The person who slays an innocent human being, has such a preparation, in fact, to kill some other innocent persons, too. This person is, indeed, a homicide whose prey is innocent human beings. And, we know that there is no difference between the innocent persons from this point of view. On the other hand, the person who, because of having the quality of philanthropy and human emotions, saves another person from death, has such a preparation to perform this sympathetic action unto any other human beings. So, regarding the fact that the Qur'ān has applied the phrase: /fa-ka-'anna-mā/ (it is as if), it seems that although the life and death of a person is not equal to the life and death of a society, it has a likeness to it Again, it can be said that in potency, there is a capability in any person to bring a great society, or a new generation, into existence. Hence annihilating a human being sometimes results to the effacement and murder of a generation

p: ३०१

It is worthy to note that once someone asked Imam Sādiq (a.s.) about the commentary of this verse when he (a.s.) answered: " The purpose of the words: ` to slay ' and ` to save from death ', which have been referred to in the verse, is saving from a fire accident, a whirlpool, and the like

Then he (a.s.) kept silent and after that he added: " A greater interpretation of this verse is that a person invites another one to the path of right or wrong and the one "accepts that invitation

At the end of the verse, the Qur'ān hints to the manner of breaking law among the Children of Israel. It says

And certainly our messengers came to them with clear evidences; then verily, even ..." after that, many of them became prodigals in the earth

The Arabic term /'isrāf/ has a vast scope of meaning in lexicon which envelops any transgression and exceeding the limits. Yet, it is often used for remittals, expenditures and expenses

The members of human beings originate from a common truth and have a single – ۱
.soul, so that they are similar to the limbs of a body

.Therefore, slaying a person is the same as killing all humankind

.The act of evaluating deeds relates to the motives and aims – ۲

Slaying a person with the intention of transgression, is putting a society into

.death; while killing under the title of retaliation is counted as the life of the society

The death and life of a person is sometimes effective in the death and life of a – ۳ society. Similarly, sometimes the individual murders prepare the ground for some .massacres

.The sign of a living society is helping the needy and saving the souls or lives – ۴

.Suicide, and even abortion, is one of the examples of ` homicide ', which is unlawful – ۵

Transgressing against the rights of an individual is a threat to the security of the – ۶ .society

The managers of the professions like physicians, nurses, fire-extinguishers, – ۷ reinforcers, makers of medicine, etc, whose job is securing the lives of human beings, .should know the position and value of their own profession

,This is a degradation for them in the world

".and in the Hereafter, they will have a grievous chastisement

Commentary: verse ٣٣

Point

Upon the occasion of revelation of this verse, it is cited that a group of pagans came into Medina and then they became Muslim. They were tired and sick, therefore, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) ordered that they would be taken in a good climate region outside Medina where they were permitted to enjoy the milk of the alms-tax camels therein. When they gained their health, they took the Muslim shepherds, who were living thereabout, and cut off their hands and feet, blinded their eyes, and plundered the .camels

They left out Islam, too. The Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) ordered that they would be captured and be treated with the same manner as they had done upon the .shepherds. Then, in this circumstance the above-mentioned verse was revealed

These retributions, which are mentioned in the verse under discussion, are counted ` rights of Allah ' and they are not forgivable and

p: ۳۰۴

(changeable. (Atyab-ul-Bayān).)

However, in order to improve the society, not only admonishment and guidance are necessary, but weapon and severe revolutionary treatment are needed. (The words in the previous verse were some educational messages and warnings unto the murderer. Now, in this verse, the statement is upon the punishment of the one who fights against Allah and makes mischief

The notable point here is that fighting against the servants of Allah is the same as fighting against Allah. So, the one who stands against people, is like that he has stood against Allah

Therefore, there have been decreed several kinds of punishment for those who disturb the security of the society. These punishments are execution, banishment, cutting off the hand and the foot, and to hang such wicked persons

.In the meantime, Islamic punishments are accompanied with justice

Since corruptions and the qualifications of the mischief-makers are different, the retributions are not the same, either. If the mischief has been committed tragically, its punishment is slaughter. But, if it is superficial, its retribution is banishment. Concerning such punishments, this fact is understood from the Islamic traditions that the retribution of homicide is execution; the retribution of terrorizing is banishment, the retribution of larceny is cutting off the hand and the foot; the retribution of murder and robbery (with arm) is cutting off the hand and the foot and being hanged. (At-Tafsīr-uş-Sāfī

Also, it is cited in Usūl-i-Kāfī that one of the meanings of the phrase 'be banished from their land' (mentioned in the verse) is throwing such a person in the sea. (Al-Kāfī, (vol. v, p. ۲۶۷

"Except those who repent before you have power over them " .٣٤

".So know you that Allah is Forgiving, Merciful

Commentary: verse ٣٤

The repentance of a mischief-maker and a person who fights against the command of Allah (s.w.t.) deserves only the retribution of threat and terrorizing, not the retribution of murder and theft. That is, repentance is effective in ` the right of Allah ' not in ` the right of people ', because the right of people depends on the content of .the possessor(s) of the right

Thus, the account of the person who fights against the command of Allah (muḥārib) is .different from that of a murderer and thief

In the meantime, the gate of repentance is open to everyone. Yet, that repentance is worthy when it is done before capturing the criminal and confronting the court. It should also be done consciously and willfully, without any compulsion. (Also, \(repentance for other sins is accepted before death\)). \(1\)

However, the Divine punishment has the aspect of training and improving upon the .individuals and the society, not as a revenge

O' you who have Faith! Be in awe of Allah, and seek the means (of nearness) to " ۳۵ ". Him; and strive hard in His way, that you may be prosperous

Commentary: verse ۳۵

Imam Amir-ul-mu'mineen Ali (a.s.) has said that the best means by which seekers of nearness to Allah, seek nearness, is the faith in Allah and His Messenger, striving in His way, (to believe) in the expression of Divine purification, the establishment of performance of Hajj (pilgrimage) of the House (i.e. Ka`bah) and `Umrah` (lesser pilgrimage), regard for kinsfolk, almsgiving secretly and openly, and extending \(benefits to people\).<sup>(۱)</sup>

Therefore, in order to reach felicity, we must both stop committing sins and perform .kinds of worship

In the meantime, doing goodnesses are wholly the means toward felicity, if we .ourselves do not waste them through our own sins

However, Ahlul-Bayt (a.s.) are the very firm cord and means of nearness to Allah .(.s.w.t

In Islamic literature, narrated from the Immaculate ones (a.s.), the term /wasīlah/ (means), mentioned in this verse, has been rendered into Imam (a.s.) (At-Tafsir-uş-Sāfī). In this regard, it is also cited in some traditions: " They are the firm ".(cord and the means to Allah (s.w.t

They would desire to get out from the Fire but they shall not get out of it, and for " ٣٧. them there is a permanent chastisement

Commentary: verses ٣٦-٣٧

To pursue the subject matter of the previous verse in which the believers are enjoined upon piety, holy struggle, and preparing the means, this verse, as the statement of reason for that commandment, points to the fate of unbelieving and filthy persons when it says

Certainly those who disbelieve, if they had what is in the earth all together and the " like of it with it, to ransom themselves with it from the punishment of the Day of Resurrection, it shall not be accepted from them, and for them there will be a painful chastisement

.The only possible way to delivery is through Faith, piety, struggle, and good deeds

Then, in the second verse (verse ٣٧), the perpetuity of this retribution is referred to. It says

They would desire to get out from the Fire but they shall not get out of it, and for "
".them there is a permanent chastisement

p: ۳۱۰

However, in the Hereafter, all the ways of deliverance are shut to the unbelievers. They enjoy neither the grace of Allah, since it is specific to the pious ones, nor the intercession, because it relates only to those with whom Allah is pleased. There is no .death therein for the disbelievers

They are permanently alive in the Fire of Hell, and their request for death is not .accepted

As for the thief, both male and female, cut off their hands as a recompense for " ٣٨ .
;what they have earned. It is an exemplary punishment from Allah
".and Allah is the Mighty, the Wise

Commentary: verse ٣٨

Point

In this verse, at first, the Qur'ān refers to the male thief and then to the female thief. But in Sura An-Nūr, verse ٢, where the ordinance of fornication has been stated, at first, the Qur'ān refers to the `adulteress' and then to the `adulterer'. The reason of it may be the fact that the function of man in theft is more effective than that of a woman, and in fornication the function of the woman is more effective

As for the thief, both male and female, cut off their hands as a recompense for what " they have earned. It is an exemplary punishment from Allah; and Allah is the Mighty, ".the Wise

About one thousand years ago, it happened that the Late Sayyid Murtādā `Alam-ul-Hudā, a well known Muslim scholar, once was asked why the hand, which deserves five hundred `mithghāl' (a weight equivalent to ٥ grams) gold as `compensation for an injury', should be cut off because of the theft of one fourth `mithghāl' gold. He answered: " Trustworthiness promotes the value of the hand, and treachery ".decreases its value

According to some Islamic traditions, the standard of cutting off the hand, for this compensation, is four fingers, so that the thumb and palm should be left safe. The amount of finance for which the hand of a thief must be cut off is at least equivalent to the price of one fourth mithghāl gold. That wealth should have been kept in a protected place, not in a common place like an inn, a public bath, a mosque and the like. The wealth ought to be given back to its owner, too, after the execution of the legal decision. Also, the thief should be aware of the law of cutting off the hand. Otherwise, his/her hand will not be cut off. Again, the hand of a thief will not be cut off if the thief steals the wealth of his/her partner, or

.steals some food stuff under necessity in the years of scarcity, and the like

Similarly, the hand of a thief will not be cut off when the theft is done by a father from his child's property, a slave from his master's wealth, a mad and a person not arrived at puberty, or the one who had thought he had the right of taking the property. There are, of course, some other retributions in all these conditions wherein the hand will .not be cut off

The holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) in a tradition said that the worst kind of larceny is stealing from prayer and performing its bowing and prostration imperfect. (١) In the statements of some Islamic saints, it has also been protested why it happens that some Muslims commit larceny in the holy phrase: /bismillah-ir-rahmān-ir-rahīm/ when .they recite Sura Al-Ḥamd

Cutting off the hand is for the first stage of theft. For the second time, the left leg will be cut off. For the third time, the retribution is life imprisonment, and annihilation is for (the fourth time. (٢)

:Explanations

To cut off the hand is the only heavy withholding compensation and retribution of -١ .theft

In executing Allah's bounds, we must not be affected by sympathy and kind - ٢ .feelings

.Besides cutting off the hand, the thief is responsible for the property, too -٣

The execution of these ordinances needs: rule, force, system, and organizations. -٤ .Thus, Islam is a religion of government and policy

Poverty is not an excuse or a permission for larceny. Islam, before cutting off the -٥ hand, emphasizes on the importance and necessity of job and running the lives of the poor by the way of Muslim public treasury, near relatives, loan without interest, (cooperation, and the like. ﴿۲﴾

The Divine retributions are not counted as revenge, but they are to be as – ۶
.withholding

".surely Allah turns to him (mercifully), verily Allah is Forgiving, Merciful

Commentary: verse ٣٩

In Islam, punishments are set beside guidance, godly training, and invitation. Through .previous verse, the retribution of a thief was stated

Here, in this verse, there exists the invitation to repentance unto Allah, forgiving, and the improvement of one's own vices, which causes that Allah returns His grace and .mercy to the servant

For the wrong-doers the gate of returning and improvement is always open. This gate is the very repentance. It should also be regarded that repentance is not only an inner .regret, but it must be accompanied with the amends of the past corruptions

If a thief repents (before being captured and being sent to the court) and gives back the property, he will be forgiven both in the world and the Hereafter. But, when it is after that he is captured, the religious punishment will be fulfilled and the function of .repentance is only for the Hereafter

Commentary: verse ٤١

Prophets Are Sympathetic unto the Misguided

The hypocrites and the Jews pursue the same goal. Their goal is the perversion of religion (Islam). Disbelievers have always some secret agents of influence and spies amongst Muslims. Therefore, religious preachers

.ought not to consider all their audience as well-intentioned listeners

In the meantime, the hypocrites not only have the worldly misfortunes (including: to hear lies, to spy, to pervert the facts, to claim faith for benefits), but also the great .punishment of the Hereafter waits for them

However, we must submit to the Truth and commandments of Allah entirely; and do .not accept only the religious legislations that correspond to our desires

:The verse says

O' Messenger! Let not those who hasten in infidelity grieve you, from among those " who (hypocritically) say with their mouths: ` We believe ', but their hearts do not believe, and from among those of the Jews who listen for (the sake of) lying, listen for other people who have not come to you. They distort the (heavenly) words from their places, saying: ` If you are given this, take it, and if you are not given this, beware! (be aloof) '; and whomever Allah desires to punish, you cannot avail him anything with Allah. Those are they whose hearts Allah does not desire to purify; there is a degradation for them in the world, and in the Hereafter, they will have a grievous ".chastisement

".verily Allah loves the just

Commentary: verse ٤٢

Some of the Jews, who had committed adultery, came to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to judge. They hoped to escape from the retribution of stoning, which exists in the religion of the Jews, \(١\) while the Islamic law for the adulterer is stoning, too. When they saw that the ordinance of Islam was the same as it was in their own religion, they did not accept it

The Arabic term /suht/, used in this verse, according to the Islamic traditions, means: ` bribery ' and the gifts given for the fulfilment of an affair. It also means: ` destruction ' or ` the thing which causes destruction

:The verse says

," (They are) listeners to (any) lie, and devour the unlawful; therefore) "

And how do they (the Jews) make you a judge, while with them is the Turah, " ٤٣. wherein is Allah's judgement? Yet they turn away after that, and those are not ".believers

Commentary: verse ٤٣

Again, this verse follows the subject of the Jews seeking judgement from the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), which was referred to in the previous verse. It surprisingly says

And how do they (the Jews) make you a judge, while with them is the Turah, wherein " "...?is Allah's judgement

It should be noted that the aforementioned decree (i.e. the decree of stoning the man and the woman who have committed adultery) is found in the present Turah, Deuteronomos, Chapter ٢٢, No. ٢١-٢٦.

:The verse continues saying

".Yet they turn away after that, and those are not believers..."

Section ٧: Relation of the Qur'ān to the previous heavenly Books

Point

Evidence from Turah The Evangel and its evidence The Qura'n's confirming the previous

.heavenly Books Now the Qur'an to be followed

٤٤- إنا أنزلنا التوراه فيها هدىً ونورٌ

يُحكّمُ بها النبيونَ الذينَ أسلموا للذينَ هادوا والرّبايئونَ والأخبارُ

بِمَا اسْتُحْفِظُوا مِنْ كِتَابِ اللَّهِ وَكَانُوا عَلَيْهِ شُهَدَاءَ

فَلَا تَخْشَوُا النَّاسَ وَخَشَوْنِ

وَلَا تَشْتَرُوا بِآيَاتِي ثَمَنًا قَلِيلًا وَمَنْ لَمْ يَحْكَمْ بِمَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ

فَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْكَافِرُونَ

Verily We have sent down the Turah, wherein is guidance and light, by which the " ٤٤. prophets, who submitted themselves (to Us), judged for those who were Jews, and (so did) the rabbis and the scholars (of divinity of the Jews) in accordance with what they were entrusted with the Book of Allah, and they were witnesses thereof. Therefore, do not dread the people, and dread (opposing) Me; and do not sell My .Signs for a little price

And whoever does not judge by what Allah has sent down, those are they that are the ".infidels

Commentary: verse ٤٤

Point

Separate from confessing upon the falsification of the Turah and the Bible, the .originality of the heavenly Books should be admired and glorified

It is true that the Turah was revealed to Moses (a.s.) and the Evangel was revealed to Jesus (a.s.), yet they have been accepted by all the prophets and the saints after them. They wholly practiced according to the ordinances of those Books

p: ۳۲۰

Thus, prophets have no commandment from their ownelves, save that they are surrendered to the commandment of Allah. Then, when the prophets are surrendered to the commandment of Allah, why should we not

Islam is the religion of all. The prophets of the Israelites have been qualified with 'submission', not with Judaism and Christianity

And, in general, the scholars of every nation are responsible for the execution of the commandments of the Lord among people. Therefore, guardianship of the jurisconsult has evidences in all religions

"... by which the prophets who submitted themselves (to Us) judged ..."

:Explanation

:The Qur'ānic word /rabbānī/ is derived from /rabbān/ which means trainer '. As some other philologists have rendered, the person qualified with ' /rabbānī/ is someone who has adjoined ' the Lord of the worlds ' and does not rest with other than Him. Such a person has become godly and has assumed the responsibility of people

The Arabic term /ḥibr/ means: ' the effect of a good action ', since scholars are the source of benevolence in the society, they are called /ḥibr/ the plural of which is //aḥbār

Verily We have sent down the Turah, wherein is guidance and light, by which the " prophets, who submitted themselves (to Us), judged for those who were Jews, and (so did) the rabbis and the scholars (of divinity of the Jews) in accordance with what they were entrusted with the Book of Allah, and they were witnesses thereof. Therefore, do not dread the people, and dread (opposing) Me; and do not sell My

.Signs for a little price

And whoever does not judge by what Allah has sent down, those are they that are the
".infidels

It is narrated from Imam Ali (a.s.) who has said: " I am the trainer of this community "

".Imam Sādiq (a.s.) also said: " Rabbānīūn are the very Imams from Ahlul-Bayt

٤٥- وَكَتَبْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ فِيهَا

أَنَّ النَّفْسَ بِالنَّفْسِ وَالْعَيْنَ بِالْعَيْنِ وَالْأَنْفَ بِالْأَنْفِ

وَالْأُذُنَ بِالْأُذُنِ وَالسِّنَّ بِالسِّنِّ وَالْجُرُوحَ قِصَاصٌ

فَمَنْ تَصَدَّقَ بِهِ فَهُوَ كَفَّارَةٌ لَهُ وَمَنْ لَمْ يَحْكَمْ بِمَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ

But whoever remits it, it shall be an expiation (of his sins) for him; and ,whoever does not judge by what Allah has sent down

" .those are they that are the unjust

Commentary: verse ٤٥

:Retaliation and Remittal

This verse explains another part of the ordinances concerning crimes and the bounds of Allah in the Turah. It denotes that Allah has assigned the law of retaliation in the Turah so that if a person intentionally murders an innocent one, the owners of blood .can retaliate instead and execute the murderer

"... ,And We prescribed for them in it that: a life is for a life "

If a person injures another one's eye and destroys it, the injured can :also destory the person's eye

" ... ,an eye for an eye..."

:He is also permitted to cut his nose instead of his own nose

" ... ,a nose for a nose..."

"... ,Instead of cutting an ear, the one can cut one ear of his: "...an ear for an ear

And, if a person breaks the tooth of another person, he can break the criminal's tooth,
:too. It says

p: ۳۲۲

"... ,a tooth for a tooth..."

:In general, every person who injures or wounds another person, it can be retaliated

"... .and for wounds (there shall be) retaliation..."

Therefore, the ordinance of retaliation should be done justly and without considering
.any difference from the point of race, social level, tribe, and personality

But, in order that no body imagines that Allah has decreed the law of retaliation as a :compulsory rigid duty, immediately next to this ordinance, it adds

"... ;But whoever remits it, it shall be an expiation (of his sins) for him ..."

That is, as much as he has remitted in that regard, Allah will remit out of his sins for
.him

:And, at the end of the verse, it says and whoever does not judge by what Allah has sent down, those are they that are ..."

".the unjust

What an unjust is greater than that we be entangled with some false affections and feelings, and dispense with the murderer absolutely by the excuse that a blood should !not be washed out by a blood

And following them We sent Jesus, son of Mary, confirming that which was " ٤٦ before him of the Turah, and We gave him the Evangel in which was guidance and light, and confirming what was before it of the Turah, and a guidance and an admonition for the pious ones "

Commentary: verse ٤٦

Following the verses concerning the Turah, this verse refers to the condition of the Evangel. It denotes that next to the former prophets, Allah sent Jesus. He (a.s.) confessed the rightfulness and legitimacy of the Turah. The signs of Jesus (a.s.) were completely adapted to those which were given in the Turah. It says

And following them We sent Jesus, son of Mary, confirming that which was before " ... ,him of the Turah

:Then, it adds

"... ,and We gave him the Evangel in which was guidance and light ..."

The acceptance of these two Books as ` light ' by the Qur'ān, is an indication to the .original Turah and the original Evangel

The verse emphasizes once more on this fact that not only Jesus, the son of Mary, confirmed the Turah, but also the Evangel, the heavenly Books, is a confirmation to :the Turah. It says

"... and confirming what was before it of the Turah..."

:Then, the holy Qur'ān concludes the verse thus

".and a guidance and an admonition for the pious ones..."

So the people of the Evangel should judge by what Allah has sent down in it, and " ٤٧. those who do not judge by what Allah has sent down, those are they that are the evil-doers".

Commentary: verse ٤٧

:Those Who Do not Judge on the Divine Law

After referring to the revelation of Evangel in the former verses, in this verse the :Qur'ān says

"... ,So the people of the Evangel should judge by what Allah has sent down in it "

The objective meaning of this statement is that: after the revelation of Evangel to Jesus (a.s.), Allah ordered the followers of it to act accordingly and judge by what He .had sent down in it

:Then, at the end of the verse, it emphasizes again and says and those who do not judge by what Allah has sent down, those are they that are ..." .the evil-doers

.confirming that which was before it of the Book and as a guardian over it

Therefore judge between them by what Allah has sent down and do not follow their ;vain desires against the truth that has come to you for every one of you We appointed a law and a (clear) way. And if Allah had pleased, He would have made you (all) a single community, but He might try you in what He has .given you

;Therefore strive you excelling one another in virtuous deeds unto Allah is the return of you all, and then He shall inform you of that in which you

".used to differ

Commentary: verse ٤٨

Point

After pointing to the Books of the former prophets, there is an indication in this verse to the situation of the Qur'ān, the signs of which adapt to what has been recorded in :the former heavenly Books. At first, it says

And We have sent down unto you the Book with the truth, confirming that which was "
"... before it of the Book and as a guardian over it Fundamentally, all the heavenly Books are paralleled in principles, and their pursue is the same goal, i.e. training and improving the human

p: ۳۲۶

.race

,Then it commands that since it is such

"... ,Therefore judge between them by what Allah has sent down..."

Next to that, it adds not to follow those who intend to adapt the Divine ordinances to :their own desires. It says

"...;and do not follow their vain desires against the truth that has come to you..."

:To complete this discussion, it says

"... .for every one of you We appointed a law and a (clear) way ..."

Then, it continues saying about the power of Allah (s.w.t.) and that He might try you in :order that your different talents be trained. The holy verse says

And if Allah had pleased, He would have made you (all) a single ..."

"... .community, but He might try you in what He has given you

Finally, the Qur'ān addresses all the nations and races and invites them all that instead of spending their powers and capacities in conflicts and discords, they should :pay to doing good. It says

"... ;Therefore strive you excelling one another in virtuous deeds..."

:Then, it points to the reason of that righteous work, and says

,unto Allah is the return of you all ..."

".and then He shall inform you of that in which you used to differ

:Explanation

; ' The Arabic term /šir` ah/ means: ` law, a way which leads to water and the meaning of the term /minhāj/ is: ` a clear way '. Ibn-Abbās has said that : /šir`ah/ means: ` the ordinances that have come in the Qur'ān, but /minhāj/ is that (which has come in the practice of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.)). (Mufradāt Rāqib

But if they turn back, then know that Allah desires to afflict them for " .some of their sins, and surely, many of the people are evil-doers

Occasion of Revelation verse ٤٩

It has been narrated from Ibn-Abbas that a group of the great men of the Jews once plotted and decided to go to the Prophet Muhammad (p.b.u.h.) with the hope that they might be able to change him from his creed. With this planning they came to the :Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and said

We are the wealthy and the learned men of the Jews. If we follow you, other Jewish " people also will imitate us. But, there is a conflict between us and another group (about a murder or something else). If you judge in this conflict for our benefit, we will believe in you." The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) refrained from such a judgement (which was .not just), and the above verse was revealed

Commentary: verse ٤٩

:In this verse, Allah emphasizes again on the judgement of His Messenger and says

So judge between them by what Allah has sent down, and do not follow their vain " "... ,desires

:Then, He warns the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) about their plot by saying and beware of them lest they beguile you from part of what Allah has sent down to..."

"... .you

:Then, the statement continues saying

"... ,to afflict them for some of their sins

Commentary: verse ٥٠

:The best law is the one whose legislator is qualified with the following conditions

١- To be aware of all the secrets of the world of existence and those of man, both for .the present and future

٢- .The legislator should have no aim of gaining profits

٣- .He should not have any fault of any kind, whether intentional or unintentional

٤- .He might not be afraid of any power

?These conditions are gathered in Allah. And, who is better than Allah to judge

That is why those who, having the Divine laws available for them, refer to the laws
.made by human beings, pave the path of paganism and infidelity

Therefore, any law of man, which contrasts the law of Allah, is considered as the law of pagans. The reason is that these laws of man have been legislated on the basis of vain desires, fears, avarices, ignorances, mistakes, and imaginations. We must also know that ignorance does not belong to only a period. Whenever people separate .from the law of Allah, that time is the period of ignorance

.May Allah protect us all from aberration

Section ۸: The relation of the Muslims with their opponents

Point

To treat the Jews and Christians as enemies Only Allah and His Messenger and those who believe, establish prayer and give the poor-rate are the Guardians of the Muslims

۵۱- يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا

لَا تَتَّخِذُوا الْيَهُودَ وَالنَّصَارَىٰ أَوْلِيَاءَ بَعْضُهُمْ أَوْلِيَاءُ بَعْضٍ

وَمَنْ يَتَوَلَّهُمْ مِنْكُمْ فَإِنَّهُ مِنْهُمْ

۵۱. "O' you who have Faith! do not take the Jews and the Christians for friends. They are friends of each other. And whoever among you takes them for friends, then surely he is one of them. Verily Allah does not guide the unjust people

Commentary: verse ۵۱

.To Dissociate from Enemy is the Condition of Faith

Those Islamic governments who have the relation of friendship and accepting the sovereignty of the infidels are counted among them

"... And whoever among you takes them for friends, then surely he is one of them ..."

In foreign relations and policy, mastership and domination of infidels over Muslims is forbidden, because the Holy Qur'ān explicitly has absolutely prohibited any domination, of any kind, over Muslims, although it may be under the name of experienced, specialist, expert, attache and tourist. The verse says

O' you who have Faith! do not take the Jews and the Christians for " friends. They are friends of each other. And whoever among you takes them for ".friends, then surely he is one of them. Verily Allah does not guide the unjust people

In the meantime, mentioning the Jews and the Christians in the verse is for giving
.examples of this meaning, and no mastership of any infidel should be accepted

It is understood, of course, from some other verses of the Qur'ān that enjoying the food staff produced by infidels, which are not from the animal flesh, and bargaining with them are allowed, because none of them is rendered into the sense of accepting .the sovereignty of infidels

Commentary: verse ٥٢

In this verse, the Holy Qur'ān points to the pretexts that some sickly people chose for justification of their unlawful relations with the non-Muslim foreigners. The verse implies that those in whose hearts there is sickness persist to take them as their own refuge and their confederate

Their pretext is that they say they fear that the authority and power be in the :foreigners' hand and they be fallen in calamity. Here is the verse

But you will see those in whose hearts is disease hastening towards them, saying: "
"...'.We fear lest a calamity should befall us

In answer to them, the Qur'ān says that just as they think that some day the authority and power may be in the hand of the Jews and the Christians, they should also consider that Allah may bring a victory for the Muslims and they take the authority and power in their own hand, so that these hypocrites be regretful for what they hid in :their hearts. The verse says

And it may be that Allah brings about a victory or (some) thing from Himself (for the ..."

".Their (good) deeds failed and they themselves became losers

Commentary: verse ٥٣

The final fate of the disbelievers is pointed out in this verse. It points to the time when the true believers gain the victory and the act of the hypocrites is made manifest. Then the believers will surprisingly say whether these hypocrites are the same people who had so many claims and intensively swore that they were with the believers. Why :did their final fate become like that? The verse says

And those who believe will say: ` Are these they who swore by Allah with the most "
"...! ?forcible of their oath that they were most surely with you

Then, as a result of the same hypocrisy, all their good deeds became invalid, because they had not originated from a pure intention and a sincere source. That was why :they became of the losers both in this world and in other world. It says

stern against infidels, they strive in the way of Allah, and do not fear the scorn of any ;blamer. This is the grace of Allah. He gives it to whom He desires

".and Allah is All-Embracing, All-Knowing

Commentary: verse ٥٤

After the statement upon the hypocrites, the words are about some apostates who, according to the prediction of the Qur'ān, turn away from this sacred religion. As a general rule, it warns all the Muslims that if any one of them turns away from his religion he does not harm Allah, His religion, Muslim society, and their rapid process of progression, because He will soon bring forward a group of people to support this :religion. The verse itself says

O' you who have Faith! whoever of you turns away from his religion (he does not " ... harm Allah, since) soon Allah will bring (forward) a people

Then the Qur'ān explains the qualities of those who must undertake this great :mission, as the followings

.They love Allah and think of nothing but His pleasure –١

"... ,whom He loves and who love Him..."

They are humble and kind unto the believers while they are ۲-۳

p: ۳۳۵

.mighty, stern, and forceful against the enemies and tyrants

"... ,stern against infidels ..."

.Striving in the way of Allah is their constant program –۴

Verily, verily your guardian ( waliyy) is only Allah and His Messenger and those " ٥٥ ,who believe

" .(those who establish prayer and pay the poor-rate while bowing down (in prayer

Commentary: verse ٥٥

Point

It has been cited in the occasion of revelation of the above verse that a beggar entered the Mosque of the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) and asked people for a charity. Nobody gave him anything. Ali-Ibn-Abi-Tālib (a.s.) pointed his finger to him while he was bowing in the prayer, and he (a.s.) remitted his ring to that beggar. In .honouring of this remital, the above verse was revealed

The explanation of the above event has been narrated by ten people among the companions of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), like: Ibn-Abbās, `Ammār, Jābir-ibn-`Abdillah, 'Abūthar, 'Anas-ibn-Mālik, Bilāl, and so on. The scholars of both schools of Sunni and .Shī` ah have confirmed this occasion of revelation

Ammār-Yāsir says that it was after the remital of the ring and the revelation of the ` :holy verse that the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) once said

(The one upon whom I am master, then this Ali is his master. " (Al-Mizān "

The holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) recited this verse in Qadīr-i-Khum in order to state the (position of Hadrat Ali (a.s.). (Aṣ-Ṣāfi Ali-ibn-Abi-Ṭālib (a.s.) himself repeatedly recited this verse for his own rightfulness. .((Aṣ-Ṣāfi Abūthar, who himself witnessed the event, explained what occurred for the people` in details in the Sacred Mosque. (Majma`-ul-Bayān). Almost all the authentic commentary books, compiled by both Sunni and

.Shī` ah commentators, have recorded the event

The term /waliyy/, mentioned in this verse, does not mean ` friend ' and ` helper ' here, since friendship and helping refers to all the Muslims, not to those who give charity while bowing down in prayer. According to the Islamic traditions, the purpose of it is only Ali-ibn-Abī-Tālib (a.s.), and the application of the plural form of the verb /āmanū / for a singular subject is for the importance of the one. A similar case is found in the verse of ` mutual cursing ' where it says / 'anfusanā wa 'anfusakum / (our selves (and your selves

In the meantime, many Islamic scholars and the commentators of the Qur'ān have said that the objective meaning of the word / waliyy /, mentioned in the above verse, ' is / wilāyah / in the sense of: ` guardianship and ` material and spiritual personal initiative ' and ` leadership '. In particular, this guardianship has been ordered in the same row of the guardianship of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and the guardianship of Allah, and these three are stated in one sentence

Thus, this verse is one of the verses that, as a Qur'ānic text, indicate to mastership (and Imamate of Ali-ibn-AbīTālib (a.s

:Explanations

Islam is the religion of both association and disassociation, i.e. attraction and (repulsion (polarization

In the previous verses, the Jews and the Christians were prohibited to be chosen as masters. Here, in this verse, the commandment is that we take and follow Allah (s.w.t.), the Messenger (p.b.u.h.), and Ali (a.s.) as our masters

The essence of mastership of Allah, the Messenger, and Hadrat Ali (a.s.) is the same, (and it is essentially one in nature as well as in effect

That is why the verse says : / waliyyukum / (your guardian) in a singular form, not /

.'auliā'ukum / (your guardians) in plural form

The terms of prayer and alms-tax (charity) are usually mentioned in the Qur'ān .۳ beside each other, but, in this verse, they are mixed with together, (giving alms-tax
. (while bowing down in prayer

Those who are not among the performers of prayer and alms-tax .۴

.have not the right of guardianship and leadership over people

In order to help the deprive, they do not consider even their prayer as a barrier. The .Δ mass of Muslims should not be inattentive to a poor so that he leaves them dejected
.and disappointed

Heeding the created beings, in the cause of Allah, does not harm the sincerity. .ϕ ((Alms-tax while bowing down

People minus Allah is Marksism, and Allah minus people is monasticism, but people) (.alongside the path of Allah is the method of Islam

The person who is inattentive to the sigh of the poor should not be your leader and .ν

.Some particular insignificant things (like charity) do not invalidate prayer .Λ

The Qur'ān has counted the freewill offering (recommendable charity) and the ring .Ϡ
.even as poor-rate

"... and pay the poor-rate ..."

Guardianship over Muslims belongs firstly to Allah (s.w.t.), secondly to the Prophet .ϡ (.p.b.u.h.), and then to the Immaculate Imam and after that to jurisconsult

The best kind of introduction is that in which the qualities and characteristics of a .ϣ

****

And whoever takes for (his) guardian Allah and His Messenger and those who " ٥٦. believe (should know that he is victorious, because) surely the party of Allah are " .Triumphant

Commentary: verse ٥٦

This verse is a complement for the content of the previous verse. It emphasizes and pursues its meaning. It informs the Muslims that those who accept the guardianship of Allah (s.w.t.) and the Messenger (p.b.u.h.) and the believing persons whom were referred to in the previous verse, will become victorious, because they will be involved .in the party of Allah, and the party of Allah are indeed the victors

:The verse says

And whoever takes for (his) guardian Allah and His Messenger and those who " believe (should know that he is victorious, because) surely the party of Allah are " .Triumphant

In this verse, there is another frame of reference upon guardianship, to which was referred in the previous verse. The application of the phrase / hizbullah / (the party of Allah) and its ` triumph ' relates to the Islamic government, not to a simple and ordinary friendship. This itself indicates that the term / wilāyah / in the verse leads to the sense of guardianship, government, and governorship of Islam and the Muslims. The evidence is that in the meaning of ` the party of Allah ' there lies a kind of .formation, organization and society for securing the common goals

Commentary: verse ٥٧

The worldly retribution of the act of mockery and sacrilege unto the religion of Allah and profanity, is rupture of relations. Mocking the religion is a job of disbelievers. So, the condition of having Faith is having the religious zeal and dissociating from the .vicious

٥٨. "And when you call to prayer they take it in mockery and play "

" .That is because they are a people who do not apply reason

Commentary: verse ٥٨

Following the previous discussion upon the prohibition of friendship with the hypocrites and a party of the People of the Book who mock the commandments of Islam, this verse points to one of their deeds as an evidence. It implies that when the prayer call is recited and the Muslims are called to prayer, the hypocrites and some of the People of the Book mock it. Here is the verse

" ... And when you call to prayer they take it in mockery and play "

This Fact should be noted that ' prayer ' is the feature and the sample of the religion. Thus, here, taking prayer in mockery means taking the feature of the religion in mockery. Hence, the prayer call should be recited so that the crowd of Muslims gather, and prayer be established quite open

In Islamic society, prayer call must be recited loudly and be preached, but it should not be troublesome; of course

In conclusion, this point is clear that the style of the wise is that they face the affairs logically while the imprudent, those who have not reason, are the makers of mockery.

:The verse says

" .That is because they are a people who do not apply reason ... "

Occasion of Revelation: verse ٥٩

Upon the Occasion of Revelation of the above verse and the verse after that, it has been narrated from Ibn-Abbas that a group of the Jewish people came to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and asked him to describe his creeds for them. Then, the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: " I believe in Allah and in what have been revealed to Abraham, Ismael, Issac, Jacob, Moses, Jesus, and all Divine Prophets, and I separate none of them from ".the others

".They said: " We do not know Jesus and do not accept him as a prophet

Then they added that they knew no religion worse than their religion (the Prophet's .religion). It was at that time that this holy verse was revealed and answered them

Commentary: verse ٥٩

In this verse, Allah (s.w.t.) orders Prophet Muhammad (p.b.u.h.) to ask the People of the Book why they found faults with them and criticized them for any reason, save that they had believed in Allah (s.w.t.) and submitted to what was sent down to them .and to the prophets before them clarification of the previous sentence. It, from the tongue of Muslims and addressing the People of the Book, denotes that if you object us upon the pure theism and sincere submission we have unto all the heavenly Books, it is because most of you are evil-doers and have polluted with sins. Thus, since you yourselves are polluted and deluded, then whoever are purified and pave the right path, in your point of view, their manner is blemish

:The verse says

Commentary: verse ٦٠

In this holy verse, some perverted creeds and some wrong deeds of the People of the Book, resulted to the inflictions they were faced with, are compared with the situation of the true Muslim believers, in order to make clear which of these two groups deserve to be blamed and criticized. This is, indeed, a logical answer which is used for the stubborn and fanatic persons to become mindful. In this comparison, it addresses the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to tell them whether the person who believes in Allah and the heavenly Books deserves to be criticized and blamed, or the wrong actions of those whose retribution of their deed is worse than that with Allah

:The verse says

" ...?Say: ` Shall I inform you of (him who is) worse than that in retribution, with Allah "

:Then, it explains this subject when it says (Worse are those) whom Allah has cursed and brought His wrath upon, and He)... " turned some of whom into apes and swine, and worshippers of Tāghūt (false deity).

In order to complete the discussion about the hypocrites among the People of the Book, in this verse it makes their inner hypocrisy manifest and announces it to the :Muslims as such

And when they come to you, they say: ` We believe ' ; while certainly they have "
"...;entered in with infidelity, and certainly they have gone out with it

And, at the end of the verse, it warns them that in spite of all these concealments,
:Allah is aware of what they hide. It says

" .and Allah knows best what they were hiding ... "

And you will see many of them striving with one another to hasten in sin and " ٦٢ .transgression and their devouring the unlawful
" .Verily, evil is what they have been doing

Commentary: verse ٦٢

In the previous verse, the words were about their infidel spirit; and, here, the .statement is about their ethical, social, and economical corruptions

In this verse, the Qur'ān refers to some other signs of their hypocrisy. As a part of the :signs, it says

And you will see many of them striving with one another to hasten in sin and " " ... .transgression and their devouring the unlawful

That is, they so act in the way of sin and cruelty that as if they go forward unto some honourable goals, and without any shame or modesty, they try to precede one .another

Therefore, preceding in corruption is found in the feature of the society of infidelity .and hypocrisy. But, the feature of the Islamic society is precedence in good deeds

Similarly, the main goals and ideal of the hypocrites is: lust, wealth, might, usury, .bribery, enmity, and sinfulness

Worse than that manner is that they openly show their committing sin and being .involved in it

And, at the end of the verse, in order to emphasize on the indecency condition of their :deeds and that they continue to perform them, the holy Qur'ān says

" .Verily, evil is what they have been doing ... "

٦٣- لَوْلَا يَنْهَاهُمْ الرَّبَّائِثُونَ وَالْأَخْبَارُ عَنْ قَوْلِهِمُ الْإِثْمَ

وَأَكْلِهِمُ السُّحْتَ لَبِئْسَ مَا كَانُوا يَصْنَعُونَ

Why do not the learned men and the doctors of law prohibit them (the people) " ٦٣ .
?from uttering sinful words and devouring the unlawful
" .Verily evil is what they have been working

Commentary: verse ٦٣

Then, in this holy verse, the attack is targeted at the learned men of such societies
.who, by their own silence, encourage them to committing sin
:It says

Why do not the learned men and the doctors of law prohibit them (the people) from "
" ... ?uttering sinful words and devouring the unlawful

That is, in order to improve an immoral society, the knowledgeable men among them must change their incorrect thoughts and creeds. Thus, the verse shows the style of improving an immoral society to the learned people that they must begin with mental .revolution

And, at the end of the verse, the Qur'ān has blamed the indifferent scholars who remain silent and those who abandon 'enjoining right and forbidding wrong' in the :same level that it has blamed the evil-doers, where it says

" .Verily evil is what they have been working ... "

Thus, it becomes clear that the fate of those who do not perform the great duty of 'enjoining right and forbidding wrong', specially when they are among scholars and learned ones, is equivalent with the fate of the sinners. They have, indeed, a share of .their crime

Ibn-Abbās, the famous commentator, has been narrated from that he used to say: "

This verse is the most intensive verse which scorns and blames the undutiful and " .indifferent scholars

It is evident that this command does not pertain exclusively to the silent scholars of the Jews and the Christians. It encompasses all the mental leaders and scholars who sit silent at the time that people become polluted with committing sin and go forward in the path of injustice and

p: ۳۴۸

.corruption, because the law of Allah is the same for all human beings

In a tradition from Imam Ali (a.s.), mentioned in Sermon No. ۱۹۲, we recite that he has
:said

because Allah, the Glorified, did not curse the past age except for that they had ... "
.left off enjoining the right and forbidding the wrong

In fact, Allah cursed the foolish for committing sins and the wise because they gave " ... .up refraining others from evils

In other words, this part of the sermon means that former nations were destroyed for their committing sins and that their wise men did not forbid people from evils. At this .time the misfortunes and divine retributions came down over them

Then, o' people! beware to do ` enjoining right and forbidding wrong' so that you may .not have a similar fate of theirs, either

Commentary: verse ٦٤

One of the clear examples of the vain statements and sinful words of the Jews, which were generally referred to in the previous verse, has been pointed out in this verse

Its explanation is that history shows that once the Jews were living in a very powerful state. They were ruling over a vast part of the inhabited world of that era, of which the time of David and Solomon, son of David, can be mentioned as an example. In the time after that, too, their authority continued to be exposed with some changes, of course

But, with the advent of Islam, the light of the star of their power declined especially in
.Mecca and Medina

,The Prophet's fights against the Jewish tribes known as Banī-Nadīr

p: ۳۵۰

Banī-Ghurayzah, and the Jews of Kheybar caused them to become very weak. At this time, considering their past glory, authority and power, some of them mockingly said that Allah's hand was tied up with chains and would not give them anything

Since the rest of them (those Jewish people) were content with them, too; the Qur'ān has attributed this qualification to all of them, by saying

" ... !And the Jews have said: ` The hand of Allah is tied up "

In answer to them, and in order to blame and reproach such a wrong belief, at first, Allah says

" ... .Be their hands tied up! and cursed be they for what they have said ... "

:Then, to nullify this unjust opinion, the Qur'ān says

.Nay, both His hands (of Power) are (always) spread out. He bestows as He pleases ... "

Allah is neither forced in His affairs, nor is He obliged to the natural phenomena or the momentum of time; but His Will is above every thing and effective in all affairs

Then, it implies that even these verses, that make the secret of their statements and opinions manifest, in stead of having a positive effect on them and turning them back from the wrong path, cause many of them to become rather stubborn and also to increase their rebelliousness and faithlessness. The verse says

And what has been sent down to you from your Lord will certainly increase many ... "

" ... ;of them in insolence and infidelity

But, for these unjust statements and opinions that they utter, and the obstinacy that they have in the way of disobedience and disbelief, Allah has assigned a heavy chastisement for them in this world. He (s.w.t.) in this verse says

... .and We have cast enmity and hatred between them till the Day of Resurrection ... "

And, by the last part of the verse, the Qur'ān points to the struggles and efforts of the Jews for kindling the flames of war. It also points to the grace of Allah in protecting :and rescuing the Muslims from these annihilating flames, where it says

" ... .Everytime they kindle a fire for war, Allah extinguishes it ... "

p: ۳۵۱

And, in fact, this divine incident is one of miraculous aspects of the life of the Prophet

Commentary: verse ٦٥

The Qur'ān follows, here, the former criticisms upon the manner and style of the People of the Book. In this verse and the verse next to it, as the training principles require, and in order to bring back the mischievous People of the Book to the straight path and admiring that minority of them who did not cooperate with them in their evil deeds, the Qur'ān, at first, says

And if the People of the Book had believed and kept from evil, We would certainly " " ... have remitted their sins

They not only will be forgiven of their sins but also will be admitted into gardens of Paradise which are the center of kinds of blessings. The Holy Qur'ān says

Commentary: verse ٦٦

If the followers of heavenly Books other than the Holy Qur'ān had submitted to the Qur'ān, and had not imagined that surrendering to the Qur'ān is the submission of the Children of Israel to Arabs, and had realized that the prophets' principles of teachings are all alike, and that having faith in what was revealed after the Turah and Evangel is a promotion to the higher class of belief not negating the former instructions, then, besides enjoying of the concerning merits in Hereafter, they would have received
.varieties of bounties in this very world, too

In the preceding holy verse, the function of Faith in the spiritual felicity of the other life was referred to, but here, in the verse under discussion, its function in the worldly :prosperity and economic welfare has been stated. The verse says

And if they had kept up the Turah and the Evangel and what was sent down to them "

In the previous verse, the words were about the belief of the Jews saying that: " The heavenly Books and then judge whether the hand of Allah is tied up or not. The reason

.Appointment of the Successor as the Final Point of Prophetic Mission

In this verse, only the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is addressed. It states but his duty. The text of the verse begins with " O' Messenger! " and continues explicitly and emphatically :commending him such

" ... ;convey what has been sent down to you from your Lord ... "

Then, for a further emphasis it warns him that if he refrains doing that, (that never :might he refrain), he has not conveyed His message to people at all. The verse says

" ... ;and if you do not, then you have not conveyed His message (at all ... "

After that, the revelation consoles the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), as if he was anxious and worried about a particular incident, and tells him not to be afraid of people for :performing this duty. It says

" ... ,and Allah will protect you from the (vice of) people ... "

And, at the end of the verse, as a threat and punishment unto those who reject or deny this peculiar message and pertinaciously blaspheme it, the verse

:says

" .Verily Allah does not guide the unbelieving ones ... "

Truely, what an important subject there existed in the latest months of the Prophet's life that in the above-mentioned verse the lack of its conveyance has been counted
.equivalent with the lack of messengership wholly

In different books of the scholars of both Sunnite and Shi`ah schools of thought, there are many authentic traditions recorded to say that the above-mentioned verse has been revealed at Qadīr-i-Khum about the appointment of the successor for the \(Prophet \(p.b.u.h.\) and the future fate of Islam and Muslims. \(1

In the last year of the Prophet's life the rites of Hajjat-ul-Widā` were very gloriously
. (performed at the presence of the Prophet (p.b.u.h

In this journey, not only the inhabitants of Medina accompanied the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.), but also Muslims of different parts of Arabia took part in the pilgrimage with .the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to gain a great historical honour and credit

The sun of Arabia was showering heat as fire over mounts and valleys. But the sweetness of this spiritual journey made everything easy for the pilgrims of Mecca. It was nearly noon. The land of Juhfeh and, behind it, the hot dry deserts of Qadīr-i-
.Khum were showing themselves from a distance

It was on Thursday in the tenth A.H. (anno Hijira), just eight days after the Day of .Sacrifice. Suddenly the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) ordered halt to the marching caravan

The Prophet's Mu'azzin invited people to noon prayer with a loud voice of ` Allahu-Akbar '. People became ready for prayer while the weather was so hot that men had to put one side of their shoulder-mantles on the ground under their feet and another
.side of it over their heads when establishing prayer

When the noon prayer was established, people were going to go immediately into their small tents which they were carrying with them to shelter therein. But the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) informed them that everybody should attend to hearken a new .Divine message. Then he announced that message through a full described sermon

Those people who were standing in a distance from the Prophet

(p.b.u.h.) to listen to his lecture could not see him from behind the crowd)

Therefore, a pulpit was prepared from the seats used at the back of the camels. The holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) mounting the pulpit praised Allah and sought protection from Him. Then he addressed the huge crowd of people and said Soon I am going to depart from among you by accepting the invitation of Allah. I am " responsible, and you are responsible, too

" ?How do you bear witness about me

:The audience shouted saying

We bear witness that certainly you have conveyed (the mission of messengership), " advised (the circumstance of benevolence) and strived (to guide us). May, then, Allah " .reward you goodness

:Then he (p.b.u.h.) questioned

Do you not bear witness to Unity of Allah, my messengership, the rightfulness of the " " ?Day of Resurrection, and raising the dead on that Day

The crowd answered: " Yes, We confess." The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: " O' Lord! Be ".witness Again, he (p.b.u.h.) said: " O' people! Do you hear me? ... " The audience answered positively, and then a silence dominated throughout the desert, so that there was .heard nothing but the sound of the wind

The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: " Now, look how do you treat with these two weighty and " ?worthy things that I leave among you

A voice from among the crowd asked the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) what those two worthy .things were

The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) immediately said: " The first is the Greater Weight ', the Qur'aĒn, whose one end is in Allah's hand and another end is in your hand. Never abandon it lest you might get astray! The second worthy thing is my progeny, my Ahlul-Bayt. And verily Allah, the Subtle, the Aware, informed me that never, never, will these too get separated from each other until they meet me at Heaven. Do not anticipate them both, because you will be perished; and be not behind-hand of those ".two, for you will be perished, too

At that time, people saw that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was looking round as if he was looking for someone. As soon as he saw Ali (a.s.), he leaned over and took his hand and raised it up so high that the whiteness of their arms appeared. All the crowd saw him (a.s.) and recognized him that he is the very ever-victorious officer of Islam. Here, the Prophet's voice became louder and more audible when he said

" O' people! who is superior (or the Master) among the people to the believers more " " ?than their own selves

" .They said: " Allah and the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) know better

The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: " Allah is my master, and I am the master over the believers, and I am superior to them more than their own selves (my decision is " .(superior to their decision

:Then he (p.b.u.h.) added

To whomever I am the Maulā (the master) this Ali is his Maula (the master)." And he " repeated this statement three times, or, as some narrators of the traditions have .cited, he repeated it four times

:After stating this commandment, he looked up towards heaven and prayed, saying

" O' Allah! Be You a friend to him who is a friend to him (Ali) and (Be You) as enemy to " .(him who is enemy to him (i.e. Ali

Then he (p.b.u.h.) said to the audience: " Beware that all of you who are present " .should communicate this news to those who are absent

The Prophet's sermon was completed while sweat was showering from the faces of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), Ali (a.s.) and all people there because of the heat. Before separating the rows of the pilgrims, Rūh-ul-'Amīn (Gabriel) came down and revealed :(.this holy verse to the Prophet (p.b.u.h

This day have I perfected your religion for you and have I completed My bounties..." \(on you and am pleased your religion to be Islam. ..." \(1

The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: " Allah is the Greatest! Allah is the Greatest upon the perfection of religion and completion of favour, and the Lord became pleased with my

At this time there arose a sound of pleasure and uproar amongst people, and they congratulated this position to Ali (a.s.). Two people, out of those famous ones in the gathering who felicitated Ali (a.s.), were Abu-Bakr and `Umar. It was at the presence of the crowd when they one after another uttered in their Arabic tongue: " Bakhkhin bakhkhin laka yabna Abī-Tālib. Aşbahta wa amsayta Moulāee wa Maulā kulle Mu'minin wa Mu'minah " (Hurrah, Hurrah, O' son of Abū-Tālib! You have now become my Maula (master) and the Maula (master) of every (believing man and believing woman

This report is a brief explanation of the Qadīr-i-Khum which has been recorded in the scholars' books of both Sunnie and Shi`ites

:An Explanation

All of the Shi`ite commentators basing on Ahlul-Bayt's traditions, and also as some Sunnite commentators, like Fakhr-i-Rāzī and the author of Almanār have cited that this verse is related to the mastership (wilāyah) of Ali-ibn Abī-Ṭālib and the event in Qadīr-i-Khum

The style of the tone and address of the verse distinguishes this holy verse from the verses before and after it. It is only in this verse throughout the Qur'ān that the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) has been threatened due to the concealment of message. It announces that if he does not convey that message, it is as if what he has conveyed during all the years of his messengership will be reduced to nothing. Therefore, it must be noted what an important message it is which has been stated there and in that manner

It is a message that , from the point of significance, is equivalent with all the Divine messages of the whole period of his prophethood and messengership. That message is the mastership, Imamate, and leadership of Ali-ibn-Abī-Talīb (a.s.) from the side of Allah

وَمَا أُنزِلَ إِلَيْكُمْ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ

وَلَيَزِيدَنَّ كَثِيرًا مِنْهُمْ مَا أُنزِلَ إِلَيْكَ مِنْ رَبِّكَ طُغْيَانًا وَكُفْرًا

Commentary: verse ٦٨

It is necessary to believe in all the heavenly Books, and a mere claim of belief is not sufficient. Practice and establishment of action for Faith is indispensable. Thus, the .person who does not practise his Faith has no religion

The personality and value of individuals is estimated by the level of their action on the .religious duties

Infidelity and obstinacy of persons do not harm the Islamic system and ideology, but .they themselves incur its harm. Allah is the protector of the religion Say: ` O' People of the Book you follow naught (no true religion) till you keep up the "

;Turah and the Evangel and what has been sent down unto you from your Lord and surely that which has been sent down to you from your Lord (the Qur'ān) shall
.increase many of them in insolence and infidelity

".So do not grieve for the unbelieving ones

It is evident, of course, that the content meaning of this verse is not

p: ۳۶۲

allocated to the Jews. If the Muslims suffice only to the claim of Islam, too, and do not establish the prophets' principles of training, and their own heavenly Book in particular, they will have neither any rank and value with Allah nor in their own .personal and social life. So, they will always be helpless, inferior and defeated

Verily those who believed, and those of the Jews and the Sabians and the " ٦٩ Christians, whoever believed in Allah and the Last Day
".and worked righteousness no fear shall be upon them, nor shall they grieve

Commentary: verse ٦٩

Point

The verse relates to the Faith and the deeds of the followers of those religions mentioned in the verse at their own concerning times. Then, with the advent of a new religion, they should believe in the new Divine law, else the appointment of the successive prophets seems useless. Then, either of the Jews, the Christians, and others should believe in Islam like Muslims and act righteously. It is in that case that they will have no fear nor any grief

Verily those who believed, and those of the Jews and the Sabians and the Christians, " whoever believed in Allah and the Last Day, and worked righteousness no fear shall "be upon them, nor shall they grieve

All the heavenly religions prove that the criterion of felicity is both ` Faith and righteous deed ', not the bare claims and names or slogans

Thus, Faith is not separate from action; and tranquility and security are found due to them both

:Explanation

?What is the Objective Meaning of the Sabians

Some commentators have said that they are a group of people whose religion has been taken from those of the Jews and Christians. Some others have said that they believe in Noah (a.s.) and do not believe in all prophets after him. But, as Imam Ridā (a.s.) has said, the Sabians are some formerly worshippers who repented and believed in both `The Origin

\(and the End ' , and did righteous deeds, too. \(1

Certainly We took a covenant from the Children of Israel and We sent " ٧٠. messengers to them. Whenever there came to them a messenger with what their souls did not desire, some of them they would deny and some (of them) they would "slay.

Commentary: verse ٧٠

In Sura Al-Baqarah No. ٢ and at the beginning of this current Sura, Al-Mā'idah, there is a hint to the firm covenant that Allah has taken from the Children of Israel. In the above verse, too, this covenant is referred to again. It implies that Allah took covenant from the Children of Israel to do according to what He sent down. And, He appointed some messengers for them to guide them and to demand the fulfilment of this :covenant from them. It says

Certainly We took a covenant from the Children of Israel and We sent messengers " "... to them

Then the verse continues implying that they not only did not do upon this covenant but also whenever a messenger brought a Divine commandment to them which contrasted their wishes and low desires, they committed the worst and the strongest struggle against him. They denied some of these prophets, while they killed those :prophets whose influence they could not hinder. It says

Whenever there came to them a messenger with what their souls did not desire, ..." some of them they would deny and some (of them) they would slay

And they (the Jews) imagined that there would be no affliction, so they became " blind and deaf (unto the Truth); then Allah turned to them mercifully; but again many ".of them became blind and deaf; and Allah sees what they do

Commentary: verse ٧١

In this verse, the vain pride of the Jews is referred to, with those plenty treacheries and violences that they had. The verse says

"... ,And they (the Jews) imagined that there would be no affliction "

As this meaning has been pointed out in other verses, the Jews considered themselves a superior race, and they remarked that they were the Children of Allah. Finally, this dangerous pride and self-admiration, like a curtain, covered them over their eyes and ears. So, as a result of it, they became blind for seeing the signs of Allah and, as a deaf, they did not hear the words of right. The verse says

"... ;(so they became blind and deaf (unto the Truth ..."

But, when they saw some samples of the punishments of Allah, and felt the evil fate of their own deeds, they regreted. They, then, repented, because they realized that the divine threats were serious and that they were not a superior race. It was at that circumstance that Allah accepted their repentance. It says

"... ;then Allah turned to them mercifully..."

But this recognition and regretfulness did not last long. They again began to be disobedient, violent, obstinate and heedless to the right and justice. Therefore, the curtains of negligence, which is the result of committing sins, were put over their eyes and ears, so that they became blind again for seeing the signs of truth and deaf again

.for hearing the words of truth. This status enveloped many of them

p: ۳۶۷

"...;but again many of them became blind and deaf..."

And, at the end of the verse, the Qur'ān, in a short but expressive phrase, implies that :never Allah is heedless of their deeds and He sees all the things that they do. It says

".and Allah sees what they do ..."

worship Allah, my Lord and your Lord. Verily whoever associates anything with Allah,
,then Allah has forbidden to him the Paradise and his abode is the Fire and there shall be no helpers for the unjust

Commentary: verse ٧٢

Following the discussions upon the aberrations of the Jews, which were delivered in the former verses, in this verse and the verses next to it, the words are about the deviations of the Christians. At first, it begins with the greatest swerve of Christianity, :i.e. Godship of the Messiah, Jesus Christ. It says

"...';Certainly they are infidels who say: ` Verily Allah, He is the Messiah, son of Mary "

They say so while Jesus (a.s.) himself vividly told the Children of Israel to worship :Allah, their Lord. The verse says and the Messiah (himself) said: ` O' Children of Israel ..."

"... ,worship Allah, my Lord and your Lord

Also, for an emphasis on this subject, and in order to prevent any ambiguity and fault, :the words of Jesus continue adding Verily whoever associates anything with Allah, then Allah has forbidden to him the..."

Paradise and

p: ۳۶۹

"... ,his abode is the Fire

And again, for a further emphasis and confirming this fact that polytheism and :extremism is a kind of manifest wrongdoing, they were told such

".' and there shall be no helpers for the unjust..."

What is found in the above-mentioned verse regarding the Messiah (a.s.) persisting on the theme of theism,\(1\) is a subject matter which also adapts to the existing sources of Christianity.\(2\) This very matter is counted among the evidences for the ٧٣- لَقَدْ كَفَرَ الَّذِينَ قَالُوا

" .painful chastisement shall befall those among them who disbelieve

Commentary: verse ٧٣

This fact should be noted that what was referred to in the previous verse was the subject of extremism and unity with Allah. But, in this verse, the Qur'ān points to the plurality of gods from the view point of the Christians, viz. threefoldness in Divine
:Unity. It says

"...'Certainly they disbelieve who say: ` Verily Allah is the third of the three "

:In answer to them the Qur'ān decisively says

" ... ;while there is no god save the One God ..."

:Then, the Qur'ān, with a strong and severe tone, emphatically warns them and if they desist not from what they say, a painful chastisement shall befall those ..."
".among them who disbelieve

Commentary: verse ٧٤

This holy verse contains significance to the fact that perverted beliefs should be repented of

The deviated persons from the straight path should be invited to the right path through the statement of the divine forgiveness and mercy. It can be done by saying that Allah both forgives and bestows His mercy on the servants

Commentary: verse ٧٥

Allah introduces three reasons in this verse which prove that Messiah (a.s.) is not God

١- He (a.s.) has been born and he (a.s.) is son of Mary

٢- There have been some prophets like him, too, and he is not matchless

The Messiah, son of Mary, is but a messenger (that) messengers (the like of whom) " " ... ,have passed away before him ٣- Like anybody else, he is in need of food and other necessities, and he gains his strength from food. Therefore he does not possess an absolute power to be God.

.Whoever needs food cannot be the creator of the food

.These are clear statements of the holy Qur'an that people understand

However, having some privileges, such as miracles and exceptions, do not prove divinity for a person. Other prophets worked miracles, too. Or, Adam had not parents, either

" ... and his mother was a truthful woman; they both used to eat food ..."

.Allah (s.w.t.) is neither material, nor born, nor necessitous, and He has no place

See how We make the Signs clear for them (people), and see how they are turned ..."

".(away (from the truth

By the way, Mary is one of God's saints. The Qur'ān honours women and counts Mary ` a truthful woman '. In another verse of the Qur'ān, it is said that Mary testified Allah's word and she was of the

Sura Al-Tahrim, No. ۶۶, verse ۱۲ ۱ –۱

٧٦- قُلْ أَتَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ

مَا لَا يَمْلِكُ لَكُمْ ضَرًّا وَلَا نَفْعًا وَاللَّهُ

هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ

Say: ` Do you worship besides Allah that which possesses for you neither harm " .٧٦ ".nor profit? And Allah He is the All-Hearing, the All-Knowing

Commentary: verse ٧٦

Point

To complete the former reasonings about Jesus, the Qur'ān in this verse remarks to the Christians that they knew that the Messiah was fully in need of what a human being needs. He was not even the possessor of his own harm and his own profit, then
:how could he be the possessor of their harm and profit? It says Say: ` Do you worship besides Allah that which possesses for you neither harm nor "

" ... ?profit

That was why Jesus was captured many times by his enemies, or that his friends were involved in some inflictions. So, had not been the Grace of Allah, he (a.s.) could .have done nothing

And, at the end of the verse, the Qur'ān warns them not to imagine that Allah does not hear their vain words, or He is not aware of their inside, because He is both Hearing
:and Knowing. The verse says

" .And Allah He is the All-Hearing, the All-Knowing ..."

:Explanations

Say: ` O' People of the Book! do not exaggerate in your religion other than the " .٧٧ truth, and do not follow the vain desires of the people who had gone astray aforetime, ".and led many astray, and went astray from the right path

Commentary: verse ٧٧

In this verse following the manifestation of the fault of the people of the Book in the field of exaggeration about Divine prophets, the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is commanded to invite them, with clear reasonings that they formally return from this way. The :verse says

,Say: ` O' People of the Book! do not exaggerate in your religion other than the truth " "...

The exaggeration of the Christians is clear, of course, but the exaggeration of the Jews, who are also involved in those whom the Qur'ān addresses to by the phrase: " O' People of the Book! ", is probably a hint to the statement they said about prophet .Ezra (a.s.) and considered him the son of Allah

And, since the origin of exaggeration is often following the vain desires of the :misguided ones, to complete this meaning, the verse continues saying and do not follow the vain desires of the people who had gone astray aforetime,..." ".and led many astray, and went astray from the right path

This phrase points to the fact that this meaning is recorded in the history of the Christianity, too. The idea of trinity and exaggeration about Jesus (a.s.) was not mainly found among them in the early centuries of the Christianity. When the Indian Idolaters, and the like, joined the religion of Christ, they added something from the

.remaining belief of the former creed, viz. trinity and polytheism, to the Christianity

وَكَانُوا يَعْتَدُونَ

Those who disbelieved from among the Children of Israel were cursed by the " ٧٨ . tongue of David, and of Jesus, son of Mary, that was because they disobeyed and " .used to transgress

Commentary: verse ٧٨

Hadrat David (a.s.) cursed the Israelites for their offence and violation regarding to holiday on Saturday. And Hadrat Jesus (a.s.) cursed them, too, for the reason that the Children of Israel, in order to assure their hearts, asked for heavenly food, which was descended by Allah as a result of Jesus's supplication. They ate it but they disbelieved again.

:Therefore, they incurred the wrath and punishment of Allah. The holy verse says

Those who disbelieved from among the Children of Israel were cursed by the " tongue of David, and of Jesus, son of Mary, that was because they disobeyed and " .used to transgress

٧٩- كَانُوا لَا يَتَنَاهَوْنَ عَنْ مُنْكَرٍ فَعَلُوهُ لَبِئْسَ مَا كَانُوا

يَفْعَلُونَ

٧٩. "They used not to restrain each other from any dishonour they committed "

" !Certainly evil was that which they were doing

Commentary: verse ٧٩

The curses of David (a.s.) and Jesus (a.s.) unto the Children of Israel was for the reason that they disobeyed and transgressed. It was also because

"They used not to restrain each other from any dishonour they committed "

" !Certainly evil was that which they were doing

It is narrated from Imam Sādiq (a.s.) who said: " They (the good people of the Children of Israel) did not take part in the (sinful) activities and meetings, but when they saw (them (the sinners) they met them with smile to their faces, and association." (1)

.So, the person who is careless toward corruption is cursed by the prophets

The deed of ' forbidding from doing evil ' is not allocated to the religion of Islam, but it had existed in all divine religions

In the community of the Israelites, mischief had commonly been committed. Then, (they were cursed by Allah (s.w.t.) and the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h

Commentary: verse ٨٠

In this verse, another evidence upon the behaviour of the Israelites is suggested as a cause that they were cursed for. The Children of Israel make friends and mastership
.with the disbelievers

So, the acceptance of the mastership of infidels is a cause for bringing forth the wrath (.of Allah (s.w.t

:The verse says

"You see many of them making friends with those who disbelieve "

Surely evil is that which their selves send before for them (as their storage in the

Commentary: verse ٨١

There may be several extentions for the content of this verse. Among them are the :followings

A. If the Jews had really believed in Moses (a.s.) and his Turah, they would never have (appointed pagans as their masters. (Tafsīr 'Ālūsī

B. If infidels and polytheists became Muslims, the Jews would not cooperate with (them. (Tafsīr-i-Al-Mīzān

C. If the People of the Book, or the hypocrites, or the Muslims believed truly in Allah and the Messenger, they would not appoint pagans as their masters. The reason of it is that Faith does not adapt to infidelity. It is corruption and disbelief that cause them .to accept the domination of pagans

And, generally, whoever violates the bounds of Allah will be a prey of Tāqūts (deities)
.and disbelievers

:The verse says

And if they had believed in Allah and the Prophet and what was sent down to him, "
".they would not have taken them for friends, but most of them are evil-doers

Commentary: verse ٨٢

The good treatment of Najāshī, the king of Abyssinia, and the Christians of that country unto the emigrated Muslims has been cited upon the occasion of revelation of .this verse

In the fifth year after the appointment of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to his mission, a group of Muslims under the management of Ja`far-ibn-'Abī-Ṭālib emigrated from Mecca to Abyssinia and became secured from the harm and hurt of the pagans of Mecca with the support of Najāshī. They were secured from the harm of the agents of the pagans there, too. The Jews, even with seeing those abundant miracles and also the good temper of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), did not believe in Islam. They participated in plots against Muslims. They did breach promises and made mischief, while some Christian bishops in Abyssinia shed tears when they heard the verses of Sura Maryam and .adhered those Muslims who were there

Thus, the Jews are the most obstinate enemies of Islam, and their hostility against

.Muslims has an ancient and deep root

But, the Christians, although wrongly believe in trinity, a deviated

p: ۳۸۱

creed, are more receptive to accept the truth because of the sounder mind they have. They are not of the people of plotting, especially the intellectualities and the .preachers among them

:The verse says

Certainly you will find the most hostile of people to those who believe are the Jews " and pagans; and you will certainly find the nearest of them in affection to those who '.believe are those who say: ` We are Christians

That is because there are among them priests and monks and because they do not ".behave proudly

يَقُولُونَ رَبَّنَا آمَنَّا فَاكْتُبْنَا مَعَ الشَّاهِدِينَ

٨٣. "And when they hear what has been sent down to the Messenger " you see their eyes overflowing with tears because of what they recognize of the Truth. They say: ` Our Lord! we believe

".(so write us down with the witnesses (of Truth

Commentary: verse ٨٣

One of the examples of the Christians' shedding tears is when Ja`far-ibn-'Abī-Ṭālib recited the verses of Sura Maryam for Najashī in Abyssinia. Another example is also when a group of the Christians, accompanying with Ja`far, came into Medina and heard the holy verses of Sura Yāsīn

And when they hear what has been sent down to the Messenger, you see their eyes " overflowing with tears because of what they recognize of the Truth. They say: ` Our ".(Lord! we believe, so write us down with the witnesses (of Truth

Therefore, as soon as the heartily receptive persons hear the Truth, they will be touched at heart, but the blockhead ones do not move even by seeing it

The spirit and nature of man is charmed by the Truth. Then, when he reaches his beloved, he sheds the tears of joy

However, believers should offer a petition for the continuation of their belief and having a good end

****

٨٤- وَمَا لَنَا لَا نُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَمَا جَاءَنَا مِنَ الْحَقِّ

وَنَطْمَعُ أَنْ يُدْخِلَنَا رَبُّنَا مَعَ الْقَوْمِ الصَّالِحِينَ

٨٥- فَأَثَابَهُمُ اللَّهُ

بِمَا قَالُوا جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرَى مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا وَذَلِكَ جَزَاءُ الْمُحْسِنِينَ

٨٦- وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَكَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا

أُولَئِكَ أَصْحَابُ الْجَحِيمِ

And what (reason) have we that we should not believe in Allah and in the Truth " ٨٤ that has come to us, while we long for our Lord should cause us to enter (the Heaven) "with the righteous ones

Therefore Allah has rewarded them for what they said Gardens beneath which " ٨٥ rivers flow, wherein shall they abide forever, and that is the reward of the doers of "good

And (as for) those who disbelieve and deny Our Signs, these are the inhabitants " ٨٦ "of the Hell

Commentary: verses ٨٤-٨٦

Those who, after recognizing the right, bravely and explicitly confess it with truthfulness in action, and do not fear of the atmosphere and co-religionists, are among the best righteous ones. The reason of it is that they have done good to themselves and have saved themselves from the chastisement of Hell Fire, and, by their confession, they have paved the path for others both

Thus, the reward of Faith is Heaven, and the retribution of disbelief and rejection is Hell

In the meantime, the objective meaning of the Arabic word /al-ḥaqq/ (the Truth), mentioned in the verse, is: the Qur'ān, Islam, and the holy peronality of the Prophet

Verses of the Quran and traditions

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ قَدْ جَاءَكُمْ بُرْهَانٌ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ وَأَنْزَلْنَا إِلَيْكُمْ نُورًا

مُبِينًا (سوره نساء ۴ آیه ۱۷۴)

O' mankind! Verily there has come to you a convincing proof (the Messenger and the " Qur'ān) from your Lord: for We have sent unto you a light (that is) manifest." (Holy Qur'ān ۴: ۱۷۴)

إِنَّا نَحْنُ نَزَّلْنَا الذِّكْرَ وَإِنَّا لَهُ لَحَافِظُونَ (سوره الحجر ۱۵ آیه ۹)

We have, without doubt, sent down the Message and We will assuredly Guard it " ((from corruption))." (Holy Qur'ān ۱۵: ۹)

الْقِيَامَةِ أَعْمَى (سوره طه ۰۲ آیه ۱۲۴)

But whosoever turns away from My Message (the Qur'ān), verily for him is a " straitened toilsome life, and We shall raise him up blind on the Day of Judgement." ((Holy Qur'ān ۲۰: ۱۲۴)

وَنُنزِّلُ مِنَ الْقُرْآنِ مَا هُوَ شِفَاءٌ وَرَحْمَةٌ لِّلْمُؤْمِنِينَ (سوره اسراء ۱۷ آیه ۸۲)

And We send down (stage by stage) of the Qur'ān that which is a healing and a " (mercy to those who believe..." , (Holy Qur'ān ۱۷: ۸۲)

A Presentation to Muslims

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

" يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا أَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَ أَطِيعُوا الرَّسُولَ وَ أُولَى الْأَمْرِ مِنْكُمْ " قَالَ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى:

سوره النساء ۴-۵۹ لآیه

In The Name of Allah, The Beneficent, The Merciful

O you who have faith! Obey Allah, and obey the Apostle, and "

(those charged with authority among you..." (Sura Nisa, No. ۴, Verse ۵۹

In 'Ikmāl-ud-Din' a tradition, through 'Jābir-il-Ju'fī', is narrated from 'Jābir-ibn-'Abdillāh' thus: "I said: 'O Messenger of Allah, we have known Allah and His Apostle; then who is 'Ulul-Amr', those that Allah has made their obedience the same as your obedience?' Then, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: 'O Jābir! they are, after me, my successors and the Guides) of Muslims; the first of them is Ali-ibn-Abitalib; then (Imam) Hassan, and (Imam) Husain; then Ali-ibn-il-Husain; then Mohammad-ibn- Ali; known) in the Turah as Bāqir, whom you will see. O Jābir! When you visit him, give my regards to him. After him, there is Sādiq, Ja`far-ibn-Muhammad; and ;after him Mūsa-ibn-Ja`far; then Ali-ibn-Mūsā; then Muḥammad-ibn-Ali (then Ali-ibn-Muhammad, then Hassan-ibn-Ali; and after him (there comes Al-Ghā'im whose name and sir-name is the same as mine. He is Allah's Authority on the Earth and His Remainder amongst His servants. He is the son of (Imam) Hassan-ibn-Ali (al-'Askarī). This is the very personality by whose hands Allah will open the Easts and Wests of the worlds and this is the very personality who will be absent from his followers and his lovers in which his mastership can not be proved by a statement of anyone except

..... Verses of the Qur'ān and Traditions

..... The List of Publications of the Library

In The Name of Allah, The Beneficent, The Merciful

Part one of this very commentary of the Qur'ān begins with the main introductory preface of this endeavour in details. A glance over it makes you familiar with some essential data towards the aim which can surely be helpful along the way of studying
.this book

In that introduction, it was mentioned that the demand of those who have read the former volumes of this commentary, and are anxiously waiting for the rest parts of the translation of the Qur'ān to receive as soon as possible, caused the original explanatory in the substitutive volumes to be arranged rather concisely by the .compilers

Therefore, in this series, from part three of the Qur'ān on, every volume consists of .the exegeses of the verses of two parts of the Qur'ān

This current volume, for example, contains part seven and part eight, the decision was made in order that the English translation of the commentary of the whole Qur'ān be completed in a shorter period and delivered in about twenty volumes, and comparing with its earlier volumes, they become available for the readers sooner
.than the expected time, Allah willing

Humbly we ask Allah, the Exalted, that He helps us, as ever before, to complete this holy endeavour successfully so that we can offer the whole of it to the truth-seekers
.throughout the world

May He (s.w.t.) guide and assist all of us by the light of the Qur'ān to pave the straight
.path further and further, for we are always in need of it

Section ١٢: Intoxications and games of chance prohibited

Point

٨٧- يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تُحَرِّمُوا طَيِّبَاتٍ مَا أَحَلَّ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ

وَلَا تَعْتَدُوا

إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُحِبُّ الْمُعْتَدِينَ

O' you who have Faith ! Do not prohibit the good things that Allah has made lawful " ٨٧
".to you, and do not transgress. Verily Allah does not like the transgressors

Commentary : Verse ٨٧

Point

It happened that one day the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) was speaking for people about the Hereafter and the scenes of the gatheringplace of Resurrection. The audience were so touched at heart and wept that some of them decided, from then on, not to consume any good food, to prohibit comfort unto themselves, to observe a fast, to abandon their wives, and to sleep at nights less than before. They swore over that decision to be loyal to it. When the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was informed of it, he mustered people in the mosque and told them : " I eat food, I sleep at nights and do not abandon my wives. Our religion is not the creed of retreat and monasticism. The monasticism of my ummah is the holy struggle. Whoever goes a direction other than
".my style is not a Muslim

Some of them asked what they would do for the oaths they had taken. The subsequent verses were revealed saying that Allah does not call them to account for .their vain (unintentional) oaths

Imam Sādiq (a.s.) said: " Whoever makes a lawful thing unlawful for himself (through a vow), the one must accomplish it, and there is nothing upon him. ..." (Mustadrak-ul-(Wasā'il, vol. ۳, p. ۵۲

p: ۱۷

Islam is the religion of `Fitrah' (nature), wherein retreat and monasticism, or excess .۱
.and defect is forbidden

A Muslim submits to the command of Allah. He neither turns a lawful thing into an .۲
.unlawful one, nor vice versa

The holy Prophet (p.b.u.h) said : " O' people! what I have made lawful is lawful until the day of Judgement, and what I have forbidden is forbidden until the day of Judgement." (۱)

Edible things, clothings, and the whole lawful pleasures have been created for the .۳
.usage of humankind

.When using the lawful things, be careful of avoiding extravagance .۴

"... do not transgress ..."

The vows, covenants and oaths which are against the explicit prohibitions of the .۵
.text of the Qur'ān, are worthless and invalid

٨٨- وَكُلُوا مِمَّا رَزَقَكُمُ اللَّهُ حَلَالًا طَيِّبًا وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ الَّذِي

أَنْتُمْ بِهِ مُؤْمِنُونَ

And eat from the lawful and good things which Allah has provided for you; and be " ٨٨
" in awe of Allah Whom you have Faith in

Commentary : Verse ٨٨

Gaining lawful things are enjoyed

In the previous verse, the words were about the prohibition of unlawful things, while : in this verse it has enjoined people to lawfully enjoying the merits of Allah. It says

;And eat from the lawful and good things which Allah has provided for you "

The only condition in this course is that you should avoid opposing the command of Allah in Whom you believe

" and be in awe of Allah whom you have Faith in ..."

That is, your faith to Allah requires that you respect all his commandments both in enjoying the merits of Allah and observing moderation and piety

The holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said : " It is obligatory for every Muslim believer, man or woman, to gain lawful things." (١)

Again, the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said : " Worship consists of seventy parts, the best of which is seeking the lawful material." (٢)

Also, the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: " Seeking for lawful sustenance is the same as holy struggle in the way of Allah". (٣)

The holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said : " Next to the obligatory prayers, seeking for lawful (sustenance) is necessary and compulsory." (٤)

The holy Prophet said : " gaining income through a lawful way, is the most exalted (deed." ﴿۵

٨٩. Allah does not call you to account for your vain (unintentional) oaths, but he calls " you to account for what you have pledged solemnly

),(But whoever does not find (the means to do so should fast for three days. That is the atonement of your oaths when you pledge. But guard your oaths. Thus Allah makes His Signs clear for you in order that you might be "thankful

Commentary : verse ٨٩

The Atonement of Oaths

In this verse, the general discussion is about the oaths which are taken upon the fields of making the lawful things into unlawful ones, and the like of them. These oaths, from : this point of view, are divided into two sorts. At first, it says

" ... Allah does not call you to account for your vain (unintentional) oaths "

The objective meaning of `vain oaths', as the commentators and

p: २०

jurisprudents have said, is the oaths that do not aim a definite goal, and those that have not been taken intentionally and decidedly. Besides, the contents of such oaths are against the laws of religion, viz. they are estimated as opposite to the commands of Allah

The second sort is the oaths which are taken wilfully, intentionally, decidedly, and earnestly. Referring to these kinds of oaths, in the continuation of the verse, the Qur'ān says

"...but he calls you to account for what you have pledged solemnly ..."

And Allah charges you with a duty to fulfill these oaths

For the validity of an oath, of course, only its being earnest is not enough, but the content of the oath should be a lawful matter, at least. It should also be noted that an oath is not reputable except by the Name of Allah

Therefore, if someone takes an oath by Allah, it is obligatory to perform it according to his oath. So, if he breaches his pledge, one of the following three atonements is necessary to be performed by the one. At first, it says

"... So its atonement is feeding ten paupers ..."

Yet, in order that some people do not take this general ordinance so that they think they can give any low and worthless material of food as atonement, the Qur'ān clearly explains the quality of this food, saying that it must be

"... ,with the average of what you feed your own families ..."

The second is : to cloth ten needy persons with proper clothing

"... ,or clothing them ..."

The appearance of this verse, of course, indicates that the clothing should be of a sort which normally covers the body

.Yet it can be of various kinds according to the seasons and places in different periods

To answer to the question that whether, from the point of quality, the minimum material is enough or the average should be observed here, too, as the absoluteness of the verse implies, any sort of clothing can be enough

:The third is

"... freeing a slave ..."

p: ۲۱

Sometimes it happens that there may be some persons who are able to fulfil neither
: of the above two atonements. Therefore, next to stating these ordinances, it says

"... .But whoever does not find (the means to do so), should fast for three days ..."

: After that, as an emphasis, the Qur'ān says

"... That is the atonement of your oaths when you pledge ..."

But, in order that no one might consider that by giving atonement, breaching the : proper oaths is not unlawful, it says

"... But guard your oaths ..."

The purpose of this phrase is that you should be careful not to commit sins by
.breaching your oaths

And, finally, at the end of the verse, in order that you might be grateful for these ordinances and commandments, which guarantee the happiness and felicity of both
:an individual and society, the Qur'ān says

".Thus Allah makes His Signs clear for you in order that you might be thankful ..."

٩٠ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا

إِنَّمَا الْخَمْرُ وَالْمَيْسِرُ وَالْأَنْصَابُ وَالْأَزْلَامُ رِجْسٌ مِّنْ عَمَلِ الشَّيْطَانِ

فَاجْتَنِبُوهُ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُونَ

O' you who have Faith ! Verily wine, gambling, idols, and (dividing by) arrows are " .٩٠
".an abomination of the Satan's work, so avoid it, that you may be prosperous

Commentary : Verse ٩٠

Wine, gambling, idols and dividing by arrow should be avoided

At the time of the advent of Islam, the Arabs customarily were intensively interested in poetry, wine, and fighting. The Divine revelations concerning the prohibition of wine .were gradually conveyed

At first, there revealed a verse stating that provision is supplied from date and grapes either, from which you can obtain intoxication, too, (Sure An-Nahl, No. ١٦, verse ٦٧).
.This indication of intoxication implies the statement of its badness

The Qur'an, then, has referred to the benefits of gambling and wine and also that their containing sin is greater than their benefits, (Sura Al-Baqarah, No. ٢, verse ٢١٩). After that the Divine verse was revealed enjoining not to establish prayer at the state of being intoxicated, (Sura An-Nisā', No. ٤, verse ٤٣). And, finally, the above verse was revealed which considered wine as an abomination, a Satanic action, and ordained (that it is unlawful.)

The Arabic term /xamr/ (wine) is derived from the same root as the Arabic word /xumur/ (cover) is. In Arabic, the veil of a woman is called /ximār/; since it covers the .hairs. Similarly, wine covers the wisdom

The Arabic term /maysir/ is derived from /yusr/ with the meaning of easiness, since, in .gambling, players sometimes earn money by that play without tolerating any trouble

Musnad Ahmad-i-Hanbal, Sunan-i-Abi-Dawood, Nisaiee, and Tarmathi have ۱ - ۱ stated a vast explanation about the Occasion of revelation of this verse which are suggested to be referred to

The Qur'ānic term /'azlām/ means a kind of lottery done with some sticks of arrows. It .used to be performed before Islam, at the Age of Ignorance

: Explanations

.In Islam, having Faith and drinking wine do not agree with each other .۱

.Drinking wine and gambling are in the same row with idolatry .۲

﴿verily wine, gambling, idols and ...﴾ .۳

The Islamic commandments and prohibitions have been ordained reasonably and .۴
.wisely

"... and (dividing by) arrows are an abomination of the Satan's work, so avoid it ..."

The verse enjoins to avoid not only drinking wine, but also approaching it. The .۴ reason of this ordinance is that a sound nutrition is effective in the prosperity of human beings. Therefore, it enjoins to avoid intoxication, so that you may be : prosperous. The verse says

".So avoid it, that you may be prosperous ..."

Any kind of cooperation concerning wine, including its production, distribution and .consumption, is prohibited

Imam Baqir (a.s.) has narrated from the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) that he cursed ten groups of people who are concerned somehow with drinking wine. They are as : follows

Its planter, its guardian, its maker, its drinker, its cupbearer, its bearer, its receiver, " ﴿its seller, its purchaser, and anyone who, in a way, devours from its income.﴾ .۵

****

Some Islamic traditions indicate that the drinker of wine is counted like an idolater ۱ –۱

أَنْ يُوقِعَ بَيْنَكُمُ الْعَدَاوَةَ وَالْبَغْضَاءَ فِي الْخَمْرِ وَالْمَيْسِرِ

وَيَصُدَّكُمْ عَنْ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ وَعَنِ الصَّلَاةِ

فَهَلْ أَنْتُمْ مُنْتَهُونَ

٩١. " Certainly Satan desires to cast enmity and hatred among you by wine and gambling, and to hinder you from the remembrance of Allah, and from prayer. So will you stop ? "

Commentary : Verse ٩١

Point

Considering the concerning statistics, a great number of murders, crimes, accidents, divorces, psychic sicknesses, renal diseases and so on, are caused by wine, liquor. Here, in stating the philosophy of its prohibition, the Qur'ān emphasizes on two points : social harms and spiritual losses, (including enmity, and neglecting both prayers and the remembrance of Allah

: Explanations

١. Stating the philosophy of ordinances is one of the factors of the effectiveness of speech.

٢. All the factors which may create grudge and rancour should be challenged against.

٣. Any action or any person that causes enmity and hatred amongst people is Satanic.

٤. Anything, like wine or gambling, which causes the negligence of a person from the remembrance of Allah and establishment of prayers is obscene.

٥. Wherever enmity and hatred come forth, it is appropriate to divote material gains, whatever they may be. (There is some profit in wine and gambling, too, but, because of their evil effects, they are prohibited

The mental harms and spiritual losses are the most important damages, both bodily and financially. Wine has also bodily harm, yet, here, hatred and negligence have been emphasized on

Thus, the prohibition of drinking liquor and gambling, enjoined by Allah, is for the goodness and improvement of people's affairs both in this world and the Hereafter

Ibn-Abbas, a leading commentator, says that the target of the verse is Sa`d-ibn-'Abī-Waghghās and a man from the Helpers who had compacted the agreement of brotherhood with each other. A man from among the Helpers invited Sa'd to a party. They prepared a table of food and wine and drank so much so that they became intoxicated

At that time they boasted to each other so violently that their dispute ended to a conflict. The Helper took a piece of bone and struck on the nose of Sa`d so vigorously that his nose was smashed. Then Allah sent down this verse about them

The verse means that Satan wishes to seduce you and attract you toward drinking wine in order to take your wisdom from you, and persuade you to do some evil things that you do not do them in an ordinary state

Ghattādah says that some people played gambling upon their own property and wives. At last, those who had lost their property and their wives, sat in grief, planning to take vengeance from their rivals. Therefore, gambling has no consequence but grudge and enmity

By this way, Satan desires to hinder you from the remembrance of Allah, so that you do not offer your thanks for His bounties

Satan also desires to make you neglectful of prayer, which is the firm base of the religion. So, obey Allah (s.w.t.) and be not heedless of His prohibition. The verse says

Certainly Satan desires to cast enmity and hatred among you by wine and gambling, " ? and to hinder you from the remembrance of Allah, and from prayer. So will you stop

The governmental and political commandments of the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) are similar to, and the same as, the commandments of Allah, and it is obligatory to .obey them

Those who refrain to obey the command of Allah deserve to be punished. So, there is no responsibility upon the Messenger of Allah save conveying the message of Allah .and stating it manifestly

"and Allah loves the doers of good

Commentary : Verse ٩٣

Point

When the verse of prohibitions of gambling and drinking wine was revealed, there were some people who asked about their condition regarding to the time before that revelation or the condition of those who had not heard of that ordinance yet and were living in some far distances

The verse answers them implying that those who have believed and have done good deeds but have not received this ordinance, if they have drunk wine or have devoured : from the income of gambling, there is no sin on them. The verse says

On those who have Faith and do good deeds, there is no sin in regard to what they " "... (ate (before prohibition

Yet, this ordinance has conditioned that such people should be virtuous, have Faith, : and do good actions. Here is the continuation of the verse

"...so long as they are virtuous and faithful and do good deeds ..."

: This subject is repeated once more in the verse, when it says

, (then still they be virtuous (upon prohibited things) and believe (in their prohibition ..."

And, for the third time this meaning is repeated, with a little

p: ۲۸

: difference, of course. It says

"... ;then they are virtuous (due to prohibited things) and do good ..."

: So, at the end of the verse, it says

".and Allah loves the doers of good ..."

Each of these three senses of virtuousness refers to a stage of feeling responsibility
.and piety

:However, the great commentators of both outstanding sects of Islam

Sunnites and Shi`ites, have vastly explained upon the commentary of this verse, especially about the phrase /fī mā ta`imū/ (in regard to what they ate), and mentioning the subject of `virtue' for three times in their commentary books

During the time when a pilgrim to Mecca is in pilgrim garment and is performing the .pilgrimage rites, the one has not the right of hunting

During the same time, occasionally it happens that a hunt approaches a person so nigh that he can catch it by a simple jump, but the trial of Allah is in this fact that we .should not touch the hunt. So, if we hunt it, the punishment of Allah includes us

Hunting itself brings forth no painful chastisement, but chastisement is for the breaking law. In the land where Abraham overlooked Ishmael, you would overlook .the hunts either

:The verse says

O' you who have Faith! Allah will surely try you with something of the game which " your hands and your spears can reach, so that Allah may ascertain who fears Him in "secret. So whoever transgresses after that for him there is a painful punishment

Allah has pardoned whatever is a thing of the past; and whoever returns (to it), Allah will take ,vengeance on him

"and Allah is Mighty, the Lord of Retribution

Commentary : Verse ٩٥

In this verse, the command of the prohibition of hunting at the time of being in pilgrim garment, with a general condition, has been issued more clearly and precisely

: It says

"...;O' you who have Faith! kill no game while you are in pilgrim garb "

Then, it points to the atonement of hunting in the condition of being in pilgrim garb, : and says and anyone of you who kills it intentionally, its atonement is the like in cattle of ..."

"... ,what he has killed

That is, such a person should sacrifice that animal and give its meat to some needy
.ones

Here, the purpose of ` the like ' is the likeness of the size and the shape of the animal. It is in this sense that, for example, if a person hunts a wild big animal, such as the ostrich, he should choose an ostrich as an atonement; or if he .hunts a deer, he should sacrifice a lamb with nearly the same size

p: ۳۱

And, since some people may fall into suspicion upon the subject of likeness, in this regard, the Qur'ān ordains that this matter should be fulfilled under the judgement of : two just persons, possessed of some knowledge among you. It says

"... ,as (to this likeness) two just persons among you judge ..."

And, for the place where this animal should be sacrificed, the Qur'ān commands that it must be killed as a sacrifice dedicated to the Ka`bah and in the land of Ka`bah. It says :

"... ,and the animal) will be an offering reached to the ka`bah) ..."

Then, the Qur'ān adds that it is not necessary that the atonement should certainly be in the form of sacrifice, but each of the two other things can substitute it. The first is .that some money equivalent to it can be spent in the way of feeding the poor

: It says

"... ,or the atonement (of it) is feeding the poor ..."

: And the second thing of substitution is as follows

"... ,or the equivalent of that in fasting ..."

These atonements are for that the person sees the retribution of his committing : offence. It says "... that he may taste the effect of his action ..."

But, in view of the fact that usually no ordinance includes the past, the Qur'ān stipulates that Allah has forgiven the offences that have been done in this field, saying : thus

"... ;Allah has pardoned whatever is a thing of the past ..."

So, if a person does not pay attention to these frequent warnings and the ordinance of atonement and hunts at the time of being in the pilgrim garb, Allah will take vengeance of such a person and Allah is Mighty to take vengeance in the appropriate : time. It says and whoever returns (to it), Allah will take vengeance on him, and Allah is Mighty, ..."

".the Lord of Retribution

Commentary : Verse ٩٦

Point

:The words in this holy verse are about the hunts of the sea. It says

" ... ,The games of the sea and its food is lawful for you "

The objective meaning of `food', mentioned in this verse, is the food which can be prepared from the hunted fish. The verse intends to make two things admissible. One of them is `hunting', and the other is `consuming the food made from the hunted things

Then, the Qur'ān points to the philosophy of this ordinance, implying that this permission is for the sake that you and the travellers can enjoy it. It says

" ... ,a provision for you and for the caravans ..."

In other words, the verse means : for the sake that you do not fall in trouble for nutrition when you are in pilgrim garb, and that you can be able to enjoy one kind of hunting, this permission has been given due to the hunts of the sea

: As an emphasis, the Qur'ān returns to the former ordinance once more, and says

" ... ;but the game of the land is forbidden to you so long as you are in pilgrim garb ..."

And, at the end of the verse, in order to emphasize upon all the ordinances which : were mentioned, it says

".and be in awe of Allah toward Whom you will be gathered ..."

p: ۳۳

!The Philosophy of No Hunting when Being in Pilgrim Garb

We know that the performance of Hajj and `Umrah is one of the worships that makes man aloof from the world of matter and brings him into an environment full of .spiritualities

In performing the rite of Hajj and `Umrah, the ceremonies of the material life, fights and conflicts, hatreds, sexual desires, and material pleasures, will totally be put aside and the person reaches a kind of godly legitimated asceticism. So, it seems that the .prohibition of hunting, while being in pilgrim garb, is also for the same purpose

Besides, if hunting were an allowed action in Allah's center of pilgrimage, regarding to the large crowd of pilgrims that every year come into this holy land, the existence of many animals of the zone would be destroyed, in particular that, because of dryness .and scarcity of water, its animals are not so abundant

Paying attention to the fact that hunting animals and picking plants of that sacred land is also prohibited, even when the pilgrims to Mecca are not in their pilgrim garb, it makes clear that this commandment has a close connection with the subject of .protection of environment and maintaining the plants and animals of the locality

Therefore, the philosophy of prohibition or making something admissible is not always substantial, but it sometimes depends on the conditions of time and place. Then, .geography and history are effective on the ordinance of Allah

Thus, the abundance of people, and the performance of the worshipping rite, should .not be a means of annihilation and destruction for animals and plants

Commentary : verse ٩٧

Point

As it is cited in Mufradāt-i-Rāqib, the Arabic word /qiyām/ is a means of staying firm, .like the pillar of a tent

Imam Sādiq (a.s.) said about the Sacred House that it has been called Baytillah-il-(Harām because it is `haram' (forbidden) for the disbelievers to enter it.

When the affairs of people are to be arranged and strengthened, a few things are needed : ١) centrality, ٢) security, and ٣) sustenance. Allah has set these three things in the Ka`bah and the Sacred House. It is both a center, and no one has a right of quarel there, and the sacrifices are used as a means of nutrition and a means of livelihood .for Muslims

The Qur'ānic word /hady/ means `a signless sacrifice', while the term /qalā'id/ refers .to the sacrifices with signs

By Islamic culture, the sacred (forbidden) months, in which fighting is prohibited, are: .Rajab, Zil-Gha`dah, Zil-Hajjah, and Muḥarram

The plain assembly of millions of Muslims in a sacred place without showing any privileges to each other, and without any dispute or practical quarrel, is peculiar to the .advantages of Islam

There are some divine graces in Hajj, like : asking forgiveness from others at the time of leaving for Hajj and visiting each other when they return from Mecca, commercial splendor, the payment of onefifth levy (khums) and alms, to be acquainted with religious disciplines and nations, being inside the most ancient center of Unity ornamented with no ceremonies, treating the same or tracing the footsteps of prophets, repenting in the lands of `Arafāt and Mash`ar, remembering and illustrating the scene of Hereafter, political parade against infidels, etc

The senses of `evil' and `good' refer to all men, styles, properties, incomes, foods,

Therefore, beware that the majority and abundance may be fascinating. So, be

Occasion of Revelation Verses ۱۰۱ and ۱۰۲

Upon the occasion of revelation of these two verses, it has been narrated from Ali-
: ibn-AbīTālib (a.s.) as follows

It happened that one day the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) preached a sermon in which " he stated the command of Allah about Hajj. Then, a person by the name of `Akkashah (and according to another narration Surāqah) asked whether that commandment was .ordained for only that year or they should perform Hajj every year

The holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) delayed to answer him, but the man obstinately repeated his question two or three times. The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said : " Woe to you ! Why do you persist so much ? If I answer you positively, performing Hijj will become obligatory for all of you every year. So, if it becomes obligatory every year, you will not be able to perform it and the offender of it will be a sinner. Hence, as long as I have not said a thing to you, do not urge on it. Then, the verse was revealed and dissuaded them
.from that action

! Improper Questions

No doubt asking question is the key to the recognition of facts. The verses of the Qur'ān and Islamic traditions have earnestly enjoined Muslims that they ask whatever they do not know. But, in view of the fact that every rule usually has an exception, this basic educational principal has an exception, too. It is so that sometimes some affairs had better to be concealed in order that the system of the society be protected and the individuals' interests be safeguarded. In such respects, researches and frequent questions, with the purpose of unveiling some facts, not only
.is not a virtue, but also is blameworthy and reprobated

: In this verse, the Qur'ān has referred to this subject and explicitly says

O' you who have Faith! Do not ask about thing (and secrets) which, if they are "
"... .disclosed to you, may upset you

But, since giving no answer to the questions that some persons sometimes urge on asking them repeatedly may cause some doubts for others which can bring forth
: greater evils, the Qur'ān adds

Yet, if you ask about them while the Qur'ān is being sent down, they will be ..."
"... .disclosed to you

.In this case, you will fall into trouble

Next to that meaning, the Qur'ān implies that you should not imagine that when Allah is silent about some matters, He is neglectful of them. Nay ! He desires to set you in : some facilities. It says

p: ٤٠

"Allah pardoned as to these matters and Allah is Forgiving, Forbearing..."

:We recite in a tradition narrated from Imam Ali (a.s.) who has said Verily Allah has enjoined you some obligations, do not waste them; and He has " assigned some limits for you, do not violate them; and He has prohibited you from some things, do not betray (secrets of) them; and He has kept silent for you about some things which He has never been concealed because of forgetfulness. Then, do (not urge to disclose these things." (1

****

: In order to emphasize on the subject, this verse says

Surely some people before you asked for such (disclosures). Then they came to " ".disbelieve in them

In the conclusion of this discussion, it is necessary to hint to this point that the above-mentioned verses never close the path of asking logical, training, and constructive questions for human beings. The discussed condition is only due to improper questions and seeking the affairs that not only they are not needed, but their .concealment is also better and even, sometimes, necessary

١٠٣- ما جَعَلَ اللَّهُ مِنْ بَحِيرَةٍ وَلَا سَائِبَةٍ وَلَا وَصِيلَةٍ وَلَا حَامٍ

وَلِ-كَانَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا يَفْتُرُونَ عَلَى اللَّهِ الْكَذِبَ

103. "Allah has not appointed any Bahīrah, Sā'ibah, Waṣīlah, and Ḥām "

but those who disbelieve make up a lie against Allah, and most of them do not understand."

Commentary: Verse ١٠٣

Point

In this verse the Qur'ān points to four improper innovations which were customary current among the pagan Arabs at the Age of Ignorance

For some reasons those people used to mark or nominate part of their animals, and prohibited eating their meat. They did not count permitted to drink the milk of those animals, or to cut their wool, or to ride on them. In other word, they used to actually leave such animals useless

: The Holy Qur'ān says

"... Allah has not appointed any Bahīrah, Sā'ibah, Waṣīlah, and Ḥām "

The Qur'ān implies that Allah has not ordained anything in the nature of a Bahīrah, or a Sā'ibah, or, Waṣīlah, or a Ḥām

The explanation of four animals

: The explanation of these four animals are as follows

The Arabic term / bahirah / was applied for the animal which had given birth to . ١ offsprings for five times and the fifth of them was a female animal (and according to another tradition a male one). They used to split the ears of such an animal and let it go for itself. They would not kill it after that

The Pagan Arabs used the term /sā'ibah/ for a camel which had brought forth twelve (or ten) offsprings. They left that camel free so that even no one would ride on it. They might only milk it occasionally in order to give that milk to their guests

The term /waṣīlah/ used to be applied for the lamb which could bring forth a child for seven times. (Or, according to another tradition it was used for the lamb which could bring forth twins.) Killing such a lamb

.was also considered unlawful (ḥarām) by them

The Arabic word /hām/ was applied for the male animal which had been used for .۴ fecundating female animals of the same kind for ten times and each time a new .progeny was brought forth from its seed

Shortly speaking, the objective meaning of mentioning these animals has been the beasts which could serve their owners considerably and frequently through the way of being beneficial for them, and their owners, in turn, offered a kind of honour and .freedom to such animals, too

: Then, the verse continues saying

"... ,but those who disbelieve make up a lie against Allah ..."

These pagans and idol worshippers used to say that those false ideas were from the laws of Allah while most of them did not apply the least contemplation about their speech. They did not utilize their intellects when they blindly imitated others' manner.

:The verse says

".and most of them do not understand ..."

Commentary: verse ١٠٤

The fundamental principle is the Islamic culture, not the culture of the predecessors.
Therefore, neither absolutely tending to the traditions is the principle nor the new .things

To have honour towards the predecessors and respecting them is acceptable, but
.following their ignorantly thoughts and manner is rejected

.Blindly imitation is a sign of foolishness

.Everybody Is Responsible of One's Own Deeds

In the previous verse, the words were about the blindly imitation of the people of the Age of Ignorance from their misguided ancestors; and the Qur'ān warned them that such an imitation did not adapt to wisdom and logic. Having this meaning in mind, they might question that if they separated their account in such affairs with their ancestors, then what about the fate of their ancestors. Besides, suppose they left that imitation, what would be the fate of many people who acted under the influence of ? such an imitation

In answer to these questions, the holy verse addresses the believers and implies that they are responsible of their own selves. These misguided persons from among their ancestors, friends, and relatives, contemporary with them, could not harm them if .they were on the right path

:It says

"O' you who have Faith! take care of your own selves "

"... .He who strays cannot harm you when you are on the right way

Then, the Qur'ān refers to the subject of Resurrection and the reckoning of everyone's deeds, and says

"To Allah is your return totally; then He will inform you of what you had been doing ..."

(saying): ` We will not sell it for any gain, even if it were a relative, and we will not ". 'conceal the testimony of Allah; for then we would indeed be among the sinners

Occasion of Revelation verse ١٠٦

Upon the revelation of the above holy verse, as well as its two successive ones, it has been narrated that: a Muslim believer, called Ibn-i-'Abī-Māriyah, accompanied with two Christian Arabs, by the names of Tamīm and `Uday, came out of Medina with the intention of trade. During the time they were travelling, Ibn-i-'Abi-Māriyah, who was a Muslim, became sick. He wrote his testament and hid it inside his properties. Then he .trusted those properties with his Christian fellow-travelers

Before his death, he bequeathed that those two Christians would deliver them to his family. After his death, those two fellow-travelers untied his furniture and took its worthy and interesting parts, and then they returned the rest to the inheritors of the .man

When the inheritors opened the parcel of the properties, they did not find some parts of what Ibn-i-'Abi-Māriyah had brought with him. But suddenly they saw the testament he had left. They found that the list of all the stolen things were recorded in that testament. They detailed the matter for those two Christian fellow-travellers, but they denied and said that they delivered them what he had given them. Then, they could not help complaining the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). So, the verse was revealed and .stated its ordinance

Commentary: verse 106

One of the most important matters which Islam emphasizes on is the subject of observing and protecting the rights and properties of people, and, in general, the .execution of social justice

At first, in order that the inheritors' rights in the properties of the diseased not to be spoilt, and that the rights of those members remained behind, including orphans and : minors, not to be violated, the Qur'ān instructs the believers, saying

O' you who have Faith ! call to witness between you when death approaches any of " " ... ,you, while making a bequest, two just persons from among you

Here, the expression of bearing witness, of course, is accompanied with the accomplishment of testament. In other words, these two persons are witnesses to .both the testament and the executors of the testament

Thus, the verse indicates that if you are on a journey and one of you is going to die ,and you cannot find any executors of testament and witnesses then you may take two persons from non-Muslims for the purpose. The verse :continues saying or two others from other than you, if you are travelling in the land and the affliction ... " " ... ,of death befalls you

The objective meaning of `other than you' (non-Muslims) is only the people of the Book, viz. the Jews and the Christians, because nowhere Islam has attached

.importance to pagans and idolators

:Then the verse says

,detain the two after the prayer, then if you doubt them ..."

p: ۴۷

they shall swear by Allah (saying) : ` We will not sell it for any gain, even if it were a
"... ,relative

:And also they should add and we will not conceal the testimony of Allah; for then we would indeed be among ..."

".the sinners

It is cited in Qurar-ul-Hikam, vol. ۱, p. ۱۸۵ that Hadrat Imam Amir-ul-Mu'mineen Ali
".(a.s.) said: " The quickest retribution is the retribution of a false oath

فَيُقْسِمَانِ بِاللَّهِ لَشَهَادَتُنَا أَحَقُّ مِنْ شَهَادَتِهِمَا

وَمَا اعْتَدَيْنَا إِنَّا إِذَا لَمِنَ الظُّ-إِلْمِينَ

Then if it becomes known that both of them have been guilty of a sin (of perjury), " ١٠٧. " then two others (of Muslims) shall stand up in their place from among those nearest (to the diseased) who have a claim against them, and swear by Allah: ` Certainly our testimony is truer than the testimony of those two, and we have not transgressed "(the limits), for then we would indeed be of the unjust

Commentary: verse ١٠٧

It should be unconcealed that when those persons, who are next of kin to the dead, bear witness or make an oath, their action is based on the information that they have had from before about the dead person's properties at the time of journey or other .than that

Therefore, you are not rightful to search or to be inquisitive, but when there comes forth a new information, the situation changes. As the explanation of Mufradāt-i-Rāqib, an Arabic-Persian dictionary, indicates, an acknowledgment without any /research, in Arabic language, is called /`ur

: The verse says

Then if it becomes known that both of them have been guilty of a sin (of perjury), " then two others (of Muslims) shall stand up in their place from among those nearest (to the diseased) who have a claim against them, and swear by Allah: ` Certainly our testimony is truer than the testimony of those two, and we have not transgressed "(the limits), for then we would indeed be of the unjust

١٠٨- ذٰلِكَ اٰذَنِي اَنْ يَّاتُوْا بِاللّٰهِ-اَدِهٖ عَلٰى وَّجْهِيْهَا

This (style) is more proper that they give testimony truly, or fear that other " ١٠٨ . oaths be given after their oaths. And be in awe of Allah and hearken (His "commandments), and Allah does not guide the transgressing people

Commentary: verse ١٠٨

The statement of this verse is about the philosophy of severity and accuracy of the case which was referred to in the previous verses upon bearing witness and taking witnesses.

Taking oath after the establishment of prayer at the presence of people, causes that witnesses to be certainly true (not false), because if their witness is not accepted, that invalidity of their oath and witness may disgrace them in the society

:The verse says

This (style) is more proper that they give testimony truly, or fear that other oaths " be given after their oaths. And be in awe of Allah and hearken (His commandments),
"and Allah does not guide the transgressing people

Commentary: verse 109

This verse, in fact, is a complement for the previous verses. At the end of those verses, where the words were about bearing witness upon right or wrong, the Qur'aan enjoins people to piety and being afraid of offending the command of Allah. In this verse, it warns people of the Day Allah gathers the prophets and asks them about their messengership and responsibility, and tells them what the people responded : when they invited those people to the Truth. The verse says

Remember) the Day Allah will gather the messengers, and say: ` What response)"
"... ' ? were you given

The messengers will negate of having any knowledge from their own selves, and they will depend the whole facts to the knowledge of Allah (s.w.t.) Who knows all the .Unseen and the concealed affairs of the world of existence

Judge of such a court. Therefore, they must be careful of right and justice in their .bearing witnesses, too

In the concluding phrase of the verse, the Qur'ān remarks that the real knowledge belongs to Allah, and whatever knowledge is found in any person has been obtained from Him. It is similar to the fact that only He knows the Unseen, and He gives a part .of its knowledge to whomever He desires

Commentary : verse ١١١

The objective meaning of ` revealing unto the disciples', mentioned in the verse, is either inspiring unto their own hearts, or conveying the Message by the way of (.revealing it unto Jesus (a.s

.Thus, sometimes Allah may inspire some inspiration unto the receptive hearts

The Divine inspirations unto people are alongside the path of confirming the Divine Prophets, inspirations, not against them. Therefore believing in Allah is not aloof from .believing in His Messenger

Commentary : verse ١١٢-١١٣

Point

This holy verse points the well-known process of ` The table of Food ' sent from the : sky. It says

Remember) when the disciples said : ` O' Jesus son of Mary! is your Lord able to ) "
"... ? send down to us a table from the sky

Messiah became uneasy of this question of theirs, their statement contained the smell of doubt, because he had brought plenty of verses and signs for them. So, as a :warning, he admonished them

" ! Jesus) said: ` Be in awe of Allah if you are believers) ..."

But, soon after that, they informed Jesus that they had not an evil aim by that suggestion. They said that they did not intend obstinacy, but they wanted to eat from that ` Table of Food ' in order to obtain not only the luminosity created by that nutrition in their souls (because nutrition certainly affects in man's soul), but also their ,hearts would be at rest. So by observing that great miracle, they might reach the bound of certainty of sight and knew that whatever he had told them was true, and that they could bear witness over it.

: The verse says

They said: ` We desire to eat from it, and our hearts would be at rest, and we would " ".know that you have told us the truth, and that we may be of the witnesses upon it

: Explanations

The reason that the Sura has been nominated by the appellation of ` Al-Mā'idah' is .1 because of the very desire of ` Table of Food' that they demanded to come from the .sky

The Arabic word ` Al-Mā'idah ' means both ` food' and ` the table wherein there is .2 .food

Commentary : verse ١١٤

All supplications mentioned in the Qur'ān begin with /rabbanā/ ` O' Our Lord ' ! , but in this verse it has begun with two words ` O' Allah, our Lord '! . This difference may be .for the importance of this miraculous happening and the concerning consequences

Supplication, imploring for help and asking a boon from the side of the friends of Allah, :is permissible. The supplication of Jesus in this verse is as follows

Jesus, son of Mary, said : ` O'Allah, our Lord ! send down to us a table from the sky, to " be a festival for us, for the first of us and for the last of us and a sign from You; and ".provide us (with our) sustenance, for You are the best of sustainers

There have been prophets sent for all human beings and generations in the history of .man

To celebrate a festival is a proper action from the point of the Qur'ān. The birth of the friends of Allah and the mission of the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) is not less than the descent of the table of food from the sky. So, we must always learn things from the

.Signs of Allah and His Power

Allah said: ` Verily I will send it unto you, but whoever shall disbelieve thereafter " .١١٥ among you, surely will I punish him with a punishment such as I do not punish anyone " !(in the worlds (with the like of it

Commentary : verse ١١٥

.From the point of threat, this verse is at the top in the Qur'aan for warning people

Allah said: ` Verily I will send it unto you, but whoever shall disbelieve thereafter " among you, surely will I punish him with a punishment such as I do not punish anyone " !(in the worlds (with the like of it

It is evident that the more a person expects (ie. the Table of Food from the sky) the .more he should undertake. A high summit has a dangerous deep valley

However, it should be noted that although the table of food was descended from the sky for the companions of Jesus (a.s.), according to some traditions, there descended fruits from Heaven for the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.), too, and the essence of Fātimah (a.s.) was formed from those heavenly fruits

Prophets are infallible and do not do anything but the command of Allah. They cause Prophet Jesus (a.s.) considered himself as other people and trained by Allah. However,

In the above-mentioned second holy verse, Jesus (a.s.) introduces himself as a good-for-nothing one, and, depending the acts of punishment and forgiveness on Allah, he confesses that he has no ability nor effectiveness in this regard. It is only He (s.w.t.) Who has authority over His Own servants. He may punish them or forgive them as He pleases

Neither His forgiveness is a sign of weakness, nor His punishment is undue and unwise

: The verse says

If You punish them, then surely they are Your servants; and if You forgive them, " then You are indeed the Mighty, the Wise

As Abuthar has narrated, one night the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) repeated this verse again and again until morning. He (p.b.u.h.) recited it in his prayers when he bowed down and prostrated. He asked for forgiveness so much so that it was bestowed to him. (1)

Commentary : verses ١١٩-١٢٠

Following the explanation mentioned about the talk of Allah with Jesus, the content of : this verse refers to the words of Allah after that talk and it says

"... Allah said: ` This is the day when shall benefit the truthful ones their truth "

: Then, concerning the reward of the truthful ones, the Qur'aan says as follows

For them there are gardens beneath which rivers flow wherein shall they abide ..."

"... .forever

More significant than that blessing, which is of the material examples, there is this : blessing that

"... Allah is well-pleased with them and they are well-pleased with Him ..."

And, there is no doubt that this great merit, which is inclusive of

The End of Sura Al-Mā'idah

****

p: ۶۶

Introduction to the Sura

In The Name of Allah, The Beneficent, The Merciful

:Introduction to the Sura

This Sura is the sixty ninth Sura which was revealed to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) in Mecca. As the Traditions of Ahlul-Bayt (a.s.) indicate, all the verses of this Sura were revealed at the same time. Similar to other Meccan Suras, the basic aim of this Sura is inviting people to the triple principals of unity of Allah, Prophecy, and Resurrection, but most of all, it emphasizes on monotheism and opposing paganism and idolatry

Paying attention carefully to the contents of the verses of this Sura can remove the soul of hypocrisy and disperse from among Muslims, and cause the ears to be hearing, the eyes to be clear-sighted, and the hearts (minds) to be knowledgeable

About the virtue of this Sura, in the Islamic traditions, it is cited that when this Sura was revealed, seventy thousand angels were taking after it

And that every believer who recites it, (because of its light, his soul and self may be satiated from the spring of monotheism and) all those angels will ask forgiveness for that person

Also, `Ayyāshī himself has narrated from 'Abī-Baṣīr that Imam Sādiq (a.s.) said : " Sura Al-'An`ām was revealed at the same time while seventy thousand angels were respectfully accompanying it, because there has mentioned the name of Allah in seventy occurrences of it. If people knew how much virtue there lies in its recitation, they would never leave it out

Then Imam (a.s.) continued saying: " Whoever is in want of a requirement from Allah and he desires it to be granted, he should establish four units (rac`at) of prayer consisting of Al-Fātiḥat-ul-Kitāb and Sura Al-'An`ām. Then when he finishes the recitation of the Sura, he

: should recite the following supplication

! O' The Generous ! O' The Generous ! O' The Generous

! O' The Great ! O' The Great ! O' The Great

! O' Greater than any great

! O' The Hearer of supplications

! O' He Whom nights and days do not change

! Blessing and peace be upon Muhammad and his descendents

May You have mercy upon my weakness, my poverty, my needinlss, and my ! wretchedness

O' He Who had mercy upon Jacob, the elder, while He returned Yusef, his dear one, to
! him

! (O' He Who had mercy on Job after his long trial (of affliction

! O' He Who had mercy upon Muhammad and Who sheltered him, the orphan

And Who assisted him against tyrants of Quraysh and their false deities, and gave him
! authority upon them

! O' Helper ! O' Helper ! O' Helper

By Allah ! If you recite this supplication and ask Allah for your whole needs, He will" (bestow (them to) you." \(1\)

Ali-ibn-` Ibrāhīm has narrated from Hadrat Ridā (a.s.), the eighth Imam, who said " Sura Al-` An`ām was sent down at the same time and seventy thousand angels accompanied it with the sound of glorification, exaltation and proclamation of His greatness. Whoever recites this Sura, angels will give glory (unto Allah) for him until (the Resurrection Day." \(2\)

All) praise belongs to Allah, Who created the heavens and the earth and appointed darkness and light; yet those who disbelieve hold (others) as equal with their Lord

Commentary : verse 1

In the whole text of the Qur'ān, the Arabic word /nūr/ (light) has been mentioned in the singular form while its opposite term, /zulumāt/ (darkness), has occurred in its plural form. The concerning reason is that the `Truth' is only one, but the false ways are many. `Light' is the secret of unity but `darkness' is the cause of dispersion

Therefore, the first verse of this Sura points to the system of existence, the second verse hints to the creation of man; and the third verse refers to the deeds and behaviour of human beings

All) praise belongs to Allah, Who created the heavens and the earth and appointed darkness and light; yet those who disbelieve hold (others) as equal

And, as Hadrat Ali (a.s.) has said, this verse is an answer to three groups of the

(B) Dualists, who believe that `light' and `darkness' have two separate origins.(1

Commentary : verse ٢

Point

In the previous verse, extrovertive phenomena and the creation of the heavens and the earth were mentioned. Here, in this verse, the creation of Man and the innate .affairs are referred to

More than twenty times the term of /ajalin musammā/ (the appointed end) has been .stated in the Qur'ān

Concerning the life's final term, Allah has appointed two kinds of time for humankind. One of them is so certain that if all protections be fulfilled, too, the course of lifetime .will be consumed and, like the oil of a torch, it will be finished

.The second divine appointed time is concerned to our own conduct

.It is like an oil lamp which contains enough oil but we put it in the current of a storm

In the Islamic literature, deeds such as visiting ones kin, free will offering, alms, and supplications are recorded as the factors that cause the lifetime to be prolonged; while some actions like break off connection with one's kindred and injustice have .been introduced as the cause of shortening the lifetime of the one

It is narrated from Ibn-`Abbās that Allah has set two kinds of `appointed end' for humankind. One of them is from birthday until death, and the other is from death until the day of Resurrection. By his deeds, a person may sometimes decrease from one and increase the time of the other. Therefore, the conclusion of the life's final term of

.no person is changeable

The verse, addressing the infidels, implies that such people, who are polytheists, are doubtful about the Creator Who has created man from this worthless origin, viz. clay, and Who has passed him from these amazing

In answer to those who consider a separate god for every type of thing, such as god
: of rain, god of war, god of peace, god of sky, and the like of them (١) , the verse says

" ... ! And He is Allah in the heavens and in the earth "

It is obvious that the One Who dominates everywhere and in whose authority is the divise of everything, the Omnipresent, knows all the secret and concealed things. So,
:it is such that in the next sentence, the verse says

".He knows your secret and your open, and He knows what you earn ..."

".away from it

So they indeed belied the truth when it came unto them, therefore very soon the " ٥
".(bitter) tidings will come to them of what they used to mock at

Commentary : verses ٤-٥

Point

As it was mentioned before, the words stated in Sura Al-'An`ām mostly address polytheists. The fact is that the Qur`ān applies kinds of different means to inform them might be they become aware. This verse points to the pagans' mood of obstinacy, heedlessness, and arrogance against the truth and the signs of Allah. It implies that they are so obstinate and disrespectful that whatever sign out of Allah's signs they : see they immediately turn aside from it. The verse says

There never came unto them any Sign from the Signs of their Lord but they turned "
".away from it

This quality was not confined to the Age of Ignorance and the pagans of Arab. At the present time, even, there are many persons who do not suffer the trouble of only one hour research and investigation about their Lord and the divine religion. So, it is evident that when they come across a book or a passage in this field, they do not .study it

Moreover, if a person speaks with them upon the matter, they usually do not listen to him. These people are some ignorant and unaware arrogant ones who may .sometimes appear in society in the form of scientists

****

p: ۷۴

: Then, the next verse points to the consequence of this very action of theirs, and says

"... ,So they indeed belied the truth when it came unto them "

It is in a case that if they contemplated carefully over the Divine verses, they would .see the truth very well, and recognize it and believe in it

: The verse continues saying therefore very soon the (bitter) tidings will come to them of what they used to ..."

".mock at

The stages of infidelity

In fact, the two above-mentioned verses refer to three stages of infidelity where,
.stage by stage, they are intensified

At first, it is the stage of turning away. Then there comes the stage of belying the Divine verses. And, after that, there is the stage of mocking the facts and Signs of
.Allah

Commentary : verse ٧

Some of pagans used to say that they might believe when a written paper accompanied with an angel was sent down to them. But they told a lie, and they were seeking an excuse

This idea means that the circle of obstinacy of such people have become so vastly expanded that they reject the most clear perceptible things, and refrain from submitting to them under the pretext of manifest sorcery

:The verse says

And had We sent down unto you a book written on a paper, so that they touched it "
:with their hands, certainly (still) the disbelievers would have said

" ' .This is nought but manifest sorcery `

And they said: ` Why has not an angel been sent down to him ? And if We had sent " ٨ down an angel, the matter would have certainly been determined
".and then they would not be granted any respite

Commentary : verse ٨

The disbelievers protested why there was not sent down an angel to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) so openly that they could see him with their own eyes and, consequently,
.they might attest his prophethood

"... ? And they said: ` Why has not an angel been sent down to him "

Then, in order to show that their disobedience has reached to its climax, the verse implies that had Allah sent down an angel as they wished, they would not have believed. So, the divine wisdom and common good required that Allah should not respite them any more, and would immediately involve them in a punishment to : destroy them. The verse itself says

And if we had sent down an angel, the matter would have certainly been ..."

And had We appointed him (Our Messenger) an angel, We would certainly have " ٩ .
made him as a man, and We would certainly have made confused to them what they
".(now) make confused

Commentary : verse ٩

If an angel were to become an example of human beings, how could it be the symbol
? of those persons who are in the storm of their low instincts, food and lusts

Therefore, the verse may mean that if the Prophet were an angel, he would appear in the guise of a man so that they could see him. This matter would cause people to be .led into an error whether he is a human being or an angel

And had We appointed him (Our Messenger) an angel, We would certainly have " made him as a man, and We would certainly have made confused to them what they
".(now) make confused

However, for the purpose of training and invitation, people should be given some symbols from among themselves, so that those symbols take the lead in invitations and actions. Besides, people and angels have not a general resemblance with each
.other

!Again, according to the words of the Qur'ān, the prophet of Allah should be a ` male

Thus, Allah's ways of treatment have been arranged wisely, and they do not change
.with the desires of this one or that one

And certainly some Messengers were mocked at, before you, then the retribution " ١٠ .
.which they used to ridicule fell on them

Commentary : verse ١٠

This verse can be counted as a soothing for the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.). The evidence is that, firstly, the former messengers of Allah were mocked, too; secondly, the mockers will be confronted with not only the chastisement of the Hereafter but also the Divine wrath in the present world. Their own dangerous plots will surround
.the plotters themselves

: The verse says

And certainly some Messengers were mocked at before you, then the retribution " ١٠ .
.which they used to ridicule fell on them

.However, mockery is one of the great sins which has been promised punishment for

Commentary : verse ۱۱

Here, the Qur'ān has taken another method of awakening these arrogant conceited
: persons. It tells the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to admonish them by such a statement

"... Say : Travel in the earth"

No doubt that seeing the remaining traces of the former people by one's eyes and those nations who pave the way of destruction as a result of neglecting the facts, is more effective than studying their history in their concerning books. The reason is .that these traces make the truth more sensible and perceptible

By the way, it should be noted that such a fleeting beauty or splendour is not .important, but the final consequence is important

"... the end of the rejecters ..."

Thus, the failure of the opponents of the truth is certain. If you doubt, you can study their history, or by travelling, you can see their traces and take an example from
.them

It is noteworthy to know that the divine commandment mentioned by the holy phrase
: " Travel in the earth ", which is recited in this verse, has occurred six times in the

Unfortunately, the infidels observed this expressive commandment more practically than the Muslims. They travelled into Islamic countries and explored all parts of their lands and became aware of their mines, stores, the points of their strength and weakness, their cultural works, manuscripts and arts, and spoilt them .while Muslims were in the sleep of negligence

Imam Amir-ul-Mu'mineen Ali (a.s.) said: " By his lie, a liar obtains the Wrath of Allah, the Glorified, the affront of people, and the enmity of angels." (Qurar-ul-Hikam, vol. ۲, (p. ۸۷۶

١٢- قُلْ لِمَنْ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ قُلْ لِلَّهِ

كَتَبَ عَلَى نَفْسِهِ الرَّحْمَةَ لِيَجْمَعَنَّكُمْ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ -مَهْ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهِ

Say: ` To whom belongs what is in the heavens and the earth ?" Say: ` To Allah, " ١٢. He has prescribed mercy on Himself. He will surely gather you on the Resurrection Day, of which there is no doubt. Those who have lost their own selves, they will not believe " '.

Commentary : verse ١٢

Point

The phrase: " He has prescribed mercy on Himself " has occurred two times in the Qur'ān, both of which are recited in this Holy Sura, verses ١٢ and ٥٤.

The phrase "... of which there is no doubt ..." has been mentioned about both the Qur'ān and the Hereafter.

As Allah has ordained and assigned some duties for us, He has prescribed some duties for Himself, too. Among them are those which are mentioned in the Qur'ān such as `guidance': " Surely Ours is it to show the way." (Sura-Al-Layl, No. ٩٢, verse ١٢), and Giving sustenance: " And there is no animal in the earth but on Allah is the (sustenance of it..." (Sura Hūd, No. ١١, Verse ٤).

:Bestowing mercy upon the servants

"He has prescribed mercy on Himself "

But the condition of receiving the Divine mercy is that the servants themselves should have mercy upon others

A tradition says: " Whoever does not have mercy (upon others) will not be shown (mercy on." (Fī-Zalāl, a commentary book

The mercy of Allah is abundant. Salman has narrated a tradition from the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) who said : " The mercy of Allah is one hundred degrees, one of which is the origin of all graces of Allah in this world. On the Day of Judgement, Allah will deal with .(people by the whole one hundred degrees of His mercy. (Fī-Zalāl, 'Ālūsī

This fact should be noted that the great loss of the disbelievers lies in this that instead of reasoning they go after their delusions; and instead of taking the godly saints, they seek for false deities; and instead of Faith and observing the Hereafter, they .disbelieve; and instead of submitting to the Light, they submit to Hell Fire

The kinds of Allah's Mercy

But whatever comes forth from Allah upon the world of existence, is based on Mercy, .and Allah's Mercy is spread over all things everywhere

The Qur'ān indicates that the Divine Mercy involves everything. In this regard, Sura .1 : Al-'A`rāf, No. 7, verse 56 says

"... ; My mercy encompasses all things ..."

:This mercy has many examples, including Rain: " And He it is Who sends down the rain after they have despaired, and He .(unfolds His mercy ; ..." (Sura Ash-Shourā, No. 42, Verse 28 Wind : " And He it is Who sends the winds as good news heralding His mercy, ..." (Sura .(Al-`A`rāf, No. 7, verse 57 Night and day : " And out of his mercy He has made for you the night and the day, ..." .((Sura Al-Qaşeş No. 28, verse 33

Commentary : verse ١٣

As a cradle, the night and the day give human beings, and all creatures, peace and tranquillity in their laps. Some of the living creatures rest at night while some others .rest during the day

Whatever exists in the universe, whether they are manifested or concealed, belongs to Him. Therefore, not only the whole system of existence belongs to Allah, but also its .governance and its control is His

I have been commanded to be the first who submits himself ' . And be not you (O' `
" .Muhammad) of the polytheists

Commentary : verse ١٤

Again, in this verse the words are upon the unity of Allah and rejecting paganism and
.idolatry

In the same time that pagans accepted that the creation of the world specified to
.Divine Essence, they had taken idols as their support and refuge

For the purpose of destroying the false imagination, The Qur'ān instructs the Prophet
: (p.b.u.h.) such Say: ` Shall I take a guardian besides Allah, the Originator of the heavens and the "

" ...! ? earth, and He feeds (others) and is not (Himself) fed

It is worthy to note that among all the attributes of Allah, here; the Qur'ān has emphasized but on feeding the creatures and giving them their sustenance. Using this sense, maybe, is for the sake that most of the connections in the material life of man relate to this very material need, viz, the need in eating a piece of bread, which makes persons to humiliate themselves before the masters of wealth and power. The case .may be so that sometimes they bow before them as if they worship them

In the above-mentioned verse, the Qur'ān denotes that your sustenance is in the .authority of Allah, not in that of them

Then, in answer to the suggestion of those who invited the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to join the camp of polytheists, the Qur'ān instructs him to say that besides the command of wisdom which leads him to rely on the One Who is the Creator of the heavens and the earth, he also says that the revelation of Allah has instructed him to be the first Muslim who submits himself, and never he joins the row of polytheists

p: ۸۷

"! Say: ` Verily I fear, if I disobey my Lord, the retribution of a grievous Day " .١٥

Commentary : verse ١٥

There are two kinds of fear. The first kind is that sort of awe which is indecent, such as fearing from Holy Struggle. The second kind is that fear which is agreeable and .praiseworthy, like fearing from Allah's punishment

The Divine Law has been decreed equally for all. Even the Messenger of Allah should .fear from its evil, if he sinned

The fear of the saints of Allah, of course, is for the sake of Allah's wrath, not from the deities or from people. And, indeed, fear is one of the impedimental factors from .deviation and committing wrong

Regarding to the existence of the Divine completing the argument denoting that the Lord is both the Creator and the Sustainer, and has commanded to submission and prohibited from polytheism, disobedience from the command of Allah deserves .punishment

: The verse, addressing the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), commands

"! Say: ` Verily I fear, if I disobey my Lord, the retribution of a grievous Day "

****

Whoever is spared of it (the Divine retribution) on that Day, He has certainly been " ١٦ .

Commentary : verse ١٦

The Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) once said: " By Allah in Whose hand is my soul, no one of people may enter into Paradise (merely) by his own deed." They asked him : " Even you, O' Messenger of Allah ? " The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) answered: " Even I, unless
".Allah shelters me with His mercy and grace

Then, the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) put his hands on his head and recited the above-(mentioned verse. (Tafsir Nūr-uth-Thaqalayn, vol. ١, P. ٧٠٦; and Majma`-ul-Bayān Whoever is spared of it (the Divine retribution) on that Day, He has certainly been "

".merciful to him, and that is the manifest triumph

Everybody is threatened to fall in danger. Saving from the Divine punishment
.demands a particular grace from the side of Allah

.However, prosperity can be gained only in the light of security from His Wrath

;And if Allah touches you with affliction, none can remove it but He " .١٧

".and if He touches you with good, then He is All-Powerful over all things

Commentary : verse ١٧

Hopes should be to Allah, and feares should also be from Allah, since the origin of all affairs is the same. It is not such that the goodnesses come from one source and the .cause of removing vices originates from another source

.The Laws of Allah are legitimated for all and they let no exception

The holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) should betake to Allah when confronting the bitter and : sweet incidents, too. The verse says

;And if Allah touches you with affliction, none can remove it but He "

".and if He touches you with good, then He is All-Powerful over all things

****

And He is the Omnipotent over His servants, and He is the All-Wise, the All- " .١٨

Commentary : verse ١٨

In the current Sura, verse No. ١٤, the discussion was about creative power and sustenance of Allah. In verse ١٥, it was about the Wrath of Allah and Hereafter. In verse ١٦, the words were upon the Divine rescue and mercy. Verse ١٧ is about solving the difficulties and reaching the goodnesses. So, in this verse, His absolute Power (Omnipotence) is stated about

If it happens that some tyrant persons dominate others for some days ` because of ignorance, weakness and disunity of people, it is sure that His Omnipotence ruins all these arrangements and, in the frame of wisdom and knowledge, He utilizes His :Power and Dominance. That is why the Qur'ān says

".And He is the Omnipotent over His servants, and He is the All-Wise, the All-Aware "

Commentary : verse ١٩

The pagans of Mecca demanded witness from the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) for his prophethood. They did not accept the prophecy of the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) and told him that even the Jews and the Christians did not know him a divine prophet. This holy verse, with an atmosphere of Allah's inspiration and help, and at the time of loneliness of Islam, foretells a bright and promising future for Muslims, when it hates .polytheism

For three times, and in a short phrase, the Qur'ān refers to Unity of Allah while :quitting polytheism. The verse says

Say: ` What thing is the greatest in testimony ? ' Say: ` Allah ! He is witness between " me and you, and this Qur'ān has been revealed to me that I may warn you thereby, and whomever it reaches. Do you indeed testify that there are other gods with Allah ? : ' Say: ` I do not testify ' . Say hostile plots, the Qur'ān itself is the greatest evidence to the Prophet's Messengership

The messengership of Muhammad (p.b.u.h.) is both worldly and eternal, for all humankind and in all ages

However, a permanent warning indeed, should be accompanied with an everlasting warner. Therefore, the divine Imamate and leadership should also be together with the Qur'ān forever

Commentary : verse ٢٠

.The content of this verse is similar to that of Sura Al-Baqarah, No. ٢, verse ١٤٦

Not only the name and qualities of the Prophet of Islam were mentioned in the Turah and the Evangel and the scholars of the People of the Book had informed their people of him under the title of ' the promised prophet', but also the characteristics of this holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and his companions were recorded in their Books. The Qur'ān says: " Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah, and those with him are the firm (of heart) against the unbelievers, compassionate among themselves, ... that is their

In this verse, the Qur'ān clearly answers to those who claimed that the People of the Book had no evidence upon the prophethood of the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.), when it
: says

Those whom We have given The Book (the Jews and Christians) recognize him "

And, at the end of the verse, as a final conclusion, the Qur'ān announces that, with all these clear signs, only those people do not believe in this Prophet who have lost all their things and the capital of their own selves in the bargaining market of commercial
: transactions of lives. It says

".Yet those who have lost their own selves, they will not believe ..."

Section ۳: Polytheists shall themselves confess their guilt

Point

The greatness of the guilt of being polytheist The polytheists shall themselves deny polytheism which they had themselves held as their conviction

.They shall desire to be returned to this life

۲۱- وَمَنْ أَظْ-لَمَ مِمَّنِ افْتَرَىٰ عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا

And who is more unjust than him who forges a lie against Allah or denies His " ۲۱.

;Signs

".verily the unjust will not succeed

Commentary : verse ۲۱

The Qur'ānic expression /wa man azlamu/ (and who is more unjust) has occurred in the Qur'ān about fifteen times. This phrase has been used with the senses of calumny against Allah, barring people from going into the mosques, and concealing the testimony of the Truth. This denotes that cultural injustice and barring people from .rectitude and comprehension, is the worst injustice upon the society

Setting a stone and a piece of wood equal to the Lord is an injustice toward Him, and .worshipping them is an injustice toward humanity

Therefore, the unjust people will never meet the true salvation. The above- : mentioned verse says

And who is more unjust than him who forges a lie against Allah or denies His Signs; "

".verily the unjust will not succeed

The more an oppressed person is dear and holy, the more intense is the danger of transgression against him. That is why being unjust toward the Lord and the Sacred ,House, and belying against Divine Holy Essence

: are the worst injustice

"... And who is more unjust "

Transgression upon the thought and culture of nations is one of the worst transgressions. Polytheism, forging a lie against Allah, a false claim of being the divine prophet, innovation, interpretation of the Qur'ān by personal opinion, concealing the Truth, and the like, are all kinds of this sort of injustice

.The following couple of traditions are recorded in Qurar-ul-Hikam, vol. ۱, p. ۱۴۹

Imam Amir-ul-Mu'mineen Ali (a.s.) said: " Avoid transgression. It is the greatest sin.

".Verily every transgressor will be punished for his transgression

".Again, he (a.s.) said: " Avoid cruelty. Whoever commits it, his life will become dark

And on the Day We will muster them all together, then We will say to those who " ٢٢ . associated partners (to Allah): ` Where are your associate-gods whom you were " ' ? asserting

Commentary : verse ٢٢

In the previous verse, it was said that the oppressors, who apparently gain some social ranks by calumny, rejection and concealing the Truth, will not meet salvation, A prosperous person is one who has some positive matters for answering the questions .in the Hereafter, because all the polytheistic imaginations will be effaced therein

And on the Day We will muster them all together, then We will say to those who " associated partners (to Allah) : ` Where are your associate-gods whom you were " ' ? asserting

The objective meaning of the Arabic word /jami`an/ mentioned in the verse, is either `all human beings', or the polytheists and the idols. The evidence for this idea is the content of another verse that targets men and their wives, and what they were worshipping. That verse says: " Gather together those who were unjust and their mates, and what they used to worship." (1)

It is true that the verse under discussion refers to polytheists, but those who accept the leadership of other than Allah's saints, and oppose the friends of Allah, are rather .a kind of polytheists

" .In Jāmi`ah Supplication, we recite : "And he who opposes you is a disbeliever

"! we were not polytheists

See how they (the polytheists) lie against their own selves, and that which they " .٢٤

Commentary : verses ٢٣-٢٤

The Arabic term /fitnah/, here, has been rendered into `intimidated to idols and
'.paganism'; or, it means `excuse

Then their excuse would be nothing but that they would say : `By Allah, our Lord ! we "
"! were not polytheists

.As their quality requires, liars tell lies on the Day of Judgement, too

In this regard the Qur'ān says: " On the day that Allah will raise them up all, then they will swear to Him as they swear to you, and they think that they have something; now surely they are the liars ." Regarding this holy verse, Imam Amir-ul-Mu'mineen Ali (a.s.) in a tradition has said that after this lie, their lips will be sealed and their other
.limbs will tell the truth

.Thus, in the court of Allah, neither telling a lie is helpful, nor an oath

See how they (the polytheists) lie against their own selves, and that which they were "
".forging has passed away from them

Hence, the polytheists will dislike their own thoughts and creeds on the Hereafter
: Day, when they will say

".'we were not polytheists ..."

.However, on the Hereafter Day, surely hating polytheism will not be helpful

٢٥- وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ يَسْتَمِعُ إِلَيْكَ and (even) if they see every sign they will not believe in it, so that when they come to : you they dispute with you, those who disbelieve say `.' This is naught but the legends of the ancients `

Commentary : verse ٢٥

In this verse, the psychological conditions of some of the pagans are hinted to. They do not usually show the least inclination from themselves when they are told the facts. They not only do not show inclination, but also oppose these facts hostilely, and, by means of calumny, they keep themselves and others aloof from them. Concerning : these people, the Qur'ān says

And of them there are some who hearken to you, and We have laid veils upon their "
"...;hearts lest they understand it, and in their ears a heaviness

Indeed, attributing such matters to Allah relates to `the law of causation' and the property of `action'. That is, the result of continuation in doing wrong and insisting on .obstinacy is that it turns the soul and self of the person into its own nature

Experience has proved this fact that, at first, evil-doers feel inconvenience with their own evil action. But little by little, they will be accustomed to it, so that there may come some day that they count doing their evil actions obligatory. So, the verse indicates that their circumstance has changed to a state that if they see all the signs and revelations of

p: 100

.Allah they will not believe in them

: The verse says

"... ,and (even) if they see every sign they will not believe in it ..."

The verse informs the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) implying that beyond their disbelief, when they come to you they have no aim but disputing and quarrelling with you. The verse
: says

"... ,so that when they come to you they dispute with you ..."

Instead of hearkening to you heartily and, at least, in the form of a seeker of the truth that they should contemplate upon it to probably find it, they stand against it with a negative soul and thought. When they hear your statements, which have originated from the source of revelation, they cannot afford it but using the strike of calumny.

:The verse continues saying

".' those who disbelieve say : ` This is naught but the legends of the ancients..."

And they prohibit people from it, and themselves they keep afar from it, and they " ٢٦
".destroy none save themselves, while they are not aware

Commentary : verse ٢٦

The Arabic term /yan'aun/, mentioned in the verse, is derived from /na'ya/ with the 'sense of ` to avoid

Some of the commentators of the Sunnite schooled have considered this verse about Abūtālib. They have said that he prohibited people from hurting Muhammad while he himself did not believe in Islam and avoided becoming Muslim. They similarly have considered some other verses of the Qur'ān concerning this matter, such as Sura At-
.Taubah, No. ٩, verse ١١٥, and Sura Al-Qaṣaṣ, No. ٢٨, Verse ٥٧

But, from the view point of Shi`ah school, Abūtalib was one of the best Muslims whose
.belief has been reflected in his poems

Moreover, a Muslim believing woman like Fatimah Bent-i-Asad lived as a wife with him until the end of his life. This is also another evidence for this idea. (refer to al-(Qadīr, vols. ٧ and ٨

However, pagans and polytheists always try to hinder people and keep them afar
.from the path of benevolence and good deeds

And they prohibit people from it, and themselves they keep afar from it, and they "
".destroy none save themselves, while they are not aware

Keeping afar from the acceptance of truth by a person is paving the way of .annihilation upon his own self

The real awareness is finding the path of truth, while losing the path of truth and
.leader of truth, from whoever it maybe, is foolishness

٢٧- وَلَوْ تَرَىٰ إِذْ وَقَفُوا عَلَى النَّارِ

فَقَالُوا يَا لَيْتَنَا نُرَدُّ وَلَا نُكَذِّبُ بـ اى- ات رَبَّنَا وَنَكُونُ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ

27. "And if you could see when they are stationed before the (Hell) Fire "

,then they say : ` Would that we might be returned

".'and we would not belie the Signs of our Lord, and we would be of the believers

Commentary : verse ٢٧

According to the verses of the Qur'ān, the desire of returning to this world in human beings is found both at the moment of death, and in the grave, and in Hereafter. Sura Al-Mu'minūn, No. ٢٣, verses ٩٩ and ١٠٠ say: " Until when death overtakes one of them, he says: ` My Lord ! send me back again (into the world) '." " That I may do good ...". And, again, the same Sura, verse ١٠٧ says : " O' our Lord ! Take us out of it; then if we .return (to evil) we shall be unjust

We must believe in the truth as long as we have been respited in this world, because it .will be too late in the Hereafter

And if you could see when they are stationed before the (Hell) Fire, then they say : " ` Would that we might be returned, and we would not belie the Signs of our Lord, and ".we would be of the believers

As the philosophers and wisemen have said, this world is the place of movement and the coming world is the world of actuality. As far as an apple is with the tree, it has some movement towards development. But, when it separates from the tree, that .movement will end and no more growth is expected from it

Therefore, if a person wishes to be among the dwellers of Paradise, he must prepare .the concerning means of development in this life, which is the world of movement

.Otherwise, he will be involved with punishment

By the way, the consequence of rejecting the Signs of Allah will be remorse in the .Hereafter, and being entangled with the Hell-Fire

٢٨- بَلْ بَدَا لَهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يُخْفُونَ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَلَوْ رُدُّوا

;Rather, what they used to hide before has (now) appeared to them " .٢٨ and even if they were returned, they would revert to what they were prohibited, and ".most certainly they are liars

Commentary : verse ٢٨

The Resurrection Day is the day of manifestation of people's hidden secrets. The Qur'ān has frequently pointed out this fact. A few of these Qur'ānic occurrences are
: as follows

And the evil (consequences) of what they did shall become manifest to them ... " "
.(Sura Al-Jāthiyah, No. ٤٥, verse ٣٣)

And the evil (consequences) of what they wrought shall become manifest to them, "
.(Sura Az-Zumar, No. ٣٩, verse ٤٨)

.On the Day of Judgement, all the secrets will be uncovered

"... ;Rather, what they used to hide before has (now) appeared to them "

It is impossible for the mortals to return from the coming world back to this world. The
: verse continues saying

"... ,and even if they were returned ..."

There are some vicious persons that we cannot expect them to become well again. They will not change even with the respite they will ask for. Sometimes it happens that a person is confronted with difficulties, calamities and bitter circumstances. When such a person is in that condition, the one may make some good decisions, but .later, when he reaches to ease and welfare, he forgets all of them

"... ,and even if they were returned, they would revert to what they were prohibited ..."

So, when telling lies becomes a quality in a person, he will tell a lie in the Hereafter,
.too, and will bring some false claims there

".and most certainly they are liars ..."

Is this not the truth ? ' They will say : ` Yes, by our Lord ! ' He will say : ` Taste you then `
".'the chastisement for what you used to disbelieve

Commentary : verses ٢٩-٣٠

This verse is the continuation of the statements of the arrogant and stubborn pagans who, by seeing the scenes of Resurrection, desire to return back to this world once more in order to compensate. But the Qur'ān implies that if these people return to the world, they not only will not compensate their evils, but also will continue committing their vicious deeds, and, basically, they deny the Resurrection and Hereafter, too

Surprisingly, they will say that the life is only the life of this world and they will not be : raised again. The verse says

And they say : ` There is nothing save our life of the world and we shall not be "
".' resurrected

In this holy verse, the Qur'ān hints to these people's fate on the Resurrection Day, : and says

:And if you could see when they are stationed before their Lord ! He will say "

"... '! Is this not the truth ? ' They will say : ` Yes, by our Lord `

They are told once more that they should taste the punishment for that they used to :reject that punishment, and they disbelieved. The Qur'ān says

"!He will say : `Taste you then the chastisement for what you used to disbelieve ..."

It is sure that the purpose of `standing before the Lord' is not that Allah (s.w.t.) has a place. It means to stand before the scenes of His punishments. This status is the same as the state of establishing the canonical prayer for which a servant says he is .standing before Allah

Section ۴: Those who disbelieve the meeting of Allah are certainly losers

Point

Rejection of Truth is a sure loss. Life of this world is nothing but play and pastime. The abode of the Hereafter is the best for the pious ۳۱- قَدْ خَسِرَ الَّذِينَ كَذَّبُوا بِلِقَاءِ اللَّهِ

حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَاءَتْهُمْ السَّاعَةُ بَغْتَةً قَالُوا ۚ- أَحْسَرْنَا عَلَىٰ مَا فَرَطْنَا فِيهَا

وَهُمْ يَحْمِلُونَ أَوْزَارَهُمْ عَلَىٰ ظُهُورِهِمْ

أَلَا سَاءَ مَا يَزُرُونَ

They indeed are losers who deny the meeting with Allah until, when the hour " ۳۱. comes on them all of a sudden, they will say : ` Alas for us, for what we neglected in it !
;' And they shall bear their burdens on their backs

" ! now beware, evil is that which they bear

Commentary : verse ۳۱

Point

The purpose of "meeting of Allah" is the spiritual meeting and inner intuition in the Hereafter. The reason of it is that all of the dependances of man unto wealth, position, and relatives will be ceased from him there, and, by facing with the divine reward and retribution, he will perceive the absolute Sovereignty of Allah

Regret is for losing merits and interests, while remorse is for damages coming forth. (۱) However, in the Hereafter regret is useless. That is why sins will be burdens on the shoulder of the sinners. They feel their evil consequence like a heavy load on their back, specially when they see the scene of the Divine punishment

A tradition narrated from the prophet (p.b.u.h) indicates that those who are in the ١ –١ Hell Fire will see their places in Heaven and say: "Also for us." (Nūr-uth-Thaqalayn, vol. ١, p. ٧١١)

! Therefore, evil is the burden that will be stored for the evil doers

The real loser

: The verse says

They indeed are losers who deny the meeting with Allah until, when the hour comes " on them all of a sudden, they will say : ` Alas for us, for what we neglected in it ! ' And ! they shall bear their burdens on their backs; now beware, evil is that which they bear "

The holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: " A loser is the one who is neglectful of improving his (Hereafter's affair." (Madinat-ul-Balāqah, vol. ۲, p. ۴۹۲ Imam Amir-ul-Mu'mineen Ali (a.s.) said: " How much loser the one is who possesses (no merit in Hereafter." (Qurar-ul-Hikam, vol. ۱, p. ۷۴۶

****

And the life of the world is naught but play and pastime, and certainly the abode " ٣٢
" ? of the Hereafter is better for those who keep from evil; have you then no sense

Commentary : verse ٣٢

Point

If the life of this world does not be considered as a field for the coming world, it becomes a toy, and human beings will be busy, as children, with playthings such as property, position and so on. Their status can be resembled to the scene of a theater where a person appears in the guise of a king, another one plays in the function of a servant, and the third one becomes a minister therein. After some while, all the clothings and functions will be set aside and these persons actually find out that it has .been only a play or a film wherein they had a role of playing

:The resemblance of the world to `play and pastime' is found in the following aspects

A) The lifetime in this world is short as the length of the time of a game

B) Similar to a game, which contains of pleasure and tiredness, the world is also a .combination of sweetness and bitterness

C) Some neglectful aimless persons take playing games as their businesses

Anyhow, when the Creator of the world knows the negligence of man from the coming world and being busy with the present world as `play and pastime', why do ? we not believe in it

This world, without observing the next world, is dangerous; but if this world be used as a passway, towards the next world, and also a preliminary field of planting the .plants of goodness for the coming world, it can be a place of development

It should be noted, of course, that the cause of development, and reaching the blesses in the Hereafter, is virtue

يَجْحَدُونَ

Indeed We know that what they say surely grieves you. Yet verily it is not you " ۳۳ .
".(that) they belie, but the unjust deny the Signs of Allah

Commentary : verse ۳۳

It is cited in the occasion of revelation of this verse that the enemies of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) knew him as a truthful and trustworthy person

But they said if they confirmed him, their tribe and their rank would be despised. Or, they said that Muhammad (p.b.u.h.) was truthful, but he imagined that he was revealed to. They rejected the divine verses in such manner

Rejecting the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is the same as rejecting Allah (s.w.t.). It is similar to the allegiance with the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) that is allegiance with Allah

.The opponents of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) are adversaries of Allah

.Thus, we should not be sorry

The fruit of rejecting the Divine verses and the saints of Allah is being unjust both to themselves that they do not believe in the truth, and to the Messenger of Allah that they grieve him (p.b.u.h.), and to Islam, and to generations

: The verse says

Indeed We know that what they say surely grieves you. Yet verily it is not you (that) " .they belie, but the unjust deny the Signs of Allah

Messengers indeed have been denied before you, but they were patient on being " ۳۴. denied and hurt, until Our help came unto them; and there is none to change the words of Allah, and certainly there has come to you some information about the ".messengers

Point

The former prophets and their patience should be our models. The destruction of old nations such as: the people of Hūd, the people of Ṣāliḥ, the people of Lūt and some others, who belied the truth, should be taken an example of. Allah's way of treatment .is to send messengers, and people are free to accept them or not

Then, He punishes the disbelievers and assists the messengers in their way of .invitation

Messengers indeed have been denied before you, but they were patient on being " " ... ;denied and hurt, until Our help came unto them

.It is certain that the opponents neglect no effort against the Truth

They belie it and hurt, but Truth is always victorious. (۱) Moreover, Allah's way of .treatment is not changeable and there is none to change the words of Allah, and certainly there has come to ... " ".you some information about the messengers

We recite in some other verses of the Quran:" ... I will most certainly prevail. I and my apostles; ..." (Sura Al-Mujadilah, No. ۵۸, verse ۲۱). "... and helping the believers is ever incumbent on Us." (Sura Ar-Rum, No.۳۰, verse ۴۷). "Most surely We help Our apostles,..." (Sura Al-Mu'min, No, No.۴۰, verse ۵۱). "...and surely Allah will help him who (helps His cause,..." (Sura Al-Hajj, No.۲۲, verse ۴۰

'The meaning of 'kalimat

The Qur'ānic term /kalimāt), mentioned in the holy verse, means ` Allah's way of treatment '. The evidences for this meaning are the following holy verses: " And certainly Our word has already gone forth in respect of Our servants, the apostles."

.((Sura s-Şāffāt, No. ۳۷, verse ۱۷۱)

Most surely they shall be the assisted ones." (Sura s-Şāffāt No. ۳۷, verse ۱۷۲). " And " ".most surely Our host alone shall be the victorious ones

فَتَأْتِيهِمْ بِ-أَيِّهِ وَلَوْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ لَجَمَعَهُمْ عَلَى الْهُدَى

And if their turning away is hard upon you, then if you can seek a hole into the " ٣٥ earth, or a ladder to heaven, so that you bring them a sign (they will not believe); and had Allah willed, He would have gathered them all to the guidance; so be not you of ".the ignorants

Commentary : verse ٣٥

The occasion of revelation of this verse indicates that pagans told the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) that they would not believe in him unless he could make an opening in the earth so that a spring should gush for them, or he could climb up the sky : "And they say : " We will by no means believe in you until you cause a fountain to gush forth .(from the earth for us." (Sura Al-Isrā', No. ١٧, verse ٩٠

Haply, the verse points to the kind of their inappropriate requests that even if he seeks a hole in the earth or climbs up a ladder unto the sky, confronting himself with difficulties, it will be useless in this regard. There is no deficiency in the Prophet's invitation, but these people are arrogant and obstinate. So, he ought not sympathize .with them so much for guiding them

And if their turning away is hard upon you, then if you can seek a hole into the earth, " ... ;(or a ladder to heaven, so that you bring them a sign (they will not believe

Yet, in order that no one imagines that Allah is not able to make them surrendered, : the Qur'ān immediately continues saying

"...;and had Allah willed, He would have gathered them all to the guidance ..."

.But it is clear that such a forceful faith is vain

The value of free-will

The creation of humankind is for the purpose of a development which is based on authority and free-will. It is only in the situation of free-will that the value of `believers' comparing with `disbelievers', and `good doers' compared with `evil-doers' is .recognized

: Then, the verse says

".so be not you of the ignorants ..."

This holy concluding phrase means that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) should not be restless so that he might lose patience and perseverance. He ought not to be worried about them more than the required measure because of their infidelity and polytheism, but he .ought to know that the right way is the same one that he paves

No doubt the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was aware of these facts, but the Lord, as a .remembrance and in order to comfort His Prophet (p.b.u.h.), tells him these matters

Only those accept who hearken, and (as for) the dead, Allah will raise them up; " ٣٦
".then unto Him they will be returned

Commentary : verse ٣٦

The Qur'ān has repeatedly resembled the rejectors of Truth as the dead and the deaf. For example, Sura An-Naml, No. ٢٧, verse ٨٠ as well as Sura Ar-Rūm, No. ٣٠, verse ٥٢, are cited as this: " Surely you do not make the dead to hear, and you do not make the ".deaf to hear the call when they go back retreating

.Human beings are free to choose their own path, whether it is right or wrong

Hearing the truth and accepting it, is a sign of the existence of the spiritual life and alertness in a person. The person who is in lack of spiritual life and does not accept the truth, is dead, because the animal life, which is usually rendered into eating and
.drinking to survive, is something that all living creatures possess, too

The verse addresses the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) implying that he should take care of the truth-seekers, and dealing with disbelievers is referred to Allah Who will call them
.to account on the Day of Resurrection

: It says

Only those accept who hearken, and (as for) the dead, Allah will raise them up; then "
".unto Him they will be returned

وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

And they say: ` Why has not a Sign been sent down to him (Muhammad) from his " ۳۷ .
"! Lord ? ' Say: ` Verily Allah is able to send down a Sign, but most of them do not know

Commentary : verse ۳۷

Upon the occasion of revelation of the verse, it has been cited that some of the chiefs of the Quraysh, seeking for excuses, told the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) that merely the Qur'ān .was not enough to work as his miracle

They wanted him to bring some miracles similar to what Jesus, Moses, Sāliḥ and \(Prophets like them had brought.\)

The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) who reminds people of the miracles of the former prophets, of course, can surely bring the like of those miracles himself, otherwise he might not remind people of them so that they ask him for something similar to them. Moreover, as the Islamic literature, recorded by both Shi` ites and Sunnites scholars denote, the .Messenger of Allah had some other miracles besides the Qur'ān, too

The main purpose of bringing miracles is showing the sign of Allah's infinite Power and the particular relation between Allah and His Messenger, not necessarily responding to the endless wishes of the obstinate people. Of course, sometimes miracles come : forth to answer to people's request, too. The verse says

"...! ,Lord ? ' Say: ` Verily Allah is able to send down a Sign However, a great deal of pretexts should not be listened to. The Qur'ān says: " And even if We had sent down to them the angels and the dead had spoken to them and We had brought together all things before them, they

(Majma`-ul-Bayān, Vol. ٣, P. ٢٩٤ (Arabic version ١-١)

.(would not have believed ..." (Sura Al-'An`ām, No. 6, verse 111)

By the way, it should be noted that if these sorts of demands, which are produced obstinately, be replied fully and then they do not believe, all of them will be faced with
.the Divine punishment and will be destroyed

The reason is that this manner is the utmost dishonour unto the Holy Presence of Allah, His Messenger, His revelations, and His miracles. So, at the end of the verse, it
: says

"! but most of them do not know ..."

ثُمَّ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ يُحْشَرُونَ

And there is no creature (that walks) on the earth nor a bird that flies with its two " ٣٨ wings, but they are communities the like of you. We have not neglected anything in "the Book, then unto their Lord shall they (all) be mustered

Commentary : verse ٣٨

Point

This verse speaks about Resurrection and the general assemblage of all living : creatures, ie. all kinds of animals, in Hereafter. At first, the verse says

And there is no creature (that walks) on the earth nor a bird that flies with its two " "... wings, but they are communities the like of you

Thus, similar to human beings, each kind of animals and birds are a community by themselves. That is, they also have knowledge, awareness, and perception in their own conditions, and they know the Lord Whom they glorify and sanctify as much as they are able to, although the standard of their perception is lower than that of .human beings

: Then, in the next phrase of the verse, the Lord says

"... ,We have not neglected anything in the Book ..."

: And at the end of the verse, the statement is

"...then unto their Lord shall they (all) be mustered ..."

Hence, the verse warns the polytheists that the Lord, Who has created all groups of animals and supplies their necessities and Who watches whatever they do, has

.appointed a resurrection for them entirely

How is it possible that He does not appoint a resurrection and a gathering for you ?
? And, as some pagans say, there would not exist anything beyond this life and death

p: ۱۱۹

? Is there a Resurrection for Animals

No doubt that the first condition of reckoning and rewards is the existence of intellect and awareness and, thereafter, duty and responsibility come forth

The adherents of this idea believe that the life of many animals continues with an interesting and surprising regularity which denotes to their high level of perception and awareness. There are a few persons who have heard no words about ants, bees, their formicaries, their beehives and their wonderful order and their surprising system

It is certain that we cannot simply count it as a phenomenon resulted from instinct. Natural disposition is usually the source of monotonous and constant activities. But the deeds which are not predictable in some specific conditions, done as reactions, are more similar to perception and awareness than instinct

For example, when a lamb, which has never seen a wolf in its life, sees that savage animal for the first time, it recognizes well that this enemy is dangerous. So, the lamb tries to defend and to save itself from the danger by any means that it can find

Apart from all of these, there are recited some meanings in a lot of verses of the Qur'ān which can be counted as a considerable reason for the existence of perception and awareness in some animals. For instance, the story of ants and their escape from the army of Solomon; the story of the hoopoe when it came into the zone of Sheba and brought some exciting news for Solomon, are a few evidences to this claim

In Islamic literature, there are also many traditions upon the resurrection of animals, including as follows

It is narrated from Abūthar who says : " We were at the presence of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) where, in front of us, two goats bunted each other

The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said ` Do you know why they bunted each other ? ' The :audience answered : ` No, we do not know '. The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said

"! But Allah knows why, and He will judge between them soon `

۳۹. "And those who belied Our Signs are deaf and dumb, in darkness " whomever Allah pleases He leads astray, and whomever He pleases, He sets him on a

Commentary : verse ۳۹

It is true that both guidance and misguidance are in knowledge and power of Allah, but the will of man and the abilities existed in him are effective, too. Besides, the Will of Allah is also based on Wisdom. Holy struggle on the way of Allah is a cause for the .Divine guidance, while being unjust toward people is a cause for misguidance

Therefore, infidelity and hostility are some darkneses which cause separation from .salvation

Concealing the Truth is counted dumbness and not hearkening it is deafness, and the : fruit of people's rejection is misguidance and Allah's wrath. The verse says

And those who belied Our Signs are deaf and dumb, in darkness; whomever Allah "
".pleases He leads astray, and whomever He pleases, He sets him on a straight path

However, paving the straight path needs a hearing ear, an impartial tongue and a Say: " Have you considered if Allah's torment comes to you (in the world) or the " ٤٠.

Hour (of Resurrection) comes to you, will you supplicate any one other than Allah, if " ? you are truthful

Commentary : verse ٤٠

Once more, the Qur'ān addresses the polytheists and, in front of them, reasons Divine Unity and monotheism in another way. It reminds them the extraordinary difficult and grievous moments of life, and seeks assistance from their conscience. It asks them whether they consider any shelter save Allah when they forget everything during these moments

Concerning such people, the verse commands the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to tell them to answer truly that if the punishment of Allah befalls them, or the Hereafter be set up with all its horrors, excitements and terrible events, do they have any one except
? Allah to remove their calamities

Say: " Have you considered if Allah's torment comes to you (in the world) or the Hour " (of Resurrection) comes to you, will you supplicate any one other than Allah, if you are
" ? truthful

The essence of the meaning of this verse is perceivable not only for pagans but also
.for every one when calamities and painful events come forth unto them

In ordinary cases, and in minor events, men may seek protection from others than Allah. But, when the event is extraordinarily violent, men neglect everything. At the very circumstance they feel a kind of hope for rescue in the depth of their heart, which originates from a mysterious unknown source of power. This is the very
.attention to Allah and the reality of Unity

Commentary : verse ٤١

.Natural Disposition, an Even Path toward Theology

A sincere supplication is the gateway toward security from dangers in this life.
(.Pagan's invocation has no answer in Hereafter

Thus, why do you refer to Allah only at the times of danger when you neglect your imaginary gods, and in ordinary circumstances you do not refer to Allah(1) ? The

How the former disbelievers were seized with distress and affliction

۴۲- وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَىٰ أُمَمٍ مِّن قَبْلِكَ فَآخَذْنَاَهُمْ بِالْأَسَاءِ وَالضَّرَّاءِ

لَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَضَرَّعُونَ

Indeed We sent (messengers) to nations before you, then We seized them with " ۴۲ .
".distress and affliction in order that they might humble themselves

Commentary : verse ۴۲

: The Qur'ānic word /ba'sā'/ has been applied in the senses of difficulties, fight, poverty, famine, flood, earthquake, and infectious diseases; and the Arabic term /darrā'/' has been used in the Arabic language with the meanings of: ` ' sorrow, grief, disgrace, ignorance, and failure

The appointment of Divine prophets, of course, and completing the argument has been a process and a Divine way of treatment in the length of history. So, the history .of the past is an example for the coming generations

Meantime, difficulties are some means for regarding Allah and managing .transgressors

.Therefore, neither any welfare is a grace nor any difficulty is a wrath

.At the time of calamities, the hands are raised up for supplication and asking help

: The verse says

Indeed We sent (messengers) to nations before you, then We seized them with "
".distress and affliction in order that they might humble themselves

It is cited in Nūr-uth-Thaqalayn, vol. ١, p. ٧١٧ that Imam Ali-ibn-Abī-Ṭālib (a.s.) said: " If people invoke truthfully to Allah when calamities fall down upon them, they will be "... ,removed from all their difficulties

" ٤٣. Why then did they not entreat when Our distress came to them ?

But their hearts were hard, and Satan made all that they used to do seem fair unto
".them

Commentary : verse ٤٣

To be heedless unto divine warnings and not to be regardful, is a sign of hard-
.heartedness

It is for this reason that the verse implies why they did not take counsel from these painful and awakening factors, and they did not awaken from the sleep of negligence,
:and did not return toward Allah. The Qur'ān says

" ...? Why then did they not entreat when Our distress came to them "

In fact, the reason of their unawareness was two things. The first was that, as a result of extra amount of sin and persisting in disbelief, their hearts became dark and .hardened, and their souls changed to be inflexible

" ... ,But their hearts were hard ..."

The second factor was that (applying their mood of sensuality) Satan made their deeds seem decorous to them. So, they considered right whatever wrong they did,
: and counted aright and correct every offence they committed. The verse says

".and Satan made all that they used to do seem fair unto them ..."

٤٤- فَلَمَّا نَسُوا مَا ذُكِّرُوا بِهِ فَفَتَحْنَا عَلَيْهِمُ أَبْوَابَ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ ۗ

حَتَّىٰ إِذَا فَرِحُوا بِمَا أُوتُوا أَخَذْنَاهُمْ بَغْتَةً فَإِذَا هُمْ مُبْلِسُونَ

Then, when they forgot that which they had been admonished to, We opened for " ٤٤ .
them the doors of all things (of enjoyments), until when they rejoiced in what they " .were given, We seized them suddenly when, behold, they were in utter despair

Commentary : verse ٤٤

The Arabic term /'ilās/ means a grief accompanied with despair. It is a status that .criminals may have in the court when they cannot find an answer to offer

It is not such that always the welfare of life to be a sign of mercy. On the contrary, it is
.sometime the cause of chastisement

Giving respite to evildoers and preparing welfare and comfortable life for offenders is one of Allah's way of treatment. The world and its bounties can be both a favor and an indignation. It depends to whom they are given. In Sura 'A` rāf, No. ٧, verse ٩٤ faith and piety have been counted as the cause of blessings of Allah. It says : " And if the people of the towns had believed and guarded (against evil) We would certainly have "... opened up for them blessings from heavens and the earth

In the verse under discussion, the world has been counted as a divine blessing.(١) The
: verse says

Then, when they forgot that which they had been admonished to, We opened for "
,(them the doors of all things (of enjoyments until when they rejoiced in what they were given, We seized them suddenly when,

" .behold, they were in utter despair

This fact should also be noted that the wrath of Allah and death both happen suddenly. So, we should be always prepared. Verily, it happens that the happy shout
.of men of pleasure usually changes into a despondent groan all of a sudden

Faith and piety bring the blessing of the heavens and the earth for the bearers of ۱ –۱
.them, while negligence shut the gates of all good things to the ignorant persons

رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ

So the people who were unjust were rooted out, and praise belongs to Allah, the " ٤٥ .
".Lord of the worlds

Commentary : verse ٤٥

.The annihilation of unjust people is conclusive and certain. Cruelty cannot resist long

: Transgression is also effective in generation. The verse says

"... ,So the people who were unjust were rooted out "

Therefore, as it is mentioned in the current holy verse, when the transgressors are : destroyed, Allah should be thanked and praised. So, the verse continues saying

".and praise belongs to Allah, the Lord of the worlds ..."

This phrase, mentioned in this verse, hints to this fact that cutting off the roots of mischief and transgression, which ends to the destruction of a people who can continue committing it, is so important that requires to thank Allah and to be gratitude .of Him

: A tradition narrated from Imam Sādiq (a.s.) says

He who loves the imperishability of the unjust, its meaning is that Allah to be " disobeyed (by means of sins), and (the phenomenon of transgression is so important that) Allah (the Blessed and Exalted) has praised His Essence for the destruction of the unjust and He has said: " So the people who were unjust were rooted out, and praise (belongs to Allah, the Lord of the worlds '." ### Commentary : verse ٤٦

:Do know the Bestower of Bounties

In this verse, the Qur'ān addresses the pagans and, at first, it implies if Allah takes away His worthy blessings, such as your ears and your eyes, from you and sets a seal on your hearts so that you cannot realize between right and wrong and good and evil, : which god, save Allah, is able to return these blessings to you ? The verse says

Say: ` Have you considered if Allah takes away your hearing and your eyesight and " "...' ? seals on your hearts, which god other than Allah can give it back to you

In fact, pagans believed this fact that the creator and the giver of sustenance is Allah, .but they worshipped idols as the intercessors with Allah

Then, the Qur'ān continues the statement and commands them to see how Allah stated the verses and reasons in different forms for them, but they still turn away : from the Truth. It says

".See you, how We repeat the Signs, yet they turn away ..."

Say: ` Have you considered if the punishment of Allah comes to you suddenly or " .٤٧

Commentary : verse ٤٧

Next to mentioning these three great blessings of Allah, (i.e. eyes, ears, and comprehension), which can be the origin of all blessings in this world and the next, this : verse hints to the possible removal of all these blessings in general. It says

Say: ` Have you considered if the punishment of Allah comes to you suddenly or "
".' openly, will anyone be destroyed but the unjust people

The purpose of this statement is that the only one who is able to punish through different chastisements and to take up the existing blessings, is Allah. Thus, idols have .no function in this process

.Therefore, there is no reason that you refuge to them

And as for those who belie Our Signs, chastisement shall afflict them for what " .٤٩ ".they were transgressing

Commentary : verses ٤٨-٤٩

Point

In this verse, the Qur'ān points to the situation of messengers of Allah and indicates that not only the lifeless idols are not able to do anything, but the great prophets and divine leaders also have not anything to do except communicating messengership, glad tidings, warning, encouragement, and threat. So, all blessings that exist are from the source of Allah (s.w.t.) and they wholly have come into being merely under His .command

.Therefore, whatever even the prophets desire, they may ask Him

: The verse says

And We do not send the messengers but (as) announcers of good news and " "... ,warners

.Then, The Qur'ān adds that the way to felicity is found in two things

Firstly people should believe, and secondly they amend themselves (by doing good deeds). For such people, there will be no fear because of Divine punishments, nor : shall they grieve for their former actions. The verse says then whoever believes and amends (himself) no fear shall be upon ..."

" ' ? equal ? Do you not then ponder

Commentary : verse ٥٠

! Knowing the Unseen

This verse is a complementary statement to answering the different protests of pagans and polytheists. Here, three divisions of their protests are responded in some .short sentences

The first one is that they suggested the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to bring some surprising and wonderful miracles. Secondly each of them suggested a separate thing as the one wished. Thirdly they were not contented with observing the miracles that some others asked for. Their desires were sometimes some houses made of gold, sometimes the descent of angels, and another time they wished the dry hot land of Mecca to be .changed into a vast garden full of water and fruits

By demanding these amazing things from the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), as if, they expected .the rank of a kind of divinity and ownership of the earth and the heaven for him

: (.That is why, in answer to these people, Allah commands the Prophet (p.b.u.h

,Say: (O' Our prophet !) ` I do not say to you that the treasures of Allah "

p: ۱۳۲

"... ,are with me

The Arabic term /xazā'in/ is the plural form of /xazīnah/ with the meaning of 'source and treasure of everything'. Thus, the Qur'ānic phrase /xazā'inullah/ (the treasures of Allah) encompasses the treasures of the whole things. This originates from His Infinite Essence, Who is the source of all virtues and powers

Some of those people expected that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) would inform them of the entire secrets concerning the future and the past. They expected him to tell them what happenings would occur in their lives, so that they could try to repel their harms and attract their profits. Then, in answer to such people, through the continuation of the verse, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was told to say "... ,nor do I know the Unseen ..."

Some of them expected that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) himself to be an angel, or an angel could accompany him. They desired that there would be no quality of human beings in him, such as eating food, walking in the roads and markets, and so on. To answer the rejection of these people, in the third sentence of the verse, the Qur'ān says

"... .nor do I say to you that I am an angel ..."

Then, in the continuation of this statement, he adds that he follows only the commandments and instructions that are communicated to him through revelation from the Lord

"... !I do not follow but what is revealed to me ..."

At the end of the verse, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is ordered to ask them whether the blind and those who can see are equal. Are those whose eyes, minds and intellects are shut ? equal with those whose eyes see the facts well and recognize them

" ' ? Say: ` Are the blind and the seeing one equal ? Do you not then ponder ..."

Commentary : verse ۵۱

At the end of the previous verse, the words meant that the blind and the seeing one are not equal. Now, in this verse, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is commanded to warn those : who are in awe of the Day of Resurrection. It says

And warn with it (the Qur'ān) those who fear that they will be mustered unto their "
"... ;Lord

This phrase means that those whose eyes of understanding is vigilant, as much as they probable there will be a Reckoning Day, have been prepared to accept the Truth .under the light of this probability and with the fright of responsibility

: Then, the verse continues saying that such vigilant persons are in awe of a day when

"... ,there is not any guardian nor intercessor for them besides Him ..."

Yes, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is commanded to warn such people and to invite them unto the Truth, because there is a hope that they may become pious and virtuous. The

Occasion of Revelation of verse ٥٢

Upon the occasion of revelation of this verse, it is cited that when a group of rich pagans saw that there had gathered some poor persons such as : 'Ammār, Bilāl, Khabbeh and the like of them around the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), they suggested to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) that he would leave them in order that they themselves could gather around him. As Al-Minar, the commentary book, narrates, the second kalif said that .they would accept that suggestion to try it, and the above verse was revealed

.There is a similar verse to this one in the Qur'ān. It is in Sura Al-Kahf, No. ١٨, verse ٢٨

Qurtubī cites in his commentary book that from the time this verse was revealed on, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) did not leave the gathering of the poor unless the poor left (the .place) first

The objective meaning of `call upon their Lord in the morning and the evening' may (be the daily prayers. (Al-Mizān, the commentary

Commentary : verse ٥٢

Regarding the occasion of revelation, Islam is a school of struggle against unjust .discrimination, racialism, demanding privilege, and asking for blackmail

Thus, protecting the sincere, poor, and striving believers is more important than the probable attraction of some rich pagans. The holy

: verse says

"... ,And do not repel those who call upon their Lord in the morning and the evening "

Then, no privilege can match the Faith. Most of the followers of the divine prophets
.were the poor persons who believed in the Truth

"... .seeking His countenance ..."

Never should the existing believers be scorned for the attraction of the chiefs of .pagans

If the seekers of pretexts cannot find faults with the leader of the school of thought or the school itself, they try to find faults with the followers of the school of thought and .their economic circumstances

(.Regarding to the occasion of revelation)

However, repelling the sincere poor and the deprived, is an injustice and, in the

Commentary : verse ٥٣

In this verse, the Qur'ān warns the rich disbelievers that these processes are as some trials upon them. When they fail in these tests, they should tolerate the painful results : of their deeds. The verse says

"... And thus did We try some of them by others "

.'The Arabic term /fitnah/, here, means `trial

Then the verse continues stating the meaning that these rich people reach a state : that they look at the true believers despisingly and, as the verse adds

:they (mockingly) say ..."

"...' ? Are these they upon whom Allah has favoured from among us '

They ask whether these believers, upon whom Allah has bestowed Islam, are worthy that these words to be spoken about. Then, the Qur'ān answers them implying that these believers are some people who have thanked for the blessing of knowledge and recognition when they applied it. They also have thanked the invitation of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) by accepting him. What blessing and thanksgiving is greater than that Allah ! has set the Faith firm in their hearts

" ? Does not Allah know best the grateful ..."

It is cited in Atyab-ul-Bayān that once, someone came to Imam Kāzīm (a.s.) and complained about his poverty. Imam (a.s.) asked him whom he thought as the richest person. The man answered that Hārūn-ur-Rashīd was. Imam (a.s.) asked him whether he agreed to exchange his own Faith for his (Hārūn's) wealth. The man said :

And thus do We explain the Signs so that (the Truth be distinguished) and the way " ۵۵.
".of the sinners be manifest

Commentary : verses ۵۴-۵۵

It is cited in the occasion of revelation of this verse that a group of the sinners went to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and said that they had committed many faults. The holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) kept silence; and this verse was revealed

And when those who believe in Our Signs come to you, say: ` Peace be on you. Your " Lord has prescribed mercy on Himself that whoever of you does evil in ignorance, and ".! thereafter repents and amends (himself), then verily He is forgiving, Merciful

In this Sura, Allah has repeated twice the phrase : " He has prescribed for Himself mercy ". Once in the verse under discussion for the encouragement of people in this world, and the second upon the Resurrection, when the concerning verse says : "... He has prescribed mercy on Himself. He will surely gather you to the Resurrection Day, (...)" (Verse ۱۲)

The holy verse leads us to this understanding that if sin is not committed arrogantly .and pertinaciously, it is forgivable

"... ,in ignorance ..."

p: ۱۳۹

When it is said that the relation of the Islamic leaders is with people, it is a relation of
.intimacy and affection

"... say ` Peace be on you ..."

Allah has prescribed mercy on Himself, but those whom this mercy is bestowed on are
.the repentant

"... , (and thereafter repents and amends (himself ..."

However, in the next verse (No. ٥٥), it implies it is thus that Allah explains His Signs and his commandments so clear that both the way of truth-seekers and the obedient believers be distinguished and the way of obstinate sinners and that of the enemies of :Truth be made manifest. The verse says

And thus do We explain the Signs so that (the Truth be distinguished) and the way of "
".the sinners be manifest

The purpose of the Arabic term /mujrim/, here, is the very obstinate sinners who, by .no means, will surrender to the Truth

That is, after this general invitation unto the Truth, including even the invitation unto those sinners who are remorseful from their deeds, the way and tradition of the .obstinate and inflexible sinners, will be recognized fully

Commentary : verse ۵۶

The undue desires, from anybody they are issued, should be explicitly responded with
.a negative answer

.The source of the Prophet's determinations (p.b.u.h.) is Divine revelation

Acquittance from infidelity is a part of Islam. Polytheistic belief is the root of sensual
.desires

Thus, a preacher of the Faith ought not follow to quench the people's desires, but he : should act for the sake and pleasure of Allah. The verse says not with me that (chastisement) which you hasten for, the judgment is only Allah's;

"! Who declares the truth and He is the best of deciders

Commentary : verse ٥٧

Point

The Arabic term /bayyinah/ (clear proof), mentioned in the verse, is derived from /baynūnah/ (separation). It is so called for the reason that it clearly and completely separates between right and wrong

Pagans said that if it was true, why the divine chastisement was not sent down upon them. This expression is a similar meaning to the content of another verse where they said if He was right, He should send down stones upon them. Here is the verse: "... if this is the truth from You, then rain upon us stones from heaven or inflict on us a (painful punishment." (Sura Al-'Anfāl, No. ٨, Verse ٣٢

Prophets should have proofs

The proofs and miracles of prophets had neither heaviness nor ambiguity. Everybody could understand them, and, if those people were not stubborn they would heartily accept them. That was why the divine prophets used to introduce themselves as messengers of Allah with some proofs

Seeking for chastisement and hastening for the punishment of Allah were found in .other communities, too

The peoples of Sālih, Huūd, and Noah also said that if the prophet of their time was true, he would bring the promised punishment upon them

They said " Then bring to us what you threaten us with, if you are of the truthful ones ." (Sura Al-A`rāf, No. ٧, verse ٧٠ , ٧٧), (sura Hūd, No. ١١ verse ٣٢

The invitation of prophets is done on proofs. It is not based on imagination and blindly
" ... imitation. " ... on clear proof

Prophets should have proofs from the origin of Allah. They might not work according .to what people demand every day

Say: " Verily I am (relying) on clear proof from my Lord, while you belied it; I have not " with me that (chastisement) which you hasten for, the judgment is only Allah's; Who ".' declares the truth and He is the best of deciders

For what reason or which evidence it can be that pagans belie the proof of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) while they expect him to follow their low desires. Can this cause be ?anything save rudeness, stubbornness, and enmity

A prophet is a divine messenger supported with logic and proofs, while the order of .the world of existence is with Allah

Commentary: verse ٥٩

! Secrets of the Unseen

In the former verses, the words were about Allah's Knowledge, Power, and the expansion of the circle of His commandment. From this verse on, the meaning stated in those verses concisely has been mentioned with some explanation. At first, the " subject of Allah's knowledge is pointed out. The verse says

"... And with Him are the keys of the Unseen. None but He knows them "

: Then, for a more emphasis and explanation, it adds

"... ;And He knows whatever is in the land and the sea ..."

The Arabic term /barr/ means `a vast place', which is usually used for a (dry) land. The term /baħr/ originally also means `a vast place' where a plenty of water is found. It is .often applied for the seas and, sometimes, for the great streams

However, Allah's knowledge upon whatever exists in the lands and the seas is something which hints to Allah's omniscience, and that His knowledge encompasses

.all things

That is, He knows the movements of millions of million living creatures, small and big, in the depths of the seas. He knows the true number of the cells of every human being as well as his blood cells. He knows the mystic circulations of all electrons inside atoms. And, finally, He knows all thoughts and contemplations pass through different parts and levels of our minds and those which penetrate into the depths of our soul

p: ۱۴۵

Yes, He knows equally all of these things ! Again, in the second phrase, in order to emphasize on Allah's Omniscience, it has particularly pointed to this aspect, and says and no leaf (of a tree) drops down but He knows it, nor a grain in the darkness of ..."
"... the earth

In fact, it has taken two sensitive subjects with which no human being can be thoroughly acquainted even if he lives millions of years and that the technical sets be surprisingly completed

Who knows that, in each day, which seeds the winds separate from the plants throughout the earth, and on which spots of the ground they scatter them ? Which electronic mind can count exactly the number of the leaves which separate from the ? branches of trees of the forests only during a day

A glance upon the trees of a forest, specially in fall, when the leaves drop ceaselessly and make up a beautiful scenery, proves this fact well that such sciences will never be within the reach of human beings

The fall of the leaves of trees, in fact, is the moment of their death, and the fall of seeds into the concealed holes of the land is the first step of their lives. It is only He .Who is aware of the system of death and life

The statement of this subject has two effects : a philosophical effect and a training effect. Its philosophical effect is that it nullifies the imagination of those who restrict Allah's knowledge to general principles and believe that He is not aware of the details of this world. It clearly specifies that Allah is aware of both all general principles and the details

Its training effect is also clear, because having belief in the vast knowledge of Allah, that He is Omniscience, tells us that the whole secrets of our entity, our deeds and speeches, our intentions and our thoughts are utterly clear for His Pure Essence. With such a belief, how is it possible that a person be careless of his own condition and ? does not control his own deeds, speeches, and intentions

: So, at the end of the verse, it says

".nor anything wet or dry but it is (noted) in a clear Book ..."

Commentary : verse ٦٠

.By night, Allah takes activity out of your soul the same as He takes it by death

.He is also aware of what you do during the day

During the night you sleep, and during the day you perform some activities. Then, Allah will raise you up from your graves so that He reckons you for what you spend .your lives upon

It is so until the appointed time comes forth, when Allah has assigned for raising the .dead from their graves and giving them the fruit of their deeds. This is the Hereafter

.Thus, your return is unto Him. That is, you will attend where you will be reckoned

On that Day, the Lord will inform you of the deeds you used to accomplish in the .world, day and night

Some commentators have rendered this part of the verse into the sense that He awakens you from sleep during the day in order that you gain sufficient interest from your life. In this verse, Allah has resembled awakening people from sleep to raising : them up. The verse says

And He it is Who takes your souls at night (in sleep), and He knows what you commit " in the day, then He raises you up therein that an appointed term may be accomplished, then unto Him is your return, then He will inform you of what you were

Then the Qur'ān goes on stating that keeping this account continues until the ending moments of life, when death approaches you. At this time, the messengers of Allah (the angels), who are missioned to take the souls, take the mortal away

"...until when death comes to one of you, Our messengers take his soul ..."

And, at the end of the verse, it adds that these angels never neglect their duty and no

Allah will reckon all human-kind in a short time and neither of the accounts hinders Him to reckon those of others

Imam Amir-ul-Mu'mineen Ali (a.s.) once was asked when Allah is not seen, then how He reckons people. He (a.s.) answered them: " In the same way that He gives them (sustenance and they do not see Him.)"

This very subject is an evidence to the fact that reckoning one person does not detain Him from reckoning others

Again, it is an evidence to prove that He communicates without talking a word, otherwise it is impossible that all people be reckoned at the same time

.However, the return of all is unto Him, and He is the only Judge in the Hereafter

Commentary : verses ٦٣-٦٤

The Light Which Glitters in Darkness

Once more the Qur'ān takes the hand of pagans and leads them into inside their innate disposition, and in that mysterious place it shows them the light of Unity and monotheism. So, it commands the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to question them who delivers : them from the darkneses of the land and the sea. The verse says

"...? Say : ` Who delivers you from the darkness of the land and the sea "

Darkness has sometimes a substantial aspect and sometimes a spiritual aspect. The substantial aspect of darkness is when the light ceases utterly, or it becomes so weak that one cannot see anywhere or he sees with difficulty. The spiritual aspect of darkness is the same hardships, entanglements, disturbances and pollutions whose .end is both dark and ambiguous

If this darkness combines with some terrible incidents and, for example, in a voyage by night, a person be surrounded with some awful waves in a whirlpool, its horror is of a higher degree than that of difficulties

p: ۱۵۱

that come forth in daytime. It is in these moments that one delivers everything to forgetfulness and does not care of anything except himself and the light, which glitters the depth of his soul, invites him to a source wherein only He can solve such problems

These kinds of cases, which happen for everybody, are some windows to Unity and monotheism

That is why, in the next phrase of the verses, the Qur'ān says that it is in this status : that

"... ,You call upon Him humbly and secretly ..."

And, it is in this condition that immediately you make covenant with that great source, promising that if He delivers you from danger you will certainly be grateful of His blesses and rely on none but Him saying): If He delivers us from this (darkness), certainly we shall be of the grateful) ..." : ones

Then, The Qur'ān commands the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to tell them that Allah will deliver them from these darkneses and from any other sorrow, (as He has delivered them frequently), but, after deliverance, they pave again the path of polytheism and paganism

: The verse says

Say : ` Allah delivers you from them and from every affliction, then again you assign "(Him) associates

:And your people have belied it (the Qur'ān) though it is the truth. Say " ٦٦

"! I am not a guard upon you `

Commentary : verses ٦٥-٦٦

: Various Chastisements

In order to state the different ways of training, this verse has laid emphasis on the subject of threatening to the divine punishment. Clearly speaking, as Allah is the most Merciful of all merciful ones, and the protector of those who are without support, He is also the Supreme and the Avenger against tyrants and rebellious ones

In this verse, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) has been ordered to threaten the sinners with three sorts of punishment. The chastisements which come from above and from beneath, the chastisement of dispute and the chastisement of fight and blood

.shedding

Thus, it commands the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to say that Allah is able to

p: ۱۵۳

send retributions from above them, like the punishment upon the people of Lūt, stones over the People of the Elephant, Flood of Noah, the Cry upon the People of Thamūd, and the Wind against the People of `Ād. And, today, there are some other retributions like atomic bombs, chemical bombs, and far-range-striking-rockets of various kinds

And, from the downwards, there are earthquake, splitting or depressing the land, the Pharaoh being drowned, Korah (Croesus) sank into the ground, cholera, plague, famine, hunger, which are brought for you. Or, that He makes you scattered in some separate groups to dispute with each other, and that you taste the bitterness of : fighting one another. It says

Say: ` He is able to send forth upon you a chastisement, from above you or from " beneath your feet, or to confuse you of different parties ' and to make you taste the "...'.violence of (fighting) one another

The phenomenon of dispute and contradiction in speech among a society is so dangerous that it has been counted in the row of heavenly punishments, thunders, and earthquakes. Yes, it is truly so. Moreover, sometimes the destructions which are resulted from disperse and dispute are heavier than those resulted from thunders and earthquakes. It has repeatedly happened that some developed countries have completely been ruined under the inauspicious shade of hypocrisy and disunity. This phrase is counted a warning unto the whole Muslims in the world

Then, at the end of the verse, in order that they may realize the Truth and return to it, " it is added

".See how We repeat the Signs that they may understand ..."

****

The second verse of the verses mentioned above, as well as its following verse, are, in fact, to complete the discussion stated in the former verses about the invitation to Monotheism, Resurrection, and the facts upon Islam and being afraid of the Divine

.punishment

At first, addressing the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), it indicates that his people, viz. Quraysh and the pagans of Mecca, belied his teachings while all of these teachings are right and godly, so that different evidences, accepted

p: ۱۵۴

:through intellect and innate disposition confirm them. The holy verse says

"...And your people have belied it (the Qur'ān) though it is the truth "

Therefore, their rejection and denial does not decrease anything from the importance of these facts, although the number of opponents and deniers may be large

Then, the verse continues the statement implying that it is the duty of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to communicate the prophecy and he is not responsible that they accept it

"! Say: ` I am not guard upon you ..."

There are some other phrases mentioned in the Quran which convey the same ۱ - ۱ meaning, including: Sura Al-An'am, No. ۶, Verse ۱۰۷; Sura Yunus, No. ۱۰, verse ۴۱; Sura Az-Zumar, No. ۳۹, Verse ۴۱. and Sura Ash-Shaura, No. ۴۲, Verse ۶

"For every announcement there is a term and you will come to know soon " .٦٧

Commentary : verse ٦٧

In this verse, through a short but expressive phrase, the Qur'ān warns people and invites them to choose the right path. It announces that whatever news that Allah or the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) informs people, there is finally a term for it, and it will be : accomplished in its appointed time, which they will know soon. The verse says

"For every announcement there is a term and you will come to know soon "

By giving people the proper news, Allah and the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) introduce the right path to them. Therefore, Imam Amir-ul-Mu'mineen Ali (a.s.) in a tradition says: " He who has an intelligent mind looks to his goal. He knows his low road as well as his high road. And when you see those who cavil about Our Signs, turn away from them until " ٦٨ they enter into (some) other topic. And if Satan causes you to forget, then, after ".recollection, do not sit with the unjust people

Commentary : verse ٦٨

It has been narrated by Imam Bāqir (a.s.) who said : When this verse was revealed and Muslims were prohibited from associating with the pagans and those who mocked the verses of the Qur'ān, (a group of) Muslims said that if they wanted to treat according to that commandment everywhere, they had to neither enter the Sacred Mosque, nor circumambulate the Ka`bah, because those people were often about inside the Sacred Mosque busy mocking the Divine verses which they heard .easily by a short pause

Then the next verse was revealed and ordered Muslims to advise them and guide \(them as much as they could.\)

However, since the statements of this Sura are mostly about the circumstances of pagans and idol-worshippers, both in the current verse and in the verse next to it, the .Qur'ān hints to the affairs concerning them

At first, it tells the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) that when he sees the arrogant, illogical opponents are mocking the signs of Allah, he should turn away from them so that they .give up the subject and be busy with another topic

And when you see those who cavil about Our Signs, turn away from them until they " "... .enter into (some) other topic

Then the Qur'ān adds that this matter is so important that if Satan causes you to forget and you sit with such persons unintentionally, as soon as you remember it, you : should leave that meeting and do not sit with these unjust people. The verse says

---

Majma`-ul-Bayān, Vol.۳, P. ۳۱۶۱-۱

And if Satan causes you to forget, then, after recollection, do not sit with the unjust ..."
".people

There arises a question here: Is it possible that Satan dominates the Prophet (p.b.u.h.)
? and causes him to forget his duty

In answer to this question, it can be said that although the addressee in this verse is the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), the main purpose, in fact, is the followers of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). It means that if they are entangled with forgetfulness and they take part in pagans' sinful meetings, they should come out of that meeting and leave the place as .soon as they remember it

The like of this status happens in our daily conversations and in the literature of different languages, that, in speech, one person is addressed but the aim is that
.others hear that statement

"evil, but a reminding (must be given) so that they, too, may keep from evil

Commentary : verse ٦٩

When the verse of prohibition upon the vain speakers and mockers of the Divine revelations was revealed, some believers said that they should not go to the Sacred Mosque and would not circumambulate the Ka`bah, since the range of their mockery .had stretched as far as there

Participation in the meeting of sinners is allowed if it is with the intention of refraining them from wrong and guiding them to the right. Of course, this exception is only for those believers who are pious and firm in belief, since there are some Muslims who go .to save others but they themselves drown

Thinking and realizing the situation, in fact, is one of the principles of intellect and of Islam. Hearing the absurd sayings temporarily with the purpose of answering them or .saving the deviated people permanently, is allowed

And nothing of the reckoning of their (deed) shall be upon those who keep from evil, "
"... (but a reminding (must be given

Piety is a means of protection for man against committing sins. It is like saving-clothes .for fire-extinguishers

.Besides being pious himself, such a person must try to make others virtuous, too

"so that they, too, may keep from evil ..."

By the way, there are abundant traditions narrated by the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and the Immaculate Imams (a.s.) which prohibit Muslims from companionship with sinners or participation in a gathering where faults or a single fault is being committed and they .cannot bar it even if the people of the gathering are from relatives

Commentary : verse ٧٠

The purpose of the phrase 'leave those who ...' is 'hating them, and not having any communication with them', which sometimes ends with fighting against them. Thus, the phrase does not mean abandoning Holy Struggle against them

The manner of taking religion for a play has different forms in different circumstances. Sometimes it is in the form of superstitious beliefs, or religious laws are considered impracticable, or sins are justified, or innovation, interpretation of the Qur'ān by personal opinion, and following the allegorical verses, come forth

Commentary : verses ۷۱-۷۲

The verse addresses the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to tell the disbelievers who invite people to idolatry whether they should worship the things that neither benefit them nor harm them, and, by abandoning the best religion, turn back on their heels after that Allah has guided them and has shown

p: ١٤٣

: them the straight path. The verse says

Say: ` shall we call, besides Allah, on that which neither profits nor harms us, and "
"... ? shall we be returned back on our heels after that Allah has guided us

The continuation of the statement of the verse implies that if they return to idolatry they will be like a person whom Satans have seduced and bewildered on the earth; although he has companions who, inviting him to the guidance, tell him to go toward those friends. But he does not accept their invitation and does not go toward them. He .has been so influenced by Satan that he is deprived of recognizing his own interests

: The verse says

Like someone whom Satans have lured (and) bewildered in the earth, (while) he ..."
:(has companions who invite him to the guidance (saying

,Come unto us '. Say: ` Verily (it is) the guidance of Allah which is the (true) guidance `

The only guidance which causes prosperity and comfort is Allah's guidance which calls human beings to monotheism. We are dependants to that very guidance and do not avoid obeying it. We do not follow your invitation. We accept and follow that invitation which calls us toward Islam (submission) and guides us to trust our affairs to the One .Who is ` The Lord of the worlds

".' and we are commanded to submit to the Lord of the worlds ..."

****

The meaning of the second verse of the above verses is linked to the meaning of the previous verse. It enjoins us to maintain the prayer and avoid committing sins of Allah so that we do not confront His punishment. He is the Lord unto Whom all human-kind will be mustered on the Day of Judgement when everybody will receive the reward or : the retribution of one's own deeds. The verse says

And that ` Establish prayer and be in awe of Him, and it is He unto Whom you shall be " the day, when the trumpet will be blown; knower of the Unseen and the visible, and ".He is the All-Wise, the All-Aware

Commentary : verse ٧٣

In this verse, the idea saying that ` the Trumpet will be blown only once ' is pointed out, while in Sura Az-Zumar, No. ٣٩, verse ٤٨ it is said that the Trumpet will be blown twice. The first blow will be the destroyer of everything, and the second one will be .the raiser of people for the Resurrection

In the previous verses, the words were about submission before Allah and establishing prayer. Now, in this verse, the reason of that meaning is mentioned. It implies that the creation entirely is with Him, and He is All-Wise, All-Aware, and He is
.cognizant of all things

And He it is Who created the heavens and the earth with the Truth; and the day He " says ` Be! ' and, it is. His word is the Truth, and to Him belongs all sovereignty on the "...;day, when the trumpet will be blown

Creation has been done wisely and purposefully. This idea has been mentioned in several verses of the Qur'ān, including Sura Ṣād, No. ٣٨ verse ٢٧ where it says : " And "... ;we did not create the heaven and the earth and what is between them in vain

.Therefore, there is no hinderance for Allah's Will

"... He says ` Be !' and it is ..."

Unseen and visible, or concealed and manifested, are the same for Allah. The verse,
: as His Atributes, says

"... ,Knower of the Unseen and the visible ..."

.The basis of the sovereignty of Allah is on His Wisdom and Knowledge

On the Day of Resurrection, the splendour and appearance of Allah's Power will be manifested to everybody, since ordinary means are not effective there. For this very .reason, His Power will be manifested more

Thus, since the Creator and Administrator of the world of existence is both wise and ".Aware, then do obey Him. The verse says : He is the All-Wise, the All-Aware

However, by the blown of the Trumpet, the order of the universe will be ruined, but
.the reckoning and the exact records will remain fixed and proper

And (remember) when Abraham said to his father 'Āzar: ` Do you take idols for " .٧٤ ".' gods ? Verily I see you and your people in manifest error

Commentary : verse ٧٤

Point

The Arabic word /'ab/ ordinarily means `father', but it is also applied with the sense of
.mother's grandfather, uncle, and educator

According to the statement of the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) who said : " Ali and I both are the fathers of this community ", it is understood that 'Āzar was Abraham's uncle, not his father. Abraham's ancestors were totally monotheists. This meaning has also been cited by Ṭabarsy, 'Ālūsī and Suyūṭy, the sunnite scholars, saying that 'Āzar was not Abraham's father. Moreover, Abraham supplicated for his father and mother: " O our Lord ! grant me and my parents protection ..." (١) This is in the case that no Muslim is rightful to supplicate for a pagan, even if the disbeliever is his family member. Abraham's seeking forgiveness for his uncle, 'Āzar, had also been before the time that his belief in polytheism became manifest. So, when Abraham (a.s.) realized that 'Āzar was not a person to accept the truth, he (a.s.) denounced from him and .departed

The Qur'ān in this regard says: " And 'Ibrāhīm asking forgiveness for his sir was only owing to a promise which he had made to him; but when it became clear to him that (he was an enemy of Allah, he declared himself to be clear of him ..." (٢)

From what was said above, it is understood that the word /'ab/, mentioned in this verse, does not mean father. Besides, the name of Abraham's father, as recorded in history books, has been `Tārūkh', not 'Āzar. (Al-Mīzān, Majma`-ul-Bayān, and (`Jawāmi`-ul-Jāmi

In the meantime, some Islamic traditions denote that father and the ancestors of the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) up to Hadrat 'Ādam wholly were monotheists. It has been narrated from the Prophet himself (p.b.u.h.) who said: "Ceaselessly Allah, the Sublime, transported me from the purified loins of men into the purified wombs (of mothers), and never He polluted me with the filth of paganism".

«(cited in Jawāmi` -ul-Jāmi` , the commentary book

A large number of Sunnite and Shi`ite commentators have pointed out this tradition in their books. A few of them are : Tabarsī, in Majama` -ul-Bayān; Neyshābūrī, in .Qarā'ib-ul-Qur'ān; Fakhr-i-Rāzī, in Tafsīr-ul-kabīr; and 'Ālūsī, in Rūh-ul-Bayān

Some points to be noted

: There are some points which should be noted here carefully

.In the style of invitation to the Truth, close relatives should be invited first .1

"... : And (remember) when Abraham said to his father 'Āzar "

In facing and treating others, the scale is the Truth, not the age, nor being . ۲ experimented, nor abundance of people. Therefore, Abraham has clearly explained
.the Truth for his uncle, who was older than him, and has warned him, too

.Idolatry is a deviation that both alert consciences and intellect criticize it .۳

"... ? Do you take idols for gods ` ...

".' Verily I see you and your people in manifest error ..."

And thus did we show Abraham the dominions of the heavens and the earth and " ٧٥
".that he might be of those who are sure

Commentary : verse ٧٥

The Qur'ānic word /malakūt/ is derived from /mulk/ to which two particles of emphasis and exaggeration are added. The holy phrase: ` The dominions of the heavens and the earth ', mentioned in the verse, means the true and absolute ownership of the
.heavens and the earth

It is cited in Atyab-ul-Bayān upon the commentary of the Qur'ān that the worlds are divided into four categories : ` Lāhūt' (the world of Divine Essence of which none knows save Allah), Jabarūt, (the world of incorporeal beings), ` Malakūt' (the world of bodies), and ` Nāsūt' (the world of generation and corruption with changes and
.transformations

Mu` jam-ul-Wasīt, an Arabic Dictionary, announces that /Malakūt/ is ` the world of !secrets, orders, wonders, and the world of Unseen

!Ālūsī says that ` the dominions of the heavens' means ` their wonders'

By seeing the dominions of the heavens and the earth, Abraham was fairly
.acquainted with the way of treatment, creation, wisdom, and Lordship of Allah

And thus did we show Abraham the dominions of the heavens and the earth and that "
".he might be of those who are sure

According to the statement of Imam Bāqir (a.s.); Allah bestwed such a light and ability upon the eyes of Abraham that he could see what was inside the depth of the (heavens and the earth.)

Of course, whoever recognizes the Truth and invites others to it, without being afraid of anything, Allah bestows upon him ` a heavenly sight', (like Abraham (a.s.) whom the

:Abraham's Dispute with Pagans

When Abraham was disputing with the polytheists, he wanted to show condescension and softness in discussion, in order to reject the belief of the opposite party. He did not believe, of course, in what he told them because it was against his infallibility. Stating `O my people !' in the second verse after the abovementioned one, is a sign of condescension in saying `This is my Lord'. It was also for this reason that when he saw the setting of the moon and the sun, he said : "... Surely I am quit of that you 'associate (with Allah)' ..." (verse ٧٨), and he did not say `that I associate

A thing that has rising and setting, is objective to some regularities, not in a position of subjugating them. A thing which has movement is `creatable' and a creatable thing cannot be God. At first, Abraham temporarily expresses its acceptance in order that .he can reasonably reject it later

Such a reasoning, in deed, is one of the best methods of preaching and awakening the innate dispositions, actuating the minds and thoughts, and paying attention to .sentiments

Again, it causes us to understand that the true beloved is the one who is not captive to .place, time and varieties, and also is not temporary, limited, and numerous

: So when the night outspread over him, he saw a star. He said "

".This is my Lord.' But when it set, he said: ` I do not love the setting ones `

Commentary : verses ٧٧-٧٩

When Abraham saw that people used to worship idols and adored the sun, the moon and stars, he decided to aware them of their fault and to open the window of their insight. He tried to show them the way of thinking and reasoning, so that they could realize that none of the things

The Arabic term /baziq/ is derived from the word /bazaga, with the meaning of 'to -١ cleave and marise to flow blood'. As if, rising of the sun or the moon cleaves the curtain of darkness and causes to appear a slight reddish colour around itself.

Abraham (a.s.) disputed with both the star-worshippers and the worshippers of the .moon and the sun

they were worshipping had eligibility of being worshipped, since all of them were .creatable

Abraham (a.s.) said: " This is my Lord ! " This phrase is the statement of a person who intends to show condescension to his opponent. He (a.s.) knows that the opposite party's belief is wrong, but, without showing any religious prejudice about his own creed, he narrates that person's wrong idea in order to encourage him towards the truth and to clear out his heart from falsehood. Thus, by reasoning in the next .sentence, Abraham (a.s.) has proved the invalidity of the belief of the opposite party

Abraham (a.s.) told those people: " I do not love the setting ones ". He meant he did not like worshipping those gods which were covered with such curtains, because .those qualities belonged to the corporeal substances

.They were some evidences to their being creatable

he said: ` If my Lord does not guide me, I shall surely be of the people gone astray ..." " !

Abraham stated this sentence as a warning to his people. He (a.s.) announced that whoever takes the moon, which, like other stars, is a setting one, as his god, is among .the astray ones. And, there is no guide to the truth save the Grace and Mercy of Allah

****

"... '! And when he saw the sun uprising, he said : ` This is my Lord; this is greater "

.(Abraham, seeing the sun, said that it was greater (than the others

He has also stated this phrase to show condescension and softness from himself to : his opposite party, but after that he said

".'(O my people ! surely I am quit of that you associate (with Allah ` ..."

He implied that he disliked those corporeal substances which they had taken as .partners of their Creator

: Then, Abraham (a.s.) continued saying Verily I have turned my face (myself wholly) toward Him Who created the "

"... ,heavens and the earth

That is, I have believed in the One Who has created the heavens and the earth. These phenomena themselves indicate that Allah, the Creator, has brought them forth and runs their different circumstances and regularities Himself. He (s.w.t.) specifies their way and appoints the times of their risings and settings. Hence, I have turned my self .wholly to His Lordship sincerely, and I am not one of the polytheists

".being upright, and I am not of the idolaters ..."

The Qur'ānic term /ḥanīf/ (upright) is derived from /ḥanafa/ with the sense of `sincere' .!and `without any deviation

.!Also, the Arabic word /fatara/ (created) originally means : `cleared

It may refer to some meaning which is found in the modern science. It suggests that, .at first, the universe had been in the form of a single mass

After that, the mass cleft into some separate parts and the celestial bodies came into .existence one after another

Commentary : verse ٨٠

Abraham (a.s.) continued his dispute with his people, the idolaters. Pointing to that : circumstance, the Qur'ān says

"... And his people disputed with him "

Then, in answer to them, Abraham told them why they argued with him and opposed him about Allah while He had guided him unto the path of monotheism under the light : of some logical and clear evidences. The verse says

? He (Abraham) said: ` Do you dispute with me about Allah while He has guided me ..."

It is clearly understood from this verse that Abraham's people, who were idol worshippers, tried hard and did their best to pervert him from his belief as much as it .was possible for them

That was why they threatened him to the retribution and wrath of their gods and idols. They frightened him (a.s.) of them because of his opposition with them. This meaning is understood from the rest of the verse. The Qur'ān, from the tongue of

Abraham, says that he does not fear of the idols that they worshipped, because idols
.have no power to harm anyone unless Allah wishes something

p: ۱۷۴

: The verse says

And I do not fear of what you associate with Him; unless my Lord wishes for ..."
"... something

By saying this phrase, it seems that Abraham wants to prevent some probable happenings and to say that supposing some harms and adventures come to him when he is busy with those struggles, they do not concern the idols, but they concern
.the Will of Allah

Then, Abraham continues saying that the knowledge of Allah, his Lord, is so vast and
.inclusive that it envelops everything

And, finally, in order to move their thought and contemplation, the statement
: addresses them, saying

" ' ? Will you not then remember ..."

" ... ,And how should I fear what you have associated "

Why do you force me to fear from these hand made idols of yours, while it is entirely clear that they have neither gaining nor harm

But you have not been afraid of the Lord Who is able to give human beings benefit and harm. You dare His Essence and associate some mean beings with Him, and you .do worship them

That is, how could I fear your infidelity ? I hate your disbelief, therefore, I have no scare, and Allah does not take me to task for your indecent behaviour. It is you who .are entangled with polytheism, and therefore, it is you who should fear while you do not fear that you have associated with Allah that for which He has not ..."

"... ? sent down any authority to you

There have been sent down no evidence from the side of Allah to confirm what you have associated with Him. This fact is understood from this verse that whoever says a statement or follows a religion but he has no reason for it, he is in falsehood. We have reasonably known Allah and stand for worshipping towards Him. Are we more worthy of security or idol-worshippers who prostrate before idols and persist on this wrong belief zealously ? If they apply their intellect, this fact will be manifested to them and : they will distinguish between right and wrong. The verse says

Commentary : verse ٨٢

In the previous verse, this question was referred to indicating whether the .monotheists are secured from the punishment of Allah, or polytheists

Now, in this verse, in answer to that question, the Qur'ān announces that those are more secured from the punishment of Allah who have known Him and testified Him.
Such people have recognized their duty and have not mixed their belief with .polytheism

Those who believe and do not cloack their Faith with iniquity, those are they for "
"... ,whom is security

This group, who are secured from the side of Allah, have been issued the decree of .being found salvation

"...and they are guided aright ..."

However, according to the opinions of many commentators, and basing on some Islamic traditions and narrations, the objective meaning of the term /zulm/, mentioned in this verse, is iniquity. Their evidence is Sura Luqmān, No. ٣١, Verse ١٣,
".which says : "... Verily polytheism is a grievous iniquity

Also, some Islamic literature denotes that, next to the Faith, putting the divine leaders aside and referring to other than them is an aspect of injustice. (Tafsīr Nūr.uth-

Therefore, He is aware of the degrees that He gives. They are given due to eligibility and according to the standards of wisdom. No one may enjoy them unless the one is

p: 178

The Arabic term /labasa/, mentioned in the previous verse, No. ٨٢, means : 'to cover'. This meaning denotes to the fact that since 'Faith' is something innate in human beings, it is not vanishable, but some mists may cover it

.Iniquity is the calamity of Faith, and it has a negative effect .١

Forsaking injustice is the secret of guidance, while cruelty causes that guidance to .٢

Commentary : verse ٨٤

From this verse on, a part of favours that Allah had bestowed upon Abraham are referred to. Those favours are righteous offsprings, and an eligible and fruitful family .which is one of the greatest Divine merits

: At first, it says

" ... ,And We bestowed upon him (Abraham) (issues like) Isac and Jacob "

Then, in order to show that the honour of these two Prophets does not lie only in the matter that they were the progenies of the Prophet, but they themselves had fixed the light of guidance in their hearts by their own correct thoughts and righteous deeds, it
: says

" ... each one We guided ... "

Next to this meaning, in order that nobody imagines that there had not been any advocator for monotheism during the periods before Abraham, and that this matter
: has begun from the time of Abraham, the verse continues saying

"...;and Noah We guided before ..."

In fact, by pointing to the situation of Noah (a.s.), who is one of Abraham's ancestors, and the situation of a group of the prophets, who are from among his descendents and his offsprings, the Qur'ān defines the high position of Abraham from the view point of `heritage and nobility', and `the

Commentary : verses ٨٥-٨٧

Following the previous names of prophets, through the first verse of the verses mentioned above, the Qur'ān refers to the names of some other prophets. It says

And Zakariya and John and Jesus and Elias; each one (of them) was of the " righteous

The purpose of the verse is that the ranks of these prophets were not given obligatory or ceremonial, but they obtained personality and greatness with Allah .because of their own righteous deeds

In the second verse, there have been mentioned four more names of the divine : prophets. It says

And Ishmael and Elisha and Jonah and Lot, and everyone (of them) did "

p: ١٨٢

".We prefer above all beings

****

The third verse contains a general hint to the fathers, children and brothers of the above-mentioned prophets, whose names have not been referred to in details here.

: It says

And from among their fathers and their descendants and their brethren, and We "
".chose them and guided them into the straight way

Such is the guidance of Allah; He guides by it whom He pleases of His servants; " ٨٨ and if they were to associate others (with Him), certainly what they were doing would ".be vain for them

Commentary : verse ٨٨

! Three Great Privileges

After mentioning the names of some groups of divine prophets through previous verses, here, in this verse, a main and general outline of their lives are pointed out. At : first, it says

"... ;Such is the guidance of Allah; He guides by it whom He pleases of His servants "

Then, in order that nobody thinks that they have chosen this path obligatorily, and also nobody considers that Allah (s.w.t.) has had a particular, exceptional and undue : regard towards them, the holy verse continues saying and if they were to associate others (with Him), certainly what they were doing ..." ".would be vain for them

The last part of the verse means that these prophets are encountered the same .divine laws that other people are, and there is no unjust discrimination between them

٨٩- أول-ئِكَ الَّذِينَ آتَيْنَاهُمُ الْكِتَابَ-أَبَ وَالْحُكْمَ وَالنُّبُوَّةَ

فَقَدْ وَكَّلْنَا بِهَا قَوْمًا لَيَشُوْنَ بِهَا بِكُمْ-أَفِرِينَ

These are they to whom We gave the Book, the authority and the prophethood; " ٨٩ so if these (infidels) disbelieve in it, We have (already) entrusted with it a people who "are not disbelievers in it

Commentary : verse ٨٩

In this verse, three magnificent privileges, which have been the base of all privileges : of the prophets, are referred to. It says

"...;These are they to whom We gave the Book, the authority and the prophethood "

.The Arabic term /ḥukm/ originally means : ` prevention, and restrain

Then, since wisdom prevents faults and offences; also, correct judgement hinders injustice and oppression, and a just government may restrain some other unjust .governments, the term is applied in everyone of these three senses

Next to that statement, the verse continues saying that if these people, viz. pagans, the citizens of Mecca, and the like of them, do not believe in these facts, the invitation of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) will not remain without response. Allah has commissioned a group of people who not only accept it, but also protect it and guard it. They are such \(a group that never pave the path of infidelity and are surrendered to the Truth.\)

: The verse announces so if these (infidels) disbelieve in it, We have (already) entrusted with it a people ..."

".who are not disbelievers in it

****

---

In Tafsir Almanar and Tafsir Rouh-ul-Ma'ani, it is narrated from the ۱ - ۱ commentators that the objective meaning of "... a people who are not disbelievers in it" is Iranians

٩٠- أول-ئِكَ الَّذِينَ هَدَى اللَّهُ فَبِهِدَاهُمُ اقْتَدِهْ قُلْ لَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ أَجْرًا

إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا ذِكْرٌ لِلْعَالَمِينَ

٩٠. "These are they whom Allah has guided, therefore follow their guidance "

;(Say (to people): ` I ask you no wage for it (the prophecy

" it is naught but a Reminder to the worlds

Commentary : verse ٩٠

This holy verse introduces the program of these outstanding prophets to the Prophet
: of Islam (p.b.u.h.) as an exalted example of guidance. The verse says

"... .These are they whom Allah has guided, therefore follow their guidance "

Once more, this verse emphasizes that the principles of the invitation of all divine prophets are the same, although the latter religions are more complete than the .former religions

The Arabic term /hidāyih/ conveys a vast meaning which encompasses both unity with other theological principles, and patience and perseverance, and all principles of .morals and education

Then the Messenger of Islam (p.b.u.h.) is ordered to tell people that he asks them no wage for his messengership. As former messengers did not ask such a thing, the .Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) follows that usual way of treatment of those prophets, too

: The verse says

"... ;(Say (to people): ` I ask you no wage for it (the prophecy ..."

Moreover, this Qur'ān and this prophecy together with guidance, is a warning and a .reminder to all people throughout the world

: The verse says

"it is naught but a Reminder to the worlds ..."

Such a common and general blessing is like the light of the sun or like the waves in the atmosphere, or like the fall of rain, that all are common and worldwide. They are found in no bargain, and no one takes any wages for them neither) you nor your fathers ? ' Say: " Allah (has sent it down);' then leave them)

"sporting in their vain discourses

Commentary : verse ٩١

In fact, they did not recognize Allah (s.w.t.) the way He should be recognized, and they .did not regard His Glory as it is due to Him

"... :And they did not recognize Allah with the recognition due to Him when they said "

They could not qualify Allah as that His infinite graces and favours unto His servants : should be described. Therefore, they denied all His merits, and they said

"... Allah has not sent down anything to any human being ` ..."

By this statement, they denied the mission of prophets and the revelation unto them,
.which is one of the greatest blessings and the highest favour of Allah

When, with the purpose of exaggeration in rejecting the descent of the Qur'ān unto the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) the Jews denied all things, Allah reminded them a .matter that they could not help but confessing it

The matter was the descent of the Turah unto Moses (a.s.), which was known to them all. By means of this affirmation of theirs, the Qur'ān blamed them that they distorted the Turah, and they revealed a part of it and concealed a great deal of it. These :phrases are upon this meaning

Say: ` Who sent down the Book that was brought by Moses as a light and a ` ..." guidance to men, which you put into papers, revealing (a part of) it and concealing "... ;(much of it

Moses (a.s.) brought the Turah which was an enlightening light upon religion and a .source of guidance for people

"... ,That was brought by Moses as a light and a guidance to men ..."

It was the very Book, the Turah, which they turned into the form of some scattered pieces of paper so that they could fulfil their aim. They wanted to manifest a part of it
.and hide some other parts

"... ,which you put into papers ..."

The phrase : ` you were taught ...' addresses the Jews. It denotes that by means of what was revealed to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and he stated the revelation for them, they learnt some things, of which neither were they aware, nor their fathers. It was in that case that they had the Turah with them, and before them, their fathers were .more acknowledged than them

The following holy verse also contains the same meaning as the above-mentioned one : " Surely this Qur'ān declares to the Children of Israel most of what they differ

The concluding phrase of the verse, addressing the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), implies that Allah has sent it (the Qur'ān) down; so, he should leave them in that very falsehood : that they have sunk into. The verse says

' ;(Say: ` Allah (has sent it down ..."

".Then leave them sporting in their vain discourses

Sura An-Naml, No. ٢٧, verse ٧٩ ١ -١

٩٢- وَهَذَا كِتَابٌ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ مُبَارَكٌ مُصَدِّقٌ لِّذِي بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ

وَلِتُنذِرَ أُمَّ الْقُرَى وَمَنْ حَوْلَهَا

وَالَّذِينَ يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ يُؤْمِنُونَ بِهِ

وَهُمْ عَلَى صَلَاتِهِمْ يُحَافِظُونَ

And this is a blessed Book, We have sent it down confirming that which has been " .٩٢ before it, and that you may warn (the people of) the Mother City (Mecca) and those around her; and those who believe in the Hereafter believe in it, and they are careful ".of their prayers

Commentary : verse ٩٢

Point

The objective meaning of the phrase 'a blessed Book', mentioned in the verse, is 'the Qur'ān' which is the source of many benefits and interests

Among them is that its recitation is good, practising its content causes good things to come forth; it contains the first and the last sciences; the ordinances of lawful and unlawful things are found in it. As long as the world exists and religious obligations are : enjoined, the Qur'ān will exist and will never be abrogated. The verse says

"... And this is a blessed Book, We have sent it down "

Not only this Book is the source of all kinds of goodnesses, blessings, and triumphs, .but also it confirms all the Books which were sent down before it

"... ,confirming that which has been before it ..."

The purpose of the statement saying that the Qur'ān confirms the sacred Books before it is that all the divine signs that have been referred to in those Books adopt to .it

Therefore, both from the point of content, and from the point of evidences and .historical documents, the signs of rightfulness are seen in the Qur'ān

: Then, the verse explains the purpose of sending the Qur'ān down as follows and that you may warn (the people of) the Mother City (Mecca) and those around ..."

"...;her

Mecca has been called ` 'Umm-ul-Qurā ' because, as it is said, she is the origin of the .beginning genesis of the whole lands all over the earth

There are many Islamic traditions which denote that the existing dry lands throughout the world expanded from the ground beneath the Ka` bah which in Islamic literature have been recorded by the name of /dahw-ul-'ard/ (Expansion of the Earth).
Thus, the Qur'ānic phrase `and those around her' encompasses all the people .throughout of the world

: Then, at the end of the verse, the Qur'ān says and those who believe in the Hereafter believe in it, and they are careful of their ..."

".prayers

! The Importance of Prayer

Amongst all the religious ordinances only prayer is referred to in the above-mentioned verse. So, as we know, prayer is the symbol of the link and connection between the believing servants and Allah (s.w.t.); and, for this very reason, it is the .most important worship comparing all other godly worships

Some commentators believe that when this verse was revealed the only religious .obligation had been prayer

And if you had seen when the unjust shall be in the agonies of death and the angels shall spread forth their hands, (saying) : ` Give up your souls ! Today you shall be recompensed with a disgracing chastisement for what you used to say against Allah other than the truth " .and (because) you used to behave with pride against His Signs

Commentary : verse ٩٣

Point

In the former verses this fact was referred to that the prophethood of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is ordained by Allah, and the Divine Book has been revealed to him, too. Now, this verse reproaches those pagans who rejected the Qur'ān and claimed that they : could bring the like of it. The verse says

"... ,And who is more unjust than he who forges a lie against Allah "

This sentence is a positive interrogation with a negative sense. It means that none is more unjust than the one who fabricates a falsehood against Allah and introduces

.himself a prophet while he has not such a rank

p: ۱۹۱

Or, he claims that the revelation has been sent down to him, while he has not been revealed to. It is far from the wisdom of Allah that He appoints a liar into messengership. This claim is also a calumny and its meaning, therefore, is inside the .previous sentence, but because of its importance, it has been mentioned separately

"... ,or says : `It has been revealed to me', while nothing has been revealed to him ..."

"... ?'and he who says : `I will send down the like of what Allah has sent down ..."

Zujāj, a commentator, says that this sentence is an answer to those who had said that .if they wanted they could deliver speech like the Qur'ān

They claimed like that and they tried very hard and suffered a great deal of troubles and spent expenses with all the plots and devices they applied, to quench the light of .the torch of Allah, but they could not manage it and the Lord completed His light

Some of the commentators have said that the purpose of this phrase is `Abd-illah-ibn-Sa`d-ibn-'Abī Sarḥ whom once the Messenger of Allah told to write : "And certainly we created man of an extract of clay," "... Then We caused it to grow into another creation," (Sura Al-Mu'minūn, No. ۲۳, verses ۱۲ on). At this time, this phrase was uttered by the tongue of `Abdillah that he said: "... So blessed be Allah, the best of creators." The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) ordered that this sentence should be written, too, and he added that the verse was revealed in the same form from the side of Allah. After that event, `Abd-illah-ibn-Sa`d apostatized and said that were Muhammad (p.b.u.h.) truthful, whatever was sent down to him (p.b.u.h.) would also be sent down to `Abdillah. And, if he (p.b.u.h.) is a liar, he (`Abdillah) could speak like him, too. After .(that, the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) counted his blood permissible (to be shed

And if you had seen ..."

when the unjust shall be in the agonies of death and the angels shall spread forth

"... ! their hands, (saying) : `Give up your souls

If you see the transgressors while they are in the throes of death, or in the Hell Fire, and are entangled with the most grievous tortures and the angels of taking souls or the angels of punishment, extend their hands to take their souls, or to punish them,

,striking on their foreheads and faces

p: ۱۹۲

they tell them to save themselves from that entanglement, if they are able and they are right, then you will realize that they are involved in a painful chastisement

Some of the commentators believe that the phrase means that the angels of taking souls, with the purpose of severity and threatening them, tell them to die, although the act of passing away is not of their job, it is the duty of the angels

Some other commentators say that taking in consideration that the verse is about the punishment in Hereafter, the purpose of the verse is that, on Resurrection Day, angels will tell them if they can they may deliver themselves from that punishment

: The verse concludes saying

Today you shall be recompensed with a disgracing chastisement for what you used ..." to say against Allah other than the truth and (because) you used to behave with pride "against His Signs

: Explanations

The cultural injustice and claim of leadership from the side of some undue ones, is .۱ the greatest transgression

Innovation in religion, which was also fulfilled by some of kalifs, is one of the .۲ extentions of fabricating falsehood against Allah

Commentary : verse ۹۴

This is the word of Allah which will be told the polytheism at the moment of death or at the time of being quickened on the Day of gathering

Some of the commentators have said that this statement is the word of the angels who, at the moment of death, say it to those whose souls should be taken

However, they will be told that they have come unto Allah lonely and without having anything (good deeds) with them, their condition is like the day they were created in the mothers' wombs. Here, they have not any companion and helper. At this moment they possess neither any wealth nor a child, neither a servant and maid, nor a friend and helper

"... ,And certainly you come to Us (bare and) alone as We created you at first "

In brief, your state of being quickened on the Resurrection Day is similar to the state of your creation in the beginning

"... ,and you have left behind your backs all that We gave you..."

You left behind your backs the properties Allah had given you in the world, and you boasted and pride yourselves due to them. Now, you have come to Him with a burden of sins. Therefore, others may take the benefit of those properties while you are confronted their concerning retributions. What a bad

p: ۱۹۴

! fortune and regret and We do not see with you your intercessors, those whom you imagined that they ..."

"... ;(were, in you, the associates (of Allah

Those idols that you imagined that they are Allah's partners in deciding on your fate and will intercede you before Allah in Hereafter, are not present with you. Today you see that worshipping idols have no benefit for you, and whatever effort and .endeavour you tolerated have been done in vain and error

This verse is not allocated to only polytheists. In general, whoever worships anything or anybody other than Allah, and is hopeful to gain goodness from him, trusts him and
.fears of his harm, is encompassed in this verse

"... certainly the ties between you are (now) cut off ..."

Now the links between the members of your group have been broken, and relations, friendships and the like of them have been seized, and everyone is busy with one's .own affairs

".and what you used to assert have gone away from you ..."

Your imagination has become vain. You do not know now where your idols are, whom you considered as intercessors with Allah. And you gain no profit from your
.worshipping them

Some of the commentators have rendered this phrase into the sense that their imagination unto the idea that there exists no Hereafter nor an account and
.reckoning is entirely dissipated

This verse encourages people to do righteous deeds and to follow good affairs, the factors which bring them their felicity and prosperity, not going after wealth that they .leave behind their backs when they pass away and they get no benefit from it

Commentary : verses ۹۵-۹۶

The Qur'ān has reasoned the wonders of creation and its surprising devices for
: disbelievers by saying

" ... Verily Allah is the splitter of the grain and the (date) stone "

Allah splits the dry and apparently lifeless seed, and brings a shoot of plant out of it.
.He also splits the dry pit and brings forth out of it a palm or other trees

Or, the purpose of the term /fāliq/ may be that split which Allah has created on the .seed and has divided it into two halves, which itself is one of the wonders of creation

.However, Allah is the Creator of the grain and (date) stone

p: ۱۹۶

He brings out the living from the dead and He is the bringer of the dead from the ..."
" ... .living

Allah brings a fresh, green and alive plant out of a dry seed; and He is able to bring a dry seed out of a green, wet, and alive plant. This interpretation has been recorded by
.Zujāj

In the Arabic language a green plant is called 'an alive plant.' When the plant is cut off
'or becomes dry, they call it 'dead

Hassan, Qattadah, Ibn-Zayd, and some others of the commentators say that it means Allah brings the living beings out of the soulless sperm, and He also brings the soulless (sperm out of the living creatures. (1

" ? That is Allah ! How then are you perverted ..."

All these affairs are accomplished by Allah. Why do you turn away from the Truth ? Why do you leave out these clear evidences and follow some falsehood ? Why do you not contemplate so that you realize that it is not appropriate for you to take others as partner of Allah in your worships ? Allah is the One Who bestows upon you blessings, and Who splits the grain and from the grain and the (date) stone brings some
.farmings into existence

" ... ,He is the Cleaver of the Daybreak "

The Lord is He Who splits the darkness of night and brings the pillar of morning out of
.it. This meaning has been cited by many commentators

Ibn-i-`Abbās says that the phrase means that Allah is the Creator of the morning. The
: verse continues saying

" ... ,and He has made the night for rest ..."

Most of the commentators, including Ibn-i-`Abbās, say that this sentence means that Allah has made the night as a means for resting and tranquility. So, one of the blessings of Allah is that He has arranged the night for rest and the day for effort and endeavour. Allah has set the night and the day one after the other, which itself is another reason to

---

And, as some Islamic literature indicates, there come forth some believing ۱ – ۱ persons from some disbelieving ones, and vice versa

"... and the sun and the moon for reckoning ..."

Allah made the moon and the sun rotating on their orbs. The sun passes the twelve parts of the zodiac during ۳۶۵. ۲۵ days. In its rotation, the moon also causes the lunar months and the lunar year to appear. The account of nights, days, months and years in people's lives is based on the rotation of the moon and the sun, as the Qur'ān says :

﴿" The sun and the moon follow a reckoning."﴾ (۱)

It also says : " ...Who created the night and the day and the sun and the moon; they float, each in an orbit."﴾ (۲)

This statement is a commentary on the above verse cited by Ibn-`Abbās, Sudday, Qattādah, and Mujāhid

Through this phrase, Allah has pointed out that the account of the rotation of the moon and the sun in bargains, date and the time of people's worshippings, that He has ordained, are necessary for people and are adopted to their interests

"That is the ordaining of the All-Mighty, the All-knowing ..."

All of these, viz. cleaving the darkness of the night by the morning, the appropriation of the night for resting, and the moon and the sun being as a means of reckoning, are Allah's ordaining, the One Whose Power is infinite. So, there is none to be able to disobey Him and His Power. He is aware of the interests and the device of people

Allah (s.w.t.) has created stars for your benefit and that you take advantages from their light, their rising, and their stations in the darkneses of the deserts and the seas, so that you find your way. some of stars are located in front of us and some of them are at the back, some others are in the right and in the left. They are some guides for people in travelling toward cities, in finding the direction of Ka`bah, in recognizing the time during the night, and finding the direction of the ways in desert .and the seas

Balkhy, a commentator, says the phrase "... that by them you might be guided ..." does not denote to the meaning that stars have been created only for guiding people, but

Allah has created stars for some numerous

p: ۱۹۹

important benefits. If a person contemplates and takes care about small and large stars and their positions, orbits, relations and movements, and also takes care about the advantages of the sun and the moon and that how they are effective in the life, growth, and development of animals and plants, the veracity of this claim will be proved for him. If they were created for only guiding people, it would not be sensible and agreeable that some of them to be bigger than others and their orbs be different from each other

In the commentary book of Ali-ibn-Ibrāhīm, it is cited that the objective meaning of !('` stars, here, is ` the progeny of Muhammad (p.b.u.h

: The verse continues saying

"We have explained Our Signs for a people who know ..."

That is, Allah has stated His verses and has reasoned for the people who gain knowledge through the way of contemplation

"... And it is He Who has produced you from one person "

Allah has created humankind from Adam. All of us have been created from Adam, and Eve, our mother. She had been created from the side of Adam. This creation itself is one of the favours of Allah upon human beings, because when all human beings are the children of one parents, the circumstances among them are more favourable in the fields of cooperation, friendship and intimacy

: The verse adds

"... Then there is a place of sojourn and a provisional repository ..."

You have a place in the womb and a settlement in the grave, until the time you will be quickened. In other words, you have a place on the ground and a place for the Hereafter with Allah

: The Qur'ān concludes the verse stating

"We have explained Our Signs for a people who understand ..."

That is, Allah has stated His reasons and verses in detail for those people who possess understanding and take an example

The question is that why the Qur'ān says : "... for a people who understand." To answer this question, it can be said that the reason is that only these people are those who utilize the Qur'ānic reasonings. Similar to this meaning is the phrase which says that only the pious are those who enjoy the guidance of the Qur'ān

This concluding sentence of the verse has been mentioned both in the previous verse and in this verse in order to indicate that each one of these matters are separately worthy of being taken care and they are some evidences upon Oneness and Glory of Allah

Commentary : verse ٩٩

Following the former matters, which were stated upon the reasoning of Unity and Glory of Allah, this verse says that Allah sends down rain from cloud in the sky, by which the growth and development of all things come forth. That is the nutrition of beasts, birds, wild animals, and human beings are produced by means of it, in order : that they consume it and develop. The verse says

And He it is Who sends down water from the sky and thereby We bring forth the " "... ,shoot of every growing thing

Thus, the purpose of the Qur'ānic phrase /nabāt-a-kull-i-šay'in/ (the shoot of every .growing thing) is something by which everything grows and develops

The meaning of the verse may be that Allah has grown all kinds of plants by means of rain. Therefore, the purpose of /kull-i-šay'/ is kinds of plants. Then,

p: ۲۰۲

.water is the cause of appearance of plants and the growth of the living things

:The verse adds

(then from it We bring forth green (foliage ..."

Allah brings forth from rain, or from plants, some vegetations, and from the vegetations He brings forth grains and clusters like the clusters of wheat, sesame,
.and the like

; (from which We produce grain piled up (in the ears ..."

,and of the palm-tree, of the sheaths of it, come forth clusters (of dates) within reach
"...

And from the spathes of the palm-tree, He brings forth some clusters of dates which are low-hanging and within reach. It is evident that a palm-tree can sometimes be tall when its fruit is not always within reach, but when it is short, its fruit is naturally within reach. In this holy verse only the second sort is mentioned and the first sort has not been stated. In fact, the Qur'ān has sufficed citing one kind and the other kind has not been mentioned, because the hearer can .guess the other one by the frame of reference in the context

Some of commentators have said that the purpose of the term /dāniyah/ (within reach), mentioned in the verse, is that the fruit of the palm-tree, as a result of abundance and heaviness, has come down near the ground. Viz. the fruit of some of .palm-trees is so abundant and heavy, that its branches reach near the ground

There are some other trees the fruit of which has a sheath and a shell, too. It is only
.that of palm-date that has not a sheath and a shell

Yet, Allah, the Glorious, has pointed to only the latter aspect in the verse and He has restrained from stating the rest aspects. The reason of this manner may be that `.
.date ' contains many other advantages and it is also full of nutritives

: The verse continues saying

"... ,and gardens of grapes, olives and pomegranates ..."

By the means of water, Allah produces gardens of grapes, olives, and pomegranates. Olives and pomegranates are mentioned with together because their branches seem .to Arab full of leaves from top to bottom

p: ٢٠٣

"... alike and unlike ..."

Trees are rather similar to each other, but the tastes of their fruits are different. Some other commentators say that the phrase means that their leaves are similar to each other but their fruits are not

It is better to say that all of them from one point are similar to each other, but from another point they are different

"... Look upon its fruit when it fructifies and ripens ..."

Look as an exemplary that how trees fructify and how their fruits ripen and are used. That is, you may follow these stages which happen in it, from the day when the fruit appears on the branch of the tree until the day when the fruit ripens, together with the changes that occur in its taste, color, odour, and also its smallness and bigness, so that you comprehend that there is a Wise Creator in the course of both its creation and administration

: The concluding sentence of the verse is as follows

".Verily, there are signs in that for a people who believe ..."

Yes, in the creation of fruits and plants, with all the proper differences that they have, and the exact wise elaborateness which have been done in their structure, there are some clear and convincing evidences for the believing people that denote they have a Creator Who has adorned them with the ornament of creation knowingly and discerningly

Regarding what we study today in botany about fruits when they come forth and then ripen, the proper importance that the Qur'ān has considered for fruits will be made manifest. The explanation of it is that fruits come into being like the birth of the offsprings in the world of animals. By some particular means (such as winds, insects and the like) stamens are separated in some special bags and are put down on the pistil of plant. After the act of pollinating and combining with each other, the first seed is formed. Then, some kinds of nutritive stuff around it, like some flesh, encompasses

From the point of combination, this nutritious stuff contains various substances. Also, from the point of taste, and medical properties and nutritive properties these substances are extraordinarily different

Sometimes one fruit (like pomegranates and grapes) contains hundreds seeds each of which, in potency, can itself be considered a tree. Every .fruit, with its several levels, has an elaborate structure

This explanation is from one side. On the other side, from the time a fruit is green until when it completely ripens, there are different stages that the fruit must pass. This subject is greatly considerable, since the innate laboratories of a fruit are continuously busy changing its chemical combinations until it reaches the last stage .and when the conditions of its chemical structure will be fixed

Every one of these stages by itself is an indication to the Glory and Power of the .Creator

But, it should be noted that, as the Qur'ān points out, only the believers, i.e. the observers of right and the seekers of truth can see these facts. Otherwise, with the eye of enmity and quarrelsomeness, or with heedlessness and carelessness, it is .impossible for anybody to see these facts

"(Glory be to Him, and highly Exalted is He above what they ascribe (to Him

Commentary : verse 100

! Allah Is the Creator of All Things

In this verse, and some verses next to it, the Qur'ān points to a part of improper and superstitious beliefs of pagans and the believers of some wrong schools of thought, accompanied with a logical answer to them. At first, it says

"... And they set up the jinn associates with Allah "

Then, the Qur'ān answers to this superstitious imagination and, pointing to the creation of jinn, it says

"... ,while He created them ..."

How is it possible that a created being can be the associate of the Creator ? Association is the sign of being of the same class and in the same level, while a created creature can never be in the same level with the Creator

Other superstition was that they believed in the existence of children for the Lord. The verse continues saying

"... and they falsely attributed to Him sons and daughters without knowledge..."

In fact, the best reason for proving that these superstitious opinions are false is the : same fact which can be understood from the phrase without knowledge". This means that they have no rational reason nor evidence for"

.these superstitions

The question is that which sects attributed sons to Allah. In some other verses, the Qur'ān has mentioned two groups who towed that false idea. One of those two groups were Christians who believed Jesus was God's son. And .the other was the Jews who believed Ezra was His son

But, Sura Taubah, No. ٩, verse ٣٠ denotes that the belief in the existence of son for the Lord was not allocated to the Christians and the Jews. This wrong idea had existed
.among the former people with superstitious schools of thought, too

Now, what about the belief in the existence of daughters for the Lord ? In Sura Az-
: Zukhruf, No. ٤٣, verse ١٩, the Qur'ān itself says

And they make the angels who are the servants of the Beneficent (God) – female"
"... ((divinities

But, at the end of the verse under discussion the Qur'ān nulifies all these superstitious imaginations and these vain baseless fancies, and, by an expressive and clear
: sentence, it says

".(Glory be to Him, and highly Exalted is He above what they ascribe (to Him..."

".Therefore worship Him, for He is Guardian over all things

Commentary : verses ۱۰۱-۱۰۲

: This verse answers to the superstitious beliefs. At first, it says

"... ! He is the) Diviser of the heavens and the earth) "

The Qur'ānic term /badī` / means `the producer of something new without having a precedent'. That is, Allah, Glory be to Him, has brought the heavens and the earth into being without any previous substance, or design and plan

Moreover, how is it possible that He can have a child while He has not a spouse ? The
: verse says

"... ,How can He have a child while there is for Him no consort ..."

Basically, He does not need a spouse, and who can be His spouse when He has ? created all creatures

p: ۲۰۸

Once more the Qur'ān emphasizes the rank of Allah's creative power in respect to all existing things and all human beings, and His Scientific Omnipotence in respect to all : of them, and says

" ? and He created everything, and He is All-Knowing of all things ..."

****

After mentioning the creative power of Allah in respect to all things, and bringing the heavens and the earth into existence, and that He is Glorified to have body and bodily issues, or to have any spouse and child, and that His Scientific Omnipotence in respect : to everything and all affairs, it concludes thus

" ... ,That is Allah your Lord "

And, since there is none to have some attributes like them, then none is eligible to be worshipped save Allah. He is both the Lord and the Creator. Therefore, only Allah .(s.w.t) can be the deity. Thus do worship Him

: The verse continues saying

.there is no god but He, the Creator of everything ..."

" ... ,Therefore worship Him

In order to cut out any hope to anything except the hope to Allah, and to eradicate any idolatry and, in general, any reliance to other than Allah, at the end of the verse it : adds

".for He is Guardian over all things ..."

The eyes do not perceive Him, but He perceives the eyes, He is the All-Subtle, " ١٠٣ .
".the All-Aware

Commentary : verse ١٠٣

In order to prove Allah's sovereignty and Guardianship over every thing, and to prove : His difference from the whole creatures, it says

" ... ,The eyes do not perceive Him, but He perceives the eyes "

Allah is the bestower of kinds of blessings, and He is aware of all details and cognizant of everything. He knows the expedients of the servants as well as their needs.
.Therefore, He treats them as His Grace requires

"He is the All-Subtle, the All-Aware ..."

In fact, the one who wants to be guardian, educator, and shelter of every existence
.should be qualified with these attributes

Allah is not Seen by the Eyes

Rational demonstrations (proofs) testify that Allah can never be seen by vision, because eyes can see only substances, or some of the qualities of substances. Then, something which is not a substance, nor it is the quality of a substance, is never seen by vision. In other words, if something is seen by vision, it certainly should have place, direction, and material, while He, the Exalted, is above all these things. Allah is an infinite Essence, that is why He is beyond the world of material. In the world of .material, everything is finite and limited

It has been narrated from Imam Ridā (a.s.) who said : "The objective meaning of /abṣār/ (the eyes) is not the eyes of head, but it is the eye of heart, the insight. " That is, He (s.w.t.) is beyond apparition, suspicion, and imagination. He cannot be contained in any body's imagination, and none can comprehend the howness of His Essence.

Certainly clear proofs have come to you from your Lord. Whoever therefore " ١٠٤ . sees (with insight), it is to his own gain, and whoever be blind, it is to his own loss; and "I am not a keeper over you

Commentary : verse ١٠٤

"... ,Certainly clear proofs have come to you from your Lord "

The term /baṣā'ir/ is the plural form of /baṣīrat/ which means some indications and guidances by which the truth will be manifested. It also means the light of the heart (mind), while /baṣar/ means the light of the eye. Then the phrase means that they have come to you from your Lord with the purpose of paying attention to this matter .that what is right to Allah and what is not

By means of the divine revelation, there have come down some information which are .(considered as a light and the power of sight for your hearts (minds

Whoever therefore sees (with insight), it is to his own gain, and whoever be blind, it ..." ;is to his own loss

That is, the person who looks at the Truth and believes in it, has worked for his own .profit; and the one who relinquishes it, has acted toward his own loss

It is understood from this verse that people are not obliged in doing their affairs. They .are free and authorized in choosing them and performing them

Then, the revelation commands the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to tell those people that he is not a protector of them to keep their deeds and to give them rewards, but he is only .an admonisher, while Allah is their protector

: The verse says

".and I am not a keeper over you ..."

Commentary : verse ١٠٥

In order to emphasize that the final decision for choosing the way of right and the way
: of wrong is upon the servants of Allah themselves, the verse says

"... And thus do We repeat the Signs "

But a group of the opponents may oppose you and, without having any authentic evidence or research, they say that you have learnt these lessons from the Jews and
.the Christians, which have been taken from their revealed Books

١٠٦. "Follow what is revealed to you from your Lord; there is no god but He";

"and turn away from the polytheists

Commentary : verse ١٠٦

Here, the Qur'ān has defined the duty of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) against the quarrelsomenesses, rancours, and accusations of the opponents

This holy verse implies that his duty is to follow whatever has been revealed to him (p.b.u.h.) from the side of Allah (s.w.t.), the Lord, and that there is no diety but He

:The verse says

"...;Follow what is revealed to you from your Lord; there is no god but He "

His duty is also to be heedless toward polytheists, their undue accusations, and their : vain words. It says

"and turn away from the polytheists ..."

In fact, this verse is a kind of soothing and spiritual strengthening for the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), so that he can be ever firm in his strong determination and that he .withdraws aught

And had Allah pleased, they would not have associated others (with Him), and " ١٠٧ .
 ,We have not made you a keeper over them
 ".nor are you over them a guardian

Commentary : verse ١٠٧

This fact is confirmed again in this verse that Allah does not please to force them to .believe in Truth

" ... ,(And had Allah pleased, they would not have associated others (with Him "

Also, the holy verse emphasizes on the same subject which was mentioned before,
 : saying

" ... ,and We have not made you a keeper over them ..."

: As your duty is not to force them to believe, then

".nor are you over them a guardian ..."

The tone of these verses are greatly considerable from this point of view that belief in
 .Allah and in Islam can never have the obligatory state

Hence progression in this way should be performed through the way of logic, reasoning and penetrating in the souls and minds of people. The reason of this idea is that an obligatory belief is worthless. The important matter is that people .comprehend the facts and accept them with their own authority and will

And do not abuse those whom they call upon besides Allah, or they will abuse " ١٠٨ .
Allah in revenge without any knowledge. Thus unto every nation have We made their behaviour seem fair. Then unto their Lord is their return, so He will inform them of ".what they used to do

Commentary : verse ١٠٨

In this verse, Allah emphasizes on this meaning that idols and deities of the pagans should never be abused. This action causes the holy Essence of Allah to be abused by .them, revengefully and unjustly, because of their ignorance

As it is understood from some Islamic traditions, it happened that sometimes some of the believers who were seriously unbecoming from the phenomenon of idolatry, used indecent language and abused the idols of the pagans. The Qur'ān explicitly prohibited that action. From the point of Islam, having modesty and observing the principles of discipline, and courtesy in speech is necessary for a believer, even if it is before the most superstitious and the worst wrong religions. It is not possible to prevent a person from a wrong way by means of abusing him, because everybody is : zealous unto his own beliefs and deeds. The verse says

And do not abuse those whom they call upon besides Allah, or they will abuse Allah in "
"... ,revenge without any knowledge

However, every sect or group of people think that their conduct is fair, because it is as their nature pleases, but, in the meantime, they have been introduced the Truth in : order that they act accordingly and avoid the falsehood. The verse continues saying thus unto every nation have We ..."

:that if a sign came to them they would most certainly believe in it. Say ` Signs are only with Allah `

? And what should make you know that when it comes they will not believe

Commentary : verse ١٠٩

Once a group of pagans of the Quraysh (١) came to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and said that he should bring some miracles like those of Moses and Jesus (a.s.), so that they could believe in him. The Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) asked them what action he should do. They answered him that he should change the Safa mount (located in Mecca) into gold, restore the dead to life, show them the Lord and the angels, and so on. They swore that in that case they would believe

Gabriel came down and revealed the verse to the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) indicating that miracles are done according to Allah's Will, not according to their desires

Moreover, some suggestions that some ignorant people offer are sometimes opposite to human intelligence. It is not such that the world become the hall of exhibition and the system of existence changes with the desires of some pagans

Gabriel brought the divine message to the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) indicating that if the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) wished, his invitation would be accepted; but if they did not believe in Islam, all of them would be

The Quraysh were the noblest tribe of Arabia, the tribe to which the holy Prophet ﷺ himself (p.b.u.h) belonged. They had the custody of the Ka'bah, the central shrine of Arabia punished seriously and they would be destroyed. So, if their desires were not performed and they were not paid attention to, they might repent and turn to the right way. Then, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) accepted it too, and the verse was revealed : saying

„And they swore by Allah with the strongest of their oaths ”

Commentary : verse ١١٠

Here, in this verse, Allah announces that as the retribution of their sin and their wrong
.conduct, He will derange their sights and their hearts

That is, Allah is cognizant of the secrets of the hearts and the treachery of eyes, and (He sees their inward (state) which is opposite to their apparent (aspect

Allah, the Exalted, knew that there was something in those hearts and eyes which was different from what they claimed. Therefore, if the prophetic miracles that they asked for were performed, they could not believe in him yet. It was similar to the condition of their former people when they did not believe in the verses that were .revealed for the first time

Therefore, they will be left to themselves so that they be entangled with their own sins and disobedience. They will sink in their meanness, and remain bewildered.

.Hence, as a result of their disobedience, they will be punished in the Hereafter

And (because of pertinacities of infidels) We will turn their hearts and their sights, "

".but most of them (deliberately) ignore

Commentary : verse ۱۱۱

The purpose of these holy verses is to make clear that some of the seekers of surprising miracles are not true in their demands and their aim is not to embrace the Truth. That is why some of their wishes (like that Allah comes in front of them) are basically impossible

In this verse, the Qur'ān explicitly says that had their demands been fulfilled in the same form that they wanted, and the angels had been sent down upon them, and the dead had come to speak with them, and in short whatever they had wished were : provided for them, even then, they would not believe. Here is the verse

And even if We sent down the angels to them, and the dead spoke to them, and We " ... ,mustered all things before them, (even then) they would not believe

Then, to emphasize on the matter, it implies that it is in one case

p: ۲۱۹

possible that they believe and that is in the case that Allah forces them to accept the : Faith by His Sovereign Will

"...;Unless Allah pleases ..."

And, it is evident that this sort of Faith will contain no training income and no effect of .perfection

: So, at the end of the verse, it adds

".but most of them (deliberately) ignore ..."

Commentary : verse ١١٢

It was said in the former verses that the hostility of the stubborn enemies against the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was not confined to him alone, but other prophets had such : enemies, too. In this verse, it says

And thus did We assign for every prophet an enemy, the satans from humans and " "... jinn

And their manner was that they spoke some charming words secretly and .occasionally, by whispering to each other, in order to deceive them

: The verse says

"... (who (secretly) inspire each other with flashy words to deceive (them ..."

Yet, it should not be made mistake, and if Allah pleased, He could forcefully stop them : doing that. The verse says

"... And had your Lord pleased they would not have done it ..."

But Allah did not do that because He wished to let people act freely in a scene where .they can be tested, improved and trained

Therefore, at the end of the verse, He commands His Messenger that he never pays attention to these followers of Satans and that he leaves both them and their .accusations with themselves

Commentary : verse ١١٣

The consequence of the charming suggestions and deceitful preaches of the satans is : recited in this verse, as follows

And (the result of those Satanic inspirations is) so that the hearts of those who do "
"... ,not believe in the Hereafter , may incline to it

Then, it adds that the end of this inclination will be a complete consent to the Satanic
: deeds. Here is the verse

"... ,(and that they may be well-pleased with it (the flashy words ..."

Therefore, the end of them all, in this world, will be committing kinds of sins, indencencies, and vices, and, consequently, they will be involved with the result of the

Say:) ` Shall I seek a judge other than Allah, while it is He Who has sent down to you the Book, (fully) explained

And those whom We have given the Book know that it has been sent down from your Lord with the truth, so be not you of the doubters

Commentary : verse 114

In fact, this verse is the conclusion of the previous verses. It indicates that, with all these clear verses which were recited, whom should be accepted as an arbitrator ?
: The verse says

"... ,Say:) ` Shall I seek a judge other than Allah)"

This heavenly Book explains all the necessary training facts of man and has separated between right and wrong, light and darkness, and disbelief and Faith; and .it is Allah Who has sent it down to you

: Concerning this meaning, the Qur'ān continues saying

"...? while it is He Who has sent down to you the Book, (fully) explained ..."

Then, addressing the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), the verse implies that not only he and the Muslims know that this Book is from Allah, but also the people of the Book (The Jews and the Christians), who have seen the Signs of this heavenly Book in their own Books, know that this Book has been sent down from the Lord with the Truth. The verse says

And those whom We have given the Book know that it has been sent down from ..."

And perfected is the Word of your Lord in truth and justice; there is naught that " ١١٥
".can change His Words, and He is All-Hearing, All-Knowing

Commentary : verse ١١٥

In this verse, The Qur'ān, addressing the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), indicates that his Lord's Word was completed in truth and justice, so that no one can change its containing words, and the Lord is All-Hearing, All-Knowing

: The verse says

And perfected is the Word of your Lord in truth and justice; there is naught that can "
".change His Words, and He is All-Hearing, All-Knowing

The objective meaning of the term `word', mentioned in the above verse, is `The Qur'ān', since in the former verses the subject matter was also recited upon `The Qur'ān

Indeed, the verse refers to the fact that there is no doubt about the Qur'ān, because it is perfect and faultless in any respects. Its facts upon history and its information about events are all true, and its ordinances and laws are utterly just

Some of the commentators, attaching this verse, have reasoned to the impossibility of influencing in perverting the Qur'ān. They say that the phrase : "... There is naught that can change His Words ..." points to this fact that nobody is able to cast any change in the Qur'ān, neither from the point of the Arabic spelling of the words, nor from the point of the information of the events, nor from the point of ordinances and laws

Therefore, this heavenly Book, which must be the guide of humankind until the end of the world, will be secured and protected from the larceny of treacherous persons and .distorters

And if you obey most of those in the earth, they will lead you astray from the " ١١٦ .
;way of Allah. They follow nothing but conjecture
" .and they do nothing but surmise

Commentary : verse ١١٦

It was said before that the current Sura was sent down in Mecca. At that time Muslims were intensively in minority. Concerning this minority and the conclusive majority of idol worshippers and the opponents of Islam, sometimes it might happen that some persons suspected that why there were so many followers of idolatry while that creed .was futile and false, and if Muslims were right, why they were so few

To remove this sort of imagination, the verse addresses the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and
: says

And if you obey most of these in the earth, they will lead you astray from the way of "
" ... Allah

In the next sentence of the verse, the Qur'ān states the reason of this subject. It points out that the reason of it is that they do not behave upon logic and a correct thought. Their guide is conjecture based on delusion, and some imaginations polluted : with low desires, lusts and lies. The verse says

" .They follow nothing but conjecture; and they do nothing but surmise ..."

Verily your Lord knows best those who stray from His way, and He (also) knows " .١١٧
".best those who are guided

Commentary : verse ١١٧

In view of the fact that the concept of the previous verse is that mere majority can not show the way of truth and it is not the reason of right, the result of it is that the way of truth should be taken only from the source of Allah, although the followers of .truth are in minority

The Qur'aān makes the reason of this matter clear in this verse. It points out that your Lord, Who is aware of all things and there is not the least mistake in His endless knowledge, knows best which way is the way of astray and which way is the way of .guidance, and, then, He knows best the misguided and the guided

The effects of paganism

:The Effects of Paganism Should be Removed Totally

Through previous verses, the reality of Unity was proved, and the falsehood of .paganism and idolatry was made manifest

One of the results of this question is that Muslims should avoid consuming the meat of the animals slaughtered by the name of idols. They should use only the meat of those .animals which are slaughtered by the name of Allah

: Concerning this meaning, the Qur'ān says

Therefore, eat (the meat) of that over which Allah's name has been mentioned, if "
".you are believers in His Signs

That is, the Faith is not only a bare claim, a lonely statement, and a simple belief. But it .should be proved through practice, too

Commentary : verse ١١٩

In this verse, the Qur'ān says why you do not eat from the meat of those animals over which the name of Allah has been mentioned, while He has detailed for you what has : been made unlawful for you. The verse says

And what has happened to you that you do not eat (the meat) of that over which " Allah's name has been mentioned, while He has (already) explained for you what He "... ,has forbidden unto you

: Then, one case has been exceptioned from this general law. It says

"... ? (except what you are compelled to (eat ..."

This condition may come forth for a person in the desert or in a deserted place because of an intensive hunger or being captured in the grips of some pagans who
.force the one against this matter

: After that statement, it adds

And indeed many (people) mislead (others) by their desires, without any ..."

"... .knowledge

Then, at the end of the verse, it says that Allah is fully aware and knows best those who are transgressors. These are those who not only go astray from the straight and : true path, but also, attaching false proofs, try to mislead others. The verse says

".Verily, your Lord knows best the transgressors ..."

" ;And abandon outward sin and the inward one " .١٢٠ verily those who commit sin soon shall be recompensed with what they used to ".commit

Commentary : verse ١٢٠

Since some people usually commit this unlawful action (fornication) hiddenly, following
:that meaning, in this verse, as a general law, the Qur'ān says

"... ;And abandon outward sin and the inward one "

It is said that at the Age of Ignorance some people believed that fornication was not a vice when it was done secretly, and it was considered a sin when it was committed
.manifestly

Even now, in the present century, there are some persons who have practically accepted this logic of the Age of Ignorance, and they fear committing only the outward sins. Such people, having no feeling of incommmodity, easily commit some .hidden sins. The above-mentioned verse seriously condemns this logic

Then, as a remembrance, the verse warns the sinners to the evil fate which waits for : them, and says

verily those who commit sin ..."

".soon shall be recompensed with what they used to commit

Commentary : verse ١٢١

This verse emphasizes on the negative aspect of the matter and its concept of : prohibition. It says

And do not eat (anything) of that over which Allah's name has not been mentioned " " ... ((at the time of slaughter

Then, through a short sentence, it negates this action again, and implies that this work is a mischief, a sin, and going out from the path and manner of servitude of Allah : and obeying His commandment. It says

"... ,and that is indeed transgression ..."

And, in order that some simple hearted Muslims would not be affected by their satanic : temptations, it adds

"... ,and verily the Satans inspire unto their friends to dispute with you ..."

But, beware that if you submit to their temptations, you will be counted among : pagans, too. The verse says

"...(and if you obey them, you will indeed be polytheists, (too ..."

This dispute and temptation may refer to that very logic that pagans inspired unto each other. They said that they ate the meat of the dead animals because the Lord had slaughtered them. That is, if they do not eat the meat of carrions, it is a kind of .heedlessness to the deed of Allah

Some commentators have said that pagans of Arab had learnt it from Zoroastrians. Pagans were inattentive of the fact that the head of whatever dies naturally, besides that it often dies because of a disease, has not been cut, and, therefore, the dirty blood of its body has remained among the levels of its meat. This blood decays
.thereafter, and surely pollutes the meat, too

Is he who was dead (with ignorance and polytheism) and we gave him life (by " ۱۲۲. Our guidance) and provided him with a light by which he walks among the people, as one whose likeness is in the shadows (of ignorance and polytheism) and he cannot come forth from them ? Thus has been made fair seeming for the disbelievers what "they were doing

Commentary : verse ۱۲۲

In this verse, a person who has been misguided and Allah has guided him thereafter, is resembled to a person who has been dead and He has given him life. For such a person, Allah has appointed a light by which he can diffuse light among people. And He has resembled the person who has remained in his misguidance to a person who .walks in darkness without having a guide, and he does not go out from that darkness

: The Qur'ān says

Is he who was dead (with ignorance and polytheism) and we gave him life (by Our " guidance) and provided him with a light by which he walks among the people, as one whose likeness is in the shadows (of ignorance and polytheism) and he cannot come "... ? forth from them

However, the purpose of this light, mentioned in the above verse, is not only `the Qur'ān' and `the trainings of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.)', but, in addition to these, belief in Allah gives man a new insight, and a fresh concept, which broads the scope of his vision from the material life, and from the inside of the material world, .high up towards an extraordinary open vast world

Under the ray of this light, the one can find his way of life among people and can be saved from a lot of mistakes which others may be entangled with because of greed and avarice. Without that light, the one may fall in such mistakes as a result of .materialistic thought, and domination of selfishness and low desires

: There is a holy phrase, recorded in Islamic narrations, which says

.A believer looks by means of Allah's light." This phrase is a hint to this very fact "

And thus We have appointed in every town its leading criminals that they may " ١٢٣ .
plot therein. Yet they do not plot except against their own selves but they are not

Commentary : verse ١٢٣

The content of this verse points to the situation of the misguided chiefs and the leaders of infidelity and mischief. It implies that Allah has appointed some leading persons in every town who take the way of committing sin, and by means of plot and : deceit, they pervert people from the straight path. The Qur'ānic text is recited

And thus We have appointed in every town its leading criminals that they may plot "
"... therein

That is, the final end of disobedience and committing abundant sins was that they became the robbers of the way of truth, and misled the servants of Allah from the .straight path

: So, at the end of the verse, the Qur'ān continues saying

".Yet they do not plot except against their own selves but they are not aware ..."

It is clearly understood from this verse that the source of corruptions and calamities, which encompass some societies, is the mischievous men of authority and outstanding men inside these societies. These are those who, by kinds of plot and .deceit, change the way of Allah and conceal the feature of truth from people

Allah knows best where to place His apostleship. Soon there shall befall those who are guilty humiliation from Allah and a severe punishment because of the plots they used ".to devise

Occasion of Revelation of verse ١٢٤

It has been narrated that this verse was revealed about a pagan by the name of Walīd-ibn-Muqayrah. He was one of the well-known chiefs of the idol worshippers. He was considered as their reflective faculty. He told the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) that if prophecy were true, he was deserved to take that rank more than him because of both his age, that was elder than the Prophet, (p.b.u.h.), and his wealth, which was .(more abundant than that of his (p.b.u.h

Commentary : verse ١٢٤

.Allah Appoints Prophets

In this verse, the Qur'ān shortly, but expressively, points to the kind of thoughts and rediculous claims of these false leaders, or as the Qur'ān says : "... its leading criminals
: ...",. when it says

And when a sign (from Allah) comes to them, they say: ` Never will we believe until "
"... .we are given the like of what was given to Allah's apostles

The Qur'ān gives them a clear answer, and implies that it is not necessary for them to teach Allah how He appoints His prophets and messengers, and among whom He : might choose them, because

"... Allah knows best where to place His apostleship ..."

It is evident that messengership relates neither to age and wealth nor to the circumstances of tribes. But, before mentioning anything else, the necessary conditions of it are : spiritual receptiveness, purity of inward, noble human virtues, splendid thoughts, strong decisions, and, finally, an extra ordinary piety and morality with the stage of inerrancy. The existence of these qualities, especially the quality of the receptiveness of the rank of inerrancy; are some things that none knows except Allah. How far the difference is between these conditions and what they have ! mentioned

The successor(s) of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) should also have all the qualities and conditions of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), except revelation and divine legislation. That is, such a successor is both the protector of the religion and divine laws, and the guardian of the religion and its regulations, and the spritual and material leader of people. That is why he must have both the position of inerrancy and immunity of fault and sin so that he can fulfil his mission, and to become a trusty example and a leader .whom is obeyed

For this very reason, such a successor is also chosen by Allah, not by people or by a consultative committee. It is only Allah Who knows where to place this position, not .people

So, at the end of the verse, the Qur'ān has stated the fate of such sinners and false leaders who claim too much. It indicates that for the plots and deceits that these sinners applied to make people astray, soon they will be put in humiliation and in an :intensive punishment before Allah. It says

Soon there shall befall those who are guilty humiliation from Allah and a severe ..."
".punishment because of the plots they used to devise

With their wrong actions, these self-lovers wanted to protect their social situation and grandour, but Allah will despise them so much that they feel the most painful spiritual .tortures then

".Thus does Allah lay abomination on those who do not believe

Commentary : verse ١٢٥

The purpose of the divine guidance and misguidance is to provide the means of guidance for those who deserve it, and to ruin those means for those who are not .eligible of it

The objective meaning of the Qur'ānic term / Ṣadr / (breast) is `heart and spirit', and, therefore, the purpose of `opening the breast' is broadening the scope of mind and thought, as well as the height of spirit, for accepting the Truth and guidance. This situation needs that the person renounces the low desires and wishes of his heart. He who has not `an open breast' usually remains inside of himself and does not dare to come out. The fruit of `an open breast' is, firstly, insight and luminosity. and,
.secondly, a tender heart which accepts the Truth

.Thus, accepting the Truth necessarily needs an innate receptiveness and capacity Therefore, whomever Allah intends that He should guide him aright, He opens his "

" ... ;breast to Islam

And, the one who is not ready to accept the Truth, can not ascend into the sky of

: Following the former matters, the Qur'ān says

And on the day He musters all together, (addressing the Satans of jinn, He says:) ` O' "
"...'.assembly of jinn ! you took away a great part of mankind

Then those of human beings who had followed them will say that they profited from

And their friends from among the human beings will say : ` O' our Lord ! some of us ..."
"... profited by others

The interest that the jinns have benefited from human beings is that they have been their chiefs and masters and those human beings have obeyed their low desires and lusts. The interest that human beings have benefited from jinns is that the jinns have ornamented the vain pleasures and lusts before their eyes and have made them amused by these

.apparently fair things

"...!and we have reached our term which You had assigned for us ..."

Some commentators say that the purpose of this statement is to point to the .resurrection of the dead in Hereafter

"... ,(He will say: ` The Fire is your abode, to remain in it (forever ..."

Addressing such people, Allah says that Hell Fire is their dwelling place and they will .remain in punishment there forever

Returning from Fire is an exception which refers to guilty Muslims. If He pleases, He .will punish them; and if He wills, He will forgive them by His grace

At the end of the verse, the Qur'ān says that Allah is Wise in His affairs, and He knows

And thus do We make some of the iniquitous to befriend others on account of " ١٢٩ .
".what they used to earn

Commentary : verse ١٢٩

As a trial, Allah may leave the unjust to themselves and make them friends of each other in order that they show affection to each other. In this case, their retribution, that He will give them, will be as much as they deserve. So, similar to the situation of the transgressors among jinn and human, on the Resurrection Day, when Allah will refer them to each other and He will declare Himself to be clear of them, we will refer .the unjust to each other, too

There are some persons who have followed some persons other than Allah. They will be left to their masters on that Day, and will be told to go to them for the deliverance .from Fire

The purpose of this statement is to announce them that, on the Resurrection Day, .there will not be any friend to save them from the chastisement

In other words, as a result of the friendship and affection that they had between (themselves, they will be sent to the Hell following each other. (١)

And thus do We make some of the iniquitous to befriend others on account of what " .they used to earn

According to some Islamic narrations, the retribution of the following persons will ١ -١ be the domination of the cruel ones upon them. These persons are : those who abandon enjoining right and forbidding wrong, and those who do not pay khoms (one fifth levy), alms and religious taxes, and those who assist the unjust. (Atyab-ul-Bayān, the commentary) A tradition indicates that when Allah is pleased with the deeds of a group of people, He will refer their affairs to some good persons; but when He is not pleased with their deeds, He may put their affairs in the hands of some evil ones.

Commentary : verse ١٣١

One of Allah's ways of treatment is that, by sending prophets and different kinds of warning, He shows right and wrong to people and states the facts for them to complete the argument. It is in that case that if they behave heedlessly, He will punish them.

This general law and way of treatment is referred to in numerous verses of the Qur'ān, including : Sura-Ash-Shu`arā, No. ٢٦, verse ٢٠٨ which says: " And We did not destroy any town but it had (its) warners :", and Sura Al-'Isrā', No. ١٧, verse ١٥ where it says : "... nor do We chastise until We raise an apostle

Therefore Allah's chastisements are given because of justice which exists in the .Essence of His Lordship

Regarding to this, it can be said that punishment without former statement of .admonishment and warning, is unjust and is a vice

Commentary : verses ۱۳۳-۱۳۴

In the previous verses the statement was about rewards justly and without atrocity given to the eligible persons. Here, in this verse, the Qur'ān refers to the Mercy and .Self-Sufficiency of Allah, both of which are reasons to His Justice

: The verse says

"... ,And your Lord is Self-Sufficient, the Lord of Mercy "

.That is, your Lord is not in need of His servants and their worships

He is the owner of clemency. He bestows mercy upon people. He enjoins them to do .some duties in order to deliver some great benefits to them

These benefits are not obtainable unless through the way of being eligible of them. This eligibility can be gained by means of fulfilling the divine duties accompanied with .glorification and veneration unto Allah

Commentary : verse ١٣٥

The verse announces to the disbelievers that they act as far as they can and do their best as much as it is possible for them, and also in a form that their possibilities let them

"... ;Say: ` O' my people ! act according to your ability "

.It is so that I, in my turn, do my best, too

"... verily I too act ..."

The purpose of this part of the verse is that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) says to the disbelievers that they might remain in their infidelity and hostility, and he (the Prophet) would persist on Islam and be affirmed in patience before them, too

"... .Then soon you will know for whom will be the (good) end of the abode ..."

It will not be very late that you will come to know which of us will have a good and admirable end

This phrase has been added as a warning and threat of punishment when it says that the unjust will not be successful in reaching to their own ideal

Commentary : verse ١٣٦

Those who go out of the path of prophets' training and enter the land of imagination, their statements and decisions are also imaginary and without logic. They consider themselves the possessors of everything, and set divisions between them

Once they know sons as their own share and daughters as Allah's share : " What ! for you the male and for Him the females." (Sura An-Najm, No. ٥٣, verse ٢١). And another : time, according to their imagination, they divide tilth and cattle. The verse says

And they (the polytheists) assigned to Allah out of what He has created of tilth and " cattle, a portion, and said : ` This is for Allah', according to their assertion, ` And this is 'for our associates

Then what is for their associates does not reach Allah, and what is for Allah reaches "... their associates

.Polytheists imagined that the share of their idols was unchangeable

Therefore, they spent it upon idol temples and the servants therein; but when the money of expenditure was insufficient, they expended the share of God for idol-temples, for the reason that the God of the skies was free from want.

.They expended it neither for infants, nor for the poor, nor for guests

"! How) evil is the judgement that they make) ..."

.They judge badly, because they consider their idols prior to God

They do something which is neither legal nor religious. And, which judgement is more indecent and more shameful than this that a person supposes a worthless piece of wood or stone higher than the Creator of the world of existence ? Can a degradation

And thus their associates have made fair seeming to most of the polytheists the " ١٣٧ . killing of their children, that they may destroy them and confound their religion for .them

.And had Allah pleased they would not have done so

".Therefore, leave them with what they forge

Commentary : verse ١٣٧

Here, Allah refers to another indecent quality of the specifications of these people.
: The verse says

And thus their associates have made fair seeming to most of the polytheists the "
" ... ,killing of their children

As they assigned share from their tith and cattle for God, Satans also made fair
.seeming killing their daughters and burying them alive for fear of poverty and scorn

Some commentators have said that the custom of killing daughters came forth from the time when Nu` mān-ibn-Munthir plundered a tribe of Arabs and took their females captive. The daughter of Qays-ibn-` Āsim was also among the captives. When the two parties made peace, all women went their own homes except Qays' daughter, who preferred to stay among the enemy's troop. Qays made an oath that he would bury .alive any daughter was born in his house

" ... that they may destroy them ... "

The Arabic sign ` li', in this part of the verse, refers to the end of the action. Then the phrase means that the result of ornamentation of slaying child was the destruction of

.people

There were, of course, some obstinate persons among them who intended to kill
.them, too

"... and confound their religion for them ..."

p: ۲۵۲

.Another result was that their religion became dubious to them and they hesitated

"... And had Allah pleased they would not have done so ..."

If Allah (s.w.t.) had desired to prohibit them its performance, or to force them to abandon it, He would have done it and prevented them from doing that. But this work .did not fit to responsibility, which is an arbitrary affair

".Therefore, leave them with what they forge ..."

Do leave them then with their lies and calumnies and let them be in their own state, .for Allah will retribute them. This phrase is stated in the utmost threat

This verse indicates that ornamentation of slaying and slaughter itself both were .among their own practices, and they were liars when they attributed it to Allah

Commentary : verse ١٣٨

The Qur'ān has referred to another false belief of idolaters' notion in this verse. They considered camels, cows, sheep, and tilth unlawful, with their own imagination, and they divided them for gods. They said that none could eat from their meat unless they would let

And they said: ` These are cattle and tillage prohibited. None may eat them except "
"... whom we please ' so they assert

When the holy verse says "So they assert" it means that they had no reason for this .action of theirs, but they encumbered themselves only imaginarily

"... and (there are) cattle whose backs are forbidden ` ..."

The objective meaning of the cattle on whose backs they believed was unlawful to

: ride, were as follows

Commentary : verse ١٣٩

Point

Here, Allah narrates one of another false meaning of their statements. The Qur'ān : says

And they said: `What is in the bellies of these cattle is exclusively for our males and " "... forbidden to our wives

The pagans, whom were discussed about formerly, said that whatever was in the wombs of those cattle, whose meat and riding on them was unlawful for them, was exclusively men's, and women were prohibited to consume it

When it is said that something belongs exclusively to someone, it means that there is no partner for it. It is similar to an action to be done exclusively for Allah

: The term `male' mentioned in this verse, in Arabic, originally means honour, nobility,. The male gender was nobler in the view of them than female` gender

"... .But if it be born dead, then all of them are partners in it ..."

: If the issue was born dead, men and women could share in it. Next, the verse says

"... .(Soon He will requite them for their attributing (falsehood to Him ..."

p: ۲۵۶

.That is, they will be punished soon for their false attribution and wrong manner

".Verily He is All-Wise, All-Knowing ..."

Allah (s.w.t.) is All-Wise, and according to His Wisdom, He either preceeds or postpones the retribution of persons. He is also All-Knowing and, therefore, He is .aware of their deeds

Four vices relating to belief

.This verse numerates four vices concerning the belief practised by the disbelievers

They slaughtered animals without Allah's leave. ۲) They ate the meat of animals, (۱ and, claiming that they had been purified, they belied Allah. ۳) They made the small freed camels unlawful for women. ۴) With no reason, a dead born issue was lawful for .both men and women

Point

Ibn-`Abbās has said that whoever wishes to know the quantity of the ignorance of the peoples at the time of pre Islamic ignorance, may recite the verses of Sura Al-(An`ām), (Those very verses that were previously discussed

The ignorant Arabs, imagining to become rich to the idols, or on the supposition that they would protect honour and nobility, sacrificed their daughters before idols or
.buried them alive

Once there happened that a man came to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and explained the cause of his worriedness to him. The man said that at the Age of Ignorance Allah had given him a daughter. He wanted to kill her but her wife severely hindered him from committing that action. That girl matured and there came a solicitor for her. His zeal did not let him to accept the situation. On the other hand, it was not appropriate for her to remain without husband, either. One day, he brought her to a field outside the town .and dropped her down into a well. Whatever more she moaned, he did not care

At this time, the messenger of Allah wept and said: " Had it not been that the past as ".forgiven, I would have punished you may be like losing a child, damage in emotion, the absence of lawful (ḥalāl) bounties,

: Explanations

Commentary : verse ۱۴۱

In this verse, Allah, the Glorified, refers to the creation of gardens, vineyards, and : tilths. The verse begins as follows

" ... ,And He it is Who produces gardens trellised and untrellised "

The Arabic term /ma` rūsāt/ (trellised) points to those tall bushes which are supported on trellis–work, while the term /qayra ma` rūsāt/ means those bushes which have not .any trellis–work and spread on the ground

"... ,and the date-palm, and crops of diverse flavour

The Lord has brought forth the date-palms and farmings which contain of fruits and products with various colours, tastes, masses, and

p: ۲۶۰

"... and the olive and the pomegrate, like and unlike ..."

Allah created the trees of olive and pomegranate while some of them are similar to others in view points of taste, colour, and mass, and some of them are not

"... ,Eat of its fruit when it fructifies ..."

The purpose of this phrase is that from the beginning time of the appearance of the fruit, its eating is permissible. None should doubt that it is not allowed to consume it before the fruit fructifies or the time of picking it off comes

"... ,and give its due on the day of harvest ..."

.When the time of harvest comes and you gather the product, you should pay its due

The objective meaning of the Qur'ānic term /ḥaqq/ here is some bundles of harvested corps and those handfuls of fruits that farmers and gardeners usually give in charity to the poor. This meaning has been narrated from the immaculate Imams

Some other commentators have said that the purpose of this part of the verse is the poor-due which contains of one tenth or half of it (one twentieth). The aim of this commandment is that this alms giving should not be postponed from the first possible time ;and do not act extravagantly ..."

Eat of what Allah has provided you with

"and do not follow the footsteps of Satan, verily he is a manifest foe for you

Commentary : verse ١٤٢

The objective meaning of the Arabic word `farsh', in this verse, is some cattle like sheep which for the nearness of their bodies to the ground are considered as spread; or that some spreads are waved from their wool, down, and hair

The usage of wool, hair and skin of cattle is also pointed out in Sura An-Nahl, No. ١٤, :verse ٨٠. It says

And Allah has given you a place to abide in your houses, and He has given you tents " of the skins of cattle which you find light to carry on the day of your march and on the day of your halting, and of their wool and their fur and their hair (He has given you) "household stuff and a provision for a time

In the previous verse, the names of a few fruits were mentioned, and here, in this verse, some of the blessings of cattle are referred to. Thus, bearers of burden and spread have been connected to the fruits and gardens which were mentioned in the .previous verse

"... And of the cattle some are bearers of burden and some (low fit) for spreading "

Most of the commentators have rendered the `bearers of burden' into those cattle which carry burdens, and `spreading' into cattle which do not carry burdens. In the .former verse agriculture was referred to, and in this verse it points to keeping cattle

As an explanation, in this verse some of the animals whose meat is lawful to be eaten and some other animals which are both bearers of burden and useful for men in their : food, are detailed. It says

"Allah has made lawful of livestock) eight in pairs of sheep a pair and of goats a pair)"

After mentioning these four pairs, the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is immediately commanded to ask them clearly whether Allah has forbidden the males of those animals or the females of them, or the animals which are in the wombs of ewes or in : those of she goats. The verse says

Commentary : verse ١٤٤

.There are four more pairs of animals explained in this holy verse

: It says

And of camels a pair and of oxen a pair . Say: ` Has He forbidden the two males or "
"...? the two females or what is contained in the wombs of the two females

The commandment concerning to these animals that they are lawful or unlawful, is up to Allah's Will, Who is the Creator of them and the Creator of human beings and the .world of existence both

The former verse explicitly said that there was no reasonable and scientific proof with the pagans upon the prohibition of these animals. And, since they did not claim that they themselves were prophets nor the site of revelation, thus, the third probability remains that they claim that when this commandment was issued, some of prophets

: were present and they were witnesses. It is such that it says

"... ' ? Or were you witnesses when Allah enjoined you this ..."

And, since the answer of this question has also been negative, it is

p: ۲۶۴

.clearly proved that they had no capital in this regard save accusation and calumny

: Therefore, at the end of the verse, it adds

Commentary : verse ۱۴۵

To make the divine prohibitions clear from the innovations that pagans had asserted in the Divine creed, in this verse, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is commanded to tell people explicitly that there is no forbidden food for anybody, irrespective of men and women, : young and old, in what was revealed to him. The verse says

Say: ` I do not find in what has been revealed to me anything forbidden for an eater "

"... to eat

This law lies with some exceptions. The first of them is that it should not be carrion.

: The verse continues saying

"... ,except it be carrion ..."

.And it should not be the blood which comes out of the animal's body

p: ۲۶۶

"... ,or blood poured forth ..."

This blood is not the blood which remains inside the veins and capillary blood-vessels among its flesh that comes out from the animal's vessels after cutting them and pouring a great deal of blood from them

: The third exception is as follows

"... or the flesh of swine for that is indeed abomination ..."

All of these abovementioned things are disagreeable in man's nature and are the source of kinds of pollutions which cause some different damages

: Then, The Qur'ān points to the fourth kind of these exceptions, and says

"... ,or a transgression, slain invoking (the name of) other than Allah ..."

From the point of ethical and spiritual views, this action is a sign of being aloof from Allah and from the school of theism both

Thus, there are assigned two kinds of Islamic conditions for lawful slaughtering of an animal. Some of these conditions, such as cutting the four main blood-vessels of the animal and pouring forth its blood, have the aspect of hygiene, while some others, such as setting the animal toward the direction of the Ka`bah, reciting the holy phrase : ` Bis millah', and it being slaughtered by a Muslim, have spiritual aspects

At the end of the verse, the Qur'ān has made an exception, from the usage of these prohibited meats, those who are forced to eat them by necessity or because of lack of any other food in order to protect their lives, but not for pleasure nor more than the : limits nor with the purpose of counting the divine unlawful things as lawful. It says but whoever is forced (to eat it by necessity), not desiring nor transgressing, then ..."

".surely your Lord is Forgiving, Merciful

In fact, these two conditions are for the sake that some people do not take this constrained circumstance as excuse for their transgression to the limits of the laws of

.Allah

: The Prohibitions and the Jews

In this verse a part of the prohibitions of the Jews are referred to in order to make it clear that the forged and superstitious ordinances of the pagans were adapted neither with the religion of Islam nor with the creed of the Jews, (nor with the : Christian creed which usually follows the creed of hte Jews). So, at first, it says

"... ,And to those who were Jews We forbade every (animal) having claws "

Therefore, all the animals which have not `clean hoofs', whether they are cattle or .birds, have been forbidden for the Jews

: Then, it says

"... ,and of oxen and sheep we forbade unto them the fat of both..."

: Following this matter, it makes exception three instances from it. At first, it says

"... save what is upon their backs ..."

p: ۲۶۸

.It continues saying about the fats that are on their sides and inside their bellies

"... or the entrails ..."

: And the fats which are mixed with their bones

"... or what is mixed with bones ..."

Yet, at the end of the verse it announces that the prohibitions were not, in fact, decreed upon the Jews, but because of unjust and transgression they committed, by Allah's commandment, they became deprived from these kinds of meat and fat which they were interested in

"... ,This (prohibition) We recompensed them for their rebellion ..."

But if they belie you (O' Muhammad!), then say : `Your Lord is (full) of mercy all- " .١٤٧ embracing, but (if they do not repent) His punishment will not be returned from the " .guilty people

Commentary : verse ١٤٧

Since the obstinacy of the Jews and pagans was clearly fixed and they might insist and belie the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), in this verse Allah commands His Messenger, : concerning this matter, as follows

But if they belie you (O' Muhammad!), then say : `Your Lord is (full) of mercy all- " "... ,embracing

This means that such a Lord does not punish you immediately. He gives you respite maybe you repent and return from your wrong-doings, in order to come back unto Allah, when you become regretful

But if you abuse again this divine respite and continue the undue calumnies and accusations that you used to act, do know that Allah's punishment is certain and, at last, it will befall you, because His punishment is not something that can be removed : from the evil-doers. The verse says but (if they do not repent) His punishment will not be returned from the guilty ... " ".people

This verse makes the greatness of the trainings of the Qur'ān manifest very clearly. It declares that, after the explanation of all these wrong actions of the Jews and pagans, yet He does not threaten them to punishment at once. At first, with some affectionate words, He has left the way of return free for them in order that they be encouraged and they return towards the Truth. But in order that the vast mercy of Allah does not cause their daring, boldness and disobedience, and that they may leave their obstinacy, through the last phrase of the verse, the Qur'ān threatens them to the certain punishment of Allah

".' You follow nothing but conjecture, and you are nothing but idle talkers

Commentary : verse ١٤٨

Following the expressions of the pagans, which were referred to through the former verses, now some of their vain reasonings and the answers of them are pointed out in this verse. At first, it implies that in answer to the Prophet's objections regarding paganism and prohibition of the lawful sustenances, soon the pagans will say that had Allah wished they would neither have become infidels nor would their ancestors have turned to idolatry, nor would they have forbidden anything. Thus, they claim that whatever they have done and they have said is entirely referred to the Will of Allah.

: The verse says

Those who are polytheists will say: ` Had Allah wished we would not have " 'associated (aught with Him) nor our fathers, nor would we have forbidden anything " ...

Similar to many other evil-doers, pagans wanted to flee from the responsibility of their wrong actions with the cover and under the title of determinism. In fact, they claimed that Allah's silence, concerning idolatry and prohibition of some animals, was as a reason for His pleasure, since if He had not been pleased with those things He should have

p: ۲۷۱

.somehow prevented them from those things

But, the Qur'ān has decisively discussed answering them. At first, it says that they are not alone who have forged such lies against Allah, but there were also some groups of people in the past who told the same lies, and, finally, they confronted with results of : their wrong actions and tasted the punishment of Allah. The verse says

"... So did belie those who were before them until they tasted Our punishment ..."

Through their own statements, in fact, they both told lies, and belied the prophets. If Allah was pleased with those deeds, how did He send messengers to invite them to unity ? Principally, the invitation of prophets is itself the most important proof upon .the freedom of man's will and choice

Then the Qur'ān inquires that if you have any reason for your claim, why do you not : bring if forth ? It adds

"... ? Say: ` Have you any knowledge with you to adduce for Us ..."

And, finally, the verse implies that you have certainly no proof for your claim, and you : follow merely your conjectures and your bare imaginations. It says

"! You follow nothing but conjecture, and you are nothing but idle talkers..."

****

Say: ` Then to Allah (alone) belongs the conclusive argument. Had He wished, He " ١٤٩ .
"!'would have surely guided you all aright

Commentary : verse ١٤٩

In order to nullify the pagan's claim, the Qur'ān mentions another proof. It implies that Allah has brought forth some clear and correct proofs upon the subject of His Unity as well as the ordinances of lawful and unlawful things. They have been introduced by the means of both the prophets of Allah, and through the way of intellect, so that : there remains no excuse for anyone. It says

"... Say: ` Then to Allah (alone) belongs the conclusive argument "

Therefore, they can never claim that Allah has approved their undue deeds and beliefs by His silence. They also can not claim that they are forced in doing their deeds, because if they were forced, bringing forth those proofs, sending prophets, and their preachings and invitations would entirely be in vain. Then, bringing forth .those proofs is itself an evidence for the existence of free will in man

: And, at the end of the verse, it says

"!' Had He wished, He would have surely guided you all aright ..."

But, if such a thing happened, neither that kind of belief could be worthy, nor the deeds which are performed under its shade. The virtue and development of man is in this fact that he accomplishes paving the path of guidance and felicity by himself and .through his own free will

It has been narrated from Imam Kāzīm (a.s.) who said : "Allah has two proofs upon people : the outward proof and the inward proof. The outward proof contains of prophets, messengers, and Imamaculate Imams; and the inward proof consists of (intellects (and thoughts))." (١)

Commentary : verse ١٥٠

In this verse, in order to make the falsity of their claims more clear, and also that the proper principals of judgement be observed, the Qur'an invites them to bring their reputable witnesses, if they have any, proving that Allah has forbidden those animals and tilths that they claim are prohibited. So, addressing the Messenger of Allah : (p.b.u.h.), the holy verse says

" ... '. Say: ` Bring your witnesses who bear witness that Allah has forbidden this "

After that, it adds the words to imply that if they can not find any reputable witnesses, whom they certainly may not find, and they suffice only to their own testification, .Prophet (p.b.u.h.) should never follow them to testify what they claim

: The verse says

Commentary : verse 151

: Ten Commandments

After nullifying the artificial ordinances of pagans, which were mentioned in the former verses, this current verse, and two verses next to it, have pointed to the principals of prohibitions in Islam. Thereby, the Qur'ān refers to the first class capital sins in an expressive short and interesting statement. These sins, which are prohibited in Islam, are detailed through ten parts. At first, it says

"... :Say: ` Come, I will recite what your Lord has forbidden you from "

"... ,that you do not associate anything with Him ..." .۱

"... ,and show kindness to your parents ..." .۲

and do not kill your children for poverty. ...", because your sustenance and theirs ..." .۳ are totally with Allah (s.w.t.), and He gives the sustenance of all. "... We provide for you ... and for them

"... do not approach indecencies, the outward among them and the inward ..." .۴

.That is, not only you must avoid doing them, but also you must not approach them

"....and do not kill the soul that Allah has forbidden save for justice ..." .۵

This part of the verse means that you should not pollute your hands by shedding the blood of the innocent persons. And you should not slay the souls whom Allah has held in esteem and shedding their blood is not permissible, unless the allowance of slaying them has been issued according to the laws of Allah, for example, when the one is a murderer.

Commentary : verse ١٥٢

: This verse continues stating the ten commandments. It says

: Explanations

: The Importance of Showing Kindness to Parents

Mentioning `kindness to parents' immediately after the subject of struggling against ,polytheism and before some magnificent commandments such as : the prohibition of killing a person, and the execution of the principals of justice, are some evidences among the Islamic instructions upon the extraordinary importance of the right of parents

This matter will be made more clear when we note that instead of prohibition of hurting parents, which parallel other prohibitions mentioned in this verse, the subject of `showing kindness to parents' has been referred to. This denotes that not only creating annoyance to them is unlawful, but, besides that, showing kindness and benevolence unto them is also necessary

More interesting than this is that the Arabic word /iḥsān/ (kindness) has been changed into a transitive form by a preposition, and it has said and show kindness to your parents, ...". Thus, the verse emphasizes that the ..." question of `showing kindness to parents' should be taken so great and important by a person that the one performs it directly by himself and without having an intermediary

: Slaying Children for Hunger .۞

It is understood from these verses that during the Age of Ignorance, Arabs not only used to bury their daughters alive because of their wrong bigotries, but also killed their sons, who were considered as a great capital in the society of their time, as a result of fear of poverty

Unfortunately, this treatment of the Age of Ignorance is being repeated in another form in our own age, too. Under the excuse of probable deficiency of food stuff on the earth, the innocent babies are intentionally killed through abortion when they are in the state of embryo

It is true that some other reasons are also mentioned for such abortions today, but the problem of poverty and deficiency of foodstuff is one of its main reasons

All of these facts, as well as some other affairs similar to them, show that the evil manner of the Age of Ignorance is repeated in another form in our time, so that we can say `the Ignorance of today' is fulfilled in an even wider and more terrible case

.than the ignorance of before Islam

The discussion through a few former verses was upon the ten basical and fundamental commandments of Allah. They have been enjoined not only in Islam but : also in all divine religions. Next to mentioning those commandments, the Qur'ān says

Then We gave Moses the Book, to complete (Our blessing) on him who would do "

The verse implies that Allah (s.w.t.) has completed His blessing on those who are good .doers, and they obey the command of Allah, and follow the right

Then the verse continues the statement that, in that Book, Allah explained whatever .was needed and what was effective alongside the way of development of man " ... ,and to explain all things ..."

Also, that Book, which was sent down to Moses, was the source of divine guidance .and mercy

" ... ,and as a guidance and a mercy ..."

All of these things were for the sake that they might believe in the Resurrection Day and the meeting of the Lord, so that, by the belief in Resurrection, their thoughts, : statements, and manner become sincerely pure and godly. It says

"so that they may believe in the meeting of their Lord ..."

And, they should not say that they disobeyed the command of Allah because His commandment was under the .control of others and it was not available for them

Commentary : verse ١٥٧

The same excuse that was referred to in the previous verse is pointed out more vastly and with some more claims and prides of theirs in this verse. The holy verse implies that if the Qur'ān were not sent down upon them, they might claim that they were so prepared and eager to fulfil the commands of Allah that no other nation could match
.them in that regard

: The verse says

Or (lest) you should say : ` If the Book had been sent down to us, we would certainly "
"...'.have been better guided than them

Standing before these claims, the Qur'ān implies that Allah has shut the gates of all ways of seeking excuses to them, because clear proofs and meaningful verses, accompanied with guidance and mercy of Allah, have come to them from the side of : their Lord. It says

So indeed there has come to you clear proof from your Lord, and guidance and

p: ۲۸۴

"... .mercy

Yet, is there anyone more unjust than those who belie the Signs of Allah and turn away from them ? This circumstance shows that they not only turned away from the : Signs of Allah, but also kept themselves terribly far from them. The verse says

Who then is more unjust than him who denies the Signs of Allah, and turns away ..."
"... ? from them

The painful punishment of such thoughtless and obstinate persons who, without studying them, intensively deny the facts and run away from them is stated in a short and expressive sentence. These people even ban the way of others, and this .chastisement is the fruit of their own proofless denial

: The verse says

Soon We will recompense those who turn away from Our Signs with a terrible ..."

On the day when some of the Signs of your Lord come, the faith (and repentance) will not benefit anyone who had not believed beforehand and had not earned goodness through his faith

"! Say: ` Wait ! we too are waiting

Commentary : verse ١٥٨

This fact was pointed out in the former verses that Allah completed the argument to the pagans and He sent the heavenly Book, i.e. the Qur'an, for the guidance of all. Now, this verse indicates that these obstinate persons are so arrogant in their affairs that these clear evidences do not affect them. It seems that they are waiting for their own annihilation, or losing their last opportunity, or they are expecting some impossible affairs to come forth

: At first, it says

Do they await anything but that the angels should come to them, or your Lord should " ... ,come

That is, do they expect that Allah comes to them and when they see Him they believe .in Him ? In fact, they are waiting for an impossible thing to happen Then, it adds that they may expect to see the occurrence of some of the signs of Allah which will occur at the threshold of Resurrection, the end of the world, whereupon the doors of repentance will be closed. The verse says

p: ۲۸۶

"... ? or some of your Lord's signs should come ..."

: Then, following this meaning, it adds

On the day when some of the Signs of your Lord come, the faith (and repentance) ... will not benefit anyone who had not believed beforehand and had not earned ... goodness through his faith

Since, on that Day repentance and belief will gain a form which will be obligatory, this kind of repentance and belief is not worthy, of course

.They are worthy and acceptable when they are arbitrary

At the end of the verse, the Qur'ān addresses these obstinate persons and, with a threatening tone, says that now that they are waiting for such a thing, they may remain in their waiting and We wait, too, for their painful retribution. It says

One of the interesting things that can be understood from this verse is that the Qur'ān introduces the way of felicity in Faith. This Faith is the one under whose ray a goodness may be obtained and some good deeds be fulfilled

١٥٩- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ فَزَقُوا دِينَهُمْ وَكَانُوا شِيَعًا

كَانُوا يَفْعَلُونَ

Verily those who divided their religion and became parties, you have no concern " ١٥٩ with them. Their affair is only with Allah, then He will inform them of what they used to do "

Commentary : verse ١٥٩

Following the explanation of ' Ten Commandments' which were discussed through previous verses, this verse, indeed, can be counted as an emphasis and a commentary upon the subject mentioned in the tenth commandment. Its content commands us to follow ' the Straight Path' and to struggle against any hypocrisy and discord.

: At first, it says

Verily those who divided their religion and became parties, you have no concern with " ... them

It means that, in no respect you have concern with them, and they have no concern with your school of thought, because your school of thought is the school of theism and Straight Path, and there is only one 'Straight Path' for all, not more than that`

: Then, as a threat and reprimand against these dispersive persons, the Qur'ān says

" Their affair is only with Allah, then He will inform them of what they used to do ... "

It is noteworthy that the content of this verse is a general and common commandment about all those who cause discord among people

By creating kinds of innovations, they scatter the seeds of hypocrisy and discord amongst the servants of Allah, irrespective of those who were from the former .nations, or those who are in this nation

With a full emphasis, this verse intensifies once more the fact that Islam is a religion
.of Unity and Oneness. It hates any kind of hypocrisy, discord and dispersion

١٦٠- مَنْ جَاءَ بِالْحَسَنَةِ فَلَهُ عَشْرُ امْتَالِهَا

وَمَنْ جَاءَ بِالسَّيِّئَةِ فَلَا يُجْزَى إِلَّا مِثْلَهَا وَهُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُونَ

١٦٠. "Whoever brings a good (deed), he shall have ten times its like " and whoever brings vice, he shall not be recompensed but with its like, and they shall ".not be dealt with unjustly

Commentary : verse ١٦٠

In this holy verse the multifold reward given for good deeds is referred to. Through previous verse, the wrong doers were threatened and reprimanded upon their evil : deeds, while here, in this verse, the Qur'ān clearly says

"... ,Whoever brings a good (deed), he shall have ten times its like "

But as for those who commit a sin, Allah will punish them equally as much as their sin. As a result of the greatness of His grace and generosity,Allah bestows the reward of a good action more than its due, and forgives the faults of the sinners. And, if he punishes one, He punishes as much as the one deserves, not more than that. The : verse continues saying

"... ,and whoever brings vice, he shall not be recompensed but with its like..."

Some of the commentators believe that the purpose of the Qur'ānic word /hasanah/ (a good deed) is `Unity`, and the purpose of the word /sayyi'ah/ (a vice) is `infidelity'. According to this meaning, the essence of good deeds is Unity and the essence of .vices is infidelity "...and they shall not be dealt with unjustly ..."

There will not be done any unjust against anybody, because none will be punished .more than what one deserves

Therefore, Allah treats with His grace when He gives reward, but He treats with His justice when He punishes. The tenfold rewards that He gives for a good action, only one part is the wage of it and the rest nine parts are `Allah's grace'. Sura An-Nisā, No. : ٤, Verse ١٧٣ says

".He will pay them their rewards fully and will bestow them more out of His Grace ..."

p: ٢٨٩

It is worthy to note that the tenfold reward is for all believers in general, but some deeds which are done in some circumstances by some qualified persons will be bestowed upto seven hundred times rewards, and even without measure rewards .either

Say: ` Verily my Lord has guided me to a Straight Path, the established religion, " .١٦١
 ,the creed of Abraham, the upright one
 ".and he was not of the polytheists

Commentary : verse ١٦١

This verse, together with the next verses by which Sura Al-An`ām ends, is, in fact, a summary of the subjects discusses about the struggle against paganism and idolatry .stated in this Sura

At first, in order to stand against the illogical notions and claims of pagans and idol worshippers, Allah orders His Messenger to tell them that his Lord has guided him to the Straight Path, which is the nearest path among all paths. This `Straight Path' is the same path of Unity and monotheism, and the path of eradication of the creed of : paganism and polytheism. It says

"... ,Say: ` Verily my Lord has guided me to a straight path "

Thus, the Qur`ān explains `the Straight Path' in this verse and the next two verses. First of all, it implies that it is a direct religion with the utmost correctness and .veracity, eternal, and subsisting to the affairs of both religion and life, body and soul

"... ,the established religion ..."

And, since Arabs showed a special affection to Abraham, so that they even introduced their creed as Abraham's creed, the Qur`ān adds that the true creed of Abraham is the very one toward which you have been invited, not that which you have forged under .his name

"... ,the creed of Abraham ..."

That very Abraham (a.s.) is the one who turned away from the superstitious creed of his time and environment, and attached the Truth, i.e. the monotheism

p: ۲۹۱

"... ,The upright one ..."

This meaning seems to be an answer to the expressions of polytheists who blamed the opposition of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) with the creed of idolatry, which was the creed ,of the ancestors of Arabs. In answer to them the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) says that this manner of breaking wrong customs and turning away from the superstitious notions of the environment is not only his job, but Abraham (a.s.), whom they wholly respect, also did like that

: Then, as an emphasis, it says

".and he was not of the polytheists ..."

Abraham (a.s.) was a hero of breaking idols. He was an active and steadfast .challenger against idolatry

".Lord of the Worlds

No associate (there is) for Him, and this (submission) I have been commanded " ١٦٣ .
".to, and I am the first of the Muslims

Commentary : verses ١٦٢-١٦٣

In the first verse, mentioned here, it points to the matter that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) should tell the pagans that not only from the point of belief he is a unitarian and a monotheist, hut also, from the point of action, whatever good deed he does, including his prayer, all his worships, and even his death and life, in all, are for the sake of the
.Lord of the Worlds

: The verse says

Say: ` Verily my prayer and my worship, my life and death are for Allah, the Lord of " ١٦٢ .
".the Worlds

That is, I am alive for Him, and I die for His sake. I devote whatever I have in His way.
.All my desires, the whole love of mine, and the entire existence that I have is Allah's

****

In order to nullify all kinds of paganism and idolatry, in this verse, it emphasizes that
: Allah (s.w.t.) is the One that there is no associate and no compeer for Him. It says

"... ,No associate (there is) for Him "

: And, finally, the verse continues saying and this (submission) I have been commanded to, and I am the first of the ..."

".Muslims

To be the first of the Muslims for the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) is either from the point of quality and importance of Islam, because the degree of his submission and his Islam was higher than all prophets, or that he was the first person of this community .who accepted the religion of the Qur'ān and Islam

١٦٤- قُلْ أَغْيِرَ اللَّهُ آبْعَى رَبَّآ وَهُوَ رَبُّ كُلِّ شَىْءٍ ۚ no one earns anything but to his own account; and no one bears the burden of another; then to your Lord is your return, so He will inform you of what you used to ".(differ (about

Commentary : verse ١٦٤

In this verse, the Qur'ān criticizes the logic of the pagans in another way. It tells the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to ask them whether it is appropriate to take a lord except Allah as their Lord, while He is the owner, the trainer, and the Lord of all things, and His ordinance and His command is current in the entire particles of the world. The verse
: says

"... ? Say : ` shall I seek a Lord other than Allah while He is the Lord of all things "

A group of the short-minded pagans came to the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) and said that he should follow their creed. They added that if their creed was false, they might : bear the burden of his sin. This verse answers them by saying

And no one earns anything but to his own account; and no one bears the burden of ..."
" ... ;another

: Then the verse adds

then to your Lord is your return, so He will inform you of what you used to differ ..."
".(about

١٦٥- وَهُوَ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُم مِّن دُونِ آلِهَتِهِ خَلَائِفَ فِي الْأَرْضِ

And He it is Who has made you successors in the earth, and raised some of you " ١٦٥ above others in grades that He may try you in respect to what He has given you.

,Verily your Lord is swift in retribution

".and indeed He is Forgiving, Merciful

Commentary : verse ١٦٥

Point

In this verse, which is the last verse of Sura Al-`An`ām, in order to complete the former discussions upon strengthening the foundation of Unity and struggling against paganism, the Qur`ān points to the rank of man and his situation in the world of : existence. So, firstly it says

"... ,And He it is Who has made you successors in the earth "

Man is Allah's vicegerence on the earth, and all the sources of the world are set at his disposal. Allah has issued Man's command and dominion over all these creatures. Such a man must not let himself fall so low that he becomes more degraded than an .inanimate thing and then he prostrates before it

Then the verse points to the difference of talents and the various bodily and spiritual merits of human beings, and to the aim of this difference and variation among men.

: The verse says

and raised some of you above others in grades that He may try you in respect to ..."

"... .what He has given you

At the end of the verse, the Qur`ān refers to man's freedom in choosing the path of

: happiness and wretchedness, stating the conclusion of these trials, as follows

".Verily your Lord is swift in retribution, and indeed He is Forgiving, Merciful ..."

p: ۲۹۵

: The Difference of Men and the Principal of Justice

No doubt, there are a series of artificial differences among the individuals of humankind which have been emerged as a result of the transgressions and cruelties .of some human beings performed upon some other people

For example : some persons are the owners of abundant wealth, but some others are terribly poor. Or, a great deal of people are unsound and sickly weak as a result of deficiency of nutrition and lack of hygiene, while some other people are in the best .condition of health, because all possibilities of life are available for them

These kinds of differences, such as : richness and poverty, knowledge and ignorance, health and sickness, and so on, are often the consequences of colonialism, .exploitation, various forms of slavery, and apparent and concealed transgressions

Surely, these kinds of differences can not be considered as the acts of the system of creation. So, there is no reason for us to defend the existence of such unacceptable .differences

Humankind, all together, form also a society resembled to a great, tall and fruitful tree. Every group, or even an individual, of them is responsible for a particular mission in this huge body, which demands a proportional construction peculiar to itself. That is why the Qur'ān says that these differences are as a means of your trial, and the term !` trial', in the divine statements is used in the sense of `training and education

! Man's Vicegerency on the Earth

The Qur'ān has repeatedly introduced Man as the `vicegerent' and `representative' of Allah on the earth. This introduction, in addition to making clear the position of Man in creation, also explains this fact that properties, wealths, talents, and the whole merits that Allah has bestowed on Man are, in deed, in possession of Allah. Man is merely His representative who has been given leave by Him. It is evident, of course, that no representative is independant in his dominations, but his dominations ought to be limited to the leave and permission of the main owner. This explanation may make this fact clear that, for example, regarding to the question of ownership, Islam keeps distance from both the camp of communism and .the camp of capitalism

p: ۲۹۶

The holy Sura Al-'An`ām was concluded with statement about the Grace of Allah. This Sura, Al-A`rāf, begins with the name of the Qur'ān and also the ordinances of the : religion and the wise sayings are stated therein. It says

".'Alif `A', Lām `L', Mīm `M', Suād `Ş' " .۱

"... - A Book sent down to you "

.The Qur'ān is a Book which has been sent down to you by the command of Allah

"... - so let there be no straitness in your breast about it ..."

The verse, addressing the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) implies that there should not be any .straitness in his breast because of communicating the Qur'ān to people

The Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) was afraid that the members of his tribe would accuse him as a liar, and then turn away from his statements, and hurt him. So, he was displeased from their injuries, and did not feel happy about it. Hence, Allah the Glorified, made him secured, and commanded him not to consider their ill treatment .important

It should be noted that the aim of sending down this Book is to warn people and frighten them from the evil consequence of their wrong thoughts and deeds. It is also : a reminder for the true believers. The verse says

---

Part one, PP.۷۱-۷۳. Sura Al-Baqarah, No. ۲, verse ۱۱-۱

"... ,Follow what has been sent down to you from Your Lord "

This phrase is for the attention of those who are responsible and are also fully capable. It means that they should follow that which Allah has sent down to them. This `act of following` concerns those affairs which are either obligatory, or recommended, or legitimate. In these affairs a believer should follow the command of Allah, and the one must believe in them

.One of its examples is that which says it is obligatory to avoid from forbidden things

"... ;and do not follow any guardians other than Him ..."

The verse warns us not to follow anything other than the Qur'ān so otherwise we will become sinners. It is evident that whoever is not the follower of the Qur'ān, is the follower of Satan and the idols. That is why Allah commands us to follow the Qur'ān and avoid following other than it. To follow the Qur'ān is the same as to follow Allah

"! how seldom do you remember ..."

This part of the verse addresses the pagans and those disbelieving people who rarely remember the Truth and little they take advice. In fact, the purpose of this phrase is to say that the style of their manner is not agreeable. They ought to gradually adopt the admonishments of the Qur'ān and learn the affairs concerning of religion and life for themselves

! The Qur'nic word `tathakkur', here, means: `to learn little by little

Commentary : verses ٤-٥

In the previous verse, people were commanded to follow the Qur'ān, and to leave out following anything other than the Qur'ān. Now, this verse reminds them the fate of the past unjust nations so that they may fear and not to repeat the manner of those : nations. It says

And how many a town that We have destroyed, Our punishment came unto them by " .
"night or while they slept at midday

Allah says that He has destroyed many people of the towns, and the Divine punishment was sent down over them by night or when they were relaxing at noon. It is obvious that having chastisement in such times is more dangerous for people than .in some other times

So their cry, when Our punishment came unto them, was not save that they said: ` " .
".' Verily we were unjust

When Allah's chastisement was sent down, the only matter they stated was that they said that they were unjust. Thus, when they saw the punishment of Allah with their own eyes, or when they were involved in the Divine chastisement and were still rather alive, they began to confess their faults. This indicates that admission, confession of one's sins, and repentance at the time of befalling calamities and wretchednesses are

.not beneficial for the one

".certainly We will also question the messengers

" .٧ Then certainly We will relate to them with knowledge for We were not absent "

Commentary : verses ٦-٧

Point

The previous verse has referred to the worldly punishment. Here, in this verse, the existence of punishment and reckoning in the Hereafter is stated with several emphasis. In these two verses, the certainty of the existence of question on the Day .of Judgement and that it is not specialized to the sinners alone, is mentioned, too

: Explanations

On the Day of Judgement, surely all people will be questioned, including: both the .١
leaders, the nations and followers, both the good doers and the evildoers, and both
.the scholars and the imitators of them

Then certainly we will question those to whom (Our messengers) were sent, and "

****

In the next verse, in order that no one considers that questioning from communities and their concerning prophets can be an evidence that there is some thing concealed from Allah's knowledge, clearly and with an emphasis strengthened with an oath, it implies that Allah will explain all their deeds to them with His Knowledge, because He has never been absent from them. He (s.w.t.) has been with them everywhere and in

:all circumstances. The verse says

Then certainly We will relate to them with knowledge for "

p: ۳۰۳

".We were not absent

On that Day, questioning is a kind of calling to witness, making confession and .۲ reprimand. But the fact is that there is nothing concealed to Allah to be discovered by .question

:Note

:There are some points upon this verse which should be noted, as follows

.۱ ? What matter or matters will be questioned

The bounties will be questioned : "Then on that Day you will surely be questioned .۲ about the bounties (you enjoined)." (Sura At-Takāthur, No. ۱۰۲, verse ۸). It is recorded in some Islamic traditions that the objective meaning of `bounties', here, is the .bounty of `mastership' and `leadership

The deeds of people will be questioned : "... we would most certainly question them .۳ .(all," "As to what they used to do." (Sura Al-Hijr, No. ۱۵, Verses ۹۲-۹۳

The limbs will be questioned of : "... surely the hearing and the sight and the heart, .۴ .(all of these shall be questioned about that." (Sura Al-'Isrā', No. ۱۷, verse ۳۶

As the Islamic traditions indicate, the life-time, the youth, the incomes, and the .۵ .expenses will be questioned

٨- وَالْوَزْنُ يَوْمَئِذٍ الْحَقُّ

فَمَنْ تَقَلَّتْ مَوَازِينُهُ فَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ

And the measuring that Day will be just. Then whoever's scales be heavy, those " ٨
"are they who shall be prosperous

Commentary : verse ٨

Point

A `scale' is the means of weighing. Each thing has a special means of measuring. The scale of a wall is a plummet. The heat of weather is measured by a thermometer. Fruits are measured in kilo. The length of cloth, as well as many other things, is measured by meter. The means of measuring an ordinary person, from the point of spiritualities, is some particular complete persons who are accepted as the example and symbol of justice

Upon the commentary of the phrase: " And we will set up a just balance ..." mentioned in verse ٤٧ from Sura Al-'Anbiyā, No. ٢١, Imam Sādiq (a.s.) said : " Prophets and saints (are the scales." (Al-Mizān, commentary

In the supplication of Imam Amir-ul-Mu'mineen Ali (a.s.), addressing him (a.s.), we recite : " Peace be upon the Scale of deeds." These immaculate persons, who are our leaders and our guides, are the scales and the means of measuring others

In Kifāyat-ul-Muwahhhideen, it is narrated from Imam Sādiq (a.s.) who said : " We are the scales." That is, Imam Amir-ul-Mu'mineen Ali (a.s.) and all other immaculate Imams are the scale of distinguishing between right and wrong

: So, the verse says

And the measuring that Day will be just. Then whoever's scales be heavy, those are "
"they who shall be prosperous

On the Day of Resurrection, the possession is with the right (١) , and the Day is the (١) .
(day of right (٢) , and the measuring is also just. (The above verse

On that Day, arrangements of the Hereafter are justly measured and the (٢) . reckoning, the judgement, the commandments, the rewards and retributions are .wholly based on justice

"... And the measuring that Day will be just "

And whoever's scales be light, those are they who have ruined their selves for " .
" .they used to be unjust unto Our Signs

Commentary : verse ٩

Those persons, whose scales are light, will be involved in an eternal punishment,
.because they have denied Allah's Signs and reasonings in their lives

The Arabic term /xusrān/ (loss), mentioned in this verse, means `to lose the capital'.
The greatest capital of man is his self. When the self of a man falls into perdition, he has incurred a loss. On the contrary, those whose scales of good deeds are heavy on .the Day of Judgement, will be prosperous

And whoever's scales be light, those are they who have ruined their selves for they "
" .used to be unjust unto Our Signs

And certainly We have given you power in the earth, and We have made the " ١٠ . means of livelihood for you in it, (but) little it is that you give thanks

Commentary : verse ١٠

.In the life of this world, everything is under the authority of man

: The verse says

"... ,And certainly We have given you power in the earth "

The creation of the earth and its conditions, from the point of rotation, heat, light, absorbing and warding off waters, receiving offals, and yielding plants, vegetables, fruits etc. all are in a state that man can take the earth as his own residence

However, the laws of nature are in a form that man can control them and take them under his authority. If Allah had not tamed it, man, by himself, would not have had ability to bring it under subjugation and to enjoy of it "... ,and We have made the means of livelihood for you in it ..."

Thus, these bounties should be utilized alongside the path of gratitude of man, not as a means of his negligence and gratifying his desires and his unlawful passions. The Qur'ān has frequently referred to the ingratefulness, negligence and faithlessness of : the majority of people. The verse says

"... (but) little it is that you give thanks) ..."

` Prostrate yourselves unto Adam.' So they (all) did prostrate themselves except ".Iblees; he was not of the prostrating ones

Commentary : verse ۱۱

The Story of Satan's Disobedience

The creation of man and his being fashioned is referred to in seven Suras of the .Qur'ān

: In the current verse, Allah says

And indeed We created you, then We fashioned you, then We said to the angels: ` " Prostrate yourselves unto Adam.' So they (all) did prostrate themselves except Iblees;
".he was not of the prostrating ones

All angels, including Iblees who was in their row, while he was not from among them, were commanded to prostrate themselves unto Adam, the first ancestor of the whole human beings. They totally accepted and eagerly obeyed the command of Allah,

.except Iblees

The prostration of the angels for Adam was not done in the sense of `prostration of worship', because the act of being worshipped is specific to Allah alone. Then,
.prostration here is for humility and modesty

He said: ` What prevented you that you did not prostrate when I commanded you " .١٢
? ' He said: ` I am better than him. You created me of fire while You created him of
".' clay

Commentary : verse ١٢

This verse indicates that Allah called Iblees to account for the disobedience and rebellion he showed, and He asked him about the reason for which he refused .prostration when He commanded him to prostrate

: The verse says

He said: ` What prevented you that you did not prostrate when "

"... ' ? I commanded you

,In answer to this question, Iblees resorted to an implausible excuse

: as the verse points out

He said: ` I am better than him. You created me of fire while You created him of ..."
".' clay

Iblees imagined, as if, fire is superior to clay. This was one of the greatest faults of Iblees. Or, perhaps, he did not make a mistake either, but he told a lie because of his .arrogance and selfishness

But the privilege of Adam was not that he was created of clay. The main superiority of Adam was that very spirit of humanity and the rank of vicegerency of Allah that he .was given

There arises a question here, asking how Satan spoke with Allah, and whether .revelation was sent down to him

The answer to this question is that there is no problem that Allah speaks with another person, not by means of revelation and messengership, but through innate inspiration, or by way of some angels, whether this person is one of the righteous and the purified ones, like Mary and mother of Moses, or one of the dishonest ones, like Satan.

١٣. "(Allah) said: `Get you down from this (state) " :

.it does not befit you to behave proudly therein. Therefore, go you out

".' Verily you are of the abject ones

Commentary : verse ١٣

In view of the fact that Satan's refusal from prostrating for Adam (a.s.) was not an ordinary and simple refusal, nor it was counted a habitual sin, but it was a rebellion accompanied with a protest and denial unto the Glory of Allah, then his opposition found a way to infidelity and negating Allah's knowledge and wisdom. And, consequently, he had to lose his own positions and personal status in divine portal. So, Allah sent him out from the distinguished situation he had obtained in the standing : ranks of angels. The verse says

"...: (Allah) said: `Get you down from this (state) "

Then, Allah describes the origin of this getting down to him by the following sentence, .and explains that he was not right to pave the path of pride in that rank

"... .it does not befit you to behave proudly therein..."

: Again, as an additional emphasis, Allah's statement continues to be recited as follows

".' Therefore, go you out. Verily you are of the abject ones ..."

That is, not only Satan did not become magnified by that action, but also, on the .contrary, he was entitled as the abject ones

It is clearly understood from this part of the verse that the entire misfortune and .wretchedness of Satan was the effect of his arrogance

:It is also narrated in Usūl-i-Kāfī from Imam Sādiq (a.s.) who has said

The principals of infidelity (and disobedience) are three things : greed, pride, and " jealousy. Greed caused Adam to eat from the forbidden tree; pride caused Iblees to disobey the command of Allah when he was ordered to prostrate for Adam; and " jealousy caused one of Adam's sons to kill another one

١٤- قَالَ أَنْظِرْنِي إِلَى يَوْمِ يُبْعَثُونَ

١٥- قَالَ إِنَّكَ مِنَ الْمُنظَرِينَ

Instead of repentance, Iblees) said: ` Respite me until the day when they are ) " .١٤
".raised up

" .He (Allah) said: ` Verily you shall be of the respited ones " .١٥

Commentary : verses ١٤-١٥

.But the story of Satan did not conclude to that only happening

When he found that he was banished from the throne of Allah, he increased his rebellion and obstinacy. Instead of repentance, returning toward Allah, and confessing his fault, the only thing Iblees asked for from Allah was that he desired to : be respited until the day when all will be raised up. The verse says

Instead of repentance, Iblees) said: ` Respite me until the day when they are raised ) "
".up

****

This demand of Satan was somehow accepted by Allah when He (s.w.t.) said that he : would be of the respited ones. Here is the statement of the Qur'ān

" .He (Allah) said: ` Verily you shall be of the respited ones "

Commentary : verse ١٦

Satan did not want, of course, to have a long life and to be alive in order to compensate the past, but he expressed his aim of this long life that, the same as he was wandered off, he could lay wait on the Straight Path of Allah and deceive them all, .so that, the same that he got astray, they might go astray, too

Then I will certainly come upon them from before them, and from behind them, " ١٧ .
; and from their right and from their left
".and You will not find most of them thankful

Commentary : verse ١٧

Point

In order to confirm and to complete his statement, Satan added that, not only he will lay wait on their way, but also he will come upon them from the sides of four : directions to deceive them. The verse says

Then I will certainly come upon them from before them, and from behind them, and "
; from their right and from their left
".and You will not find most of them thankful

In a tradition, it is narrated from Imām Bāqir (a.s.) who, deeply commenting upon the four directions, said : "The purpose of coming `from before' is that Satan shows the coming world, which man has in front of him, simple and hollow to him. The purpose of `from behind' is that he (Satan) invites people to gathering properties and massing wealth, and to niggardliness concerning the payment of the compulsory alms to be abandon in favour of children and inheritors. The purpose of `right side' is that he spoils the spiritual affairs in man's view by creating doubts and dubious things. And, the purpose of `left side' is to pretend the material pleasures and lusts beautiful in the (view of man." (١)

The oath of Satan

Some Islamic traditions denote that when Satan made an oath that he will lay in wait of man from four sides in order to lead him astray or to bar him, angels, sympathizing with man, said: " O' Allah ! how this man will be delivered ? " The Lord answered : " There are two ways open for him, the upward and the downward. Whenever man stretches his hands for

١٨. Said He: ` Get out from this (state), despised, driven away "

".' Whoever of them will follow you, I will surely fill Hell with you all

Commentary : verse ١٨

Point

By this verse, once more the command of dismissing Satan from the position of nearness to Allah and the rank of highness, is issued. Here, there is a difference that the command of his dismissal has been issued with a more intensive despise. Perhaps, this was for the obstinacy that Satan showed later when he insisted on the temptation upon humankind and increased a greater sin to his former sins. Therefore, :as the Qur'ān points out

"... Said He: ` Get out from this (state), despised, driven away "

And Allah made an oath that whoever of them follows Satan He will fill Hell with him : and them all. The verse says

".' Whoever of them will follow you, I will surely fill Hell with you all ..."

: Explanations

A moment of having pride and saying " I am better than ..." (١) may bring forth some surprising sequels. For instance : " Get you down ... go you out. Verily you are of the abject ones." (٢) All these despises and falls are spread upon the proud Satan, since, .instead of apology, he decided to lead astray humankind

Commentary : verse ١٩

The statement of the verse is told Adam (a.s.) saying that he and his wife would dwell in the Garden and that it was permissible for them to eat whatever and wherever they desired, but they should not approach that tree in order to eat from it, because they would deprive themselves from a great reward

Commentary : verse ٢٠

Satan tempted Adam and Eve in the feature of a friend and a benevolent one. He knew that whoever's shameful parts be manifest, the one should not remain in Heaven. The only way by which the privy parts of Adam and Eve could become manifest was eating from the forbidden tree. So, Satan planned a plot that they might eat from that tree

Thus, Satan prepared the necessary things of their banishment from heaven. He told them if they had eaten from that tree, they would have turned into the form of angels and they could remain in Heaven forever

He said that the reason of that prohibition was that they would not become angels, or would not dwell in Heaven for ever

: The verse says

Then Satan whispered (evil suggestions) unto the two (Adam and Eve) that he might " manifest unto them that which was hidden from them of their shameful parts, and he said

:and their Lord called out to them

Commentary : verse ٢٢

Satan deceived Adam and Eve and caused them to be thrown down into the valley of misfortune so that they were sent away from that exalted rank. As soon as they tasted from the fruit of that tree and ate it, their clothings fell down from their bodies,
.and they ashamed from each other

: The verse says

Then he (Satan) caused them both to fall by deceit; so when they tasted the "
"... (forbidden) tree, their shameful parts became exposed to them

: The verse continues saying

"... ;and they both took to stitching upon themselves leaves of the Garden ..."

That is, they took the leaves of the trees and put them over each other in order to cover their privy parts therewith. Regarding this matter, it was pointed out in Sura Al-Baqarah that the geneneral interest was so that such a scene would come forth for Adam and Eve, and they should come out from the Garden. Their banishment from the Garden was not their retribution, because prophets do not commit any sin so that they be deserving of retribution. It was only a `leaving the better', i.e. if they did not do it, it would be better.

٢٣. "They said: ` Our Lord ! We have been unjust to ourselves "

Commentary : verse ٢٣

In answer to the reprimand of Allah, they both said that they were unjust to themselves. The verse says

"... ,They said: ` Our Lord ! We have been unjust to ourselves "

The objective meaning of `being unjust', here, is that they abandoned performing a recommendable act and, therefore, they were deprived from its recompense

Their purpose of their statement may be that as a result of coming down on the ground, and being deprived from that peaceful and blissful life, they incurred unjust to themselves

: The verse, from the tongue of Adam and Eve, continues saying and if You do not forgive us and have (not) mercy on us, we shall certainly be of the ..."

".' losers

They invoked Allah that if He did not cover their blemish and did not have mercy on them, and did not bestow His grace and His other favours by means of endowing His blessings and some other rewards upon them, they would be from those people who do not enjoy and benefit of their lives

Commentary : verse ۲۶

! A Warning unto All the Children of Adam

From this holy verse on, Allah states a series of constructive commandments and recommendations for all the children of Adam, which, in fact, are the continuation of Adam's affairs in Heaven

At first, He points to the subject of clothing and covering the body, which had an : important function in the event of Adam. Allah says

O' children of Adam ! We have indeed sent down to you clothing to cover your "
"... ,shameful parts

The usage of the clothing that He has sent for us is not only for covering the body and concealing its shameful parts, but it is also a factor of adornment. Clothing is a splendor and an ornament which makes one's stature seem more beautiful than what .it really is

"... ,and (for) adornment ..."

Following this phrase, which refers to the outward clothing of people, the Qur'ān stretches the discussion to the spiritual clothing. As the manner of the Qur'ān is in many other instances, it combines these two aspects together, and says that the : clothing of piety is better than that clothing. It says

p: ۳۲۴

"...and the raiment of piety; that is the best ..."

The resemblance of piety and righteousness to 'raiment' is a very explicit and expressive resemblance. Clothing both protects the body from cold and heat, and is a fender against a great deal of dangers. It both covers the vices of the body and is an ornament for persons. The essence of piety and righteousness, besides covering the ugliness of man's sins and protecting him from a lot of personal and social dangers, is also considered a very great adornment for him. It is a notable ornament which .increases his personality

The objective meaning of 'the raiment of piety' is that very spirit of piety which , 'protects the soul of man, and, however, the sense of 'shy .righteous deed.', and the like of them are assembled in it`

At the end of the verse, the Qur'ān implies that these raiments that Allah has assigned for you, irrespective of the material raiment and the spiritual one, bodily raiment and the raiment of piety, are wholly from among the signs of Allah, so that the servants of : Allah may remember the Divine bounties. It says

".This is of the signs of Allah so that they may take admonition ..."

: Raiments in the Past and Present

As far as the history of man indicates, human beings have always worn clothes, but, in our time, the means of producing clothes have so vastly varied and developed that it .is not compareable with the past at all

And, unfortunately, the secondary aspects of clothes, and even its unpleasant and disgraceful instances, have so vastly spread that they are being preceded the .philosophy of clothing

Clothing has been taken a factor of kinds of luxuries, expansion of corruptions, excitation of lusts, gaudiness, haughtiness, prodigality, extravagance and the like of them. Sometime there may be found some surprising clothes among people, and particularly among those young ones who imitate the western customs, that its .aspect of madness precedes its aspect of intellect

The custom of following fasition in clothing, not only waste a great deal of wealth, but .also squanders a great part of time and powers of individuals

Commentary : verse ٢٧

Point

The previous verse referred to raiment as a divine bounty. Here, the Qur'ān warns us .to be aware that Satan does not take away this raiment and bounty from us

Satan seduces the believing people either, and causes them to deviate from the straight path. But he has not a full mastership and domination over them, because a believing person can be saved by means of repentance and refuging to Allah. Thus, .his domination is over the disbelievers

O' children of Adam ! Let not Satan seduce you as he expelled your parents from the " Garden, stripping them both of their clothings that he might expose unto them their shameful parts. Surely he sees you, he and his Tribe, from where you do not see " .them. We have made the Satans the friends of those who do not believe

.Any kind of propaganda and preach, which ends to nakedness, is Satanic .۱

Exposing the privy parts is a preparation for the lack of belief and domination of .۲
.Satan

.Nakedness is a factor of banishment from the rank of nearness to Allah .۳

: (acting) upon it, and Allah has enjoined it on us.' Say Verily Allah does not enjoin indecencies. Do you say against Allah what you do not `

"! ? know

Commentary : verse ٢٨

In this verse, the Qur'ān points to one of the important temptations of Satan, which is usually stated by the tongues of some persons who have Satanic qualities. It is so that when they do a disgraceful action, and they are asked of its reason, they will answer that it is the custom and tradition that they have found with their ancestors upon it in : addition that Allah has enjoined them upon it, too. The verse says

And whenever they commit an indecency, they say: ` We found our fathers (acting) "
"... 'upon it, and Allah has enjoined it on us

It is interesting that, for answering them, the Qur'ān does not pay attention to the first reason, i.e. the blindly following their fathers. It suffices to answer their second : proof. It says

"... .Say : ` Verily Allah does not enjoin indecencies ..."

The reason of this statement is that Allah's commandment is not separate from the .command of intellect

: Then the verse ends with the following holy phrase

"! ? Do you say against Allah what you do not know ..."

The objective meaning of the Arabic word /fāhiṣah/ (indecency), here, in this verse, is any indecent and disgrace action, including `naked circumambulation. This action was performed by some ignorant people in order to follow their unjust leaders, which is .counted one of its clear denotation expansions

".brought you forth in the beginning, so shall you also return

Commentary : verse ٢٩

: The verse begins as follows

"... ,Say: ` My Lord has enjoined justice "

The Qur'ān commands the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to say that his Lord has enjoined him justice, and to what wisdom testifies that it is proper, right, and good

.It has been said that the purpose of the Qur'nic term /qist/ (justice), here, is `Unity

"... (and set your faces upright (toward Him ..."

It addresses the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and tells him to say that the servants should intend to worship Allah while they are rightly stationed toward the direction of the Ka` bah,
.not toward any other direction

"... ,at every place of worship ..."

You should observe this divine ordinance at anytime and place of prostration that you 'are. The purpose of this holy phrase is in the state of ` prayer

"... .and call upon Him being sincere to Him in religion ..."

In this part of the verse, it commands that servants should worship Allah sincerely.
That is, sincerity in worshipping Allah (s.w.t.) has been enjoined. The verse concludes
: as follows

There are some ideas stated upon the relation of this meaning to the former
: circumstance, as follows

The statement means that we should call upon Allah (s.w.t.) sincerely, since, finally, we .will be raised up again and we will be given our rewards in Hereafter the Qur'ān implies that if, from the point of intellect, it is difficult for you to consider this fact in your mind, look upon your creation in the beginning. Then do know that, as Allah brought you forth from the infinite desert of non-existence into the flower-garden of existence, once more, after death He will give life to your earthly body, too,

.in the form of a new creation, and He will raise you up again

٣٠. "A party He has guided aright while a party error is justly their due "

(for) verily they took Satans for their guardians other than Allah)

and they think that they are the ones guided aright

Commentary : verse ٣٠

There are some groups of people who, as a result of receptivity and accepting the invitation of the Truth, have been involved in the grace of Allah and have gained the reward of guidance. On the contrary, those who rejected the invitation of the Truth, have been deprived from the grace of Allah, and they have been left to themselves. And, consequently, the light of guidance did not brighten wide their breasts, nor it lightened their hearts, and they were deserving of aberration

"... ,A party He has guided aright while a party error is justly their due "

In view of the point that this meaning has occurred after the statement of raising up the dead, it makes clear that `guidance' is in the sense of `leading', and `aberration' is applied with the meaning of `being deprived from good rewards and Heaven

"... ,for) verily they took Satans for their guardians other than Allah) ..."

This statement points out to this fact that their retribution is not undue and without any cause. It is for this condition that they have committed sins and have preferred the love of Satan to the love of Allah

Instead of obeying Allah, they have obeyed Satan

"and they think that they are the ones guided aright ..."

They disobey Allah, yet they think that they are on the path of right and they are
.guided aright

٣١. "O' children of Adam ! wear your beautiful apparel at every time and place of prayer, and eat and drink but do not act extravagantly; verily He does not like the (extravagant ones".

Commentary : verse ٣١

The verse addresses all the children of Adam, saying to them that they should take with themselves their clothings with which they ornament themselves when they perform every prayer.

It has been narrated that whenever Imam Hassan Mujtabā stood to keep prayer, he used to wear his best clothes. In answer to the question why he (a.s.) used to do so, he said : " Allah is beautiful and He likes beauty Therefore, I decorate myself for Him." And after that, he recited the verse under discussion.

"O' children of Adam ! wear your beautiful apparel at every time and place of prayer " ...

Some of the commentators have said that this verse enjoins Muslims to wear their own clothes at the time of performing every prayer and circumambulation. This is opposite the notion of the pagans who used to circumambulate nakedly. They said that they would not worship the Lord with the clothes in which they had committed sins.

Some other commentators have said that the purpose of `wearing the beautiful apparel' is targeted to combing the hair at the time of establishing every prayer

: The verse continues saying and eat and drink but do not act extravagantly; verily He does not like the ..."

".(extravagant (ones

It is narrated from Ibn-`Abbās who has said : "Eat whatever you desire, and wear whatever you like, but beware that the two qualities of extravagance and pride do not ".cause you to commit sin

Commentary : verse ۳۲

:The verse begins thus

Say: ` Who has prohibited the ornament of Allah and the good provision which He " "...? has brought forth for His servants

The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is commanded to ask who has forbidden the clothings with which people decorate themselves, and who has prohibited the pure and good sustenances. These are the things Allah has created for His servants. The verse : continues saying

Say: ` These are for those who believe in the (short) life of this world (to be)..." "...'.exclusively theirs on the Day of Resurrection

These bounties, in this present world, are for the believing people, yet they are not peculiar to them, because disbelieving ones have also a share in them. But, in the .Hereafter, they are special to the believers and none else will have a share in them

The fact that in this statement Allah has not said that these are in the world for both those who believe and those who do not believe, is in order to attract the attentions to this matter that bounties have been created for the benefit of the believing people, .and, in the meantime, the disbelieving ones enjoy these bounties, too

Commentary : verse ٣٣

Say: ` My Lord has prohibited only indecencies, those apparent of them and those " ... ,concealed

The purpose of this first phrase of the verse is that Allah has prohibited only the things which are indecent. The verses of the Sura, up to here, have referred to the : indecencies in brief. This verse, following the subject in details, says

"... (and sin and unjust aggression (against people's rights ..."

: The indecencies are divided into four categories. They are Undue oppression and vice, ٢) attributing partners to Allah, and ٣) forging a lie(١) against Allah. Of course, oppression is always undue, but in fact, this quality has been .added for emphasis

Some commentators have said the objective meaning of ` indecencies' is `hidden fornication' and `to be naked in circumambulation'. The former is called `concealed', .and the latter is counted `apparent and that you associate with Allah that for which He has not sent down any ..." ... ,authority

One of the other prohibited indecencies is attributing partners to Allah. There is no

.proof or reason to justify the sin of polytheism

".and that you say against Allah what you do not know ..."

Another forbidden indecencies is saying something against Allah without having any .knowledge about it

.Now, in the next verse, the Qur'ān pays to soothing the holy Prophet

p: ۳۳۵

٣٤- وَلِكُلِّ أُمَّةٍ أَجَلٌ فَإِذَا جَاءَ أَجْلُهُمْ لَا يَسْتَجِزُونَ سَاعَةً

وَلَا يَسْتَقْدِمُونَ

And for every people there is (an appointed) term, so when their term comes they " ٣٤
".cannot put it back the least while nor can they advance it

Commentary : verse ٣٤

Point

The 'appointed term' is not assigned only for individuals. There have been some communities, nations, and government that not only they themselves but also their civilizations, cultures, works and social customs have been destroyed. It is not peculiar to only life and death to have 'an appointed time'. All glories, governments, properties, and the like of them, have also appointed terms. When the appointed term reaches, all supports, endeavours, and rivals are worthless to do anything in order to change its time, sooner or later

And for every people there is (an appointed) term, so when their "

".term comes they cannot put it back the least while nor can they advance it

However, this holy verse threatens the pagans of Quraysh to the chastisement which is with Allah. Their punishment will be sent down upon them in an appointed time, the same as it was sent down upon the former unjust nations

: Explanations

In the world of existence, there happens nothing, nor a changing, casually and . ١ outside of the control of Allah (s.w.t.). The laws governing over communities, similar to .the laws governing over individuals, also practically exist

"... ,And for every people there is (an appointed) term "

And those who belie Our Signs and turn away from them with arrogance these " ۳۶. are the inhabitants of the Fire, wherein shall they abide forever

Commentary : verses ۳۵-۳۶

Point

Addressing the children of Adam wholly, the verse describes that if some prophets come to you, who are of the same creation as you, in order to recite Allah's revelations to you and to aware you of His commandments, whoever keeps from evil and does not belie them, and improves his deeds and characteristics, there will be no fear upon him in this world nor any grief in the Hereafter. The verse says

O children of Adam ! When there come to you Messengers from among you relating " to you My signs, (follow them). Then whoever guards (against evil) and amends (himself) no fear shall be upon them nor shall they grieve

****

Then, immediately after that, the Qur'ān adds that the persons who belie Allah's revelations and arrogantly do not accept them, will abide in Hell Fire for ever. The :verse says

And those who belie Our Signs and turn away from them with arrogance These are " ".the inhabitants of the Fire, wherein shall they abide forever

: Explanations

Coming prophets one after another, is Allah's way of treatment, which had been . ١ planned before. The secret of the effect and influence of their speech is that they are .from among people themselves

The real believers in the prophets' invitations are those who are virtuous and . ٢ .amend themselves

.Peacefulness comes forth under the light of Faith and piety . ٣

The consequence of belying prophets arrogantly, and rejecting their invitations, is . ٤ .the everlasting punishment and Hell

,Our messengers come to them to take them away

' ? they would say: ` Where are those which you used to call upon besides Allah

They would say: ` They have departed from us;' and they will bear witness against " .themselves that they were disbelievers

Commentary : verse ٣٧

: Now, in this verse, the Qur'ān pays to threatening the rejectors, where it says

? Who is then more unjust than he who forges a lie against Allah or belies His Signs "
" ...

This question is to emphasize the mentioned matter, as well as the reality of the information. It implies that none is more unjust than the one who forges a lie against
.Allah, or the one who belies His revelations

.These signs are some clear evidences unto Unity and prophecy

: The verse continues saying

"... (Those shall receive their share (of destiny) from the Book (in the world)..."

.Such persons will receive and taste their share from the divine chastisement

In this statement, the word `Book' has been used instead of the sense of the term
. `chastisement', since it is the Book which informs them of their punishment

p: ३६.

Some commentators have said that the objective meaning of it is that they will enjoy the share of lifetime, sustenance, and whatever has been recorded and decreed by Allah for them. These things will not be ceased from them until death reaches them until when Our messengers come to them to take them away, they would say: "..."

"... ' ? Where are those which you used to call upon besides Allah

Then, after passing their lifetime, and that their days are numbered, when the messengers of Allah, i.e. the angels, refer to them in order to take their souls, they tell them where their idols, which they used to worship, are

The purpose of this question is to reprimand them. It addresses them and asks them why those idols do not come and help them to save them from the punishment

Some commentators have said that the purpose of it is not their death, but the purpose is the Day of Resurrection when the angels come to take them into Hell

They would say: ' They have departed from us;' and they will bear witness against ..." themselves that they were disbelievers

In answer to the question of the angels, they say that the idols have departed from them and can not defend them. They acknowledge that their worshippings, that they performed for them, are totally nullified and dissipated. They confess that they have been disbelievers

Whenever a group enters (the Fire), it curses its sister-group; until when they follow each other, all into the Fire, the last of them shall say with regard to the foremost of them

.Our Lord ! These are they who led us astray `

'.Therefore give them a double chastisement of the Fire

".'He will say: ` For each one there is double (chastisement), but you do not know

Commentary : verse ٣٨

One of the shaking scenes on the Day of Retribution is the gathering of the people of Hell and their dispute with each other there. This dispute occurs particularly between the sinners and their chiefs and those leading ones who caused these sinners to be sent into Hell. For this very reason, these evil doers, who had been friends with each other before, here, become enemies to each other

On That Day all friends become enemies except the virtuous ones whose friendship is fixed with each other, both in this world and the coming world. Sura Az-Zukhruf, No. ٤٣, verse ٦٧ says : " The friends shall on That Day be enemies one to another, except ".the pious ones

: The verse begins as follows

He will say: ` Enter you into the (Hell) Fire among the groups of people and jinn that "

"... .have passed away before you

On the Resurrection Day, Allah will tell the disbelievers to enter into the Hell Fire amongst those groups of people and jinn who had paved

p: ۳۴۲

.the path of infidelity and were destroyed before them

"... ;Whenever a group enters (the Fire), it curses its sister-group ..."

Every nation who enter the Hell Fire will curse the nation that have entered the fire
.before them and who have the same form of thought

The purpose of the Arabic term `ukht' (sister), mentioned in this verse, is not the .sense of the word `sister', but its objective meaning is `of the same ideology

Therefore, the communities who have followed their leaders in the world very sincerely and affectionately will curse them and will tell them that they have misled them and have brought them into Fire. Thus, they demand that the curse of Allah may ! be upon them until when they follow each other, all into the Fire, the last of them shall say with ..."

.regard to the foremost of them

.Our Lord ! These are they who led us astray `

:Therefore give them a double chastisement of the Fire.' He will say

"! For each one there is double (chastisement), but you do not know `

At the time when all of them enter the Hell Fire and gather with together therein, those who have entered later, compared with the leaders of them who have entered formerly, will address their Lord, and say that it was those leaders who caused them
.to be deprived from worshipping Him

They ask Him to increase double their punishment. That is, such leaders invited them .to go astray and prevented them to follow the truth

Imam Şādiq (a.s.) in this regard says : " The purpose is the Imams (leaders) of ",transgression

Some commentators have said that the purpose of this phrase is that they deserve two kinds of punishment. The first is the punishment of infidelity, and the second is the .punishment of misleading others

Commentary : verse ۴۰

Point

It can be understood from this verse that the purpose of the Arabic term / samā' / (sky), mentioned in this verse, is the place where Heaven is located in. So, in order to enter Heaven, the people of Heaven must pass through its gates

:The verse says

Verily those who belie Our Signs and, turn away from them with arrogance, the " gates of the heaven shall not be opened to them, nor shall they enter Paradise until the camel passes through the eye of the needle and thus do We recompense the guilty.

The Arabic term /jamal/ means 'camel' or 'the thick rope by which ships are kept fastened beside the shore'. This meaning is more fitting than the meaning of 'needle and camel'. But, since the purpose is the statement of impossibility of the arrival of the disbelievers into Paradise, the meaning of 'camel' and passing a camel through the eye of a needle is nearer to the concept of impossibility.

Besides, the Bible, Luke, Chapter ١٨, No ٢٥ says : " For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God

Thus, despite Allah's gates of the grace of the sky and the earth are open to the virtuous believers, the gates of heaven are shut for the hostile beliers, the infidels

"... ,the gates of the heaven shall not be opened to them ..."

: Explanations

It is probable that this meaning is understood from the apparent context of the ١٠ verse that Paradise is in heavens.

Imam Amir-ul-Mu'mineen Ali (a.s.) has said : "The gates of the heaven are open at five times : when the struggle of strivers of Islam begins; when it is raining; when the Qur'ān is being recited; at dawn; and at the time of calling to prayer."

Tafsir-i-Fakhr-i-Rāzī, and Al-Mizan ١ -١

Tafsir-Nur-uh-Thaqalayn ٢ -٢

٤١- لَّهُمْ مِنْ جَهَنَّمَ مِهَادٌ وَمِنْ فَوْقِهِمْ غَوَاشٍ

وَكَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي الظَّالِمِينَ

For them shall be a bed of Hell-Fire and from above them coverings (of it); and " ٤١ .
".thus do We recompense the unjust

Commentary : verse ٤١

; 'The Qur'ānic term /mihād/ is derived from /mahd/ which means `bed
'and the term /qawāsh/ is the plural form of /qāshiyah/ in the sense of `cover
'It is also used with the meaning of `a camp

This hostile group, who turn away from the Truth, are referred to in verse ٣٧ of this Sura as `infidels'. In verse No. ٤٠, they are discussed as `beliers and sinners.' In this current verse, they are pointed to as `the unjust.' The reason why they are called differently is that the one who belies the signs of Allah, is deserving to be entitled with .all these words

In Sura Al-Bagarah, No. ٢, verse ٢٥٤, we recite : "... and the infidels they are the ".unjust

: Thus, Hell Fire will encompass the whole entity of the disbelievers from above and beneath of them. The evidence is also Sura Al`Ankabūt, No. ٢٩, verse ٥٥, where it says : " On the day when the chastisement shall cover them from above
"... ,them, and from beneath their feet

,However, applying the term /mihād/ (bed) for the people of Hell mentioned in this verse, is a kind of mocking them. It means that their resting place is (Hell.)

: The verse says

For them shall be a bed of Hell-Fire and from above them coverings (of it); and thus "
".do We recompense the unjust

Tafsir Fi -Zilal (the explanation under the verse ۱ -۱)

٤٢- وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ

لَا نُكَلِّفُ نَفْسًا إِدَاءً لَوْ وَسَّعَها أُوْل-نِكَ أَصْح-أَبُ الْجَنَّةِ

هُم فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ

And those who believe and do righteous deeds We do not impose upon anyone a " ٤٢. duty but to the extent of his ability these are the inhabitants of Paradise wherein shall ".they abide forever

Commentary : verse ٤٢

The Qur'ān usually brings the concepts of 'glad tidings' and 'warning' beside each other. In the previous verse, the end of the arrogant evildoers was stated. Here, in this verse, the good end of the eligible believers is referred to

And those who believe and do righteous deeds We do not impose upon anyone a " duty but to the extent of his ability these are the inhabitants of Paradise wherein shall ".they abide forever

Some apparently similar bounties of Heaven, such as : a stream of milk, a stream of honey, a beautiful spouse, and gardens and castles, can be supplied in this world, with a great number of difference, of course, for a small number of people. But it is impossible to provide eternity of life here for anyone, which is possible in Heaven, and the dwellers of Paradise are eternally provided with the Divine bounties

Paradise is the reward of faith and good action which needs effort and endeavour, not any pretext

Of course, the fulfilment of all good deeds is the best, yet, in action, every body is responsible as much as he is able to do. There is no exhausting duty upon the : believers in Islam. The verse says

"... but to the extent of his ability ..."

Again, Sura Al-Hajj, No. ٢٢, verse ٧٧ says : "... He has chosen you and has not laid upon

"...;you any hardship in religion

Then if there is any duty decreed upon us, surely we have been able to do it, although .we have not applied our entire abilities

٤٣- وَنَزَعْنَا مَا فِي صُدُورِهِمْ مِنْ غِلٍّ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهِمُ الْأَنْهَارُ-

وَقَالُوا الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي هَدَانَا لِهَذَا وَمَا كُنَّا لِنَهْتَدِيَ لَوْلَا أَنْ هَدَانَا اللَّهُ

لَقَدْ جَاءَتْ رُسُلُ رَبِّنَا بِالْحَقِّ

وَنُودُوا أَنْ تُلَكُمُ الْجَنَّةَ أُورِثْتُمُوهَا بِمَا كُنتُمْ

And we will remove whatever rancour be in their breasts; the rivers shall flow " .٤٣ beneath their abodes and they will say: ` All praise be to Allah who guided us to this; and had Allah not guided us, we would not have been guided. Indeed, our Lord's messengers came with the truth.' And it will be cried out to them that: ` This is the "'Garden which you inherit for what you used to do

Commentary : verse ٤٣

Point

The Arabic term /qill/ means `a secretly penetration'. Regarding this, the secret ./grudge and envy are also called /qill

In the former verses, we recited that the dwellers of Hell curse each other. Now, in this verse, the Qur'ān says that the dwellers of Heaven have no rancour in their breasts unto each other. Whatever they have is peace and affection. None may envy .another's rank. All of them are thankful of the bounties of Allah in Heaven

: Explanations

Prophets are some means of guidance, and their guidance is accompanied with .١ truth. They themselves, their speeches, their actions, their styles, and their promises .are entirely truth

" ... Indeed, our Lord's messengers came with the truth ..."

According to the Islamic literature, every one of the believers and the disbelievers, .۲
has a place both in Heaven and in Hell. But, believers

p: ۳۴۹

inherit the places of disbelievers in Heaven and disbelievers inherit the Hellish places
.of the believers

"... This is the Garden which you inherit ` ..."

It is understood from the Islamic traditions that the gates of happiness and .۳ wretchedness are open to everybody. No one was created for Heaven nor for Hell from the beginning. It is the person's choice and action which leads the one toward
.the final abode

Heaven stands instead of good action, not because of bare wishes and .۴
.imaginations

Commentary : verse ٤٤

Point

It is recorded in the books of Shi`ite narrations and in some books of traditions of Sunnite school (like the book by Hākim Huskānī) that the above-mentioned `crier' will be Hadrat Alī (a.s.). Similarly, he (a.s.) recited the Sura Al-Barā'ah in Mecca which announced the acquittance of Muslims from the whole pagans of the world. Therefore, the recitation of resolutions of acquittance and curse of Allah unto pagans .are from the tongue of Ali (a.s.), both in the world and Hereafter

And the inhabitants of Paradise will call to the inhabitants of the (Hell) Fire: ` We " have found what our Lord promised us true; have you, too, found what your Lord promised true ? They will say: ` Yes.' Then a crier will proclaim between them that: ` ".Allah's curse is on the unjust

: Explanations

In Hereafter, the dwellers of Heaven and the dwellers of Hell will speak with each .١

.other

"... :And the inhabitants of paradise will call to the inhabitants of the (Hell) Fire "

p: ۳۵۱

The believers and the disbelievers will find the promises of Allah in truth and .۲
.practical

"... ;We have found what our Lord promised us true ` ..."

By means of the inhabitants of Heaven, Allah will make the inhabitants of Hell .۳

Commentary : verse ٤٥

.The way of Allah is the way of Unity, submission, Faith, emigration, and Holy Struggle

Transgressors hinder people from the way of Allah (s.w.t.) by means of creating doubts, temptations, propaganda, weakening them, and also by producing innovations and superstitions. They also oppose the leaders of truth and create despair through their hindering the affairs. Or, they cause some changes and :deviations in the way of Allah (s.w.t.). The holy verse says as follows

The unjust are those who hinder (people) from Allah's way and seek to make it "
".crooked, and who are disbelievers in the Hereafter

Yes, any hindrance from Allah's way, or creating any deviation in it, is transgression,
.and cultural transgression is the greatest one

The enemy may also fight manifestly and, if he can, he hinders the way of Allah absolutely. But, if he cannot, by applying different designs, he deviates the way and .creates some changes alongside the path

"... ,and seek to make it crooked ..."

٤٦. "And between the two (groups in Paradise and Hell) there shall be a veil "

,And on 'A`rāf (the heights) there shall be men, recognizing all by their marks

'! who shall call to the inhabitants of Paradise: ` Peace be upon you

".They shall not have entered it; though they hope

Commentary : verse ٤٦

Point

The objective meaning of the term `veil' mentioned in the verse, perhaps, is the same wall which has been referred to in Sura Al-Hadīd, No. ٥٧, verse ١٣. It says : "... Then separation would be brought about between them, with a wall having a door in it : (as for) the inside of it, there shall be mercy in it, and (as for) the outside of it, before it (there shall be punishment." (Tafsīr-i-Al-Mizān

The Arabic term /a`rāf/ is the plural form of the word /`urf/ in the sense of `a high land'. The name of this Sura is taken from this part of the Qur'ān as Al-'A`rāf. It is only .in this occurrence of the Qur'ān where 'A`rāf and the people of 'A`rāf are referred to

? Who Are the People of 'A`rāf

In the Islamic narrations and the statements of the commentators, there are some various attitudes about them. Some of them believe that these people are some saints of Allah who will stand on a high place between Heaven and Hell, and who recognize all people. They will greet to the inhabitants of Heaven and congratulate them their good end, but they are worried about the fate of the inhabitants of Hell

Some others introduce these people as some weak persons who have

p: ۳۵۴

both some sins and worshippings, and they are waiting for the grace of Allah. They are like those about whom Sura Al-Taubah, No. 9 verse 106 says : " And others are made to await Allah's command, whether He chastises them or whether He turns to them (mercifully), and Allah is Knowing, Wise." That is, some other sinners are those whose affairs depend on Divine Will. He will either punish them by His justice, or He will forgive their sins with His grace. And, Allah knows the interests of people and is cognizant to the wisdom of creation, too

Yet, perhaps, it can be said that the main pivot is Allah's saints, and the oppressives are in the margin. The good doers enter Paradise and the evil doers go into Hell. The weak people, those who are in the middle, are kept in 'A`rāf, waiting for their fate. But, the saints of Allah, who are standing on 'A`rāf, will come to help them and will intercede them

This statement is the consequence of the attitudes found amongst commentators and in Islamic narrations

"... ,And when their eyes shall be turned toward the inhabitants of the Fire "

In their supplications, the people of 'A` rāf do not ask Allah not to set them as the inhabitants of Fire, but they ask Him not to place them with the unjust people

Commentary : verses ۴۸-۴۹

:The verse begins saying

And the occupant of 'A`rāf (the heights) shall call to men whom they will recognize " by their marks, saying: ` Of no avail were to you your amassing and what you used to "!' act proudly

Upon the commentary of this verse, Imam Sādiq (a.s.) says : "The people of 'A`rāf means divine prophets and their successors. They will call to some persons of the inhabitants of Hell, and to the chiefs of the disbelievers, and blaming them seriously, they say : ` Of no avail were to you

p: ۳۵۷

".'your amassing (wealth) and what you used to act proudly

****

"... ? Are these they whom you swore that Allah will not bestow any mercy on them "

This statement of the Qur'ān refers to the dwellers of Heaven whom the chiefs of disbelievers blamed and despised in the world. They used to belittle them because of their poverty and showed arrogance upon them with their worldly wealth. The .disbelievers swore that Allah would not let them enter into Paradise whom Allah now says) Enter you into Paradise; no fear shall be upon you, nor shall) ..."

".you grieve

By Allah's leave, the people of `A`rāf will state this meaning to the oppressive ones .that they enter into Heaven while they are neither frightened nor are they grievous

Aṣḥab-ibn-Nabātah has narrated from Imam Amir-ul-Mu'mineen Ali (a.s.) who said :
`On the Day of Judgement, we will stand between Heaven and Hell. Then whoever has helped us (in the world) we will recognize him by his feature and will send him into Heaven; and whoever has been hostile to us, we will recognize him, too, and will send

Commentary : verses ٥٠-٥١

This verse of the Qur'ān says that the inhabitants of the (Hell) Fire shall call to the inhabitants of Heaven, saying

"...'.Cast on us of water or (and) of what Allah has provided you with `..."

This statement is an evidence for the sense that Heaven is located above Hell, (because the meaning of the Arabic word /'ifādah/ is pouring water from above). Then the phrase means that they ask the dwellers of Heaven to pour over them from the water or the kinds of food and fruit Allah has provided them with

Commentary : verse ۵۲

Allah has completed the argument, but being drowned in the amusing world and forgetting the Hereafter, and denying the revelations of Allah, is the consequence of .man's shortcoming himself

"... And verily We have brought them a Book "

There are many torches to lead people towards the right path, but some groups go .astray because they do not utilize them

The Divine revelation is based upon reality and knowledge. And, the greatest grace .and mercy of Allah is that He has guided Man

However, religion is a guidance for the believers, not for the obstinate persons who .seek only pretext

"... a guidance and a mercy for a people who believe ..."

' ? Or could we be sent back to do other than that we were doing

Indeed they have lost their souls and that which they were forging has gone away

".from them

Commentary : verse ٥٣

Point

The Qur'ānic term /ta'wīl/ (interpretation) is in the sense of `referring to the past or future'. In the Qur'ān, it has been applied with the meaning of the truth, and the 'beginning or the end of an action

In the current Sura, verse No. ٤٣, the word of the inhabitants of Heaven was that they said : " Indeed our Lord's messengers came with the truth." Here, in this holy verse, .the word of the inhabitants of Hell is the same

? Do they wait (for anything) but its interpretation "

On the day its interpretation comes, those who forgot it before (in the world) will say:

"...` Indeed the messengers of our Lord brought the truth

In Hereafter, disbelievers will gain no vail of their hopes, moanings, and protests.

Therefore, they must take the divine threats seriously in the .present world

In the meantime, this fact should be known that neglecting the school of Islam and
.the Qur'ān is a great loss

A vain wish

Disbelievers think that their deeds are correct. On the Resurrection Day, when they recognize their own error, they wish to return back to the world. But this wish is of no : avail. They say

? Are there for us then any intercessors that they intercede for us ..."

' ? Or could we be sent back to do other than that we were doing

Indeed they have lost their souls and that which they were forging has gone away
".from them

deities, idols, properties, and powers. Also, there will not be found intercessions for

He covers the day with the night which pursues it urgently and (He created) the sun .and the moon and the stars submissive to His command

.Be it known ! (that) His are the creation and the command

".Blessed is Allah, the Lord of the worlds

Commentary : verse ۵۴

" ... ;Verily your Lord is Allah, Who created the heavens and the earth in six Days "

The reason why Allah says that He has created the heavens and the earth in six days is that creating something after something else in order mostly indicates that its .creator is knowing and wise, and directs that thing upon the requirement of a wisdom

Or, its reason is for the sake that He teaches deliberation and accuracy in affairs to .His servants

"... (then He mounted the Throne (of authority ..."

This phrase metaphorically points to the absolute encompassment of Allah, and His domination, upon the management of the affairs of the heavens and the earth after their creation. However, after the creation of heavens and the earth He held the reins of leading them. This statement means that not only creation belongs to Him, but also .running and leading the world of existence are with Him

This meaning is an answer to those who think the world needs the Lord only in .creation, and not in permanence and continuation of the existence

"... ,He covers the day with the night which pursues it urgently ..."

When the verse says that the night urgently pursues the day, it means the night comes after the day and follows it; like that something pursues another thing with the .purpose of demanding it

.and (He created) the sun and the moon and the stars submissive to His command ..."

This phrase means that the Lord is He Who has created the sun and the moon and the .stars while all of them are rotating according to His device

.As if, the sun, the moon and the stars are commissioned to this rotation

"... .Be it known ! (that) His are the creation and the command ..."

It is the Lord who has created all things and runs them according to His Will; i.e. both .creation, and its device and management are under His control

".Blessed is Allah, the Lord of the worlds ..."

The Lord eternally remains in His infinite Glory of Lordship, and He is the Creator and .Possessor of the worlds, as well as a source of blessing for them

Next to mentioning the statement of the creation of the heavens and the earth, the night and the day, the sun, the moon and the stars, and the device of the world of existence, this phrase, in fact, is a kind of praising the Holy rank of Allah which has been stated as an instruction to His servants

" .٥٥ .Call on your Lord humbly and secretly; verily He does not like the transgressors "

Commentary : verse ٥٥

: The conditions of supplication

Through clear reasons, the previous verse proved this fact that it is only Allah (s.w.t.) Who is deserved of being worshipped. Next to that, in this verse, the Qur'ān instructs that supplication and calling to Him, which is the soul and essence of worship, should : be performed before Allah. At first, it says

" ... ;Call on your Lord humbly and secretly "

This instruction in the verse, which says to call on the Lord `secretly' is for that this action may be performed far from any dissimulation so that it becomes nearer to .sincerity. It must be done with concentration of contemplation, and attention

: And, at the end of the verse, it says

" .verily He does not like the transgressors ... "

This phrase has a vast meaning which includes any transgression, irrespective of shouting aloud when supplicating, or acting hypocritically, or inclining to other than
.Allah in supplication

And do not make mischief in the earth after its improvement and call on Him in " ٥٦ .
;fear and hope

"surely the mercy of Allah is nigh to the good-doers

Commentary : verse ٥٦

Point

The previous verse referred to the relation of the servants of Allah with their Lord,
.and here, the relation of people is pointed out

Between the previous verse and this verse, there has come the phrase : " And do not make mischief in the earth ..." in order to point out that oral supplication should be accompanied with practical effort for the social improvement. Then, offering a bare .supplication by tongue and making mischief in practice, is not effective

This verse and the former one have pointed to the conditions of the perfection of supplication before Allah (s.w.t.), as well as its rites and the necessary circumstances
: of its acceptance. Some of them are as follows

A supplication is better to be accompanied with humiliation

A supplication should be done hiddenly and aloof from any hypocrisy and
.dissimulation

It must be performed with both fear and hope, and without violating the boundaries
.of truth

.There must not be any form of making mischief in it

"...And do not make mischief in the earth "

: Explanations

: An improved society may be exposed to danger .۱

"... after its improvement ..."

Those revolutionists who want to reform are not free from .۲

p: ۳۶۷

.applying gnosis, supplication, and close communion

"... ;and call on Him in fear and hope ..."

If there be not a moderate fear and hope in supplication, it will tend towards .۳
.mischief

.A believer should always be between the states of fear and hope .۴

This moderation is called 'goodness' by Allah. Goodness is a preparation and cause of receiving the mercy of Allah. Therefore, without having goodness, the expectation of :a person for receiving the mercy of Allah is undue. The verse says

".surely the mercy of Allah is nigh to the good-doers ..."

Commentary : verse ٥٧

In former verses, the words were upon theology. In this verse, Resurrection is referred to. In the discussions of concerning each of `origin' and `end', they have been reasoned through natural affairs and the order of creation

Nature, of course, with all the elaboration and order that it has, is under the authority and Will of Allah, and it must not cause man to become heedless of the origin of existence.

We must be careful not to lose ourselves when we are dealing with scientific formulas and material laws. The movement of winds, the descent of different rains, and the growth of plants are certainly performed with the device of Allah (s.w.t).

And it is He Who sends the winds as good tidings heralding His mercy, till when they " carry the heavy-laden clouds, We drive them to a dead land, and therewith We send "... down water, and with it We bring forth fruits of every kind

.The deniers of Resurrection have no proof. They only consider it far away

The examples of life are found in nature. Gathering the atoms of a pear, an apple, and a pomegranate, which are scattered in the soil, are like the gathering of the atoms of the dead. These examples are sufficient to remove that consideration of theirs

: The verse says

".Thus shall We bring forth the dead so that you might remember ..."

Death does not happen in the sense of perfect non-existence, but it is a change of state. The same as the dead land (in the winter) does not mean the lack of land

And the good land its vegetation comes forth (in abundance) by the leave of its " ٥٨ .
Lord while that which is bad springs up nothing but (something useless) scantily

".Thus do We repeat the Signs for a people who give thanks

Commentary : verse ٥٨

The verses of the Qur'ān are like the rains of mercy. When they are recited unto the receptive persons, they bring acknowledgement, love, faith and effort afterward. But they do not increase anything in the unbelievers save obstinacy and enmity. The Qur'ān says : " And we send down (stage by stage) of the Qur'ān that which is a healing and a mercy to those who believe, but it adds not to the unjust but perdition."

﴿١﴾

Yet, it should be said that, the family nobility, is one of the factors of heritage and
.personality

"... (And the good land its vegetation comes forth (in abundance " "

For this reason, only the descent of the rain of mercy is not enough, but the fitness
.and eligibility of the place, and also the leave of Allah, are necessary

" ... ,by the leave of its Lord ..."

The Qur'ān is the source of guidance and statement for all, but only the pious ones,
.and those who are thankful, can enjoy its contents

.while that which is bad springs up nothing but (something useless) scantily ..."

Sura Al-Isra, No. ۱۷, Verse ۸۲ ۱ -۱

Point

Noah's exhortation to his people to serve Allah alone The people belied him and were drowned

۵۹- لَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا نُوحًا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ

فَقَالَ يَا قَوْمِ اعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ إِلَهٍ غَيْرُهُ

إِنِّي أَخَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ عَظِيمٍ

۶۰- قَالَ الْمَلَأُ مِنْ قَوْمِهِ إِنَّا لَنَرُكَ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ

Indeed We sent Noah to his people, so he said : ` O my people ! Serve Allah. You " ۵۹
".have no god other than Him. Verily I fear for you the chastisement of a grievous day

" ۶۰. The chiefs of his people said : ` Verily we do see you in manifest error "

Commentary : verses ۵۹-۶۰

The example of `that which is bad springs up nothing', which was referred to in the previous verse, was the people of Noah, to whom whatever he (a.s.) advised he got nothing.

The story of the people of Noah has been mentioned in the Qur'ān in Suras : Al-'Aḥqāf, As-Ṣāffāt, Al-'Isrā', al-Aḥzāb, Yūnus, Al-Mu'minūn, Al-Ghamar, and Noah

However, the beginning thing that prophets invite to, is the invitation to Unity and theology. This is in common for the believers in all Divine religions

Indeed We sent Noah to his people, so he said : ` O my people ! Serve Allah you have " ...no god other than Him Prophets are the true sympathizers of human beings. The verse continues the : statement of Noah, saying

p: ३१२

"Verily I fear for you the chastisement of a grievous day..."

Anyhow, this fact should be pointed out that the invitation of Noah was worldly, since all the people of the world in that time were the people of Noah. Then when he cursed, all the disbelievers throughout the world were involved in his curse, and they were drowned entirely. The Qur'ān narrates the supplication of Noah, thus : " And Noah said : My Lord ! leave not upon the earth any dweller from among the (unbelievers'."

***

The opponents of prophets have always been some groups of notable ones among the chiefs of the rich whose dazzling glare has filled the eyes of people

"... The chiefs of his people said "

To know prophets as the misguided ones is worse than to disbelieve in them. When the nature of some people is transformed, they consider a true guide as a misguided one

Now, in twenty first century, the world of atheism imagine themselves as the ones of a sound and serene mind, while they introduce the adherents of divine religions and prophets as some reactionists and simple-minded people

He who pursues the theical system and tries to rootout the system of paganism, should expect to face with any slunder, accusation, and affront

I deliver to you the Messages of my Lord, and I advise you sincerely, and I know " ٦٢ .
"'.from Allah what you do not know

Commentary : verses ٦١-٦٢

In response to the affront and harshness of the opponents, Noah, with a calm, firm, and tender tone, said that not only he was not misguided, but also there was no sign of misguidance in him. He added that he was a messenger of Allah, the Lord of the : worlds. The verse says

He said: ` O' my people ! There is no error in me, but I am a Messenger from the "
"'.Lord of the worlds

.This phrase is a hint to the fact that all the different gods they believed in were in vain

The Lord of the whole people and the things of the world is Allah, the only One God,
.Who is the Creator of all of them

***

Noah (a.s.) continued saying that his aim was to perform the mission of his Lord : perfectly and to convey His revealed Messages to them. The holy verse says

" ... ,I deliver you the Messages of my Lord "

.He told the opponents that he would do his best for them in the path of benevolence

"... ,and I advise you sincerely ..."

p: २१६

: Then, finally Noah added that

".and I know from Allah what you do not know ..."

This phrase may be a threat against their oppositions, indicating that he knew some painful punishments for the evil doers that they were not aware of yet. And also it points to the grace and mercy of Allah that if they paved the way of obedience he would know some blessings and rewards from him that they did not know, as well as .the greatness and vastness of them

What ! do you wonder that an admonition has come to you from your Lord " ٦٣ through a man from among you, that he might warn you so that you might keep from " ? evil and so that (His) mercy may be shown to you

Commentary : verse ٦٣

:The Divine statement inquires

What ! do you wonder that an admonition has come to you from your Lord through a " man from among you, that he might warn you so that you might keep from evil and so " ? that (His) mercy may be shown to you

The verse implies that you should not surprise that the Divine statement, the prophethood and the messengership have been sent down upon a man who is from among yourselves in order that he warns you of the divine retribution if you do not believe.

When the verse implies that you should not surprise, it is for the reason that if a person sincerely and sympathetically arises for the guidance and improvement of a community, it is not surprising. The wonder is in this that people do not have pity on themselves, and they supply the means of their own wretchedness. Moreover, prophethood is assigned for the interest of people. It adapts the wisdom and common good, and besides that intellect confirms it, too

However, the purpose of coming Noah was that those people to avoid infidelity and sinning, so that they be shown mercy to

Commentary : verse ٦٤

As a result of the very undue wonder, the people of Noah rejected him. Therefore, Allah delivered him and those believers who were in Noah's Ark from being drowned, and, thereafter, He drowned all those who belied Noah and the Divine revelations.

Commentary : verse ٦٥

Point

This second story, the prophethood of Hūd has been told in this Sura. The detailed .story of Prophet Hūd has been referred to in Sura Ash-Shu`arā' and Sura Hūd

The people of ` Ād had been living in a zone in the south of Arabia by the name of 'Aḥghāf. physically they were very strong and, from the point of agriculture and raising cattle, they were a powerful people. This group of people were involved in .idolatry and corruption

Hūd was one of the relatives of these people. He was appointed to prophethood .among them. He invited his people to Unity, as Noah did

! Lord of the worlds

٦٨. "I deliver to you the Messages of my Lord "

"and I am a faithful adviser for you

Commentary : verses ٦٦-٦٨

A group of disbelieving people, or a party of the rich, told Hūd that they had distinguished him as a foolish, ignorant, and silly person. They added that they : thought his words were thoroughly lies. The holy verse says

"The chiefs of those who disbelieved from among his people said "

`.'Verily we see you in folly, and verily we do think you to be of the liars`

****

In Answer to them, Hūd said that they would be sure that he did not told them that matter foolishly. He added that he was a messenger from the side of the Lord of the : worlds. The verse says

He said: `O' my people ! There is no folly in me, but I am a Messenger from the Lord "

"! of the worlds

Thus, the Lord, the Exalted, teaches us that no one should face the ignorant people with a disgrace word, nor the one should answer their

p: ۳۸۰

unagreeable word with a disgrace statement. But, he should only negate whatever wrong they have attributed him with. The same as Hūd did not say anything obscene .to them in answer to that undue attribution

****

Hūd continued his statement and added that he was to deliver them the information that his Lord gave him, and he advised them not to abandon the obedience of Allah. He told them they should be certain that he (Hūd) was faithful in conveying the message of Allah to them and he never told a lie, nor he changed anything. The verse : says

Commentary : verse ٦٩

There is no wonder that the prophecy, or in other word, the miracle and revelation has allocated to a man who is from among themselves and has grown up with them. His aim is to threaten them not to do vice

However, the Qur'ān asks them why they wonder from the messengership of a man who is from among them, but they do not wonder that they worship a stone. The verse says

"What ! do you wonder that an admonition has come to you from your Lord through a man from among you, that he might warn you

Then, they should remember the favours of Allah and that, after the destruction of the people of Noah as a result of their committing sins, He settled them on the earth and increased them in stature and strength

And remember when He made you successors after Noah's people, and increased ... you in stature

When the servants of Allah do remember the bounties of Allah practically, they will

The people of `Ād told Hūd whether he had come to them in order that he would make them worship Allah, the One, and restrain them from worshipping their gods which their ancestors had been worshipping. They told him if he was truthful, that he was a messenger of Allah, he would bring upon them down the punishment he had : threatened them to for worshipping idols. The verse says

? for which Allah has not sent any authority

Commentary : verse ٧١

: The verse begins thus

.He (Hūd) said: " There have already fallen you punishment an wrath from your Lord " ...

In answer to them, Hūd (a.s.) said to them that the punishment was certain to be fallen on them. They had done something that they deserved the wrath of Allah. The .Wrath of Allah is in the manner that He wills punishment for evil-doers

: The verse continues saying

Do you dispute with me about names which you and your fathers have named ..." ? (your idols), for which Allah has not sent any authority

".Wait then, and verily I, also with you, will be of those who wait

Hūd asked them whether they hostilely disputed with him about the idols that their fathers had invented and named them with divinity, while those idols had no attribute or sign of divinity and also there had come down no proof for their divinity from the side of Allah. It is evident that such a great claim needed a sharp and firm proof which should be offered by them, not by Hūd. He said that he should bring evidences that Allah, One God, was their real deity, and that there is no god but He, from

.Whom Hūd was sent as a messenger

Some commentators have said that they had named each of their idols in a different form. Hūd said that those names were from their own wishes. Therefore, they must .wait for the punishment which he (a.s.) was waiting for, too

72. "So We delivered him and those who were with him by a mercy from Us " and We cut away the roots of those who belied Our Signs

Commentary : verse ٧٢

The verse implies that Allah brought Hūd and those who had believed from among the disbelievers and delivered them from His punishment by His mercy, and He involved those who rejected Allah's signs and did not believe in His messenger in chastisement so that He cut away the roots of them

So We delivered him and those with him by a mercy from Us and We cut away the " roots of those belied Our signs and were not believers

The occurrence of the phrase : " (They) were not believers " in the verse is with the purpose of showing that it was known from their status that they would not have believed if they had remained more

It is understood from this verse that the people of Hūd were caught by the punishment of Allah, and they were destroyed

Commentary : verse ٧٣

Point

In the Qur'ān, there have been referred to the name of ` she-camel' seven times, and to `the people of Thamūd' twenty six times. The story of the people of Thamūd is mentioned in Suras : Ash-Shu`arā, Al-Qamar, Ash-Shams, and Hūd. As the .commentary book Al-Mizān denotes, the people of Thamūd lived in Yemen

: The verse says

And unto (the people of) Thamūd (We sent) their brother Ṣāliḥ. He said: ` O' my " .people ! Serve Allah

You have no god other than Him. There has come to you a clear proof from your Lord. This is the she-camel of Allah, to be a sign for you. So leave her alone to graze in Allah's earth, and do not touch

p: ۳۸۷

"her with any harm, lest a painful chastisement will seize you

There are some differences between the meaning of the Qur'ānic term /bayyinah/ (divine proof, miracle) and the manner of extraordinary accomplishments of human : beings, as follows

A – A miracle needs practice, suggestion, and gaining

B – Miracles are brought forth by some good and immaculate persons, but other .accomplishments may be offered even by some inept persons

C – The goal of miracles is guidance, while the aim of ordinary people may be .ostentation, popularity, gaining wealth, and amusement

.D – The acts of prophets in miracles are accompanied with challenge

That is, they claim that others cannot do the like of them. But there is none of these .signs in the acts of outstanding intellectual figures, inventors, and the ascetics

E – Prophets are in need of Divine miracles. Sometimes, miracles have been offered through the demand of people, such as : splitting of the moon, and the she-camel of .Sāliḥ

The style and the motto of prophets are the same. Monotheism is the first invitation of .prophets " .serve Allah. You have no god other than Him ..."

.Prophets have come out from among people, and they treat like brothers with them

: Explanations

To whatever the grace and mercy of Allah reaches, it will obtain sanctity, (like the .) .(she-camel of Allah

: The retribution of sacrilege is the punishment of Allah. The verse says .r

Commentary : verse ٧٤

: In this verse, the Qur'ān says

And remember when He appointed you successors after 'Ād and settled you in the " "... ,earth

It means that, on one side, do not forget the abundant bounties of Allah, and, on the other side, be aware that there were some other rebellious nations before you, like the people of `Ād, who were involved in the punishment of Allah and were destroyed .as a result of their oppositions

Then, the Qur'ān emphasizes on some divine favours and possibilities of the people of Thumūd. It says that they lived on a land where there were level plains with some suitable soil. They had built castles on its plains and had made houses inside the : mountains for themselves. The verse adds

"... .you build castles on its plains and hew the mountains into houses ..."

And, at the end of the verse, it admonishes them to remember all the blessings of Allah so that they do not make mischief in the earth and not to be ungratitude due to : His bounties. The verse continues saying

'So remember Allah's bounties, and do not mischief in the earth, doing corruption ..."

Those who were arrogant said: ` We, indeed, disbelieve in that which you believe " .٧٦ "!

Commentary : verses ٧٥-٧٦

We see again that the wealthy and notable group of those people, who had a good seeming outward but an evil inward, began to oppose with this great messenger of Allah. This group of notable arrogant persons from among the people of Ṣāliḥ told some believing oppressed ones of them asking whether they really knew that Ṣāliḥ .was sent from the side of Allah to guide them

The chiefs of the arrogant among his people said to those who were considered " "...' ? weak those of them who believed ` Do you know that Ṣāliḥ is sent by his Lord

Then, before long, they faced with their decisive and sharp answer, which indicated of their firm and strong decision. Their answer was that they said not only they knew that Ṣāliḥ was sent by Allah, but also they believed in what he had been missioned for .and had invited people to it

: The verse says

"! They said: ` Surely we believe in what he has been sent with ..."

These proud arrogant chiefs did not cease their enmity and, in order to weaken the spiritual strength of the believers, they said to them that they did not believe in what .the believers believed

So they harmstrung the She-camel and revolted against their Lord's " .٧٧ commandment, and they said: ` O' Şāliḥ ! bring us that you promise us to, if you are of ".! the messengers

Commentary : verse ٧٧

The arrogant wealthy persons among Şāliḥ's people became despair of weakening the foundations of the Faith of masses of people who were faithful. On the other side, they saw that, with the existence of the `she-camel' which was counted as Şāliḥ's miracle, their hostile plots were remained useless. Then, they decided to destroy the `She-camel'. Before anything else, they harmstrung her and, disobeying Allah's : command, they killed her. The verse says

,So they harmstrung the She-camel and revolted against their Lord's commandment " "...

They did not suffice to this vice, but they came to Şāliḥ and vividly told him to bring .them Allah's punishment as soon as possible, if he was the messenger of Allah and they said: ` O' Şāliḥ ! bring us that you promise us to, if you are of the ..." ".!messengers

This word, in fact, was making a kind of fight against Şāliḥ in order to weaken the .spirit of both Şāliḥ and the believers

****

Then the earthquake seized them, so they became motionless bodies in their " dwellings

Commentary : verse ٧٨

In this verse, the destruction of the people of Thamūd is stated that it was done by earthquake. And, in Sura Fuṣṣilat, No. ٤١, verse ١٧, and Sura Ath-Thāriyāt, No. ٥١, verse ٤٤ it is said that it was done by rumbling : "... so the rumbling overtook them while they were yet looking on Rumbling destroyed them while they were gazing. Therefore, there were a combination of two retributions in one moment upon them

The Arabic term /jāim/ is applied for a person who has fallen on his knees and is not capable to stand up

! Thus, the Wrath of Allah (s.w.t.) befalls all of a sudden. Beware

: The verse says

Then the earthquake seized them, so they became motionless bodies in their " dwellings

.The promises of prophets are practically doable. So, take their warnings earnestly

In the former verses, it was recited : `... and do not touch her with any harm, lest a painful chastisement seizes you.'<sup>(١)</sup> This `earthquake' is the same `painful chastisement

There are many earthquakes and natural terrible events which themselves are the punishment of Allah

"... ,Then the earthquake seized them "

The current Sura, Verse ۷۳ ۱ -۱

وَقَالَ يَا قَوْمِ لَقَدْ أَبْلَغْتُكُمْ رَسُولَهُ مِنْ رَبِّي وَنَصَحْتُ لَكُمْ

وَلَكِنْ لَا تُحِبُّونَ النَّاصِحِينَ

Then he turned away from them and said: ` O' my people ! verily I have delivered " .٧٩ to you the Message of my Lord, and advised you sincerely; but you do not like sincere "! advisers

Commentary : verse ٧٩

The word of Ṣāliḥ to his people is probable to be fulfilled either before the descent of the chastisement in order to complete the argument, or after their destruction. It can be in the same manner that the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) also spoke to the dead bodies of disbelievers which were inside the Badr well. The audience asked him
" (p.b.u.h.) whether they were alive, and the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said : " yes

However, the mission of prophets is to convey the Divine message accompanied with sympathy and benevolence. It is not only a dry, bare communication, like the .communication of regulations and circulars in formal offices

"... ;and advised you sincerely ..."

Allah's retributions are given after delivering the message and completing the .argument

"... ,verily I have delivered to you the Message of my Lord ..."

By the way, we ought to like the advisers. He who dislikes those who work
.sympathetically, provides the means of the Wrath of Allah for himself

"! and advised you sincerely; but you do not like sincere advisers ..."

And (We sent) Lūt when he said to his people: ` What ! Do you commit an " ٨٠
" ' ? indecency which none in the world has ever done before you

! Verily you come to men in lust instead of women " ٨١

".Nay, you are an extravagant people

Commentary : verses ٨٠-٨١

Point

Prophet Lūt (a.s.) was from the family of Abraham (a.s.). He was the only man who believed in him and migrated with him. Sura Al-`Ankabūt, No. ٢٩, Verse ٢٦ says : " And
"... Lūt believed in him

.Abraham (a.s.) sent him to a zone where indecencies were circulated at that time

It has been narrated that they committed the act of sodomy upon their guests so that people be afraid of being a guest. As the Qur'ān points out, Prophet Lūt suggested .them to marry his daughters, but they did not accept

.There are some advantages in marriage which are absent in sodomy

A few of them are such as: ١) Affection, mercy, and intimate ease; ٢) offspring; ٣) forming a family organization; and ٤) the subjects of humanity and naturalness
.existed in marriage

Unfortunately, the world of the west has formally accepted the hideous act of

.sodomy, and in some European countries the action has become legal

The Qur'ānic phrase " their brother" has been used for Hūd, Sāliḥ, and Shu`ayb (Jethro) (a.s.), but it has not been applied for Lūt. Perhaps, this difference is for the sake that Lūt (a.s.) migrated from another zone for divine messengership

A great part of Lūt's preaching was upon the struggle against the indecencies and – ۱
.sexual prohibitions, since the most important problem of his society was indecency

Idol worshippers had the pretext of the belief of their ancestors in idolatry, but – ۲ followers of indecency had not this pretext, either. They themselves initiated this : crime and sin. The verse says

And (We sent) Lūt when he said to his people: ` What ! Do you commit an indecency "
" ' ? which none in the world has ever done before you

.He who abandons the way of nature, is counted as an extravagant person – ۳

: The verse says

Verily you come to men in lust instead of women! Nay, you are an extravagant "

And the answer of his people was no other than that they said: ` Expel them from " ٨٢
"! (your town; verily they are a people (who seek) to purify (themselves

Commentary : verse ٨٢

Point

This verse contains a hint to the illogical obstinate answer of those people of Lūt. It implies that they had no answer in response to the invitation of this benevolent and sympathetic prophet, save that they angrily ordered their men to expel Lūt and his followers from their town

What was their fault ? Their fault was that they were some pure people who did not use to commit sin

Those people of Lūt accused these pure believers that they not only did not have the same opinion of theirs, but also made trouble for them

: The verse says

And the answer of his people was no other than that they said: ` Expel them from "
"! (your town; verily they are a people (who seek) to purify (themselves

: Explanations

Sinners are illogical. " And the answer of his people was no other than that they said –١
"... ;: ` Expel them from your town

Whenever corruption of a society increases, the purified and sincere persons will –٢ be deserted, and purity is counted a crime therein. It will be like the state that criminals maintain no right in the society for the pure ones. " Expel them from your

"...;town

Thus, in the path of 'forbidding the wrong', we should be prepared to be banished,
.and for accepting other hardships

At the same time when the people of Lūt were accustomed to sins, they knew Lūt –۳
.and his followers as some purified persons

So We delivered him and his family, except his wife; she was of those who " ٨٣ ".(remained behind (in the ashes of punishment

Commentary : verse ٨٣

Regarding what was stated in the three above-mentioned holy verses, any just .arbitrator can issue the command of condemnation of this mischievous nation

That is why the Qur'ān in this verse implies that since they did thus, Allah saved Lūt and his true followers and his family, who were pious, except his wife, whom He left among the mischievous people, because, from the point of belief and creed, she was .the same as the people of Lūt were

: The verse says

So we delivered him and his family, except his wife; she was of those who remained "
".(behind (in the ashes of punishment

****

And We rained down on them a rain (of punishment). Consider then how the end " ٨٤ .
" ! of the guilty was

Commentary : verse ٨٤

Point

The destruction of the people of Lūt was done by means of raining aerolites over them. They were some aerolites like clay which were marked with the Lord. Or, every stone was particularized to destroy a definite person. This meaning is taken from Sura Hūd, No. ١١, Verses ٨٢-٨٣ which say : "... and rained down upon them stones, of what "... had been decreed, one after another." "Marked (for punishment) with your Lord

: The current verse itself is recited as follows

And We rained down on them a rain (of punishment). Consider then how the end of "
" ! the guilty was

Besides committing sodomy, the people of Lūt used to do some other indecencies. They used to gamble, to talk idle, to asperse, to throw stones at wayfarers, and to .uncover the privy parts before public eyes

.(Safīnat-ul-Biḥār, Vol. ٢, P. ٥١٧)

Upon the philosophy of prohibition of sodomy, Imam Sādiq (a.s.) has said : " Sodomy decreases the family affection between wife and husband and ceases generation. It destroys the natural sexual intercourse and brings up many other corruptions."
..(Wasā'il-ush-Shī` ah, Vol. ١٤, P. ٢٥٢

In Islam, the retribution of homosexuality and sodomy is execution, whether for the active sodomy or the passive sodomy. As a tradition narrated from Imam Sādiq (a.s.)

denotes, at the moment of performing homosexuality the throne of Heaven shakes, and on Resurrection Day its doer will be mustered in a state of major ritual impurity.

"The one will be involved in the Wrath of Allah and will be abide in Hell

The Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) said that the curse of Allah will

p: ۳۹۹

Commentary : verse ٨٥

: Jethro's Messengership in Madyan

Jethro, whose genealogical tree, according to the history records, with several dynasties reaches Abraham, was missioned to go towards the inhabitants of Madyan. At that time, Madyan was one of the cities of Syria the people of which were mostly merchants. Idolatry, short weighing, defraudation and falsification in social relationships were fully current among them. The explanation of the conflict and dispute between this great prophet (a.s.) and the inhabitants of Madyan is stated in several Suras

p: ۴۰۱

.of the Qur'ān, and in Sura Hūd, No. ١١ and Sura Ash-Shu`arā, No. ٢٤, in particular

In this current verse, the Qur'ān says that Allah sent to the people of Madyan their : brother Jethro. The verse says

"... And (We sent) unto (the people of Madyan their brother Shu`ayb "

Then the verse adds that Shu`ayb, like all other prophets, began his invitation with :the subject of Monotheism and, as the Qur'ān remarks

"... He said: ` O' my people ! Serve Allah ! You have no god other than Him ..."

He emphasized that not only the mentioned ordinance was the command of wisdom, but also it was proved by the clear evidences which had come from their Lord for
: them. The verse says

"... There has come to you a clear proof from your Lord ..."

Next to the invitation to monotheism, he tried to struggle against their social,
.economical, and ethical corruptions

At first, he restrained them from defraudation, falsification in social relationships which they were polluted with, and told them now that the path of Allah was revealed to them they should pay the right measure and weight so that the due things of : people might not be diminished. The verse says

"... ,Therefore give full measure and weight and do not diminish to men their things ..."

: Then, he points to one of other wrong actions of those people, and says

"... and do not make mischief in the earth after its improvement ..."

It is certain that none may make profit from making mischief, irrespective of ethical : mischief, faithlessness, and insecurity. So, at the end of the verse, it adds

".That is better for you, if you are believers ..."

٨٦- وَلَا تَقْعُدُوا بِكُلِّ صِرَاطٍ تُوعِدُونَ

وَإِذْ كُنتُمْ قَلِيلًا فَكَثَّرَكُمُ وَإِنظُرُوا

كَيْفَ كَانَ ع-اقِبَةُ الْمُفْسِدِينَ

And do not sit in every path, threatening and hindering from the path of Allah " ٨٦ those who believe in Him, desiring to make it crooked. And remember when you were ".few, then He multiplied you; and consider how the end of the mischief-makers was

Commentary : verse ٨٦

: In this verse, the fourth advice of Shu`ayb has been pointed out, where it says

And do not sit in every path, threatening and hindering from the path of Allah those " "... who believe in Him, desiring to make it crooked

Then, at the end of the verse, the fifth advice of Jethro has been referred to. It reminds them the bounties of Allah in order to stimulate the feeling of gratitude and : thanksgiving in them. The verse says

And remember ..."

"... ;when you were few, then He multiplied you

It is understood from this phrase of the verse that, in most instances, multiplicity of .persons can be the origin of power and greatness of the development of the society

Finally, the Qur'ān advises people to carefully observe the end of the mischief-mongers that how evil was their fate, and that they do not follow the way of makers .of mischief

".and consider how the end of the mischief-makers was ..."

٨٧- وَإِنْ كَانَ ط-إِنَّهُ مِنْكُمْ آمَنُوا بِالَّذِي أُرْسِلْتُ بِهِ

و ط-إِنَّهُ لَمْ يُؤْمِنُوا فَاصْبِرُوا حَتَّىٰ يَحْكُمَ اللَّهُ بَيْنَنَا

وَهُوَ خَيْرُ الْح-إِكْمِينَ

And if there is a party of you who believe in that with which I have been sent, and " ٨٧ a party who do not believe, then wait with patience until Allah judges between us, and ".He is the best of the judges

Commentary : verse ٨٧

The opponents of Jethro scornfully asked him where the punishment of Allah was. On the other side, the adherents of the Faith were also waiting for the helps of Allah. The content of the verse is something in the middle, so that neither the disbelievers .become proud nor the believers lose hope

Thus, the history of the adherents of both right and wrong should be studied .regarding the end of their fates

However, in the school of thought and philosophy of prophets, the Faith in the goal .and their way is important, not those persons themselves

: The verse says

And if there is a party of you who believe in that with which I have been sent, and a " party who do not believe, then wait with patience until Allah judges between us, and ".He is the best of the judges

The apparent seeming uniformity of the lives of this fleeting world of the disbelievers .and believers should not disturb you. Do persevere, since the final judge is Allah

مُبِينًا (سوره نساء ۴ آیه ۱۷۴)

O' mankind! Verily there has come to you a convincing proof (the Messenger and the " Qur'ān) from your Lord: for We have sent unto you a light (that is) manifest." (Holy Qur'ān ۴: ۱۷۴)

إِنَّا نَحْنُ نَزَّلْنَا الذِّكْرَ وَإِنَّا لَهُ لَحَافِظُونَ (سوره الحجر ۱۵ آیه ۹)

We have, without doubt, sent down the Message and We will assuredly Guard it " ((from corruption))." (Holy Qur'ān ۱۵: ۹)

وَمَنْ أَعْرَضَ عَنْ ذِكْرِي فَإِنَّ لَهُ مَعِيشَةً ضَنْكًا وَنَحْشُرُهُ يَوْمَ

الْقِيَامَةِ أَعْمَى (سوره طه ۰۲ آیه ۱۲۴)

But whosoever turns away from My Message (the Qur'ān), verily for him is a " straitened toilsome life, and We shall raise him up blind on the Day of Judgement." ((Holy Qur'ān ۲۰: ۱۲۴)

وَنُنزِّلُ مِنَ الْقُرْآنِ مَا هُوَ شِفَاءٌ وَرَحْمَةٌ لِّلْمُؤْمِنِينَ (سوره اسراء ۱۷ آیه ۸۲)

And We send down (stage by stage) of the Qur'ān that which is a healing and a " (mercy to those who believe..." , (Holy Qur'ān ۱۷: ۸۲)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

أَدْعُ إِلَى سَبِيلِ رَبِّكَ بِالْحُكْمِ وَالْمَوْعِظَةِ

الْحَسَنَةِ وَجِدِلْهُمْ بِالَّتِي هِيَ أَحْسَنُ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ

هُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَنْ ضَلَّ عَنْ سَبِيلِهِ وَهُوَ أَعْلَمُ

بِالْمُهْتَدِينَ

In The Name of Allah, The Beneficent, The Merciful

Invite (all) to the Way of your Lord with wisdom and beautiful

;exhortation; and debate with them in a way which is the best surely your Lord knows best who have strayed from His path and

.knows best who are (rightly) guided

For the main introductory of this endeavor in details, dear readers may refer to the first part of this very commentary of the Qur'ān. They can be familiar with some essential data towards the aim, which must surely be helpful along the way of .studying this book, too

In that introduction, it has been mentioned that the demand of those who have read the former volumes of this commentary, and are anxiously waiting for the rest parts of the translation of the Qur'ān to receive as soon as possible, caused the original explanatory in the substitutive volumes to be arranged rather concisely by the .compilers

Therefore, in this series, from part three of the Qur'ān on, every volume consists of the verses of about two parts of the Qur'ān. This current volume, for example, contains parts nine and ten, in addition to the remaining verses of Sura At-Taubah, so that the commentary of this Sura be completed here and the volume after it may .begin from the beginning of Sura Yūnus

Humbly we ask Allah, the Exalted, that He helps us, as ever before, to complete this holy endeavor successfully, even by the assistance of some other translators, so that we can offer the whole of it in our worldly lifetime to the truth-seekers throughout the .world

May He (s.w.t.) guide and assist all of us by the light of the Qur'ān to pave the Straight .path further and further, for we are always in need of it

Commentary: verse ٨٨

All prophets have been threatened to be expelled and banished. This is the logic of force. Sura ‘Ibrāhīm, No.١٤, verse ١٤ says: “ And those who disbelieved said to their apostles: ‘ We will most certainly drive you forth from our land, so else you shall come ” ... .back into our religion

The chiefs of the arrogant have always been the first enemies of prophets. The verse says:

”... :The chiefs of the arrogant among his people said “

The method of prophets is logic and reasoning, but the style of disbelievers is force and threat

The preachers of religion should not be afraid of the opponents’ threats, since there have always been threat and banishment in this way. The disbelievers told their prophet

” ... ,We will surely expel you, O Shu‘ayb ‘... “

Yet, be careful to use a kind word, politely and wisely, when you confront the :ignorances of disbelievers. Shu‘ayb answered them

” ’ ? (He (Shu‘ayb) said: ‘ what, even though we dislike (it...“

Commentary: verse ٨٩

The Qur’ānic term /millat/ has sometimes been used with the meaning of religion and .creed

Since the followers of Shu‘ayb had accepted their religion based upon reasoning and proof, (not upon desires), then they would not abandon it. Allah never commands upon returning to infidelity and paganism. He who returns from His command, surely the amount of his deed is so little that the one regrets from his action, while Allah is :not like that and He never reviews the religion. The verse says

We should have forged a lie against Allah if we returned into your creed after Allah “ ” ... .delivered us from it

The Qur’ānic term /fath/ and /fātih/, in these aspects, mean: ‘ judgement and ’ arbitration

The final word is said by Allah, in order that they might be delivered from this blind,
.and the path be paved

Therefore, opposite to the evil suggestions of the enemies, we must trust on Allah and
.show our conclusiveness

Never a believer is ready to collude on his beliefs, and he never returns from the :Truth. Turing back and retrogression is forbidden for a true Muslims. The verse says

” ... .It is not for us to return into it, unless Allah, our Lord, (so) will... “

.It is for this reason that we must submit the command of Allah and obey it

Do not forget to observe discipline and courtesy in speech. Instead of curse, invoke Allah the just arbitration

Our Lord comprehends all things in His knowledge. In Allah we have put our trust.... “

” ... ,Our Lord! Decide between us and our people with truth

In supplication, the relationship between the demand and the Divine Names should be .considered

٩٠- وَقَالَ الْمَلَأُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ قَوْمِهِ لِيُنَّ اتَّبَعْتُمْ شُعَيْبًا إِنَّكُمْ إِذًا لَخَاسِرُونَ

Shu‘ayb

”.’ you will indeed be losers

Then the earthquake seized them, so they became motionless bodies in their“ ٩١
”.dwellings

Commentary: verses ٩٠-٩١

In this verse, the term /rajfah/ (earthquake) has been used for the punishment of those people, while in Sura Hūd, No.١١, verse ٩٤ the word /sayhah/ (rumbling) has been applied, and in Sura Ash-Shu‘arā, No.٢٤, verse ١٨٩ the phrase “... the punishment of the day of cloud ...”, which is a covering produced by an annihilating cloud, is mentioned as their torment. This shows that the earthquake of their chastisement .had been accompanied with rumbling and an annihilating dark cloud

The Arabic term /jāθm/ is derived from /jaθm/ which means: to sit upon the knee and to stay in one place. As if, the punishment seized them at night when they were asleep. They woke up, but they had neither enough time to save themselves nor any .ability to escape. So, they were destroyed while they were in the state of half-raised

.Most of the opponents of divine prophets were from the kind of rich notables

”... :And the chiefs of those who disbelieved from among his people said“

.One of the methods of disbelievers is threat by means of economical siege

”.’ If you follow Shu‘ayb, you will indeed be losers ‘...“

****

When they became like that, they increased their own aberration by persisting on leading others astray. There was no hope that they might believe. Therefore, basing on the decree of the law of effacing the effects of corruption, the divine punishment :fell upon them. The verse says

Then the earthquake seized them, so they became motionless bodies in their “
”.dwellings

Those who belied Shu‘ayb became (perished) as if they had never dwelt therein.“ .٩٢
”.Those who belied Shu‘ayb were themselves the losers

Commentary: verse ٩٢

The Arabic term /yaqnau/, used in this verse, is derived from / qinā / which means: ‘ to
? dwell in a place

The great loss belongs to the idolaters. Instead of belief in one God, they ascribe partners, and instead of accepting the guidance of the immaculates, they refer to .others supposing to be led

Therefore, instead of a secured life, they will be destroyed of everything; and instead of being admitted into Heaven, they will enter Hell Fire, since, instead of Allah’s
.pleasure, they have incurred His Wrath

Thus, the plots of the people of Shu‘ayb, who were the followers of falsehood, were of no avail. They wanted to expel Shu‘ayb from their town, but they themselves were .destroyed in their own houses

That is why that sometimes it happens that the places of refuge change to places of massacre. (The town of the people of Shu‘ayb, for example, was a pleasant place for them and also it was used as a means of threat against Shu‘ayb by them. But that
.town was ruined upon them and became a means of their destruction

It is at the time of incurring the Wrath of Allah that the real losers are recognized. The :above verse is its Qur'ānic evidence. It says

Those who belied Shu'ayb became (perished) as if they had never dwelt therein.“
”.Those who belied Shu'ayb were themselves the losers

****

٩٣- فَتَوَلَّى عَنْهُمْ وَقَالَ يَا قَوْمِ لَقَدْ أُبْلِغْتُكُمْ رِسَالَاتِ رَبِّي وَنَصَحْتُ لَكُمْ فَكَيْفَ آسَىٰ عَلَىٰ قَوْمٍ كَافِرِينَ

So he turned away from them, and said: ‘ O’ my people! I have delivered to you “ .٩٣ the messages of my Lord, and advised you sincerely; so how shall I then grieve for a ”?disbelieving people

Commentary: verse ٩٣

Again, for a more intensive emphasis, it says that those who belied Shu‘ayb were the losers, not those who believed in him. Thus, such people are addressed in the holy :verse as follows

So he turned away from them, and said: ‘ O’ my people! I have delivered to you the “ ” ... ;messages of my Lord, and advised you sincerely

When Shu‘ayb saw them in the threshold of chastisement and destruction, he hopelessly turned away from them, and told them that he had conveyed the messages of Allah to them and had advised them, but refusing his words, they did not .hearken to him

That is, that punishment was very hard and painful, but they were deserve to incur it .as a result of the crimes they had committed

”?So how shall I then grieve for a disbelieving people... “

Then Suh‘ayb, in a positive interrogation with a negative sense, said why he should grieve for a people who disbelieved and incurred the punishment of Allah for .themselves. This statement means that he said he did not grieve for them

Thus Shu‘ayb consoles himself, because he had made his best and applied all the necessary efforts to guide aright those people. But, alas, they disobeyed arrogantly .and that torment was their recompense

Commentary : verse ۹۴

The Qur’ānic term /ba’sā’/ means some calamities which reach the soul, like death; (while the term /ḍarrā’/ means: financial damages. (Tafsīr-i-Furqān

As an Allah’s way of treatment, there are some bitter events and calamities for all .nations

It is noteworthy that difficulties and hardships are usually some functional factors in removing neglectfulness and in training man. Also, calamities are not always the Wrath of Allah. They are sometimes the grace of Allah in the form of misfortunes.
(Like some iron which, as a result of being heated in the furnace, becomes soft and changeable into different shapes. Afflictions cause man to be mild, too.) Difficulties
.also make Man humiliate and supplicate

:The verse says

And We did not send a prophet in any town but We overtook its people with distress “
”and affliction that they might humble themselves

For more details upon the meaning of the Qur’ānic terms /ba’sā’/ and /darrā’/, refer to the commentary of Sura Al-’An‘ām, No. ٤, verse ٤٢, vol. ٥, p. ١٢٤ the current English

95. Then We altered the ill (circumstances) to good, until they multiplied, and said “

‘Distress and happiness did indeed touch our fathers ‘

”.So We seized them suddenly while they did not perceive

Commentary : verse ٩٥

The Arabic term /‘afau/, mentioned in this verse, means

‘ the abundance of wealth and children ‘

The grace of Allah reached to be full unto them, but they did not become aware nor
.did they take an example

A nearly similar meaning to this statement is recited in Sura Al-’An‘ām, No. ٦, verse ٤٤, where it says: “ Then, when they forgot that which they had been admonished to, We opened the doors of all things (of enjoyments), until when they rejoiced in what they were given, We seized them suddenly when, behold, they were in utter despair.” The case is similar to the condition of a sick person whose physician becomes disappointed of him to be healed. Then he tells the people around him that they let him eat everything he wishes, because it is indifferent for the diseased person, and he .is passing away

However, as some commentators have said, there may also be another meaning for this verse. That meaning is that, after the removal of difficulties, the following generation said that bitter events were for their fathers and these offsprings were in security. They were neglectful that Allah's way of treatment in seizing people encompasses all generations, and such negligences are the secret of the Wrath of Allah Therefore, passing by the bitter and sweet incidents heedlessly, and taking no example of them, brings forth the Wrath of Allah thereafter. This status is a sign of unawareness in such people

”while they did not perceive ...“

Not every kind of welfare and happiness is a sign of the Grace of Allah. They may sometimes prepare the field for the Wrath of Allah. The verse says

”... ,Then We altered the ill (circumstances) to good, until they multiplied “

Sometimes it happens that the welfare of a person causes his neglectfulness and his (disobedience from the command of Allah (s.w.t

”... ’and said: ‘ Distress and happiness did indeed touch our fathers...“

Most of those who fail in the Divine trials are the rich and the people who are in welfare, not the deprived ones

It should also be noted that the Wrath of Allah does not inform men when it has to come, but it comes suddenly

:The verse says

”So We seized them suddenly while they did not perceive ...“

وَلٰكِن كَذَّبُوٓا۟ فَاَخَذْنَاھُمْ بِمَا كَانُوٓا۟ يَكْسِبُوْنَ

And if the people of the towns had believed and kept from evil, We would have “ ٩٦ .
,certainly opened up for them blessings from the heaven and the earth
;but they belied
”so We seized them for what they used to earn

Commentary : verse ٩٦

The Arabic term /barakāt/ is the plural form of /barakah/. It is applied for the fix and continual favours. On the contrary, there are some fleeting things in the senses of blessing, plurality of good and its multiplication. Blessings include both material and .spiritual bounties, like blessings in lifetimes, in knowledge, and in books

:The verse says

And if the people of the towns had believed and kept “ from evil, We would have certainly opened up for them
”... ,blessings from the heaven and the earth

It implies that if the people of the towns, who were destroyed because of denial and disobedience, had testified the Divine prophets and had avoided polytheism and sinning, Allah would have bestowed upon them the increasing blessings from the .heaven and the earth by means of rain and abundance of plants and fruits

Noah also promised his people if they believed, the blessings of heaven would be sent .down unto them

Some commentators say that blessings of the heaven, mentioned in this holy verse, refer to the supplications which are answered, and the blessings of the earth are the .fulfilment of the requests

:The verse continues saying but they belied; so We seized them for what ...“

”.they used to earn

That is, they rejected the divine prophets, and Allah punished them for the recompense of their disobediences, oppositions, and belying the prophets by ceasing rain from them, and, consequently, the blessings of the earth were restrained from
.them

” ? upon them by night while they are sleeping

What! do the people of the towns feel secure from Our punishment coming upon “ .٩٨

Commentary : verses ٩٧-٩٨

It questions whether the people of towns, who reject the prophets, are secure from the punishment of Allah when it comes down upon them while they are asleep at night, the same as it befell upon the former people

:The verse says

What! do the people of the towns then feel secure from Our punishment coming “ upon them by night
” ? while they are sleeping

****

Again, it questions whether the people of towns are secure from the punishment of Allah when it seizes them at the day time while they are busy doing some vain affairs

:The verse says

What! do the people of the towns feel secure from Our punishment coming upon “
” ? them in daylight while they are playing

It is evident that whoever is busy with the mere affairs of this world and does not .heed the affairs of Hereafter is in vain and, as if, he is playing around

The purpose of the Qur’ānic phrase ‘ the people of the towns ’ is any group of people who are busy with some useless affairs, and who reject divine prophets, and they .refrain worshipping One God

The occasion of revelation of these two verses, of course, was the obstinacies of the .pagans of Mecca

What! Do they then feel secure from Allah's plan (sudden punishment)? But none " .٩٩ feels secure

".from Allah's plan save the people (who are) losers

Commentary : verse ٩٩

The verse begins thus: " what! do they then feel secure from Allah's plan (sudden
"... ? (punishment

The verse implies whether these disbelieving people are secure when the divine
.punishment befalls them so that they do not understand

The reason that the divine punishment is called here ' plan ' is that it seizes them in a .way that they do not know it and they do not understand it

.A plan, or plot, usually attacks the opposite party unawares

:The verse continues saying

But none feels secure from Allah's plan save the people ..."

".who are) losers)

That is, except the people who are losers, and they do not know it, no one feels .secure from the plan of Allah

The purpose of this verse is to attract the attention of the responsible ones to be careful and attentive that they should be afraid of Allah's punishment, and they should obey Him. Never should they promise themselves security from that punishment, otherwise they will be involved in chastisement both in this world and
.Hereafter

Commentary : verse ۱۰۰

Once more in this verse, in order to awaken the neglectful minds of the present people, and making them attentive of the instructive lessons which had existed in the lives of the former nations, the Qur'ān inquires whether those who inherit the earth next to the possessors of it did not take admonition from the study of the situation of the former nations. They should understand that if Allah pleases, He is able to destroy ,them too, for their faults, and inflicts them with the same evil end that the former sinners

.suffered

:The verse says

Does He not guide (thereby) those who inherit the earth after its (former) residents “ that if We please We ”... will destroy them (too) for their sins

Allah is also able to leave them alive, while, because of their committing sins and corruptions, He seals their hearts and let them not perceive and recognize the truth, so that they never hear the truth and do not accept any advice. Such people will be

These are the towns some of whose tidings We “ .١٠١

,recount unto you; and certainly their Messengers came to them with manifest proofs but they would not believe in what they had belied from before. Thus does Allah set a ”.seal on the hearts of the infidels

Commentary : verse ١٠١

In this verse, as well as the next one, the emphasis is again on the lessons which can be taken from the explanation of the former people’s events. But, here, the addressee is the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), although the objective is indeed all human beings

:At first, it says

These are the towns some of whose tidings “

”... ;We recount unto you

Then, the verse implies that it was not such that they became annihilated without completing the argument, but surely their divine prophets went to them with clear evidences and those prophets tried their utmost effort to guide them. The holy verse :continues saying and certainly their Messengers came to them ...“

”... ,with manifest proofs

But they steadily showed opposition against the continuous preaches and repeated invitations of their prophets and persisted on their own saying. They were not ready to accept and believe in that :which they had belied before. Here is what the verse says but they would not believe in what they had ...“

”... .belied from before

The cause of this obstinacy has been stated in the next sentence of the holy verse, as
:follows

”.Thus does Allah set a seal on the hearts of the infidels ...“

That is, those who step in the path of wrong, as a result of repetition and continuation of action, some corruptions such as perversion, infidelity, and impurity settle in their covenant, and verily We found most of them ”to be wrong-doers

Commentary : verse ١٠٢

The objective meaning of the word ‘ ‘ahd ’, (covenant), mentioned in the verse, is either the relation between Allah and the sound innate disposition of people, or the invitation and laws of prophets, or the special covenants which sometimes people made with prophets saying that, for example, if the prophet performed so and so as a miracle or solved a particular difficulty of theirs, they would believe. One of the evidences of this kind in the Qur’ān is Sura ‘A‘rāf, No. ٧, verses ١٣٤ and ١٣٥ which say: “ And when the plague fell upon them, they said: ‘ O’ Moses! invoke your Lord for us by the covenant He has made with you. If you remove the plague from us, we will certainly believe in you, and we will certainly send with you the Children of Israel ’.” “ But when We removed the plague from them until a term which they should reach, ”.(behold, they broke (their promise again

Allah has made manifest some facts for human beings through both innate disposition and prophets in order that they may have confederation and submission unto them. But most people neglect the cry of innate disposition and prophets, and going out of :the path of the truth, they become wrong-doers. The verse says

”... ,And, We did not find in most of them any (firm) covenant “

Thus, the secret of the destruction of the former nations was breach of promise and .disobedience

”.and verily We found most of them to be wrong-doers ...“

.Allah has praised the faithful and blamed the breachers of promise

Commentary : verse ١٠٣

The name of Moses (a.s.) has been repeated more than ١٣٠ times in the Qur’ān. No other name has been mentioned therein as numerous as his name. As it is cited in Al-Mizān, the Commentary, the Qur’ān has referred to the divine miracles concerning no prophet as many as it has (.mentioned for Moses (a.s

The story of Moses (a.s.), mentioned in the Qur’ān, can be staged into five steps: ١)
The birth and childhood of Moses. ٢) His escape from the city of Madyan and living with Shuaib (Jethro). ٣) His mission and his problems with Pharaoh. ٤) His own deliverance and that of his people from Pharaoh, and returning to Palestine. ٥) His .conflicts with the Children of Israel

This Sura, Al-’A’rāf, is the first Meccan Sura which has referred to the story of Moses (.(a.s

One of the philosophies of the mission of prophets is standing against false deities.
For general improvement of a society, the chiefs and great members of that society should be referred to first, because water must be purified from its head-source, as the

:verse says

”... ,Then, after them, We sent Moses with Our Signs unto Pharaoh and his chiefs “

People’s faith in the truth usually causes their society to be improved, while disbelief
:and heresy draw it towards corruption. The verse continues saying

Commentary : verse ١٠٤

Prophets claimed nothing but their prophecy and invitation to the Truth. In the way of their invitation, they used to address the false deities of their time bravely and without .any fear and opposed them

Commentary : verse ١٠٥

Prophets are infallible, and they say nothing but the truth. From the tongue of Moses,
:the verse says

I am) worthy of saying nothing about Allah) “

” ... .except the truth

Prophets should have miracles to prove their prophecy, as the verse refers to it and
:says

Indeed I have come to you with a clear Sign ... “

”... ;a miracle) from your Lord)

To provide the freedom of human beings is among the first aims of prophets. Except them, whoever takes the rein of the government in a society, drags those people into .servitude of false deities

As long as people are not delivered from the ties of false deities, it is not possible to offer them a complete cultural program to guide them. That was why Moses (a.s.) said
:to Pharaoh

”so send forth with me the Children of Israel ... “

Commentary : verses ١٠٦-١٠٧

:The Definition of a Miracle

The Arabic term /mu‘jizah/ is derived from the root /‘ajaza/ which means an action that those who have not the capacity and genius of prophethood or imamate are unable to do it, such as the act of Moses by his Rod, or the act of Jesus in raising men :from the dead, and so on. The verse says

He (Pharaoh) said: ‘ If you have come with a Sign “

”.’a miracle), then bring it, if you are of the truthful ones)

In Sura Ash-Shu‘arā, No. ٢٦, verse ٤٥ we recite: “ Then Moses cast down his staff, and ”..lo! It swallowed that which they falsely displayed

There were also some more miracles appeared from that Rod. It was struck the water of the sea when it dried up. Sura Ash-Shu‘arā, No. ٢٦, verse ٤٣ says: “ Strike the sea with your staff ...” Or, it was struck the rock and fountains of water gushed forth ”...’.from it. Sura Al-Baqarah, No. ٢, verse ٦٠ says: “ ... Strike the rock with your staff

It should be explained that at the presence of Moses (a.s.) the Rod changed to be a small snake, as Sura An-Naml, No. ٢٧, verse ١٠ says: “ And cast down your staff, so when he saw it in motion as if it was a serpent...” At the presence of people it seemed an ordinary snake. Sura Tāhā, No. ٢٠, verse ٢٠ says: “ Then he cast it down, and lo! it was a serpent running.” But, at the presence of Pharaoh, it became a great clear snake, as the verse under discussion says

”.So he threw his rod, then behold! it was a clear serpent “

:However, a miracle should be clear for all, so that no doubt remains. The verse says

”.then behold! it was a clear serpent ... “

”Then he drew out his hand, and behold! it was white to the beholders “

Commentary : verse ١١٠

In order to pervert the common opinions, Pharaoh tried to denigrate Moses (a.s.). From the point of belief, he called Moses (a.s.) a sorcerer, and from the social and political points of view, he introduced him as a seditious and quarrelsome person. One of the weapons of the opponents is to denigrate the men of the Truth. The verse, :from the tongue of Pharaoh, says

”... .He (Moses) intends to expel you from your land “

In their consultation, however, the attitude of all of them was that they told him to keep Moses and Aaron (a.s.) in suspense in order to collect sorcerers. The verse says as follows

Commentary : verses ١١٣-١١٤

From this verse on, the words are upon the entanglement of Moses with the sorcerers and the end of his struggle therein

The verse implies that, by the invitation of Pharaoh, sorcerers went to him, and the first thing that they told him was that whether they would have a large reward if they could overcome the enemy. Here is the verse

And the sorcerers came to Pharaoh, they said: ‘ verily there will be a reward for us if “ ” .’we are victors

****

Immediately after that, Pharaoh also gave them a favorable promise, and said that not only he would give them a good financial reward but also they would be of the near-stationed to him. The verse says

” ’ ? throwers

He (Moses) said: ‘ Throw (yours) ! ’ So when they threw, they bewitched the “ .١١٦
” .people’s eyes and terrified them and produced a great magic

Commentary : verses ١١٥-١١٦

Finally, a proper time was appointed for the meeting of Moses (a.s.) and the sorcerers .to have their attempts. So all people were invited to come and see the event

When the appointed day came, the sorcerers were completely ready with all their tools for the action. They had supplied some ropes and staffs which, it seemed, they had been filled with some special chemical materials. These materials could be changed into the form of some light gases before sunshine which could move those .ropes and hollow staffs

It was a wonderful scene. Moses, standing before people and the sorcerers, was alone. Only his brother, Aaron, was with him. The sorcerers told Moses either he would begin the action and cast his means first, or they might start and cast their own :means. The verse in this regard says

They (the sorcerers) said: ‘ O’ Moses! Will you throw, or shall we be the (first) “
” ’ ? throwers

Moses, with a particular coolness, answered them that they could begin first. The
:verse says

'... ! (He (Moses) said: ' Throw (yours "

When the sorcerers threw down their ropes and other means on the ground, they fascinated people and, by their deceitful deeds and exaggerative statements, they cast a sudden fear and terror upon people, and caused a great sorcery to be

Commentary : verse ١١٧

At the moment when all people were excited, and happy shouts were heard from every side, Pharaoh and his by-standers were watching the scene of activities of sorcerers, while they were smiling contently and their eyes were glittering with joy. Then suddenly the Divine revelation came unto Moses (a.s.), bidding him to throw down the staff. It caused the scene to be changed wholly. The faces of audience lost their colour, and instability overtook Pharaoh and his adherents

In this verse, the Qur’ān refers to the very fact. It implies that Allah revealed to Moses (a.s.) to throw down his Rod. It became as a huge serpent which quickly and precisely :gathered all false snakes and artificial means of the sorcerers. The holy verse says

’ And We revealed to Moses: ‘ Throw down your rod “

Commentary : verses ١١٨-١٢٠

It was thus that the truth was manifested and the acts of sorcerers, which were baseless and improper, were nollified. The verse says

”So the truth was established and what they were doing was made vain “

The reason of this incident was that the deed of Moses (a.s.) was a reality while the sorcerers’ deeds were some deceits, trickeries, dissimulations, juggleries and delusions

This was the first stroke which was struck upon the foundation of the power of Pharaoh, the arrogant

Commentary : verse ١٢٣

When a new stroke was struck upon the bases and pillars of the power and authority of Pharaoh because of the victory of Moses (a.s.) over the sorcerers and that they believed in Moses (a.s.), Pharaoh was frightened and got excited. That was why he applied two plots as follows

The first was his accusation against the sorcerers which perhaps was admired by common people. The verse says

”... ?Pharaoh said: ‘ Did you believe in him before I should give you permission “

This is the worst form of colonialism that a nation be taken as slaves and captives so that they may not have even the right of thinking, contemplating, and heartily believing in a person or a religion

This is the very plan which, in the present age, is pursued under the title of ‘ New colonialism ’, too

:Then, Pharaoh added

Surely this is a plot you have plotted in the city that you may expel its people from ...“
”... ,it

This accusation was so unfounded and infamous that none could accept, except some

After that, Pharaoh threatened them ambiguously, but it was said intensively and :firmly. He said

” ! (but soon you shall know (the consequences ...“

124. Surely I will cut off your hands and your feet “

”.’ on opposite sides, then I will certainly crucify you all

”.’ They said: ‘ Verily unto our Lord we return “ .125

Commentary : verses 124-125

The ambiguous threat of Pharaoh, which was referred to in the previous verse, is clearly stated in the verse under discussion. Here, Pharaoh takes an oath that he cuts off their hands and feet on opposite sides, i.e. the right hand and the left foot, or the left hand and the right foot. The verse says

Surely I will cut off your hands and your feet “

,on opposite sides

”.’ then I will certainly crucify you all

What Pharaoh undertook here against the sorcerers, who had believed in Moses (a.s.), was a general behaviour that usually the tyrannical rulers have in their cowardly oppositions against the adherents of the Truth. On one side, they use the weapon of accusation against the demandant of the Truth to weaken them and their position both in the view of common people. And, on the other side, they rely on force, power, and threat to slaughter and destruction in order to break down their authority and will

***

None of the two weapons of Pharaoh could defeat the decision of the sorcerers. In their answer, they heartily and decidedly refused him, as follows

”.’ They said: ‘ Verily unto our Lord we return “

They said this statement with the meaning that if the Pharaoh’s threat could be done, they finally would become martyrs. In that case, not only the event might not harm them or decrease anything from them, but also it could be considered as an honour .and a happiness for them

And you do not take revenge upon us except because we have believed in the “ ١٢٦ . ‘ Our Lord! Pour out upon us patience ,signs of our Lord when they came to us.’ and cause us to die in submission ”.

Commentary : verse ١٢٦

Then, in order to respond the accusation of Pharaoh, and to make the truth clear for the audience of the concerning scene, and, also, to prove their own sinlessness, the :sorcerers said

And you do not take revenge upon us except because “ we have believed in the signs of our Lord when ... ’.they came to us

At that time, they turned their faces from Pharaoh and, being attentive to Allah, they invoked Him to bestow upon them the highest degree of patience and perseverance. They knew that they could not tolerate those terrible threats without His help and His :support. So, they said

Our Lord! Pour out upon us patience, and cause us ‘ ... “ ’. to die in submission

As it has been recorded in the Islamic traditions, as well as the history, finally the sorcerers resisted on their idea so much so that Pharaoh fulfilled what he had threatened, and he hung their mutilated bodies on some tall palm trees by the bank of .Nile River

Yes, if belief and full awareness combine with together, the income of such a spiritual

Commentary: verse ١٢٧

After seeing the belief of the sorcerers, in order to move Pharaoh, the chiefs of his people told him whether he left Moses and his followers alive to oppose him and make other people oppose and, consequently, to take the control of government from Pharaoh and to make mischief in the country. They would also leave out both him and :his gods. The verse says

:And the chiefs of Pharaoh's people said “

Will you leave Moses and his people to make mischief in the land, and to desert you ‘
”... ’?and your gods

Pharaoh answered them that he would kill their sons who were the encouragement of those people and whom they were making ready for fighting, while he would leave their daughters alive because they could do nothing against him. Pharaoh said that he could make of their females servants so that they became lowing and miserable. The :holy verse continues saying

”... ,He said: ‘ Soon we will kill their sons and spare their women ...“

It is understood from this sentence that Pharaoh did not expect to kill Moses (a.s.) and his followers since he had recognized their power unfailing. Therefore, he decided to :attack the defendless children and to destroy them. The verse ends thus

”.’ and surely we are in power over them ...“

Commentary : verse ١٢٨

There are two commandments accompanied with two glad tidings referred to in this holy verse. The commandments are seeking help from Allah ' and ' endurance ' ; and the glad tidings are ' the inheritance ' of the earth ' and ' the good end of the pious

It also indicates that seeking help from Allah and having confidence in Allah together with perseverance and piety are among the factors of the final victory and protection against threats. This means that we must both seek help from Allah and endure ourselves. The verse says

"... Moses said to his people: ' Seek help from Allah and endure "

Another matter is that, at the sensitive times, a leader must console the community and make them hopeful, because the hope to a clear future is the promise of all religions including Islam. Moreover, the pious people, not only have a good end in this world, but also are victorious in the next world

The Children of Israel expected all the affairs be promptly corrected in one night after the raise of Moses (a.s.), and the country of Egypt, with all its facilities, could be in their authority, and the Pharaonic people would be annihilated. That was why they claimed .that the raise of Moses (a.s.) did not bring comfort for them

The reply of Allah (s.w.t.) is that triumph needs some conditions, such as patience, struggle, and reliance. When these conditions are supplied, there is a hope to the help .of Allah

It was thus that the divine leaders were sometimes criticized by some friends who :were of little capacity and of little tolerance. The verse says

Most of people imagine that happiness and felicity is found in comfort and tranquility.
They suppose that the lack of them is as a failure to obtain their desires. They are neglectful that the Divine religions have .come to correct the ways of lives, not to efface their difficulties

A leader should hearken to critics and send some hope-giving messages. The verse
:continues saying

He said: ‘ Maybe that your Lord will destroy your enemy and make you successors ...‘
”... ,in the earth

An Islamic government is a means of trial not a means of seeking pleasure. Then, the :verse concludes as follows

”then He observes how you act ...“

Point

The Israelites rescued – They were still after idol gods – Moses admonishes them to stick only to the true God Who had rescued them and bestowed on them great favours.

۱۳۰-وَلَقَدْ أَخَذْنَا آلَ فِرْعَوْنَ بِالسِّنِينَ وَنَقْصٍ مِنَ الثَّمَرَاتِ

لَعَلَّهُمْ يَذَّكَّرُونَ

And certainly We afflicted the clan of Pharaoh with drought and scarcity of fruits, “ ۱۳۰. ”.so that they may take admonition

Commentary : verse ۱۳۰

The Arabic word /sinīn/ is the plural form of /sanah/ which means ‘ year ’; but when it is used with the term /’ax.../ in the Arabic contexts, it often means: ‘ to afflict with drought and famine ’. The Qur’ān implies that Allah afflicted Pharaoh and his clan with drought and famine because of the indecent manner that they committed. The verse says

”... And certainly We afflicted the clan of Pharaoh with drought “

It also implies that besides famine and drought, Allah afflicted them with scarcity of fruits in order that they be in awe and to become monotheists, but they did not change their way. The verse continues saying

”.and scarcity of fruits, so that they may take admonition ...“

١٣١- فَإِذَا جَاءَتْهُمْ الْحَسَنَةُ قَالُوا لَنَا هَذِهِ وَإِنْ تُصِيبُهُمْ سَيِّئَةٌ يَطَّيَّرُوا

بِمُوسَىٰ وَمَنْ مَعَهُ أَلَّا إِنَّمَا طَآئِرُهُمْ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

:So, when any good came to them, they said “ ١٣١ .

,This is our due ’; and if any evil afflicted them ‘

.they took it bad omens due to Moses and those with him

Be it known! Surely the cause of their bad omens is with Allah, but most of them do not ” .know

Commentary : verse ١٣١

Whenever they obtained abundance of good, they said that it was for their own due that there had continuously been bounties in their cities, and, therefore, they did not
:thank Allah. The verse says

:So, when any good came to them, they said “

”... ;’ This is our due ‘

But when they afflicted famine and starvation, they took Moses and his followers bad
:omens and said that it was due to them. In this regard, the verse says and if any evil afflicted them, they took it bad omens due to Moses and those with ... “

”... .him

Their real misfortune was as a result of their own sins and evil deeds. Such things cause the punishment of Allah for them both in this world and the Hereafter. The
:verse says

”... ,Be it known! Surely the cause of their bad omens is with Allah ... “

But most of them do not know it, and do not contemplate to know this fact. The verse
:ends as follows

”but most of them do not know ...“

p: ٧١

۱۳۲- وَقَالُوا مَهْمَا تَأْتِنَا بِهِ مِنْ آيَةٍ لِنَسْحَرَنَّ بِهَا

فَمَا نَحْنُ لَكَ بِمُؤْمِنِينَ

And they said: ‘ Whatever sign you may bring to us to charm us with it, we will not “ .۱۳۲
”.’ believe in you

Commentary : verse ۱۳۲

The enemies knew that the job of Moses was not magic and also knew that it was a
.Divine Sign, but they arrogantly and obstinately did not believe

But, when the sorcerers, who were expert in their job, understood that the .accomplishment of Moses (a.s.) was not a magic, they believed

Perhaps, the manner of the people of Pharaoh, that they called the accomplishment
.of Moses ‘ a sign ’, had been done mockingly

:The verse says

And they said: ‘ Whatever sign you may bring to us to “

”.’ charm us with it, we will not believe in you

۱۳۳-فَارْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمُ الطُّوفَانَ وَالْجَرَادَ وَالْقُمَّلَ وَالضَّفَادِعَ

وَالدَّمَ ءَايَاتٍ مُّفَصَّلَاتٍ فَاسْتَكْبَرُوا وَكَانُوا قَوْمًا مُّجْرِمِينَ

So We sent against them the flood and the locusts and the vermin and the frogs “ ۱۳۳ .
”and the blood as distinct signs, yet they acted proudly and they were a guilty people

Commentary : verse ۱۳۳

Point

:The Arabic term /tūfān/ in the Persian language means hurricane ’, but in the Arabic language it has been used with the sence of: ‘ a violate ‘ flood ’. In Mufradāt-i-Rāqib, it is cited that the word /ṭūfān/ is applied for any common

.event which is horrible

The Arabic word /qummal/ means: some small insects, such as: lice, ants, aphids, and a .kind of insects

Blood ’, which was among the divine signs and a punishment for the opponents of ‘ the people of Moses (a.s.), means: the change of water(s) into blood, or a common
.bleeding of people

The attack of locusts, flood, and ‘ water being altered into blood ’ were ordained only
.against the people of Pharaoh, while the Children of Israel were in security

Some punishments against the people of Pharaoh

The explanation of these punishments have been mentioned in the Turah, too. Some :evidences are as follows

The river turned into blood ..... Exodus, Chapter ۷, verse ۲۰-۱

Swarm of flies ..... Exodus, Chapter ۸, verse ۲۱ and verse ۲۴-۲

The plague of hail ..... Exodus, Chapter ٩, verse ٢٤ and verse ٢٥ -٣

The attack of locusts ..... Exodus, Chapter ١٠, verses ١٢ and ١٤ -٤

After Allah's warning and people's heedlessness, it is the turn of some grievous
.retributions to come forth

:The verse says

So We sent against them the flood and the locusts and the vermin and the frogs and “ the blood

”... ,as distinct signs

Living creatures are the agents of Allah. Their mission is sometimes to bring mercy, like the spider's web at the doorway of the cave for the protection of the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.). And, it is sometimes a chastisement mission, like that of the .swallows, and, in this verse, the mission of frogs and locusts

However, many calamities are often for training. In any retribution, there is a respite for people to contemplate and repent and return to the Straight Path. Therefore, the .Divine retributions come after completing the argument

:They saw the divine sign and punishment, yet they acted arrogantly. The verse says

”.yet they acted proudly and they were a guilty people ...“

١٣٤- وَلَمَّا وَقَعَ عَلَيْهِمُ الرِّجْزُ قَالُوا يَا مُوسَى ادْعُ لَنَا رَبَّكَ

بِمَا عَاهَدَ عِنْدَكَ

لَئِنْ كَشَفْتَ عَنَّا الرِّجْزَ لَنُؤْمِنَنَّ لَكَ وَلَنُرْسِلَنَّ

مَعَكَ بَنِي إِسْرَائِيلَ

١٣٥- فَلَمَّا كَشَفْنَا عَنْهُمْ الرِّجْزَ إِلَى أَجَلٍ هُمْ بِالْغُورِهِ إِذَا هُمْ يَنْكُتُونَ

١٣٤. “ And when the plague fell upon them, they said

‘ O’ Moses! invoke your Lord for us by the covenant He has made with you. If you ‘ remove the plague from us, we will certainly believe in you, and we will certainly send ”.’ with you the Children of Israel

But when We removed the plague from them until a term which they should “ ١٣٥ . “ (reach, behold, they broke (their promise again

Commentary : verses ١٣٤-١٣٥

The Arabic term /nakθ/ originally means: ‘ to untwist a rope ’, but later it has been :used in the sense of ‘ breaking a covenant ’, or ‘ violating an oath ’. The verse says

“ And when the plague fell upon them, they said

‘ O’ Moses! invoke your Lord for us by the covenant He has made with you. If you ‘ remove the plague from us, we will certainly believe in you, and we will certainly send ”.’ with you the Children of Israel

****

The Qur'ānic term /'ajal/, in this verse, may be the time which Moses (a.s.) appointed for the removal of a calamity, saying that, for example, it would be removed on so and so day or at so and so hour, in order that they might understand that it was a divine retribution and not an accidental happening

The purpose also maybe that those obstinate people would finally meet the unavoidable Wrath of Allah, but until the appearance of that time and being drowned in the sea, the punishment was temporarily removed

:The verse says

But when We removed the plague from them until a term which they should reach, “
”.(behold, they broke their promise again

١٣٦- فَانْتَقَمْنَا مِنْهُمْ فَأَغْرَقْنَاهُمْ فِي الْيَمِّ بِأَنَّهُمْ كَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا وَكَانُوا عَنْهَا غَافِلِينَ

So We took vengeance on them and drowned them in the sea, because they “ ١٣٦ .
”belied Our Signs and were heedless of them

Commentary : verse ١٣٦

The Arabic term /’intiqaam/ with the meaning of vengeance’, in this verse, means ‘punishment’, and it does not mean ‘grudge’ or ‘
.rancour’ here

The word /yam/ in the old Egyptian language was used for a sea or a river. Since the story here refers to Egypt, the same old word has been used in this verse of the (Qur’aan. (Narrated from Mu’jam-ul-Kabir

:However, it should be noted that Allah is also ‘taker of vengeance’. The verse says

So We took vengeance on them and drowned them in the “ ”... sea, because they belied Our Signs

Another point is that the main source of misfortunes and calamities is inside the entities of ourselves, and negligence brings a heavy compensation for us. The holy
:verse continues saying

”and were heedless of them ...“

****

١٣٧- وَأَوْزَنَّا الْقَوْمَ الَّذِينَ كَانُوا يُسْتَضْعَفُونَ مَشَارِقَ الْأَرْضِ وَمَغَارِبَهَا

الَّتِي بَارَكْنَا فِيهَا وَتَمَّتْ كَلِمَتُ رَبِّكَ الْحُسْنَى

عَلَى بَنِي إِسْرَائِيلَ بِمَا صَبَرُوا

وَدَمَّرْنَا مَا كَانَ يَصْنَعُ فِرْعَوْنُ وَقَوْمُهُ وَمَا كَانُوا يَعْرِشُونَ

١٣٧ . “ And We made the people, who were abased “

the inheritors to the east (parts) of the land and the west (parts) of it which We had
,blessed therein and the good word of your Lord about the Children of Israel was fulfilled for what they endured patiently, and We destroyed what Pharaoh and his people had built and what ”they used to erect

Commentary : verse ١٣٧

The region that the Children of Israel inherited included of Syria, Jordan, Egypt, Lebanon and present Palestine. Those lands contained both material bounties and .spiritual bounties, where the great prophets raised and were buried

The lands which were under the control of Pharaoh and his people were so vast that there were different horizons and with different hours of risings and settings of the .sun therein

From the points of industry, agriculture, and interesting buildings of their time, the :people of Pharaoh were very developed. The verse says

“ And We made the people, who were abased “

the inheritors to the east (parts) of the land and the west

,parts) of it which We had blessed therein) and the good word of your Lord about the Children of Israel was fulfilled for what they endured patiently, and We destroyed what Pharaoh and his people had built and what

”they used to erect

Yet, since the governments of divine prophets have been the governments of the oppressed, and Allah fulfills His promises, those oppressed people who show patience
:and perseverance can become the inheritors of the earth, as the verse indicates

,We made the people, who were abased ... “

”... the inheritors to the east (parts) of the land and the west (parts) of it

١٣٨- وَجَاوَزْنَا بِبَنِي إِسْرَائِيلَ الْبَحْرَ فَأَتَوْا عَلَى قَوْمٍ يَعْكُفُونَ

عَلَى أَصْنَامٍ لَهُمْ

قَالُوا يَا مُوسَى اجْعَلْ لَنَا إِلَهًا كَمَا لَهُمْ آلِهَةٌ

قَالَ إِنَّكُمْ قَوْمٌ تَجْهَلُونَ

;And We made the Children of Israel to pass the sea “ .١٣٨

.then they came upon a people cleaving to idols they had

,They said: ‘ O’ Moses! make for us a god

”.’ as they have gods ’. He (Moses) said: ‘ Verily you are a people behaving ignorantly

Commentary : verse ١٣٨

Those expert sorcerers of Pharaoh, who were dealing with sorcery and magic during all their lives, became such good believers by seeing a miracle that Pharaoh’s terrible threats could not change their decision. But, some of the followers of Moses, who saw all those great miracles, were so weak that they even asked him (a.s.) for an idol, and .the observation of a deviated scene of idolatry drew them toward perversity

:The verse says

;And We made the Children of Israel to pass the sea “ .١٣٨

.then they came upon a people cleaving to idols they had

,They said: ‘ O’ Moses! make for us a god

”.’ as they have gods ’. He (Moses) said: ‘ Verily you are a people behaving ignorantly

Therefore, as long as a group of people have not become strong enough in their true belief and faith, they should not migrate unto some perverted and dangerous regions, because environments may affect on them, and communities are always exposed to the danger of aberration

Also, sometimes it happens that watching an inappropriate view (of a film, a picture, or a society) spoils all the training efforts of the leaders

١٣٩- إِنَّ هَؤُلَاءِ مُتَّبِعُونَ مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ

،Moses said:) Surely this they are engaged upon shall be perished) “ .١٣٩

”.and what they are doing are in vain

Commentary : verse ١٣٩

The Qur’ānic term /mutabbarun/ is derived from the word /tabār/ with the meaning of ’ ‘ destruction

The holy verse maybe points to the glad tidings of Moses (a.s.) to the people, saying that by their presence in that region, polytheism and perversion would be effaced.

:(narrated from Marāqī, commentary). Here is the verse

،Moses said:) Surely this they are engaged upon shall be perished) “

”.and what they are doing are in vain

Therefore, both the mental and practical perversions are perishable. The end of them
.all is destruction

And (remember) when We delivered you from Pharaoh’s clan who were afflicting “ .١٤١
,you with evil torment slaughtering your sons and sparing your women, and in that was a great trial from

”.your Lord

Commentary : verses ١٤٠-١٤١

Then, for an emphasis, the Qur’ān adds that Moses said to them whether he should find a god other than Allah for them; the same Lord Who preferred them over all :people of their time. Here is the statement of the verse

He said: ‘ Shall I find for you a god other than Allah, while He has preferred you “
” ’ ? above all creatures

***

In the next verse, Allah points to one of His great bounties bestowed upon the Children of Israel, so that by attending to that great bounty the sense of gratitude could be moved in them, and they knew that only His Pure Essence is eligible to be adored, worshipped and submitted

:At first it says

And (remember) when We delivered you from Pharaoh's clan who were “

”... ,afflicting you with evil torment

:Then, this ceaseless torment is explained as follows

”... ,slaughtering your sons and sparing your women ...“

The explanation of the verse implies that in that event there lies a great trial upon :them from the side of Allah. The verse says

”.and in that was a great trial from your Lord ...“

Point

Moses called on the Mountain – None can by any means see Allah with his physical eyes – Moses given the Turah

۱۴۲- وَوَاعَدْنَا مُوسَىٰ ثَلَاثِينَ لَيْلَةً وَأَتَمَّمْنَاهَا بِعَشْرِ فِتْمٍ مِّمَقَاتُ رَبِّهِ

أَرْبَعِينَ لَيْلَةً وَقَالَ مُوسَىٰ لِأَخِيهِ هَارُونَ اخْلُفْنِي فِي

قَوْمِي وَأَصْلِحْ وَلَا تَتَّبِعْ سَبِيلَ الْمُفْسِدِينَ

And We made an appointment with Moses for thirty nights, and completed them “ ۱۴۲ . (with ten (more so the appointed time of his Lord was completed forty nights. And (before going there) ,Moses said to his brother Aaron: ‘ Be my successor among people

”? and set the (people’s) affairs right and do not follow the way of mischief-makers

Commentary : verse ۱۴۲

Point

In Sura Al-Baqarah, No. ۲, verse ۵۰, the statement denotes that Allah (s.w.t.) appointed : (forty nights for Moses (a.s

And (remember) when We appointed forty nights for Moses,...”, but here, in this “ verse, the appointment is thirty nights added with ten more nights. As Imam Bāqir (a.s.) said: the philosophy of that manner was to try the Children of Israel. (Nūr-uth- .(Thaqalayn, the commentary, vol. ۲, p. ۶۱

The length of this time has been forty nights and days, yet the reason that the verse says ‘ forty nights ’, maybe, is that supplications are often performed at night. Or, perhaps, its reason is that in old times the formation of calendar was based on the appearance of the moon at night. The number of nights has also been used in counting days. The verse says

And We made an appointment with Moses for thirty nights, and completed them “
,(with ten (more

”... .so the appointed time of his Lord was completed forty nights

There are some secrets hidden in this figure, i.e. ‘ forty ’. This figure has a special position in the cultures of different religions. The Messenger of Allah, Muhammad (p.b.u.h.), was appointed to prophethood when he was forty years old. He kept aloof from Khadijah for forty nights in order that the heavenly food to be sent down and the preparation of the birth of Hazrat Zahrā (a.s.) to be supplied

The descent of Divine revelation unto the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was ceased for forty days

.The people of Moses (a.s.) were wandering bewildered in the deserts for forty years

.At the time of Noah, it rained for forty days

To learn forty Islamic traditions by heart causes this person to be raised among the experts of Muslim law in Hereafter

The preparation of spiritual perfection of man develops until the person becomes forty years old. After that the affairs are more difficult and the accounts are more delicate

The recitation of Sura Al-Hamd done for forty times unto a sick person can be effective in his healing

Whoever drinks wine, his prayers will not be accepted for forty days, though the one .must establish those prayers

p: ۸۶

Allah may forgive a person upon whose dead body forty believers testify that he has (been a good person.)

However, the explanation of forty nights of the appointed tryst of Moses is referred to in the Turah, Exodus

Some Islamic literature denotes that thirty nights out of this forty nights were the whole nights of Zilqadāh, and the added ten nights happened at the beginning nights (of Zil-Hajjah. (Nūr-uth-Thaqalayn, the commentary

:In any case, the event of the tryst of Moses (a.s.) was as follows

And (before going there) Moses said to his brother Aaron: ‘ Be my successor ... ‘ among people, and set the (people’s) affairs right and do not follow the way of ”.’ mischief-makers

: The Tradition of Rank

A large number of commentators from both great Islamic sects have referred to the known ‘ Tradition of Rank ’ when explaining the verse under discussion. There is a difference, of course, that Shi‘ite commentators have taken it as one of the reputable (proofs for the immediate vicegerency of Ali (a.s.

The text of the tradition denotes that many of the companions of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.)
:have detailed the process of the Battle of Tabūk as follows

The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) set out towards Tabūk when he appointed Ali-ibn-Abiṭālib (a.s.) in his place. Ali (a.s.) said to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) whether he left him among children and women (and did not let him go with him (p.b.u.h.) to the battle-field to struggle).
The Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) answered him whether he was not content to be in the same rank to him (p.b.u.h.) as Aaron was to Moses except that there would be no prophet

.after him

It was not only in the Battle of Tabūk that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) expressed this meaning, but also in several occasions, other than that, this statement was heard
:from him, (p.b.u.h.) including the followings

One day, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) told 'Umm-us-Salamah: “ O' 'Umm-us-Salamah! Ali's – ١ tissue is the same as my tissue and, his blood is the same as my blood. The example ”.of him unto me is like the example of Aaron unto Moses

Ibn-'Abbas says that one day 'Umar-ibn-Khattāb said that once he was in the – ٢ presence of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) accompanied with Abūbakr and some of the companions of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was leaning on Ali (a.s.)
when he touched Ali's shoulder and said: “ O” Ali! you are the first man who believed (in Allah) and you are the first person who accepted Islam.” Then he (p.b.u.h.) said: “
.” The example of you unto me is like the example of Aaron unto Moses

However, if we impartially examine the above-mentioned tradition, it can be understood from it that Ali (a.s.) had been given all the positions that Aaron had unto
.Moses (a.s.) and among the Children of Israel, except prophethood

This meaning mentioned about the Tradition of Rank has been cited in the Sunnite sources such as: Saḥiḥ-i-Bukhārī, vol. ٤, p. ٣; Saḥiḥ-i-Muslim, vol. ٤, p. ١٨٧; Sunan-i-Ibn-
.i-Mājid, vol. ١, p. ٤٢; Musnad-i-Aḥmad-ibn-Ḥanbal, vol. ١, pp. ١٧٣, ١٧٥, ١٧٧, ١٧٩, ١٨٢

But the very tradition, ‘ the Tradition of Rank ’, is widely transmitted with Shi'ites and it is available in the authentic books of traditions, including: ١) 'Abaqāt, in book of Muhammad and Ali'. ٢) The tradition of Thaḡalayn, by Najmiddin 'Askary, pp. ١٠٥-١٢٧; ٣) Safinat-ul-Biḥār, vol. ٢١, p. ٢٠٩; ٤) Biḥār-ul-'Anwār, vol. ٣٧, p. ٢٥٤; ٥) Kanz-ul-Kirāchi, pp. ٢٨٢,٢٨٣; ٦) An-Nihāyah, vol. ٢, p. ١٧٢; ٧) Kashf-ul-Qummah, p. ٤٤; ٨) Manāqib, Ibn-Abī-Tālib; ٩) Al-Yaghīn; ١٠) Al-Kharā'ij-wal-Jarāyih; ١١) Kāmil-ut-Tawārikh, by .Ibn-'Athīr; ١٢) At-Ṭarā'if

١٤٣- وَلَمَّا جَاءَ مُوسَى لِمِيقَاتِنَا وَكَلَّمَهُ رَبُّهُ قَالَ رَبِّ أَرِنِي إِلَيْكَ

قَالَ لَنْ تَرَانِي وَلَكِنْ انظُرْ إِلَى الْجَبَلِ فَإِنِ اسْتَقَرَّ مَكَانَهُ فَسَوْفَ تَرَانِي

فَلَمَّا تَجَلَّى رَبُّهُ لِلْجَبَلِ جَعَلَهُ دَكًّا وَخَرَّ مُوسَى صَعِقًا

سُبْحَانَكَ تُبْتُ إِلَيْكَ وَأَنَا أَوَّلُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ

And when Moses came to Our appointed tryst and his Lord spoke with him, he “ ١٤٣ .
:said

My Lord, show me (Yourself), that I may look towards ‘

,You!’ He (Allah) said: ‘ Never shall you see Me

but look towards the mountain: if it remains firm in its place, then you will see Me.’ So
,when his Lord manifested (His) glory to the mountain

.He sent it crashing down, and Moses fell down senseless

!Then when he recovered, he said: ‘ Glory be to You

,I turn to You (repentant

”.’ and I am the first of the believers

Commentary : verse ١٤٣

The Qur’ānic word /dakkah/ means ‘ a level land ’, and, therefore, in this verse the text
.means that the mountain was turned into dust so that it became level as the land

That Divine Power, whatever it was, pounded the mountain into dust. Was it the great .atomic power, or the power of waves, or some other mystic power ? It is unknown

There were two times that observing Allah was asked for. One time Moses (a.s.) himself asked Allah to see His True Essence. Then, in answer to him (a.s.), this very current verse was revealed and manifested that Moses (a.s.) had not its capacity. The
:verse says

And when Moses came to Our appointed tryst and his Lord spoke with him, he said: “
My Lord, show me Yourself), that I may look towards)

,You!’ He (Allah) said: ‘Never shall you see Me

but look towards the mountain: if it remains firm in its place, then you will see Me.’ So when his Lord manifested (His) glory to the mountain, He sent it crashing down, and
,Moses fell down senseless. Then when he recovered he said: ‘Glory be to You! I turn to You (repentant), and I am the first of the believers

”?’

Another time was when the Children of Israel were seeking the pretext, and ignorantly asked Moses to see Allah by the eyes of head. This meaning has been .referred to in verse No. ١٥٥ of the current Sura, which will be explained later

This fact should be noted that Allah can never be seen by the outward eyes, neither in :this world nor in the Hereafter. As the verse says

”...’ ,Never shall you see Me‘ ...“

But He must be known by means of His effects, where His manifestations can be :looked at. The verse says so when his Lord manifested (His) glory to the ... “

”... ,mountain, He sent it crashing down

١٤٤- قَالَ يَا مُوسَى إِنِّي اصْطَفَيْتُكَ عَلَى النَّاسِ بِرِسَالَاتِي وَبِكَلَامِي فَخُذْ مَا آتَيْتُكَ وَكُنْ مِنَ الشَّاكِرِينَ

He said: ‘ O’ Moses! verily I have chosen you above the people by My Messages “ .١٤٤ and by My speaking (unto you). So take what I have given you, and be of the grateful ones’.

Commentary : verse ١٤٤

Moses is Allah’s chosen servant. So, different demands, to become senseless, repentance and the like of them do not hinder him to be chosen. The verse says

He said: ‘ O’ Moses! verily I have chosen you above the “ people by My Messages and by My speaking

”... .(unto you)

Commentary : verse ١٤٥

The verse indicates that, in the Tablets, Allah explained of everything some advices and admonitions sufficiently for Moses (a.s.), and He detailed the necessary affairs of :the life and religion needed for individuals and the society of his time. The verse says

And We wrote for him in the Tablets of everything “
,an admonition

”... ;and the explanation of all things

Then, He commanded Moses to take those commandments with utmost effort and :with a strong and earnest will. The verse says

”... so, (O’ Moses!) take hold of them with firmness ...“

Moses (a.s.) was also ordered to bid his people to act according to the best of them.
:The verse continues saying and bid your people to take hold of the best ...“

”... of them

Alongside this subject, Moses (a.s.) was commanded to warn his people that opposing those commandments, and escaping from responsibilities and fulfilling the duties, would bring a dreadful result and, finally, Hell for them. Therefore, at the end of the :verse, Allah says

”Soon I will show you the abode of the transgressors ...“

It is understood from the holy phrase : “ ... of every thing an admonition ...” that there were not mentioned all the admonitions, advices, and necessary subjects in the Tablets of Moses. At that time, the divine ordinances were revealed according to the capacity and talents of those people. But, when the people of the world reached the last stage of the prophets’ training, the last command, which enveloped the whole material and spiritual necessities of human beings, was revealed unto the Prophet of .(Islam (p.b.u.h

The apparent meaning of the phrase: “... Soon I will show you the abode of the transgressors.” is that the abode of those who have gone out from the obedience of .Allah in doing their duties is Hell

Commentary : verse ١٤٦

The statements, which have formed this verse and the verse after it, are indeed a conclusion drawn from the previous verses upon the fate of Pharaoh and his people,
:and also the arrogant persons of the Children of Israel. At first, the verse says Soon I will (allow to) turn away from My signs those who are arrogant in the earth “

”... ;unjustly

Then the Qur'ān points to three parts of the qualities of these proud and arrogant people and that how they were dispossessed of the success of the truth. It says while (even) if they see any sign, they will not ...“

”... ,believe in it

And, also, if they see the straight path and the right way, they do not choose it as their own way. The verse says and if they see the way of rectitude they do ...“

”... ,not take it for a way

After mentioning these three qualities, all of which denote to their arrogance against the truth, the Qur'ān points to the reason of them and says

”.This is because they belied Our signs and were heedless of them ...“

Commentary : verse ١٤٧

:This verse refers to the punishment of such arrogant people. It says

And those who belie Our signs and the meeting of the Hereafter, their (good) deeds “
”... .are null

And at the end of the verse, the Qur’ān implies that this fate is not as a vengeance for them. It is the fruit of their own deeds, or it is the embodiment of their exact deeds :that has been incarnated before them. Thus, the verse says Shall they be recompensed except for what ...“

” ? they used to do

This holy verse is one of the verses which are taken as the evidence for proving the embodiment of actions, and the presence of the deeds themselves, good and evil, in .the Hereafter

Commentary : verse ۱۴۸

Through these verses one of the lamentable and surprising events has been referred to. It happened among the Children of Israel after going Moses (a.s.) to the tryst. That event was their worshipping Calf, which was arranged by a person called ‘ Sāmīrī ’ and .by means of some golden ornaments offered by the Children of Israel

The verse implies that after going Moses to the tryst, his people made a calf out of their ornaments which was only a

:lifeless body with the mooing sound of a cow which they worshipped. At first, it says

And the people of Moses made of their ornaments a calf after him, a (mere) body “
”... .that lowed

:Then the Qur’ān, scorning them, says

,Did they not see that it did not speak to them...”

”... ?nor did it guide them to any way

The objective meaning of this question is that a true deity should recognize the right and wrong and be able to guide his followers. He should have the ability of speaking with his worshippers and guide them to the straight way, and teach them the way of .worship

:In fact, they were unjust to their own selves. That is why the verse says

”.They took it (for worship) and they were unjust ...“

Commentary : verse ١٤٩

When Moses (a.s.) came back from the mountain, the Children of Israel realized that :they had made mistake and were of the losers. The verse says

And when they smote their hands and saw that they “

:had gone astray, they said

Should our Lord have not mercy on us and ‘

”,’ forgive us (not), we shall certainly be of the losers

Some of the commentators believe that Sāmerī, with the information he had, had set some special pipes in the breast of a golden calf through which some pressed air could pass out and a sound, similar to the sound of a cow, was heard from the mouth
.of that calf

He (Aaron) said: ‘ O son of my mother! verily the people judged me weak and had well-nigh slain me. So do not let the enemies gloat over me, and do not count me ”.among the unjust people

Commentary : verse ١٥٠

In this verse and the verse after it, the event of the conflict of Moses (a.s.) with calf-worshippers, when he returned from the tryst, has been explained. This event was .only hinted out in the previous verse

This is an explanation upon the hideous and hateful scene of the calf-worshipping of the people of Moses who had spoilt his religion when Moses came back from the :Mountain. The verse says

And when Moses returned (from the Mountain) unto his people, wrathful (and) “
:grieved, he said

”... .Evil it is that you have done in my place after me ‘

:Then, Moses (a.s.) added telling them

”... ’ ? Did you hasten on the bidding of your Lord ...“

The objective meaning of this phrase is that, due to the command of Allah concerning the length of the appointment of Moses (a.s.) from thirty nights to forty nights, the people of Moses hastened and judged over it hurriedly. They took the absence of Moses (a.s.) as a reason for his death or breach of promises. In that circumstance, Moses had to manifest an intensive wrath, otherwise their return to the truth was not
.easily possible

The harsh reaction of Moses against this scene and in that moment has been stated
:by the Qur’ān as follows

And, he dropped the Tablets and seized his brother by the head, dragging him ... “
”... .toward himself

In fact, this reaction illustrated, on one side, the inward conditions of Moses (a.s.) and his intensive annoyance for the idolatry and aberration of those people, and, on the other side, it was an effective means for moving the minds of the Children of Israel
.and making them attentive to the extraordinary obscenity of their deeds

Then, the Qur’ān, referring to the manner of Aaron for exciting the sympathy of :Moses (a.s.) and stating his sinlessness, says

!He (Aaron) said: ‘ O son of my mother ...“

verily the people judged me weak and had well-nigh slain me. So do not let the ١٥١. " (He (Moses) said (praying

Commentary : verse ١٥١

When the fire of the wrath of Moses (a.s.) was rather quenched, he refuged to Allah (s.w.t.) and invoked Him as follows

He (Moses) said (praying): ' O' Lord! forgive " me and my brother and admit us into Your Mercy, and You are the most merciful of the merciful ones

Moses (a.s.) asked Allah to forgive him and his brother not for the sake that they had committed any sin, but it was a kind of humility and submission unto Allah for returning to Him and in order to express his hatred upon the hideous actions of the idol-worshippers

It is also a lesson for others to learn and contemplate where Moses and his brother (a.s.), who had no perversion, asked Allah for such a remission, they must certainly be aware of their own reckonings from their Lord and abasement in the life of the world

Commentary : verse ١٥٢

Finally, that intensive harsh reaction of Moses (a.s.) brought forth its own effect and the calf-worshippers from the Children of Israel, who formed the majority of the people of Moses, showed regret for their treatment. But, in order that none consider that this mere regret and remorse was enough for their repentance from such a great fault, the Qur’ān adds the statement as follows

Verily those who adopted (worshipping) the Calf soon shall reach them a wrath from “ their Lord

”... and abasement in the life of the world

Again, in order that none imagine that this law is allocated only to those people , it is :added at the end of the verse

”And thus do We recompense the forgers of lies...”

١٥٣. "And those who commit evil deeds, then repent thereafter and believe, verily"

" .after that (repentance), your Lord is certainly Forgiving, Merciful

Commentary : verse ١٥٣

This verse has completed the previous meaning. As a general rule, it implies that those who do some wrong actions and, under the presence of all conditions of repentance, repent thereafter and renew their belief in Allah, so that they return from any polytheism and disobedience, after that the Lord will forgive them, for Allah (s.w.t.) is Forgiving, Merciful. The holy verse says

And those who commit evil deeds, then repent thereafter and believe, verily, after “

Commentary: verse ١٥٤

In this verse, the Qur'an informs that when the fire of the anger of Moses (a.s.) quenched and he got the result he expected, he stretched his hand and took up the Tablets from the ground. The records of those Tablets were wholly guidance and mercy. That very guidance and mercy was for those who felt responsibility and were .in awe of Allah and submitted to His command

Commentary : verse ١٥٥

Once more, in this verse and the next one, the Qur’ān refers to a part of the story of Moses (a.s.) when he, accompanying with a group of the Children of Israel, went to .the tryst of Ṭūr

:At first, the Qur’ān says

”... ,And Moses chose seventy men from his people for Our tryst “

But when those men of the Children of Israel heard the word of the Lord, they demanded Moses (a.s.) to ask Allah to show Himself. At that time a great earthquake occurred and caused those people to pass away and Moses (a.s.) fell down senseless. When he recovered his senses he said to the Lord that if He had wished He could have :destroyed them and him before that. The verse says and when the earthquake overtook them, he said: ‘ O’ Lord! had You ...“

.pleased, You could have destroyed them and me before

That is, Moses (a.s.) meant how could he answer his people whose representatives
?became like that

Then he said to the Lord that that undue request was the utterance of some fools of those people. Then he questioned Allah whether He destroyed them for what their
:fools had done. The verse says

Will You destroy us because of what the fools ...“

”... ? of us have done

:Next to this supplication and request, he said to Him

It is naught but Your trial, whereby ...“

”... .You cause to stray whomever You wish and guide whomever You wish

And the statement of Moses (a.s.) to the Lord, mentioned at the end of the verse,
:continued as follows

You are our master, so forgive us and have mercy on us, for You are the best of ...“
”.the forgivers

From the totality of the verses of the Qur’ān and the Islamic traditions, it is understood that, at last, the people who were destroyed thereby were restored to life again and returned to the Children of Israel with Moses (a.s.). They detailed for them

.what they had seen and began preaching those unaware people

He (the Lord) said: ' My chastisement, I will afflict with it whom I please, but My mercy embraces all things

Soon I shall prescribe it for those who keep from evil and pay the alms and those who believe in Our signs

Commentary : verse ١٥٦

Following to the request of Moses (a.s.) from Allah and the completion of the subject of repentance, which was referred to through the previous verse, in this verse, the continuation of supplication of Moses (a.s.) to the Lord (s.w.t.) is announced as follows

And prescribe goodness for us in this world and in "

"... ,the Hereafter

Then, he states the reason of this request unto Allah and that he has asked forgiveness for the undue words that those fools had said. Here is his reason "... (for) verily we have come back to You (repentantly) ..."

At last, Allah answered the invocation of Moses (a.s.) and accepted his repentance, but with some conditions which are stated at the end of this very verse. The verse says

,He (the Lord) said: ‘ My chastisement, I will afflict with it whom I please ...‘

”... .but My mercy embraces all things

But, in order that some persons do not imagine that the acceptance of repentance, together with the vast mercy of Allah and its generality, is not given undue and with no condition, at the end of the verse, He adds that His mercy is prescribed for those :who fulfil the following three things. The verse says

Soon I shall prescribe it for those who keep ...‘ from evil and pay the alms and those ”.who believe in Our signs

Commentary : verse ١٥٧

The Arabic word /’ummī/ is derived from /’Umm/ which means ‘ mother ’. It is also used for a person who has not learnt to read and write. In this regard, he is like a new born
.child

Some commentators have said that the term ʾummi means a person who is from among the ummah and common people, not from among notables. Some other commentators of the Qurʾān consider that the word is related to the term ʾumm-ul-qurā which is an appellation for Mecca, and it, therefore, means Meccan

Basing on some evidences, we count the existing Turah and the Bible perverted. Yet, there are some hints and glad tidings in both of them about the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) which indicate that the People of the Book knew the Prophet of Allah so much so that a father knows his child. Some of these references are as follows: the Turah, Genesis, Chapter 17, verses 18, 20 and 21; Genesis, Chapter 49, verse 10: the Bible, John, Chapter 14, verse 15; and Chapter 15, verse 26

At the time of the advent of Islam, there were only 17 men and one woman in Mecca who could read and write. Thus, if the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) had studied and learnt even one word before a person, he could not be called ʾummi among those people.
:(Narrated from Futūḥ-ul-Baladān Bilātharī, p. 459). The verse says

“And also for those who follow the Messenger”

the unschooled Prophet, whose explanation they find written with them

“... in the Turah and the Evangel

The Qurʾānic term ʾaqlāl (chains), used in this verse, had been applied for the false notions, superstitions, idolatry, and some troublesome customs mainly remained from the Age of Ignorance

Therefore, false customs and habits are as chains on the thoughts of people. Thus human beings who do not believe in :any prophet are always dependant and they live as captives. The verse says

,He enjoins on them what is right and forbids them what is wrong ...“

and he makes lawful for them the good things and prohibits for them the corrupt
;things

and he removes from them

”... .their burden and the bondages that were upon them

A mere belief in the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) of Islam is not enough, helping him and :supporting him is also necessary. The holy verse says

”... ,Then, those who believe in him, and honour him, and help him ...“

However, we must know that the Qur’ān is a light which enlightens the hearts and :thoughts of its believers. The verse continues saying and follow the light which has been ...“

”... ,sent down with him

The help and respect to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), like belief in him, is not allocated to a particular time. Therefore, honouring the grave of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and his .effects is also the extention of that help and respect

In any case, felicity comes into being under the shade of following the prophets. The :verse concludes

and follow the light which has been sent down with him, these are they that are the

Commentary: verse ۱۵۸

Some of orientalists have said that the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) was thinking only for the people of his own region, but when he succeeded he thought to preach other

.people of the world, too

In answer to this statement, it should be said that there are some different verses of the Qur'ān containing such words as: ' you all ', (١) ' the whole of mankind ' (٢) ' (whoever it reaches ' (٣) ' unto the worlds ' (٤)

These Qur'ānic evidences prove that his prophethood was worldly. He was commissioned to be a prophet over all people of the world when he was in Mecca and before gaining his success. It was not so, as those orientalists say, that later he decided to invite all the people of the world

:Imam Hassan Mujtabā (a.s.), the second Imam, has said

Once some of the Jewish people came to the Messenger of Allah and said: ' Do you " suppose that you are a prophet the same as Moses was? ' After a while of keeping silence, he answered: ' Yes. I am the master of the (whole) children of Adam, but I do not boast of it. I am the seal of prophets, the leader of the pious, and the Messenger of the Lord of the worlds.' They asked: 'Whom have you been sent to? To Arabs, or to non-Arabs, or to us?' Then the above verse was revealed with the meaning that he (was sent as a Messenger to the whole mankind." (Tafsīr-uṣ-Ṣāfi

The repetition of the Qur'ānic word /'Ummī/ in this holy verse and in the sixth verse before this, is an indication to its importance

However, the prophethood of Mohammad (p.b.u.h.) is surely worldly, and a worldly Divine religion needs a worldly leader

Like any project, his Messengership, of course, progressed stage by stage. At first, (the invitation of the Prophet (p.b.u.h

,Say: ' O mankind! I am the messenger of Allah to you all "

.of Him to Whom belongs the Sovereignty of the heavens and the earth

.There is no god but He. He gives life

"... .' And makes to die

Another matter is that prophethood is something necessary for Theism and Resurrection. Since Allah (s.w.t.) is the only possessor of the world of existence thoroughly, and life and death are under His control, then the leadership and guidance :of human beings should be authorized by Him, too. The holy verse says

,Believe then in Allah and His Messenger ..."

the unschooled prophet, who believes in Allah and His words, and follow him so that ".you may be guided

Belief in Allah and His Messenger, together with obedience from the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.), is the secret of guidance, for which the Qur'ān, the Prophet's rules and .practice (Sunnah) must be followed

١٥٩- وَمِنْ قَوْمِ مُوسَى أُمَّةٌ يَهْدُونَ بِالْحَقِّ وَبِهِ يَعْدِلُونَ

And of the people of Moses there is a group who guide by the truth and establish “ ١٥٩ .
” justice thereby

Commentary: verse ١٥٩

Guiding by the truth is a sign of the absence of bigotry, and also an indication of gratitude and following the truth itself. So, this recent group, whom are referred to in this verse, were separate from the pertinacious ones who used to seek pretexts. The :holy verse says

And of the people of Moses there is a group “
” ... who guide by the truth

Perhaps, the objective meaning referred to this group is those people among the .(Jews who accepted the invitation of the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h

Therefore, in confronting the minorities, justice should particularly be observed, and .their sincere services and accomplishments must not be neglected

:The verse ends as follows

” and establish justice thereby ... “

:(quails upon them, (saying

Commentary: verse ١٦٠

Several kinds of Allah’s bounties upon the Children of Israel are referred to in this verse. At first, the Qur’ān says that Allah divided them into twelve groups, each of which were a branch of the progeny of Israel. He assigned a just order among them
.which was far from harsh conflicts

:The verse says

”... ;And We divided them into twelve tribal communities“

The next bounty was at the time when the people of Moses (a.s.) were traveling toward Jerusalem in the hot desert where they entangled with a horrible blazing thirst. They asked him for water and Allah revealed him to strike the rock with his Rod, .and he did so. After that twelve springs gushed forth from the rock

:The verse says

,and We revealed unto Moses ...“

:(when his people asked him for water, (saying

”...Strike the rock with your rod.’ So twelve fountains gushed forth from it ‘

The water of these fountains were divided among them so regularly that each group :knew their own spring very well. The verse says

Each tribe, indeed, came to know its ...“

”... .drinking-place

Another bounty came to them in that blazing desert, where there was no shelter nor any shadow. The Lord outspread the cloud to overshadow them with the cloud. The :verse continues saying

”... ,And We outspread the cloud to overshadow them ...“

Finally, the fourth bounty was that Allah sent down manna and quails as some :delicious and nutritious food for them to eat. The verse says saying): ‘Eat of the good things wherewith) ...“

”... ’.We have provided you

But they ate the food and showed ungratitude. By that manner, they did no harm to :Allah (s.w.t.), but they committed injustice to themselves. The verse ends as follows

” .And they did not harm to Us but they were doing injustice to their own selves ... “

p: ١٢٠

:Some Explanations

The Arabic term /asbāt/ is the plural form of /sibt/ which is used for the children, grandsons, and sub-branches of a family. Every tribe of the Children of Israel were .the progenies of one of the children of Jacob

The Qur'ānic term /manna/ means a kind of food like honey and some herbal expressed joice such as tamarix mannifera, and ' salwa ' (a quail) is a bird lawful to be .eaten, resembling pigeon and partridge

During a short moment there, several miracles took place: striking the rock by the Rod, plenty water being gushed forth, the number of fountains as many as the .number of the tribes, and so on

١٦١- وَإِذْ قِيلَ لَهُمْ اسْكُنُوا هَذِهِ الْقَرْيَةَ وَكُلُوا مِنْهَا حَيْثُ شِئْتُمْ

وَقُولُوا حِطَّةً وَادْخُلُوا الْبَابَ سُجَّدًا نَعْفِرْ لَكُمْ خَطِيئَاتِكُمْ سَنَزِيدُ الْمُحْسِنِينَ

: And (remember) when it was said to them “ ١٦١ .

Dwell in this town (Jerusalem) and eat of it wherever you desire, and ask ‘
.forgiveness, and enter prostrating at the gate

.We shall forgive you your faults

”.’Soon We will give more (the portion of) the doers of good

Commentary : verse ١٦١

The Qur’ānic term /ḥittah/ philologically means: ‘ the descent of something from upward.’ There are some other derivations from this term, too. It is used in the sense of request for divine mercy and remission (of sins). The commandment was that the Children of Israel should ask forgiveness from Allah by means of this word , /hittah/, on their arrival into the holy land of Jerusalem. (But with the thought of mockery, they :changed the word.) The verse says

(And (remember) when it was said to them : ‘ Dwell in this town (Jerusalem “

,and eat of it wherever you desire

”... .and ask forgiveness, and enter prostrating at the gate

A meaning similar to the content of this verse, with a little difference, has been stated
.in Sura Al-Baqarah, No. ٢, through verses ٥٨ and ٥٩, too

In Islamic literature, there are some traditions narrated from the Immaculate Imams of Ahlul-Bayt (a.s.) who have clearly said: “ We are the gate of your ‘ hittah ’ (forgiveness).” That is, if you enter inside the orb of our government and mastership, .mercy will be bestowed upon you

By the way, there is a good tidings in this verse which indicates Allah may provide all the material and spiritual needs of humankind in this world nad the next world. So, in order that they can be eligible to enjoy some bounties such as: housing, food, forgiveness, and mercy, He commands them to supplicate, to ask forgiveness, and to .prostrate

Also, with a sincere repentance, Allah forgives a great deal of faults. In this verse He :says

”... .We shall forgive you your faults...”

To obtain the divine remission, both supplication and practice are necessary. The :verse says and ask forgiveness, and enter prostrating...”

” .... at the gate

However, there should be a difference between a good doer and a wrong doer. In the rank where evildoers can be forgiven, the good doers must be given a higher and a :better grace. The verse says

”.Soon We will give more (the portion of) the doers of good ...”

١٦٢- فَبَدَّلَ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مِنْهُمْ قَوْلًا غَيْرَ الَّذِي قِيلَ لَهُمْ فَأَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ رِجْزًا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ بِمَا كَانُوا يَظْلِمُونَ

But those of them who were unjust changed a saying other than that which had “ ١٦٢ .
;been spoken unto them

”so We sent upon them a torment from heaven for they had been doing injustice

Commentary: verse ١٦٢

Sometimes perversion and changing the meanings are made manifestly, as the change of an utterance; and sometimes the frame of an utterance is preserved, but the content and spirit of that subject is changed. The example of the latter is the trick of the Children of Israel for catching fish on the Sabbath, (which will be dealt with in (the next verse

:The verse says

But those of them who were unjust changed a saying other than that which had “
”... ;been spoken unto them

The Qur’ān refers to three kinds of perversion which were performed in the Law of
:Allah

A pertinacious perversion, like the manner of the Children of Israel who, instead of (١ (saying /hittah/ (seeking for forgiveness and remission), said /hintah/ (wheat

A change done deceitfully, like the action accomplished by the Children of Israel (٢ when they made some pools in the bank of the sea wherein fish came on the Sabbath, and they hunted them on Sunday. They said they had not hunted fish on the Sabbath. But regarding this subject, Sura Al-Baqarah, No. ٢, verse ٩٥ says: “And certainly you have known those among you who exceeded the ”...limits on the Sabbath

A change for their own benefit, like postponing the sacred months in the Age of (٢ Ignorance in order to carry on their fight. Since they did not like to cease fighting because of adapting with sacred months, they postponed the months. Then, the verse was revealed, saying “Verily the postponing (of the sacred month) is only an (addition unto infidelity...” (Sura Al-Baqarah, No. ٢, verse ٢٧

Thus, the punishment of changing the commandments of Allah is His Wrath and :chastisement. The verse says

”...so We sent upon them a torment from heaven...”

And we should know that the fates of human beings are in their own authority, and that these punishments are the fruit of their own sins and transgressions. The verse
:continues says

” .for they had been doing injustice...”

Point

And (O Muhammad) ask them about the town that was by the sea, when they “ ١٦٣ .
(exceeded (the limits

,of the Sabbath when their fish came to them on the day of their Sabbath

,appearing on the surface of the water; but on the day they did not keep Sabbath

.they (the fish) did not come unto them

”.Thus did We try them for the transgressions they used to commit

Commentary : verse ١٦٣

By the command of Allah, hunting fish on the Sabbath was forbidden for this group of the Children of Israel who were living on the bank of the sea. (Maybe, it was the Red Sea, beside the land of Palestine, which is known 'Ilāf Harbour today). But, on that very day, fish were seen with a more tremendous amount, so that people's mouths watered. This circumstance was a .divine trial for them

Those people exceeded the law of Allah deceitfully, and, by making pools on the bank of the sea and banning the way of the fish therein, they captured them in those pools on Saturdays, the which were easily hunted on Sundays. Then, they claimed that,
.according to the commandment, they had not hunted them on the Sabbath

:The verse says

And (O Muhammad) ask them about the town that was by the sea, when they “ (exceeded (the limits of the Sabbath when their fish

,came to them on the day of their Sabbath

,appearing on the surface of the water; but on the day they did not keep Sabbath

.they (the fish) did not come unto them

”.Thus did We try them for the transgressions they used to commit

Therefore, by legal tricks and deceit, the real feature of sins may not be changed, (like

In one of his sermons, Haḍrat Ali (a.s.) has intensively criticized the justification of sins, and the justification of ‘wine’ with ‘date liquor’ (nabīth), ‘bribery’ with present, and ‘ (usury’ with ‘transaction’. (Nahjul-Balāqah, Sermon No. ۱۵۶

:And (remember) when a group of them said “ ١٦٤ .”

Why do you admonish a people whom Allah will destroy or punish with a severe ‘
’? punishment

They said: ‘ In order to have an excuse before your Lord, and that they may keep ’.’from evil

Commentary : verse ١٦٤

It seems that, from the point of behaviour, the Children of Israel were divided into three groups. One group, who formed the majority, were the violators of Divine Law. The second group were the sympathetic admonishers. The third group were those who were inattentive to the social evil affairs. The latter ones told the sympathetic admonishers not to make themselves tired, for their preach would not affect the mischief makers and, in any case, the corruptors should be the dwellers of Hell. But those who enjoined right and forbade wrong said that their action was not useless.

.They said the least thing was that they were excused with Allah

Yes, the members of societies are usually found in the category of these three .groups

:In Sura AL-Mursalāt, No. ٧٧, verses ٥ and ٦, we recite

”.And by those who reveal the (Divine) Reminder,” “ to justify or to warn “

It should be noted that ‘forbidding wrong’ is necessary for completing the statement
:and having excuse with Allah. The verse says

”... ,They said: ‘In order to have an excuse before your Lord ...“

:We must not justify our faults with ‘Divine will’. The verse says

:And (remember) when a group of them said “

Why do you admonish a people whom Allah will destroy or punish with a ‘

”... ’ ? severe punishment

Unfortunately, those who are inattentive to the evil affairs, instead of protesting against the corruptors, protest against those who enjoin the right. But, even if we do not probable a good effect, we must forbid the wrong in order to complete the .statement and to have excuse before Allah

However, godly people are not hopeless of improving the society. The verse :concludes

”.and that they may keep from evil ...“

So when they forgot what they were reminded of, We delivered those who “ .١٦٥ forbade evil and seized those who were unjust with a dreadful punishment for the “transgressions they used to commit

So when they defied what they had been forbidden from, We said to them: ‘ Be “ .١٦٦ “.’ you apes scouted

Commentary : verses ١٦٥-١٦٦

In this verse, the Qur’ān implies that finally mammonism overwhelmed them and they forgot the command of Allah (s.w.t.), therefore they confronted the bitter moment of .punishment

:The verse says

“So when they forgot what they were reminded of “

We delivered those who forbade evil and seized those who were unjust with a “dreadful punishment for the transgressions they used to commit

From those three groups of people: (the sinners, the inattentive ones, and the admonishers), only the third group were secured from the punishment of Allah. As the Islamic traditions indicate, when this group, the third group, saw that their admonishments were not effective in the wrong doers, they became worried and said that they would go out of the city. They left the city at night and went into the desert. Accidentally, by that very night, the retribution of Allah befell upon the couple of the .abovementioned groups who were inside the city

The sort of their retribution is explained in the second verse of the above verses as follows

So when they defied what they had been forbidden from, We said to them: ‘ Be you “ ”.’ apes scouted

It is clear that the commandment saying ‘ Be you ’, here, is a genetic command, which .’ means they changed immediately in the shape of ‘ apes

According to some Islamic literature, of course, those who were transformed continued to live only for a few days, and then they died, so that there could appear .no generation from them later

 ,them, until the Day of Resurrection those who would inflict on them a grievous punishment. Verily your Lord is certainly ”.quick to requite (evil), and verily He is Forgiving, Merciful

Commentary : verse ١٦٧

This verse and the verse after it point to a part of the worldly retributions of those Jewish people who stood against the commandments of Allah and trod on the truth, justice, and honesty

:At first, the verse says

And (remember) when your Lord proclaimed that “

He would surely send against them, until the Day of Resurrection, those who would

”... .inflict on them a grievous punishment

It is understood from this verse that this rebellious group will never meet a complete
 .calmness, although they establish a government for themselves

Then, at the end of the verse, it adds that Allah is both quick in punishing those who deserve punishment, and

:forgiving, Merciful unto those wrong doers who repent. The verse says Verily your Lord is certainly quick to requite (evil), and verily He is Forgiving,...“

”Merciful

This Qur’ānic phrase indicates that Allah has left the way wide open for them to return in order that no one imagines that a compulsory fate with adversity, retribution, and .chastisement has been assigned for them

It was ordained that for a length of time the Children of Israel visited honour and power, in order that maybe they might become thankful. And, for another length of time, they were involved in calamities that might the sense of repentance and humiliation be renewed in them. Some of them were virtuous and believed in Islam, while some others pursued corruption, and insisted on their own mammonism and stubbornness

?except the truth

And they have studied what is in it, while the abode of the Hereafter is better for ” ? those who keep from evil. Have you then no sense

Commentary: verse ١٦٩

In former verses, the words were about the ancestors of the Jews, but in this verse,
.the statement is upon the children and descendants of them

At first, the Qur'ān remarks that their descendants inherited the Turah, but they used to prefer the material of this low world to the obedience of Allah. (1) The verse says

Then there succeeded after them (an evil) posterity (who) inherited the “

”... ,Book (Turah), taking the transitory goods of this lower world

Then, the verse implies that when they are hesitating between the struggle of conscience, on one side, and their worldly interests, on the other side, they appeal to some false hopes and say that they do obtain this existing interest, which is in cash, whether it is lawful or unlawful, and since the Lord is Merciful, Forgiving, He will forgive them

”... ’ and saying: ‘ It will be forgiven us ...“

This phrase shows that after committing such an action, they assumed a kind of fleeting regret and a state of extrinsic repentance. But, as the Qur'ān says, this regret and remorse of theirs had no root in them. And that was why if they found another material benefit like that, they would take it, too. (2) The verse says

,(And if similar transitory goods were to come to them (again ...“

”... .they would take them, too

However, this part of the verse points to the bribery of some of the Jews and perverting the heavenly verses of the Turah thereby, and also forsaking the ordinances of Allah because of the contrast of those laws with their benefits

:Therefore, next to that, the verse says

p: ۱۳۶

1 The Arabic word /xalf/ is applied for an ‘impious child’, while the Arabic word /xalaf/ –۱ (is applied for a ‘pious child’. (Narrated from Majma‘-ul-Bayān
The Arabic term /‘arad/ means any capital or property, but the term /‘ard/ means –۲ .only the money which is in cash

Was not the covenant of the Book taken with them that they should not attribute...

”... ?anything to Allah except the truth

If they were not acquainted with the divine verses (of the Turah) and committed such wrong actions, they might have an excuse for themselves. But, the difficulty of the event is in this fact that they had frequently seen the verses of the Turah and had understood them, yet they spoilt them and defied the command of Allah by setting them aside. The verse says

”... ,And they have studied what is in it...”

At the end of the verse, the Qur’ān implies that they make mistake, and such actions and these goods will not be useful for them. The fact is that the abode of Hereafter is better for the pious. The verse says

”... .while the abode of the Hereafter is better for those who keep from evil ...”

Then the Qur’ān questions them whether they have not any sense to perceive those facts that are so clear. Here is the words of the Qur’ān

” ? Have you then no sense ...”

١٧٠- وَالَّذِينَ يُمَسِّكُونَ بِالْكِتَابِ وَأَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ إِنَّا لَا نَضِيعُ أَجْرَ الْمُصْلِحِينَ

And those who hold fast to the Book and establish the prayer, verily We do not “ .١٧٠
”waste the reward of the reformers

Commentary : verse ١٧٠

This verse points to another group, opposite to the above-mentioned perverted group, who not only avoid any perversion and concealing the Divine verses, but also take hold of them and practice them minutely. The Qur’ān has called this group ‘the reformers’ of the world, and maintains an important reward for them. Concerning them, it says that surely Allah does not waste the great reward that they will have :with Him. The verse says

“And those who hold fast to the Book and establish the prayer “
”verily We do not waste the reward of the reformers

The above-mentioned verse clearly indicates that, without taking hold of the Heavenly Books and Divine commandments, the fulfilment of the true reforms in the world is impossible. This meaning emphasizes this fact, once more, that religion is not something only related to the world of super nature or to the next world. Religion is effective in the spirit of life for all human beings. It protects the interests of all humankind and it is alongside the execution of the principles of justice, peace, tranquility and any concepts which are gathered in the vast meaning of the term ‘
.’ reform

١٧١- وَإِذْ نَتَقْنَا الْجَبَلَ فَوْقَهُمْ كَأَنَّهُ ظُلَّةٌ وَظَنُّوا أَنَّهُ وَاقِعٌ بِهِمْ

Commentary : verse ١٧١

This is the last verse in this Sura which is upon the life of the Children of Israel. In this verse, the Qur’ān reminds the community of the Jews another happening. The event :is both a lesson of admonition and an evidence of giving a covenant. It says

And (remember) when We plucked the mountain (and held it) above them as if it “
”... ,were a canopy

It was so that they imagined the mountain was nigh to fall down over them.
Therefore, a shaking horror and anxiety encompassed them, thoroughly their entity,
:and they began weeping with supplication. The verse says

”... and they supposed it was about to fall on them ...“

It was at the same time that they were in that condition and they were told to hold :firm what Allah gave them. The verse continues saying

( :when we told them)...“

”... Hold you firmly what We gave you ‘

They ought to be in awe of Allah’s punishment and fulfil their duty according to the :covenants He has taken from them in it. The verse says

”.’and remember what is in it, that you may keep from evil ...“

This means that the entire messengership of Moses (a.s.) and other prophets, and their constant struggles and hard conflicts, as well as the grievous anxieties and laborious hardships that they tolerated, all were for the sake that the command of Allah and the principles of the truth, justice, purity, and piety be executed rather .perfectly among all human beings

The Qur’ānic term /ōurriyah/ means small children, but it is often used for all the .children of a person

The circumstance of Allah’s taking covenant from the children of Adam has not been .stated in this verse

As some Islamic traditions indicate, after the creation of Adam, all his progenies came out from his back in the form of some intelligent particles and were addressed by the .Lord

They confessed to the Lordship of Allah. Then, all of them returned back to the loins and soil of Adam, in order to come into this world gradually and naturally. This world is called the world of ‘ Tharr ’ and that covenant is called the ‘

.’ covenant of ‘Alast’ or ‘ the world of pre-existence

The purpose of the world of ‘ Tharr ’, maybe, is the same world of talents, and the covenant of innate disposition and creation. That is, at the time of departure of Adam’s children from the loins of fathers into the wombs of mothers in the shape of sperm, which are not more than some minutes, Allah sets the talent and nature of monotheism and seeking truth in their constitution and this divine secret, as an innate sense, is settled in the institution and natural disposition of everybody. The help of Allah reflects in their intellect in the form of a self-cognizance fact. Allah has asked them through the tongue of creation, and they have answered through the same
.tongue, too

We should know that Allah has established monotheism in the innate disposition and .constitution of humankind

:The verse says

‘And (remember) when your Lord took from the children of Adam, from their backs “

:(their descendants and made them bear witness over themselves, (and said

:‘Am I not your Lord?’ They said‘

’.Yes! We do bear witness ‘

This We did) lest you should say on the Day of Resurrection: ‘ Verily we were )
”.’ unaware of this

Thus, human beings can observe the sense of theism in the depth of their own selves,
.since they have confessed it in the world of pre-existence

Commentary : verses ١٧٣-١٧٤

In this verse, the Qur’ān has pointed to another aim of this covenant. It implies that Allah has taken this covenant for the sake that they do not say that their fathers were idol-worshippers before them and when they were some children. So, they could do nothing but following them. Therefore, they said, they should not be punished for the :sins committed by some vain-doers. Here is what the verse says

Or lest you should say: ‘ Verily our fathers were idolaters from before and we were “
.(descendants after them (following them

” ’ ? Will You then destroy us for what the vain-doers did

: Admonition

A great part of the Qur’ān, which consists of many verses in different suras of it, is about the incidents happened among the early nations; such as: the events of Adam and the children of Adam, those of the people of Noah, Hūd, Sālih, Abraham, Lot, Yusuf (Joseph), Jacob, Jethro, Moses, Pharaoh and the like of them. The aim of stating them has not been simply for referring to the history or telling some stories. They have been stated for the admonition of the servants of Allah and advising them through some exhortations in order that they become aware that how graceful and merciful Allah has been with the believers and the pious, so that He has saved them from destructions and calamities, while the people of idolatry, blasphemy, injustice and corruption have faced with many difficulties and destructions

****

Thus, regarding this meaning, in the second verse of the holy verses mentioned in the above, the Qur'ān says

”And thus do We explain the Signs, and that they may return “

The verse means that as Allah stated these verses for you, they are stated and explained for other nations, too, in order that all people reason the Truth by them and return from falsehood towards the Truth

And recite unto them the tale of him to whom We gave Our signs, but he “ ١٧٥ .
 ,withdrew (himself) from them
 ”.and Satan pursued him, and he became one of the perverse

Commentary : verse ١٧٥

The verse refers to the story of a man from the Children of Israel. At first, that man was among the believers and those who practically carried out the divine verses and sciences, but later, as a result of Satan’s temptation, he went astray. In the concerning religious sources, the name of this person has been recorded ‘ Bal‘am .’ Bā‘ūrā

As it has been narrated from Ali-ibn-Mūs-ar-Riḍā, the eighth Imam (a.s.), that Bal‘am knew ‘ the Greatest Name of Allah ’, by which his supplication used to be answered. But finally he went to the court of Pharaoh and turned to be an infidel, while, before .(that, he was one of the studious preachers of the religion of Moses (a.s

The Qur’ān does not directly point out his name in the text, but it mentions his action. Imam Bāqir (a.s.) says that his circumstance adapts to any one who prefers the low (desire to the truth. (Nūr-uth-Thaqalayn, the commentary

Such people are found in any time and the subject is not allocated to Bal‘am only. The .story of Bal‘am has been cited in the Turah, too

Therefore, an aware leader should usually warn people of unexpected dangers. The
:verse says

And recite unto them the tale of him to whom “

”... ,We gave Our signs

Whatever high a person promotes he should not become proud, since there is a probability of falling. Usually, the final result of the end of the work is important, not the beginning of it. The higher a situation is, the more dangerous it can be. The verse
:continues saying

”... ,but he withdrew (himself) from them ...“

Yes, the one who takes detached from Allah, will become the prey of Satan. The verse
:ends as follows

”.and Satan pursued him, and he became one of the perverse ...“

,if you attack it, it lulls out its tongue, or if you leave it

.it lulls out its tongue

.Such is the parable of the people who belied Our Signs

” .Therefore, relate (unto them) the stories, that they may ponder

Commentary : verse ١٧٦

The previous subject has been completed in this expressive verse. It implies that if Allah had wished, He could have forcedly kept him alongside the path of right with an :exalted rank, by the way of those holy verses and practical sciences. The verse says

And had We willed, We would certainly have “

”... ,exalted him thereby

But it is certain that forcedly keeping persons alongside the path of truth does not agree with Allah’s way of treatment, which is the custom of choice and free will, and it is not the sign of personality and greatness of a person. So, immediately next to it, the :Qur’ān, implying that Allah left him to himself, adds

” .but he clung to the earth and followed his lust ...“

Then, the Qur’ān resembles this person to a dog which, like some thirsty animals,
:often draws its tongue out of its mouth. The verse says

”... ,So his parable is like the parable of a dog; if you attack it, it lulls out its tongue ...“

As a result of attaching the intense lust and clinging to the pleasures of the material world, such a person may get a state of unlimited and endless thirst that he always goes after mammonism. This state, in him, is like the state of a rabid dog that,
.because of its sickness, it has a false thirst and it never drinks to satiety

Then, the Qur’ān implies that this parable is not allocated to this particular person, but :it is for all those who reject the verses of Allah. The verse says

”... .Such is the parable of the people who belied Our Signs ...“

This story should be told for them, maybe they think about it and then they take a :correct way for themselves. The verse continues saying

” .Therefore, relate (unto them) the stories, that they may ponder ...“

!Bal‘am Bā‘ūrā, a Mammonish Scholar, Gone Astray

A great deal of Islamic narrations and statements, as was pointed out before, indicate that the person referred to in this verse had been a man by the name of Bal‘am–Bā‘ūrā who lived at the time of Moses (a.s.). He was counted as one of the well known scholars of the Children of Israel, so that Moses used of him as an effective and strong preacher. He became so exalted in this way that his prayers before Allah were answered. But, as a result of accepting the promises of Pharaoh and inclining to him, he went astray, thus far that he joined the camp of the opponents of Moses (a.s.), and therefore, he lost all his spiritual ranks

” .injustice to themselves

Whomever Allah guides, he is rightly guided, and whomever He leads astray, “ ١٧٨ .

Commentary : verses ١٧٧-١٧٨

Through these two holy verses, in fact, the Qur’ān has concluded a general and common result from the story of Bal’am and other mammonish scholars. The verse says

How evil is the parable of the people who belied “
” ... ,Our Signs

They did not do any injustice to Allah, but they used to do injustice to themselves. The verse says

” .but they were doing injustice to themselves ... “

What injustice is greater than this that they gave their spiritual capitals and scientific informations, which could cause the honour of them and their societies, to the possessors of wealth and power , selling them for a little price

But, beware that delivering from these kinds of faults and satanic ways is not possible except with the Divine assistance. Therefore, the one whom Allah guides and makes :His aid the companion of his way, is the real guided one. The verse says

” ... ,Whomever Allah guides, he is rightly guided “

And those whom Allah, as a result of their own evil deeds, leads astray, or gives them victory and success for their satanic temptations, are the real losers. The verse

:continues saying

”and whomever He leads astray, these are the losers ...“

Commentary : verse ١٧٩

: The Signs of Hellish People

Through this verse and the next couple of verses, where the qualities of each group are hinted out, People have been divided into two groups. These two groups are: the .hellish people, and the inhabitants of Paradise

At first, with oath and emphasis, the Qur’ān states about the inhabitants of Hell as :follows

Indeed We have created for Hell many jinn “

”... ;and humans

Allah has created all human beings pure and sinless, but, by means of their own evil deeds, some groups of them make themselves candidates for Hell. The end of these people is dark and inauspicious. There are some other people who make themselves .candidate for Paradise. The end of such people is happiness and felicity

”... ,they have hearts with which they do not understand ...“

Their second quality is that they have clear eyes for seeing the truth but they do not observe the feature of the facts and pass by them like some blind persons. The verse
:says

”... ,and they have eyes with which they do not see ...“

Their third quality is that they have safe and sound ears, but they do not hearken to the truth and right words, and, like the deaf, they deprive themselves from hearing
:the divine truth. The verse says

”... .and they have ears with which they do not hear ...“

In fact, they are like cattle, because the privilege of man to animals lies in vigilant thought, clear-insightedness, and the hearing ears that, unfortunately, these hellish
:people have lost all of them. The verse says

”... ,they are as cattle ...“

:They are, of course, worse than cattle and more astray. The verse continues saying

”... .rather they are more astray ...“

Cattle have not the talents and possibilities that human beings have. Men, with the intellect, clear-insightedness, and the hearing ears that they have, can gain all kinds of progress and development. But, as a result of sensuality and tending toward mean things, they may leave these faculties and talents in vain. Such people are some neglectful persons, and therefore, they wander in the deviated path of life. The verse
:finally says

”.These are the heedless ones ...“

They are nigh to the fountain of water of life, but they are crying of thirst. The gates of
.felicity are open to them, but they do not even look at them

١٨٠- وَلِلَّهِ الْأَسْمَاءُ الْحُسْنَىٰ فَادْعُوهُ بِهَا وَذَرُوا الَّذِينَ يُلْحِدُونَ

فِي أَسْمَائِهِ سَيُجْزَوْنَ مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ

„And to Allah belong the most beautiful names “ .١٨٠

,so call on Him by them

.and leave those who blaspheme His names

”.Soon they shall be requited for what they were doing

Commentary : verse ١٨٠

The Qur’ānic phrase /’asmā’ul ḥusnā/ has been mentioned three times in the whole Qur’ān, which are: the verse under discussion, Sura Al-’Isrā’, No. ١٧, verse ١١. and Sura Tāhā, No. ٢٠, verse ٨

All the names of Allah are beautiful, and He possesses all the Virtues and Names. Yet, in Islamic literature, emphasis has been laid on ٩٩ Names. It has been narrated that whoever calls on Allah by these names, his prayer will be answered, if it be the will of Allah (s.w.t).

In this holy verse, the Qur’ān points to the situation of the inhabitants of Heaven and explains their qualities

In order that people come out of the row of the hellish persons, at first it invites them to pay a careful attention to the Beautiful Names of Allah, when it says

”... „And to Allah belong the most beautiful names, so call on Him by them “

The purpose of ‘ the beautiful names ’ is the attributes of Allah which are wholly good and wholly ‘ beautiful

The objective meaning of ‘ calling on Allah ’ by the Beautiful Names is not only to utter those names simply by the tongue, and to say, for example, O' knower of the Unseen, O' Almighty, and O' the Most Merciful of all merciful, but, in fact, the purpose is that we try to settle these qualities in our selves as much as possible. In other words, we should have His attributes and make our manner similar to that of Allah with our limited attempt

Upon the commentary of this verse, there has been cited a tradition from Imam Sādiq (a.s.) who has said: " By Allah, we are the beautiful names." This statement points to the fact that there is a strong ray from those divine attributes reflected in their beings, and that the cognition of them helps to the cognition of His Pure Essence

Then the Qur'ān warns people to avoid perverting the Names of Allah and to leave those who blaspheme them. It says and leave those who blaspheme His names ..."

"Soon they shall be required for what they were doing

The objective meaning of ' blaspheming His Names ', here, is that we do not pervert their pronunciations and their concepts. We also should not qualify Him with the attributes which are not suitable to Him, like the action of the Christians who believe in Trinity, or that we adapt His attributes to His creatures

****

And of those (whom) We have created are a people who guide (others) by the “ ١٨١ .
” Truth and establish justice therewith

Commentary : verse ١٨١

The objective meaning of the Arabic word /'ummah/ (community), mentioned in this holy verse, is the people of Muhammad (p.b.u.h.), who are the best community among all communities. It is also cited in the Islamic traditions, recorded by the Sunnis, that (the objective meaning of the word is the adherents of Ali-ibn-Abiṭālib (a.s

Some Islamic traditions indicate that Muslim believers will be divided into seventy three groups that only one group of them are the blessed. (Nūr-uth-Thaqalayn, the (commentary; and Tafsīr-ul-Burhān

Therefore, the pivot of guidance and government should be but the Truth, even though the number of the advocators of the Truth and guidance may be small. The
:verse says

And of those (whom) We have created are a people “

”... who guide (others) by the Truth

And we must also know that those persons are worthy that, besides accepting guidance, try to establish a system of Truth. Mere cognition of the Truth is not enough, but practice and distribution is important, too. The above holy verse
:concludes as follows

”and establish justice therewith ...“

Point

Allah’s plan is unbreakable – The Time or The Day of Resurrection

۱۸۲- وَالَّذِينَ كَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا سَنَسْتَدْرِجُهُمْ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

۱۸۳- وَأُمْلِي لَهُمْ إِنَّ كَيْدِي مَتِينٌ

And those who belie Our Signs, soon, step by step, We will draw them on from “ ۱۸۲ .
”where they do not know

”And I will grant them respite. Verily My devising is strong “ ۱۸۳ .

Commentary : verses ۱۸۲-۱۸۳

In these couple of holy verses, one of the punishments of Allah (s.w.t) about many of the arrogant sinners has been stated which will be done upon them in the form of a ‘
.’ gradual punishment

The derivation of the Arabic term /’istidrāj/ (consign to a gradual punishment) has been used in the Qur’ān in two verses. One of them is the verse under discussion, and the other is in Sura Al-Qalam, No. ۶۸, verse ۴۴, both of which are about the deniers of the Divine verses. Through the first verse, concerning the punishment of these
:beliers, whose lives will be interlaced, Allah says

And those who belie Our Signs, soon, step by step, We will draw them on “

”from where they do not know

The same meaning is emphasized in the second verse. It implies that it is not such that Allah punishes these people at once and with precipitation. But He respites them sufficiently for admonishment and awareness. And, when they do not attend it, He will entangle them with some difficulties, because only those haste that are powerless :and fear that they miss opportunities. The verse says

”... And I will grant them respite “

But, Allah’s plots and punishments are so strong and exact that none is able to flee :from them. The verse says

”.Verily My devising is indeed strong...”

This verse warns all sinners that they should take the postponement of Divine punishment as a reason neither for their own sanctity and uprightness, nor for the weakness and inability of Allah. They should not consider that the bounties and favours they enjoy are the signs of their nearness to Allah. It may happen that these bounties and victories that they receive become the preparation of the gradual punishment of Allah. The Lord grants them abundant favours and, by respiting them, He promotes them, but finally, He leaves them to fall down so intensively that there remains no trace from them and their whole entity and their history will be completely .interlaced

It is narrated from Imam Sādiq (a.s.) who, upon the commentary of this verse, said: “ The purpose of this verse is a sinful person whom Allah gives a bounty and he counts it for his goodness, while it causes him to be neglectful of seeking forgiveness for the (sin he has committed.” (Tafsīr-us-Sāfi, p. ۲۵۶

Have they not reflected that there is no madness in their companion (the “ .١٨٤ ”.Prophet of Islam) ? He is naught but a plain warner

Occasion of Revelation : verse ١٨٤

The Islamic commentators have mentioned the following meanings upon the :occasion of revelation of this verse in their commentary books

When the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was living in Mecca, one night he went upon Safā Mountain and invited people to monotheism. He called to all people, and to the whole tribes of Quraysh in particular, and told them to beware the punishment of Allah. He continued speaking until late at night. The local idol-worshppers of Mecca said that their companion had become mad since he was shouting the whole night until morning. At that moment the above-mentioned verse was revealed and gave them a .(knockdown answer. (Tafsīr-us-Sāfi, p. ٢٥٧

Commentary : verse ١٨٤

In this verse, at first, Allah answers the vain statement of the idol-worshippers by which they said the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was mad. The Qur’ān says whether they did not contemplate to know that their companion (the Prophet) had no sign of madness.
 :Here is the answer of Allah

Have they not reflected that there is no madness in their companion (the Prophet of “ ” ... ? (Islam

He (Muhammad) (p.b.u.h.) had been living among them for more than forty years. They were acquainted with his thought, intellect, and management. Then, how did they suddenly accused him like that ? Then, following to that, the Qur'ān says that he (p.b.u.h.) is only a plain warner that advises his society to beware the dangers they are :faced with. The verse says

”He is naught but a plain warner ...“

Commentary : verse ١٨٥

In order to complete the previous statement, this verse invites them to study the world of existence, including the heavens and the earth. The verse says

"Have they not considered the dominion of the heavens and the earth "

"... ,and whatever Allah has created

This contemplation is for that they know that this vast world of existence, with its amazing systematic order, has not been created in vain. There has surely been a certain goal in it, and the invitation of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), in fact, has been in pursuance of the same goal of creation, i.e., the development and training of humankind

Then, for the sake that they be awakened from the sleep of negligence, the Qur'ān implies whether they have not ponder on this matter that the end of their lives might be near. So, if they do not believe today, and do not accept the invitation of this Messenger to the revealed Qur'ān with those numerous clear signs, which words

:will there be after this that they believe in ? The verse says

Commentary : verse ١٨٦

At last, the statement upon the sinners is concluded in this verse as such that those whom Allah leads astray they will have no guide and Allah leaves such people bewildered in their transgression. This is the result of their continuous indecent deeds.
:The verse says

Whomever Allah leads astray there is no guide for him, and He will leave them in “
” .their contumacy wandering blindly

Such kind of meanings has been stated particularly upon the group of sinners who zealously and arrogantly show obstinacy against the rights and facts. They treat such, as if a curtain has fallen over their eyes, ears, and hearts. These dark curtains are the ' result of their own deeds, and this is the meaning of the phrase ‘ Allah leads astray

Commentary : verse ١٨٧

The infidels of Quraysh sent a number of persons to the scholars of the Jews in order to learn some difficult questions so that when they would ask them from the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) he could not give any answer to them and they might condemn him. One of these questions was that they asked about the exact time of the occurrence of
.Resurrection

The Qur’ānic term /’ayyān/, mentioned in this verse, has been used for asking the time. The Arabic word /assā’ah/ refers to the beginning of Resurrection, while the word /al-qiyaamah/ means the time of reckoning in Hereafter when the rewards and (retributions will be given. (Tafsīr-i-Marāqī

The Arabic term /mursā/ means ‘ that which is fixed with regard to time or place ’.

’ Thus the Qur’ānic phrase /jibāl-un-rāsiyāt/ means: ‘ fixed and firm mountains

The word /haffiyy/, used in the verse, means a constant researcher. This epithet, concerning to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), means as if he (p.b.u.h.) had completely researched the time of the occurrence of Resurrection Day and had asked it from Allah and knew it well

The idea of the heaviness of the Hereafter in ‘ the heavens and the earth ’, maybe, refers to the destruction of celestial globes, darkening of the sun, revolution of the earth, etc

However, the lack of knowledge about the features and details of Hereafter does not harm the principal of the belief in Resurrection. No one is aware of the time and the place of his death, but this situation can not be taken as a reason for denying the :principal of death. The verse says

They ask you about the Hour (of Resurrection) when it will set in. Say: ‘ Its knowledge “ is only with my Lord

.None but He can manifest it at its time

Heavy is it in the heavens and the earth. It will not overtake you but suddenly’ . They ,ask you as if you were well-informed of it. Say: ‘ The knowledge of it is only with Allah, but ”.’ most people do not know

Once the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was asked about the reappearance and coming out of Haḍrat Ghā’im (a.s.). He answered: “ His example is like the time (of Resurrection).” This statement means that the time of his reappearance resembles the time of Resurrection. Then, he (p.b.u.h.) recited this verse: “...None but He can manifest it at its time. Heavy is it in the heavens and the earth. It will not overtake you but (suddenly’ . ...” (Narrated by Imam Riḍā (a.s.), cited in Nūr-uth-Thaqalayn

١٨٨- قُلْ لَا أَمْلِكُ لِنَفْسِي نَفْعًا وَلَا ضَرًّا إِلَّا مَا شَاءَ اللَّهُ وَلَوْ كُنْتُ أَعْلَمُ الْغَيْبِ لَاسْتَكْتَرْتُ مِنَ الْخَيْرِ وَمَا مَسَّنِيَ السُّوءُ

,please; and had I known the Unseen, I would have acquired much good

: Occasion of Revelation

It happened that one day some people of Mecca came to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and said that if he had communication with the Lord, would He inform him of the future expensiveness and cheapness of goods so that thereby he could supply whatever was beneficial and ward off whatever was harmful; or would He aware him of drought or of different regions with abundant water so that he could move from dry provinces into blissful lands ? At this time, the verse was revealed and answered .them

p: ١٤٥

: Only Allah Knows the Unseen

In the previous verse, it was said that no one knows the time of Resurrection but Allah (s.w.t.). Through this verse, now, the lack of knowledge of Unseen among persons, in general, is referred to. (۱)

By the first sentence of the verse, Allah commands His Messenger, Muhammad (p.b.u.h.), thus

;Say: ‘ I own for my self neither any benefit nor harm except what Allah may please “
” ...

All powers existed in the world come from the source of Allah, the Exalted, and no person has originally any power from his own self. It is He Who has granted these abilities to human beings

After stating this matter, the Qur’ān points to another important question which was under the demand of a group of people. Allah commands His Messenger (p.b.u.h.) to say that he was not cognizant of the Unseen and its secrets. In this regard, the verse continues saying

,and had I known the Unseen, I would have acquired much good ...“

”... and no evil would have touched me

Then, the real position of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and his Messengership has been pointed out through a short and explicit sentence, as follows

”.’ I am not but a warner and a giver of glad tidings for a people who believe...“

.verse and ‘the knowledge of Unseen’ in their commentary books

Commentary : verse ۱۸۹

Another part of the circumstances of the pagans and the way of their thinking and the answer to their mistakes are hinted to here. And, since the former verses referred to the Unity of Divine Acts, the :substitutive verses are counted as their complement. At first, it says

He it is Who created you from a single soul, and of the same (kind) did He make his “ mate, that he might ”... .take rest in her

The couple had a pleasant life with each other, but when the spouse had sexual intercourse with his wife, she bore a light burden such that, at the beginning, that burden did not bother her and she could easily continue performing her affairs. The
:verse says

”... .So when he covered her, she bore a light burden and passed (sometime) with it ...“

Later, by passing some days and nights, her burden gradually grew heavier. When she became heavy, the couple expected a child and hoped that Allah would grant :them a righteous child. The verse says

Then when she grew heavy, they both invoked ...“

”... :Allah, their Lord

: Therefore, they both invoked their Lord as follows

”.’ If you give us a righteous son, certainly we shall be of the grateful ones ‘...“

Commentary : verses ١٩٠-١٩١

Allah gave Adam and Eve the safe and sound child that they had asked for, but thereafter the children of Adam and Eve ascribed partners to Allah. The Qur’ānic phrase ‘ they ascribed partners to Him ’ means ‘ the children of the couple ascribed partners to Him ’. The verse says

But when He gave them a righteous son, they “ (Adam’s children)

ascribed partners to Him in what He had given them

But Exalted is Allah

(above any partners that they ascribe (to Him

***

Then, the second verse questions whether they ascribe some creatures as partners to Allah that not only they cannot create anything but also they themselves are created, since the fact is that the worshippers have produced those partners, therefore, they are more incapable and :incompetent than the worshippers. The verse says

”?Do they ascribe (to Him) partners that create nothing and themselves are created “

” .1۹۲ And they can neither help them nor help themselves “

” .1۹۳ And if you invite them unto guidance “

” .it is the same to you whether you invite them or whether you are silent

Commentary : verses ۱۹۲-۱۹۳

These created things are able to help neither the worshippers nor themselves to ward off the evil events that happen against them. This verse continues the meaning of the previous verse by saying

” .And they can neither help them nor help themselves “

****

Thus, if you invite the objects of worship to what is useful for their guidance, or you ask them to guide you, they will not pursue your purpose and they do not answer you as Allah answers you. The verse says

”... ;And if you invite them unto guidance, they will not follow you “

Whether you invite them or you be silent for inviting them, it is the same to you, because there is not any rescue and felicity for them, and they are unable to do anything. It says

” .it is the same to you whether you invite them or whether you are silent ... “

١٩٤- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ تَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ عِبَادٌ أَمْثَالَكُمْ فَأَدْعُوهُمْ فَلْيَسْتَجِيبُوا لَكُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ

Verily those whom you call upon other than Allah are creatures like your own selves “ .١٩٤

”.So call on them, then they should answer you if you are truthful

Commentary : verse ١٩٤

The objective meaning of the Arabic term /‘ibād/ (worshipping creatures) may be the creatures or men who are taken as deities, like Jesus (a.s.) or the angels. Or, the purpose may be the very idols which the idol-worshippers imagine as ‘ gods

Therefore, worshipping needs both reason and privilege. Worshipping creatures or human beings, like our own selves, has neither any reason nor any privilege. The :verse says

.Verily those whom you call upon other than Allah are creatures like your own selves “ ...

Another matter is the silence of deities which itself is the sign of their inability and .incompetence

Besides, a deity must promote its servant, not to stop him. The verse continues :saying

”.So call on them, then they should answer you if you are truthful ...“

? see

? Or, have they ears with which they hear

Say (O' Prophet!): ' Call your associates, then contrive against me and give me no
".' respite

Commentary : verse ١٩٥

The Arabic term /yabṭiṣūn/ is derived from /baṭaṣa/ which means ' to take or seize by ? force

This meaning has been used as a reprimand upon the pagans who take some partners for Allah. These partners are more incapable than they themselves, since they can walk, see, hear and act, but those lifeless statues do not have these abilities, and if they were wished to do something they would be unable. So, why do the idol-
? worshippers , as a notion , adore them

Strange to say, pagans do not accept the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) since he says he is a human as they are, but they are convinced with idols which are not like them even, or
:they are lower than them. The verse says

? Have they feet with which they walk “

? (Or, have they hands with which they hold (firmly

? Or, have they eyes with which they see

? Or, have they ears with which they hear

Say (O' Prophet!): ‘ Call your associates, then contrive against me and give me no

Commentary : verse ١٩٦

Following the former verse which, addressing pagans, said they themselves and their idols could not harm the Prophet (p.b.u.h) the least thing, this verse refers to its :reason, and says

”... ,Verily my guardian is Allah Who sent down the Book “

It is not only the Prophet’s self that He guards but He also supports and guards all the good doers and the righteous, and His grace and favour encompass them. The verse :concludes as follows

”.themselves

;And if you call them to guidance, they do not hear “ .١٩٨

”.and you see them looking towards you, but they do not see

Commentary : verses ١٩٧-١٩٨

The verse implies that the idols and deities of pagans are not able to help them or defend them. They are also incapable even to help their own selves. This meaning has been repeated here again, because in previous verse, the purpose was to premand the idol-worshippers, while here the purpose is to discriminate between Allah (s.w.t.)
.and something which is not adorable

It seems that the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) says that his Deity helps him but their :deities help neither them nor their own selves. The verse says

And those whom you call upon other than Him can neither help you, nor help “
”.themselves

***

The second verse indicates that if you call the idols to guidance and rectitude, they do not hear your invitation. That is, if you call idolators to the upright religion, they do not :hear you to follow. The verse says

”... ;And if you call them to guidance, they do not hear “

The verse, addressing idol worshippers, implies that they have made the idols in a shape that they gaze them, but they do not see anything. This looking, of course, is metaphorical, since an inanimate thing cannot look at something. The verse continues :saying

”.and you see them looking towards you, but they do not see ...“

”Keep to forgiveness and enjoin kindness, and turn away from the ignorant “ .١٩٩

Commentary : verse ١٩٩

Here, the Qur’ān, in a very short and interesting way, states the circumstances of leadership, preaching, and guiding people. It also corresponds with the previous verses which referred to the theme of the propagation of pagans. At first, addressing the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), the verse points to three parts of the duties of leaders and preachers. It begins telling the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) not to be strict with people and to accept their excuses; and to avoid demanding them anything beyond their ability.

:However, he should conciliate people. The verse says

”... Keep to forgiveness “

The second command is that he (p.b.u.h.) should enjoin people to do good deeds and what wisdom approves as worthy achievements, and Allah has introduced them as :good things. The verse says

”... ,and enjoin kindness ...“

In the third stage, it commands him to have patience and endurance against the :ignorant people without having any dispute with them. The verse says

”.and turn away from the ignorant ...“

In the course of their activities, the leaders and preachers may face with some fanatic, obstinate, ignorant and unaware persons, or some people whose level of thought and morals are .very low. Such people might abuse them, accuse them, and put them into trouble

Therefore, the way of solving this difficulty is not disputing with such ignorant people. The best way is to tolerate them with patience and ignoring these kinds of actions of theirs. Experience has shown that this way is better to be paved for awakening the .ignorant and quenching the fire of their anger, envy, and bigotry

،And if a temptation from Satan afflicts you “ .۲۰۰

;then seek refuge in Allah

”surely He is All-Hearing, All-Knowing

Commentary : verse ۲۰۰

There is another command in this verse which forms the fourth duty of the Islamic leaders and preachers. They should be careful that on their way usually the satanic temptations, in the form of social position, wealth, lust and the like of them, attract their attention. The command of the Qur’ān is as follows

;And if a temptation from Satan afflicts you, then seek refuge in Allah “

”surely He is All-Hearing, All-Knowing

****

٢٠١- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا إِذَا مَسَّهُمْ طَائِفٌ مِّنَ الشَّيْطَانِ تَذَكَّرُوا

فَإِذَا هُمْ مُبْصِرُونَ

٢٠٢- وَإِخْوَانُهُمْ يَمُدُّوهُمْ فِي الْغَيِّ ثُمَّ لَا يُقْصِرُونَ

Verily, those who keep from evil, when a visitation from Satan afflicts them they “ ٢٠١ .
.become mindful

”.(Then behold, they see (aright

” ٢٠٢ .And their brethren draw them into perverseness, and they do not stop short “

Commentary : verses ٢٠١-٢٠٢

Predominance upon the temptations of Satan is stated in this verse. It implies that when the satanic temptations surround the pious ones, they remember Allah, the All-Mighty and the Glorious, and His endless bounties, and that committing sin brings forth some inauspicious results for them with the painful retributions of Allah. At this time, the dark clouds of evil temptations will get apart from their hearts (minds) and :they clearly see the path of truth, and then they choose it. The verse says

Verily, those who keep from evil, when a visitation from Satan afflicts them “

”.(they become mindful. Then behold, they see (aright

As the above verse points out, the pious ones can relieve themselves from the grasps of the temptations of Satan under the light of the remembrance of Allah. But, those who are stained with sin, and are counted as brethren of Satan, are captured in his net. In this regard, the second verse mentioned in the above, implies that the brethren of Satans ceaselessly draw the immoral persons forward into abberation and they not only do not stop doing that, but also constantly continue their :creul attacks. The verse says

”And their brethren draw them into perverseness, and they do not stop short “

Yes, Satans follow the track of the believing persons and the pious ones. They do not .stop turning round them in order to delude them

The satanic temptations and mental suggestions go everywhere, and like microbes, which seek for the weak bodies they also seek for those whose faiths are weak to .influence in them

”... when a visitation from Satan afflicts them ... “

The temptations of Satans sometimes act from a distance. Sura Tāhā, No. ٢٠, verse ١٢٠ says: “ But Satan whispered unto him ...”. It is sometimes done through :penetrating into men’s soul and spirit. Sura An-Nās, No. ١١٤, verse ٥ says

Who whispers into the breasts (hearts) of the people.” It sometimes works by means “ of companionship. Sura Az-Zukhruf, No. ٤٣, verse ٣٤ says: “... and he shall be his close companion.” And, sometimes it is by means of turning round and affliction. This case is referred to in the current verse where it says: “... when a visitation from Satan afflicts .”... them

It may happens that sometimes the religious scholars, trainees, and those who try to make peace might be suspiciously visited with the purpose that a particular line of thought be inspired upon them. Therefore, they must be careful not to incline toward .the desires of the enemy, and they should refuge Allah

The remembrance of Allah gives insight to man and keeps him safe from evil temptations. The verse says

”... .They become mindful ...“

Correct belief is very important. If a society becomes pure and pious from the point of morals, politics, economy, and army, the communications and hauntings of satanic persons can not affect them

Allah takes the pious ones and the good doers under His guardianship, but the impious persons will be encompassed with the satanic brotherhood

”... And their brethren “

The final word of the verse is that there is no finite or limitation for the way of perversion, and Satan has no pity in casting aberration upon the believers. The verse says

„And their brethren draw them into perverseness “

”..and they do not stop short

٢٠٣- وَإِذَا لَمْ تَأْتِهِمْ بِآيَةٍ قَالُوا لَوْلَا اجْتَبَيْتَهَا

:And when you do not bring them a sign, they say “ ٢٠٣ .

’?Why do you not choose one ‘

Say: ‘ I follow only what is revealed to me from my Lord. This (Qur’ān) is insight from ”? your Lord, and a guidance and a mercy for a people that believe

Commentary : verse ٢٠٣

The Arabic word /’ijtibā’/ is derived from the root /jibāyat/ which originally means ‘ to store water in a pound ’. This term is also used for ‘collecting taxes’. Therefore, any gathering of chosen things has been called /’ijtibā’/, in the Arabic language

It happened that, as a result of delay in revelation, the recitation was ceased for several days. Some of the disbelievers told the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) why he had not chosen a verse to proclaim. Or, maybe the meaning of the verse is that they said why he did not choose the miracle they had asked him to bring and that he brought another miracle which was not according to their taste

However, infidels are often the seekers of pretexts. They considered the verses of the Qur’ān which were revealed to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) as some chosen material, not the Divine revelations

:The verse says

:And when you do not bring them a sign, they say “

Why do you not choose one? ’ Say: ‘ I follow only what is revealed to me from my ‘
”... .Lord

A godly leader should not be affected by some pretexts or undue wants, but he must .express his subject matter clearly and decisively

Leadership and guidance should be based upon insight. Therefore, the Qur’ān is a Book of both mental knowledge and insight, and also a guidance of practical movement. But only the possessors of Faith can enjoy this kind of guidance, and those blind-hearted people who are aloof from the insight and guidance of Allah, are .also deprived from His mercy

:The verse continues saying

,This (Qur’ān) is insight from your Lord ...“

”.’ and a guidance and a mercy for a people that believe

٢٠٤- وَإِذَا قُرِئَ الْقُرْآنُ فَاسْتَمِعُوا لَهُ وَأَنْصِتُوا لَعَلَّكُمْ تُرْحَمُونَ

And when the Qur’ān is recited, then listen to it and be silent, so that mercy may “ ٢٠٤ .
”be shown to you

Commentary : verse ٢٠٤

The Islamic jurisprudents do not give decree upon the act of keeping silence to be absolutely obligatory, except in prayer. This verse emphasizes that when the Qur’ān is being recited, from the point of courtesy, the audience ought to keep silence and .listen to the recitation of the verses

It happened that Hazrat Ali (a.s.) was establishing prayers and a hypocrite began reciting the Qur’ān loudly. Ali (a.s.) kept silence and after that he continued reciting the .rest of the Sura

.The Arabic term /’insāt/ philologically means to be silent in order to listen

Thus, the Qur’ān, which is a means of insight and mercy, should be politely listened to :when it is being recited. The verse says

”... ,And when the Qur’ān is recited, then listen to it and be silent “

The sound of the recitation of the Qur’ān should pass through the ears and affects on the heart (mind). In this case the person may be shown the divine mercy to. The verse :concludes as follows

”so that mercy may be shown to you ... “

****

٢٠٥- وَأذْكُرْ رَبَّكَ فِي نَفْسِكَ تَضَرُّعًا وَخِيفَةً وَدُونَ الْجَهْرِ مِنَ الْقَوْلِ بِالْغُدُوِّ وَالْآصَالِ وَلَا تَكُنْ مِنَ الْغَافِلِينَ

٢٠٥. “And remember your Lord within your self in humility and awe ;

without being loud of voice, in the morning and the evening, and do not be of the
”.heedless ones

Commentary : verse ٢٠٥

The discipline of the recitation of the Qur’ān was referred to in the previous verse. Now, here in this verse, the discipline of the remembrance of Allah (s.w.t.) and .supplication is dealt with

The Arabic term /’āṣāl/ is the plural form of the term /’aṣīl/, which means ‘ around the .’ time of sunset, or evening

Some of the commentators have rendered the holy term /’ōikr/ (remembrance),
.’ mentioned here in this verse, into the statutory prayers

The Qur’ān admires not only the verbal remembrance of Allah(s.w.t.), but also the .heartily and innate remembrance of His Essence

The Lordship of Allah is permanent, then His remembrance should be maintained
:ceaselessly, too. The verse says

”... And remember your Lord within your self “

That remembrance is spiritually helpful for the believers which is performed
:amorously and touchingly every morning and evening. In this concern, the verse says

”... ;in humility and awe ...“

This meaning should be noted that the divine prophets must also ceaselessly
.remember Allah, still less the others

The phrase ‘ in the morning and the evening ’ means ‘ at the beginning of an action and at the time of making decision ’ and also when we come to a conclusion, we ought .to remember Allah

”... in the morning and the evening ...“

The remembrance of Allah removes negligence when it is done without any pretence and shouting, otherwise it will become itself a kind of amusement and negligence. The
:verse says

without being loud of voice, in the morning and the evening, and do not be of the ...“
”.heedless ones

٢٠٦- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ لَا يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ عَنْ عِبَادَتِهِ

وَيُسَبِّحُونَهُ وَلَهُ يَسْجُدُونَ

Verily those who are (stationed) near your Lord do not disdain to worship Him “ ٢٠٦ .

”and they glorify Him and prostrate for Him

Commentary : verse ٢٠٦

It is probable that the phrase “... those who are (stationed) near your Lord...” encompasses both the angels and the pious servants of Allah who connect His Essence and feel themselves at His presence

Be not proud of your worship, for Allah has some angels that are always in the state of worshipping

”... Verily those who are (stationed) near your Lord “

The worst kind of arrogance is ‘disobedience and arrogance before Allah’ by abandoning His worship

It is certain that an arrogant person will never reach the rank of being stationed near to Allah. We must be humble before Allah (s.w.t.), and we ought to be attentive to His purification, too. We must specialize our prostrations for Him alone. The verse continues saying

“do not disdain to worship Him ... “

”and they glorify Him and prostrate for Him

****

Sura Al-ʿAnfāl contains seventy five verses. This Sura, has been revealed in Medina, (except its six verses). Its revelation occurred after the revelation of Sura Al-Baqarah

There are some lessons in this Sura concerning the history of Divine prophets and their followers, and also the manner of the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) in relation with Muslims. There are several subjects referred to in this Sura, such as: Treasury of the Muslims, things taken as spoils of war, the Battle of Badr, the ordinances of Holy Struggle, the night when the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was decided to be snabed in his bed and Ali (a.s.) laid in the coach of him (Laylat-ul-Mabit̄), and the qualities of the true believers

Most of the verses of this Sura are about the Battle of Badr. It was the first war of Muslims against the disbelievers. This war happened after thirteen years of Muslims' patience. In this war they enjoyed the Divine helps and victory. That is why this Sura has also been entitled 'Sura Badr

Besides stating the affairs of the Battle of Badr, some specialities of the virtuous soldiers against the enemies of Truth are stated in this holy Sura

: The Virtue of Recitation of the Sura

Imam Sādiq (a.s.) has said: " The one who recites Sura Al-ʿAnfāl and Sura Al- Barāʿat (with attention to their meanings and their warnings) every month, will he not be involved with hypocrisy at all and will be among the true followers of Amir-ul-(Mu'mineen (a.s.) ...” \(1\)

Promise of the Divine help in the Battle of Badr

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- يَسْأَلُونَكَ عَنِ الْأَنْفَالِ قُلِ الْأَنْفَالُ لِلَّهِ وَالرَّسُولِ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَصْلِحُوا ذَاتَ بَيْنِكُمْ

وَأَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ إِن كُنْتُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ

In The Name of Allah, The Beneficent, The Merciful

They ask you about ‘Anfāl’. Say: ‘Anfāl’ belong to Allah and the Messenger; so “ be in awe of Allah, and set aright the relations between yourselves, and obey Allah

” and His Messenger if you do believe

The Arabic word /su'āl/ (question) and its derivations have been mentioned about ۱۳۰ times in the Qur'ān, where the Arabic phrase /yas'alūnaka/ (they ask you) is found in its ۱۵ occurrences

The Arabic term /'anfāl/ is the plural form of /nafl/ with the sense of 'excessive' and 'remission'. A gracious man who remits very much is called in Arabic /nufil/. The progeny which was remitted to Abraham (a.s.) has been counted as a supererogation. The Qur'ān says: "And We gave him Isaac, and Jacob, as a further (gift, ...)" (Sura Al-'Anbiyā, No. ۲۱, verse ۷۲

In technical terminology of the Islamic jurisprudence, the meaning of the Arabic word 'anfāl' encompasses: natural resources, public wealths, the spoils of war, the wealths whose owner is unknown, like a land whose owner has left it out, the properties of the heirless deads, forests, valleys, reed-beds, unprofitable lands, mines, and so on

According to what the history denotes, when the Battle of Badr was ended, there remained some spoils of war for the Muslims. The opinions were divided that what should be done with the spoils, to whom they belonged, and who were the first that had precedence. Then, the Prophet of Allah (p.b.u.h.) himself began dividing the spoils of the war. He gave them to all concerning persons justly and equally in order to remove the undue discriminations of the Age of Ignorance, and to support the oppressed, though some individuals were annoyed of that equality

Since the sura is wholly about the Battle of Badr, this verse refers to the spoils of war, (too, but it does not exclusively belong to it. (Al-Mizān, the commentary

Public wealths should be in the authority of the most sacred and the most beloved – ١
.persons

”... ;They ask you about ‘ ’Anfāl ’. Say: ‘ ’Anfāl ’ belong to Allah and the Messenger “

An Islamic system, or an Islamic government, needs an economical support, and – ٢
.’Anfāl ’ are considered as this support

In an Islamic Community, the source of answering and stating all the public – ٣ questions and economical affairs is the divine leader. In the societies before Islam, the method of dividing spoils of war was arranged upon the basis of some undue discriminations. Therefore, in the Battle of Badr, which was the first occasion where the Muslims obtained some spoils of war, they asked this question from the (.Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h

.In Islam, there are laws for everything, even for the unprofitable deserts – ٤

Whatever the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) spends is around the pivot of the divine – ٥ aims: “... the ’Anfāl belong to Allah and the Messenger; ...”. Imam Sādiq (a.s.) said: “
” (.The share of Allah is spent under the control of the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h

The protection of public wealths needs purity and piety. The verse continues – ٦
:saying

”... ,so be in awe of Allah ...“

To observe the unity and to make peace between people are obligatory for all – ٧
:believers. The Qur’ān says

”... ,and set aright the relations between yourselves ... “

Belief not only exists in the heart, but also has an outward manifestation and – ۸
:practical obedience. The verse says

”... and obey Allah and His Messenger if you do believe ...“

Only taking part in fight is not the sign of Faith. Its necessary conditions are also to –۹ give up hope unto the spoils of war, and observing brotherhood and submission
.before the divine leader

”...if you do believe ...“

Some persons may pass the examination of giving soul by attending the Holy .۱۰ Struggle, but sometimes they fail in the trial of spending wealth, and in the trial of division of the spoils of war as well. For, the main principal in the Holy Struggle is the triumph of the Truth against the falsehood. Then, the question of ‘ the spoils of war ’ is .of the secondary importance

The person who wishes and intends to improve his society, must himself be of the –۱۱
:pious ones

”... So be in awe of Allah and set aright ...“

Basically, among the most important actions in Islam are reconciliation, creation of good relation, wiping out the annoyances and enmities and changing them into .sincerity and friendship

This subject has been taken so important in the Islamic teachings that it has been .introduced as one of the most exalted practices

When Amir-ul-Mu’mineen Ali (a.s.) was in the bed of martyrdom, as his last testaments to his children, he said: “Verily I heard from your ancestor, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), who said: ‘ Reconciliation is better than the kinds of recommended prayer (and fasting ’.” (Nahj-ul-Balāqah

Some Islamic traditions indicate that the reward of reconciliation between people is much more than that of the recommended prayer and fasting. Imam Sādiq (a.s.) told Mufaḍḍal: “ If there happens a conflict between two persons of our followers, spend \(out of my wealth and produce reconciliation between them.”\(1\)

٢. Verily believers are only those who, when Allah is mentioned, their hearts quake “

,and when His Signs are recited to them

,it increases them in faith

”and in their Lord (alone) do they trust

٣. Those who keep up prayer, and spend (benevolently) out of what We have “

”.provided them

Commentary : verses ٢-٣

The true believers are those who are in awe of Allah (s.w.t.) because of His glorification and veneration. That is, when the speech is delivered upon Allah’s justice, retribution, and power, they dread, and when the speech is about His bounties, kindnesses, graces, and rewards, they feel peace in themselves; as the Qur’ān says: “... now surely by Allah’s remembrance are the hearts set at rest.” (Sura Ar-Ra’d, No. ١٣, verse ٢٨). Thus, there is no contrast between these two verses, because fear relates to the remembrance of Allah’s retribution and power, but peace and rest relates to the remembrance of Allah’s forgiveness and kindness. Moreover, whenever a believer remembers the Divine bounties and forgiveness of Allah, he obtains a favourable opinion and he rests, but when he remembers his own sins, he becomes inconvenient and anxious. The verse says

”... ,Verily believers are only those who, when Allah is mentioned, their hearts quake “

The Arabic term /wajila/ means ‘ to fear, apprehend ’ which is accompanied with sadness

:Then the verse continues saying

”... ,and when His Signs are recited to them, it increases them in faith ...“

.In that circumstance, their faith and their certainty will be increased

”.and in their Lord (alone) do they trust...“

Such people trust in Allah in any conditions and they rely on Him for the affairs of their lives

****

Again, believers are those who establish prayer (which is the manifestation of the relation with Allah) and spend in charity and benevolently out of what Allah has given them as their sustenance

The phrase ‘ they keep up prayer ’ mentioned in the verse, instead of saying ‘ they recite prayer ’, points to this fact that not only they themselves keep up prayer but also they behave so that this firm relation with Allah will be kept always and everywhere. Here is the verse

Those who keep up prayer, and spend (benevolently) out of what We have provided “ them

****

۴-أُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ حَقًّا لَهُمْ دَرَجَاتٌ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ وَمَغْفِرَةٌ وَرِزْقٌ كَرِيمٌ

,These are the believers in truth; they have ranks with their Lord, and forgiveness “ ۴.

”.and a noble sustenance

Commentary : verse ۴

Allah, the Exalted, implies that those who have such qualities are indeed eligible to be called ‘ believers ’. The verse says

,These are the believers in truth; they have ranks with their Lord “

”.and forgiveness, and a noble sustenance

That is, these persons have some high ranks and degrees of honour in Heaven, and the Lord will provide them with His forgiveness and a great and permanent sustenance. That is why some commentators have said that ‘ a noble sustenance ’ means a permanent sustenance which is vast and pure, and is given them without any reproach. In Hereafter, this noble sustenance will be the eternal Heaven

By the way, it should be said that these qualities belong to some distinguished and notable believers, not to the totality of the believers. As if it wants to say that the distinguished and chosen believers are those who have these qualities. Thus, there is no problem that believing persons be equal from the point of Faith, but different from the point of worship. The evidence of this meaning is that the heartily fear is not enjoined, but it is recommended. The prayer and spending out of sustenance, mentioned in the previous holy verse, are irrespective of the obligatory and recommended ones. Then, it is clear that the verses refer to some distinguished and chosen believers, not to all of the believers

However, Faith should be accompanied with love and piety; and a humble heart is the source of virtues. It is the heart which trembles and quakes first, and, thereafter, the increase of Faith, keeping up prayer and trusting in Allah come forth

Commentary : verse ٥

As the scarcity of forces and possibilities caused some early Muslims to feel difficult and heavy to go to Holy War against the enemy, dividing the spoils of the Battle of Badr was heavy, too. These annoyances pass away, of course. The Messenger of Allah, however, must think of the real interests and the fulfilment of Allah’s command, .else, the dislike of this and that always exists

:The verse says

Just as your Lord caused you to go forth from your house with the truth, though a “

٦- يُجَادِلُونَكَ فِي الْحَقِّ بَعْدَ مَا تَبَيَّنَ كَأَنَّمَا يُسَاقُونَ إِلَى الْمَوْتِ

وَهُمْ يُنظَرُونَ

They dispute with you about the truth after it became clear, as if they see they are “ ٦. ”.being driven unto death

Commentary : verse ٦

The dispute of a group of Muslims with the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was alongside the Battle of Badr. They said that since they had not enough possibilities and troops, they could go out for taking possession of the properties of the merchants of Quraysh, not for fighting against the forces of Quraysh. Some of them delivered some reasons for the lack of conflict, while some others, like Miqdād, said that they would not treat like the people of Moses (a.s.), sitting and saying that you go for fighting, but they themselves were fighters and whatever the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) commanded they would accept. But, in this course, the coward persons, who were not ready to fight, disputed with the Prophet (p.b.u.h.)

However, not the whole companions of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) were just and obedient to the command of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), as the verse says

“... ,They dispute with you about the truth after it became clear “

In order to flee from taking part in fight, always the coward and self-indulgent persons attack to dispute and justification, and they seek for excuses

Therefore, if the spirits end motives are not safe and sound, the march of such soldiers towards fight is not more than carrying corpse. The verse says

”as if they see they are being driven unto death ...“

٧- وَإِذْ يَعِدُكُمُ اللَّهُ إِحْدَى الطَّائِفَتَيْنِ أَنَّهَا لَكُمْ وَتَوَدُّونَ أَنَّ غَيْرَ ذَاتِ الشُّوْكَهِ تَكُونُ لَكُمْ وَيُرِيدُ اللَّهُ أَنْ يُحِقَّ الْحَقَّ بِكَلِمَاتِهِ وَيَقْطَعَ دَابِرَ الْكَافِرِينَ

٧. “And (remember) when Allah promised you one of the two parties should be yours “

;and you loved that the one unarmed should be yours

”.but Allah desires to verify the truth by His words and to cut off the roots of infidels

Commentary : verse ٧

The Arabic term /šaukat/ means ‘ thorn and bayonet ’, and it is the symbol of an armed group. The objective of the Qur’ānic phrase /qayra ōāti-sh-šaukat/ is the very :unarmed merchants. The verse says

“And (remember) when Allah promised you one of the two parties should be yours “

”... ;and you loved that the one unarmed should be yours

It happened that once ‘Abūsufyān, as the chief of a commercial caravan, set out to travel. Before that, the pagans of Mecca had confiscated the properties of the immigrant Muslims. So in order to weaken the power of the pagans and to recompense that transgression, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) made some Muslims prepared to attack the commercial caravan. ‘Abūsufyān was informed of the matter and immediately made the people of Mecca aware of it. There were gathered about one thousand equipped fighters to defend that commercial group which consisted of forty people. In the desert, at a place located between Mecca and Medina, three groups met face to face, ( Muslims, the pagan troops, and the merchants). In spite of the fact that Muslims had not come out with the aim of fighting and they had not any martial equipments with them, but Allah assisted them with some unseen helps and, finally, the Muslims won the battle. In the Battle of Badr, which occurred on seventeenth of Ramadān in the second year of Hijrat, the number of Muslims was ٣١٢ strivers while the number of pagans was thrice as much they were, where Abūjahl and seventy other pagans were .killed, and, also, seventy pagans, together with him, were taken as captives

Thus, sometimes the Divine Will may be fulfilled by the hands of the believers, and the fact is that the remembrance of the divine helps can be a factor in strengthening the .Faith

We must also know that the victory of the truth over falsehood is more magnificent than the economical income, and triumph is not only that which comes forth with some fighters and war-equipments, the main factor is Allah's Will. So, the aim of Holy Struggle in Islam is the manifestation of the truth and destruction of falsehood. And, it also should be known that the manifestation of the truth can be done by means of the Divine Statements, the Divine saints, and Allah's laws, agents and ways of treatment. Therefore, victory and honour may be obtained under the shade of Holy Struggle and self-sacrifice, not with political discussions and collusions which are performed by the :help of deceits and trickeries. The verse says

٨- لِيُحَقِّقَ الْحَقَّ وَيُنْظِلَ الْبَاطِلَ وَلَوْ كَرِهَ الْمُجْرِمُونَ

That He might verify the truth and bring vanity to naught, though the guilty were “averse (to it

Commentary : verse ٨

This verse works as the most important encouragement for Muslims. The Divine promises are not for the sake of personal material interests of the individuals, but they have been decreed for the verification of the truth and the destruction of falsehood. The verse says

“... ,That He might verify the truth and bring vanity to naught “

You should not think of the hate and the wrath of the disbelieving enemy. Allah will verify His Will, although the sinners do not like it. The verse says

“(though the guilty were averse (to it ...“

9. (Remember) when you were calling upon your Lord for succour) “ and He answered you (saying): ‘ I shall assist you with a thousand of the angels

”.’ following one another

Commentary : verse ٩

The Qur’ānic term /murdif/, mentioned at the end of the verse, is derived from the Arabic term /’irdāf/ in the sense of row’, and ‘ following one after another’. Here in this verse, it means that these helps ‘ are continued. These very helps are also referred to in Sura ’Āl-i-‘Imrān, verse ١٢٤ as ‘ three thousand of angels’ and in its following verse, the words about the Divine help are said: “ with five thousand of angels distinguished”. Perhaps, these divine helps had been bestowed upon them because of their perseverance. That is, the more

.Muslims persevered in that Battle, the more unseen helps were added for them

As it was said before, (verse ٧ of the current Sura), the number of Muslim strivers in the Battle of Badr was one third of that of pagans. Moreover, their war-equipments as well as their spiritual preparation was very little. Therefore, the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) invoked, saying: “ O’ Allah! do manifest whatever You promised me. O’ Allah!
”.if this group (of Muslims) be killed, You will not be worshipped in the earth

:This holy verse attracts our attention to several points as follows

:Allah (s.w.t.) is the key of answering supplications. The verse says – ١ Remember) when you were calling upon your Lord for succour, and He answered) “

”... you

Allah may remit without any invocation, but invocation is one training way out of – ٢
.divine ways

The supplications and invocations which are offered by strivers in the midst of – ٣
.battlefields are effective, because their invocations will be answered

Do not forget the days of affliction and the helps of Allah (s.w.t.), since, the – ٤ remembrance of Allah’s bounties elevates the spirit of thanksgiving in man. The verse

And Allah did not appoint it, save as good tidings and that your hearts thereby “ .١٠
;might be at rest

” .and no victory is there save from Allah, surely Allah is the Mighty the Wise

Commentary : verse ١٠

The descent of the assisting angels for helping the believers has been repeatedly mentioned in the Qur’ān. Even at the time of death and giving soul, Allah sends an angel to protect the believers from the satanic temptations by inspiring the Truth to them.

There are two kinds of inspiration in the creation of Allah. One of them is from the side of Allah’s angels, which inspires calmness, like the current Sura, verse ١٢, which says: “ (And remember) when your Lord revealed unto the angels, (saying): ‘ Verily I am with you, so confirm those who believe. I will cast fear into the hearts of those who disbelieve. ...’ ”. Another kind is the inspiration of dread which is done by Satan. For example, the Qur’ān says: “ It is only Satan that causes his friends to fear; ...” (Sura .(‘Āl-i-Imrān, No. ٣, verse ١٧٥

The assisting angels came down to increase spiritualities of the believers, not to :destroy the pagans. The verse says

”... And Allah did not appoint it, save as good tidings “

Historically, it is clear who was killed and who was the killer of the slaughtered, but, in the Battle of Badr, the majority of the slaughtered among the pagans were killed by the sword of Ali-ibn-Abitālib (a.s).

The victory of the believers in the Battle of Badr was obtained neither as a result of their originative faculty and martial design, nor for their arms, nor because of the angels, but it was only from the side of Allah. The verse says and that your hearts ...“

thereby might be at rest; and no victory is there save from Allah, surely Allah is the Mighty the Wise water from the sky upon you to purify you with it and take away from you the ,uncleanness of Satan and to fortify your hearts

.and to steady (your) footsteps thereby

Commentary: verse ١١

When the Battle of Badr occurred, at first the wells of drinking water were under the control of the enemy and the Muslims were terrified. After that, it rained and the land under their feet became firm so that they would not slip, and it caused them to be .encouraged

Maybe, the purpose of the Qur'ānic phrase:“ to steady (your) footsteps” is the very .‘perseverance ’ , not to steady feet on the land drenched by rain

During the war, the ability of having a slumber for a striver is a great bounty of Allah.
It both removes the occasional fatigue and does not let the enemy have the .opportunity of a night attack

By the help of Allah’s Will, it is also possible for a striver to have a calm-giving sleep while confronting the mass of armed enemies. But, if He dose not please, there will not be a comfortable sleep possible in the best gardens either, or the sleep may not .be a calm-giving one

.with you, so confirm those who believe

.Soon I will cast fear into the hearts of those who disbelieve

”.”Therefore smite above the necks, and smite every finger of them

Commentary : verse ١٢

One of other divine bounties upon the Muslim strivers in the Battle of Badr was the horror that Allah cast into the hearts of the pagan enemies and terribly weakened
:their spirits. In this regard, the verse says

And remember) when your Lord revealed unto the angels, (saying): ‘ Verily I am with ) “
,you

”... .so confirm those who believe

Allah said that soon He would cast fear and horror into the hearts of the infidels. The
:verse says

”... .Soon I will cast fear into the hearts of those who disbelieve...”

This fact was truly wonderful that the powerful troops of Quraysh were so frightened that some of them were in terrible horror to combat with the small number
.of Muslim strugglers in the Battle

Then the verse reminds them the command that He had ordained upon the Muslims in the battle-field of the Battle of Badr by the way of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). The command was that, at the time of fighting against those pagans, they should avoid striking some uneffective blows and not to spend their strength in that state, but they should smite severely upon the entity of the opposite party, upon above their necks; :that is, upon their brains and heads. The verse says

”...Therefore smite above the necks...”

And, by smiting their fingers, they should cause the enemies’ hands and feet to :become inactive. The holy verse continues saying

”...and smite every finger of them...”

They were deserving of that punishment so that their heads and their fingers should be smited, because they had raised to fight against Allah (s.w.t.) and His Messenger (p.b.u.h.). The verse says

That is because they opposed Allah and “

Then, the holy verse threatens the opponents of Allah and His Messenger, when it says

The Arabic word /zahf/ means: ‘ to crawl, creep ’ and ‘ to drug on the ground ’. Since the movement and advance of a large army from the distance seems that it crawls .and proceeds, it is called such

The abundance of the forces of the enemy cannot be taken as an allowance to flee .from the battle-field

:The verse says

‘O’ you who have Faith! when you meet those who disbelieve (to attack) in battle “

”.then do not turn your backs to them

Imam Riḍā (a.s.), upon the philosophy of the banning of escape (from the battle-field), in a tradition has said: “ Flight is the weakness of religion, contempt of the leader of the Truth, encouraging the enemy, and wiping out the school of law.” (Recorded in .(Nūr-uth-Thaqalayn

Among the advantages that Ali-ibn-Abī-tālib (a.s.) had, and to which as an example he himself sometimes referred, was the very matter of flight from the battle-field. He :has said

Verily I have never fled from (the abundance of enemy in) any battle (although I “ have participated in many battle-fields), and none combated me save that I satiated ”.the earth from his blood

١٦- وَمَنْ يُؤَلِّهِمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ دُبُرَهُ إِلَّا مُتَحَرِّفًا لِقِتَالٍ أَوْ مُتَحَيِّرًا إِلَىٰ فِتْنَةٍ فَقَدْ بَاءَ بِغَضَبٍ مِّنَ اللَّهِ وَمَأْوَاهُ جَهَنَّمُ

١٦. “And whoever turns his back to them on that day “ unless withdrawing to fight again or removing to join another troop, he has incurred

,wrath from Allah

;and his abode is Hell

”.and an evil destination it is

Commentary : verse ١٦

In Islam, it is unlawful to flee from battle-fields, but there are two exceptions mentioned in this verse for it. One of them is that the escape is done with the purpose of renewing the equipments and the situation; and the second is to remove in order to join another group of Muslims, so that they attack wholly with together

In some commentary books, there have also been mentioned some other instances. For example: flight with the aim of giving information to Muslims, or protecting some more important intrenchments. (narrated from the Commentary of Fi-Zilāl-il-Qur’ān).

.These examples are also some extentions of the first aspect

The Arabic term /mutuharrifan/, mentioned in the verse, is derived from /harrafa/ (to pervert), and means ‘ one who turns aside ’ in order to make the enemy tired and to pervert him and, then, to strike

The Qur'ānic word /mutuhayyizan/, also mentioned in this verse, means: ' one who goes aside ' in order to join to another group of Muslim strivers when the striver feels .lonely and is unable to continue fighting

However, flight from the battle-field is one of the great sins for which Allah has .warned His wrath and punishment

:The verse says

,And whoever turns his back to them on that day “

,unless withdrawing to fight again or removing to join another troop

;he has incurred wrath from Allah, and his abode is Hell

”.and an evil destination it is

Commentary : verse ١٧

In order that Muslims might not be proud of the victory in the Battle of Badr and that they would not rely on their own bodily power alone, but they should make their minds and spirits clear and encouraged with the remembrance of Allah and His helps, the :Qur'an says

“... ;You did not slay them, but Allah slew them “

Then, it addresses the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) saying that it was not he who threw dust and sand unto the faces of them in that battle, but Allah (s.w.t.) threw. The verse
:immediately after that continues saying

“and you (O' Muhammad) did not throw when you did throw, but Allah threw ...“

In the continuation of the verse, the Qur'an points to another important matter. The fact is that the battle-field in the :Battle of Badr was a trial place for Muslims from the side of Allah. The verse says ”... .that He might test the believers by a gracious trial from Himself ...“

:Then, the verse is concluded with this holy phrase

”.Verily Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing...“

That is, Allah has heard the invocations of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and the believers, and He was aware of the truthfulness of their intention and of their sincerity. That was why that He bestowed His grace upon all of them and made them victorious over their enemy. In future, too, Allah (s.w.t.) will treat Muslim believers according to the .intention and standard of the sincerity and level of perseverance that they will show

That (was the grace of Allah) for you, and that Allah weakens the plan of “ ١٨ .
”disbelievers

Commentary : verse ١٨

The beginning word of the verse /ōālikum/ (that) points to the situation of the Muslims in the circumstances of the Battle of Badr. It reminds them the divine helps, which were sent from heaven to the earth, and the honour and victory bestowed upon the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.). As if, the holy verse would have said: ‘ That was the grace :of Allah upon you ’. The verse says

”... ,That (was the grace of Allah) for you “

Thus, if the strivers act according to their duty in battle-fields against the enemy, and obey the divine leader, Allah will also nullify the enemy’s plots against them. The verse :continues saying

”and that Allah weakens the plan of disbelievers ...“

But if you return, We (too) shall return, and your forces shall avail you nothing though
,they maybe many

”and (know) that Allah is with the believers

Commentary : verse ١٩

The addressee of this verse may be either the pagans who were defeated in the Battle of Badr, or the Muslims who disputed upon the division of the spoils of war. The evidence for the first meaning is the connection of this verse with the previous one which says: “... and that Allah weakens the plan of disbelievers.” Also, it was the expression of ‘Abūjah, the commander of pagan troops, which he uttered when he was going to come out of Mecca. He held the curtain of Ka‘ba, and said: “ O’ God! make victorious of these two groups the one that is more guided.” When he said this sentence, he was sure of his own victory, but later he defeated

And, if it addresses the Muslims, it is a warning to them, saying that after that victory they would leave out their protests. Therefore, if they had returned to their murmurs and protests, Allah would have also withheld His grace from them

.again. In that case, the enemies would be delivered and overcome them

However, Allah's wrath and grace depend on our choice and our treatment. Allah has completed the argument and has shut all the doors of seeking excuses and pretexts.

:The verse says

O' infidels! ) If (Islam's) victory you are seeking, the victory has already come) “

The largeness of population has no role or function before Allah's wrath, and certainly

Commentary : verses ۲۰–۲۱

In the Qur’ān thoroughly, the commandment of the obedience from the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) has occurred next to the obedience from Allah. In eleven occurrences the term /’ati’ūn/ (do obey) has been mentioned after the Qur’ānic phrase: “ Be in awe ” of Allah

In this verse, although both the obedience from Allah and the obedience from the Messenger are referred to, the objective is the disobedience from the Messenger, (not from

.Allah), specially in the Battle of Badr and his commands concerning the military affairs

Therefore, for the continuation of the order of the truth, people should always be :recommended to be obedient unto the Divine leader. The verse says O’ you who have Faith! Obey Allah and “

”... ,His Messenger

It should also be known that leaving the obedience from the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is the :disobedience from Allah. The verse continues saying

”.(and do not turn away from him while you hear (him...“

****

In this obedience, the obedience from the Divine leader, truthfulness is the necessary

Verily the worst of animals in the sight of Allah are the deaf, the dumb, who do not “ .٢٢
 ”.understand

Commentary : verse ٢٢

The Arabic term /ṣumm/, mentioned in the verse, is the plural form of /aṣamm/ which means ‘ deaf ’; and the Qur’ānic term /bukm/ is the plural form of /’abkam/ which .’ philologically means ‘ dumb

Those who do not accept the teachings of divine prophets are differntly defined in the .Qur’ān

Sometimes they are resembled to the dead, as it is recited in its two occurrences: “ Surely you do not make the dead to hear,...” (Sura Ar-Room, No. ٣٠, verse ٥٢); and ((Sura An-Naml, No. ٢٧, verse ٨٠

Sometimes they are resembled to beasts: “... and eat as the beasts eat, ...”. (Sura (Muhammad, No. ٤٧, verse ١٢ Sometimes they are introduced worse than the beasts, as the Qur’ān says: “... they (are as cattle, rather they are more astray. ...” (Sura Al-’A’rāf, No. ٧, verse ١٧٩

Sometimes they are considered as the worst creatures, as the verse under discussion :says

”... Verily the worst of animals in the sight of Allah “

Since ‘ the statements ’ which are not fulfilled accordingly and ‘ the hearings ’ which are uneffective in action are counted one of the greatest afflictions of the human societies, which can be the origin of kinds of misfortunes, again the Qur’ān emphasizes on this subject once more in this very verse, and in

:a delicate and nice statement, it follows that meaning by saying ,Verily the worst of animals in the sight of Allah are the deaf, the dumb “
”.who do not understand

Also, in view of the fact that the Qur’ān is the Book of practice, and not merely a ceremonial book, thoroughly it lays emphasis on the consequences of deeds. In this verse, too, those who have safe ears but they do not pave the way of hearkening to the revelations of Allah, and do not follow the words of truth and the programs which lead to happiness, are considered as earless persons. And, those who have a sound tongue but keep silence when they should defend the truth are considered as some deaf and dumb persons. Such people neither struggle against injustice and mischief, nor do they lead the ignorant, nor do they enjoin what is right and forbid what is wrong, nor do they invite others to the way of truth, but they apply this great bounty of Allah in the way of idle talks, backbitings, flatteries before the possessors of wealth and power, or they often make use of it for perverting the right and strengthening the falsehood.

The Qur’ān counts those who have the bounties of intellect, talent, and capability, but do not contemplate properly, as some mad ones

;And if Allah had known any good in them, He would have made them hear “ ٢٣ .

Commentary : verse ٢٣

Obstinate persons are divided into several groups. Some of them are not ready even to listen to the truth. The revetation about them is recited: “ And those who (disbelieved said: Do not listen to this Qur’ān ...”. (Sura Fussilat, No. ٤١, verse ٢٦

.Some of these obstinate persons listen and understand it, but they distort it

Some others have not the ability of discrimination because of their innate extra :attachments, envies, enmities and callousnesses. The verse says

And if Allah had known any good in them He would have made them hear; and “ (even) if He had ”.made them hear, they would have turned away,swerving aside

.Therefore, we must seek for the faculties of enjoying of Allah’s grace in ourselves

O you who have Faith! Answer Allah and the Messenger when he invites you to “ .٢٤ that which gives you life, and know that Allah intervenes between a man and his ,heart

”.and that unto Him you shall be gathered

Commentary : verse ٢٤

:There are different kinds of life

Vegetal life: “...Allah gives life to the earth after its death; ...” Sura Al-Hadīd, No. ٥٧,-١
verse ١٧

Animal life: “...the giver of life to the dead...” Sura Fuṣṣilat, No. ٤١, verse ٣٩-٢ Mental life: “...who was dead then We raised him to life...” Sura Al-‘An‘ām, No. ٦,-٣

verse ١٢٢

Eternal life: “...O! would that I had sent before for (this) my life!” Sura Al-Fajr, No. ٨٩,-٤ (verse ٢٤

The purpose of the life, which comes into being by the acceptance of the invitation of prophets, is not the animal life, since without the effects and affluence of prophets this sort of life exists, too. Then, the objective of this life is the mental, intellectual, and .spiritual life

The phrase: ‘ Allah intervenes between a man and his heart ’ indicates that Allah is aware and presents everywhere, and He encompasses everything so that He is closer to us than our jugular vein is. All bounties and successes belong to Him, and the activities of intellect and soul are under His authority, too

However, the acceptance of the Prophet’s invitation is the same as the acceptance of Allah’s invitation; and the real life of man lies in Faith and righteous deed, to which prophets have invited, too

:The verse says

O you have Faith! Answer Allah and the Messenger when he invites you to that which “ ... ,gives you life

The ordinances of Islam gives spiritual life to the believers, the same as some medicine or surgery can be life-giving to a sick person

Going alongside the way of Allah (s.w.t.) and divine prophets (a.s.) is the real life, while abandoning it is the death of humanity

According to the Islamic literatures, one of the aspects of goodly life is the acceptance of the call of the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) to the subject of mastership of Ali-ibn-Abiṭālib (a.s.) and his Ahl-ul-Bayt (a.s.). (Recorded in Tafsīr-i-Furqān, by Manāqib (Tarmathy

He who believes in Allah’s omnipresence and omnipotence does not disobey the invitation of prophets. Therefore, as long as you are alive and you have respite, embrace the Truth. (According to this interpretation, the phrase ‘...Allah intervenes (.between a man and his heart ’, metaphorically, means death

”... ,and know that Allah intervenes between a man and his heart ...“

Among the aspects of the phrase: ‘ Allah intervenes between a man and his heart ’ there are: the effacement of infidelity and confirming Faith, the effacement of negligence and doubt and confirming recollection and certainty. (This meaning is ((recorded in Tafsīr-i-Furqān, narrated from Imam Sādiq (a.s

And keep from the evil of an affliction which shall not smite in particular those of “ .٢٥ you who committed injustice (but all of you); and know that Allah is severe in retribution.”

Commentary : verse ٢٥

The content of the previous verse was upon the acceptance of the Prophet's invitation to ‘ the goodly life ’. Here, in this verse, the Qur'ān says if you do not accept his invitation you will be involved with an affliction whose fire encompasses everyone.

:The verse says

And keep from the evil of an affliction which shall not smite in particular “

”... ;(those of you who committed injustice (but all of you

The Arabic term /fitnah/ has been applied in the sense of idolatry, infidelity, trial, torture, and so on

The former verse ordained to the obedience from the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), while here, in this verse, the command is unto ‘ being in awe of an affliction ’. It is understood that the lack of obedience from the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is ‘affliction’. Thus the concept of the verse is the same concept as the Sura 'Āl-i-'Imrān, No. ٣, verse ١٠٣, which is recited: “ And hold fast by the cord of Allah all together, and do not separate, ...” (Al-Mizān, the Commentary

Mischief and indecency destroys the entity of a system, and its damage reaches everybody. One of the examples of this meaning was the mischief of the rulers of Umayyads. They put aside the mastership of ‘ the leader of the truth ’ and, consequently, they set the Muslims into abasement for centuries

:When this verse was revealed, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said

Whoever transgresses in Ali’s vicegerency after my death, it is as if he has denied “ my messengership and the prophethood of the prophets before me.” (Furqān, (narrated from Shawāhid-ut-Tanzīl, by Huskānī, vol. ١, p. ٢٠٦

Thus, the members of a society, besides their own duties, should feel responsibility for the deeds of others, since the reflections of everybody’s evil actions may afflict the surrounding people, too. It is similar to the person who is inside a ship and makes a hole in it. By his action, he causes that all the people in the ship to be drowned

Therefore, neither you yourself make a mischief, nor adhere with the mischief makers, nor be silent when they make mischief: “ And keep from the evil of an affliction ”; and do know that being in awe of the evil of affliction is ‘awareness’, not ‘ resignation

We must be aware not to be involved with the evil afflictions and disturbances when they come forth. Ali (a.s.) says: “ During evil disturbances be like an adolescent camel (who has neither a back strong enough for riding nor udders for milking.” (١

Commentary : verse ٢٦

Once again the Qur’ān assists Muslims to review their past history, and makes them understand both their former state and their present stage which they enjoy, so that they may catch well the concept of the lesson taught through the previous holy .verses

This verse implies that they should remember the time that they were few in number and could do nothing. They were captured in the grips of their enemies who had :drawn them into weakness and incapability. It says

”... ,And remember when you were few, deemed weak in the land “

They were in a state that they feared that both pagans and those who were their :opponents might despoil them away. The verse says

”... ,and were fearful that people would snatch you away ...“

This meaning makes manifest the utmost weakness and fewness of the members of Muslims in front of pagans in Mecca before migration of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to Medina, or after migration in front of the great powers of that time, like the forces of Iran and Rom

:Then, the verse continues saying

Occasion of Revelation verse ٢٧

In the commentary books recorded by both great sects of Islam upon the occasion of :revelation of this verse, it has been cited as follows

When the Jewish tribe named Banī-Qurayzah were surrounded by the Muslim strivers under the command of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), the Jews suggested peace and started moving toward Syria. But the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) did not accept it, and he ordered Sa‘d-ibn-Ma‘āth to judge over their circumstance. The Jews consulted with ‘Abul-Bābah, one of the Muslims who had had the background of friendship with them, about that judgment. When, ‘Abul-Bābah, by pointing to his throat, signed them that they would be killed totally if they accepted the arbitration of Sa‘d-ibn-Ma‘āth, Gabriel informed this signal to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). ‘Abul-Bābah, who was ashamed of this treachery, roped himself to the pillar of the mosque and avoided eating anything for seven days and nights. Finally, Allah accepted his repentance. (Majma‘-ul-Bayān, and Tafsīr-us-Sāfi

There has also been cited another occasion of revelation upon this verse as follows. In the Battle of Badr, one of the Muslims wrote a letter to Abū-Sufyān and informed him of the Prophet's plan. Then, Abū-Sufyān asked for help from the pagans of Mecca, and they sent one thousand fighters to fight in the Battle of Badr. (Al-Mizān, (and Majma'ul-Bayān

Commentary : verse ٢٢

Now Allah commands the believers not to approach treachery. The holy verse, addressing the believing people, implies that they should not betray Allah (s.w.t.) by means of abandoning His ordinances and His Messenger (p.b.u.h.) by leaving his rules, because whoever leaves or spoils anything of the religion, he has betrayed Allah (s.w.t.) and His Messenger (p.b.u.h.). The verse says

”... ,O you who have Faith! Do not betray Allah and the Messenger “

Also, the believers should not be treacherous to the affairs upon which Allah (s.w.t.) has trusted them, and has given them the fulfilment of them that they accomplish them without any deficiency. Thus, he who is treacherous to Allah (s.w.t.) and the Messenger of Islam (p.b.u.h.), has been treacherous to his own deposits

.And you know that treachery is an ugly action which incurs punishment

:The verse says

”.and do not betray your trusts knowingly ...“

Therefore, treachery is basically ugly and condemned, especially those treacheries which are performed knowingly, and the manifestation of military secrets are uglier and more

.dangerous, for which, of course, the sinful person must repent very soon

However, the spoils of war, alms, Khoms (one fifth levy), and all properties of others,
.which are with you, are deposits

Similarly, other bounties, such as: the school of religion, leadership, the Qur'ān, children, and territorial of the country are the deposits of Allah. And, according to the tradition which Shawāhid-ut-Tanzīl, by Hākim Huskānī, vol. ۱, p. ۲۰۵ has narrated from Ihqāq-ul-Haqq, vol. ۱۴, p. ۵۶۴ the progeny of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) are also the Divine
.deposits

.By obeying them and following them, we must protect these deposits

عِنْدَهُ أَجْرٌ عَظِيمٌ

And know that your wealth and your children are a (means of) trial, and that Allah “ ٢٨ .
”.- with Him is a great reward

Commentary : verse ٢٨

Intensive love for wealth and children is the pivot of a lot of evil actions. It is the origin of many unlawful transactions, lies, monopolies, short weights, lack of payment of the alms-tax, to avoid giving Khoms (one fifth levy) and poor-rates, greeds, hindering others' affairs, false oaths, wasting the people's rights, and the like of them. The love of children may cause a person to escape from the battle-field and not to tolerate a .short separation from the family

Then, these are the factors of trial, as explained in the previous verse. This kind of love drew 'Abul-Bābah into committing wrong and, in order to protect his wealth and .children, he assisted the enemy of Islam

Therefore, regarding the occasion of revelation of the previous verse, excessive love to wealth and children causes man to fall into sin and treachery. The verse under :discussion says

”... ,And know that your wealth and your children are a (means of) trial “

Also, wealth and children can be two fascinating traps on the way of human beings to which the Qur'ān has repeatedly

,warned in different ways. For example, Sura Al-Munāfiqūn

No. ٤٣, verse ٩ says: "... let not your wealth, or your children, divert you from the "... ;remembrance of Allah

Being attentive to the great reward of Allah causes us to leave the love of the world
:and also to abandon treachery. The verse says
".and that Allah – with Him is a great reward ..."

۲۹. “O you who have Faith! If you be in awe of Allah

He will assign for you a discrimination (between right and wrong), and absolve you of ”your misdeeds, and forgive you, and Allah is the Lord of Mighty Grace

Commentary : verse ۲۹

The current criterions of recognizing right from wrong are numerous. Among them
:are the followings

A) Prophets and saints of Allah are criterions. An Islamic tradition says: “ He who

B)The Book of Allah is a criterion. By adapting things with the Qur’ān, the right can be .recognized from wrong

C) Piety is another criterion. When the storm of instincts, accompanied with love and enmity that are nourished from impiety, arrives, piety is dismissed and impiety hinders the recognition of facts

The ability of the recognition between right and wrong is a knowledge given by Allah, and it does not merely depend on the ability of reading and writing or necessarily on the standard of knowledge

:The verse says

O you who have Faith! If you be in awe of Allah “

He will assign for you a discrimination

, (between right and wrong)

, and absolve you of your misdeeds, and forgive you

” and Allah is the Lord of Mighty Grace

Fakhr-i-Rāzī has explained: “ The expiation of sins is a concealment in this world, while ‘forgiveness ’ is a deliverance from the punishment of Allah (s.w.t.) in Hereafter. According to the statements of some other commentators of the Qur’ān, ‘ expiation ’ is to wipe out the social and psychological effects of sins, while forgiveness is a remission in respect to Hell

Therefore, those who put aside the mental desires will recognize the truth, and their piety causes a proper insight to come forth in them and a great virtue and reward to be obtained

Occasion of Revelation verse ٣٠

This verse is a hint to /laylat-ul-mabit/ (the night when Ali (a.s.) laid himself in couch of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), and a reference unto the heathens' plot for killing the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.). The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was informed of that plot by means of the Messenger Angel Gabriel, and then Ali-ibn-Abi-Tālib (a.s.) laid himself in the couch of the Holy prophet (p.b.u.h.) under his mantle-piece. So, the Holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) went out of his house by the same night and took shelter in the cave of Thūr, from where he migrated to Medina

There were three plots, mentioned in the verse under discussion, by either of them infidels wanted to work against the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). Those plots were designed in the meeting that the elders of pagans held in Dār-un-Nudwah, where they finally approved the second plan. By that plan they decided that a young man from each of the tribes be chosen and they would be prepared so that all of them together could attack to kill him, in order that the charge of the murder might be laid equally on each tribe and the relatives of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) might not be able to fight against all those tribes together and thus there would be left to them .no other choice but to receive his blood-money

Commentary : verse ٢٠

The Arabic word /makr/ means: ‘deceit and trick’. ‘Azharī, a commentator, says: “People’s deceit is recompensed by Allah’s deceit and trickery.” There is a difference between the Arabic terms /qadr/ (treachery) and /makr/ (deceit). The meaning of the former is accompanied with breach of promise, while the meaning of the later is .deceit in general

The verse addresses the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to remember when pagans began devising :and consulting with each other how to defeat him and to kill him. The verse says

And (remember) when those who disbelieved plotted against you “

”... .to take you captive, or to kill you, or to expel you

They devised about him and Allah devised about them, too. That is, some of them plotted so that he (p.b.u.h.) could not understand, and Allah devised against them in a :way that they did not know, and punished them. The verse says

”... ,They devised and Allah devised...”

Allah is the best devisers, because He pays to nothing but what is true and right. This meaning lies in this fact that: He sends down the punishment upon those who deserve :it. The verse ends as follows

”...and Allah is the best devisers ...”

And when Our signs are recited to them, they say: ‘ We have heard. If we like, we “ .٣١ (too

”.’ can say the like of this (Qur’ān). This is naught but the tales of the ancients

Commentary : verse ٣١

In the previous verse, the words were about the plot of the enemies of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) who wanted to kill him. Here, this holy verse refers to their decision that they :decided to belittle the religion of Islam and the Qur’ān. The verse says

:And when Our signs are recited to them, they say “

”... .We have heard ‘

The Arabic word /’asātīr/ is the plural form of the Qur’ānic term /’ustūrah/ with the .’ sense of ‘ myths ’, and ‘ imaginary superstitious tales

Before the appointment of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to his Divine mission, Nasr-ibn-i-Hārith once had come to Iran and had learnt the Iranian story of Rustam and Isfandiyār. When he returned back to Mecca and Medina, he said to the people of his own locality that he could also speak like Muhammad (p.b.u.h.) and tell stories. (Cited in some commentary books such as: the one compiled by ‘Ālūsī, Majma‘-ul-Bayān, .(and Fī-Zilāl-il-Qur’ān

Among the common weapons of enemies, of course, are demagoguery, belittling, and :disparaging. The verse continues saying

”... .(If we like, we (too) can say the like of this (Qur’ān ...“

This fact must also be known that enemies of Islam are usually some haughty persons. They claim, but in action, they are incapable to bring the like of the Qur’ān.
They said that those verses had not any important content in them and they were the :myths of the ancient people. The verse says

”.’ This is naught but the tales of the ancients ...“

They said such a statement while they had repeatedly tried to challenge with the Qur’ān, but they failed every time. So, they knew well that they could not oppose against the Qur’ān or challenge with it

And (remember) when they said: ‘ O Allah! if this (Qur’ān) is the truth from You, “ .٣٢
,then rain down upon us stones from the sky

”.’ or bring us a painful punishment

Commentary : verse ٣٢

Such prayers of curses, were either because of intense zeal and obstinacy that they considered their own way as a right way and the way of Islam wrong, or it was a kind of demagoguery. They cursed themselves in order that some simple-hearted people might feel that Islam was wrong

When the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), under the command of Allah in Qadir-i-Khum, appointed Ali (a.s.) for Imamate, Nu‘mān-ibn-Hārith, one of the hypocrites, came to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and said: “ You ordered us to Unity, prophethood, Holy Struggle, Hajj, fasting, prayer and alms giving, and we accepted them all. Now have you appointed this lad as Imam over us? ” The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: “ It was the command of Allah.” Then Nu‘mān, the hypocrite, cursed himself, and in his curse he imitated this very verse.

(.Al-Qadir, vol. ١, pp. ٢٣٩-٢٦٦, narrated from ٣٠ scholars of the Sunnites

Therefore, an enemy may also expose himself to a curse in order to show himself :true. The verse says

And (remember) when they said: “ O Allah! if this (Qur’ān) is the truth from You, then “
”.’ rain down upon us stones from the sky, or bring us a painful punishment

۳۳- وَمَا كَانَ اللَّهُ لِيُعَذِّبَهُمْ وَأَنْتَ فِيهِمْ وَمَا كَانَ اللَّهُ مُعَذِّبَهُمْ

وَهُمْ يَسْتَغْفِرُونَ

But Allah is not to punish them while you are among them, nor is Allah to chastise “ ۳۳
” .them while they seek forgiveness

Commentary : verse ۳۳

The purpose of negation of punishment is removing the general punishment from Muslims because of the existence of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) among them, as former nations were punished; else, in some particular cases, some persons may encounter .the Divine punishments

Some Islamic traditions denote that because of the existence of some purified persons and godly scholars or for the sake of those who seek forgiveness and really repent, Allah (s.w.t.) removes His punishment from people among whom they live. The :verse says

But Allah is not to punish them while you are among them, nor is Allah “
” .to chastise them while they seek forgiveness

In this regard, the existence of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is a safety for the population of the earth: “... while you are among them, ...”; and, also, seeking forgiveness hinders
” .calamities, as the abovementioned verse says: “... while they seek forgiveness

It is cited in Nahjul-Balāqah that after the departure of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), Hadrat Ali (a.s.) said: “ There were two sources of deliverance from Allah’s punishment, one of which has been raised up, while the other is before you. You should therefore adhere to it. ...” (which is seeking forgiveness) .(۱)

In the supplication of Kumayl, there is a clause that points to the sins which cause afflictions to come down. It is recited as follows: “ O Allah! forgive me the sins which
”.bring about tribulation

Sura Hūd, No. ۱۱, verse ۱۱۷ says: “ And it did not beseen your Lord to have destroyed

٣٤. “And what (plea) have they that Allah should not chastise them “

?while they bar (people) from the Holy Mosque, and they are not guardians of it

”.Its guardians are not but only the pious ones, but most of them do not know

Commentary : verse ٣٤

The previous verse indicated that because of the existence of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) among his community and for the sake of their seeking forgiveness, Allah removed from them a punishment like the punishment of the people of ‘Ād and Thamūd. This verse refers to their punishment. The purpose of this punishment may be the worldly punishment and fighting on the earth. It can also be said that they deserve divine punishment, but Allah does not punish them for the sake of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). Or it may mean that they will not be punished in the present world, but they will be punished in the coming world.

However, those who hinder people to arrive into the Holy Mosque should expect the Divine punishment. The holy verse says

And what (plea) have they that Allah should not chastise them, while they bar “ ((people

”... ?from the Holy Mosque, and they are not guardians of it

They should also know that the custodianship of the Sacred House, which had been built by Abraham the Friend of Allah (a.s.) and based upon piety, must not be left :under the control of some impious persons. The verse continues saying

,Its guardians are not but only the pious ones ...“

”.but most of them do not know

٣٥. "And their prayer at the (Sacred) House is naught but whistling and clapping "

".Therefore taste the punishment for what you used to disbelieve

Commentary : verse ٣٥

The Arabic term /mukā'/' means ' to whistle ', and the Qur'ānic word /tasdiyah/ means ' to clap '.

Their whistling might be for announcing their presence to the idols which were settled in Ka'bah

In the length of the history of human beings, the religious ceremonies have been being distorted, so that sometimes the most sacred centers have become the pivot of the greatest superstitions. The verse says

"... And their prayer at the (Sacred) House is naught but whistling and clapping "

By the way, changing the recitation of Salawāt into claps and whistles in the meetings of today is a sign for changing prayers into their clapping and whistling, which causes the descent of calamities and punishments. The denotation expansion of punishment in this verse is the defeat of pagans in the Battle of Badr

In Islamic literature, it is recorded that during the time when the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was busy praying frequently, two men from the tribe of Banī-'Abd-ud-Dār came and stood at his

.right side to whistle and two men stood at his left side to clap

They did so in order to hinder him to establish his prayer easily. Later, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) killed all of them in the Battle of Badr. Now, this verse, addressing them and other members of Banī-‘Abd-ud-Dār, says

”.Therefore taste the punishment for what you used to disbelieve ...“

That is, as the retribution of their disbelief, they should taste the punishment of the sword of the Battle of Badr and the punishment of the Hereafter, too

” and those who disbelieve will be mustered unto Hell

Commentary: verse ٣٦

It has been said that this verse was revealed upon the heavy treasury that the pagan of Mecca spent for the Battle of Badr. But the general meaning of the verse includes .all the treasuries which may be spent on opposition against Islam

Disbelievers spend properties in charity for their evil aims, why do Muslims not spend ?for their sacred aims

So, in this holy verse, it says that those who spend their wealth on the way of fighting against the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) in order that they hinder people from the way and religion of Allah, will be regretful soon, and they will understand that they will not be .benefited from that, but it will be the cause of their misfortune

:The verse says

Verily those who disbelieve spend their wealth in order that they hinder (men) from “
, (the way of Allah, and still they will spend it, (too

”... ,then it will be to them a cause of regret, then they will be overcome

Thus, those who disbelieve, after being involved with regret as a result of their failure
:in this world, will also be sent into Hell in Hereafter. The verse says

”and those who disbelieve will be mustered unto Hell...”

Why the phrase: “ those who disbelieve ” is repeated twice in this verse is for the reason that some of the disbelievers, who spent their wealth for the opposition of Islam, embraced Islam later, therefore the punishment of the Hereafter belongs to those .persons who died before becoming Muslims

Commentary : verse ٣٧

’.The Arabic term, /yarkumah/ means: ‘ to accumulate and to pile up together

From among the results of oppositions, molestations and the fights between right and wrong is that spiritualities, motives, revenues , promises, and plots are usually made
.manifest, and the essence or substance of man will be shown

To make separate the supporters of the right from wrong is one of Allah’s ways of : treatment. the verse says

So that Allah may separate the corrupt from the good and place corrupt one “
”... ,another

On Resurrection Day, Allah will gather the corrupt persons with together and send :them wholly into Hell. The verse says

”.and pile them up all together, and put them in Hell; those are the losers...”

As some Islamic literature indicate, accumulation, pressure, and tightness of place are from the specialties of the people of Hell. These impious people are in narrowness there, though Hell is very vast and it repeatedly asks for more and more wrong-doers. It is like a large wall where there are many points of place for a great deal of nails, but
.every nail is in pressure

Tell those who disbelieve, if they desist (from corruptions) what has past will be “ ٣٨ . forgiven for them, but if they return (thereto), then what happened to the ancients
” .has already passed

Commentary: verse ٣٨

In this verse, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is commanded to tell the pagans if they repent and :really leave corruptions, their former sins will be forgiven. The verse says Tell those who disbelieve, if they desist (from corruptions) what has past “

”... ,will be forgiven for them

And if they return to war again and persist on infidelity, Allah's way of treatment unto the former nations has been this that He has always helped the believers and has .made the enemies of the religion confronted with disgrace and misfortune

:The verse says

but if they return (thereto), then what happened to the ancients has already ... “ ” .passed

When the holy verse says: /sunnat-ul-’awwalīn/ and refers

Allah’s way of treatment ’ to the ancient, it is for the reason that ‘ Allah’s way of ‘ treatment ’ had always been executed upon them. In another occurrence, the Qur’ān says: “ (This is Our) course with regard to those of Our Messengers whom We sent before you, ...” (Sura Al-’Isrā’ No. ١٧, verse ٧٧). Here, He attributes the way of treatment to His messengers, because Allah’s way of treatment had been executed by them. Therefore, in the same verse, He continues saying: “... and you shall not find a change in Our course .” Here, He attributes the way of treatment (course) to His Pure Essence again, because, in fact, the real executor of ‘ the way of treatment ’ is
.Allah Himself

٣٩. "And fight with them until there be no mischief and the religion be wholly for Allah "

".But if they desist, then verily Allah sees what they do

Commentary: verse ٣٩

The content meaning of this verse addresses the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and the Muslim believers. It commands that they should fight against pagans and root out the sedition of polytheism. The objective meaning is that the fight against those pagans, who have not given covenant, should be continued until there will remain none of them. The reason of it is that a pagan, who has not covenant, may penetrate inside his tribe and try to invite them to his own creed and, thereby, he can create temptation in the religion of Allah. The verse says

"...And fight with them until there be no mischief..."

In that case, both the people of right and the people of wrong will wholly turn and attend in the religion of Truth and will have correct beliefs. In other words, as a result of assembling people in the true religion, the whole religion will be of Allah. The verse says

"...and the religion be wholly for Allah..."

Zurārah, as well as some other commentators, has narrated from Imam Sādiq (a.s) who said: " The interpretation of this verse has not come forth yet. When our Ghā'im raises, those who will be alive on the earth will see its interpretation and the religion of Muhammad (p.h.u.h.) will cover throughout the world. Then there will remain no polytheist therein.”<sup>(1)</sup> And Allah says: “ They shall serve Me, not associating aught with Me, ...”

..(Sura An- nūr, No. ۲۴, verse ۵۵

In Islam, the aim of wars is not occupying lands and countries, but their aim is the ..expansion of the religion of Islam and opposing with mischiefs

The Qur’ānic term /fitnah/ (sedition) has a vast meaning. It includes any imposition of pressure, too. This word has also been used in the Qur’ān with the meaning of ‘ polytheism ’. It is, maybe, for the fact that kinds of limitations and impositions of pressures are fulfilled over the minds, societies and truth-seekers from the side of polytheists. Or, since polytheism causes the eternal punishment to be incurred,
..imposing infidelity on believers and pure-nature humans is counted mischief, too if you believe in Allah and what We sent down to Our servant on the day of distinction ,((of right from wrong the day when the two hosts encountered (the day of Battle of Badr), and surely Allah ”.is All-powerful over everything

Commentary : verse ٤١

According to some Islamic traditions that the Shi‘ite believe, the meaning of the term /qanimat/ (booty) is not confined to the war spoils, but, besides that, it encompasses any kind of gain which is obtained from mains, diving, trade, and so on. Thus, the revelation of the verse concerning the Battle of Badr is not an evidence that its ? purpose is only ‘ war spoils

Through the first verse of this Sura, the Qur’ān allocated all ‘Anfāl (the things gained) to Allah and the Messenger, while

’ (this verse says that ‘ a fifth of it is for Allah and for the Messenger (Ahlul-Bayt

If the objective meaning of the term /qanimat/ (booty) is only ‘ the spoils of war ’, it must be said that this verse refers to only one instance of Khoms (one fifth) and other instances are discussed in some Islamic traditions

As many traditions of the Shi‘ite and also some traditions of the Sunnite indicate, the meaning of the Qur’ānic term /ōil qurbā/ (near relatives) does not envelop all the relatives of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), but its purpose is the immaculate Imams (a.s.) from Ahl-ul-Bayt who possess the rank of leadership. So, the amount of Khoms (one fifth levy) belongs to the divine leader and the Islamic government, not to all the relatives (of the Prophet (p.b.u.h

Other usages of Khoms (one fifth levy) are for indigents, way-farers who are progenies of Banī-Hāshim – since it is unlawful to give them alms, and their needs should be provided through Khoms

Besides the Islamic traditions which consider the meaning of /ōil qurbā/ (near relatives) the immaculate Imams (a.s.), the occurrence of the word recited in the same row with Allah and the Messenger in the verse is a sign which implies /ōil qurbā/ are some persons who are along the way of Allah (s.w.t.) and the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h

: Explanations

Now that, by the help of Allah, you are victorious in the Battle of Badr, do not evade – paying Khoms (one fifth) of booties

Commentary : verse ٤٢

The Qur’ānic term /‘udwah/ is derived from /‘aduw/ with the meaning of ‘ to transgress ’. It is also used for the edge and surroundings of anything that has gone beyond the medium. In this verse, the objective meaning of the term /‘udwah/ is ‘ the ’ side and lower extremities

The Arabic word /dunyā/ is derived from /dunuww/ in the sense of ‘down side and ’ nearer ’, while the Arabic word /quswā / means ‘ farther

In the Battle of Badr, the enemies not only had superiority from the points of arms, number of fighters, and preparation, but also they were preferable from the point of the site of settlement of their forces, because they could find a way at the bank of the Red Sea to escape. But Allah caused the Muslims to encounter the pagans with the aim of confiscation of their properties, where they had no way but to fight. Yet, it was only the grace of Allah which brought triumph of that Battle for the Muslims

A Review over the Battle of Badr

The illustration of the feature of the Battle of Badr by reviewing Sura Al-'Anfāl from the beginning can show Allah's helps better

They thought of confiscation of pagans' properties, but they were not ready for war: " ... and loved that the one unarmed should be yours, ... " (verse No. ۷)

When the war began, they were worried: "... a party of the believers were certainly averse (to it)," (verse No. ۵)

They were afraid of death: " ... as if they were being driven unto death ..." (verse No. ۶)

They were disturbed and were seeking their Lord for help: " ... when you were calling upon your Lord for succour, ... " (verse No. ۹)

By the night of attack, Satan imposed them his uncleanness (jenābat) (major ritual impurity): " ... The uncleanness of Satan, ... " (verse No. ۱۱)

They did not have complete obedience from the commander: " ... Those who say: 'We heard,' but they do not hear (indeed) " (verse No. ۲۱)

They were small in number and they were fearful to be hunted by the enemy: " ... you were few, ..., and were fearful that people would snatch you away, ..." (verse No. ۲۶)

Some of them had formerly committed treachery, (the event of 'Abul-Bābah, – ۸ .(described in verse No. ۲۷

Their leader was threatened and plotted against by disbelievers: “ ... Those who – ۹ (disbelieved plotted against you ...” (verse No. ۳۰

They were thirsty, and they fell in major ritual impurity while the sand under their – ۱۰
.feet was soft and Allah sent down water for them

If the affairs were at their disposal, with those many difficulties they had, they – ۱۱ would never come to agreement: “... and had you agreed together one tryst, you .(would have surely failed the tryst, ...” (verse under discussion

Wherever Allah pleases, He removes all the factors of weakness: “... but in order – ۱۲ that Allah might bring about a matter which was to be done, ...” (verse under .(discussion

Having all these helps, whoever does not believe will knowingly be destroyed, and – ۱۳ whoever believes will knowingly believe: “ ... that he who perishes may perish by a ”... ,clear proof and he who lives may live by a clear proof

Do not judge hurriedly. They did not like to fight, but, later, they found out its – ۱۴

” .in the breasts

Commentary : verse ٤٣

Following the explanation of some Allah’s graces and His helps unto the Muslims, this verse speaks about the number of pagans which was shown few in the eyes of the Muslims. This was done in a few stages. The first stage was that the Prophet (p.b.u.h) saw them as few in his dream, and, saying that to the Muslims, promoted their courage. The second stage was that He showed the number of the Muslims in the eyes of pagans so few that they would not call for further fresh forces from Mecca to .help them

It is principally true that prophets’ dream is a glow of revelation, but that the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) saw the large crowd of the pagans so few in his dream was an indication to the reality of the inward state of the pagans, which was fear, weakness and incapability. Sura Al-Hashr, No. ٥٩, verse ١٤ in this regard says: “... you may think
” .them united, but their hearts are disunited

However, dream is one of the ways of communication, seeking help, and taking courage through Allah's succour. It should also be noted that, in the most terrible conditions, Allah may protect believers and crush their enemies

:The verse says

Remember) when Allah showed them to you as few in your dream and had He) “
,shown them as many you would have become dishearted and disputed about the matter; but Allah did save

,(enemy

as few in your eyes, and He made you few in their eyes in order that Allah may enact the matter which was destined to be done, and ” .unto Allah all matters are returned

Commentary : verse ٤٤

When infidels saw the crowd of the Muslims, they appeared in their eyes so few that they said they would send their slaves to destroy the Muslims.(١) But when the war began and they were fighting, they saw the number of those Muslims two fold and they were afraid of them.(٢) Sura 'Āl-i-'Imran, No. ٣, verse ١٣ says: “... they (infidels) ... ;saw twice as many as they were with the sight of the eye

Therefore, in order to help Muslims, Allah may utilize genetic authority and :interference in the sights. The verse says

And (remember) when He showed them to you, when you encountered(the enemy), “
” ... ,as few in your eyes

So, if the Will of Allah lies in an affair, He will remove all barriers. The verse continues
:saying

and He made you few in their eyes in order that Allah may enact the matter which...“

,O you who have Faith! when you encounter a host (in battle), then stand firm “ .۴۵

”.and remember Allah much, that you may be prosperous

Commentary : verse ۴۵

Now that Allah (s.w.t.) has commanded the Muslims to be steadfast in the battlefield,

:He says

O you who have Faith! when you encounter a host “

”...,(in battle), then stand firm)

That is, whenever you face with a group of infidels in war, stand firm for fighting against them, and do not escape. And, it is evident that believers generally do not fight .save against hostile infidels

Then the holy verse implies that, at the time of war, Muslims should seek help from Allah, the Mighty, so that not only they become victorious and successful in the present world but also they become prosperous

:The verse continues saying

”and remember Allah much, that you may be prosperous...”

Some commentators say that this part of the verse means that you should remember the promises of Allah, which He has given you about triumph, in order that your steadfastness might be increased

And obey Allah and His Messenger, and do not dispute, for you will become “ .٤٦

Commentary : verse ٤٦

Believers should obey Allah and His Messenger, and when they encounter their enemy, they should be united and avoid disputing . Otherwise, they may fear and lose their hearts, and begin fighting while their courage and power vanish

: The verse says

And obey Allah and His Messenger, and do not dispute, for you will become “ dishearted and your
”...;power will depart

Some commentators have said that they may lose victory and government as a result
.of it

The Arabic term /riḥ/, mentioned here, is a hint to progression, influence, and reaching
.the aim

Some other commentators have said that if Muslims show discord with each other,
.they will not find the breeze of triumph upon their lives

Thus, they should be patient in the war against the enemy, since Allah is with the :patient ones. The verse says

”and be patient, verily Allah is with the patient ...“

Commentary : verse ٤٧

The verse addresses the believers, telling them not to be like the Quraysh who made up a group of mischievous drunkard persons to go out in order to protect their caravan. Intending ostentation and prohibiting others from the religion of Allah, i.e. Islam, they started from Mecca toward the land of Badr

Their hypocritical act was that they wanted to pretend that they did not count Muslims so considerable and important that they would be fearful of them. But they should know that Allah is aware of their deeds and none of their acts is concealed to Him, the One Who gives them the retribution of their hypocritical deeds

But when the two hosts sighted each other, he turned upon his heels, and said: ‘

.Indeed I am quit of you

Verily I see what you do not see. Surely I fear Allah, and Allah is severe in retribution

”?’

Commentary : verse ٤٨

Here, in this verse, another scene of the Battle of Badr, which happened on the day of .war, has been illustrated

At first, it implies that on that day, Satan made their deeds seem decorous to them, so that they would think of their actions optimistically and became encouraged by them.

:The verse says

”... And (remember) when Satan made their deeds fair seeming to them “

Satan’s decoration is such that, by the way of stimulating lusts, desires, and indecent qualities in him, he makes the feature of man’s actions so fair seeming to his eyes that he will terribly be attracted to it. Satan tempts them that today they have so many fighters with a lot of arms, so much so that none

:of people can overcome them, and they are an undefeating army. The verse says

”... ,and said: ‘ Today none of people shall overcome you ...“

Then Satan adds that besides that, he is also their neighbour and so near to them that, at the necessary time, like a faithful sympathetic neighbor, he will withhold no :support from them. The verse continues saying

”... ’.and I will be a protector for you ...“

But when the two armies encountered each other and the angels came to help the army of Unity, the infidels observed the power and steadfastness of the Muslims. Then, Satan turned back and shouted at them, saying that he hated them (the :infidels). The verse says

,But when the two hosts sighted each other ...“

:he turned upon his heels, and said

”... .Indeed I am quit of you ‘

Satan brought forth two reasons for his awful turning back. The first reason was that :he said

”... .Verily I see what you do not see ...“

By this phrase, Satan meant that he saw the signs of triumph in the features of the believing Muslims, as well as the effects of Allah’s support and angels’ helps among .them

Satan added another thing, saying that he was afraid of the painful punishment of :Allah in the scene which he saw very near. The verse says

”... surely I fear Allah ...“

Allah’s punishment is not such a simple thing that anybody can resist before it, but it is :certain that His retribution is sharp and severe. The verse says

” and Allah is severe in retribution ...“

٤٩. “(Remember) when the hypocrites said, and those in whose hearts was a disease)

‘.Their religion has deluded them ‘

”.But whoever puts his trust in Allah, then Allah is indeed the Mighty, the Wise

Commentary: verse ٤٩

The persons who apparently express that they have believed in Islam but inwardly they hesitate about it are those who carry a disease in their hearts. The verse says

“(Remember) when the hypocrites said) “

”... :and those in whose hearts was a disease

Some commentators have said that there were several young men from Quraysh in Mecca who embraced Islam, and then, their fathers put them in prison. They were: Qays-ibn-Walid-ibn-Muqayrah, ‘Ali-ibn-‘Ummayit-ibn-Khalf, ‘As-ibn-Munbih, Hārith-ibn-Zam‘ah, and Abū-Qays-ibn-Fākihat-ibn Muqayrah. As soon as they saw the small number of the Muslims in war, they said that those people were proud of their religion and, disregard the large crowd of pagans there, they had been deceived by the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and they came to fight

Then Allah states the following phrase, meaning that they themselves were deluded.

:The verse says

”.But whoever puts his trust in Allah, then Allah is indeed the Mighty, the Wise ...“

That is, whoever delivers his affairs to Allah (s.w.t.) and trusts in Him while he tries to please Him by his good behaviour, Allah (s.w.t.) helps him and prepares the means of victory for him. The reason is that Allah is Mighty and Wise, and the one who refuges to Him will be secured by His mightness and wisdom

:(smiting their faces and their backs (and saying

” .’ Taste the punishment of the burning ‘

” .servants

Commentary: verses ٥١-٥٠

The verse indicates that were you to see when the angles take away the infidels, striking their faces and their backs, you would surprise. The objective meaning is the :dead bodies of those who were killed in the Battle of Badr. The verse says

And had you seen when the angles take away the souls of those who disbelieve “

:(smiting their faces and their backs (and saying

” .’ Taste the punishment of the burning ‘

It has been said that a man came to the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h) and said that he had seen a trace on the back of Abūjahīl which was like the trace of a horseshoe. The .Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said that it had been the trace of the smiting of the angles

Mujāhid had narrated that once a man told the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) that as soon as he decided to smite one of the polytheists, he fell dead. The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said that the angels had attacked the .pagan before he started

The angels tell the infidels that after this punishment there is another chastisement
.waiting them which is more burning and more blazing

Some commentators have said that, on the day of the Battle of Badr, the angels had some arms made of iron. When they struck them on the polytheists, a fire burned their wounds, and the purpose of the phrase: ‘ taste the punishment of the burning ’ is .this very meaning

****

This retribution they are involved with is for the evil manner they showed from
.themselves in this life

The reason why the verse says: ‘ This is for what your hands have sent ahead ’, is that most of actions are done by the hands. The purpose here is their crimes, .faithlessness, and sins. The verse says

This is for what your hands have sent ahead, and that Allah is not unjust unto the “
” .servants

Allah (s.w.t.) punishes the servants as much as they are deserving to, not more than
.that

However, it is clearly understood from this verse that Allah does not punish anyone without having any sin, or for the sin another person has committed, because it is :unjust. So, Allah seriously negates cruelty and injustice from Himself, when He says

” .and that Allah is not unjust unto the servants...”

٥٢- كَذَّابٍ ءَالٍ فِرْعَوْنِ وَالَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ كَفَرُوا بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ فَآخَذَهُمُ اللَّهُ بِذُنُوبِهِمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ قَوِيٌّ شَدِيدُ الْعِقَابِ

O' Prophet! the manner of pagans of your time is also) like the manner of) “ ٥٢ .
Pharaoh's clan and

,those before them, they disbelieved in Allah's Signs

”so Allah seized them for their sins. Verily Allah is strong, severe in retribution

Commentary: verse ٥٢

In this verse and its following couple of verses, the Qur'an points to a constant Divine
.way of manner about clans and nations

At first it addresses the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and implies that the style and the state of the pagans of Quraysh is like that of Pharaoh's clan and the people who were before them. Those people rejected the Signs of Allah, therefore He punished them for their :sins. The verse says

O' Prophet! the manner of pagans of your time is also) like the manner of) “

Pharaoh's clan and those before them, they disbelieved in Allah's Signs, so Allah
”... seized them for their sins

It is certain that Allah (s.w.t.) is Mighty, Omnipotent, and His retribution is severe. The
:verse says

”.Verily Allah is strong, severe in retribution...”

Thus, there were not only the Quraysh and polytheists and idolaters of Mecca who rejected the signs of Allah and showed obstinacy before the Truth and disputed with the true leaders of humanity, and then they were involved with the retribution of their .sins, but also this is a permanent Divine Law

٥٣- ذَلِكِ بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ لَمْ يَكُ مُغَيِّرًا نِعْمَةً أَنْعَمَهَا عَلَىٰ قَوْمٍ

حَتَّىٰ يُغَيِّرُوا مَا بِأَنْفُسِهِمْ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ

That is because Allah does not change a blessing He has bestowed on a people “ ٥٣ .
,unless they change what is in their own selves

”.and Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing

Commentary: verse ٥٣

Then, by mentioning the basic root of the subject, the Qur’ān makes this matter more clear. It implies that all of these are for that Allah does not alter whatever blessing He bestows on a people unless those people themselves alter their own conditions, and,
:of course Allah is aware of everything. The verse says

That is because Allah does not change a blessing He has bestowed on a people “
,unless they change what is in their own selves

”.and Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing

In other words, the graces and blessings of Allah (s.w.t.) are infinite, common, and general, but they reach people due to their eligibilities, suitabilities and competencies. When people utilize the blessings of Allah (s.w.t.) as a means for reaching unto their perfection, and show gratitude for them, which is the correct usage of them, Allah makes His blessings fixed and increased. But, when these blessings are used as a ,means for disobedience, injustice, mischief, and ingratitude

.He may take them back or changes them into some afflictions and calamities

Thus, alteration of the bounties and blessings always depend on our own selves, else
.the blessings and merits of Allah are ceaseless

An Islamic tradition indicates that nothing can change the Divine blessings like what injustice does, since Allah hears the complaints of the oppressed. (At-Tafsīr-ul-

Commentary: verse ٥٤

Following this aim, the Qur'an refers again to the state of some rich persons like the clan of Pharaoh and some groups of people from among former nations. It implies that the manner and worship of idolaters, concerning the change of blessings and facing with the severe retributions, is like the manner and circumstances of the :people of Pharaoh and the people before them. The verse says

Like the manner of Pharaoh's clan and “

”... ,those before them

They also rejected the Signs of their Lord which were sent down with the aim of their .guidance, reinforcement, and felicity

”... ,they denied the Signs of their Lord ...“

Therefore, the Lord destroyed them, too, for their own sins. The verse continues :saying

”... ,so We destroyed them for their sins...“

:And Allah drowned Pharaoh's clan in the waves of the sea. The verse remarks Verily the worst of animals in Allah's sight are those who disbelieve, so they will “ ٥٥ .

” .not have faith

Commentary: verse ٥٥

In verse No. ٢٢ from the current Sura, the meaning of the Qur'ānic phrase /šarr-ad-dawābb/ (the worst of animals) was introduced as ‘ those who do not contemplate ’, while here, in this verse, they are defined as ‘ those who disbelieve ’. The verse says

Verily the worst of animals in Allah's sight are those who disbelieve, so they will not “
” .have faith

So, the origin of infidelity is the absence of right intellect. The Qur'ān considers the feature of humanity of man in wisdom and belief, so that if he does not contemplate or paves the way of infidelity, he will be out of the circle of humanity. Thus, a true human, indeed, is the one who is wise and has Faith

It is possible that a disbeliever has a title and rank with the people of his society, but he is ‘ the worst of animals ’ in the sight of Allah

It is cited in some commentary books that the referent of a concept of this verse is the Jews, but this idea does not harm the generality of the concept of the verse

However, those who hear the call and invitation of prophets, and do not show any positive reflection to it, are ’ the worst of animals ‘

Commentary: verse ٥٦

The agreement of the Jews with the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was that they should not help pagans and not try to hurt the Muslims. But those groups of the Jews broke their .promise and for the Battle of Jandaq they helped pagans by selling them arms

.Therefore, breach of promise is not consistent with humanity

But breach of promise is the style of infidels. Faithfulness and chivalry are necessary :to piety. The verse says

Those with whom you made a covenant, then they break their covenant every time, “
”and they are not pious

Some Islamic traditions indicate that he who breaks promise is a hypocrite, although (he establishes prayers and observes the fast. (At-Tafsīr-ul-Burhān

So, when you confront them in war, (by punishing them) scatter the ones “ .٥٧

Commentary: verse ٥٧

The Qur’ānic term /taθqafannahum/ is derived from the Arabic word /θaqifa/ which means ‘to understand something quickly and carefully’. Then the word mentioned in the above-mentioned verse means that ‘when you encounter infidels in war, you .’should face them very vigilantly in order not to be seized unawares

The Arabic word /tašrīd/ means ‘to cause insecurity, anxiety’ and ‘to disperse’. Thus, the phrase means that you should attack the enemy in a manner and with a martial plan that their supporters out of the scene, and the forces behind them, become so terrified that they do not think of invasion and continuation of supporting them any .more

:The verse says

So, when you confront them in war, (by punishing them) scatter the ones “

”.behind them so that they might be admonished

Islam is a religion of kindness and mercy, yet it does not tolerate treachery, breach of promise, and disturbance of the regularity and security. Then, infidels should be .punished so violently that they relinquish attacking you again

Commentary: verses ۵۸-۵۹

The Qur’ānic term /’anbiŕ/ is derived from /nabaŕa/ which means ‘ to throw ’. Here it means: ‘then throw their covenant back to them ’. That is, from before they should announce and cancel the covenant so that they would not be seized unawares and .you, too, would not have acted cowardly

The holy phrase /‘alā sawā’ /either means ‘ behaving correspondingly ’, viz. in the same manner that they think of plotting and breaching promise, you may cancel the covenant, too. Or, it means the clear canceling of the covenant, or having a just (behaviour toward the enemy. (Al-Mizām

The verse is about the situation where there are some evidences upon the enemy’s plot for invasion. So, in order to avoid it, precedence in canceling the covenant should .be performed

The performance of canceling the covenant is just when behaving correspondingly.
:The verse says

٦٠ Commentary: verse

!Increase of War Power and Its Aim

Adapting to the former instruction upon Islamic Struggle, in this verse the Qur’ān points to an important principal which must be observed by Muslims in different ages.

.This principal is the necessity of enough war preparation against the enemy

:At first, it says

,And prepare against them whatever you can of (military) power and of war-horses “

That is, do not wait until the enemy attacks you and then make yourselves prepare to fight. You should be prepared

.enough from before to stand against the probable attacks of the enemy

The concept of the verse is so vast that it quite easily adapts to any time and any place. If this great Islamic instruction which says: “ And prepare against them whatever you can of (military) power ...” is preached as a common motto everywhere and all Muslims apply it in their own lives, whether they are young or old, educated or uneducated, writer or speaker, soldier or officer, farmer or merchant, it will be .enough to make amends their retardation

Practical life of the Prophet of Allah (p.b.u.h.), as well as the great leaders of Islam, also show that they never neglected any opportunity of fighting against their enemies. They would not disregard any matter, small and great, about supplying arms and personals, encouraging their soldiers, choosing a suitable camping-place, deciding on a proper time for attacking the enemy, and utilizing all kinds of military .methods

Next to the statement of this instruction, the Qur’ān points to the logical and manly aim of this subject. It implies that the aim is not that you mow the nations of the world, and even the people of your own community, by kinds of destructive arms. You should not spoil the towns and lands, or take in possession the properties and lands of others, or expand the principals of slavery and colonialism in the world. But, the aim is that by these means you frighten the enemy of Allah (s.w.t.) and those who are the :enemy of yours. The verse continues saying

”... ,to frighten thereby the enemy of Allah, and your enemy ...“

The reason of it is that usually most of the enemies of the truth do not pay attention to the logical statements and human

.principals. They do not understand anything but the logic of force

Then, the Qur'ān adds that in addition to these enemies, whom you know, you have some other enemies whom you do not know, but Allah knows them, and with the increase of the military preparation in yourselves they may fear and return back. The
:verse says

”... .and others besides them, whom you do not know (but) Allah knows them...”

This statement contains an instruction for the Muslims of today, too. It implies that Muslims should not lay emphasis only on their known enemies and confine their preparation to the limit of struggling before them. They should also consider their probable enemies who are in potency, and prepare the utmost power and necessary
.forces they can

Finally, the Qur'ān points to another important matter. It implies that preparing power, forces, enough military instruments and different means of defence need a financial source. Therefore, it commands Muslims to supply this capital through a general cooperation. They must know that whatever they spend in this way they have .spent it in the way of Allah, and it will not be decreased

:The verse says

”... .And whatever things you spend in the way of Allah shall be repaid to you in full...”

Equal to all that they give and, even more than that, will be repaid to them so that no
:injustice will be dealt with them. The verse ends as follows

” .and you will not be dealt with unjustly...”

This verse is an instruction upon the Muslims to be prepared before the enemy from all points of view. They are commanded to supply any kind of arms and possibilities, to utilize all means and methods of propagation, even mottoes and poems, that may cause the fright of infidels from the military power of Muslims.

When the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was informed that a new weapon had been made in Yemen, he sent someone to Yemen to supply it.

It is narrated from the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) that by means of an 'arrow' three persons will be sent into Paradise: its constructor, the one who prepares it, and the person who throws (it toward the enemy of Allah). (Tafsīr-i-Furqān, narrated from Ad-Dur-ul-Manthūr).

In Islam, financial winning and losing in the races of shooting, and horsemanship, have been counted permissible in order that military preparation might be supplied.

It is not such that everywhere logic and discussion are enough and effective, but sometimes enforcement and power should come in the scene, too.

That is why Muslims should always supply the most advanced military possibilities for the defence in such a manner that nothing may be neglected, whether they are of the kinds of political and material power, or the possibilities of propaganda and precautions.

In Islam, all people are soldiers and general mobilization is necessary. It is also necessary to cast terror into the hearts of the enemies. A tradition indicates that even by tinging the beard do frighten the enemy, so that they do not say the Islamic troop is old. (At-(Tafsīr-ul-Furqān, narrated from Man-lā-Yahduruhul-Faqīh

This verse discusses about peace with the enemy and it makes this fact more clear . It says

”... And if they incline to peace, then you (too) incline to it “

And, since, at the time of signing the treaty of peace, men often involve with doubts and hesitations, it commands the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) that he does not hesitate in accepting the suggestion of peace when its conditions are logical, wisely, and justly. He is ordered to trust in Allah, because He both hears their debates and is aware of their intentions

Commentary: verse ٦٢

If the leader of Muslims is certain of the enemy's trickery around the peace, the situation changes. But, in the case of the existence of probable of good intention, it should be vigilantly accepted

Some Islamic traditions indicate that ' the Prophet's support performed by the (believers ' has been rendered into his support performed by Hadrat Ali (a.s

Also Ibn-i-'Asākir narrates from 'Abū-Hurayrah that, it is written on the 'Arsh: " There is no good but I, (and) there is no partner for Me. Muhammad (p.b.u.h.) is My servant and My Messenger. I supported him by Ali ". This is the same thing that Allah says in (this verse. (Tafsīr-ul-Furqān, taken from Durr-ul-Manthūr, vol. ٣, p. ١٩٩

:The verse says

"And if they intend to deceive you, Allah is indeed sufficient for you"

It is He who strengthened you with His help and with )the support of) the believers)

It is understood from this verse that Muslims should accept the suggestion of peace in order that they would not be .introduced as ‘the seekers of war’, but they must be vigilant not to be deceived

If we do our duties accordingly, we must not be afraid of difficulties, since Allah solves

Commentary: verse ٦٣

The verse, addressing the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), implies that these sincere believers who have gathered around you, and refrain no sacrifice to offer you, formerly were some scattered people, enemy with each other. Then Allah showered the light of guidance upon them and created love and affection between them so intensively that if you spent the whole wealth from over the earth you could not wipe out the grudges of the .Age of Ignorance from their hearts

But, through the way of good device and by Islam, Allah created love and affection between them. The deeds of Allah are all done wisely and for common good. This very thing is one of the great miracles that the Prophet of Allah (p.b.u.h.) was sent to a people that, before Islam, if one of them was given a slap in the face, for its sake the fire of some fights would be lit and so much blood would be shed. But, through the way of Faith, all those enmities and deeds done contumaciously disappeared and love and understanding substituted them. They became so faithful that they would not refuse killing father, son and brother for the sake of their Faith. Allah announces that He has done this :work Himself. The holy verse says

Commentary: verse ٦٤

A group of the Jews of Banī-Qurayzah and Banī-Nadīr falsely suggested to help the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). The above holy verse was revealed saying that the believers were sufficient for him

In ‘Fadā’il-us-Sahābah’, a book written by Hāfiz-’Abū-Na‘īm, a famous Muslim scholar, it is cited that the objective meaning of ‘ the believers ’, mentioned in this verse, is Ali-ibn-Abī-Tālib (a.s.).\(١\)

Allah, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), and the believers are wholly the basis of the Islamic system. In an Islamic society, the leader is appointed with the Divine criterions. His law is originated from revelation, and people are obedient to the leader and the law

Obedience accompanied with Faith is a value, while obeying the leader without having Faith, or having Faith without following the leader is useless. The verse says

O Prophet! Allah suffices you, and the believers “
”who follow you

Section ٩: Muslims should be prepared for all eventualities

Point

Muslims to be ready to meet all eventualities – The triumph of lesser number of the Muslims over the manifold

– strength of the enemy prophesied – Law regarding taking war captives

.To be always guarded against evil and fearing Allah

٦٥- يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ حَرِّضِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ عَلَى الْقِتَالِ إِنْ يَكُنْ مِنْكُمْ عَشْرُونَ صَابِرُونَ يَغْلِبُوا مِائَتِينَ وَإِنْ يَكُنْ مِنْكُمْ مِائَةٌ يَغْلِبُوا أَلْفًا مِنَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِأَنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ لَا يَفْقَهُونَ

O Prophet! Urge on the believers to fight. If there be of you twenty patient “ ٦٥ . (steadfast men), they shall overcome two hundred, and if there be of you a hundred ,((steadfast ones

,they shall overcome a thousand of those who disbelieve

” .for they are a people who do not understand

Commentary: verse ٦٥

This verse negates the equilibrium of forces in figure. It emphasizes on the spirit, Faith and perseverance with patience. So, in order that no one supposes that the triumph of twenty fighters before two hundred ones is an exaggeration, it repeats .that one hundred strivers may win one thousand fighters, if they are believers

In the early battles of Islam, there have never been any statistic equilibrium. In the Battle of Badr, there were three hundred and thirteen believers in front of one thousand infidels. In Uhud, seven hundred Muslims fought against three thousand fighters. In the Battle of Khandagh, three thousand strivers struggled before ten thousand enemies. In Mūtah, there were ten thousand Muslims in front of one hundred thousand pagans

One of the duties of an Islamic leader is to encourage people to Holy Struggle. The function of the statement of the commander before military activities is very effective

:Therefore, in wars and Holy Struggles, propagation is necessary. The verse says

”... .O prophet! Urge on the believers to fight “

The definite factor in the battlefields of Muslims is Faith and perseverance with patience, not the number of strivers alone

That was why, at the beginning, under the command of Holy Struggle, the army of Islam, which was one tenth of that of the enemy, won the battle. The verse says

,(If there be of you twenty patient (steadfast men ...“

,(they shall overcome two hundred, and if there be of you a hundred (steadfast ones they shall overcome a thousand of those ”... ,who disbelieve

The soldier of Islam should have these three qualities: Faith, patience, and vigilance. The Qur’ān qualifies ‘ the believers ’ with patience, while about the disbelievers, the :verse says

” .for they are a people who do not understand...”

٦٦- الْآنَ خَفَّفَ اللَّهُ عَنْكُمْ وَعَلِمَ أَنَّ فِيكُمْ ضَعْفًا فَإِن يَكُن مِّنْكُمْ مِّائَةٌ صَابِرَةٌ يَغْلِبُوا مِائَتَيْنِ وَإِن يَكُن مِّنْكُمْ أَلْفٌ يَغْلِبُوا أَلْفَيْنِ

يَاذَنُ اللَّهُ

وَاللَّهُ مَعَ الصَّابِرِينَ

66. "Now Allah has lightened it for you, and He knows that there is weakness in you "

),(So, if there be of you a hundred patient (steadfast men they will overcome two hundred; and if there be of you a thousand, they will overcome two thousand by the leave of Allah; and Allah is with the patient ).(steadfast ones)

Commentary: verse 66

The purpose of ‘weakness’, mentioned in the verse, is weakness in Faith and spiritualities, because the troops of Islam had not become decreased from the point of physical strength and number when they defeated

In this verse, and the verse before it, the Qur’ān points to three spiritual aspects which are the factors of victory, the absence of which is a preparation for defeat; they are: patience, Faith, and vigilance

Thus, the main function in victory is by the leave and Will of Allah, else, in the Battle of Hunayn, where there were so many fighters, Muslims defeated and ran away

:The verse says

.Now Allah has lightened it for you, and He knows that there is weakness in you “

, (So, If there be of you a hundred patient (steadfast men they will overcome two hundred; and if there be of you a thousand, they will ”... ;overcome two thousand by the leave of Allah

However, the patient are loved by Allah and they are in His refuge. The verse ends as
:follows

”(and Allah is with the patient (steadfast ones ...“

Commentary: verse ٦٧

Allah has allowed no prophet to take the members of the enemy as captives and to keep them as pledge in order to take money from them, or hold them under obligation and let them go; unless that he exaggerates in killing the heathens and destroying them so that it becomes as a warning to others and that he gains authority. The verse says:

It is not (fit) for any prophet to have captives unless he has thoroughly triumphed in “
”... the land

The next phrase of the verse addresses the Muslims, not the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), because their desire was that they could take money from the captives and let them go. The purpose is that, in the first battle, i.e. the Battle of Badr, before gaining authority on the earth, they took ransom

The Arabic phrase: /‘arad-ad-dunyā/ means the property of the world which is something vanishable. The verse continues saying

”... ,You desire the transitory world...”

You pursue the wealth of the world while Allah desires the rewards of the Hereafter for you. The verse says

”... ;while Allah desires (for you) the Hereafter...”

The helpers of Allah will never be defeated, and verily Allah acts wisely; then, do perform whatever He commands you, so that you enjoy the help of Allah. The verse ends

”.(a great chastisement for what you had taken to (improperly

;Eat then of what you have acquired in war as booty, (which is) lawful and good “ .٦٩

”.and be in awe of Allah; verily Allah is Forgiving, Merciful

Commentary: verses ٦٨-٦٩

Once more in this verse the Qur’ān reprimands and scorns those who put into danger
:the important social interests for their own fleeting financial gains. It says

Had it not been for a prior ordinance from Allah, there would have fallen you “

”.(a great chastisement for what you had taken to (improperly

But, as it was mentioned in some other verses of the Qur’ān before, Allah’s way of treatment is that, at first He explains the ordinances, then there will be His .punishment for the disobedients of them

In the second verse, the Qur’ān refers to another ordinance of the ordinances
.concerning captives of war, and points to the question of ransom

After the time when the Battle of Badr was ended and some captives were taken, a group of Ansār (the Helpers) told the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) that they had killed seventy pagans and had kept seventy of them in captive, all of whom were from his tribe and, in fact, they were his captives. They asked the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to remit those captives to them so that they could take ransom from them for their emancipation. When the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was waiting for the descent of revelation in this regard, the verse was revealed and the permission of taking ‘ ransom ’ for their emancipation .was issued

However, the verse lets Muslims use this spoil of the war, (i.e. the amount they used :to take for emancipating captives). It says

„Eat then of what you have acquired in war as booty “
”... ;which is) lawful and good)

This sentence may have a vast meaning, and, besides the subject of ‘ ransom ’, it .encompasses other booties, too

Then, it commands them to be Godwary and to avoid disobeying Allah. The verse :continues saying

” ;and be in awe of Allah...”

This meaning refers to the fact that these kinds of booties being lawful should not cause that the aim of strugglers in battlefields to be gathering spoils of war or taking some captives for ransom, and if formerly they had such disgraceful intentions in .mind, they must leave them out now

At the end of the verse, the Qur’ān promises remission and forgiveness about the past :when it says

”.verily Allah is Forgiving, Merciful ...“

Point

Captives of war to be released – Help to those who did not migrate nor endeavoured – in the way of Allah not incumbent upon the Muslims

.Position of those who believed, migrated and endeavoured in the way of Allah

٧٠- يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ قُلْ لِمَنْ فِي أَيْدِيكُمْ مِنَ الْأَسْرَىٰ إِنَّ يَعْلَمَ اللَّهُ فِي قُلُوبِكُمْ خَيْرًا يُؤْتِكُمْ خَيْرًا مِّمَّا أُخِذَ مِنْكُمْ وَيَغْفِرَ لَكُمْ

O Prophet! Say to the captives in your hands: ‘ If Allah knows any good in your “ .٧٠ hearts

,He will give you better than what has been taken away from you

”.and He will forgive you; and Allah is Forgiving, Merciful

Commentary: verse ٧٠

In the occasion of revelation of the verse, it has been cited that ‘Abbās, ‘Aqīl, and Nufīl were captured as captives of war in the Battle of Badr. By taking ransom, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) emancipated them, and they embraced Islam. Later, the money which was (taken as their ransom was returned to them, too. (Tafsīr-i-Nūr-uth-Thaqalayn

Most commentary books indicate that in the Battle of Badr some Muslims said that:
for observing the respectability of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), ‘Abbās, the Prophet’s uncle, should not be taken ransom from. The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: “ By Allah, I do not renounce a dirham (a silver coin) of it.” Then, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) told his uncle: “ You are wealthy; then pay ransom for yourself and for your brother’s son, ‘Aqīl.” ‘Abbās said: “ If I pay ransom, I will become empty of money.” The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) answered: “ You can spend out of money you have in Mecca with your wife, ‘Umm-ul-Fadl.” ‘Abbās said: “ None knew this matter. I understood that you are truly a prophet.” And, at once, he became a Muslim at his presence.

:In the Islamic system, there are three choices of designs for war captives Emancipating them without ransom; like what happened in the conquest of Mecca, – ١

.where no captive was taken

Emancipation of captives of war by taking ransom in cash, or by exchange of – ٢
.captives

Keeping captives under the control of Muslims in order to hinder the enemy of – ٣ Islam to be strengthened, and to teach Islam gradually to them both, maybe they be .guided to it

Choosing either of these three choices to be practically acted is in the authority of the .Islamic judge

Captives must be treated in such a manner that it prepares them to be guided. Thus, the aim of war is guiding people and defeating the illegitimate ruler, not slaughtering,
.spoiling, taking captives and taking ransom

:That is why preaching and guiding captives is necessary. The verse says

”... :O Prophet! Say to the captives in your hands “

:And, the true ‘ good ’ is Faith. The holy verse continues saying

If Allah knows any good in your hearts, He will give you better than what has been ...“
;taken away from you, and He will forgive you

”.and Allah is Forgiving, Merciful

Commentary: verse ٧٢

Those who had Faith and, for the love of Allah and Messenger, separated from their homes and relations, i.e. they migrated from Mecca to Medina, and those who gave shelter to the Emigrants and helped them in war against their enemies, i.e. Ansār (the Helpers), inherit each other. The Emigrants and the Helpers inherited from each other because of the brethren contract they concluded from the beginning with each other until the time when this matter was abrogated by Sura Al-‘Anfāl, No. ٨, verse ٧٥, which says: “ ...

”there will be confusion in the earth and a greater mischief

Commentary: verse ٧٣

The meaning of this verse is that Muslims should refrain from being friends of infidels and helping them, though they may be their close relatives. They should leave out
.their guardianship, too

If you do not do what Allah (s.w.t.) has commanded you, there will appear a great confusion and a great mischief in the earth. That is, if you do not settle a relation of brotherhood between yourselves, and some of you do not take one another as guardians, even by inheriting from each other, and do not prefer the connection of Islam to the connection of relationship, nor cut off the communication between you and pagans, you will confront a great confusion and mischief in the earth. For, as long as Muslims are not untied before infidels, polytheism will remain and pagans will be .bold upon Muslims and will call them towards infidelity

:The verse says

And (as for) those who disbelieve, they are friends one of another. If you do not so,“
”there will be confusion in the earth and a greater mischief

٧٤- وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَهَاجَرُوا وَجَاهَدُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَالَّذِينَ ءَاوُوا وَنَصَرُوا أُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ حَقًّا لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ وَرِزْقٌ كَرِيمٌ

٧٤. "And (as for) those who believed and migrated and strove in the way of Allah"

;and those who gave shelter and helped, those are the believers truly

".for them is forgiveness and a noble sustenance

Commentary: verse ٧٤

Then Allah refers again to the Emigrants and the Helpers (Ansār) and admires them.

:The verse says

,"And (as for) those who believed and migrated and strove in the way of Allah"

"... ;and those who gave shelter and helped, those are the believers truly

The evidence of this statement is that they both emigrated, and helped the Muslims, and separated from their relatives, and also, by spending their properties for the sake of the religion of Allah, they proved their true Faith. The verse continues saying

".for them is forgiveness and a noble sustenance ..."

٧٥- وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا مِن بَعْدُ وَهَاجَرُوا وَجَاهَدُوا مَعَكُمْ فَأُولَئِكَ مِنكُمْ وَأُولُو الْأَرْحَامِ بَعْضُهُمْ أَوْلَىٰ بِبَعْضٍ فِي كِتَابِ اللَّهِ

إِنَّ اللَّهَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ

٧٥. And those who believed afterwards and migrated and

,strove with you, they are of you and the blood relations are nearer to each other

”in the book of Allah; verily Allah knows everything

Commentary: verse ٧٥

The objective of the first part of the verse is those who believed after the first Emigration, and they migrated, too

:The verse saying

”... And those who believed afterwards and migrated and strove with you“

It is similar to the content of Sura Al-Hashr, No. ٥٩, verse ١٠, which says: “And those ... who came after them

:The verse continues saying

”... ,they are of you ...“

This holy phrase means that they are like you and their judgement from the point of obligation of their friendship and helping them is the same as the judgement of yours, although they believed and migrated after you

”...and the blood relations are nearer to each other...“

That is, relatives are in precedence when they inherit. In other words, when inheriting, some of them are more deserve from some others of the relatives

This ordinance has been abrogated the heritage ordinance which had been issued .because of Emigration and helping

”... ;in the book of Allah...”

some of the commentators have said that the holy phrase “in the book of Allah” means in the ‘ Protected Tablet ’, while some others have said that this holy phrase :here means

’ in the Qur’ān ‘

This holy verse can be taken as an evidence to the fact that whoever is nearer to the dead, from the point of relation, is more deserve to inheriting from him. The verse :ends as follows

”.verily Allah knows everything...”

The End of Sura Al-‘Anfāl

p: ۳۲۲

:The Feature of Sura At–Taubah

This Sura, which is the ninth Sura of the Qur’ān, contains ١٢٩ verses and has been revealed in the ninth year A.H. (anno Hejira). Some parts of the Sura were revealed before the Battle of Tabūk, some parts during the Battle, and other parts were .revealed after it

Regarding the Islamic literature, the most recorded known names of this Sura are ‘ At–Taubah ’ and ‘Al–Barā’at ’. Since the subject of repentance of man and the return of the grace of Allah has repeatedly been referred to in this Sura, it has been called ‘ At–Taubah ’, and for the fact that the Sura begins with the declaration of immunity .’ towards idolaters, it has been named ‘ Al–Barā’at

The subject matters of this Sura are mostly related to the subject matters of Sura Al–’Anfāl. For this matter, some commentators, considering this Sura the continuation of that one, have said that, because of this circumstance, Sura At–Taubah has not needed to have the holy phrase Bismillāh–ir–Rahmān–ir–Rahīm. But, according to Sh‘iah’s belief, the traditions which have been received from Ahlul–Bayt (a.s.) denote that this Sura is independent and the absence of Bismillāh at its beginning is for its wrathful tone due to the idolaters. The holy phrase Bismillāh is an indication of mercy and security, while this Sura has been commenced with the declaration of immunity .towards perjured idolaters

For the importance of this Sura, the word of the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) is sufficient when he said: “ The Suras Al-Barā't and Tauhīd were revealed accompanied ”.with seventy thousand rows of the angels

Section 1: Immunity Declared

Point

Muslims no more liable to give amnesty to the enemy idolaters – Except to those who – were faithful to the covenant – Those who believe in Islam to be pardoned

.Idolaters to be given protection when they seek it

١- بَرَاءَةٌ مِنَ اللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ إِلَى الَّذِينَ عَاهَدْتُمْ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ

١. “ (Immunity from Allah and His Messenger towards those of the polytheists with whom you made covenant

”.

:Some Points Necessary to Be Noted

In the Islamic traditions, the name of this Sura has been introduced as ‘ Barā'at ’ – ١ and ‘ Taubah ’. This fact makes it clear that this Sura is not a part of Sura Al-'Anfāl, but .it is an independent one

The content of this Sura has a tone of indignation. For this reason it has begun – ٢ without the holy phrase Bismillāh. By this sign we understand that the holy phrase Bismillāh-ir-Rahmān-ir-Rahīm at the beginning of every Sura belongs to that very sura and is a part of it. Thus, this holy phrase has not been located as a ceremonial .phrase at the beginning of every Sura

The declaration of Barā'at (immunity) was for the infidels' perjury which has been referred to in verses ۷ and ۸ of the current Sura. In Islam, the general law is that promises should be fulfilled, and as long as the opposite party is faithful to the treaty, it should be kept, too. Moreover, in that circumstance, it was for the reason of their weakness that the Muslims had to accept that treaty, else, the desire of the Muslims was the destruction of idolism as rapidly as possible

:Some Details upon These Verses

In the eighth year A.H., Mecca was conquered, but the pagans still continued coming into Meccan to perform their worshipping rites which was, of course, a mixture of superstitions and aberrations. Among their customs it was seen that they used to give in charity the clothing with which they had circumambulated. Once it happened that a woman desired to perform some more circumambulations after finishing her first circumambulation, but, since she had no more clothes with her, she had to circumambulate nakedly while people were watching her

That circumstance was not tolerable for the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and the Muslims, who were in a very high degree of power. The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was waiting for the command of Allah until when this Sura was revealed in Medina. The Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) commissioned Abū-Bakr to convey some verses of it unto the people of Mecca. The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) chose him, maybe, for the reason that he was an old man and people were not sensitive to him

But, after Abū-Bakr had left Medina towards Mecca, Angel Gobriel appeared to the Holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and brought a Message from Allah denoting that the recital of those verses of the Qurʾān should be conveyed either by the Holy Prophet himself or by the one who is of him. As soon as the divine command was received, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) called Hadrat Ali (a.s.) and instructed him to do it. He said: “ I am his and he is mine.” It was so that, in the midst of the way, Ali (a.s.) took away the verses from him and went into Mecca where he recited them unto the pagans

The details of the recitation of the verses of this Sura by Ali (a.s.) are recorded in the books of the Sunnites, too. Some Prophet’s companions such as: Abū-Bakr himself, Ali (a.s.), Ibn-‘Abbās, ‘Anas-ibn-Mālik and Jābir-ibn-‘Abdillah ‘Ansārī have narrated them (and quoted them inside a lot of Islamic sources. 1)

Some of the Sunnite writers have tried to pretend this fact as an ordinary matter so that it would not be counted as a kind of privilege for Hadrat Ali (a.s.). They have considered the mission of recitation of the verses given to Ali (a.s.) as a manner of complying with his request, not as a privilege for him; while for complying with any one’s request, a safe mission might be given to him, not the recitation of the verses of declaration of Barā’at (immunity) from pagans, in the region of infidelity and by a person who had killed many of the idolaters in different wars and where a lot of the people were carrying his hatred in their hearts

When Allah commanded Moses (a.s.) to go toward Pharaoh in order to invite him to Unity, he (a.s.) said: “ My Lord! Verily I killed one of them, so I fear lest they should slay me;” (1) Then he asked Him to send his brother Aaron with him as an aider. But, Ali (a.s.), who had killed a large number of the chiefs of pagans, went alone towards them and recited the verses of immunity unto them with the utmost calmness. This event happened in a sensitive place, i.e. Muna, where the site of the last lapidation was located near-by

The subjects which were revealed and were announced unto pagans by Ali (a.s.) were as follows

1- Acquittal declared, and treaties cancelled-

2- The prohibition of pagans participating in Hajj from the following year-

3- The prohibition of circumambulation around the Ka‘bah in the state of nakedness-

4- The prohibition of pagans entering the Sacred Mosque-

Commentary: verse 1

The holy phrase: “ (This is a declaration of) immunity from Allah ” indicates that this acquittal is from the side of Allah

And the, phrase: “ and His Messenger ”, mentioned immediately after it, means that the strings of promises and treaties were cut off, respites were ended, and agreements were cancelled

The addressee ‘ you ’ in the sentence: “ towards those of the polytheists with whom you made covenant ” is both the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) and the Muslims. Thus, it means that they should declare immunity unto the polytheists between whom and them there was an agreement, because Allah (s.w.t.) and His Messenger (p.b.u.h.) are quit of them

p: ۳۲۸

The objective meaning here is that Allah (s.w.t.) and His Messenger (p.b.u.h.) are quit of giving a promise to them and, after that, fulfilling it, because the polytheists who made covenants with them broke their promises

If someone asks how it is permissible for the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to break his promise, the answer is that it is permissible for the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to break his promise by one of the following ways

The fulfilment of the promise was conditioned that there would not come any other (١) command from Allah, the Exalted, upon it, and since there came down a revelation instructing that there would remain no covenant thereafter, the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) broke the covenant

Since treachery and perjury was made manifest from the side of idolaters, Allah, (٢) the Exalted, instructed His Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to break their covenant, too

That covenant was not a permanent (and an absolute) treaty, but it was bound over (٣) a definite point of time and for a certain length of time, so that when its term was ended that covenant would be broken, either

It has also been pointed out in some traditions that the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) had conditioned the above mentioned matters with them in the treaty. It has also been narrated that the idolaters broke their promise or decided to break it. Then, Allah, the Glorified, commanded His Prophet to break their covenant, too Next to that, through the following verse, Allah, the Glorified, addressing the idolaters, says: “ So go ... about in the earth

:Fulfilment the promise, yes; but surrendering to plots, never. The verse says – ١

This is a declaration of) immunity from Allah and) “

” .His Messenger towards those of the polytheists with whom you made covenant

The legislator is Allah, (١) of course, but in conduct and action, Allah and the – ٢
:Messenger of Allah are mentioned beside each other

”... from Allah and His Messenger ...“

It is true that legally we have to be faithful to our treaties, but heartily immunity – ٣ from polytheists and those who deviated from the straight path is a religious principle (in Islam. (٢

If a treaty is cancelled because of fear from a plot and a treachery, it should be – ٤
.announced to the opposite party, in order that they might not be seized unawares

Immunity is a sign of sharp conclusiveness and authority; while being silent before – ٥

Sura Al-Kahf, No. ١٨, verse ٢٤ says: “ ... and He does not make any one His ١ – ١

This fact is current whether it is in the favour and grace, as in this Sura, verse No. ٢ – ٢ ٧٤ says: “... Allah and His Messenger enriched them out of His grace... ”; or in allegiance the Qur’ān says: “ Verily those who swear their fealty unto you do but swear fealty unto Allah...” (Sura Al-Fath, No. ٤٨, verse ١٠); or in obedience: “ Whoever obeys the Messenger has obeyed Allah, ...” (Sura An-Nisā’, No. ٤, verse ٨٠); or in (immunity, like this verse. (Tafsīr-I-Atyab-ul-Bayān

٢- فَسِيحُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ أَرْبَعَةَ أَشْهُرٍ وَاعْلَمُوا أَنَّكُمْ غَيْرُ مُعْجِزِي اللَّهِ وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ مُخْزِي الْكَافِرِينَ

So go about in the earth freely for four months, and know that you can not make “ .٢
” .futile Allah, and that Allah degrades the infidels

Commentary: verse ٢

The Qur’ānic phrase: “So go about in the earth freely...” addresses the pagans of Mecca meaning that they could go about freely, and with peace of mind, in the land of Mecca and, being in easy circumstances. They were allowed to supply their necessities during that time when they were in security from the swords of the .Muslims

Then, it continues saying: “...for four months, ...” which means when this time was ended and the pagans did not embrace Islam, the string of their covenant would be .broken and the security of life and wealth would be removed from them

” ...,and know that you can not make futile Allah...”

That is, they should know that they could not escape from Allah, since wherever they .might be they were under the Power and Command of Allah

” .and that Allah degrades the infidels...”

This part of the verse means that they should also know that Allah will bring disgrace .to the unbelievers

Regarding the question that which months were the four months that Allah respited the pagans, most commentators have said that this time had been from the beginning of Shawwāl until the end of Muharram, because these verses were revealed in .Shawwāl

٣- وَأَذَانٌ مِنَ اللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ إِلَى النَّاسِ يَوْمَ الْحَجِّ الْأَكْبَرِ أَنَّ اللَّهَ بَرِيءٌ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ وَرَسُولُهُ فَإِنْ تُبْتُمْ فَهُوَ خَيْرٌ لَكُمْ وَإِنْ تَوَلَّيْتُمْ فَاعْلَمُوا أَنَّكُمْ غَيْرُ مُعْجِزِي اللَّهِ وَبَشِّرِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِعَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ

And (this) is proclamation from Allah and His Messenger to the people on the day of“ the great pilgrimage that Allah and His Messenger are quit of the polytheists. Yet if you repent, that will be ,better for you, and if you turn back
;then know that you can not make futile Allah
” .and inform those who disbelieve of a painful punishment

Commentary: verse ٣

Once more the Qur’ān announces the cancellation of the treaties of pagans with a :stronger emphasis. It even assigns the date of its proclamation when the verse says
And this is proclamation from Allah and His Messenger to the people on the day of“ the great pilgrimage
”... .that Allah and His Messenger are quit of the polytheists

In fact, by this public proclamation in the land of Mecca and on that great day, Allah has shut the enemies’ ways of seeking pretext, and cut off the tongue of slanderers so that they might not say that they were seized unawares and were attacked
.unduely

Then the verse addresses the pagans themselves and, through a kind of encouragement and warning, uses effort to guide them. At first, it implies that if they repent and return to Allah, with desisting from idolatry, it will be better for them. The verse says

”... ,Yet if you repent, that will be better for you...”

That is, if they embrace Islam, the religion of Unity, it is good for their own selves both in this world and the next one. And, if they contemplate properly, they will understand that, under its ray, all disturbances will turn to peace and arrangement, and it is not so .(that their right belief brings any benefit for Allah (s.w.t.) and the Prophet (p.b.u.h

After that statement, the Qur’ān warns the zealous and stubborn opponents, saying that if they disobey this command, which supplies their own happiness, they should know that they can never weaken Allah, nor are they able to go outside of His Might.

:The verse continues saying and if you turn back, then know that you...”

”... ;can not make futile Allah

:Finally, the verse alarms those who resist obstinately not to believe, and says

”.and inform those who disbelieve of a painful punishment...”

Commentary: verse ٤

This unilateral cancellation of pagans’ covenants related only to those pagans from whom some signs of perjury, or preparation of perjury, had been appeared. Therefore, in this holy verse, one group of the polytheists have been excepted. The :Qur’ān says

Except those of the polytheists with whom you made covenant, and who have not “ failed you in

”... .anything nor have supported anyone against you

:Thus, the command of Allah about conducting with this group is as follows

”... ;Then fulfil their treaty with them until (the end of) their term...”

The reason of this exception is stated that Allah loves the pious ones, those who avoid .any perjury and transgression

:It says

”surely Allah loves the pious ones...”

٥- فَإِذَا انْسَلَخَ الْأَشْهُرُ الْحُرْمُ فَاقْتُلُوا الْمُشْرِكِينَ حَيْثُ وَجَدْتُمُوهُمْ وَخُذُوهُمْ وَأَخْصِرُواهُمْ وَأَقْعُدُوا لَهُمْ كُلَّ مَرْصِدٍ إِن تَابُوا وَأَقَامُوا

.and seize them and besiege them and lie in wait for them in every ambush

But if they repent and perform the prayer and pay the poor-rate, (zakāt) then leave
;their way free to them

”.verily Allah is Forgiving, Merciful

Commentary: verse ٥

In this verse, the duty of Muslims towards pagans after their respite, which was four months, has been stated, where the most intensive instruction has been issued upon
:them. It says

Then when the sacred months are drawn away, slay the polytheists wherever you “
”... ,find them

:Next to that, it continues saying

.and seize them ...” in order to take them captives ...“

:The verse, then adds that they must be put in the circle of besiege. It says

”...and besiege them ...“

:After that, the verse extends the statement against them, and says

”... .and lie in wait for them in every ambush ...“

This harshness of action is for the sake that Islam's plan is to root out idolatry from the whole points of the earth, since idolatry is not a creed or religion which could be .respected

But, this harshness and severity is not in the sense that the way of return is shut to them, but whenever and wherever they decide they can change their direction. That :is why, immediately next to that, the Qur'ān adds

(But if they repent and perform the prayer and pay the poor-rate, (zakāt...“
”... ;then leave their way free to them

As for the reason of this opportunity, it is said that Allah is Forgiving and Merciful, and He does not repel from Himself the one who returns to Him. The verse ends with the :following phrase

”.verily Allah is Forgiving, Merciful ...“

****

ثُمَّ أبلغه ما منه

ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

And if any of the polytheists seeks protection from you, grant him protection till he “ ٦ .
;hears the Word of Allah; then do convey him to his place of security

”.that is because they are a people who do not know

Commentary: verse ٦

This verse means that if after passing four months of respite one of the idolaters, against whom you were commanded to fight, comes to you and asks for security to hearken to your invitation and to the reasoning of the Qur’ān, do respite him and explain your aim to him. Then do respite him to listen to the Word of Allah and to :contemplate over it. The verse says

And if any of the polytheists seeks protection from you, grant him protection“

”... ;till he hears the Word of Allah

The manner in which the Qur’ān has appointed only the Word of Allah and has said: “...till he hears the word of Allah; ...” is for the reason that the most important proofs .lie in the very Word of Allah

:Then the verse continues saying

”... ;then do convey him to his place of security ...“

This part of the verse means that if the one embraced Islam, he would obtain the goodness and prousperity of two worlds; and if the one did not embrace Islam, you should not kill him in order to avoid deceiving him, but you should send him to his own .home where he has security of life and wealth

:The concluding phrase of the holy verse is as follows

”.that is because they are a people who do not know ...“

This phrase means that this respite is for the sake that such people are some ones who do not know the Faith and the reasons of Islam. Then, you should respite them .so that they hear, contemplate well and become cognizant

?Messenger

Except those with whom you made covenant at the Holy Mosque; so long as they stand faithful to you, then be you (too) faithful to them; verily Allah loves the pious
”.ones

Commentary: verse ۷

Through the previous verses, Allah (s.w.t.) commanded the covenants of the pagans to be cancelled. Here, in this verse, it explains that the reason of that commandment was the very perjury which appeared from them. But, concerning those pagans who were faithful to their covenants, the Qur’ān instructs to having perseverance with :them. So, it says

?How can there be a covenant for the polytheists with Allah and with His Messenger “
” ...

This phrase of the verse means how they may have the covenant of friendship while they have decided in their hearts to breach the covenant. This statement (of interrogation) is said either because of wonder, or as a positive interrogation with a
.negative sense

Some commentators have said that this verse means how may Allah instruct that you desist from shedding the blood of pagans? Then, He has excepted the following
:group of pagans, and said

”... ;Except those with whom you made covenant at the Holy Mosque ...“

This part of the verse means that they have covenant with Allah, because they do not .intend in their hearts to perform any perjury or treachery against you

:Then the verse continues saying so long as they stand faithful to you, then be you ...“

”... ;too) faithful to them)

That is, so long as they are faithful to their covenant and remain in the straight way
.with you upon their promise, you should act with the same manner, too

And, the last phrase of the verse indicates that Allah loves the pious, the ones who
:avoid perjury. The verse says

”.verily Allah loves the pious ones ...“

٨- كَيْفَ وَإِنْ يَظْهَرُوا عَلَيْكُمْ لَا يَرْقُبُوا فِيكُمْ إِلَّا وَلَا ذِمَّةً يُرْضُونَكُمْ بِأَفْوَاهِهِمْ وَتَأْبَىٰ قُلُوبُهُمْ وَأَكْثَرُهُمْ فَاسِقُونَ

How (can it be?) For if they prevail against you, they will observe towards you“ .٨
...neither ties of relationship nor treaty

They please you with their mouths while their hearts do not consent, and most of ”...them are ungodly

Commentary: verse ٨

The repetition of the word ‘ How ’ in this verse is for the reason that it seems improbable and rare that pagans stand faithful to their covenant. Then, it’s meaning (the verb of which has been omitted) is: how there may remain a covenant for them while if they acquire mastery and prevail upon you, knowing the background of your Faith and your covenants, they will observe neither any ties of relationship nor any :promise and treaty. The verse says

How (can it be?) For if they prevail against you, they will observe towards you“

”... .neither ties of relationship nor treaty

The Arabic word: /ill/ means ‘ relationship ’ and it has also been used in the sense of .”oath

By the usage of the word / yardūnakum / (they please you) in the verse, Allah has qualified the state of pagans meaning that their inwards are opposite from their
:outwards. The verse says

”...They please you with their mouths...”

Then, the verse has been continued implying that the grudges and enmities they have
.in their hearts are different from the nice words they utter through their mouths

”... ,while their hearts do not consent ...“

Finally, in the continuation of qualifications of pagans, the verse denotes that most of them excess in infidelity and idolatry and do not have any virtue and manliness to prevent them from these affairs, while there are some pagans who usually show chastity in committing what is disgrace, and refrain from breaching promise and :perjury. The verse ends as follows

They have sold the signs of Allah for a small price, and have hindered (people) “ ٩ .

Commentary: verse ٩

In exchange for losing the signs of Allah, whatever they gain is naught. The verse
:says

”... ,They have sold the signs of Allah for a small price “

Human beings are free in action and choosing the way, and all the Divine verses which refer to the bargains of human beings are the signs indicating to his freedom. The :holy verse continues saying

”... .and have hindered (people) from His way ...“

Therefore, selling the pleasure of Allah and the eternal Paradise for the corruptive fleeting world is the worst work, because the whole world, and whatever is found in it, in the face of favours of Allah bestowed to the believers, is a small thing. That is why
:the verse says

”Surely evil was what they used to do...“

١٠- لَا يَزُكُّبُونَ فِي مُؤْمِنٍ إِلَّا وَلَا ذِمَّةً وَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْمُعْتَدُونَ

١٠. “They observe towards a believer neither ties of relationship nor treaty “

”and these are they who are the transgressors

Commentary: verse ١٠

This verse is again upon the statement of Allah’s Wisdom due to His severe command instructing to quitting pagans

In the previous couple of verses, the meaning was about the lack of observing treaty towards the Muslims; “... they will not observe towards you any ties of relationship or treaty ...”, while, here, the meaning of: “ They observe towards a believer neither ties of relationship nor Treaty, ...” has been pointed out, which is a statement of their quarrelsomeness towards any believer

Thus, pagans have enmity against the believers, then, never be in any doubt that you should struggle severely against them. In the opinion of infidels, the greatest fault of Muslims is the very Faith they have in Allah, and the same thing is the pretext of their hostility towards them. The verse says

“... ,They observe towards a believer neither ties of relationship nor treaty “

:However, perjury is the same as transgression. So the verse says

”and these are they who are the transgressors ...“

But if they repent and perform the prayer and pay the alms (zakāt), then they are “ ١١ .

Commentary: verse ١١

In the former verses of this Sura, Allah’s commandment was: “...But if they repent and perform the prayer and pay the alms, then leave their way free to them; ...” (verse ٥), while in this verse, He instructs that not only you should not bother them, but also do :forget the past and treat them as if they are your brothers. The verse says

But if they repent and perform the prayer and pay the alms (zakāt), then they are “
”.your brethren in faith; and We explain the signs for the people who know

:Explanations

In confronting them, observe the style of graduality and proceed step by step. At ١ .
first, there is the lack of opposition: “...then leave their way free to them...” and then:
.” ... “...they are your brethren in faith

:A true repentance is accompanied with action ٢ .

”...they repent and perform the prayer...”

Those who do not perform the prayer and do not pay the alms are not our brethren ٣ .
:in faith, as the verse says

”...;if ... perform ... and pay...,then they are your brethren in faith ...“

The basis of a Muslim’s relations, and love and enmity, is the religion, as in the verse .۴
:next to the above mentioned verse, it is said

”... if they break their oaths ... then fight...”

.The condition of entering into the circle of ‘brethren in faith’ is prayer and alms .۵

.You should have a brotherly treatment with a repentant .۶

Commentary: verse ١٢

Once Ali-ibn-Abī-tālib (a.s.) was asked why the fugitives of the Battle of Seffin were
.persued, but in the Battle of Camel the fugitives were left free

He (a.s.) said that in Seffin the leader of infidelity was alive and the fugitives would gather around him. And, after being formed, they might attack. But in the Battle of Camel, where their leader was killed, there was not any pivot around which they could .be formed and organized again

Imam Sadiq (a.s.) said: “Whoever makes sarcastic remarks to your religion, he will (surely become infidel.” Then he (a.s.) recited this verse. (Tafsir-Nūr-uth-Thaqalayn

:Explanations

Since the origin of perjury and deriding the religion is often from the side of the .١
:chiefs of infidelity, then struggle hard against them. The verse says

„But if they break their oaths after their covenant and revile your religion “

”... .then fight the leaders of infidelity

:The Islamic Holy Struggle is for the defend of the religion. The verse says .۲

”... the leaders of infidelity ...“

Not any oath should beguile you; the oaths of the breachers of covenant are invalid. .۶

Commentary: verse ١٣

In order to encourage Muslims and to banish any kind of listlessness, fear, and hesitation concerning this vital affair from their minds and their selves, the Qur’ān
:says

Will you not fight a people who broke their oaths and aimed at the expulsion of the“

You were not the beginners of attack and perjury to be worried and anxious about it,
:but the fight and perjury was started form their own side. The verse says

”... ?and they did attack you first...”

Commentary: verse 14

There may be asked how it is that here, in this holy verse, the statement is upon the chastisement of people while in Sura Al-‘Anfāl, No. ٨, verse ٣٢ the Qur’ān, addressing the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) says: " But Allah is not to punish them while you are among them
" ...

The answer of this question is that the objective meaning of that verse is the heavenly chastisements which are destructive, like the chastisements of the People of ‘Ād and Thamūd. In this verse, the words are about the hardship and punishment
:of fight. The verse says

,"Fight them, (and) Allah will punish them at your hands and degrade them" and He will help you (to victory) over them and heal the (injured)breasts of a people ".(who) believe

Explanations

Presence in the scene and Holy Struggle should be shown from your side, and then -١

.Strivers of Holy Struggles are Allah’s arms and His executive factors –۲

”...And Allah will punish them at your hands ...“

The normatic customs of Allah are executed through the natural ways, causes and –۳

Next to the martial defeat of the enemy, there comes the turn of a spiritual and –۴

Finally, in the conflict between right and wrong, after bearing the bitterness of

” ... ,And He removes the rage of their hearts “

After gaining victory, you ought to receive those who come to you to join you, and you should not tell them where they were until then. The abovementioned verse, in this :regard, says and Allah turns (mercifully) to whomever ...“

” ... ,He pleases

You must never repel those who come to you because of the fear of their plot. Allah is aware of the true repentance or a hypocritic one but, according to the Divine Wisdom, while Allah has not yet known those of you who have struggled hard and have not taken any one as an intimate friend besides Allah and His Messenger and the believers? And Allah is ”.aware of what you do

Commentary: verse ١٦

In this verse, the Muslims are encouraged to the Holy Struggle in another way. It attracts their attention to their heavy responsibility that they have in this regard. It implies that they must not consider that only by claiming Faith everything will be arranged all right, but the truthfulness of their intention and the uprightness of their speech, and the reality of their belief will be made manifest when they confront the .enemies, confronting them sincerely and free from any hypocrisy

At first, the Qur’ān inquires whether they imagine that they will be left in peace and they will not be put in the course of examination. It is in this case that their strivers, and those of them who have not taken any one as confidant except Allah and the :Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and the believers, have not yet been known. The verse says

(Or did you think (only with claim of Faith) you would be left (in peace “ while Allah has not yet known those of you who have struggled hard and have not taken any one as an intimate friend besides Allah and

”... ?His Messenger and the believers

In fact, the abovementioned part of the verse reminds Muslims two subjects. These subjects are as that only with the bare claim of Faith the work is not completed, and the personality of people will not be made clear, but they will be examined by two :means

The first is Holy Struggle in the way of Allah with the purpose of effacing the effects of paganism and idolatry. And the second is the abandonment of any relation and cooperation with hypocrites. The former dismisses the foreign enemies, and the latter .expels the internal enemies

:Then, as a warning and emphasis, at the end of the verse, it says

”.And Allah is aware of what you do...”

١٧. "It is not for the polytheists to maintain the mosques of Allah "

while they bear witness to unbelief against themselves

".These it is whose deeds are null, and in the Fire shall they abide forever

Commentary: verse ١٧

It is true that the occasion of revelation of this verse is about the Sacred Mosque, yet its command concerns all mosques and, for the same reason, the word of 'mosques' has been applied in it, not the phrase of Sacred Mosque

One of the items that was announced by Ali (a.s.) in immunity from pagans was that the Sacred Mosque was not permitted to be mended by idolaters. They should not even enter it. This meaning has been pointed out in verse No.٢٧ of the current Sura.

The above verse says

It is not for the polytheists to maintain the mosques of Allah, while they “ bear witness to unbelief against themselves. These it is whose deeds are null, and ”in the Fire shall they abide forever

:Explanations

Infidels are not permissible to interfere building mosques and also in foundations . ١
.belonging to the culture and religion of Muslims

Neither ever income is lawful, nor ever association is worthy. Be aware that . ٢ because of the love of mosques in you infidels can penetrate in your religious affairs.
:The verse says

”... ,It is not for the polytheists to maintain the mosques of Allah “

Those who pretend to impiety are not rightful to interfere in the religious affairs. . ٣
:The verse says

”... ,while they bear witness to unbelief against themselves...”

In building and running the sacred centers and foundations, do not take the money . ٤

Commentary: verse ١٨

Mosques are the important centers of Muslims’ worship and social activities. Therefore, both their custodians should be pure and pious and their programs must be constructive and educative. Also, their budget should be lawful, and those who haunt there must be godly and pious. Otherwise, when the producers of mosques are some tyrants and aggressive rulers, and their prayer-leaders are some illiterate coward persons, mosques will naturally remain far off from their main aim which is to be spiritually populated, not constructionally. As the late Feyz-i-Kāshāni has pointed out in his commentary book entitled: At-Tafsir-us-Sāfi, maintaining a mosque (includes: mending, cleanliness, pavement, light, teaching, and preaching. (1

The Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) has said: “ When you see a man haunts a mosque, ”.then testify to his Faith

p: ٣٥٧

:Maintaining a mosque and its custodianship needs some conditions .۱

.A.From the point of belief, Faith in Origin and End is necessary

.B.From the point of practice, establishing prayers and paying alms are obligatory

.C.From the point of spirit, bravery and impenetrability are demanded

If the custodians of mosques be brave enough , the mosques will be the center of .۲
.helpful activities against transgression

The duty of the custodians of godly mosques and the maintainers of them is helping .۳
:the deprive. Therefore, they should be the givers of alms. The verse says and performs the prayer, and pays the alms (zakāt), and fears none but Allah. ...” (۱)...

Faith is not aloof from practice; prayer is not separate from alms; and a mosque is .۴
:not empty from revolution and struggle against injustice. The verse says

Only he shall maintain the mosques of Allah who believes in Allah and the last Day, “ and performs the prayer, and pays the alms (zakāt) and fears none but Allah. They, hopefully will be among the guided.” (۲) and strives in the way of Allah? They are not equal with Allah, and Allah does not guide

”the unjust people

Commentary: verse ١٩

Abbas, the Prophet’s uncle, and Shaybah, the custodian of Ka‘bah, were boasting to each other. Abbas boasted of his job which was supplying water for the pilgrimages of the Sacred House, and Shaybah boasted of being the custodian of the Ka‘bah

Ali (a.s.) said that he gloried in the fact that they embraced Islam with the help of his struggle and his sword. Abbas was annoyed and complained of Ali (a.s.) before the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). Then, this verse was revealed

For his precedence, Ali (a.s.) repeatedly called to witness by this verse, because Faith and Holy Struggle were superior to the services done in the age of idolatry which did not bring them spiritual worth. The verse says

Do you make the giving of water to the pilgrims and the maintenance of the “ ,Sacred Mosque equal to someone who believes in Allah and the Last Day

”... ?and strives in the way of Allah

Therefore, a deed without being accompanied by faith is something hollow. It is like a
.mirage, or as a body without soul

This fact must be remarked here that sincere strivers are superior to others, although
.the latter are helpful in a lot of services through some other jobs

That is why if the true Faithful strivers be compared as equivalent with others, it will .be counted as one of the social injustices

Those who believed and emigrated, and strove in Allah's way with their " .٢٠ properties and their selves, have a greater rank with Allah

Commentary: verse ٢٠

As an emphasis and a more explanation, the Qur'ān in this verse indicates that those who believed and embraced Islam and migrated (to Medina) and struggled with their possessions and their selves in the way of Allah, are the highest in rank in the view of Allah, and they are the achievers of salvation. The verse says

Those who believed and emigrated, and strove in Allah's way with their properties"
".and their selves, have a greater rank with Allah, and these they are the triumphant

:Explanations

In Islam, Faith, migration, and Holy Struggle, like piety, are located at the top of .١
.values

"... have a greater rank..."

With some people, the criterion is their tribal and racial relationships, while in the .٢ divine reckons, Faith, migration, and Holy Struggle are criterions of values, (...with

The Qur’ān announces that for these three significant deeds (Faith, migration, and Holy Struggle) Allah will give them three great merits

Commentary: verse ٢٢

:In order to lay a more emphasis on the previous meaning, the Qur’ān adds

,if they prefer unbelief to belief

”.and whoever of you takes them for a guardian, those – they are the unjust

Commentary: verse ٢٣

The last temptation and pretext that might be appear among a group of Muslims in front of the command of war against idol-worshippers was that they thought if they fought against the idolaters, they should renounce their relatives and tribes

On the other side, their capitals and commerce was mostly in the hands of idolaters. By means of their intercourse into Mecca, the briskness of their market would increase

On the third side, this group of Muslims had some good and comfortable houses in Mecca which might be destroyed if they fought against idolaters

:This holy verse clearly and decisively answers such persons. At first, it says

O’ you who have Faith! Do not take your fathers and your brothers for guardians if “ ... ,they prefer unbelief to belief

:Then, as an emphasis, it adds

,and whoever of you takes them for a guardian ...“

”those – they are the unjust

,you are fond of

are dearer to you than Allah and His Messenger

,and striving in His way

;then wait till Allah brings about His command

” .and Allah does not guide the transgressing people

Commentary: verse ٢٤

In this verse, for the extraordinary importance of the subject, the matter under discussion has been stated with a more explanation, emphasis, and threat. It addresses the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and says

Say: ‘ If your fathers, your sons, your brothers, your wives, your clan, your “
,possessions that you have gained, commerce you fear may slacken

,dwellings you are fond of

,are dearer to you than Allah and His Messenger and striving in His way

”... ;then wait till Allah brings about His command

Since the preference of these things to the good pleasure of Allah and Holy Struggle is a kind of disobedience and a manifest transgression, and also having the love of the dazzling glare of the material life is not eligible for the Divine guidance, then, at the end of the verse, the Qur'ān adds

”...and Allah does not guide the transgressing people ...“

Whatever is cited in these verses does not mean cutting off the strings of love and friendship with relatives, neglecting the economical properties and abilities, and going toward the abundance of humane affections. But, the objective meaning is that when it is difficult for a person to decide, the love of wife, child, wealth, rank, home and family should not hinder the execution of Allah's command and tending toward Holy Struggle, so that it detains him from his sacred aim

Therefore, if the person can decide and choose the way, it is necessary for him to observe both of them

However, these verses should be taught as a motto to all the Muslims' children, in order that the spirit of self-sacrifice, devotion and Faith survive in them, and they can guard the religion of Allah and their own heritages

Thus, Holy Struggle is one of the pillars of Islam which is enjoined beside Unity and prophethood

”... ,than Allah and His Messenger and striving in His way ...“

Everything should be devoted in the path of the love for Allah and Holy Struggle in His way. And, detestation of wife and children or the appearance of the disturbance in the circumstances of life, can not be taken as a hinder for the fulfilment of the duty of Holy Struggle

Commentary: verse ٢٥

In the previous holy verses, the words were upon the encouragement to Holy Struggle and some warnings due to dependences. Here, the verse recounts a few helps and graces of Allah in order to strengthen the motive of Holy Struggle in .Muslims

As Tafsir Marāqī, a commentary upon the Qur’ān, says, the total battles of the Prophet .(p.b.u.h.) were numbered ٨٠

”... ,Certainly Allah has helped you on many fields “

It has been narrated that once Mutuwakkil-i-‘Abbāsī became sick. He vowed he would remit many silver coins (derham) if he healed. After that, when he gained his health, it was discussed how many coins the amount of ‘ many silver coins ’ was. They asked the question from Imam Hādi (a.s.) and, relying upon this verse, he said: “ He must (remit eighty derhams (silver coins)).” (Atyab-ul-Bayān

:The Feature of the Battle of Hunayn

The Battle of Hunayn happened between the Muslims and a tribe named ‘ Hawāzin ’ in a land near Tā’if. That was why that this battle was also called ‘ the Battle of Hawāzin ’. The people of that locality had planned to attack the Muslims, but to stand against that plot, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) set out the troops of Islam containing two thousand fresh Muslims added to those ten thousand strivers who had formerly .conquered Mecca, towards them in ʌ A.H

It was after morning prayer when the Muslims were attacked unawares by the fighters of Hawāzin. Therefore, most of the Muslim strivers run away and the .regularity of the army of Islam disturbed

:The verse says

”.then you turned back in retreat ...“

But a group of them resisted very hard and finally, by the Prophet’s call, the fugitives returned and, together with them, their attack began again. Then, by the help of Allah, one hundred pagans were killed and the rest of them surrendered. At last, the Battle .of Hunayn ended in favour of the Muslims and they gained a great deal of booties

”... ,on the day of Hunayn ...“

Concerning to the Battle of Hunayn, there are many things to be said upon the number of captives, the quantity of booties and the quality of their division, the happenings that occurred there, and the consequences of this battle, which can be studied in the related history books and the .books compiled about the Battles of Islam

Thus, sometimes the abundance of persons and material possibilities cause proud and negligence in men, while in all conditions, whether in weakness or strength, the need to the helps of Allah exists. In the Battle of Badr, the Muslims were small in number but they enjoyed the help of Allah. But, at the beginning of the Battle of Hunayn, where the Muslims were large in number, they defeated and it was after that .event when the help of Allah came to them and they, finally, won the battle

Certainly Allah has helped you on many fields, and on the day of Hunayn, when your “ multitude made you vain but it availed you nothing and the earth, in spite of its ,breadth

” .became strait to you; then you turned back in retreat

This fact should be noticed, too, that without the Will of Allah, the material means are .ineffective, (“... it availed you nothing...”), and restructures them spiritually

”...then you turned back in retreat.” “ Then Allah sent down His tranquility ...“

Commentary: verses ٢٦-٢٧

The Arabic word /sakīnah/ (tranquillity) has been applied in six occurrences of the .Qur’ān, five of which relate to battles

In the Battle of Hunayn, there came four kinds of Divine grace upon the believers from the side of Allah. They were: tranquility, unseen troops, divine violence against pagans, and accepting the repentance of the fugitives (which is mentioned in the .(following verse

Some of the pagan captives asked the Muslims: “ Where are those white clothed troops who killed a number of us? ” This meaning points to the angels who appeared (in white clothing, in the eyes of the pagans. (At-Tafsīr-us-Sāfī

However, the unseen helps were the secret of the Muslims’ victory. And, in addition to that, generally, a good spirituality, and having the confidence which is emerged from Faith, are among the .main factors of triumph in battles

Tranquillity and confidence are necessary both for the leader and for the followers.
:The verse says

”... ,Then Allah sent down His tranquility upon His Messenger and upon the believers “

The belief in the presence of the angels and the Divine missions for helping the believers in that battle, is a Qur’ānic belief. And, no doubt, for the person who believes in ‘origin and end,’ being killed in the way of Allah (s.w.t.) is an honour, but for .disbelievers it is a torment. The holy verse continues saying

And sent down hosts which you did not see, and He punished those who ...“

”.disbelieved, and that is the reward of the infidels

****

Upon the commentary of verse ٢٧, it can be said that the gates of repentance are always open to all persons, even for fugitives and captives. In this course, those sinners will be involved in the forgiveness of Allah who truly feel sorry. It is in this case :that Allah not only covers their sins but also loves them. The verse says Then, after that (escape), Allah turns towards whomever He pleases, and Allah is “

”.Forgiving, Merciful

By the way, it should be noticed that the acceptance of repentance is not obligatory
.for Allah, but it is an excellence which relates to His Own Wisdom

:Explanations

There are some probabilities expressed upon the meaning of the repentance which is mentioned in the verse. They are as follows

.Repenting from the sin of escaping from battle-field.١

.Repenting from idolatry.٢

.Repenting from pride, and from reliance on the immensity of persons.٣

” .All-Wise

Commentary: verse ٢٨

One of the four commandments that Ali (a.s.) conveyed to the people of Mecca in the rites of Hajj (pilgrimage) in the ninth year A.H. was that from the year followed no pagan was allowed to enter the Holy Mosque and to circumambulate the Ka‘bah. This :verse has pointed to this matter and its philosophy. It says

“O’ you who have Faith! The polytheists are indeed unclean “
” ... ,so they shall not approach the Sacred Mosque after this year

Then, in response to those shortsighted persons who said with the absence of pagans in the Sacred Mosque their business and trading would decline and they would :become poor and miserable, the Qur’ān says

”... ;and if you fear poverty, then Allah will enrich you out of His grace if He pleases ...“

And He did enrich them in the best form and, at the age of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) with the spread of Islam, the crowds of pilgrims to the Sacred Mosque started to come toward Mecca, and this circumstance has been being continued up to the present time. Consequently, Mecca, which was located in a place surrounded by some dry mountains, has been changed into a very much inhabited city and an important center .of bargains and tradings

Finally, at the end of the verse, the Qur’ān adds that Allah is All-Knowing, All-Wise; and whatever instruction He commands is according to His Wisdom, and He is :perfectly aware of its results. The verse says

”.verily Allah is All-Knowing, All-Wise...“

what Allah and His Messenger have prohibited, nor follow the religion of Truth, out of those who have been given the Book until they pay the (Jizyah) tributary tax with their hand and they remain subjected

Commentary: verse ٢٩

Point

The words in the former verses were about the duty of the Muslims before idolaters. This verse, and several verses next to it, make manifest the Muslims' duty before 'the People of the Book'.

In these verses, in fact, Islam has assigned a series of moderate ordinances to be followed by both the Muslims and disbelievers. From the point of following a heavenly religion, 'the People of the Book' are resembled to Muslims, but from another point of view, they are resembled to pagans. For this very reason, Islam does not permit that they should be killed, while it issued this permission about the idolaters who insisted on their belief, because the program of Islam has been to root out idolatry from the whole earth.

Islam lets Muslims come to terms with the People of the Book in the case that they agree to have a peaceful life beside Muslims in the form of a safe minority religion, to respect

Islam without committing any oppositions and any evil propagation against Muslims and Islam. One of other signs of their accepting this peaceful life is that they agree to pay Jizyah (capitation tax), which is a kind of poll-tax, and they deliver it to Islamic Government every year

Otherwise, Islam issues the command of struggling and fighting against them. The reason of this violence is made manifest through three phrases in the verse under discussion

:At first, it says

”... ,Fight those who do not believe in Allah, nor in the Last Day “

How can it be that the People of the Book, such as the Jews and the Christians, do not believe in Allah and the Last Day, while outwardly we see that they believe in God and the Resurrection both. This is for the sake that their belief is mixed with a great deal of superstitions and so many groundless matters

Then, the verse points to their second weakness, indicating that they do not accept the prohibitions of Allah. They are polluted with: drinking wines, usury, consuming the flesh of swine, and committing a lot of acts of sexual libertinages. The verse says

”... ,nor do they prohibit what Allah and His Messenger have prohibited...”

:Finally, the verse refers to their third fault, when it says

”... ,nor follow the religion of Truth...”

That is, their religions have been deviated from their essential ways, many of the facts have been forgotten and a mass of superstitions have been substituted in their places

After mentioning these three qualities, which are, in fact, considered as the permission of fighting against them, the verse continues saying

”... out of those who have been given the Book ...“

Then, the Qur’ān, in a single sentence, states the difference between idolaters and :pagans. It says

”.until they pay the (Jizyah) tributary tax with their hand and they remain subjected ...“

?What is Jizyah

It is a kind of Islamic poll-tax which is upon persons, not upon properties and lands. In .other words, Jizyah is a yearly poll-tax

The main philosophy of this tax is that the defence for integrity, independence, and security of a country is the duty of all members of that country. Therefore, if a group of people in such a society practically undertake and fulfil that duty, while some others, because of being busy in their own occupations, can not take part in the rows of soldiers, the duty of the second group is that they pay the expenses of the strivers .and protectors of the security in the form of a poll-tax every year

Thus, a poll-tax is simply a kind of financial support which is paid by the People of the Book instead of the responsibility that Muslims undertake with the purpose of .supplying security for their lives and properties

Commentary: verse ٣٠

The term /‘uzayr/, mentioned in the verse, is the Arabic form of /‘uzrā’/, in the same manner that /‘isā/ is the Arabic form of /yasū’/, and /yahyā/ is the Arabicized form of ./yūhanna

One of the great scholars of the Jews was called ‘Uzayr. He later was entitled ‘ the Jew ’, the Deliverer. It happened that after the occurrence of people’s general massacre by

Nebuchadnezzar, and destruction of temples, burnt of the Turah, captivity of women and conquest of Babylon by Cyrus, ‘Uzayr went to Cyrus and asked him to equip the Jews with home and means of life

This verse is a sort of explanation upon the previous verse, which implies that the ‘People of the Book’ do not believe in Allah and the Last Day

The similarity of ‘the People of the Book’ to the idolaters was that idolaters considered idols as the partners of God. This verse points to that similarity: “...” ...conforming

The Jews of the present day, of course, do not believe in ‘Uzayr as the son of Allah, but at the time of the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.), they had such a notion. They could offer no answer to the Prophet’s question when he asked them why they did not believe in Moses as God’s son, the rank of whom was higher. The verse says

And the Jews say: ‘Ezra is the son of God’; and the Christians say: ‘the Messiah is “’ the son of God

”... ,That is the utterance of their mouths

The creeds of the Jews and the Christians are mixed with superstitions, the root of which is found in the creeds of the ancient pagans. The verse says

”... .conforming with the saying of those who disbelieved before ...“

:Then, the verse continues saying

”!May Allah destroy them; how they are turned away...“

Commentary: verse ٣١

The Qur’ānic term /’ahbār/ is the plural form of /hibr/ which means ‘scholar, learned’; and the Arabic term /ruhbān/ is the plural form of /rāhib/ with the meaning of ‘monk’. These people, with all their saintliness, are servants and worshippers of God, not .objects of worship Unconditioned obedience from Jewish rabbis and Christian monks is a kind of worship done by the Jews and the Christians. Imam Sadiq (a.s.) said : “ Whoever obeys a person in sinning Allah; he has worshipped him. ” ( Nūr-uth-Thaqalayn, the (commentary

:The verse says

,They have taken their rabbis and their monks and Messiah, son of Mary “

They intend that they extinguish the Light of Allah with their mouths and Allah “ .٣٢

Commentary: verse ٣٢

For the vain and useless efforts of the Jews and the Christians, or all the opponents of Islam, among whom are polytheists, there has come an interesting resemblance in
:this verse. It says

They intend that they extinguish the Light of Allah with their mouths and Allah “

”... ,refuses but to perfect His Light

Inspite of their wish, Allah intends to spread this Divine Light and to complete it more and more, so that it covers throughout the world and in a manner that all the people of the world enjoy it, although the disbelievers do not like it. The verse continues
:saying

”..though the infidels detest it..“

There is no meaning seemed more expressive than this to illustrate the degradation and contempt of their attempts. In fact, there will be no result for the efforts of a
.feable creature before the endless Will and infinite Power of Allah other than this

For extinguishing a small light, people used to usually blow with their mouths, while a puff of mouth has no effect in extinguishing strong lights. In order to state the weakness of their ability and to break their personality, the Qur'ān has applied "... with their mouths ..." which is of no avail for the strong lights to be extinguished. The purpose is that these miserable people intend to extinguish the light of Allah with the blow of their mouth, like a person who tries to extinguish the sun with a puff

He it is Who sent His Messenger with guidance and the religion of Truth, that He “ ٣٣ .
” may prevail it over all religions, though the polytheists may detest it

Commentary: verse ٣٣

At last, by the means of this verse, the Muslims have been given the glad tidings of the spread of Islam through the world. In this way, the Qur’ān has completed the content of the previous verse indicating that the efforts of the opponents of Islam result :nothing for them. It explicitly says

He it is Who sent His Messenger with guidance “

,and the religion of Truth

” that He may prevail it over all religions, though the polytheists may detest it

The purpose of ‘ guidance ’, mentioned in the verse, is the clear reasoning and manifest evidences which exist in the religion of Islam; and the purpose of the phrase ‘ religion of Truth ’ is the same religion of Islam whose both principles and positive laws are right and, in general, its history, evidences, proofs, consequences and concepts are totally right, too. Thus, no doubt, the religion whose both contents and documents, reasoning, and history are clear, should finally overcome all former .creeds

With the past of time and development of knowledge, together with the facility of communications, the facts will reveal their true features from behind the curtains of poisonous propaganda and they will remove the hinders that the opponents of the Truth create in its path. It is in this way that the religion of Truth and the government of Truth will dominate everywhere, though the enemies of the Truth detest it, because their effort is something opposite to the nature of history and against the statutes of creation

:(.The Qur'ān and the reappearance of Mahdī (a.s

The words of the abovementioned verse have exactly been repeated in Sura As-Saff, No. ٤١, verse ٩, and, with a little difference, have occurred in Sura Al-Fath, No. ٤٨, verse ٢٨. The verse informs of a significant happening, the importance of which has caused its repetition. It predicts that Islam will become a worldly religion and it will be practiced everywhere all over the world

The concept of this verse is the complete triumph of Islam over all the religions in the world. This phrase means that Islam will finally cover the whole earth and will prevail throughout the world

Upon the commentary of this verse, it has been narrated from Imam Sādiq (a.s.) who said: “By Allah, the content meaning of this verse has not happened yet and it will not happen until when the ‘ Ghā'im ’ (a.s.) reappears. When he reappears there will remain no one to deny Allah, the Great, (throughout the world).” (‘Ikmāl-ud-Din, by Sadūq

:It is also narrated from Imam Bāqir (a.s.) who said

Verily whatever (promise) there lies in this verse will happen at the time of the “reappearance of Mahdī (a.s.) when there will be no one (on the earth) but confesses the rightfulness of Muhammad

”.(p.b.u.h

However, the question of Mahdī (a.s.) and his worldly reappearance has been mentioned in a lot of traditions recorded in the books of both great sects of Islam, so that it is considered as one example among the presuppositions of conviction

It is narrated from Ali-ibn-i-’Abitālib (a.s.) that, at the time of reappearance of Mahdī (a.s.), there will be no house and no town but Islam will arrive into it, whether they like (or dislike, and the sound of ‘prayer call’ will be heard in any town. (Tafsīr-us-Sāfi properties of the people

.in vanity and bar (them) from Allah’s way

;And those who treasure up gold and silver, and do not spend them in the way of Allah

”.inform them of a painful chastisement

Commentary: verse ٣٤

The contents of the former verses were mostly upon the heathenish deeds of the Jews and Christians who believed in a kind of diety for their religious scholars. This verse implies that not only they have not the rank of diety, but also they have not the eligibility of leading people. The best evidence for this idea is their committing :different offenses. The Qur’ān addresses the Muslims and says

O’ you who have Faith! Verily many of the rabbis and monks consume the “

.properties of the people in vanity and bar (them) from Allah’s way

These rabbis and monks used to devour the people’s properties falsely in different :forms and without having a lawful permission, as follows

One of those forms was that they used to conceal some of the facts of the religion of Messiah (a.s.) and Moses (a.s.) in order that people would not convert to the new religion (Islam), which put their interests in danger and caused their presents to be ceased

Another thing was that, by bribery from people, they invalidated the right and confirmed falsehood in place of right, and thus they judged falsely in benefit of the cruel and the strong

One of other ways of gaining their unlawful incomes was that, under the name of 'selling Paradise' or 'forgiving sins', they took a great deal of money from people

They used to bar people from Allah's way by perverting the Divine revelations or concealing them in order to preserve their unlawful gains

Fitting to the discussion of mammonism of the leaders of both the Jews and the Christians, the Qur'an mentions a general law due to those who treasure up wealth. It states

And those who treasure up gold and silver, and do not spend them in the way of...“
”Allah; inform them of a painful chastisement

The abovementioned holy verse has clearly prohibited treasuring up wealth, and commands Muslims to utilize their properties actively in the way of Allah and in a profitable path for Allah's servants. They should severely avoid treasuring and storing them in a corner so that their wealth would not be applied in the current bargains; otherwise, they must wait for a painful punishment

This painful punishment is not only the violent retribution of the Resurrection Day, but also it encompasses the hard chastisements of this world which comes forth as a result of disturbing the economical harmony of the society and causing a larger gap between the rich and the poor

?How much of Wealth Is Counted Treasure

According to many traditions, that which is obligatory to be paid is yearly alms tax, not other than that. Thus, if a person obtains some considerable wealth and regularly pays its Islamic tax, i.e. alms and also its one fifth levy, (khoms), the one will not be included of the meaning of the verse under discussion

A tradition narrated from the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) indicates that when this verse was revealed the circumstance became difficult for the Muslims. They said that by this command none of them could keep anything for the future of their children. Finally, they asked the matter from the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), and he said: “ Allah has not enjoined alms-tax save for that the rest of your properties becomes pure for you. So, the law of heritage has been legislated upon the properties which remain after you.” This statement means that if treasuring up wealth were absolutely prohibited, the law of heritage would be meaningless

Considering the totality of the concerning traditions upon this subject and together with the holy verse itself, it is understood that in ordinary conditions, viz. at periods that society is not in an unpleasant or dangerous circumstance and people enjoy an ordinary life, paying alms tax is usually sufficient for the poor and the remaining wealth of such people is not counted ‘treasure

But at the time of extraordinary conditions, and when it requires that the interests of the Islamic society to be protected, the Islamic government can assign some limitations for treasuring up wealth, or may demand all the stored properties of people to protect the existence of the Islamic society

Imam Sādiq (a.s) said: “ Allah has given you these extra properties in order that you spend them alongside His pleasure, not to hoard up and treasure it up.” (Tafsir-us-Sāfi)

The holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: “Allah has enjoined Alms in the wealth of the rich Muslims as much as to sufficient the poor. Verily Allah will severely reckon and punish (them if they do not fulfil their duty.” (Tafsir-us-Sāfi)

According to some traditions, when the Expected Mahdi (May Allah hasten his glad advent) reappears, he will control treasures in order to use them all for the miserable (people and his religious strives. (1)

:Abūthar and This Verse

To make a protest against the manner of Mu‘āwiyah, ‘Uthmān, and the authorities of the government in gathering and treasuring up gold and silver, Abūthar, who was one of the close companions of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), repeatedly recited this verse aloud before Mu‘āwiyah and then in front of ‘Uthmān every morning and evening. He said that this verse was not allocated only to those who hinder Alms tax, but it encompasses everyone who treasures up wealth

One of the excellencies of Abūthar in his life was that when confronting the governors of his time he used to enjoin right and forbid wrong concerning their vain expenses.

conflict with ‘Uthmān was not due to his wealth and position, but it was a protest to a social indecency ‘Uthman was committing

Abūthar was frequently exiled because he opposed the wrong style of the government of his time and shouted against the financial method of ‘Uthman, Mu‘āwiyah’s treasuring up unlawful properties, and justifications of Ka‘b-ul-’Akhbār. The details of this meaning are found in the history books of both great sects of Muslims, including: Al-Qadir, vol. ٨, p. ٣٣٥; Al-Minār, the commentary, vol. ١٠; Tafsir-i-Nūr, vol. ٥, p. ٤٤, and so on

:Explanations

١. Not all the scholars and clergies are wicked. The holy verse says

“O’ you who have Faith! Verily many of the rabbis and monks consume the properties “
”... of the people in vanity

It should be noted that this matter refers to many of them, not all of them. This statement means that there are also some ones among them who do not commit these indecencies. This very idea, that the Qur’ān announces, is a very good evidence that the judgements of the Qur’ān are just. That is why in Sura Al-Mā’idah, No. ٥, verse ٨٢, the Qur’ān has admired a group of them

To misuse opportunities and ranks is religiously unlawful, and the greatest danger for clergymen is a financial mischief

”... Consume the properties of the people in vanity and bar (them) from Allah’s way...”

The mammonism of the scholars and the treasuring up wealth done by the rich .۳
:causes the wrath of Allah. The verse says

And those who treasure up gold and silver, and do not spend them in the way of...“
”Allah; inform them of a painful chastisement

Treasuring up gold, silver and money, and restraining from spending them in charity .۴
.is a capital sin, because it has been promised punishment for

In Islam, there is no limitation for having a considerable capital, but in gaining it, .۵ there are some conditions which should be observed. To spend wealth in a bad way is .also unlawful in Islam

Treasuring up wealth is a social calamity, and worse than that is greed, while worse .۶
than this is concealing and storing wealth, since it produces a lot of difficulties for the .society

٣٥- يَوْمَ يُحْمَى عَلَيْهَا فِي نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ فَتَكْوَى بِهَا جِبَاهُهُمْ

وَجُنُوبُهُمْ وَظُهُورُهُمْ هَذَا مَا كَنْزْتُمْ لَآنْفُسِكُمْ

فَذُوقُوا مَا كُنْتُمْ تَكْنِزُونَ

،On the Day (of Judgment) they (the coins) shall be heated in the Fire of Hell “ ٣٥ and therewith their foreheads and their sides and their backs shall be branded, (the :(angels will tell them

This is what you have treasured up for yourselves, therefore taste you now what ‘
” ’you were treasuring

Commentary: verse ٣٥

The Retribution of Amassers of Wealth

This holy verse points to one of the chastisements of such people in the next world,
:where it says

،On the Day (of Judgment) they (the coins) shall be heated in the Fire of Hell “

”... ,and therewith their foreheads and their sides and their backs shall be branded

It is in that situation that the angels of punishment will tell them that is the same thing that they amassed for themselves in the form of treasures and did not spend it for the :deprived in the way of Allah. The verse says

”... ,the angels will tell them): ‘ This is what you have treasured up for yourselves)... “

As a result of their deed, they should taste what they used to treasure and find the :evil consequence of it. The verse continues saying

” ’!therefore taste you now what you were treasuring...”

Once more this verse emphasizes on this fact that the deeds of human beings will not vanish. The deeds of persons will remain for the next world where they will incarnate
.in front of every one and cause his happiness or his toil

Commentary: verse ٣٦

In view of the fact that in this Sura there have occurred several discussions about fighting against pagans, the Qur'an refers to one of the rules of an Islamic fight and the Holy Struggle through this verse and the verse after it. It is to hold the Sacred Months in respect. It says

Verily the number of months with Allah is twelve months in the Book of Allah, (since) “

”... ,the day He created the heavens and the earth

Since the day the solar system was formed in the present shape, there have existed year and month. A year is a complete course of the rotation of the earth around the sun; and a month is a complete course of the rotation of the moon around the earth which happens twelve times in a year

Then the Qur'ān adds that four months out of these twelve months are sacred, in which any fight and battle are religiously unlawful. It says

”... four of them are sacred...”

Next to this statement, in order to emphasize on the matter, it says that this religion is fixed and unchangeable. It is not like the wrong customs which Arabs had and, whenever they wished, they would change the place of them. The verse continues saying ”... That is the established religion...”

It is understood from some Islamic literature that the prohibition of war during these four months were enjoined not only in the divine creed of Abraham (a.s.), but also in the godly religions of the Jews and Christ, as well as the other heavenly religions

Then the verse implies that during these four months you should not be unjust to your selves and incur the retributions of this world and the punishments of the Hereafter. It says

”... So be you not unjust unto your selves during them...”

But, since the prohibition of Holy Struggle during these four months might be misused by the enemies of Islam and it would make them bold in attacking the Muslims, through the next phrase, it adds

”... And fight polytheists totally even as they fight you totally...”

That is, they are infidels, and infidelity and idolatry is the origin of dispersion, yet they fight against you in one single line. It is more eligible for you, the monotheists, to be united against the enemies of Islam and stand firm in a line, like an iron wall, in front of them. At last, the verse implies that Muslims should know that if they keep from evil and exactly execute the teachings of Islam, Allah vouches their victory, because Allah is with the pious ones. The verse says

” .and know that Allah is with the pious ones...”

Verily postponing (of the sacred month) is only an addition unto infidelity whereby “ ٣٧ . the infidels go astray; they allow it (fight) one year and forbid it another year, that they may adjust the number of months Allah has forbidden, thus they allow what Allah has forbidden. The evil of their deeds has been made fair seeming to them. And Allah does “ .not guide the unbelieving people

Commentary: verse ٣٧

In this verse, the Qur’ān points to a wrong custom which was usually accomplished at the Age of Ignorance. It was customary among them to change the place of sacred months, about which this verse says

“ (١) Verily postponing (of the sacred month) is only an addition unto infidelity... ” (١)

The reason of this meaning is that, besides their disbelief and ‘creedal infidelity’, by ignoring this commandment, they also committed ‘practical infidelity’, and by means of this

Lexicologists has rendered the Arabic term /nāsī/ into the sense of ‘changing the ١ - ١ place’, or ‘postponing’. As they say, this word is used for postponing the menstruation of women from its time, or postponing the death of a person, and postponing the months wherein fight is unlawful. (Lisān-ul-Arab, vol. ١, p. ١٦٦; and (Majma‘-ul-Bayān, vol. ٥, p. ٤٤ action, the faithless persons might incur a greater aberration. The verse continues

:saying

”... ;whereby the infidels go astray...”

Then, in the continuation of the verse, the Qur’ān implies that they considered one month in a year lawful and in another year they forbade the same month. They did so in order that, as they imagined, they adapted it with the months Allah had assigned.
:The verse says

they allow it (fight) one year and forbid it another year, that they may adjust...”

”... ,the number of months Allah has forbidden

That is, when they omitted one month of the Sacred Months, they substituted another month in its place, so that the figure ‘four’ became full. But, by this ridiculous and hideous action of theirs, they utterly wasted the philosophy of the prohibition of Sacred Months and toyed with the ordinance of Allah for their low desires. Strange!
:They were very happy and pleased with their own action, because ”... .The evil of their deeds has been made fair seeming to them...”

They used to say that the long peaceful time between two wars, decreased the war
.skillfulness, therefore, they should light the fire of war

Allah also leaves to themselves those people who are not worthy to be guided, and :does not guide them. The verse says

”.And Allah does not guide the unbelieving people...”

Muslims called upon to fight in the way of Allah – How Allah helped the Messenger in the Cave while he migrated from Mecca, referred to ٣٨- يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا مَا لَكُمْ إِذَا قِيلَ لَكُمْ انْفِرُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ اثَّاقَلْتُمْ إِلَى الْأَرْضِ أَرْضَيْتُمْ بِالْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا مِنَ الْآخِرَةِ

,’forth in Allah’s way

?you should incline heavily to the ground

Are you contented with the life of this world instead of the Hereafter? But the ”enjoyment of the life of this world, compared with the Hereafter, is but little

Occasion of Revelation: verse ٣٨

It has been narrated by Ibn-‘Abbās, as well as some others, that this verse and the ? verse after it have been sent down about the ‘ Battle of Tabūk

Some Islamic narrations indicate that the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) usually did not make manifest the war decisions and his final aims concerning them for Muslims before the beginning of war in order that the Islamic martial secrets would not be handed to the enemy. But, the situation was different about ‘ the Battle of Tabūk, where in advance he announced clearly that they were going to fight against the Romans. That fight against the Emperor of Eastern Byzantine, of course was not a simple matter, and Muslims should be .completely prepared for that great war

In addition to that, the distance between Medina and the country of the Romans was very long and, all things apart, it was summer, the hot season, and the time of harvest .for both corns and fruits

All these affairs with together made the problem of going toward the battlefield extraordinary difficult for the Muslims, so much so that some of them showed .hesitation in accepting the Prophet’s invitation

It was in those circumstances that these couple of verses were sent down and, with a very sharp and decisive tone, warned Muslims to be aware of danger, and made them .ready to participate in that great war

Commentary: verse ۳۸

As it was cited in the occasions of revelation, the abovementioned verse is about the .circumstance of the Battle of Tabūk

TABŪK is a region between Medina and Syria where the bound of Sa‘ūdi Arabia is located now, and, at that time, it was close to the lands of the Emperor of Eastern Byzantine, which was dominated over Syria. This event happened in the ninth A.H. viz. .about one year after the occurrence of Mecca Conquest

With the most intensive manner, the Qur’ān invites people unto Holy Struggle. Sometimes it applies some encouraging words, and sometimes some scorning words, and sometimes it threatens them. It addresses people differently and through various ways in order to :make them ready. Here, in this verse, at first it says

O' you who have Faith! What (excuse) have you that when it is said to you. 'Go forth'
, 'in Allah's way

"... ?you should incline heavily to the ground

Then, with a reproaching tone, and, referring to the life of this fleeting world and also
:the vast eternal life in the coming world, it says

"... ?Are you contented with the life of this world instead of the Hereafter..."

Did you do it while the advantages and the amount of the life of this world in :comparison with the life in Hereafter is very little? The verse says

But the enjoyment of the life of this world, compared with the Hereafter, is but..."
".little

How might a wise person submit such a detrimental exchange? And how does he lose
?an extraordinary worthy thing for reaching to a worthless little thing

وَلَا تَضُرُّوهُ شَيْئًا وَاللَّهُ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ

„If you do not go forth, He will chastise you with a painful chastisement “ .٣٩

„and He will substitute in your place a people other than you

”..and you will not harm Him anything, for Allah is All-Powerful over everything

Commentary: verse ٣٩

Then, the Qur’ān promotes the reproaching tone higher into an earnest form of threat and implies that if Muslims do not move towards the battlefields of Holy Struggle, Allah will punish them with a painful punishment. The verse says

”... „If you do not go forth, He will chastise you with a painful chastisement “

So, if they think that by their going aside and turning their backs to the battlefields the wheels of the development of Islam may stop and the light of the religion of Allah will tend to be extinguished, they are in a tremendous error, because Allah can substitute a group of people other than them who will be faithful, decided, and obedient to the command of Allah. The verse says

”... „and He will substitute in your place a people other than you...”

These people will be a group of persons who are different from them from any point of view. They will be different from them not only from the view point of personality, but .also from the view points of faith, decision, courage, and obedience

Some commentators believe that this holy phrase is an indication to Iranians or (people of Yemen. (Majma‘-ul-Bayān

Then the verse adds that, by this way, they can not harm anything unto Allah and His
:pure religion. The verse continues saying

”.and you will not harm Him anything, for Allah is All-Powerful over everything...”

This is a reality, not an imaginary utterance, nor an afar hope, because Allah (s.w.t.) is powerful over everything and whenever He will upon the triumph of His pure religion,
:no doubt, it will happen. The verse ends

”.for Allah is All-Powerful over everything...”

”.and the word of Allah is the highest, and Allah is the Mighty, the Wise

Commentary: verse ٤٠

This verse contains a hint to the dangerous plan of polytheists for slaying the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). In the event of the Night fixed for the execution of the Conspiracy, every tribe sent a vigorous person ready to stab at him. They decided to attack at night and slay the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). He put Ali-ibn-Abī-tālib (a.s.) in bed instead of himself and, by night, he went towards the Cave of Thūr accompanied with Abūbakr. The pagans chased the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) as far as the threshold of the Cave, but, seeing the spider’s webs at the gate of the Cave, they changed their mind and returned. Thus, after three days staying there, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) left for Medina. During that time, Abūbakr's slave, 'Āmir-ibn-Fahrah, brought food for them. At the same time, Ali (a.s.) was preparing .the necessities of traveling to Medina

After three days, three camels were supplied ready at the Cave and the Prophet ((p.b.u.h.), Abūbakr, and a guide started for Medina. (Narrated from Durr-ul-Manthūr

Therefore, Allah's helps in the past are some admonitions for today; and if they do not help the religion of Allah, He helps His Messenger even by sending spider's webs. The :verse says

,If you do not help him, yet Allah has helped him already “ when those who disbelieved expelled him, he was the second of the two, when they both were in the cave, when he said unto his companion: ‘ Do not grieve, surely Allah is with us’. Then Allah sent down on him His tranquillity and strengthened him with hosts which ”... ,you did not see

Of course, the Will of Allah is superior to and higher than any decisions and desires. :The verse says

”... ,and the word of Allah is the highest...”

And, the transgressive forces, with all their specializations and possibilities, will be impotent before the true believers who have tranquillity and certainty. The holy verse :says and He made the word of those who disbelieved the lowest; and the word of Allah...” .is the highest, and Allah is the Mighty, the Wise

Go forth light and heavy! and strive in Allah's way with your possessions and your " ٤١ .selves

”.this is better for you if you know

Commentary: verse ٤١

The objective meaning of the Arabic couple of words: /xifāf/ and /θiqāl /, mentioned in the verse, is either of the following opposite terms: ‘ light and heavy ’, ‘ bachelor and ,’ married ’, ‘ poor and rich ’, ‘ on horseback and on foot young and old ’, ‘ to have a large family and to have a small family’, ‘of ease and of ‘ .’ discomfort ’ and ‘ trade and farming

It is cited in Fi-Zilāl, a commentary of the Qur’ān, that when some old persons such as: ‘Abū-’Ayyūb ’Ansāri, Miqdād, and Abū-Talhah, who became ready to go towards the battle-fields, were told that they were too old to go to fight, they often recited the .abovementioned verse

However, when the command of general mobilization for battlefield is issued, do not ... !pretext any barrier. The verse says: “ Go forth light and heavy

And do know that everything should be devoted to the religion, including wealth and :life, not only either of them. The verse continues saying

And strive in Allah's way with your possessions and your selves, this is better for...“ .you if you know

Therefore, striving with life for the poor and striving with both wealth and life for the .rich is obligatory

٤٢- لَوْ كَانَ عَرَضًا قَرِيبًا وَسَفَرًا قَاصِدًا لَاتَّبَعُوكَ وَلَكِنْ بَعُدَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ الشُّقَّةُ وَسَيَحْلِفُونَ بِاللَّهِ لَوِ اسْتَطَعْنَا لَخَرَجْنَا مَعَكُمْ يُهْلِكُونَ أَنْفُسَهُمْ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ إِنَّهُمْ لَكَاذِبُونَ

:followed you, but the distance was too far to them; yet they will swear by Allah

Had we been able, we would certainly have gone out with you’, they destroy‘
.themselves

” .And Allah knows that verily they are liars

Commentary: verse ٤٢

The Qur’ān refers this meaning to the lazy persons who are weak in faith and resort to kinds of pretext in order to refrain from attending in this great course. The Qur’ān says to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) that if there was an available booty and the journey was short they would accept his invitation and hasten to sit at that prepared table, so that :they could reach the worldly material. It says

Had there been a near gain, and an easy journey, certainly they would have followed “
” ... ,you

But, now that the way is very far and difficult for them, they act listlessly and seek :pretexts. The verse continues saying

” ... ;but the distance was too far to them...”

It is surprising that they did not suffice to pretexts, but they would come to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and swear by Allah that if they could they would certainly had gone out with the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). Therefore, they expressed that the reason that they did not come forth was their incapability and lack of power. The holy verse continues
:saying

yet they will swear by Allah: ‘Had we been able, we would certainly have gone out...’
”... ,’with you

In fact, by means of these deeds and telling those lies, they destroyed themselves.
:The verse says

”... .they destroy themselves...”

:But Allah knows well that they are not truthful. The verse says

” .And Allah knows that verily they are liars...”

They are completely capable to act but since the table is not so rich and there is a .difficult program in front of them, they resort to false oaths

This circumstance was not confined to the Battle of Tabūk and the age of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). In any society, there are often some lazy, or ‘ hypocritic and greedy ’ persons who are always waiting for the moments of victory and efficacious opportunities to come. At that time, they often substitute themselves deceitfully in the first line and shout to introduce themselves to others that they are the first strivers, the best strugglers, and the most sympathetic people, in order that they enjoy the .consequences of the existing triumph without incurring any trouble

***

Point

The hypocrites asking permission to remain behind – Their presence would have been – only a liability or weakness

.Their spending of wealth not acceptable to Allah

۴۳- عَفَا اللَّهُ عَنْكَ لِمَ أَذِنْتَ لَهُمْ حَتَّىٰ يُبَيِّنَ لَكَ الَّذِينَ صَدَقُوا

وَتَعْلَمَ الْكَاذِبِينَ

May Allah pardon you! Why did you give them leave before you had found out “ ۴۳ .

” ?those who spoke the truth and before you had known the liars

Commentary: verse ۴۳

:Try to Recognize Hypocrites

It is understood from the tone and style of these verses that some hypocrites came to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and, after expressing some excuses, and even taking oaths, they asked him permission that they would not take part in the battlefield of Tabūk.

.So, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) gave permission to that group

In this verse, Allah addresses His Messenger kindly, in a manner that, before severity in statement, His words are about remittal and forgiveness. Then the Qur’ān implies why he did not permit that those who spoke the truth be recognized from the liars and he would :distinguish them. The verse says May Allah pardon you! Why did you give them leave before you had found out those “ ” ?who spoke the truth and before you had known the liars

Is the abovementioned reproof and blame, which has been combined with the announcement of Allah’s forgiveness, an evidence for that the Prophet’s permission
?’had been an offense, or it had been only a ‘leaving the better

This question may be answered that the mentioned ‘reproof and blame’ has a metaphorical form and there has not been even a ‘leaving the better’ in the course, and the purpose has been to state the hypocritical spirit of the hypocrites in a delicate
.and metaphorical statement

.This meaning can be made clear by mentioning an explicit example

Suppose a cruel person intends to beat your son, but at the same time one of your friends stops him of doing that action. Regarding that, not only you will not be inconvenient but also you will become happy. Yet, to prove the inward indecency of that person, you may tell your friend, in a form of reproof and blame, why he did not let him beat and all people around there would recognize that cruel hypocritical person. Your aim from this statement is only to prove his cruelty and hypocrisy which has been appeared in the guise of ‘reproof and blame’ unto your friend and your .advocate

Those who believe in Allah and the Last Day do not ask you for leave, (to be “ ٤٤ .
;exempt) from striving with their possessions and their selves
”and Allah is All-Knowing of the pious ones

Commentary: verse ٤٤

A true believer, who loves Holy Struggle and martyrdom, has no fear from death. Therefore, he does not go after taking permission to get a leave. Sometimes it happened that some Muslims persistently asked the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to send them to fight, but he had not the necessary possibilities, and, therefore, they wept. (١) In going to Tabūk, when the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) left Ali (a.s.) in Medina as his substitute, he (a.s.) did not feel at home. The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) conformed him and told .(him that he (a.s.) was, in situation to him (p.b.u.h.), as Aaron was to Moses (a.s

Thus, the true believers and true strivers do not flee from labour and tasks .concerning Holy Struggle, and they devote both with their wealth and selves

Therefore, a believer is always prepared and ready to obey the Divine commandment. He does not seek for pretexts. So the faith in ‘origin and end’ is the main factor of piety, love of

p: ٤١٤

:martyrdom, and attending in Holy Struggles. The holy verse says (Those who believe in Allah and the Last Day do not ask you for leave, (to be exempt “

Commentary: verse ٤٥

Those who, in the course of the Battle of Tabūk, came to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and asked him to stay at home, were the very hypocrites and some Muslims of a weak faith, else those believers whose faith was safe and complete and did believe in Allah and the Resurrection Day never asked permission from the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to .offend upon the subject of Holy Struggle

It is understood from this verse that such believers were so obedient to the Prophet’s command that they would never say anything against the question of Holy Struggle and participated in it by their properties and selves without any hesitation, and Allah .was aware of the circumstances of those pious ones

Only those disputed upon the question of Holy Struggle who were weak in their belief, or were hypocrites, and had not a proper faith in Allah and the Resurrection Day. Such people came to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and, by some vain excuses and pretexts, they asked permission from Him not to take part in the Holy Struggle. Concerning these people, the Qur’ān announces that their hearts are in doubt and they have not reached to a conclusive belief, then they are bewildered in their own doubt and hesitation. The verse says

Only those ask leave from you who do not believe in Allah and the Last Day and their “ hearts are in doubt, so they waver in their doubt

Hadrat Amīr-ul-Mu’mineen Ali (a.s.) in one of his sayings has cited: “...and he who waves in doubt, Satans trample him under their feet.” \(1\)

Commentary: verse ٤٦

These very hypocrites, who came to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and asked him to give them permission not to participate in the Holy Struggle, had formerly decided not to go to the Holy Struggle and that asking permission was an external action which was done formally, since whether the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) gave them permission or not, they would not go to fight. The same matter, from their situation, is stated through this
:verse. It says

And if they had intended to go forth, they would have certainly provided equipment “
” ... ,for it

They never provided any preliminary preparations for their going out, and the very .thing indicated that they were not decided to go forth

After that, the verse points to an important matter denoting that, as a result of their intention and their action, Allah basically was not pleased with their participation in the Holy Struggle. So, He cast this idea into their hearts that they would stay at home and refrain going forth. Therefore, they were told to remain in Medina with those who had not taken

:part in the Holy Struggle such as children, women, and the sick. The verse says but Allah was averse to their going forth, so He withheld them and it was...“

” ’ said (to them): ‘ Sit you with the sedentary

However, the averse of Allah to their going forth toward Holy Struggle is a negation of

.Divine succor, not a practical prohibition

;seeking to stir up sedition between you
;and some of you would listen to them
” .and Allah is All-Knowing of the unjust

Commentary: verse ٤٧

In this holy verse, the Qur’ān explains that if they came out with you and took part in the Holy Struggle they would be a boaring for you and they would do naught but corruption and sedition. They might penetrate inside your rows and substitute themselves deceitfully amongst you being busy with disturbances; and there are some persons among you who follow them and hearken to their seditious statements. Therefore, if they had come they would have created sedition and disturbance in the :groups of the Muslims. The holy verse says

Had they gone forth among you, they would not have increased to you aught save “ corruption, and they would have certainly hurried about (to and fro) amidst you,
;seeking to stir up sedition between you

”... ;and some of you would listen to them

By means of their evil speeches, they would pervert the weak Muslims from the straight path and would create a gap and separation in the troops of Islam, so that the troops’ spirit could be weakened. Then, the verse continues saying that Allah is :aware of the unjust; i.e. He knows all their plots. The verse says

” .and Allah is All-Knowing of the unjust..“

They certainly sought to stir up sedition already before, and turned matters “ ٤٨ upside down for you, until the truth came and Allah’s command appeared though they ”.were averse

Commentary: verse ٤٨

These hypocrites had given their examination before. They had cast sedition among .the Muslims

Therefore, the Qur’ān refers to the course of the Battle of ’Uhud where the hypocrites, under the leadership of ‘Abdullah-ibn-’Ubay, struck the Muslims very violently and hindered a large group of them from participating in the Holy Struggle. They not only did not go to war themselves, but also caused some Muslim tribes to become doubtful about it. These tribes were such as Banū-Muslimah, and Banū-Harīthah. They, as a result of the hypocrites’ preachings, hesitated to go to fight in the Holy Struggle, but soon they overcame to their doubt and participated in the Holy Struggle. The following holy verse from Sura ’Āl-i-‘Imrān is a hint to that very :circumstance. It says

When two parties of you had decided to flinch but Allah was the protector of them “ both (and helped them to (change their thought); so in Allah (alone) should the believers trust.” (1

It is for this reason that, in the verse under discussion, the Qur’ān states that the hypocrites had decided from before to stir up sedition and they tried to turn the matters upside down for the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) in order that he might make mistake in making his decisions. But the truth came and Allah’s command was manifested while they were not pleased. That is, in that very Battle of ’Uhud that they applied their seditions, the Muslims, after incurring a failure, finally overcame the enemy, and Islam obtained a better situation and it was fixed. The hypocrites, of course, did not :like that circumstance. The verse says

They certainly sought to stir up sedition already before, and turned matters upside “ down for you, until the truth came and Allah’s command appeared though they were ”.averse

Yes, hypocrites’ hearts never submit to the Islamic system, “...they were averse. ”, but as it was actually proved, the helps of Allah destroy the plans of the hypocrites: “...
.”...the truth came and Allah’s command appeared

Sura ‘Al-i-‘Imrān, No. ۳, verse ۱۲۲ ۱ –۱

٤٩- وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ يَقُولُ ائْذَنْ لِي وَلَا تَفْتِنِّي اَلَا فِي الْفِتْنَةِ سَقَطُوا

وَإِنَّ جَهَنَّمَ لَمَحِيْطَةٌ بِالْكَافِرِيْنَ

And among them there is he who says: ‘ Give me leave and do not tempt me.’ “ ٤٩ Surely into temptation have they already fallen; and verily Hell encompasses the
”infidels

Commentary: verse ٤٩

One of the chiefs of the tribe Bany Salamah, who was one of the hypocrites, asked the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) not to attend in the Battle of Tabūk. His pretext was that if he saw the Roman women, he would be enamoured of them and would commit sins. The holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) allowed him so. Then, this verse was revealed and counted him sinful and fallen in temptation for the sake of not participating in the battlefield. The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) resigned him from his rank, the presidency of the tribe, and appointed Bushr-ibn-Bur’ā’, a generous and good tempered man, in his place

However, for believers, a battlefield is the site of temptation and examination, and those who are worried about the temptation of war and avoid going toward Holy Struggle, will fall into a greater temptation. The verse says

And among them there is he who says: ‘Give me leave and do not tempt me.’ Surely “
”... ;into temptation have they already fallen

To deceive the believers, some of hypocrites abuse the religious matters and ordinances and, under the name of, for example, ‘ looking at the Roman girls ’, disobey the command of Allah and the

.Messenger

It should be noted that escape from the Divine trial is impossible; and encompassment of Hell upon infidels and hypocrites is for the encompassment of Hell upon infidels and hypocrites is for the encompassment of sin upon their entity. The
:verse continues saying

”.and verily Hell encompasses the infidels...”

٥٠. „If (any) good befalls you, it vexes them; but if an affliction visits you “

„they say: ‘ We had taken care of our affair in advance

” .and they turn away, rejoicing

Commentary: verse ٥٠

In this verse, the Qur’ān refers to one of other particular epithets of the hypocrites. This epithet in them is that if a goodness befalls the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and Muslims, they will be annoyed of it. They will be inconvenient if the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) overcomes the enemy in the war or obtains some booties

They do not like the goodness and happiness of the Muslims, but if an affliction befalls the Muslims, that they meet with failure or be killed, for example, they will be glad and they say that they had observed the necessary precautions from before and they did not visit that affliction. In such a way, they speak ironically of Muslims. The verse says

„If (any) good befalls you, it vexes them; but if an affliction visits you “

” .they say: ‘ We had taken care of our affair in advance’, and they turn away, rejoicing

;Say: ‘ Never shall afflict us (anything) save what Allah has prescribed for us “ .٥١

” .? He is our Master; and on Allah should the believers rely

Commentary: verse ٥١

The leader of a community and the community itself are partners with each other in
.sorrows and joys

We are commissioned to our duties, not sureties to their results. We go forth in Holy :Struggle, but determinations are with Allah. The verse says

”... ;Say: ‘ Never shall afflict us (anything) save what Allah has prescribed for us “

Whatever Allah prescribes for a believing servant is good, since never does a master
.prescribe some bad things for his servant

A believer lives under the mastership of Allah (s.w.t.); and the highest peak of monotheism is to run alongside the orbit of Divine Law, and also leaving the fate to :the Will of Allah, the Wise. It says

” ... ;He is our Master...”

On Allah (s.w.t.) alone should a believer rely, because the condition of Faith is relying

that

Allah will afflict you with punishment from

”.’ Himself or by our hands. So await; we (too) are awaiting with you

Commentary: verse ٥٢

This verse addresses the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to convey this answer to them, too, that whether they expect to reach Muslims one of the two goodnesses, victory or :martyrdom. The verse says

Say: ‘ Do you await for us but one of the two “

”... ?excellences

Muslims either defeat the enemy in the war and come out from the battlefield victoriously, or they will be killed and drink the glass of martyrdom honestly. Whatever comes forth welcomes, and it is the cause of their honour and the light of Muslims’ eyes. There will be, however, no failure in their policy

But, on the contrary, concerning the opponents, Muslims await for them one of the two afflictions. Either they meet the punishment from Allah both in this world and the .next world, or Muslims make them contemptible and destroy them by their hands

:The verse says

And we await for you that Allah will afflict you with punishment from Himself or by...“
”... .our hands

Now that the status is like that, both parties may await with each other. The verse
:continues saying

٥٣. Say: ‘ Spend willingly or unwillingly ‘

it shall never be accepted from you; (for) verily you have ever been an ungodly

Commentary: verse ٥٣

Those hypocrites who did not participate in the Battle of Tabūk, desired to share the .Battle in its victory by means of their financial helps

But, the condition of deeds to be accepted by Allah is piety and sincerity, because the political and social affairs and divine services are all related to each other. Thus the spirits, innates, and intentions of persons are effective in the value of their deeds. That hypocrite who is inconvenient of triumph for Muslims and is happy when an affliction reaches them, his deeds are worthless with this polluted innate. So, such hypocrites, who instead of going forth to battlefields intend to expend financially, are :told that their action, done willingly or unwillingly, is of no avail. The verse says

‘ Say: ‘ Spend willingly or unwillingly ‘

it shall never be accepted from you; (for) verily you have ever been an ungodly
”.people

Charity, of course, is not limited to the act of satiating people with food, the .improvement of minds and spiritual growth is also the goal of Islam

٥٤. "And naught prevented that their spendings should be accepted from them "

save that they have disbelieved in Allah and in his Messenger, and they do not perform the prayer but while they are sluggish, and they do not spend but while they are averse "

Commentary: verse ٥٤

In this verse, the Qur'ān explains once more the reason of refusing the expenses of the hypocrites. It says

"And naught prevented that their spendings should be accepted from them "

"... ,save that they have disbelieved in Allah and in his Messenger

Then, any action, which is not done with the belief in Allah, will not be accepted with Him.

Thus, the incomes of an Islamic government, comparing with the incomes of other governments, such as Khoms (one fifth levy), alms, and charities, which believing people pay heartily and with a great deal of sincerity, have some peculiarities and privileges as follows

١. They pay it willingly, based on their own choice and upon their religious conscience .

.They pay it with no fear, but accompanied by intention with divine motive .۲

.They count the financial expendings as some provisions for the Hereafter .۳

.They choose a just scholar among jurisprudents to give him their wealth .۴

.They usually know how that spending is used and they often control it .۵

The condition of the simple life of the taker of it is considered by them. So, they .۶

.(usually kiss his hand and thank Allah (s.w.t

The verse, after mentioning the refusal of the hypocrites' financial expendings, refers :to the situation of their worships. It says

”... ,and they do not perform the prayer but while they are sluggish...”

This is the state of their prayer, then, similar to that, their spending is also done

:forcedly and with aversion. The verse continues saying

” .and they do not spend but while they are averse...”

In fact, their spendings are not accepted for two reasons. One reason is that their action is performed with infidelity and lack of faith; and the second reason is that it is .done forcedly and with aversion

Also, their prayer is not accepted for two reasons: the first is their infidelity, and the .second is that it is performed sluggishly

,thereby to chastise them in the life of (this) world and that their souls depart while ” .they are infidels

Commentary: verse ٥٥

Some of the hypocrites had both a great deal of wealth, and many children. This status caused the surprise of some Muslims. They might think with themselves how .those hypocrites, that did not believe in Allah, had enjoyed so many bounties

In this verse, it is said to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and all the Muslims that they would not surprise of the abundance of the hypocrites’ wealth and children. That is, they should not imagine that those bounties might cause happiness and comfort for them. But, on the contrary, those properties and children caused them affliction and punishment. Therefore, the hypocrites and infidels, because of absence of belief in Allah (s.w.t.), which is the origin of the ease of hearts, can not apply those bounties with a pleasure. Sometimes these bounties are the sources of worriment, anxiety, and spiritual torments for them. For the sake of possessing some more possibilities, they think they are free from want. This very imagination causes them to disobey most of divine commandments and take distance more and more from Allah (s.w.t.) and from believing in Him

:The verse says

So let not their possessions and their issues astonish you; verily Allah only desires “ thereby to chastise them in the life of (this) world
” .and that their souls depart while they are infidels

Therefore, if wealth and children are purified and righteous, they are some good merits which cause happiness, comfort, and ease. But if the wealth is not purified and .the children are impious, they will be a painful torment for their holders

Commentary: verse ٥٦

The Arabic term /yafraqūn/ , used in the abovementioned verse, means the intense of fear. As if their hearts burst from fear

One of the means of hypocrites, which they applied frequently, was ‘ a false oath ’. That is why we should not haste in accepting the repentance of a hypocrite and :believing his claims, because hypocrites are liars. The verse says

And they swear by Allah that they are most surely of you, while they are not of you.”
But they are a people

٥٧. „If they (the hypocrites) could find a refuge, or caves or a place to enter therein “
” .they would certainly turn thereto, running away in all haste

Commentary: verse ٥٧

The Arabic word /malja’/ , mentioned in this verse, means ‘ refuge ’ , and the term /maqārāt/ is the plural form of /maqārah/ which means ‘ cave ’. The word /madoxal/ in Arabic is rendered as ‘a hidden way like a tunnel under the ground ’. The Qur’ānic term /yajmahūn/ is derived from /jimāh/ in the sense of ‘ a swift running which can not .be stopped ’. In Arabic, a vicious horse is also called /jamūh

Hypocrites express faith either because of fear or because of coveting wealth and .rank. The abovementioned verse refers to the first group

A hypocrite is often frightened and seeks for opportunity to escape from the existing .situation

The life of hypocrites is always scattered and roaming about. They lead a compulsory .life with the Muslims, since they are in fear from their own deed. The verse says

If they (the hypocrites) could find a refuge, or caves or a place to enter therein, they “

٥٨. ;And some of them find fault with you regarding to the (distribution of) alms“

,so if they are given from them, they are pleased

” .and if they are not given from them, they are enraged

Commentary: verse ٥٨

The Qur’ānic term /lumaz / means ‘to find fault in front of a person’, while the term
? /humaz/ means ‘to find fault at the back of a person

That person who later became the leader of Kharijites (Khawārij) and the apostates (Māriqīn), when the booties of the Battle of Hunayn were being distributed, he .protested the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and told him to behave justly

The holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: “ Who is better in justice than I? ” At that time ‘Umar was going to kill the man for that undue insolence. But the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said that they let him go, and added that he would have some followers who would have such worships that the audience, comparing their worships with them, might count theirs naught. (This statement was a hint to their dry worships without mastership. With those plenty of worships, they exceeded the religion and went out of the bounds of Islam, like an arrow when it goes out of the bow. That person was killed in the Battle .(of Nahrawān by the sword of Hazrat Ali (a.s

However, hypocrites look only at their own interests. Then, if they are given a share of bounties, they will be pleased and happy, and count the distributor a just person even though they do not deserve it

But, if they are given naught from those interests, they will become angry, and accuse the distributor to injustice. The verse says

;And some of them find fault with you regarding to the (distribution of) alms“

,so if they are given from them, they are pleased

” .and if they are not given from them, they are enraged

Commentary: verse ٥٩

:There are four stages referred to in this verse

١) .Being content with the Decree of Allah and submitted to it

“... And if they were content with what Allah and His Messenger gave them“

٢) .Oral Expression of content uttered by the tongue of the person

“... ;and they said: ‘Allah is sufficient for us...“

٣) .Being hopeful of the grace, bounteousness and beneficence of Allah “... Allah will soon give us (more) out of His grace, and His Messenger too...“

٤) .(Being heedless to the world, and having the love of Allah (s.w.t

“ ? Verily unto Allah do we eagerly turn...“

Hypocrites are never content with Allah's predestinations, but the goodness of man
.lies in his satisfaction and contentment

Mere straitened circumstances should not be noted. Patience generally brings forth a better future for the servants. Moreover, we are not in a situation to ask Him to give our claims. Whatever He bestows upon us is from His Own bounteousness; and His .graces come to us by the way of prophets and the saints

The bitterness of worldly deprivations will become sweet by the help of Allah's

Commentary: verse ۶۰

Point

The words /sadaqah/ (alms) and /sidāq/ (dowry) are derived from the words /sidq/(truthfulness). Giving alms is a sign of truthfulness in the Faith to Allah, and dowry (or .nuptial gift) is a sign of love to the wife

The Arabic term /faqr̄/ is derived from /faqr̄/ (poverty). It is rendered to a person whose indigence is going to crash his bones. The Qur'ānic term /miskīn̄/ (indigent) refers to a person who, because of indigency, sits at home, and is called 'a stay-at-home one

According to some Islamic narrations, /faqr̄/ (a poor person) is a needy person who usually does not ask people for help; but a /miskīn̄/ (an indigent one) is a person who, because of intensity of indigency, in general, asks others to give him money

Some Islamic traditions indicate that if the rich paid their alms tax to the deserving needy persons of the society, there would not exist any poor person

:A tradition cited in Wasā'il-ush-Shī'ah says

Verily Allah has fixed, in the wealth of the rich, some amount for the poor to solve " their difficulties. And if He knew it was not sufficient for them, He would increase it. ... "And if people paid the poor's rights to them, they could live very well

' The Purpose of ' Alms ' Is ' Poor-rates

Poor-tax is one of the certain necessary duties of the religion of Islam. That is why the Qur'ān in the above verse says that it is 'a duty ordained by Allah'. This phrase means that poor-tax is a certain obligatory commandment of Allah. So, according to this holy verse, this poor-tax must be spent in the same eight positions which are said in the verse, and in other sites it is not permissible. Full majority of Islamic jurists, of course, believe that poor-rates can be spent

.for all the eight mentioned instances, and it is not obligatory to divide it among them

But, from one point of view, spending it in these eight instances depends on the social necessities, and from another point of view, it depends on the attitude of the Islamic :government. These eight sites are as follows

The poor; ٢. the indigent (the needy); ٣. the officials appointed over them; ٤. those.١ whose hearts are to be reconciled; ٥. To free the captives; ٦. the debtors, ٧. For the .cause of Allah; ٨. and the wayfarer

The explanation of the first and the second group (the poor and the indigent) has been referred to before. The third group, the officials appointed over them, are all those persons who take trouble for: collecting alms, protecting them, distributing and .accounting them. Therefore, their wage is paid from alms-tax itself

The fourth group are those people who are not eager to embrace Islam. Then, by .spending a portion of alm-tax, their hearts can be absorbed

The payment of alms-tax for absorbing the hearts is not in the sense of their embracing Islam for money, but it is for creating a preparation in them that they .obtain some understanding, and then they may have Faith

The fifth aspect is to spend it in the way of freeing the captives and striving against .the act of enslavement

The sixth aspect of spending alms-tax is for the debtors. There are some debtors who have innocently contracted some debts, like those who have lost all their properties in a fire accident, in a flood, and in other natural events. Such persons are counted in this .item

Imam Sādiq (a.s.) said: “Any believer or Muslim who dies and leaves a debt, which is ” .not based on corruption and immoderation, it is upon Imam to pay that debt

The seventh site is for the cause of Allah which encompasses any godly efforts of the faithful, such as: religious preachings, Holy Struggle, services of comfort of life, and
.solving the difficulties of the Muslims

The eighth aspect is the wayfarer. A wayfarer is a person who is rich in his own town
.but, in the course of travel, accidentally, he has no money and is helpless

:The Effects of Poor–tax in the Society

.1 .Poor–tax is a factor of wealth adjustment .1

.2 .Poor–tax is a practical thank for the things that Allah has given to that person .2

.3 .Poor–tax decreases the class divisions of the society, and wipes out the rancour
.between the poor and the rich

.4 .Poor–tax survives the spirit of generosity and grace in man, and decreases
.mammonism and material dependence in him

.5 .Poor–tax is a support for social securing of the deprive. It tells the poor not to be worried, and advises the bankrupt to try again. It says to the traveler not to be afraid of the lack of money in the way. It tells the employed that his share is preserved. It gives promise of freedom to the captives. It furnishes the field of godly services, and .attracts the hearts of others to Islam

.6 .But, multiplication of wealth causes some ungodly things, such as: negligence from the remembrance of Allah, exploitation from people, hard–heartedness,
.disobedience, and revelry, the remedy of which is poor–tax

Besides wiping deprivation, poor-tax has some more merits. It increases attraction .v
to Islam, or, at least, it causes persons not to cooperate with the enemies of Islam

Some ordinary people believe that Islam has limited the increase of wealth and .^ income for Muslims, while from the point of Islam's view, human beings must be relatively free so that they enjoy the nature by effort and originative faculty and they .develop. But paying tax is also necessary

From the arrangement and order of the sites of spending alms tax, and that the .^ poor and indigents are mentioned prior to other aspects; perhaps, it can be said that .wiping poverty from the society is in precedence

The existence of the law of alms tax in Islam does not mean that Islam wishes to .v have always some poor Muslims who take poor-tax and some rich ones to pay it; but it is a way by which an outward real problem of the society can be solved. Sometimes, the rich also face with some afflicting events such as: theft of property, fire accident, traffic accident, war, and captivity. Therefore, in an Islamic system, there should exist
.a financial source for social security

The ordinance of alms-tax was revealed in Mecca, but because of scarcity of the .v
.Muslims and the money of alms-tax, people paid it themselves

But, later, after the formation of an Islamic government in Medina, the idea of taking alms-tax from people with the purpose of paying to the treasury of the Muslims, and its centrality by the Islamic ruler, came into being. One of its evidences in the Qur'ān is (recited: " Take alms out of their property, ..." (Sura At-Taubah, No. 9, verse 103

It is not necessary that the alms-tax be divided equally among all the eight .v aspects, but it can be divided under the control of the Islamic judge and as much as it is needed and according to the .necessity of the circumstances

The person who does not pay alms-tax and is in the opposition of the Islamic . ١٣
.government thereby, can be fought against

It is unlawful (harām) for a sayyid (a descendant of the Prophet) to take alms-tax, . ١٤
.save that the giver and the taker of it are both sayyed

The condition of consuming alms-tax in the way of Allah is not only being in the . ١٥
.state of poverty, but wherever it helps the sovereignty of Islam it can be spent

Alms-tax can be spent for the rescue of the society from the vice of the vicious . ١٦ persons. This meaning concerns to the phrase: "... and those whose hearts are to be .reconciled, ..." mentioned in the verse

If a blood-money is proved upon a person and he is not able to pay it, the case is . ١٧
"...included in the phrase: " and the debtors

Maybe, the phrase: "... and to free the captives..." encompasses the usage of alms- . ١٨
.tax for emancipation of prisoners or supplying their expenses

In the Qur'ān, the concept of 'alms-tax' has often accompanied with 'prayer'; and . ١٩ according to the Islamic literature, the condition of prayer to be accepted is the payment of alms-tax. This status denotes to the relation of the connection with Allah
.and the connection with people

However, none of the obligations of the religion has occurred in the Qur'ān so close to 'prayer' that alms-tax has. As for the evidence, some verses are mentioned in the :following

- A) “ And keep up the prayer, and pay the poor-rates (zakāt), and bow down in prayer
 .(with those who bow down (in congregation),” (Sura Al-Baqarah, No.۲, verse ۴۳
- B) “ And keep up the prayer, and pay the poor-rates, ...” (Sura Al-Baqarah, No.۲, verse
 .(۱۱)۰
- C) “ Verily, verily your guardian (waliyy) is only Allah and His Messenger and those who believe, those who establish the prayer and pay the poor-rate while bowing down (in prayer).” (Sura Al-Mā'idah, No.۵, verse ۵۵). The consensus of the commentators of both great sects of Islam have cited that the objective meaning of this verse is Ali-ibn-Abitālib, Ali (a.s.) as its occasion of revelation denotes, too. (Tafsīr-ul-Bahr-ul-Muhīt, vol. ۳, p. ۵۱۳; Tafsīr-i-Fath-ul-Qadīr, vol. ۲, p. ۵۳; Ehqāq-ul-Haqq, vol. ۲, p. ۴۰۰; and Kanz-
 .(ul-'Ummāl, vol. ۶, p. ۳۹۱
- D) “ ...and Allah said: ‘ Verily I am with you, if you keep up prayer and pay the poor-rate
 .(and believe in My messengers and assist them...” (Sura Al-Mā'idah, No.۵, verse ۱۲
- E) “ ...But if they repent and perform the prayer and pay the poor-rate, then leave
 .(their way free to them; ...” (Sura At-Taubah, No.۹, verse ۵
- F) “ ... Therefore, keep up the prayer and pay the poor-rate and hold fast by Allah; ...”
 .((Sura Al-Hajj (the pilgrimage), No.۲۲, verse ۷۸
- G) “ ... and We revealed to them the doing of good and the keeping up of prayer and the giving of the alms, and Us (alone) did they serve.” (Sura Al-'Anbiyā, No. ۲۱, verse ۷۳
- H) “ ... and the keeping up of the prayer and the giving of the poor-rate...” (Sura An-
 .Nūr, No.۲۴, verse ۳۷

I) "... and He has enjoined on me the prayer and the poor-rate so long as I live." (Sura Maryam, No. 19, verse 32)

J) " And he enjoined on his family the prayer and the alms giving, ..." (Sura Maryam, No. 19, verse 55). In addition to the above evidences, there are some more verses in this regard recited in the Qur'ān

It should also be noted that alms giving has not been enjoined only in Islam, but as it was pointed out in the explanations of the previous verses, it has been ordained in the former religions, too

The law of poor-rate, which illustrates an outline from the Islamic system, provides the following traces

Social justice, effacing poverty, providing personels and employees, international popularity, the emancipation of slaves and prisoners, string the powers and faculties, preserving the creed and honour of the Muslims, expansion of social services

:Poor-rate and traditions

The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: " No group of people restrain(ed) the poor-rate but Allah (restrains the rain from them." (Al-Mustatraf, vol. 1, p.9)

The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: " Whoever spends in charity (the poor-rate), there will be (appointed) for him from the bliss of the Heaven as much as the Mount of 'Uhud for (every coin (he has given))." (Roudat-ul-Wā'izīn, p.418)

Amir-ul-Mu'mineen Ali (a.s.) said: " Protect your properties by almsgiving." (Tuhaf-ul-Uqūl, p.113; and Bihār-ul-Anwār, vol.93, p. 13)

Imam Sādiq (a.s.) narrating from his ancestors, said that the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) had said: " The most generous person among people) is the one who pays the poor-rate of his wealth; and the most niggardly (person among people) is the one who is stingy to what Allah has enjoyed on (him.” (Bihār-ul-’Anwār, vol.۹۳, p.۱۱)

Imam Sādiq (a.s.) said: “If people pay the poor-rate of their properties, there will (remain no poor, needy Muslim.” (Al-Imam-as-Sādiq (a.s.), Asad Heydar, vol.۴, p.۳۶۰

The holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: “If you desire that Allah increases your wealth, then do pay its poor-rate.” (Bihār-ul-’Anwār, vol.۹۳, p.۲۳ Imam Bāqir (a.s.) said: “ The poor-rate increases in the sustenance.” (Bihār-ul- . ۷ (Anwār, vol.۷۵, p.۸۳ Imam Sādiq (a.s.) said: “When the poor-rate is restrained, the earth withholds its (bounties. ” (Al-Muhajjat-ul-Baydā’, vol.۲, p.۶۶

:And there are among them those who hurt the Prophet and say “ ٦١ .

He is an ear! Say: ‘An ear that is good for you; he believes in Allah, and believes the ‘ believers, and he is a mercy to those of you who believe

”.’ And those who hurt the messenger of Allah, there is a painful punishment for them

Commentary: verse ٦١

Some of the hypocrites said that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was a simple and whimsical person, and he accepts whatever everybody says. Then, the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) became inconvenient of them. At that time this verse was revealed and answered them. It says

”...’!And there are among them those who hurt the Prophet and say: ‘He is an ear“

In fact, they demonstrated one of the advantages of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) in the form of his disadvantage, the existence of which is necessary in a leader

That is why the Qur’ān, immediately after that, adds this idea in the verse implying that if the Prophet, as you imagine, is an ear and listens to your statements and accepts your excuse; it is useful for you. It says

”... ;say: ‘An ear that is good for you...“

It is benefitable for you because, in this way, he protects your credit, and he does not waste your personality, and he does not hurt your feelings. Through this way, he employs his effort so that he preserves your affection, concord, and unity. But, if he uncovered the curtains and publicly disgraced the liars, there would arise a lot of troubles for you

Then, in order that the criticizers do not misuse this statement and do not take it as a document, the verse continues implying that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) believes in Allah and his commandments, hearkens to the words of the true believers, and accepts them, and observes them. The verse adds

”... ,he believes in Allah and believes the believers ...“

That is, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), in fact, has two stages of treatment. One stage is conservation of the outward and hindering from betraying secrets, and the other is the stage of action. In the first stage, he listens to the statements of people, and, apparently, he does not reject them. But, when the time of action comes forth, his attention is only to the commandments of Allah and to the suggestions which are uttered by the true believers. Thus, a leader, who tries to find the truth, should treat like that; and supplying the interests of a society is not possible save through this way.

:Hence, the Qur’ān, immediately after that, states

”... .and he is a mercy to those of you who believe...“

The only thing that should be added here is that those who hurt the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) with such words, and find faults from him, should not think that they will be left without punishment. So, at the end of the verse, it says

,And those who hurt the messenger of Allah...“

”.’ there is a painful punishment for them

٦٢- يَخْلِفُونَ بِاللَّهِ لَكُمْ لِيَرْضَوْكُمْ وَاللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ أَحَقُّ أَنْ يُرْضَوْهُ

إِنْ كَانُوا مُؤْمِنِينَ

;They swear to you by Allah, to please you “ .٦٢

but Allah and His Messenger have a greater right that they should please Him if they ”are believers

Commentary: verse ٦٢

A hypocrite always lives in fear and terror. He tries to attract the attention of others by oaths and affectation. For this reason, not every oath should be accepted, since
:sometimes the holy things are misused by some impious persons. The verse says

”... ;They swear to you by Allah, to please you “

Allah’s pleasure is the main principal for a believer, not the consent of common people. The pleasure of the Messenger (p.b.u.h.) is the same as the pleasure of Allah.
:The verse continues saying but Allah and His Messenger have a greater right that they should please...”

”.Him if they are believers

Do they not know that whoever opposes Allah and His Messenger verily for him is “ ٦٣ .
?the fire of Hell to abide therein

Commentary: verse ٦٣

The Qur’ānic phrase /yuhādīdillāh/ (whoever opposes Allah) / means the limitation of the Power of Allah, as if Allah is limited in His deed of wrath unto them, though they :considered that Allah’s hands are closed. The verse says

” ... Do they not know that whoever opposes Allah “

Fakhr-i-Rāzī believes that this word is derived from the Arabic term /hadīd/ with the sense of ‘ obstinacy ’. He has cited that the Arabic term /muhaddah/ means either ‘ to .’ violate the law of Allah ’, or ‘ to think oneself on one side and Allah on another side

Therefore, opposing the Islamic leader is an opposition against Allah; and the fruit of :obstinacy before Allah is the eternal Hell. The verse says whoever opposes Allah and His Messenger verily for him is the fire of Hell to abide... “

?therein

” .That is the great abasement

The hypocrites fear lest a ‘ Sura ’ should be sent down against them apprising “ ٦٤ .
!them of what is in their hearts. Say: ‘ Mock on ” Verily Allah will expose what you fear of

Commentary: verse ٦٤

It has been said in the occasion of the revelation of this verse that a group of hypocrites made decision to startle the Prophet’s camel in a neck of land when he was returning from the Battle of Tabūk, in a way that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) would be killed. The Messenger of Allah was informed of their evil decision by means of revelation. ‘Ammār and Khuthayfah were guarding from forward and backward. When they (the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and the strivers) reached the neck of land, the hypocrites attacked them. The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) recognized them and told their names to Khuthayfah. He asked the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) why he did not order that they should be killed, and the Messenger of Allah answered: “ I do not want that others say when Muhammad
” .became powerful he killed the Muslims

At the absence of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), the hypocrite mockingly said that he wanted to occupy the castles of Syria. The revelation was sent down denoting that they might mock whatever much they desired, and Allah would make manifest their plans. The
:verse says

The hypocrites fear lest a ‘ Sura ’ should be sent down against them apprising them “
” ... .of what is in their hearts

The Qur’ānic term /sūrah/ means the totality of the Divine verses. In technical terminology, this term has been applied for the whole ١١٤ Suras of the Qur’ān

The hypocrites were constantly in scare because of manifestation of their own real feature and their deviations. They had understood that the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) was aware of their affairs by means of revelation, yet they mocked him. But the way of treatment of Allah, and His promise upon the hypocrites, is that He divulges their secrets. So, you should not be worried of their stings. The help of Allah is :always with you. The verse continues saying

” Say: ‘ Mock on! Verily Allah will expose what you fear of... “

:And if you question them (regarding their mockery), they will certainly say “ ٦٥.

:We were only discoursing and sporting.’ Say ‘

,Were you mocking Allah, His signs “

” ?and His Messenger

Commentary: verse ٦٥

The Arabic term /xaud/ means ‘ to step in mud ’, but it is used in the Qur’ān with the meaning of ‘ starting some indecent actions

This verse, again, concerns the Battle of Tabūk when the hypocrites intended to kill the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) in his return from that battle. One of those hypocrites had said what they would do if their plot was divulged. Another of them said that they could pretend it was a jesting. Their statement was a clumsy excuse. (Majma‘-ul-Bayān, the commentary)

Now, the question is whether it is possible to joke anything, even Allah, the Prophet, and the verses of the Qur’ān

Was the subject of startling the Prophet’s camel and his fall from that dangerous neck of land something that could be covered under the mask of jesting

:The verse says

:And if you question them (regarding their mockery), they will certainly say “

:We were only discoursing and sporting.’ Say ‘

” ?Were you mocking Allah, His signs, and His Messenger “

٦٦- لَا تَعْتَذِرُوا قَدْ كَفَرْتُمْ بَعْدَ إِيمَانِكُمْ إِنَّ نَعْفَ عَنْ طَائِفَةٍ مِنْكُمْ نُعَذِّبُ طَائِفَهُ بِأَنَّهُمْ كَانُوا مُجْرِمِينَ

.٦٦ “Do not make excuses. You have disbelieved after your believing “

(If We forgive a party of you (because of repentance), We will chastise (another party for that they have been sinners

Commentary: verse ٦٦

Every time that the plot of the hypocrites was divulged and their secrets were manifested for the Muslims, they offered some excuses, including the very excuse mentioned in this verse. They said they did not intend seriously, but it was only an amusement and a play. The Qur’ān does not accept their excuse, and says

“ ... .Do not make excuses. You have disbelieved after your believing “

That is, after the expression of Faith, which was not true of course, they did some actions by which their apparent belief became invalid and their infidelity was made manifest to the Muslims

.In the continuation of the verse, the Qur’ān says

If We forgive a party of you (because of repentance), We will chastise (another) ... “
” .party for that they have been sinners

The purpose of the verse is that those members of the hypocrites who repent and really return toward Islam, will be forgiven; but those hypocrites who remain in their own disbelief and hypocrisy will be .punished

Besides the chastisement of the Hereafter, this punishment occurred in this very life upon them. The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) disgraced that party of the hypocrites who resisted on their hypocrisy. The example of it was the Mosque of Dirār, the chargers of which .were openly criticized

,and forbid good

.and they keep their hands shut

They have forsaken Allah, so He has forsaken them, (too). The hypocrites are indeed
” .the transgressors

Commentary: verse ٦٧

:The Signs of the Hypocrites

In this verse, the Qur’ān points to a general matter. It implies that the spirit of hypocrisy may appear in different shapes, and the form of ostentation in particular. The spirit of hypocrisy may be different in a man and in a woman, but the variety of .the features of hypocrisy among hypocrites should not deceive us

:Therefore, the verse says

” ... ;The hypocrite men and the hypocrite women are as one another “

After mentioning that meaning, the verse refers to five epithets out of the hypocrite's qualities as follows

The first and the second epithets of the hypocrites are that they usually encourage people to evil and restrain them from good. That is, contrast to the program of the true believers who ceaselessly, through enjoining good and forbidding evil, try to improve the society and to purify it from pollution and corruption, the hypocrites always try to expand corruption everywhere and to dismiss goodness from the society. The verse says

” ... ,they enjoin evil and forbid good... “

Their third epithet is that they neither spend in the way of Allah, nor do they help the deprived, nor do they financially assist their relatives and those who are familiar with them. The verse says

” ... .and they keep their hands shut... “

The fourth quality of the hypocrites is that all their deeds, statements, and behaviours denote that they have forgotten the Lord, and also the situation of their lives indicates that the Lord has deprived them from some of His bounties, successes, and merits, too. The signs of these two abandonments are vividly reflected in their lives. The verse continues saying

” ... .(They have forsaken Allah, so He has forsaken them, (too... “

The fifth quality of theirs is that they are impious and they live outside the circle of the obedience of Allah, i.e. not only they are mischievous, but also they are disobedient. The verse concludes as follows

” .The hypocrites are indeed the transgressors... “

Whatever was said in this verse about the qualifications of the hypocrites is seen in such people in any age

٦٨- وَعَدَ اللَّهُ الْمُنَافِقِينَ وَالْمُنَافِقَاتِ وَالْكُفَّارَ نَارَ جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا هِيَ حَسْبُهُمْ وَلَعْنَةُ اللَّهِ وَاللَّهُمَّ عَذَابٌ مُتِيمٌ

Allah has promised the hypocrite men and the hypocrite women and the infidels, “ ٦٨ .
the Fire of Hell, to abide in it forever . That is enough for them
” .Allah has cursed them, and for them is a lasting chastisement

Commentary: verse ٦٨

The promise of Hell, stated in the abovementioned holy verse, is decreed at first for
.the hypocrites and secondly for the disbelievers

Whatever more apparently fitting the hypocrites settle themselves in the row of the believers in this world, it is of no avail and they will be in the row of disbelievers in
.Hereafter

:The verse says

“Allah has promised the hypocrite men and the hypocrite women and the infidels “
” ... .the Fire of Hell, to abide in it forever

And since Hell is the collection of any pain, affliction and tribulation, then it is enough for
:the hypocrites and infidels both. The verse continues saying

That is enough for them, Allah has cursed them, and for them is a lasting... “
” .chastisement

;enjoy their portion

.and you indulge in vain discourses as they indulged

” .the losers

Commentary: verse ٦٩

:An Admonition and a Warning

In order to awaken this group of the hypocrites, the abovementioned holy verse puts the mirror of the history before them and, comparing them with the former stubborn hypocrites, it teaches them the most instructive lessons. It implies that they are like the former hypocrites and they follow the same path, the same program, and the :same evil fate of theirs. The verse says

” ... ,O' hypocrites! You are) like those who were before you) “

Those very hypocrites of old were stronger and more abundant both from the point of strength and from the point of properties and children than these ones. The verse
:says

;they were stronger than you in power and more abundant in wealth and children...“
” ...

They enjoyed their share of the bounties of this world in the way of lusts, pollutions, sins, mischief, and corruption. These hypocrites of this community also enjoyed their .own share in the same way that the former hypocrites had enjoyed

” ... ;so they enjoyed their portion ... “

:Then, the Qur’ān adds in the verse

;thus do you enjoy your portion as those before you did enjoy their portion ... “

” ... .and you indulge in vain discourses as they indulged

For an admonition and a warning to the group of hypocrites contemporary with the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and all the hypocrites of the world, the Qur’ān, through two phrases,
.remarks the end of the former hypocrites

:The first phrase is recited

” ... ,These are those whose works are null in this world and the Hereafter ... “

:And the second phrase says

” .and those are the losers ... “

Such hypocrites may enjoy some temporary and limited benefits from their hypocritical deeds in this life, but if the circumstance be observed carefully, it can be made manifest that, they enjoy of real benefits neither in this world nor in the next
.world

Commentary: verse ٧٠

In this holy verse, the Qur’ān addresses the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and, as a positive
:interrogation with a negative sense, says

Has not the news of those before them came to them, of the people of Noah “ and ‘Ād and Thamūd, and the people of Abraham and the dwellers of Madyan and the

These are some shaking events the study and searching of which moves any person

:The Signs of the True Believers

The signs of true believers, men and women, have been mentioned in the verse under :discussion. These signs are also figured five here

:The verse beings as follows

;And the believer men and the believer women, they are guardians to one another “

After referring to this general principle, the revelation pays to the explanation of the .details of the epithets of the believers

:At first, it implies that they invite people to good. The verse continues saying –١

” ... they enjoin good ...“

:They also restrain people from vices, wickednesses, and unlawful things –۲

” ... and forbid evil ... “

Contrast to the hypocrites, who usually forget Allah, the believers always establish –۳ prayer; keep the remembrance of Allah, and, consequently, by this remembrance and the Name of Allah, they cause their hearts to be light and their minds to be aware. The :holy verse says

” ...and they perform the prayer ... “

Again, contrast to the hypocrites who are some niggardly persons, the believers – ۴ pay a part of their wealth as the alms (zakāt) in the way of Allah and for Allah and for supporting the servants of Allah (s.w.t.), in order to improve their society. The verse :says

”... ,(and they pay the alms (zakāt... “

The hypocrites are mischievous, and disobedient, and they behave outside of the – ۵ circle of the commandment of Allah; but believers obey the command of Allah and His :Messenger. The verse says

”... .and they obey Allah and His Messenger... “

At the end of this verse, the Qur’ān points to the first privilege of the believers from :the point of their fate and their reward. It says

”... .It is they on whom Allah will bestow His Mercy... “

No doubt the promise of mercy to the believers is from the side of Allah. This promise :is conclusive and assured from any point of view, because

” .Verily Allah is the Mighty, the Wise... “

Neither does He promise without any cause, nor does He fail its fulfilment when He .promises

Commentary: verse ٧٢

In this holy verse, the very believers whose epithets were pointed out before, are promised some excellent things, the most important of which is the bounty of His good pleasure. What state can be greater than the good pleasure of Allah for a believer? The verse says

Allah has promised the believer men and the “ believer women gardens

,beneath which rivers flow wherein shall they abide forever

,and goodly dwellings in garden of perpetual abode

” .yet Allah’s good pleasure is greater (than all these); that is the great success

The garden which Allah will bestow on the believers has been qualified differently in the Qur’ān. They are such as: /jannāt-i-‘adnī/ (gardens of perpetual abode), /jannat-
-ul

ma'wā/ (the garden, the abode), and /jannat-ul-xuld/ (garden of eternity). The purpose of the first qualification, mentioned here, is the statement of eternity of Paradise. It has been said that this garden is located in the middle of Paradise, or it is the best place of Paradise. A tradition narrated from the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) denotes .that, it is the situation of the place of prophets, veracious believers, and martyrs

Of course, entering into Paradise and enjoying its bounties can be a good goal for the believers, but greater than that is gaining the good pleasure of Allah. This is the main goal of any believer who has settled the love of Allah in his heart, and has .(considerably climbed towards the climax of the cognition of Allah (s.w.t

۷۳. "O ' Prophet! strive hard against the infidels and the hypocrites "

,and be harsh with them, and their abode shall be Hell

Commentary: verse ۷۳

As long as the hypocrites have not initiated war and have not plotted against Islam, similar to the enemy alien nonbelievers, holy struggle upon them should be done only (by tongue. (the Commentary of Al-Minār

Before the revelation of the abovementioned verse, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) treated the hypocrites gently and nobly, but after the revelation of this verse his treatment (became severe toward them. (Tafsīr-i-Fī-Zilāl-il-Qur'ān

Thus, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), who is the source of mercy, is commissioned to severity :because of infidelity and hypocrisy of the enemies of Islam. The verse says

" ... ,And be harsh with them... "

Therefore, an Islamic leader must be decisive and sharp before the arrogance. He must strive against both the manifest foreign enemies and the interior hidden enemies. However, the Holy Struggle should be led under the command and attitude of the leader of the Muslims, who is, indeed, the commander-in-chief of the army in the Islamic system of government. The verse says

O ' Prophet! strive hard against the infidels and the hypocrites, and be harsh with " them, and their abode shall be Hell, and an evil destination it is

This fact should also be noted that Holy Struggle against infidels and hypocrites is the recompense of these unbelieving people in this world, and their retribution in the coming world will be Hell

Commentary: verse ٧٤

This holy verse includes all the plots that the hypocrites designed and acted against the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and Islam, but most of the commentary books compiled by the Shi‘ite and the Sunnite commentators have concerned it to the plot which is known as the ‘ Laylatul-‘Aqabah’ (the Night of ‘Aqabah) where the hypocrites waited in ambush in a neck of land in order to cause the murder of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) by startling his camel. But their plot was found out and they failed.

:The verse says

They swear by Allah that they have said nothing, but they certainly have said “

,the word of infidelity and disbelieved after their Islam

” ... ,and they determined upon what they never attained to

It has been cited that when the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was speaking for the audience in Tabūk, a hypocrite, by the name of Hallās, uttered a blasphemous ugly word. One of the Prophet’s companions (‘Āmir-ibn-Qays) informed that insolence to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). He summoned Hallās, but he denied the matter. ‘Āmir said that he told a lie and repeated that word. Then, by the command of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) both of them went near the pulpit of the mosque and swore. ‘Āmir asked Allah to send down a verse and to disgrace the hypocrite publicly. This holy verse was revealed containing

:the phrase saying

They swear by Allah that they have said nothing, but they certainly have said the “ word of infidelity and disbelieved after their Islam, and they determined upon what

” ... ,they never attained to

Then, at the end of the verse, the Qur’ān denotes that if the hypocrites repent and really embrace Islam it is better for them, viz, Allah will forgive them. But if they turn away and remain in their hypocrisy, they must know that Allah will punish them severely both in this world and the coming world, and they will not have any friend or

:helper on the earth. The verse continues saying

Commentary: verses ٧٥-٧٨

The first verse of the abovementioned group of verses is about some of the hypocrites who made a covenant with Allah and then they broke it. It has also been said that the verse has been revealed concerning ‘Tha‘labat-ibn Hātab’ who was a poor man. He asked the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) that he would pray for him in this regard. He said if the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) prayed and he became rich, he would remit considerably in the way of Allah, and he would become one of the benevolent persons. The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) prayed for him and he became rich enough, but he stinted. He also did not participated in ‘Friday Prayer’, and thereupon he made his hypocrisy manifest

Whatever the sign of the revelation of the verse might be, however, it is about some persons who have always existed and are existed in the societies. When such people have not wealth and facilities, they may make covenant with Allah that if Allah bestowed upon them properties and they became rich they would pay in charity in His way and would become righteous and of the good servants of Allah. But they often do not do like that when He causes them to be wealthy. They scant and usually avoid :doing good things. The verse says

And of them are those who have made a covenant with Allah: ‘If He gives us out of “ ,His grace

” ? we will certainly give alms (zakāt) and we will certainly be of the righteous

****

An important matter, regarding this subject mentioned in the second verse, is that this breach of covenant and becoming stingy causes hypocrisy to come into existence in their hearts. When a person behaves like that, he has to clasp to justification of himself and has to say something through his tongue which he does not believe in his inward. It is similar to the manner of the hypocrites who, in order to protect themselves, expressed Islam falsely and said something that they did not believe. The :verse says

But when He gave them out of His Grace, they were niggardly of it “

” .and they turned away, swerving aside

****

The one who makes covenant, but he breaches it, or promises something but he fails, he has somehow the same status of hypocrisy and duplicity. Therefore, in this verse, the Qur’ān remarks that the appearance of the state of hypocrisy in such persons originates from where they have breached their promise and have told a lie. The
:verse says

So as a consequence He put hypocrisy into their hearts until the day they will meet “ Him

because they failed to fulfil unto Allah what they had promised Him

” .and because of what they used to lie

Thus, according to this verse, breach of promise and falsehood are two signs for hypocrisy. This meaning is also referred to in a tradition narrated from the holy :Prophet (p.b.u.h.) who said

There are three signs for a hypocrite: when he speaks he tells a lie; when he “
” .promises he fails; and when he is trusted he proves treacherous

****

:In the next verse, the Qur’ān states about these hypocrites as follows

Do they not know that Allah knows their hidden (thought) and their secret “
.(whisperings, and that Allah is the knower of all unseen (things

That is, Allah is aware of all their secrets whether those ones that they tell each other
.as mysteries, and those secrets which they whisper

٧٩- الَّذِينَ يَلْمُزُونَ الْمُطَّوِّعِينَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ فِي الصَّدَقَاتِ وَالَّذِينَ لَا يَجِدُونَ إِلَّا جُهْدَهُمْ فَيَسْخَرُونَ مِنْهُمْ سَخِرَ اللَّهُ مِنْهُمْ

,if you ask forgiveness for them seventy times

they disbelieved in Allah and His

" .Messenger; and Allah does not guide the ungodly people

Commentary: verses ٧٩-٨٠

In view of the fact that the foundation of the behaviour of the hypocrites was opposing the Muslims and finding fault with them, they often cavilled at the Muslims' affairs and mocked them. Among them was that some of the rich

Muslims remitted their wealth in the way of Allah more than the amount which they were enjoined upon. Those rich believers did it eagerly and at pleasure in order that Islam could glitter more and more. Their main aim was that they might obtain some
.divine spiritual rewards

There were also some Muslims who did not possess plenty of properties, but with difficulty they provided some money and spent it. These two parties of the Muslims
.were mocked and were found fault by the hypocrites

The hypocrites smiled scornfully at them meaning why those Muslims lost their own wealth. The hypocrites did not believe in the Divine rewards of Hereafter. They imagined that remitting wealth to others was as squandering it, and it was a kind of
.folly

:The Qur'ān refers to this ignorantly manner of the hypocrites and says

Those who find fault with the voluntary givers of alms from among the believers, “
,and those who find nothing (to give) but (to the extent of) their endeavour
,and they scoff at them

Allah will scoff at them, and for them shall be

” .a painful chastisement

The Qur'ānic phrase which says: “ Allah will scoff at them ” means that Allah will give them the retribution of their scoffing, and, in the Hereafter, He will arrange a situation wherein these hypocrites will be mocked by the Muslims. At that circumstance, the .believers will scoff at them and laugh at them

****

The number ‘ seventy ’ here is a code for multiplication and it is not the statement of a definite calculation. In other words, it indicates whatever more you seek forgiveness for them, it will be ineffective. So, it does not mean that if you seek forgiveness seventy one times, for example, they will be forgiven

Some Islamic literature indicates that the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) in this regard has said: “ If I knew seeking forgiveness more than seventy times could save them, I \(would seek forgiveness.” \(1

Man may reach a point in aberration where nothing can save him; like a patient whom no physician is able to help when the soul separates from him. The verse says

“Whether you ask forgiveness for them or do not ask forgiveness for them “

,if you ask forgiveness for them seventy times

Allah will not forgive them; this is because they disbelieved in Allah and His

” .Messenger; and Allah does not guide the ungodly people

Commentary: verse ٨٣

Whoever repents sincerely and truthfully, it will be accepted by Allah, but the hypocrites asked permission to go to fight hypocritically and affectedly

The Qur’ānic term /xālif/means both ‘ the one who violates going fight’, and ‘ an .? antagonist

Do not trust upon the hypocrites’ request for attending in the Holy Struggle. The verse :says

So if Allah brings you back to a party of them and they ask your permission to go “ :forth, say ... ”

And do fear from those who escaped from going to fight yesterday but they are :candidates to attend in the battle-field today. The verse continues saying

” ... ;You shall never go forth with me and you shall never fight an enemy with me “... “

Therefore, hypocrites must be despised and deserted. The holy verse concludes as :follows surely you were pleased to sit (idle) the first time, then sit (now also idle) with those... “

٨٤. "And never pray over any one of them who dies, nor stand by his grave "

,They indeed disbelieved in Allah and His Messenger

" .and died while they were ungodly

Commentary: verse ٨٤

The way of the Prophet's life (p.b.u.h.) was so that he used to attend in the funeral and burial ceremonies of Muslims' deads. He prayed for them and established funeral prayer over their corpses. But Allah has prohibited His Messenger to attend in the ceremonies of the dead bodies of the hypocrites. The verse says

And never pray over any one of them who dies, nor stand by his grave. They indeed " " .disbelieved in Allah and His Messenger, and died while they were ungodly

Thus, the dead body of a hypocrite is also despised when Muslims ought not to attend their funerals nor stand by their graves. Establishing funeral prayer and visitation of tombs is as a sign of a reverence and an esteem to the body of a Muslim believer; and :since a hypocrite deserves no reverence, then the verse says

" ... ;never pray over any one of them who dies, nor stand by his grave ... "

And whenever a sura is sent down, saying ‘ Believe in Allah and strive hard “ ٨٦ along with His Messenger ’, those with abundant means among them ask leave of :you, and they say

” .Let us be with those who sit back ‘

Commentary: verse ٨٦

Sometimes it happened that a Sura or a verse of the Qur’ān concerning the believers was revealed and invited them to be firm in Faith and to strive in the way of Allah beside the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). Such revelations caused the believers to become spiritually encouraged, firm, and steadfast; but those Divine revelations caused the hypocrites to become inconvenient and despondent. So, they (the hypocrites) sometimes came to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and uttered some materials which clearly indicated their hypocrisy

This verse denotes that when a sura was revealed wherein people were enjoined to belief in Allah and Holy Struggle beside the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), some of the rich hypocrites came to the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) and asked permission not to participate in the Holy Struggle. They said that they might be allowed to stay at home with those who could stay at home, and not to take part in the Holy Struggle. The
:verse says

And whenever a sura is sent down, saying ‘ Believe in Allah and strive hard along “ ,’ with His Messenger

those with abundant means among them ask leave of you, and they say: ‘ Let us be
” .with those who sit back

They were content that they should be with those who stay behind, and a seal “ ٨٧
 ,has been set upon their hearts
 ” .so they do not understand

Commentary: verse ٨٧

The matter discussed in the previous verse is continued in this verse, saying that the hypocrites became happy to stay with those who stay behind and, like women, children, and patients, who do not take part in Holy Struggle, and to remain at home

It is clear that he who has no Faith in Allah will certainly refuse to go to fight in His way, because he does not believe in the excellent rewards that Allah has promised for the godly strivers. Therefore, a hypocrite considers that participation in such a war is a fall into danger and it is a kind of self murder

Then, at the end of the verse, the Qur’ān adds that the hearts of the hypocrites are sealed. Therefore, they do not conceive the Truth, for there have been drawn a curtain before their eyes and ears. It is their infidelity that has caused them to be incapable to understand the facts

:The verse says

They were content that they should be with those who stay behind, and a seal has “ ,been set upon their hearts
 ” .so they do not understand

But the Messenger, and those who believe with him, strive hard with their “ ٨٨ possessions and their selves, and these it is who shall have good things and these it is ” .who shall be successful

Commentary: verse ٨٨

In the verse before this verse, the Qur’ān denoted that the hypocrites usually refuse to participate in Holy Struggle in the way of Allah and they like to stay at home at the time of war like women, little children, and sick persons. Now, in this verse, those persons are referred to whose manner is just opposite to that of the hypocrites. They consist in the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and the believers who are ever ready to participate in .Holy Struggle with all their possibilities

:The verse says

But the Messenger, and those who believe with him, strive hard with their “ possessions and their selves, and these it is who shall have good things and these it is ” .who shall be successful

This ending part of the verse means that Allah will give them some good rewards, and they will reach to the happiness of both this world and the Hereafter. In this world, they gain happiness by overcoming the enemies and strengthening the foundation of their own society toward ever-increasing progression. And in the Hereafter, they will .be rewarded by being enjoyed of the Divine bounties

٨٩- أَعَدَّ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا

ذَلِكَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ

Allah has prepared for them gardens beneath which rivers flow wherein shall “ ٨٩
” .they abide forever. That is the great success

Commentary: verse ٨٩

In this verse, the statement is upon the great rewards that Allah will bestow on the believers. It remarks that, for such believers who strive in the way of Allah with their wealth and selves, Allah has prepared gardens that rivers flow under their trees and, more important than that is that, they will eternally abide therein. Then the Qur’ān :adds that this circumstance is that very great success. The verse says

Allah has prepared for them gardens beneath which rivers flow wherein shall they “
” .abide forever. That is the great success

There are also some more rewards promised for the strivers which have been mentioned in some other verses of the Qur’ān. One of them is that Allah guides those who strive in His way unto His ways. That is, He will bestow on them a sort of recognition that they can be informed of the facts of the world of existence and enjoy the special and particular guidance of Allah, so that they may not be involved with :misunderstanding. Sura ‘Ankabūt, No.٢٩, verse ٦٩ says

And (as for) those who strive hard for Us, We will most certainly guide them in Our “
” ... ;ways

And the dwellers of the desert came with their excuses, that permission might be “ ٩٠ , (given to them (to stay back and those who lied to Allah and His Messenger sat (at home). Soon a painful chastisement shall afflict those of them who disbelieved ”

Commentary: verse ٩٠

Some of those People who did not take part in the Holy Struggle had true excuses for which they obtained leave, while some others did not participated in the Holy Struggle without having any exemption, and the abovementioned chastisement is for the second group

The term /'a'rāb/, mentioned here, has been applied for some Bedouins who lived in deserts and were far from the city civilization

However, Holy Struggle is something concerned to Islamic government and it is not a personal affair. That is why both attending in it and leaving it should be done with the permission of the leader of the :Muslims. The verse says

„And the dwellers of the desert came with their excuses “

” ... (that permission might be given to them, (to stay back

By the way, those who are heedless to the obligatory rule of Holy Struggle and try to escape from it, are liars in their belief. They must know that the seekers of exemption, who try to run away from performing their duty, will be punished and a painful
:chastisement is waiting for them. The verse continues saying and those who lied to Allah and His Messenger sat (at home). Soon a painful... “

.so long as they are true to Allah and to His Messenger

" .There is no way (to blame) against the good-doers and Allah is Forgiving, Merciful

Commentary: verse ٩١

A blind old man came to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and said: " I have nobody to take my hand and to lead me to the battle-field. I am old and feable. Is my excuse accepted? " The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) kept silence for a while until the abovementioned verse was .revealed

In these recent couple of verses, and the following one, in order to make clear the situation of all groups from the point of being exempted or not in regard to participation in Holy Struggle, there have been defined some proper degrees. At first, :it says

" ... ,There is no fault in the weak and the sick and those who find nothing to spend "

These three groups are excused in any law, and intellect and logic also prove their being exempted. It is certain that in no instance Islamic laws are separate from .intellect and logic

After that, the Qur'ān has stated an important condition for the commandment of their being excused. It implies that this is in the condition that they refrain no sincere .benediction unto Allah and His Messenger

”... .so long as they are true to Allah and to His Messenger... “

They should encourage the strivers through their own words and behaviour toward Holy Struggle, and to weaken the enemies' spirit so that they prepare the elementary .factors of their failure

Later, in order to state the reason of this subject, it says that such people are some benevolent men, and there is no way for blaming, scorning, punishing and taking to :task the good-doers. The verse says

”... There is no way (to blame) against the good-doers... “

At the end of the verse, as another reason for these three groups being exempted, :the Qur'ān points to Allah's two great attributes by saying

” .Allah is Forgiving, Merciful... “

Commentary: verse ٩٢

In this verse, the Qur’ān refers to the fourth group of those who were also exempted from the Holy Struggle. This group had no means to ride on and to participate in the Holy Struggle. They went to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to obtain it, but he did not have any mount to give them for carrying them. They had to come back from him while their eyes were full of tears. This tear was for the sorrow which originated from the lack of :means to spend it in the way of Allah. The holy verse says

Nor (is the task) on those unto whom, when they come unto you to provide them “
:with mounts, you said

’I do not find means to carry you ‘ they turned back and their eyes overflowed with tears of sorrow, for they did not find ask you permission (to stay behind) while they are rich. They are content to be with those who stay back, and Allah has set a seal on their hearts, thus they do not know “ (what they have missed

Commentary: verse ٩٣

In this verse, the Qur’ān explains the fifth group, i.e. those who have never been excused with Allah, and will not be excused in the future either. It implies that the way of blame and punishment is open only to those who ask you permission not to participate in the Holy Struggle while they are rich and are in welfare. They possess enough possibilities and necessary means for this affair. The verse says

Verily the way (to blame) is only against those who ask you permission (to stay “ ... behind) while they are rich

Then it adds that this disgrace is enough for them that they contented to stay back in Medina with the persons who were feeble, sick, and handicapped and to be deprived from the honour of participation in the battle-field. It says

“ ... ,They are content to be with those who stay back...”

And also this retribution is enough for them that, because of their own ugly deeds, Allah has ceased them from the ability of contemplation and comprehension by sealing their hearts. Therefore, they do not know what kind of excellent ranks they :have lost. The verse continues saying and Allah has set a seal on their hearts, thus they do not know (what they have... “

” .(missed

The strong and exalted spirits of the strivers of Islam are vividly made clear from this verse. It illustrates how they preferred and preceded the honour of attending in the .battlefield and the honour of martyrdom to any other honours

This very fact makes manifest one of the important factors of the rapid expansion of .Islam at that time and our retardation in this age

,And , Allah and His Messenger will see your work then you will be returned to the Knower of the Unseen and the visible, and He will inform you of what

” .’ you used to do

Commentary: verse ٩٤

The hypocrites, who, at any rate, did not participate in the Battle of Tabūk, ceaselessly brought excuses and pretexts to the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.). This verse, rejecting their seeking for excuses, indicates that when the Muslims would return from the war, the hypocrites would come to them and bring some excuses. The Muslims should say to them not to make not to excuse, since they would not believe them and Allah had informed them of their circumstance. The verse says

.They will offer you excuses when you return to them “

Say: ‘ Do not make excuses. We will never believe you. Allah has informed us of tidings ... about you

This meaning is a hint to the fact that, by means of the verses of the Qur’ān and revelation, Allah (s.w.t.) discovered the plots and secrets of the hypocrites and He informed His Messenger (p.b.u.h.) of their actions, so that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) knew that those excuses were made only to confuse the matter. They did not have a proper and safe belief in Allah and the religion. And their absence in the Holy Struggle was for the same reason

:Then, in the continuation of the verse, the Qur'ān says

And , Allah and His Messenger will see your work, then you will be returned to the... “ ' Knower of the Unseen and the visible, and He will inform you of what you used to do

That moment of the return to the Knower, which is mentioned in the verse, is the time of death, when the curtains will be utterly removed and human beings will understand
.the facts

They will swear to you by Allah, when you turn back unto them that you renounce “ ٩٥ . them (their sin). So renounce them, for they are indeed filth and their abode is Hell, a ” .recompense for what they used to earn

Commentary: verse ٩٥

After the occurrence of the Battle of Tabūk, when the Muslims returned to Medina, those hypocrites who had not participated in that Battle, in order to justify their action, came to them swearing that they had plausible excuse. This oath was for that .the Muslims might not blame them

The Qur’ān informs the Muslims in this verse that when they return from the Holy Struggle, the hypocrites come to them and swear by Allah to justify their deed in order that the Muslims renounce them their sin and do not blame them. But Muslims are commanded to turn away from them, i.e. as a protest to their ugly work, they must avoid speaking with them. Then the Qur’ān states its reason such that, as a result of .their own action, their abode is Hell

However, renouncement is often fulfilled either upon nobility and connivance, or upon wrath and heedlessness. In this verse, it has been used in both senses. The hypocrites asked for remittal and pardoning their fault, and Allah had commanded the Muslims to .have a wrathful renouncement unto them

When the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) returned from the Battle of Tabūk, he told the Muslims not to associate with the hypocrites who abandoned going to the Battle. (Books of Commentary by Imam Fakhr-i-Rāzi, Marāqi, Majma‘-ul-Bayān, Al-Minār, Fi-Zilāl, Atyab-ul-Bayān, Al-Muharrir-ul-Wajiz

But some commentators have said that renouncement is based on remittal and pardoning, without blaming them or scorning them. It should be done in a manner that you do not attest them in what they bring excuse, but by silence and negation you do reject them, because they are filthy and it appropriates that you do not approach them. So, their abode is Hell for what they have done. (Tafsir-i-Qarā’ib-ul-Qur’ān, As-Sāfi, Jawāmi‘-ul-Jāmi‘, Al-Mizān, and Manhaj-us-Sādiqīn

They swear to you that you may be pleased with them. But even if you are “ ٩٦ .
,pleased with them

” .yet surely Allah will not be pleased with the transgressing people

Commentary: verse ٩٦

In this verse, the Qur’ān continues the subject matter of the previous verse. It says that the hypocrites swear so that the Muslims may be pleased with them. But they must be aware that even if they are pleased with them, Allah will not be pleased with :the mischievous ones. The verse says

They swear to you that you may be pleased with them. But even if you are pleased “
” .with them, yet surely Allah will not be pleased with the transgressing people

This statement means that even when you become pleased with such hypocrites, it .does not benefit them in their state, because Allah is not pleased with them

However, this meaning is a warning, indicating that when Allah is not pleased with a person, a believer should not be pleased with him either, and he must cease his .communication with him

The Bedouins are more hard in disbelief and hypocrisy, and more apt not to know “ .٩٧ the limits of what Allah has sent down to His Messenger, and Allah is All-Knowing, All-Wise ”.

Commentary: verse ٩٧

This verse attracts the believers’ attention to this matter that the hypocrites of the Bedouins, who lived in deserts and outside of Medina, were more intense than the hypocrites of the citizens settled inside Medina, from the point of disbelief and hypocrisy. They were also in a lower standard from the point of understanding and perceiving the ordinances and the limits of Allah which had been revealed to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). That was why they opposed more to embrace Islam. The verse says:

The Bedouins are more hard in disbelief and hypocrisy, and more apt not to know “ ... ,the limits of what Allah has sent down to His Messenger

Then, at the end of the verse, the Qur’ān adds that ‘ Allah is All-Knowing ’, viz., He is aware of the reality of the state of everyone; and He is ‘All-Wise’, viz., the revelations :He sends down are all formed upon wisdom and cognizance. It says

” .and Allah is All-Knowing, All-Wise... “

And of the Bedouins are those who take what they spend to be a loss, and they “ .٩٨ wait for calamities against you, on them shall be an evil calamity; and Allah is All-
” .Hearing, All-Knowing

Commentary: verse ٩٨

In this verse, the Qur’ān states that some of the Bedouins consider that what they spend in charity is as a kind of loss and a damage. They are hypocrites, of course, and they do not spend believably. They spend for protecting the outward aspect and in the form of hypocritical acts, so they know it as a loss for themselves. They do not believe
.in the rewards of the Hereafter

” ... ,And of the Bedouins are those who take what they spend to be a loss “

Moreover, those hypocrites who lived at the time of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) waited for arriving some horrible calamities against the Muslims. They awaited the death of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) momentarily, or that the Muslims be defeated and scattered so that they could make their inward aims manifest freely. This fact was proved after the departure of the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) when some parties of those hypocrites :turned away from Islam and apostatized. The verse continues saying

” ... ,and they wait for calamities against you... “

The holy verse, after mentioning the expectation of the hypocrites, curses them and
:says

” ... ;on them shall be an evil calamity ... “

:Then it also continues saying

” .and Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing... “

.means of) the nearness to Allah and the prayers (blessings) of the Messenger)

Look! Surely they are means of nearness for them. Soon Allah will admit them into His ” .mercy. Verily Allah is Forgiving, Merciful

Commentary: verse ٩٩

Opposite to those Bedouins of Arab who were hypocrites, the Qur’ān refers to another group of the Bedouins who had a true Faith in Allah and the Day of Resurrection. This reference is for the reason that no one considers that all of the :Bedouins were always totally hypocrites and disbelievers. The verse says

” ... ,And of the Bedouins are those who believe in Allah and the Last Day “

As a result of the Faith they had in Allah, this group of Bedouins of Arabs spent their wealth in charity in the way of Allah. So, whatever they spent in charity they assumed it as a means of nearness to Allah and, also, an attraction of the prayers of the :Prophet (p.b.u.h.). The verse continues saying (and take what they spend to be (means of... “

” ... .the nearness to Allah and the prayers (blessings) of the Messenger

These Bedouins believed that spending properties in the way of Allah caused both the nearness to Allah and that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) would pray for them; since the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) used to pray for any one of the believers who spent in charity in the .way of Allah, and therefore, he encouraged him thereby

The behaviour of these faithful Bedouins can be compared with that of the hypocritical Bedouins. These considered what they spent in charity as a means of nearness to Allah, while the former group, as was explained in the previous verses, .considered their charities a kind of loss, since they did not believe in Allah’s rewards

:Therefore, in the continuation of the holy verse, the Qur’ān says

”... .Look! Surely they are means of nearness for them... “

There is no distance, of course, between Man and the Lord. Then the purpose of this ‘ nearness ’ is ‘ a spiritual nearness ’, and that a faithful person ought to create the epithets of Allah inside himself. It is in this case that he may be involved in the mercy and favour of Allah (s.w.t.), and can enjoy His rewards. We see that in this holy very verse, after confirming that their charities cause the nearness to Him, the Qur’ān :immediately says

” ... .Soon Allah will admit them into His mercy... “

And, by this phrase, the Qur’ān states the fruit of the nearness to Allah. So, the verse :concludes as follows

” .Verily Allah is Forgiving, Merciful... “

Commentary: verse ١٠٠

Following the content meaning of the former holy verse which was upon the circumstances of the disbelievers and hypocrites, this verse refers to the true
.believers of the Muslims, and divides them into three definite groups

The first group are those who were the foremost and the first in Islam, who . ١
:emigrated. The verse says

” ... And the foremost, the first of the Emigrants “

Those who were first in helping both the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and his companions of . ٢
.the Emigrants

” ... ,and the Helpers... “

The third group are mentioned those who followed them from the point of.٣ goodness, and by their good deeds and embracing Islam, Emigration, and helping the .Prophet’s religion, they joined them

” ... ,and those who followed them in goodness... “

It is interesting that all the Islamic scholars have unanimously said that the first person of women who embraced Islam was Khadijah, the faithful and devoted wife of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). And, as for men, all the scholars and commentators of the Shi’ites together, and a large number of the Sunnite scholars have confirmed that Aliibn-Abītib (a.s.) was the first one who accepted the invitation of the Prophet of Islam \(\(p.b.u.h.\) ٤

:After mentioning these three groups, the Qur’ān says

” ... ,Allah is well-pleased with them and they are well-pleased with Him... “

The pleasure of Allah from them is for their Faith and the good deeds they have done; and that they are well-pleased with Allah is for the extraordinary various important
.rewards He has bestowed upon them

This sentence contains all the divine merits, (the material and spiritual merits of body :and soul) yet, as an emphasis and statement of expansion after epitome, it adds

.Qurtubī, vol. ۵, p. ۳۰۷۵ (narrated from Mustadrak-I-Hākim), and some other books

” ... and He has prepared for them gardens beneath which rivers flow... “

:Among the privileges of this Divine bounty is that it is eternal, as the verse itself says

” ... .wherein shall they abide forever... “

:This condition is a great triumph for a person. The holy verse continues saying

” .That is the great success ... “

What a success can be better than this that man, a mortal, feels that his Lord, the Exalted, his worshiped, and his Master is well-pleased with him and has accepted the ?whole deeds he has done

” a grievous chastisement

Commentary: verse ١٠١

The Qur’ān turns the discussion again unto the deeds of the hypocrites and their :mischievous groups. It says

” ... ,And among the Bedouins around you there are hypocrites “

This phrase means that you should be aware and watch the hypocrites who are .outside your city and be careful of their dangerous activities

Then, it adds that, in Medina itself, and from among the people of this city, there are also some persons who have stretched hypocrisy as far as the limit of disobedience, and they are severely steadfast unto it so that they are experienced in it. The verse
:says and from among the people of Medina (there are also some who) have grown bold... “

” ... .in hypocrisy

This meaning, which is seen in the abovementioned verse about the hypocrites of ‘
,’ inside ’ and those of ‘ outside maybe refers to this aspect that the inside hypocrites are more experienced, and naturally more dangerous, in their job than the outside hypocrites. Therefore, the Muslims must intensively be careful of them, although they should not neglect the .outside hypocrites either

:That is why, immediately after that, Allah says

” ... .You do not know them, (but) We know them... “

This indication, of course, is to the ordinary and common knowledge of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), but there is no contrast that he (p.b.u.h.) becomes utterly aware of their .secrets through Divine revelation and by His teaching

At the end of the verse, the Qurān announces the grievous punishment of this group :as follows

Soon We will punish them twice, then they will be turned back to grievous... “
” ... .chastisement

Twice in punishment is, at first, their disgraces among people, and the other is to give up their lives with hardship which includes both their spiritual and bodily .chastisements

Commentary: verse ١٠٢

Several persons from among the companions of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) refrained from taking part in the Battle of Tabūk, not hypocritically, of course, but for the sake of loving life. When the concerning critical verses were revealed, they regreted and, as a sign of repentance, they had fastened themselves on a pillar in the Prophet’s Mosque. They kept on being in that state until when Allah accepted their repentance and the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) unfastened the ropes from them and they were forgiven.

:The verse says

And (there are) othes who have confessed to their sins. They have mixed a righteous “ deed and an evil one. Maybe Allah will turn (mercifully) to them (and accept their repentance). Verily Allah is Forgiving, Merciful

Take alms out of their possessions to cleanse them and purify them thereby, and “ ١٠٣ . pray for them, surely your prayers are a comfort for them, and Allah is All-Hearing, ” All-Knowing

Commentary: verse ١٠٣

This holy verse points to one of the important Islamic ordinances, viz. alms. As a general rule, it tells the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to take alms tax from their properties. The :verse says

” ... Take alms out of their possessions “

The Divine command is a clear evidence for that the chief of the Islamic government can take ‘ the alms tax ’ from people. It is not in a manner that he must wait until if .they wish they pay it by themselves, and, otherwise, they do not pay it

Then, the Qur’ān refers to two parts of the psychological, ethical, and social :philosophy of almsgiving. It says

” ... ,to cleanse them and purify them thereby... “

Almsgiving cleanse them from the bad qualities, purifies them from mammunism and stinginess, and grows the plant of philanthropy, generosity and attentiveness to .people’s rights in them

Moreover, by the fulfilment of this divine commandment, you may wipe out the imputies and mischieves which come into being inside the society because of poverty, class division, and the deprivation of some groups therein. Thus, you may clean the scene of the society from these vices

Then, it implies that when they pay alms tax, you do pray for them and send blessing unto them. The verse says

” ... ,and pray for them... “

This situation indicates that even for the fulfilment of the obligatory duties, people should be thanked and admired. They should be specially encouraged mentally and spiritually. Some Islamic traditions denote that when people brought alms tax to the presence of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), he used to pray for them by saying: “ O’ Allah! Give them peace

:Then the Qur’ān adds

” ... ,surely your prayers are a comfort for them... “

It is by the glow of this prayer that the grace and blessing of Allah will be sent down over their selves and spirits, in a form that they may feel it. So, at the end of the verse,
the Qur’ān says

” .and Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing... “

That is, Allah both hears the prayers of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and is aware of the intentions of the givers of alms tax

١٠٤- أَلَمْ يَعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ يَقْبَلُ التَّوْبَةَ عَنْ عِبَادِهِ وَيَأْخُذُ الصَّدَقَاتِ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ التَّوَّابُ الرَّحِيمُ

Do they not know that Allah is He Who accepts the repentance from His servants “ ١٠٤ .
” ?and takes the alms and that Allah is He Who is Oft-Pardoning, Merciful

Commentary: verse ١٠٤

In view of the fact that some sinners, like the hypocrites concerning the the Battle of Tabūk, urged the Prophet (pbuh) to accept their repentance, in this verse the Qur’ān points to this subject indicating that the acceptance of repentance is not something :that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) does by himself. The verse says

” ... Do they not know that Allah is He Who accepts the repentance from His servants “

Allah not only accepts the repentances but also takes the alms or the charities which are given to Allah as the atonement of sins and for nearness to Him. The verse :continues saying

” ... and takes the alms... “

There is no doubt that the takers of alms and charities are either the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and the immaculate Imams (a.s.), who are the leaders of the Muslims, or the needy and deserving persons. But, since the hands of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and those of the true leaders and the hands of deserving persons are counted as the hand of Allah (s.w.t), it seems that Allah (s.w.t) takes these alms

:In a tradition narrated from the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), we recite Verily the alms will reach to the hand of Allah before it reaches to the beggar's hand. “

Moreover, in an Islamic tradition, it has been announced that the angels receive all
.the deeds of man, except alms which directly reach to the hand of Allah

:At the end of the verse, as an emphasis, the Qurān says

,and that Allah is He Who is Oft-Pardoning... “

” ?Merciful

From the content of this holy verse, it is so understood that the forgiveness of the faults and accepting the repentance is only up to Allah (s.w.t.). Thus, even the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is not rightful to accept repentances, much less are the monks and the .(authorities of churches. This rank belongs only to Allah (s.w.t

” ... Allah is He Who accepts the repentance... “

Commentary: verse ١٠٥

This verse announces that Allah, His Messenger and the believers are cognizant of what we do. It states the very belief of the Shi‘ite in ‘ presenting deeds ’ to the saints of Allah. This presentation may be performed daily, weekly, or monthly. So, if our deeds are good, the saints of Allah will be happy with us; and if they are bad, they will become worried and sad. Belief in this ‘ presentation of deeds ’ is effective in creating piety and modesty in us, and contains an extraordinary educative role

:The verse says

And say: ‘ Act you ( as you will )! Allah will see your work and (so will) His Messenger “ and the believers, then soon you will be returned to the Knower of the Unseen and the visible, and He will inform you ” .’ of what you used to do

The Qur'ānic term /murjūn/ is derived from /'irjā'/ in the sense of ‘ delay and stop ’, a :delay which is accompanied with ‘ hope and expectation ’. The verse says

” ... :And (there are) others expecting Allah's decree “

According to the Islamic literature, the verse is concerning to the murderers of Hadrat-i-Hamzah, or Ja'far-i-Tayyār, who were remorseful from their actions against these two. Or it refers to those persons who did not participate in the Battle of Tabūk

However, Allah is capable to either forgive the sinners or punish them. The verse

Commentary: verse ١٠٧

In this verse, the Qur’ān has made manifest one of the great plots of the hypocrites of Medina. The event was as follows

Twelve persons from among those hypocrites built a place under the title of ‘ a mosque ’. They built it with the recommendation of Abū-‘Āmir-Rāhib who was a harsh enemy of Islam from before. He lived in Syria. In order to make that mosque formal, the hypocrites went to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and asked him to come into that mosque and pray therein. They said that they had built the mosque for those Muslims who were weak and could not attend the Prophet’s Mosque or Quba Mosque from some far places to pray; so they could pray in that mosque

At that time, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was going to travel for the Battle of Tabūk and had not time enough to go there. Therefore, he told them to wait until he would come back from his journey and then he might establish prayer in that mosque. When the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) returned from the Battle of Tabūk, they had made that mosque ready. So, they came to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and asked him to pray in that mosque. It was at the same time that these very holy verses were sent down and made their plot manifest. The revelations made it evident that those hypocrites aimed to harm the religion of Islam under the name of the mosque. That was why the Prophet of Allah (p.b.u.h.) sent several of his companions to ruin and burn that mosque. They were Mālik-ibn-Dikhsham, Mu‘an-ibn-‘Āmir-ibn-Sakn, and Wahshī. The command of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was obeyed, and later the site of that mosque was used as a place of .rubbishes in that locality

In this verse, the Qur’ān indicates that the hypocrites pursued four aims by building :that mosque

.To cause harm to Islam and the Muslims. ۱

To create disbelief in Allah and His Messenger (p.b.u.h.) among people, and that the ۲ foundations of infidelity to be strengthened in that mosque

To disperse the Muslims. The Muslims usually attended in one mosque, and there ۳ .was a unity among them

To supply a lurking-place for the one who was fighting against Allah and His Prophet, ۴ viz. ‘Abū-‘Āmir-i-Rāhib. (۱) He was a man who became a Christian in the Age of Ignorance and obtained a high rank there. When the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) migrated to Medina, as a result of his envy, ‘Abū-‘Āmir always applied his hostility against him (p.b.u.h.), and finally he ran away toward the polytheists of Mecca. He accompanied them in the Battle of ‘Uhud, and, at last, he escaped to Syria in order to attract the help of Roman army and to fight against the .(Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h

The hypocrites of Medina had built that mosque with Abū-‘Āmir’s recommendation and were waiting for him to come with the Roman troops and to use that mosque as :his station for invading the Muslims. The verse says

And those who built a mosque to cause harm (to Islam) and for unbelief, and to “ divide the believers, and (as) an ambush for those who fought Allah and His ” ... ;Messenger aforesaid

In order to deceive the Muslims, the hypocrites swore that they desired nothing but good for them, and that their aim was to help and serve the Muslims. But, by narrating
:their saying, the Qur’ān says and they will surely swear: ‘ We purposed naught save good, ’ but Allah testifies... “

” .that verily they are liars

In this way and by sending down these verses, Allah made their great plot manifest,
.and futed the evil plan of those hypocrites

Never do stand therein (to pray). Certainly a mosque founded on piety from the “ ١٠٨ . first day is worthier that you stand in it (for prayer). Therein are men who love to “ .purify themselves, and Allah loves the purified ones

Commentary: verse ١٠٨

The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is commanded in this holy verse not to stand in that mosque at :all, i.e. he should not establish prayer there. The holy verse says

” ... .(Never do stand therein (to pray “

Then the Qur’ān compares this mosque with the Prophet’s Mosque or Qubā Mosque, :and says

Certainly a mosque founded on piety from the first day is worthier that you stand... “ ” ... .(in it (for prayer

The objective meaning of this mosque was either Qubā Mosque, or the Prophet’s Mosque, or any mosque which had been founded on the basis of piety and belief in Allah (s.w.t.); and the purpose of the phrase ‘ the first day ’ was that, from the first .day, the aim of its founders had been Allah

The Qur’ān adds that, in this mosque, which has been established on the basis of piety, there are some men who desire to purify themselves, and Allah likes the purified ones. The purpose of this purification is a spiritual purification which has been rendered into being far from sins and being studious in doing divine obligations. It also envelops the purification of both clothes and body

:The verse continues saying

” .Therein are men who love to purify themselves, and Allah loves the purified ones... “

Commentary: verse ١٠٩

After explaining the story of the mosque of dissension, the Qur’ān compares between those two groups: a group who built Qubā Mosque and the Prophet’s Mosque, and the group who built the mosque of dissension. The foundation of the work of the first group was on piety and the pleasure of Allah, while the result of the work of the .second group was blazing Fire and falling into Hell

The basis of the work of the first group is piety and obtaining the pleasure of Allah, and they have no other aim from it. Are these people better or the second group whose basis of work is upon the brink of a crumbling hollowed bank? They will fall into the Fire of Hell by the building they have built. In other words, the building, which they have established, is at the edge of the precipice of the Fire of Hell which will suddenly .ruins into it

:The verse says

Is he, therefore, better who has laid his foundation on fear of Allah and (His) good “

The building which they built will not cease to be (a source of) disquiet in their “ .١١٠
” .hearts unless their hearts be cut into pieces, and Allah is All-Knowing, All-Wise

Commentary: verse ١١٠

By this holy verse, the Qur’ān implies that the building which the hypocrites have built is always a source of suspicion in their hearts. This suspicion is with them until their hearts be cut into pieces, viz. when they die. The purpose is that the instruction of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) that the mosque of dissension to be ruined has increased in the hatred of their hearts. This hatred or rancore and disquiet towards the ordinances of Islam will be with them until the time they die and their hearts be cut into pieces. This meaning denotes that they will never believe in the Truth and will die with the same .state of hypocrisy and disbelief

:The verse says

The building which they built will not cease to be (a source of) disquiet in their hearts “
” ... ,unless their hearts be cut into pieces

Then, at the end of the verse, the Qur’ān mentions two attributes of Allah. They are: All-Knowing, All-Wise, which means Allah is aware of their status and the command He has ordained about the mosque of dissension has been done wisely. The verse :says

” .and Allah is All-Knowing, All-Wise... “

And who is more faithful to his promise than Allah? Rejoice then in your bargain that you ” .have made; and that is the great success

Commentary: verse ۱۱۱

In many occurrences of the Qur’ān, whenever it says something concerning the infidels, or polytheists, or hypocrites, immediately next to that, it refers to the believers in order that a comparison between these two groups be performed

Here, after delivering some explanations about the hypocrites and their evil conspiracies, the Qur'ān refers to the believers and their specialties

In this verse, by applying a delicate similitude, the Qur'ān points to the intensive love of the believers to Holy Struggle in the way of Allah. It similitudizes their deed to a transaction and a bargain. Usually, there are four essential elements in every bargain. These four factors are: seller, customer, the ware to be transacted, and price. In this splendid spiritual transaction, the seller is a believer, the customer is Allah, the ware to be transacted is the soul and the wealth of the believers, and its price is the eternal Paradise

These believers fight in the way of Allah where they slay and are slain. Whether they defeat the enemy or they suffer martyrdom, both are counted felicity for them, and both of them are sought by a believer. The verse says

Verily Allah has bought from the believers their souls and their properties for “ Paradise to be theirs: they fight in the way of Allah, so they slay and they are slain Imam Sādiq (a.s.) in a tradition says that there is no price for your bodies save Paradise. Then you should not sell yourselves for less than Paradise. (Majma‘-ul-Bayān, the Commentary

:Next to that, the Qur'ān introduces the document of this transaction, where it says

“ ... this is) a promise binding on Him in the Turah, and the Evangel and the Qur'ān)... “

In all these Heavenly Books, believers have been promised Paradise, and the texts of \(these Divine Books are counted as a document for the believers in this bargain.\)

Strivers, Holy Struggle, and martyrdom have been counted worthy not only in ۱ – ۱ Islam but also mentioned in the Turah and the Evangel: “... in the Turah and Evangel. Now, if this meaning is not found clearly in these two present Holy Books, it shows some distortations in them

:Then, as a further emphasis, the Qur'ān asks

” ... ?And who is more faithful to his promise than Allah... “

Therefore, regarding that you have transacted the best bargain and with the most faithful One, Who is Allah, you must be very happy with this transaction, and this is the :great felicity. The verse says

;Rejoice then in your bargain that you have made... “ make a journey, bow, prostrate (in prayer), bid what is right and forbid what is wrong,

” .and keep the limits of Allah, and give good news to the believers

Commentary: verse ١١٢

Besides the aforementioned attribute, i.e. striving in the way of Allah, the Qur’ān defines nine epithets for such believers, who have bargained with their Lord. Thus, counting that one, they will be totally ten attributes. These nine epithets are as follows

١. “ (The believing strivers are those who) turn repentant (to Allah) ... ”

.Whenever they commit a fault, they immediately regret and turn to Allah and repent

٢. “ (worship (Him... ” ... ”

They always worship the Lord and assume worshipping as an obligatory manner upon themselves. Worshipping Allah is a sign of good Faith in a high level. It trains the soul of man and furnishes his heart and spirit with a peculiar serenity and luminosity

٣. “ (praise (Him ... ” ... ”

They always praise Allah for the bounties He has bestowed upon them, and they do perform His praise and tribute

” ... ,make a journey ... “ .۴

That is, in the way of Allah and for fulfilling their religions duties, they are always busy moving and endeavouring. For instance, they pave a distance to go into a mosque to establish their prayer, or, in order to settle reconciliation between two Muslims, they go to their houses. Or, even for taking an example from the traces of the ancient people, they make a journey

It must also be noted that some of the commentators have taken the Qur’ānic word
’ /sā’ihūn/ in the sense of ‘ fasting

” ... ,bow ... “ .۵

They bow down in the prayer before Allah. It is such as bowing, humility, and veneration

” ... ,(Prostrate (in prayer ... “ .۶

They put their foreheads on the ground of abjectness before Allah, and this is the utmost humiliation in front of Him. The Qur’ān has referred to only these two acts from the whole acts of prayer, because the most distinguished actions in prayer are ‘
’ bowing and prostration

” ...bid what is right ... “ .۷

Besides that they themselves are generally good, they invite others to goodness, too.
They are always the encouragers of others in doing good deeds

” ... ,and forbid what is wrong ... “ .۸

They not only themselves do not approach committing sins, but also dissuade others from perpetration of vices and becoming polluted with wrong actions

” ... ,and keep the limits of Allah ... “.

They ceaselessly try to protect the limits of the ordinances of Allah and not to transgress them. This epithet is one of the important qualities of a believer. He must be careful of his own deeds and treatment, so that never he violates the religious laws and that the limits of religion not to be broken. This subject is of great importance, and it has been referred to in the Qur'ān, too. For example, Sura At-Talāq, No. ٦٧, verse ١ says: “ ... and whoever goes beyond the limits of Allah, he indeed does injustice to his own soul. ... ” Therefore, in order to protect the limits of Allah, we must both fight against the outward enemy and struggle for effacing the inward corruptions

p: ۵۳۴

However, the first six epithets, out of the nine epithets mentioned in this verse, relate to the personal private life of a believer, which he ought to individually create in himself. Two epithets concern the social life of a believer; and the last epithet envelops all the duties of a believer, whether they are personal and social, including giving the obligatory rights

Next to mentioning these nine epithets, in order to make the believers happy, the Qur'ān implies that such believers are always in goodness and felicity, and they have a good end. They will enter Paradise in the Hereafter. The verse continues saying

” .and give good news to the believers ...“

At the beginning of the current Sura, the Qur’ān announced the immunity towards the polytheists. Then, there were some verses revealed upon the strictness and severity in action towards the polytheists. Now, the verse remarks that it is the same that the .polytheists be alive or dead

And Abraham's seeking forgiveness for his father was only because of a promise " ١١٤ . he had made to him. So when it became clear to him that he was an enemy of Allah, " .he declared himself quit of him. Verily Abraham was tenderhearted and forbearing

The previous verse denoted that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and the true believers have not any pray for the polytheists, even though they are from their relatives. This verse answers to a dubious thing that why Abraham (a.s.) gave his uncle a promise of asking for forgiveness, saying "... I will pray to my Lord forgive you; ... " (Sura Maryam, No.١٩, verse ٤٧). The abovementioned verse indicates that Abraham's promise was with the hope that he might be guided, but when he saw that his uncle :was in the state of disbelief, Abraham left asking forgiveness for him. The verse says

And Abraham's seeking forgiveness for his father was only because of a promise he " had made to him. So when it became clear to him that he was an enemy of Allah, he " .declared himself quit of him. Verily Abraham was tenderhearted and forbearing

Another question is why Abraham prayed for him after his death, and he said: " O ' our .(Lord! Forgive me and my parents... " (Sura 'Ibrāhim, No.١٤, verse ٤١

The answer to this question is that the Arabic word /wālid / is applied in the sense of the real father, while the term /'ab / is used in the sense of either father, teacher, father-in-law, and grand father. This supplication of Abraham was for his real father, not for his uncle who was a polytheist. So, the Qur'ān in its eleven verses refers to Abraham's uncle by using the word /'ab / in order that it makes clear that Abraham (a.s.) had been under the guardianship of what kind of a person, but he had not been affected

١١٥- وَمَا كَانَ اللَّهُ لِيُضِلَّ قَوْمًا بَعْدَ إِذْ هَدَاهُمْ حَتَّى يُبَيِّنَ لَهُمْ مَا يَتَّقُونَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ

Nor is it Allah to lead a people astray after He has guided them, until He makes “ ١١٥ .
” .clear to them what they should beware of; verily Allah is aware of all thins

Commentary: verse ١١٥

This verse is about those persons who embraced Islam. But, before that all the ordinances of the religion would be sent down, they died. For instance, they prayed towards the first direction of Qiblah; or they asked forgiveness for their fathers while they were polytheists, and the ordinance upon these subjects had not been sent down in the time when they were living. The verse says

Nor is it Allah to lead a people astray after He has guided them, until He makes clear “
” ... ;to them what they should beware of

The purpose of the holy phrase: ‘ to lead astray ’, here, means ‘ to chastise ’ and to take them into Hell. Therefore, they would not be chastised for the lack of performing those ordinances as long as they were not conveyed to them. The reason of it is that they have believed in Islam and were not informed of those laws. So, punishing a person for the sake of the ordinances which were issued after them, is far from Allah’s justice; and, as ‘ theoreticians in law ’ say, chastisement without statement is .not permissible

At the end of the verse, the Qur’ān implies that Allah knows every thing. That is, He knows that He ought not to :take to task a person for the crime he has not committed. The verse says

” ... .verily Allah is aware of all thins... “

The words in this verse are upon the sovereignty and Power of Allah. The Qur’ān implies that the kingdom of the heavens and the earth is Allah’s. It is He Who gives life and causes to die, and you have not any friend, or any helper, save Allah

Therefore, you should not rely on anybody besides Allah, and do not take the enemies of Allah as your shelter and your guardians, or that you be interested in them

Commentary: verse ١١٧

The process of the Battle of Tabūk was very hard and tiresome for the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and the Muslims. It was a difficult circumstance for them. On one side, the weather was terribly hot and, on the other side, it was the season of picking off the fruits. The Muslims, who had laboured for one year, had to leave off their crops because they had not opportunity to gather them. And, on the other side, they were quietly poor, so that they had not enough food to eat. An Islamic tradition denotes that they had not even enough water, and sometimes it happened that several of them only tasted a single date. In such hard and difficult circumstances, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and the Emigrants and the Helpers (Ansār) went to Holy Struggle in the way .of Allah

In this verse, the Qur’ān has spoken of the grace, favour, regard and attentiveness of Allah upon the Muslims who went forth for Holy Struggle in that difficult situation. It

:says

Allah has turned (mercifully) towards the Prophet and the Emigrants and the Helpers “ who followed him

” ... ,in the hour of difficulty

The circumstance was so hard that some of the Muslims were incapable to bear it any longer and intended to return. But Allah promoted their spirit and they could tolerate and remained. That is why the Qur’ān implies that this matter happened after that the hearts of some of them were nearly to swerve; but Allah caused them to succeed to .repent, and He accepted their repentance since He is the Beneficent, the Merciful

:The verse continues saying

Commentary: verse ١١٨

As it was said before, in the course of the Battle of Tabūk, there were some hard and difficult conditions for Muslims, the most considerable of them was the heat of the weather and the approach of the time of harvest, specially fruits. The hypocrites did not take part in this Battle, but the true Muslims, in any way they could, participated in the expedition of Tabūk, except those who were really excused. There were three persons among the Muslims who were absent from the expedition of the battle-field. They were: ka‘b-ibn-Mālik, Marārat-ibn-Rabi‘, and Hilāl-ibn-’Umayya. They wanted to take part in the Holy Struggle, but they procrastinated and acted listlessly until when, at last, the Battle of Tabūk ended and the Prophet of Allah (p.b.u.h.), accompanied with the Muslims, returned to .Medina

These three persons immediately presented themselves to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and, after greeting, they asked about his health. But the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) turned his face from them and did not speak with them. When the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) behaved like that, all the Muslims ceased communication with them and did not reply their questions and, as the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) commanded, their wives also got separated from them. Therefore, they felt themselves completely deserted and alone. This general strike against those three men caused that they were put in a tight straitened circumstance. In order to follow the command of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), they themselves did not .speak even with each other either

It has been said that this news reached the Romans. They secretly sent someone to those three persons and wanted them to go to Byzantine and live peacefully under the security of the government of Byzantine. But those men, who were really Muslims, rejected that suggestion. They became very inconvenient of that happening by which the disbelievers expected them like that. So, they left the habitation in the city and stationed themselves in the wilderness inside the far deserts and mountains, and .used to pray weeping and crying to Allah, asking Him to accept their repentance

There passed fifty days in that state and, finally, their repentance was accepted. Allah announced that those three persons, who had disobeyed, were forgiven, and their
.instructive story became eternal in this verse

:A part of difficulties that they tolerated are stated in this revelation. It says

And to the three who were left behind, until when the earth, with all its expanse, “ became narrow for them, and their own souls were straitened for them and they knew that there was no refuge from Allah save toward Him, then He turned towards them (mercifully) that they .(might turn (repentant unto Him

” .Verily Allah is Oft-Pardoning, the Merciful

This event shows that if the people of a society be good, no vicious persons have any room in that society. They have to improve themselves. Thus, the action that the Muslims performed was the best style for improving the polluted minority, and a .general strike against the vicious may make them improved

Commentary: verse ۱۱۹

This verse addresses the believers and commands them to be in awe of Allah and to .be pious. They should be always with the truthful ones, too

Thus, the believers are commanded in this verse to do two things. The first is that they should be in awe of Allah, and it is evident that the state of being Godwary is very effective in man from the point of training. When a person is Godwary, he not only
.avoids committing disgrace actions, but also performs his duties

The second is that they ought to be with the truthful ones, and to make friends with some ones who are generally truthful. They should, therefore, avoid making friends
.with the liars

:The verse says

” .O you who have Faith! Be in awe of Allah and be (always) with the truthful ones “

Accompaniment and agreement with truthful ones has an important function in the spiritual progression and the elevation of man. It makes him familiar with spiritual and ethical values, so far that the one himself will habitually become one of the truthful ones.

Some Islamic narrations denote that the objective meaning of ‘ the truthful ones ’ is Muhammad and his Ahlul-Bayt (p.b.u.h.), and the immaculate Imams (a.s.). It is certain that they were the top of the truthful ones, and the Islamic community, as a duty, ought to follow them.

” .Verily Allah does not waste the reward of the good-doers

Commentary: verse ١٢٠

The content of this verse is a kind of proclamation of general mobilization, and encouraging the Muslims toward participation in Holy Struggle and defending the life of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). Through this verse, the Qur’ān warns the Muslims habitated in Medina and around it that they should not offend against the command of going to Holy Struggle beside the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.). They must not think of their own (.lives dearer than the life of the Prophet (p.b.u.h

.but they must defend his life before the enemy by their own lives

It is evident that in battles the protection of the life of the commander is an important duty upon the army, since if the commander be killed the army may be defeated. In the battles that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) participated, he himself undertook the rank of a commander, and then, it was necessary for the Muslims to prefer his life to their own lives and to protect it from any danger

Participation in Holy Struggle, of course, is a sufficient necessity, and when sufficient men, who can afford the defense and war, attend in the scene, it is not necessary for the rest to participate. But, when the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) or the Imam (a.s.) invites a particular person to Holy Struggle, it will become an individual duty for him to obey, and its offense is not permissible

At the advent of Islam, the number of Muslims was small, and when a war happened, the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) invited all those Muslims who had the ability of fighting to the battle- field and he proclaimed a general mobilization thereby. Therefore, all of them should take part in the battle and no offending was allowed. This verse, which concerns to that very period, warns the people of Medina and its Bedouins; who were the only power of Islam, not to offend from the Holy Struggle beside the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). The holy verse says

It is not for the people of Medina and the Bedouins around them to offend against “ (the command of ” ... .the Messenger of Allah, and to prefer their own lives to his life

Next to expressing this meaning, in the continuation of the verse, and in relation to the troops of Islam, the Qur’ān points out that Allah gives the strivers in His way some good rewards for the hardships they :tolerate. It says

That is because there afflicts them neither thirst, nor fatigue, nor hunger in the... “ way of Allah, nor do they receive (any thing) from the enemy but a righteous deed is written for them on its account. Verily Allah does not waste the reward of the goodin the way of Holy Struggle), small or great, nor do they cross any land, but it is) ,recorded for them

Commentary: verse ١٢١

There is no expense, whether it be small or large, that the Muslims spend in charity, nor do they cross any desert, but it is recorded for them, in order that Allah will recompense them with something better than that which they have done. The verse says:

And neither do they expend anything (in the way of Holy Struggle), small or great, “nor do they cross any land, but it is recorded for them, so that Allah may reward them with better than what they used to do”

When we refer to the history of the Battles of the advent of Islam, we realize that the Muslims were confronted with a great deal of hardships and difficulties in many of those Battles. They suffered much pain because of scarcity of possibilities, martial means and equipments, provisions, and ammunitions. They had to tolerate both thirst and hunger. Whatever they had they spent in the way of Allah. They were surrounded by some insupportable problems. They became wounded, they were slain, but they bore all of these hardships in order to protect the .life of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and to cause Islam victorious

According to this verse, Allah will reward all of these pains and hardships, and He will

١٢٢. “ And it is not for the believers to go out “ to fight) totally; why should not then a group from every party of them go forth to) ,become learned in religion ” ?and to warn their people when they return to them. So that they may beware

Commentary: verse ١٢٢

In the previous verses, the Muslims were emphatically called toward Holy Struggle, and those who offended that commandment were severely criticized. Now, this verse attracts the attention of the Muslims toward another important duty that they have. This matter is not less significant than Holy Struggle from the point of importance, .because the ordinances of Allah can be learnt

With the emphasis which was laid on Holy Struggle, the believers attached importance to Holy Struggle, and whenever a fight came forth, the Muslims wholly attended in its expedition, even though the Prophet himself (p.b.u.h.) would not take part in that Holy Struggle, and no one offended from it. In that circumstance, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was alone and there was not anybody of those Muslims to take the .ordinances of Islam from him

This verse indicates that the entire of the believers should not go to fight, but a group of them ought to remain in Medina in order to learn the religious teachings and to be learned in religion, so that when the strivers came back to them, they could teach them what they had learnt, and could warn them and preach them, perhaps, they would be in awe of Allah and would observe the limits of the religion

It is indisputable that the conditions are often different. Sometimes the enemy is powerful and dangerous and all Muslims must be mobilized for war, like what happened in the Battle of Tabūk where the Muslims were against the powerful army of Byzantine. And, sometimes it happens that the enemy is less powerful and it is not necessary that the Muslims totally participate in war

When the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) was alive, it was in such circumstances that a group of the Muslims should go to fight and another group would remain at the presence of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) busy learning the subjects of the religion. For, at any moment, the revelation might be sent down and an ordinance or a new subject be announced by the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). So, there should be present some believers to receive it and to learn it, and when their brethren would return from Holy Struggle, they could teach it to them, too. In that manner, the strivers could also be in the current of that revelation which would firm their Faith and might create a higher standard of piety and God-fearing in them

:The verse says

And it is not for the believers to go out (to fight) totally; why should not then a group “ from every party of them go forth to become learned in religion, and to warn their people when they return to them

” ?So that they may beware

This holy verse clearly indicates to the importance of knowledge in Islam. It is found out that the value of learning and teaching is not less than the value of Holy Struggle. Then, when a party of faithful people go to Holy Struggle and fight against the enemy of Islam, another party should also remain in the intrenchment of knowledge and acquaintance in order to obtain it

The verse under discussion can also be rendered into another form. The content meaning of the verse can be considered as some facts related to the Muslims who lived in other cities and the tribes who were far from Medina. In this case, we may say that the verse indicates that there were some Muslims who lived in some other places and they should not go to fight totally, but a party of them ought to travel to Medina and attend the presence of the holy Prophet (P.b.u.h.) in order to learn the ordinances of the religion. After that, they could return to their people and preach them those ordinances

There seems another probability denoting that basically the verse is not related to Holy Struggle, since there is not any word mentioned in the verse concerning Holy Struggle. It only implies that the whole believers should not go out, but a group from every party of them would travel and learn the lessons of religion

Perhaps, the objective meaning is that, at the time of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and after the expansion of Islam among different tribes, whoever embraced Islam wished to meet the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and to learn Islam directly from him, which caused a trouble. So, the verse commands such believers that they did not need to go totally to Medina to attend the presence of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), but a group of them were sufficient to come and learn the lessons of the religion and return to their people in order to teach those lessons to them

Muslims to be firm in the belief and steadfast in their stand against the enemy – Allah
.is sufficient for those who depend upon Him

۱۲۳- يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا قَاتِلُوا الَّذِينَ يَلُونَكُمْ مِنَ الْكُفَّارِ وَلْيَجِدُوا فِيكُمْ غِلْظَةً وَاعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَ الْمُتَّقِينَ

O ' you who have Faith! Fight those of the infidels who are near to you, and let “ ۱۲۳ .
,them find severity in you
” .and know that Allah is with the pious ones

Commentary: verse ۱۲۳

In the life of the Prophet of Islam, the Muslims had many enemies. Some of those enemies lived in a long distance from the Muslims, like the Romans who were in Syria, Palestine, and Tabūk. But, some of other enemies of the Muslims were not so far from the center of Islam. For, example, the tribes of Hawāzin and Thaḳīf were in a little distance from the Muslims and they were a danger in ambush. It was necessary that at first the near enemies should be crushed, and then the far distanced enemies might be dealt with, because their danger was greater and they could be aware of the .secrets and martial abilities of the Muslims

:In this holy verse, the Qurʾān notifies to the Muslims of this very matter . It says

O ' you who have Faith! Fight those of the infidels who are near to you, and let them “
” .find severity in you, and know that Allah is with the pious ones

To show violence of action in front of an enemy the strivers may make him both frightened and disappointed. He understands that the Muslims are not penetrable, and they may not be deceived by some mere promises, nor that they can get the .martial secrets from them

A believer should have the ultimate humility and modesty in front of his religious brethren, but he must be severe, firm and violent in front of enemies, as the Qur'ān :says

Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah, and those with him are firm of heart against “ (the unbelievers, compassionate among themselves, ... ” (Sura Al-Fath, No. 48, verse 29

And whenever a Sura is sent down, there are some of them (the hypocrites) who “ ١٢٤. say: ‘ Which of you did this increase in belief? ’. As for those who have Faith, it ”.increases them in belief and they rejoice

Commentary: verse ١٢٤

The hypocrites always and in any opportunity tried to weaken the spirit of the Muslims. One of their methods was that they used to mock the verses of the Qur’ān in order to both disturb their sacredness and hurt the Muslims

This verse states the indecent reaction of the hypocrites at the time of the revelation of a Sura of the Qur’ān. Whenever a Sura was revealed, some of them mockingly asked some others whether that Sura increased in belief of either of them. By that manner, they wanted to mock the Muslims among themselves

After narrating this meaning, the Qur’ān gives them a suitable answer, which is recited in the next verse

Whenever a Sura of the Qur’ān was sent down, there were created two reactions in the believers and two other reactions in the hypocrites. Every couple of those reactions were just opposite to each other. The reaction of the believers before the :revelation of a Sura of the Qur’ān was two things

.The first was that it increased in the belief of them and made their Faith firm

This statement indicates that belief can be both decreased and increased, and the revelation of the Qur'ān causes the belief to be increased in the receptive believing hearts.

The second was that it made them happy. When they heard the verses of the Qur'ān, and they were aware of the great rewards which were mentioned in them for the believers, they rejoiced and they became hopeful that they would be included in the favours of Allah.

:The verse says

And whenever a Sura is sent down, there are some of them (the hypocrites) who “say: ‘ which of you did this increase in belief? ’. As for those who have Faith, it increases them in belief and they rejoice”.

If a corpse falls inside a pool, whatever much rain it rains upon it, it will become more malodorous. This bad smell is not because of the rain, but it is because of that corpse. When there is the mood of obstinacy and haughtiness in a person, it causes that, by the revelation of the verses of the Qur’ān, those in whose hearts is disease will become more haughty, and will show a more amount of obstinacy, bigotry and enmity .from themselves

This status is a kind of sickness in them like the sicknesses of the body. If we do not .think of a remedy for it, it will expand so much so that may it destroy the person

And whenever a Sura is sent down, they look at one another, (saying): ‘ Does “ .١٢٧ anyone see you? ’ Then they turn away. Allah has turned away their hearts because ” .they are a people who do not understand

Commentary: verse ١٢٧

When the hypocrites were at the presence of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and the believers, and, at the same time a Sura was revealed, they looked at each other and, by their glances and signals, they said to one another whether anyone saw them. That is, if the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and the believers did not watch them, and they were neglectful of them the hypocrites might go out of that meeting in order not to listen to the .recitation of the Sura

They feared that the Sura would be about them, and it might say something of their secrets. Therefore, they wanted to leave the meeting in any way they could, and :when they found the opportunity for it, they would flee. The above holy verse says

And whenever a Sura is sent down, they look at one another, (saying): ‘ Does anyone “ ” ... ’ ?see you

After mentioning these matters in this verse, the Qur’ān implies that Allah has turned away their hearts. That is, their hearts have turned away from the truth. The reason of this status is that they are a group of people who do not apprehend the reality and do not think correctly. Thus, it is their own difficulty that as a result of enmity with the truth, they have brought forth such a situation for themselves, and Allah (s.w.t.) has turned away their hearts because of their own deeds. The verse says

.Then they turn away... “

.Allah has turned away their hearts because they are a people who do not understand ”

As if the hypocrites do not take any admonishment from the holy verses of the Qur’ān. They are, for example, like a consumed lamp that whatever it be contacted to .electricity it does not work

١٢٨- لَقَدْ جَاءَكُمْ رَسُولٌ مِنْ أَنْفُسِكُمْ عَزِيزٌ عَلَيْهِ مَا عَنِتُّمْ

حَرِيصٌ عَلَيْكُمْ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ رَؤُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ

There has indeed come to you a messenger from among yourselves. Grievous to “ ١٢٨. him is whatever afflicts you; he is full of concern for you (your guidance), and most ” .kind and merciful to the believers

Commentary: verse ١٢٨

These holy verses are very important from the point of sympathy, because they .(express several significant specialties concerning the holy Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h

In the first verse, which addresses all Muslims, the Qur’ān refers to four attractive .epithets of the Prophet of Islam

It says that this Prophet is from among yourselves. He is not of the kind of angels, .١ but he is of your kind and, like you, he eats, sleeps, and lives. He is not a prince or a person born in a wealthy family who can not perceive your toils and pains. He is from among you and has grown up in the same lanes and quarters where you have familiar .intercourse

Whatever afflicts you is grievous to him, too. That is, the hardships and afflictions .٢ that reach you, he takes them upon him, and he knows your sadness as his own sadness. Therefore, he becomes offended when you are annoyed, because he thinks .of you as ones from himself and vice versa

He is found of you and he is compassionate to you. He desires that you obtain the .٣ felicity of both this world and the next, so that whatever goodness exists becomes .yours. He is desirous for your success and happiness

He is very kind and merciful to the believers, and loves those believers who have .۴
.truly embraced his religion

As it was said in the above, these epithets are all attractive and move the feelings.
They inform of the deep relation and immense attachment of the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) toward his community, (ummah

Thus, as the Qur'ān denotes, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is the best example for you, then Muslims must have the same relations and attachments among themselves and think
.of themselves as the share of the sorrows and happinesses of each other

It should be noted that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) has been introduced in this verse as a ' kind and merciful ' messenger. These two epithets are among the attributes of Allah, with a difference that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is ' kind and merciful ' to the believers, while Allah is kind and merciful to all human beings. The Qur'ān says: " ... verily Allah is (to mankind Most Affectionate, Most Merciful. " (Sura Al-Baqarah, No.۲, verse ۱۴۳

Allah has based the foundation of creation on kindness and mery, and, originally, He is kind to all mankind. The evidence of this meaning is the vast possibilities which He has bestowed upon His servants in order that they, enjoying the present bounties, pave the path of Allah and follow the religion of prophets. But, if a person turns away from Allah and His prophets, in fact he has turned away himself from the vast mercy of Allah. But, from the very beginning, the kindness and mercy of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) have been attached to the believers, and he who is not in the straight way does not .accept it from the very beginning

****

١٢٩- فَإِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَقُلْ حَسْبِيَ اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ عَلَيْهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ

وَهُوَ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيمِ

So if they turn away, say: ‘ Allah is sufficient for me. There is no god but He. In “ ١٢٩ .
” .Him I have put my trust and He is the Lord of the great ‘Arsh

Commentary: verse ١٢٩

The Lord Who controls the great system of existence, can hold man, a little creature,
.under His Own compassions, too

People’s arrogance and desistance must not affect your Faith and spiritualities,
.because whoever is with Allah has everything

It is recited in the supplication of ‘Arafah that Imam Hussayn (a.s), addressing Allah, says: “ O’ Lord! He who did find You, what did he miss, and he who is in lack of You,
” ?what does he have

Therefore, the secret of solving problems is confidence in Allah. In this verse, Allah :(says to His Prophet (p.b.u.h

So if they turn away, say: ‘ Allah is sufficient for me. There is no god but He. In Him I “
” .have put my trust and He is the Lord of the great ‘Arsh

The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said these phrases from the depth of his heart (soul). It was by this high spirit that he conquered the highest peaks of dignity, and possessed the .greatest rank that a godly human being can ever obtain Allah has not enjoined alms-tax save for the rest of “ – your properties to become pure for you ...” p. ۳۹۱

Allah has enjoined Alms in the wealth of the rich “ – Muslims as much as to sufficient the poor. Verily Allah will severely reckon and punish them if they do not fulfil thir duty.” P. ۳۹۲

No group of people restrain the poor-rate but “ – Allah restrains the rain from them.” P. ۴۴۸

Whoever spends in charity (the poor-rate), there “ – will be (appointed) for him from the bliss of Heaven

Verses of the Quran and traditions

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ قَدْ جَاءَكُمْ بُرْهَانٌ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ وَأَنْزَلْنَا إِلَيْكُمْ نُورًا

مُبِينًا (سوره نساء ۴ آیه ۱۷۴)

O' mankind! Verily there has come to you a convincing proof (the Messenger and the " Qur'ān) from your Lord: for We have sent unto you a light (that is) manifest." (Holy Qur'ān ۴: ۱۷۴)

إِنَّا نَحْنُ نَزَّلْنَا الذِّكْرَ وَإِنَّا لَهُ لَحَافِظُونَ (سوره الحجر ۱۵ آیه ۹)

We have, without doubt, sent down the Message and We will assuredly Guard it " ((from corruption))." (Holy Qur'ān ۱۵: ۹)

وَمَنْ أَعْرَضَ عَن ذِكْرِي فَإِنَّ لَهُ مَعِيشَةً ضَنْكًا وَنَحْشُرُهُ يَوْمَ

الْقِيَامَةِ أَعْمَى (سوره طه ۰۲ آیه ۱۲۴)

But whosoever turns away from My Message (the Qur'ān), verily for him is a " straitened toilsome life, and We shall raise him up blind on the Day of Judgement." ((Holy Qur'ān ۲۰: ۱۲۴)

وَأَنْزَلْنَا مِنَ الْقُرْآنِ مَا هُوَ شِفَاءٌ وَرَحْمَةٌ لِّلْمُؤْمِنِينَ (سوره اسراء ۱۷ آیه ۸۲)

And We send down (stage by stage) of the Qur'ān that which is a healing and a " (mercy to those who believe..." , (Holy Qur'ān ۱۷: ۸۲)

In 'Ikmāl-ud-Din' a tradition, through 'Jābir-il-Ju'fī', is narrated from 'Jābir-ibn-'Abdillāh' thus: "I said: 'O Messenger of Allah, we have known Allah and His Apostle; then who is 'Ulul-Amr', those that Allah has made their obedience the same as your obedience?' Then, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: 'O Jābir! they are, after me, my successors and the Guides) of Muslims; the first of them is Ali-ibn-Abitalib; then (Imam) Hassan, and (Imam) Husain; then Ali-ibn-il-Husain; then Mohammad-ibn- Ali; known) in the Turah as Bāqir, whom you will see. O Jābir! When you visit him, give my regards to him. After him, there is Sādiq, Ja`far-ibn-Muhammad; and ;after him Mūsa-ibn-Ja`far; then Ali-ibn-Mūsā; then Muḥammad-ibn-Ali (then Ali-ibn-Muhammad, then Hassan-ibn-Ali; and after him (there comes Al-Ghā'im whose name and sir-name is the same as mine. He is Allah's Authority on the Earth and His Remainder amongst His servants. He is the son of (Imam) Hassan-ibn-Ali (al-'Askarī). Introduction

This book contains the English translation of the verses and commentary of three Suras of the Holy Qur'ān: Yūnus, Hūd, and Yūsuf. They consist of nearly parts eleven and twelve, out of thirty parts, of the Qur'ān

There has occurred a delay in the translation, publication, and distribution of this book, No. ۷, which fortunately has been removed, and the current book is available for you after the publication of book No. ۶. By the help of Allah, book No. ۸, will also be offered you soon, so that the gap between books No. ۶ and ۷ might be auspiciously filled, Allah willing

It is noteworthy to be mentioned here that the main introductory of this endeavour has been explained in details at the beginning of the first part of the commentary of the Qur'ān. Those dear readers who desire to know more about the source of the commentary of the Qur'ān and be familiar with some essential data towards the aim of this holy effort, may refer to it. It must be helpful along the way of studying this book, too

As usual, again and again we ask Allah, the Exalted, that He helps us, as ever before, and assists us to complete this sacred endeavour successfully

May He (s.w.t.) guide and assist all of us by the light of the Qur'ān to pave its Straight Path further and further, for we are always in need of His favours

(Revealed in Mecca)

(verses in ۱۱ sections ۱۰۹)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

.In The Name of Allah, The Beneficent, The Merciful

The Contents of Sura Yūnus

(No.۱۰ (۱۰۹ Verses

Sura Yūnus is the tenth Sura of the Holy Qur'ān which was revealed during the early days of the Prophet's appointment in Mecca. This Sura contains ۱۰۹ verses, and its main topics are about monotheism, the authenticity of the Qur'ān, answers to those who deny revelation, inspiring fear in the unbelievers, exposing the glory and magnitude of the act of creation and of the Creator, the lack of permanence of the world as well as calling the attentions of all peoples to the world after death

The former Sura, that is "Repentance", dealt with the acts of the hypocrites as well as their punishment, while this Sura refers to the acts of polytheists

As to the rewards accounted for reciting and reading this Sura, there have been cited some traditions among which is the tradition narrated by Imam Şādiq (a.s.) who said: He who recites Sura Yūnus every two or three months may not be of the ignorant and will be of the near-stationed on the Day of Resurrection. \(۱\)

”Alif ‘A’, Lām ‘L’, Rā ‘R’. These are the verses of the Book of Wisdom “ .۱

Commentary: verse ۱

It is noteworthy that six consecutive suras of the Qur'ān begin with abbreviated letters which are recited: Alif, Lām, Rā. These Suras are: Yūnus, Hūd, Yūsuf, Ar-Ra‘d (with an exception, of course), 'Ibrāhīm, and Al-Hijr. Each of these letters is an indication to the Names of Allah or to some other

.things which have been explained at the beginning of Sura Al-Baqarah

.The Arabic word /tilka/ refers to the verses that are found in this Sura

The objective meaning of the Qur'ānic phrase /al kitāb il ḥakīm/ is the “Protected Tablet” or the Qur'ān. Since it contains wisdom and teaches by means of wisdom, it is therefore Wise

In other words; the Qur'ān has a high rank, because the Holy Book itself is Wise. Simultaneously, while it contains both teachings of wisdom and is wise in content, it is a judge and an arbitrator as well. It remains intact from hostile elements and history .”and the passage of time can leave no impact upon it. It is “the Book of Wisdom

Commentary: verse ٢

The verses of wisdom of the Qur’ān are composed of the same letters and sounds that are just like Alif, Lam, and Rā. Their differences with other statements lie in the fact that they are intermingled with divine wisdom, the sort of which is so encompassing that it exposes the truth, and drags mankind to guidance, but the people do not believe this fact that a man, selected from among themselves, can receive revelations from Allah. This matter is not surprising, since the aim of revelation is to warn the people and give glad tidings to the believers notifying them of the high esteem in which they are being held with their Creator. If they believe :firmly in Him, He guides them and rewards them accordingly(١)! The verse says

Was it a wonder to the people that We revealed to a man from among themselves“ that he should warn

The idolaters, however, said that “this man” (meaning the Prophet (p.b.u.h.)), must have obviously been a sorcerer and a magician since he brought something that could :not be brought by others. The verse continues saying

”!While) the unbelievers say: ‘This is indeed an evident sorcerer) ...“

The disbelievers considered prophecy as sorcery and, because of their short sightedness, dark heartedness, and lack of understanding, they could mostly not grasp the truth and distinguish the difference between miracles and the work of
.magicians

Commentary: verse ٣

.The objective meaning of ‘Six Days’ is six periods of time in the course of creation

The ‘throne’ (‘arsh) alludes to power and omnipotence. When one says someone was enthroned or overthrown, he implies that he was elevated in power or stripped of his power. Allah’s comprehensive authority extends all over existence both before the creation of the earth and the heavens and after their creation. The Qur’ān says: “And (His ‘Arsh (throne) was over the water.”\(١\)

Even next to the end of the world and during the Resurrection, Allah’s omnipotence over all existence will remain intact, too. The Qur’ān says: “... and above them eight (shall bear on that Day your Lord’s ‘Arsh (throne).”\(٢\)

Sura Hūd, No. ١١, verse ٧-١

Sura Al-Ḥāqqah, No. ٦٩, verse ١٧-٢

.Acquiring knowledge about Allah (s.w.t.) should precede worshipping Him .1

Worship must be kept exclusively for Him Who has the power to create and .2
.administer all the affairs of creation and to no one else

The creation of the world has been accomplished according to a plan and an .3 arranged program, (in six days). When there are pre-ordaining plans for all beings in the system of creation, how can one think of human beings, who are the outstanding achievements of the creative process, to be without any planned destiny? The verse
:says

Verily, your Lord is Allah, Who created the heavens and the Earth in six Days. Then“
”... .He established Himself on ‘Arsh (the Throne), directing the affair

Allah has created the entire existence and is in full command, administering it with .4
.wisdom while leaving no one in charge of any part without His prior approval

Any effort at mediation by any being must meet with His approval. Thus one, such .5
:as idols, cannot be unduly appointed as an intercessor. The verse says

”... .No intercessor can there be except after (obtaining) His leave ...“

Extremists might try to introduce the Creator as Allah, nevertheless they consider .6 themselves as competent policy-makers and able to separate religion from politics. It
:says

”...:This is Allah your Lord; Him therefore worship you...“

.Man believes in his Creator. He only needs to be reminded

:The verse concludes

”?will you not remember ...“

.Deity is not separate from Lordship .7

(٤) إِلَيْهِ مَرْجِعُكُمْ جَمِيعًا وَعَدَّ اللَّهُ حَقًّا إِنَّهُ يَبْدَأُ الْخَلْقَ ثُمَّ يُعِيدُهُ لِيَجْزِيَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ بِالْقِسْطِ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَهُمْ شَرَابٌ مِنْ حَمِيمٍ وَعَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ بِمَا كَانُوا يَكْفُرُونَ

To Him will be your return, all together. The promise of Allah is true. Verily He “ ٤ . originates the (process of) creation, then He causes it to return, that He may reward with justice those who believe and do righteous deeds; but those who disbelieve, for them shall be a drink from the boiling fluids and a painful chastisement for what they used to reject

Commentary: verse ٤

This verse puts forth both the principle of Resurrection (to Him will be your return), and its probability, (...He originates the (process of) creation, then He causes it to return,...). This meaning is just like verse ١٩ of Sura Al-'A'rāf, No. ٧ which states: “... As He brought you forth in the beginning, so shall you return.” And it also refers to the aim of Resurrection which involves punishment and reward. The verse continues saying that He may reward with justice those who believe and do righteous deeds; but ... “ those who disbelieve, for them shall be a drink from the boiling fluids and a painful chastisement for what they used to reject

Therefore, those who are believers and have done good deeds will be rewarded in a just manner, leading them to Paradise. The share of the unbelievers will be a burning liquid made of boiling water that will torture them painfully and they will be kept in Hell forever

He it is Who made the sun a radiation and the moon a light, and determined it by“ ٥ stations, that you might know the number of years and the reckoning (of time). Allah did not create that save in truth. (Thus) does He explain the Signs in detail, for a ”.people who know

Commentary: verse ٥

There are words used in the Qur’ān for the sun, such as /sirāj/ and /dīyā’/, which signify a strong and intensive light. As for the moon, the words used are /nūr/ and /munīr/ which signify even dim light as well

From among the tokens of Allah’s designs in the world of existence and His absolute command over the universe, one can name the wise order spread throughout the entire cosmos. Do you not behold what a heat and what a light He has given to the sun? They change with the changes of the sun in the morning and during the day, and manifest themselves in the variety of the seasons of the year. It varies at dawn and midday, not exceeding the limits at any extreme. If the sun’s heat exceeds what it already is, all the earth would be incinerated, and if it decreases from its present temperature, the earth and what ever is in it will freeze, and in both cases, life will terminate in its totality. If the light of the sun was extinguished you would no longer be able to see the moon for it borrows its light from the sun. It spreads its light at nighttime over the earth, residing temporarily in its different stages: as the full moon, as a crescent and occasionally disappearing altogether. Through observing the regularity of these changes mankind can keep track of their days, months and years, organize their work and make plans with a schedule. That is, it is an accurate natural calendar that can benefit both the sage and the illiterate for keeping track of the rhythm of their work in their daily-lives. This privilege of the moon is besides the light :that it gives us. The verse says

He it is Who made the sun a radiation and the moon a light, and determined it by“ ”... .(stations, that you might know the number of years and the reckoning (of time

Then the Qur’ān implies that this process of creation and the revolution and rotation of the sun and the moon are not to be dismissed as trivial matters. The verse
:continues saying

”... .Allah did not create that save in truth ...“

The cloud and the wind, the moon and the sun move in the sky that you may earn
.your bread, and you should not eat it without being aware of your Provider

At the end of the verse, the Qur’ān emphasizes that Allah explains His verses for those who comprehend them although those who are ill-sighted and unaware :overlook all these verses, not understanding the slightest thing from them. It says

”.Thus) does He explain the Signs in detail, for a people who know) ...“

(٤) إِنَّ فِي اخْتِلَافِ اللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ وَمَا خَلَقَ اللَّهُ فِي السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ لآيَاتٍ لِقَوْمٍ يَتَّقُونَ

Verily, in the alternation of night and day, and all that Allah has created in the “ .٤
”heavens and the earth, surely there are signs for a people who keep from evil

Commentary: verse ٤

Allah has designed the universe in keeping with His Own magnificence and wisdom, the cycle of night and day, the overarching heavens, the fixed and moving stars, the animals, plants, inanimate objects, and all the rest of provisions and bounties provided in the earth are proofs and evidences upon His Oneness and Glory for those people who avoid committing sins and disobeying Allah for the fear of His punishment. The fact that He only mentions the pious as those who reflect upon His Signs is an indication that it is only such people who take lessons by observing the worldly phenomena. The rest of mankind are blinded by their own negligence and ignorance; no phenomenon can affect on their hearts; thus, they cannot grasp the objectives of .creation

Incidentally, the word ‘alternation’ /ixtilāf/, mentioned in the holy verse, signifies coming and going as well as variation. Thus the night and the day are different in :some respects

:A. They alternatively substitute for each other. Allah says

The sign of the night have We made to pass away and have We the sign of the ... “ (day manifest, ...” (١)

p: ٢٧

B. Night is pre-ordained for tranquility and the day for the hustle and bustle of :struggle. Allah says

And We made the night as a covering,” “And We made the day for (seeking)“ (livelihood.”(1)

C. The decrease and increase in the number of daylight hours in the different seasons
.of the year

D. The change in the hours of the day and the night in various regions of the world.
:The verse says

Verily, in the alternation of night and day, and all that Allah has created in the “
”.heavens and the earth, surely there are signs for a people who keep from evil

?Question: Why is it that some scientists are atheists

Answer: In itself, science is not sufficient. The approach to truth must stem from intentional and purposeful people and the motive must originate from those who honestly seek the truth and reality. Thus sins and pollutions from sin leave a negative .impact upon one’s analysis and cognition

Sura Naba’, No. ۷۸, verses ۱۰, ۱۱ –۱

(٧) إِنَّ الَّذِينَ لَا يَرْجُونَ لِقَاءَنَا وَرَضُوا بِالْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَاطْمَأَنَّنُوا بِهَا وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ عَنْ آيَاتِنَا غَافِلُونَ

(٨) أُولَئِكَ مَأْوَاهُمُ النَّارُ بِمَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ

Verily those who do not expect the meeting with Us, but are pleased with the life of “ .٧
”,this world and are satisfied with it, and those who are neglectful of Our Signs

” .٨ .These! Their abode is the Fire for what they used to earn “

Commentary: verses ٧–٨

From this verse on, there is also a description concerning the Resurrection and the .destiny of people in the Hereafter

:At first, the verse says

Verily those who do not expect on the meeting with Us, but are pleased with the life“
”... ,of this world and are satisfied with it

Then it refers to those who are neglectful of the revelations of Allah and do not meditate upon them so as to be thoroughly awakened and feel responsibility. The
:verse continues saying

”,and those who are neglectful of Our Signs ...“

Both of these two groups will have their abode in the Fire for the evil actions they :have committed. The verse says

”.Their abode is the Fire for what they used to earn “

The Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) said: “He who loves meeting Allah, Allah also loves (meeting him.” (١)

In fact, the direct result of the lack of belief in the Resurrection is this very love unto
.this limited life, of worldly position and a confidence and reliance upon it

Also, negligence from the revelations of Allah, is the origin of separation from Allah which in turn is the origin of the lack of sympathy and, consequently, falling into .pollution, mischief, and sin whose ultimate result cannot be aught but Fire Verily those who believe and do righteous deeds, their Lord will guide them by “ ٩ .

” .their Faith: beneath them rivers flow in gardens of bliss

Commentary: verse ٩

Then the Qur’ān refers to the state of another group who behave opposite of the two .groups mentioned before

:The holy verse says

Verily those who believe and do righteous deeds, their Lord will guide them by their “ ”... :Faith

This beam of light of Divine guidance which has its origins in their faith enlightens every aspect within the entire horizons of their lives. They are so enlightened by that light that they will never submit themselves to the falsity of the materialist schools, satanic fancies or the false glamour associated with sin, wealth and power, and they .never pave the path of astray

As for the Hereafter, the Creator (s.w.t.) establishes them in palaces and Gardens
:underneath which Rivers flow. The verse continues saying

” .beneath them rivers flow in gardens of bliss... “

Their cry therein (will be): ‘Glory be to You, O Allah!’ and ‘Peace’ will be their “ .١٠ greeting therein. And the close of their cry (will be): ‘(All) praise is (only) Allah’s, the ”.’Lord of the Worlds

Commentary: verse ١٠

The faithful will lead their lives in an environment full of peace, kindness, love unto the Lord, and blessings of various kinds. Whenever they contemplate these things and reflect upon His Essence and qualities, in their speech and prayers in Paradise they :will invoke their Lord, and as the verse says

”...’!Their cry therein (will be): ‘Glory be to You, O Allah“

And whenever they encounter each other, their talk will be of peace and friendliness. :Their greetings are exclusively /salām/. The verse continues saying

”... and ‘Peace’ will be their greeting therein ...“

And finally, whenever they enjoy the various blessings of Allah in Paradise, they will :start thanking Him, and end their words with gratitude. The verse says

And the close of their cry (will be): ‘(All) praise is (only) Allah’s, the Lord of the...“ ”.’Worlds

:Explanations

Peace” is the word uttered by the people in Paradise and the atmosphere of Paradise “ is filled with /salām/ (peace). It comes from different sources, such as from Allah: “ Peace: a word from a Merciful Lord”\(۱\), and which comes from the angels saying: “Peace be upon you, you shall be happy;”\(۲\). It also is uttered by all those who reside in Paradise.

“Only the saying: ‘Peace, Peace’.”\(۳\)

.The holy phrase “(All) praise is (only) Allah’s” is the saying of the prophets and saints

Haḍrat Noah (a.s.), after being released from the unjust people uttered these words, and ʾIbrāhīm (a.s.) also, saying them, thanked Allah in his old age for He had bestowed .him Ishmael and Ishāq

Some Islamic tradition indicate that the People of Paradise, by uttering /subhaanaka ʾallahumma/ will call up the hosts of Paradise, who in turn show up immediately and (fulfill their wishes. (Manhaj-uṣ-Ṣādiqīn, the Commentary

Sura Yāseen, No. ۳۶, verse ۵۸ –۱

Sura Az-Zumae, No. ۳۹, verse ۷۳ –۲

Sura Al-Wāqi‘ah, No. ۵۶, verse ۲۶ –۳

Point

Reason for the respite given – Man prays for help when in difficulty but forgets Allah immediately as he is relieved – Men were one single people but later they disagreed and got separated in tribes, and communities and nations

(۱۱) وَلَوْ يُعَجِّلُ اللَّهُ لِلنَّاسِ الشَّرَّ اسْتِعْجَالَهُمْ بِالْخَيْرِ لَقُضِيَ إِلَيْهِمْ أَجْلُهُمْ فَنَذَرُ الَّذِينَ لَا يَرْجُونَ لِقَاءَنَا فِي طُغْيَانِهِمْ يَعْمَهُونَ

Commentary: verse ۱۱

This verse also deals with the subject of punishment and reward meted out to the evildoers. First, the Qur’ān implies if Allah punished the evil-doers swiftly in this world and hastened on their punishment at the same speed in which they are after the good things of this world and their own interests, that would be the end of the world and no :traces of them would remain. The verse says

And if Allah were to hasten on for men the ill (they have earned) as they would “ ”... .hasten on the good, Surely their term would already be decreed unto them

However, as Allah’s grace encompasses all His servants, even the evildoers, idol worshippers, and non-believers, He does not hasten on their punishment lest they wake-up and repent and be lead

.straight

At the end of the verse, He says that punishment is for those who do not believe in the Resurrection and the Meeting with Him; they are left alone so that they may stray and remain in confusion, not knowing the truth from “untruth” and the right path from the :wrong. The verse says

But We leave those who do not expect the meeting with Us, in their contumacy, ... “

And when an affliction touches a man, he calls Us (while reclining) on his side, or “ .١٢ sitting, or standing. But when We remove from him his affliction, he passes on, as if he never called Us to an affliction that touched him. Thus is made fair seeming to the ”.extravagant that which they have been doing

Commentary: verse ١٢

Then the Qur’ān refers to the existence of the light of monotheism in man, which emanates from the depth of his soul. It indicates that when man suffers from the loss of something, and he is helpless on all sides, he seeks Allah’s help by stretching his hands towards Him, calling Him in whatever state he is whether lying on his side, :sitting or standing. The verse says

And when an affliction touches a man, he calls Us (while reclining) on his side, or “ ... sitting, or standing

Yes, the positive aspect of the difficulties and painful incidents is that they unveil the true character of human beings and, though it may last merely for a while, the light of .monotheism eventually shines forth

Then the Qur’ān implies that these people, however, are so in capacious and unwise that as soon as their troubles are removed they once more become so immersed in oblivion that it is as if they had made no supplications at all, and He had not given :them any assistance. The verse says

But when We remove from him his affliction, he passes on, as if he never called Us ...“ to an affliction that touched him. Thus is made fair seeming to the extravagant that ”.which they have been doing

It is this very ingratitude and negligence that has made the indecent acts of the .mischief makers seemingly beautiful for them

And certainly We destroyed the generations before you when they were unjust, “ ١٣ and their messengers came to them with clear arguments and they would not believe. ”.Thus do We recompense the guilty people

Commentary: verse ١٣

In this holy verse, Allah informs us of the calamities which were inflicted upon previous nations and warns the present nations against the descent of those .calamities which may fall upon them

The Qur’ān announces that Allah exterminated former nations by means of kinds of punishment when they inflicted injustice upon themselves by revolting, becoming disobedient, and after sending prophets to them with obvious miracles and clear :proofs. The verse says

And certainly We destroyed the generations before you when they were unjust, and “ ... their messengers came to them with clear arguments and they would not believe

This verse carries this message that the secret of their eradication was that if they had been to remain existent, they definitely would not have believed in their prophets .and the Books. Which were sent to them

In the future, too, Allah will inflict calamities upon those unbelieving people who do not reform themselves in spite of offering them proofs for completing arguments, and with the full understanding that they are well-informed as to the consequences and :that they will not believe. The verse continues saying

” .Thus do We recompense the guilty people ...“

(١٤) ثُمَّ جَعَلْنَاكُمْ خَلَائِفَ فِي الْأَرْضِ مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ لِنَنْظُرَ كَيْفَ تَعْمَلُونَ

”Then We made you successors in the earth after them to see how you behave “ .١٤

Commentary: verse ١٤

Allah expresses more explicitly the matter in this verse, implying that, after destroying them, He substituted you on the earth in their place so that He may observe the way you behave. The verse says

”Then We made you successors in the earth after them to see how you behave “

From the sentence “and they would not believe:”, mentioned in the previous verse, it is understood that Allah exterminates only those whose situation leaves no hope that they will even be probable believers in the future, for those who may become believers in the future are not involved in this category for such punishments

:The Occasion of the Revelation

This holy verse and the next two verses had been revealed concerning several idol-worshippers when they came to the Prophet (p.b.u.h) and said: “Whatever this Qur’ān says about abandoning the worship of our great idols namely Lāt, Uzzā, Manāt, Hubal and its disrespect of them is not acceptable and bearable to us. If you want us to follow you, get us another Qur’ān which is free of this criticism, or, at least change
”.such ideas in this present Qur’ān

Commentary: verse ١٥

These holy verses, following the previous verses, are all concerned with ‘Origin and
.’End

:First, The Qur’ān alludes to one of the great mistakes of the idol-worshippers. It says

And when Our Clear Signs are recited unto them, those who do not expect the “ ”... ’.meeting with Us, say: ‘Bring us a Qur’ān other than this, or alter it

These ignorant people did not want the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to guide them as a leader; they rather invited him to follow in the footsteps of their own superstitious
.conjectures

The Qur’ān explicitly enlightens them regarding their grave mistake, ordering the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to tell them that it is impossible for him to alter the Divine revelation
:by himself. The verse says

”... ,Say: ‘It is not for me to alter it of my own accord ...“

Then, to articulate further, he should add that he would only follow what was revealed to him, and that not only he could not make any alterations in that heavenly Revelation, but, also he feared the punishment of that Great Day (Resurrection) if he .would disobey the Command of the Lord

Commentary: verse ١٦

In this verse the Qur’ān brings a reason for the Divine order by commanding the Prophet to say that his ideas do not have the slightest role in this Holy Book, and had Allah wanted, he would not have read the Qur’ān to them and they would not have :been made aware of it. The verse says

Say: ‘Had Allah so willed, I would not have recited it to you, nor would He have taught “ ”... it to you

I have lived among you a long time before this. It provides reason for what I claim, for you have never heard me saying such things before. If the verses had come from me, you should have heard me saying them during the past forty years as they would have been at the tip of my tongue, or at least parts of it might have been heard by someone in the past. How can you not notice such an obvious matter? The verse :continues saying

Commentary: verse ١٧

In order to emphasize the point, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) adds that, being well aware that the worst kind of evil is that someone falsely attributes a lie to Allah, how could he
:then commit such a sin on the earth? The verse says

?Who is then more unjust than he who forges a lie against Allah, or belies His Signs“
” ...

And he who denies the Divine verses, his action is also the most cruel and unjust of all actions. If the unbelievers are unaware of the scope and volume of the severity and greatness of the sin of forging a lie to the Divine verses, the Prophet, on the contrary, is not so unaware. At any event, this action of theirs is a grave offence and those who
:perpetrate it will never be saved. The verse says

”Verily the guilty ones will never prosper...”

High be He exalted ”.(above what they associate (with Him

Commentary: verse ١٨

The issue of monotheism is also continued in this verse by negating the claim that these idols are associated with divinity, and it has been proved as groundless by offering clear reasons. They used to worship icons and idols which neither did any harm to them nor any good. They were neither feared by the idol worshippers nor did the idols provide them with any profit so that they were worshipped for gaining :benefit thereof. The verse says

”... ,And they worship, besides Allah, what can neither hurt them nor profit them “

The Qur’ān deals with the groundless and unfounded claims of the idol worshippers when it implies that they claim that these idols serve as mediators between them and :Allah which was one of the motives for worshipping them. The verse says

”...’ .and they say: ‘These are our intercessors with Allah... “

The Qur'ān, in response to such a way of thinking, tells the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to ask them a question, as follows

Say: 'Will you inform Allah of what He knows not either in the heavens or in the earth...?'

Allusion is here made to the fact that if the Almighty had such mediators who would protect them, and wherever on the earth or in the skies they might have existed, He would have been well aware of their existence

At the end of the verse it stresses emphatically on the fact that Allah is pure and superior to those partners whom they envisage for Him. The verse says “(Glory be to Him! High be He exalted above what they associate (with Him)...”

(١٩) وَمَا كَانَ النَّاسُ

إِلَّا أُمَّةً وَاحِدَةً فَاخْتَلَفُوا وَلَوْلَا كَلِمَةٌ سَبَقَتْ مِنْ رَبِّكَ

لَقُضِيَ بَيْنَهُمْ فِيمَا فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ

And mankind were only one community, then they differed, and had not a Word “ ١٩ . already gone forth from your Lord, their differences would have been judged ”.between them

Commentary: verse ١٩

This verse refers to the monotheistic nature of all human beings, alluding in part to the previous verse in connection with negating unbelief and idol worshipping. It implies that in the beginning, all human beings were of a single nation, and, with no exception, all were monotheists. The verse says

”... ,And mankind were only one community “

This monotheistic nature, that was untouched at the beginning, because of shortsightedness and some satanic attitudes, underwent changes. With the passage of time, some went astray from the monotheistic path and became the adherents of polytheism. Thus the human society spitted into two groups: Monotheists and :Polytheists. The verse continues saying

”... ,then they differed...”

Therefore, polytheism is in fact a deviation from what is innate in human nature, and .its roots lie in some baseless ideas and conjectures

One might raise the issue at this point as to why the Almighty does not hasten to ?eradicate the origin of such differences by the speedy punishment of the polytheists

The Qur'ān immediately gives an answer to this question implying that if Allah's command in regard to the absence of their speedy punishment had not been already issued, arbitration would have been administered and their differences would have :been judged, then all of them would meet their painful fate. The verse says and had not a Word already gone forth from your Lord, their differences would ... “ ”.have been judged between them

And they say: ‘Why is not a Sign sent down to him from his Lord?’ Say then: ‘Verily “ ٢٠ . the Unseen is only for Allah (to know). Wait you then, verily I, also with you, will be of ”.’those who wait

Commentary: verse ٢٠

Once again, the Qur’ān deals with the pretexts of the polytheists for evading belief and faith in Islam. It indicates that the disbelievers complain about a miracle not being :sent down from Allah to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). The verse in this regard says

”... ”?And they say: ‘Why is not a Sign sent down to him from his Lord “

They meant, of course, that any time they demanded a miracle they desired, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) should have acted immediately and accordingly (١) to fulfill their demands. It was forthwith revealed to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) that the invisible world and supernatural affairs, (miracles relating to the invisible and metaphysical world), :belong to Allah alone. The verse says

”... (Say then: ‘Verily the Unseen is only for Allah (to know ... “

Some commentators state that Allah is aware of the world of Unseen and whatever –١ stands in the way of divine miracles to be sent down is itself invisible, none is aware .but Allah

Therefore the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) should tell them he could not perform miracles according to their wishes, which they would later deny and which would not convince them to become believers. In the final analysis, they refrained from believing .regardless of the pretext

At the end of the verse, from his tongue, the Qur'ān, in a threatening tone implies that if they did not stop being obstinate, they should expect divine punishment whilst, on :the other hand, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) should expect victory. The verse says

”Wait you then, verily I, also with you, will be of those who wait ...“

And when We make mankind taste of (Our) mercy after adversity hath touched “ ۲۱. them, behold! they have a device concerning Our Signs! Say: ‘Allah is quicker at devising. Verily, Our messengers record what you devise’.”

Commentary: verse ۲۱

The previous verse alluded to the pretexts of those who used to ask why no new signs were revealed. Here Allah refers to their obstinacy and to the fact that they played dirty tricks after a new verse was revealed instead of appreciating it

:The verse says

And when We make mankind taste of (Our) mercy after adversity hath touched “ ... !them, behold! they have a device concerning Our Signs

As for the occasion of revelation of this verse, it has been said that there occurred a drought and famine in Mecca. The Almighty (s.w.t.) made it rain for the blessing of His Prophet (p.b.u.h.). The polytheists claimed, however, that the reason for the rain was because of the idols. (The commentary of Aṣ-Ṣāfi, Fī-Ḍalāl-il-Qurʿān (and Fakhr-i-Rāzī

One of the measures and tricky devices employed by his enemies was character assassination of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), ridiculing the divine verses, and degrading the blessings of Allah. At any rate, man misuses God-given blessings and makes mischief instead of giving thanks and we must know that he who plays dirty tricks, will ultimately be involved with the device and the punishment of Allah. The verse says

”... Say: ‘Allah is quicker at devising ...‘

Then, He warns them not to think that such conspiracies and plans will be forgotten. His messengers, (that is, His angels responsible for recording human actions) will take note of all those plans which disbelievers arrange for extinguishing the light of the truth. And they must prepare themselves for the Judgment and the punishment in the world here-after. The verse says

”’Verily, Our messengers record what you devise ...‘

Commentary: verse ٢٢

In this verse the Qur’ān appeals to the depths of human nature, explaining to them the monotheism which is embedded in their very being, describing to them how man .once in great difficulty and danger, tends to forget everything but Allah

First, He says that He is the One Who enables you to traverse through the land and the sea. And, when you go on board a ship, He makes you eventually get, you and your ship, to your destination with the help of the appropriate winds that gladden every heart. Then when a horrible thunderstorm blows and waves buffet them from all sides, it makes them realize that death is near, and they lose their hopes of :survival. The verse says

He it is Who enables you to traverse through land and sea; so that you are in the “ships, and they sail with them with a favourable wind, and they rejoice thereat. Then there comes upon them a stormy wind and the waves come on them from all sides,
”... ,and they think that they are encompassed therewith

At just about that time, they are reminded of Allah and call upon Him sincerely, their thoughts stripped of all sorts of polytheism and idol worship. The verse continues
:saying

”... ,they call upon Allah, making their faith pure for Him ...“

They start praying at this time, saying that if Allah save them from this plight, they will thank Him while they shall neither oppress others nor turn to others for help save :Him. The verse says

”.’saying): ‘If You deliver us from this, we shall surely be of the grateful ones) ...“

Although this temporary awakening will often have no remarkable educational effect upon extraordinarily wicked people, yet He completes the process of reasoning to the .end to them, and it will serve as their eventual condemnation

In such incidents, those individuals, who are only slightly polluted, are usually

But when He delivers them, behold! They rebel in the earth unjustly. O mankind! “ ٢٣ .Your rebellion is against your own selves, an enjoyment of the life of this world

Commentary: verse ٢٣

But such neglectful people usually start bothering others and oppressing them on the earth, as soon as Allah saves them and leads them to safe shores. The verse says

”... .But when He delivers them, behold! They rebel in the earth unjustly “

Yet, the Qur’ān advises people to know that whatever oppression they commit and whatever sort of deviation they have made from the right path, they themselves will pay its price. The verse says

”... ,O mankind! Your rebellion is against your own selves ...“

The only thing that they may be able to do is to enjoy the life in this world for merely a few days, and finally their eventual return will be towards Allah. It is at that time that they shall be informed of whatever they did in the world. The verse says an enjoyment of the life of this world. Then to Us is your return, and We shall ... “

Thus do We explain the Signs in detail for a people who reflect

Commentary: verse ٢٤

In the foregoing verses allusion had been made to the lack of permanence in this worldly life. In this holy verse this grave reality is depicted with an interesting example so that He may remove the curtain of arrogance and negligence from the eyes of those who are neglectful and unjust. The verse says

The likeness of the life of this world is just as the water which We send down from “ ... ,the sky

These life-providing drops fall on cultivable soil, making it possible for various plants to grow, some of which are useful for man, and others that are useful for birds and beasts. The verse continues saying

”... ,and the plants of the earth mingle with it whereof men and cattle eat ...“

These plants, besides the nutritional qualities that they contain for living creatures, .cover the earth’s surface and decorate it so that the earth finds its utmost beauty in it

It is at this time that the blossoms decorate the branches and the flowers bloom. Nutritious grains and fruits show up gradually, dramatically depicting the full meaning of the scene of life, thus rendering people’s hearts hopeful and their eyes full of joy. This is done to the extent that people on the earth become certain that they can benefit from the blessings of the plants and fruits as well as from their life-inducing .grains till when the earth takes its ornament and is embellished, and its people imagine ... “

:The verse says

”... ,that they have power over it

All of a sudden, Allah’s command reaches them, ordering excessive cold, unexpected heavy rains or strong thunderstorms to overwhelm and eradicate them all as if they :never existed. The verse continues saying but suddenly) Our command reaches it by night or by day, and We make it) ...“

:Towards the end of the verse, in order to emphasize further, Allah declares

.Thus do We explain the Signs in detail for a people who reflect ...“

And Allah doth call mankind to the Abode of Peace and He guides whomever He “ .٢٥

Commentary: verse ٢٥

The Arabic appellation /dār-us-Salām/ is one of the names of Paradise within which nobody bears any grudge against another and where no quarrel, war, and exploitation takes place. The verse says

And Allah doth call mankind to the Abode of Peace and He guides whomever He “
”.Pleases unto the Straight path

The holy word “Peace” is Allah’s name, and “the Abode of Peace” signifies the proximity of the divine blessings. It is the place where everyone’s words and greetings consist of “peace”, and unto whom Allah also sends peace. The Qur’ān says:

“Peace: a word from a Merciful Lord.” (Yāsīn, verse ٥٨)

Some Islamic traditions indicate that the way leads to the mastership (wilāyat) of Amir-ul-Mu’mineen (a.s.) and the Immaculate Imams, has been stated as the best (example for the ‘Straight Path’. (Majma‘-ul-Bayān

We must note that the divine call is the symbol of His special favour towards His servants. It embodies the safe passage of man in this world and the Hereafter, the .first stage of which is transient while the second stage is permanent

Incidentally, the Straight Path is one which creates ‘peace’ for man not only in the .Hereafter, but also creates peace for him in this world

(٢٦) لِلَّذِينَ أَحْسَنُوا الْحُسْنَىٰ وَزِيَادَةٌ وَلَا يَرْهَقُ وُجُوهَهُمْ قَتَرٌ وَلَا ذِلَّةٌ أُولَٰئِكَ

For those who do good, is a goodly (reward), and more (than this). Neither dust “ ٢٦. nor abasement shall ever spread their faces. They are Companions of the Garden; ”.they will abide therein forever

Commentary: verse ٢٦

The Arabic term /rahiqa/ signifies covering by force and the word /qatar/ means ‘dust’, ‘smoke’ and ‘ashes’.

Bestowing incremental and extra rewards on the believers has repeatedly been mentioned in the Qur’ān by the words /ziyadah/, /zi’f/ and /’az’āf/. Among them are the following verses: “Whoever brings a good (deed), he shall have ten times its like, ...” (١) “... He will pay them their rewards fully and with bestow upon them more out of His Grace.” (٢) In addition to the complete reward, Allah also bestows upon them more for partaking of his own virtue, there is a seven hundred-fold reward for giving charity for Allah’s sake. “The likeness of those who spend their property in the way of Allah is as the likeness of a grain (of corn) that grows seven ears, (with) a hundred grains in every ear. And Allah multiplies (in abundance) for whom He wills; and Allah is All- (Embracing, All-Knowing.” (٣)

Commentary: verse ٢٧

And those who have committed evil acts and sins will be punished accordingly in proportion to their acts. They will be punished to the extent they deserve, not more, for punishment beyond that which a person deserves is something inequitable (which is far from the Divine Providence). On the other hand, the reward for good deeds exceeds what one deserves and it is good to emanate from Allah. Therefore, the objective meaning of the word “like”, in this verse, is nothing more and nothing less :than one’s due. The verse says

”... ;And those who have earned evil will have a reward of like evil “

The Qur’ānic phrase /wa tar haqahum ʔillah/ signifies that such sinners will be humiliated and become debased, for punishment is coupled with degradation. The :verse continues saying

”... and the dust of ignominy will cover them ...“

Then the verse implies that there are no guards and obstacles to hinder the :punishment of Allah from them. It says

”...:No defender will they have from (the wrath of) Allah ...“

The obscurity reflected on their faces would be to such an extent that one would imagine that parts of the darkness of the night had cast their shadow, one after .another, over them

:The verse says

At first, the Qur’ān warns all to remember the Day when Allah will assemble all His :subjects and make them rise from the dead. The verse says

”... ,And the Day We shall muster them all “

Then He will declare unto the polytheists to stay in their place together with their idols :so that He may examine their account. It continues saying then We shall say to those who associated others ...“

”... :(with Us)

The Qur’ān informs that Allah will separate these two groups from each other; i.e. the worshippers and the worshipped ones, and He will question each individual separately, as it is usual with all courts that they investigate each person separately.

:The verse says

Get you to your place! You and your associates’, then We shall set a space ‘ ...“
”... ,between them

Allah may ask the idol-worshippers why they worshipped idols along with Allah (s.w.t.), and He will also ask the idols why they permitted such an act to occur, that they allowed the polytheists to worship them

It is at this time that those things that were worshipped as idols will speak, saying to them that they never worshipped idols. In actual fact, they worshipped the creation of their own imaginations, whims and passions. The verse says

”!and their associates shall say: ‘It was not us (indeed) that you used to worship ...“

In the previous verse, those things worshipped were saying that the polytheists did

Consequently, whatever act of worship is performed without the knowledge of the Incidentally, there are numerous allusions made to the hatred and disavowal of those objects worshipped from the polytheists and their deeds in the Qur’ān, i.e., Sura Al-

Commentary: verse ٣٠

The Day of Resurrection is the day on which the worldly test results are received. The :verse says

”... ,There will every soul realize (the reward of) the deeds it sent aforetime “

.The true Lord is Allah and any other than Him, whatever it may be, is absurd

:The verse says

”... ,and they will be brought back to Allah, their true Lord ...“

The Resurrection pertains to all men. And the false effects of the worshipped will be :wiped out. The verse continues saying

.All existence has its origin in Him, and the final destination will be towards Him, too

Say: “Who provides you (sustenance) from the sky and from the earth? Or who “ ۳۱ possesses hearing and sight? And who brings forth the living from the dead and brings forth the dead from the living? And, who administrates (every) affair? They will ”?soon say: ‘Allah’. Then, say: ‘Will you not then keep from evil

There have been said same examples of Allah’s bringing forth the living from the dead and the dead from the living, among which one might cite the case of the human sperm leading to human beings and human seed from human beings, the chicken from the egg and egg from the chicken, plants from seeds, and seeds from plants; socially – righteous children from corrupt parents and corrupt children from worthy parents

In this verse there are hints regarding the existence of the Lord and His right of being worshipped

At first, the holy Qur'ān addresses the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) implying to tell those polytheists and idol-worshippers, that who are going astray, who is it that provides ?nourishment for you in the sky and on the earth

:The verse says

”... ?Say: “Who provides you (sustenance) from the sky and from the earth “

Definitely, the earth provides nourishment for the roots of plants by means of its nutritious substances. It is probably for this reason that the above verse refers to the .nourishing substances coming from the sky and later from the earth

Later, the verse refers to two of man's most important senses, namely seeing and hearing, without which man's acquisition of knowledge would have been impossible. It tells him to ask them who is He Who is the Creator of their eyes and ears and :reinforces these two senses of theirs. The verse says

”... ?Or who possesses hearing and sight ...“

Then it brings up the two phenomena of death and life which are the most peculiar :ones in the realm of creation. It says

And who brings forth the living from the dead and brings forth the deed from the...“
”... ?living

This is the very issue confronted by scientists and the learned men of the natural sciences as well as biologists, amazing them that how living creatures spring from
.inanimate objects

The meaning of the above verse includes material as well as spiritual death and life, for one can see intelligent, honest and faithful men sometimes born to parents who .are corrupt and faithless, and vice versa

Then it adds implying that Who is He who rules and regulates all worldly affairs? The
:verse says

”... ?And, who administrates (every) affair...”

p: 67

In fact, the verse at first talks about the creation of the blessings and then it speaks about the guardian and administrator of these blessings

After putting forth these three questions, the holy Qur'ān immediately declares that they will soon answer in reply that it is Allah. The verse says

”... ’They will soon say: ‘Allah ...“

One may infer from the above sentence that even the polytheists, infidels and idol-worshippers during the “Age of Ignorance” considered Allah as the sole Creator, Sustainer, Giver of Life as well as the Administrator and Maintainer of the world of existence

And at the end of the verse the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) has been commanded to ask them: why they did not take the path of virtue. It says

” ’?Then, say: ‘Will you not then keep from evil ...“

(٣٢) فَذَلِكُمُ اللَّهُ رَبُّكُمْ الْحَقُّ فَمَاذَا بَعَدَ الْحَقِّ إِلَّا الضَّلَالُ

فَأَنَّى تُصْرَفُونَ

Such then is Allah, your true Lord; and what is apart from the Truth but error? “ ٣٢ .
”?How then are you turned away

Commentary: verse ٣٢

After explaining some of the symbols of the signs of the magnitude and the prudence of Allah (s.w.t.) in the heavens and the earth, and through this, appealing to the conscience and intellect of the opponents by which they confessed to it, He decisively declares in this verse that this is Allah, your true Creator, not the idols or other beings you have considered as partners with Allah for the sake of worship in front of which you bow down. The verse says

”... ?Such then is Allah, your true Lord; and what is apart from the Truth but error “

Concluding these remarks, the Qur’ān implies: now that you have come to clearly know the truth, do you not realize that you are certain of being misled if you take any path other than the truth

How can you turn away from worshipping Allah despite your knowledge that there is no one else worthy to be worshipped? The verse says

”?How then are you turned away ...“

This verse in fact, offers us a clear logical way for knowing the wrong and abandoning it. This way is that: one must first try to know the truth by way of his own conscience and reasoning. After the cognition of the truth, one must abandon whatever is contrary to the truth or other than the truth, because they are those things that .mislead

(۳۳) كَذَلِكَ حَقَّتْ كَلِمَتُ رَبِّكَ عَلَى الَّذِينَ فَسَقُوا أَنَّهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ

Thus is the Word of your Lord proved true against those who did wrong, that they “ ۳۳ .
” .will not believe

Commentary: verse ۳۳

Breaking the laws of Allah and committing sins provide the grounds for infidelity and in :this way man makes Allah’s wrath upon himself inevitable. The verse says

”... ,Thus is the Word of your Lord proved true against those who did wrong “

This is the direct result of their continuous indecency which may darken their hearts and pollute their spirits to the extent that they cannot see the enlightening state of :the truth, and thus they go astray. The verse continues saying ” .that they will not believe ... “

Commentary: verse ٣٤

The Qur’ān asks whether those whom you consider as Allah’s partners are able to create and then annihilate that creation and recreate it again in the same way that Allah is able to do. The polytheists know that creation is solely in Allah’s Power. Then, :why is it that they again weave false stories and lie? The verse declares

Say: ‘Is there any of your partners (whom you ascribe unto Allah) one (that) can “ originate creation, then bring it back again?’ Say: ‘(Only) Allah originates creation, then ”?(brings it back again; then how are you turned away (from the Truth

Say: ‘Is there any of your partners (whom you ascribe unto Allah) one that leads “ .٣٥ towards the Truth? Say: ‘(Only) Allah leads unto the Truth. Is then He Who leads unto the Truth more worthy to be followed, or he who does not go aright (himself) unless ” ’?he is guided? What then is the matter with you? How do you judge

Commentary: verse ٣٥

The Qur’ān asks once again implying that who provides the living with life and leads them while managing their material and spiritual lives, it self Is He your sole Allah, or :are the idols? The verse says

Say: ‘Is there any of your partners (whom you ascribe unto Allah) one that leads “ ” ... ?towards The Truth

Then, the Qur’ān, answers that it is the Creator Who guides us and has bestowed on us intellect, ears and eyes, providing the living with instincts which help them manage their affairs in their own interests. Thus, despite all this: Is it appropriate for us to submit ourselves to idols which cannot lead us? How is it that the worshippers of idols submit and surrender to such things which are neither able to guide anyone nor have :they the potentiality of being led? The verse continues saying

Say: ‘(Only) Allah leads unto The Truth. Is then He Who leads unto the Truth more ...“ worthy to be followed, or he who does not go aright (himself) unless he is guided? What then is the matter with ?you

” ’?How do you judge

(٣٦) وَمَا يَتَّبِعُ أَكْثَرُهُمْ إِلَّا ظَنًّا إِنَّ الظَّنَّ لَا يُغْنِي مِنَ الْحَقِّ شَيْئًا إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ بِمَا يَفْعَلُونَ

And most of them follow nothing but conjecture: truly, conjecture can be of no “ .٣٦
” .avail against the Truth. Verily Allah is well aware of what they do

Commentary: verse ٣٦

Thus the reason for their being misled and misguided is that they follow their own conjectures and their own corrupt speculations. Conjectures will never lead us to the .Truth and to Reality. Following conjectures only results in the doing of indecencies

:The verse says

And most of them follow nothing but conjecture: truly, conjecture can be of no avail “
”... .against The Truth

What is of real value is “knowledge”. Sound conjecture and confidence, if based on proper solid grounds is valuable, i.e. those conjectures deducted from the apparent words of the holy verses (and quotations) derived from the Allah’s commandments which are practiced by Islamic jurisprudents (Fuqahā’) in even the minute details of .problems

:The verse says

” .Verily Allah is well aware of what they do ...“

However, conjectures in the realm of ideas, if they are rooted in pursuing the vain way of one’s ancestors or fanaticism based on ignorance are groundless, and hence, .are of no avail

Commentary: verse ٣٧

The comprehensive nature of the Qur’ān and its contents are such that any kind of unsound allegation ascribed to it and relating it to other than Allah (s.w.t.) is :unreasonable. The holy verse says

And this Qur’ān is not such as to be produced by other than Allah; but it is a “ ... ,confirmation of (revelations) that went before it

Or they say, ‘He has forged it.’ Say: ‘Bring then a Sura like unto it, and call (to your “ ٣٨ .aid) anyone you can, besides Allah, if you are truthful

Commentary: verse ٣٨

The Qur’ān has reiterated on several occasions that the words of Allah (the Qur’ān) are miracles because of the inability of man and jinn to present something similar, and it has presented this challenge to both of them. Among the verses that testify to this fact, one may cite verse ١٣ of the Sura Hūd. Despite the fact that Islam has had millions of opponents throughout history and still has such enemies, and they have striven to weaken the Qur’ān and defeat Islam, carrying out intensive activities in the process, yet this confident challenge of the Qur’ān has been left unanswered and will .continue to be so until the Day of Resurrection

Since we are dealing with setting the dimensions and the definition of the Qur’ān, we .will now point out some aspects of this divine miracle

It distills extensive and profound wisdom into concise words. For instance, . ١ regarding the relationship of man and woman, it comments: “They (your wives) are a clothing for you and you are a clothing for them.”(١) To explain the fragility and vulnerability of the non-divine powers, it likens them to a spider’s web or declares that they are unable to create even a gnat. It says: "... verily those whom you call upon besides Allah cannot create a gnat.

﴿...﴾

Its profundity and the sweetness of words do not render it monotonous even if it .۲
may be read over and again for more than thousand times; on the contrary, each .time it is studied it presents new messages

Its harmony of words is especially outstanding and if a Qur'ānic verse is placed .۳
.among other Arabic texts or passages it can be easily distinguished from them

The comprehensive nature of the Qur'ān: It includes reasoning and demonstration .۴ to citing examples from worldly affairs to the life in hereafter, and also the facts
.concerning family problems, legal, political, military, ethical, historical teachings etc

Its realism: Its contents are not based upon conjecture; even its stories are .۵
.documented and real

The universal and all-embracing nature of the Qur'ān: All people will benefit from it .۶ at all levels and in all places regardless of whenever or wherever they are; it is not a
.Book particular to a special time, place, or people

The eternal effect of the Qur'ān: The older the age of humanity and the more the .۷
.sciences progress the more of its secrets are discovered

Its ever-increasing and its everlasting development: Despite having an increasing .۸ number of enemies and the growing number of attacks launched against it during its .history, it has not only survived but also it has secured the highest station

p: ۷۶

It is an ever-existing miracle by itself. A miracle that is available to all and is .٩
.composed of the kind of words that put it at everyone's disposal

.It is both a miracle and a Book of commandments and legal codes .١٠

.It is a token from an illiterate man from a region deprived of literacy .١١

Nothing has been added to it or deducted from it and it has been kept intact from .١٢ distortion. The Qur'ān puts forth the simplest challenge, of calling people to present a :Sura like it, to prove its being miraculous. It declares

"... ,Or they say, 'He has forged it.' Say: 'Bring then a Sura like unto it "

The Qur'ān is a miracle not only in its entirety but also every one of its suras proves the same. This challenge of the Qur'ān is not confined to a specific time and place. It will stand unanswered all over the globe until the end of the life of mankind and the Day of Resurrection. The Qur'ān's challenge is not only issued to the common people, on the contrary, it is issued to all of mankind, including: jurisconsults, men of letters,
:and geniuses. It continues saying

,and call (to your aid) anyone you can, besides Allah ..."

Nay, they belied that which they comprehended not with the knowledge of it, “ ٣٩. which whose interpretation has not yet come to them. Even thus did belie those ”.before them, see then what was the end of the unjust ones

Commentary: verse ٣٩

The opponents of the prophets have often had two reasons for their dissidence throughout history, one of which was due to their ignorance and the other to their lack of knowledge and intellectual appreciation of the glorious Qur’ān as well as the other :heavenly Books. It says

Nay, they belied that which they comprehended not with the knowledge of it, which “ whose interpretation has not yet come to them. Even thus did belie those before ”... ,them

They rejected the Qur’ān before they knew the truth about it and had not grasped command of its interpretation and meaning; because it was fundamentally against their ancestral religion. Hence, as to the eventual fate of the oppressors, the verse :continues saying

”.see then what was the end of the unjust ones ...“

And if they belie you, say: ‘For me is my work and for you is your work. You are “ ۴۱ .’quit of what I do, and I am quit of what you do

Commentary: verse ۴۱

A leader must prepare himself for a party of the people to oppose him, and he must not feel defeated when he is confronted the rejecters because he will benefit from the guidance he provides them under every circumstance. Opponents also will meet their fate, resulting from their rejection and obstinacy. The winner in this scene will be the one who provides guidance. The verse says

”... And if they belie you, say: ‘For me is my work and for you is your work “

Incidentally, Islam is the religion of reason and ethics; it is not a religion of reconciliation with the idolaters. Were they not to answer the call of Allah (s.w.t.), you should express your abhorrence towards their ideas and behaviour. The verse continues saying

”.’You are quit of what I do, and I am quit of what you do...“

(٤٢) وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ يَسْتَمِعُونَ إِلَيْكَ أَفَأَنْتَ تُسْمِعُ الصُّمَّ وَلَوْ كَانُوا لَا يَعْقِلُونَ

And (when you recite the Qur'ān) some of them (pretend to) listen to you, but can “ .٤٢
”?you make the deaf to hear, even though they are without understanding

Commentary: verse ٤٢

The Qur'ān addresses the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and implies that when you are reading the Qur'ān and teaching the Divine commandments, there are some people who listen to you but do not accept what you have to say and do not reflect upon them. And there are some people who look toward you and take your guidance, contemplating and paying more attention to the symbols of your appointment to :prophecy, yet they do not testify them. The verse says

”... ,And (when you recite the Qur'ān) some of them (pretend to) listen to you “

Then the verse implies whether he is able to make himself be heard when he as faced with those who are deaf, especially, when in addition to being deaf reason does not prevail. For a deaf wise man may sometimes pay attention to reasoning. The verse :continues saying

”?but can you make the deaf to hear, even though they are without understanding ...“

And some of them look at you, but can you guide the blind even though they will “ .٤٣
”?(not see (inwardly

Commentary: verse ٤٣

Not all kinds of observation always take place with insight and not every observer is attracted by the truth. Even the prophets could not affect those who were blind-hearted. That is why the Qur’ān inquires whether he wish to be able to guide a blind man who is not only blind but also is lacking in insight; in addition to his blindness. The
:verse says

And some of them look at you, but can you guide the blind even though they will not “
”?(see (inwardly

The objective of this question is that such people lack wisdom and insight like the deaf and the blind from the point of view of their obstinacy in accepting the truth and
.adhering to it

” .injustice

Commentary: verse ٤٤

Allah has sent the best school, the best Book and the best leader for the people. If they do not accept them, they in fact inflict oppression upon themselves. That is, Allah does not hinder anyone from benefiting from the Qur’ān and other divine proofs. However, it is the people themselves who allow themselves to be oppressed because of abandoning their reason, and therefore, they make themselves deserving for :retribution. The verse says

Verily Allah does not any injustice to people but people to their own selves do “

And on the Day He will muster them, as if they had tarried but an hour of the day, “ .٤٥ they will recognize each other. Those will verily have perished who denied the meeting with Allah and were not guided a right

Commentary: verse ٤٥

The greatness of the Day of Judgment is such that ones entire life prior to it will seem as if it lasted only a short time. The Qur’ān commands us to remember the Day when Allah will make them all rise from the dead and assemble them and they will have a feeling that their entire lives in this world had not exceeded more than one single day, so much that they would get to see and to know one another. The verse in this regard says

And on the Day He will muster them, as if they had tarried but an hour of the day, “ ... they will recognize each other

Therefore, the real losers are those people whose negation of the Resurrection deprives them from the eternal benefits of the life of Hereafter, and are content with worldly pleasures. On the contrary, the believers enjoy both worldly divine blessings and a share in the Hereafter as well. The verse continues saying

Those will verily have perished who denied the meeting with Allah and were not ... “ guided a right

Commentary: verse ٤٦

The punishment of some of the infidels took place during the Bādr, Hunayn, Ahzāb and the conquest of Mecca. After the death of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), Allah’s Power is .extended to apply punishment upon those who deserve it

Therefore, Allah takes note of the acts of the disbelievers and punishes them, whether at the present time or at other times. Hence, Muslims need not despair :because of the delay in the Divine Judgment concerning these people. The verse says

Whether We show you (realized in your lifetime) some part of what We promise “ ”... ,them, or We take your soul

That is, for every group which follows a prescribed Path and has a common religion, like the nation (ummah) of Muhammad (p.b.u.h.), the nation of Moses (a.s.) and that of Jesus (a.s.), there is a messenger and a prophet, whom Allah (s.w.t.) has appointed for .them and has commissioned them to convey His message

And when their prophet came and successfully conveyed His message, some denied him and others accepted him, and those who denied and refuted Him met their :destruction and those who were believers were saved. The verse says

”?They say: ‘When will this promise be, if you are truthful “ .٤٨

Commentary: verse ٤٨

The idolaters, ridiculing the prophets (a.s.), used to ask them that if they were right, when the time would come for Allah’s punishment. This humiliating way of asking questions was a sort of reinforcement for those individuals who might be affected by them. However, in order to realize that an action will occur, should one necessarily know it’s timing

:The verse says

”?They say: ‘When will this promise be, if you are truthful “

(٤٩) قُلْ لَا أَمْلِكُ لِنَفْسِي ضَرًّا وَلَا نَفْعًا إِلَّا مَا شَاءَ اللَّهُ لِكُلِّ أُمَّةٍ أَجَلٌ إِذَا جَاءَ أَجْلُهُمْ فَلَا يَسْتَأْخِرُونَ سَاعَةً وَلَا يَسْتَقْدِمُونَ

Say: ‘I do not possess any harm or profit for myself except as Allah wills. To every “ .٤٩ people is a term appointed. When their term comes, then they shall neither put (it) off ”.(an hour, nor hasten (it

Commentary: verse ٤٩

Facing this question, Allah orders His Prophet to provide them with an answer in several ways. The first step is that he should tell them that the timing for such a thing is not at his disposal. He is not the author or proprietor of any profit or loss for himself .(much less for them) except those ordained or predetermined by Him

:The verse says

”... Say: ‘I do not possess any harm or profit for myself except as Allah wills “

Muhammad (p.b.u.h.) should announce that he is His sole and only Messenger and Prophet. It is He who fixes the timing of the punishment which is within His power

The above sentence alludes to the unity of actions which pre-supposes that all and every thing in this world eventually returns to Him, and when deviators are being punished with His justice, it is He Who sets the course of action

Obviously, this does not contradict the stipulation that Allah has bestowed upon us powers and abilities by which we are entitled to partly gain or lose and to be able to .make decisions regarding our own destiny

Then, the Qur’ān, referring to another issue, declares that each community and every tribe has a predetermined time of death and a point of its termination, which, when it comes, there will be no delay or advancement in its occurrence. The verse continues saying

To every people is a term appointed. When their term comes, then they shall ... “ ”.(neither put (it) off an hour, nor hasten (it

In fact, the Qur’ān warns the polytheists not to hasten and jump unduly to conclusions. When the timing of their death comes no delays or advances will happen

(٥٠) قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ إِنْ أَتَاكُمْ عَذَابُهُ بَيَاتًا أَوْ نَهَارًا مَآذًا يَسْتَعْجِلُ مِنْهُ الْمُجْرِمُونَ

Say: ‘Have you considered? If His punishment comes upon you by night or by day, “ ٥٠.
”?what portion of it will the sinners wish to hasten

Commentary: verse ٥٠

The Qur’ān raises the third answer in this verse. It orders the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to tell the infidels that it is not improbable for Allah’s punishment to come to them during the day-time or at night. Then, are they in a position to repel such a sudden punishment
:from themselves? The verse says

Say: ‘Have you considered? If His punishment comes upon you by night or by day, “
”?what portion of it will the sinners wish to hasten

.In this case, under what pretexts do the culprits and sinners make haste

Upon this meaning, Sura An-Naml, No. ٢٧, verse ٧١ says: “And they say: ‘when will this ”?threat come to pass, if you are truthful

(٥١) أَأَنْتُمْ إِذَا مَا وَقَعَ ءَامَنْتُمْ بِهِ ءَأَلَانَ وَقَدْ كُنْتُمْ بِهِ تَسْتَعْجِلُونَ

Is it when it (the punishment) comes to pass, you will believe in it? Ah! Now? And “ ٥١ .
”?you wanted (aforetime) to hasten it on

Commentary: verse ٥١

The Qur’ān provides the fourth answer for them in this noble verse, asking them whether they intend to believe in Him once the punishment emerges. (Faith established under such circumstances is fruitless). They would be told implying that: ‘Now, that the punishment has come, you have faith and supplicate and you repent ’.while before this you were ridiculing and were hastily asking for the punishment

:The verse says

Is it when it (the punishment) comes to pass, you will believe in it? Ah! Now? And you “
”?wanted (aforetime) to hasten it on

(٥٢) ثُمَّ قِيلَ لِلَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا ذُوقُوا عَذَابَ الْخُلْدِ هَلْ تُجْزَوْنَ إِلَّا بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَكْسِبُونَ

Then it will be said to those who were unjust: ‘Taste you the enduring “ ٥٢ .
”?punishment! Are you requited aught save what you used to earn

Commentary: verse ٥٢

Those who have oppressed themselves will be told on the Day of Resurrection that they should suffer eternal punishment in the Hereafter following their sufferings :afflictions in the world. The verse declares

Then it will be said to those who were unjust: ‘Taste you the enduring punishment! “
”?Are you requited aught save what you used to earn

It signifies that they have been called to accept the truth and they have been guided, .after firm proofs were offered to them, removing all their pretexts and excuses

They will be told that: they kept on insisting upon their infidelity and denial, and not abandoning their misleading course. Now, it is time for they to receive punishment for .their acts

The reason why the term “taste” has been employed in connection with suffering .punishment is that this sense has a stronger effect on man than the other senses

(٥٣) وَيَسْتَنْبِئُونَكَ أَحَقُّ هُوَ قُلُّ إِي وَرَبِّي إِنَّهُ لَحَقٌّ وَمَا أَنْتُمْ بِمُعْجِزِينَ

And they ask you to inform them saying: ‘Is that true?’ Say: ‘You! by my Lord! “ ٥٣
”.’ (Verily it is the truth; and you cannot frustrate (Him

Commentary: verse ٥٣

The words in the foregoing holy verses were about the punishment and suffering of the wrongdoers both in this world and in the world hereafter. This verse also follows
.that same topic

At first, the Qur’ān implies that the wrongdoers and the idolaters regard the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) with astonishment as to whether the promise of the divine punishment in this :world and the Hereafter is true. The verse says

”...’?And they ask you to inform them saying: ‘Is that true“

Allah commands His Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to answer them emphatically saying that his answer is positive and he swears by his Lord that this is a reality and there is no doubt
.about it

And if they think, they can escape the divine punishment, they have committed a grave mistake, for they will never be able (to prevent it) and make Him unable to act.
:The verse continues saying

”.’ (Say: ‘You! by my Lord! Verily it is the truth; and you cannot frustrate (Him ...“

****

Point

All things of this world put together will not be accepted as ransom for any guilty one –
The Qur’ān is an exhortation, cure for the internal diseases, a Guidance and a Mercy for Mankind

(۵۴) وَلَوْ أَنَّ لِكُلِّ نَفْسٍ ظَلَمَتْ مَا فِي الْأَرْضِ لَافْتَدَتْ بِهِ وَأَسْرُوا النَّدَامَةَ لَمَّا رَأَوُا الْعَذَابَ وَقُضِيَ بَيْنَهُم بِالْقِسْطِ وَهُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُونَ

And if every soul that has done injustice had all that is on earth, he would “ ۵۴ assuredly give it in ransom, and they declare (their) remorse when they see the Penalty. But the judgment between them will be with justice, and they will not be dealt ”.with unjustly

Commentary: verse ۵۴

The proper magnitude of this punishment is particularly emphasized in this verse concerning the Day of Judgment, where it implies that the divine punishment is so awe-inspiring and horrible that if each of the oppressors owned the entire wealth of the world, he would have paid all of it so as to be relieved from the harsh punishment :awaiting him. The verse says

And if every soul that has done injustice had all that is on earth, he would assuredly “ ”... ,give it in ransom

In fact they are ready to offer the greatest bribes imaginable in order to relieve themselves from the divine chastisement and to diminish the slightest possible portion of His punishment. However, it will never .be accepted from them

Some of these Divine punishments are particularly spiritual in nature; that is, when they behold the punishment, they would declare their regret<sup>(١)</sup>. The verse continues
:saying

”... .and they declare (their) remorse when they see the Penalty ...“

Then the Qur’ān stresses that despite everything, justice will prevail and will be administered fairly among them and no oppression will be inflicted upon them. The
:verse says

But the judgment between them will be with justice, and they will not be dealt with ...“
”.unjustly

Some of the commentators have translated the Qur’ānic word /’asarrū/, mentioned –١ in the verse under discussion, by its first lexical meaning which is: ‘To conceal’, while referring to the explanations of the Arabic Dictionary: Mufradāt by Rāqib, and also Lisān-ul-‘Arab, it is realized that this word has opposite meanings: ‘to conceal’ as well as ‘to express, declare and appear’. Keeping the whole verses of the Qur’ān in mind, this fact is clear that on the Day of Hereafter everything is manifest and no one will be able to conceal a thing from others, (here, their regret), or to behave so that he can escape from the reality. That is why the latter meaning has been chosen for the word
./’asarrū/ in this verse

(٥٥) أَلَا إِنَّ لِلَّهِ مَا فِي السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ أَلَا إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

!Behold “ .٥٥

!Verily to Allah belongs whatever is in the heavens and the earth. Behold

”.Verily, Allah’s promise is true, but most of them do not know

Commentary: verse ٥٥

Then for the reason that people may consider these Divine promises and threats seriously and know that Allah is not unable to do such things, the Qur’ān says that whatsoever is in the heavens and on the earth are His, His Lordship and His realm of administration encompasses the world of existence in its entirety and no one can be excluded from His zone of jurisdiction. The verse says

!Behold “

”... .Verily to Allah belongs whatever is in the heavens and the earth

And again, beware that Allah’s promise (concerning punishment of the wrongdoers) is just, though many people (whose unconscious ignorance has darkened their souls) do not know this fact. The verse continues saying

”.Behold! Verily, Allah’s promise is true, but most of them do not know ...“

”He (it is Who) gives life and causes to die, and to Him you shall be returned “ .٥٦

Commentary: verse ٥٦

This verse also lays again an emphasis upon the problematic issue of life. It indicates .that it is Allah Who enlivens and makes one die

Therefore, He is able to cause death unto the servants as well as having the power to .enliven them on the Day of Resurrection for the Court of Judgment

:The verse says

”... ,He (it is Who) gives life and causes to die “

And ultimately, all of you will return to Him in order to receive the reward of all your

:The verse continues saying

”.and to Him you shall be returned ...“

(٥٧) يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ قَدْ جَاءَ تَكْمٍ مَوْعِظَةٌ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ وَشِفَاءٌ لِمَا فِي الصُّدُورِ وَهُدًى وَرَحْمَةٌ لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ

O mankind! There hath come to you an admonition from your Lord and a healing “ .٥٧
”for what is in your hearts, and a guidance and a mercy for the believers

Commentary: verse ٥٧

The Arabic term /mau‘izah/ (preaching) means to restrain intermingled with warning and awakening. The Arabic phrase /šifā’-iṣ-Ṣudūr/ refers to the purification of spirit and heart from spiritual evils. The spiritual defects are more grievous than the diseases of the body. The Qur’ān’s advantage lies in this very healing the spiritual :diseases. The verse says

O mankind! There hath come to you an admonition from your Lord and a healing for “
”... ,what is in your hearts

The verse seems to allude to the four kinds of stages that shape education and :development, that is

١ .The preaching stage against visible acts

٢ .The purification stage for purging the soul from ethical and social evils

The self-guiding stage towards those objectives which signify worldly happiness ٣ .
.and the happiness and prosperity in the Hereafter

The stage of receiving divine blessings which is forgiveness and Paradise. In the ٤ .
meantime, the Qur’ān is wholly preaching on a general level, however, only those :groups that seek will be covered by the divine blessings. The verse says

”and a guidance and a mercy for the believers ...“

Finally, the cure for all pains must be sought after in the school of the Qur'ān; not "... ,from the schools of the East and West. "... and a healing for what is in your hearts

:This is the reason why, Allah's Prophet (p.b.u.h.) in a tradition states

When afflictions, like a dark and terrible night, invade you, seek refuge in the Qur'ān."“
It is simultaneously full of preaching as well as being a remedy, a source of ".illumination and blessing all at the same time

(٥٨) قُلْ بِفَضْلِ اللَّهِ وَبِرَحْمَتِهِ فَبِذَلِكَ فَلْيَفْرَحُوا هُوَ خَيْرٌ مِمَّا يَجْمَعُونَ

Say: ‘In the grace of Allah, and in His mercy – in that let them rejoice; it is better “ .٥٨
”.’than that which they hoard

Commentary: verse ٥٨

What is apparently revealed in this verse, if we consider the previous verse about the Qur’ān as a source of healing and preaching, is the appeal to the Qur’ān which is the purpose of Allah’s grace and mercy. As Imam Ali (a.s.) says: “On the Day of Resurrection, a voice will be heard that every farmer will be busy with some kind of pest except those who had sowed in the field of the Qur’ān. Thus, sow your seeds in \(the field of the Qur’ān.” \(١\)

The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: “He who has been honoured by Allah to be introduced to the blessings of Islam and the understanding of the Qur’ān, but feels miserable is miserable indeed, and will be labeled so until the Day of Resurrection”, then he recited \(this verse. \(٢\)

This is meant to say that once a person benefits from the blessings of Islam and the Qur’ān, he is no longer poor and he enjoys the greatest wealth. Likewise, it has been narrated from the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) who said: “Refer to the Qur’ān so that your life becomes enriched like the lives of happy people and your death becomes similar to those of the martyrs and you are saved from the terror on the Day of Resurrection.

For the Qur’ān, is surely the word of the Compassionate (Allah) which guards against Satan, and favourably balances one's acts during the Day of Judgment" (1) Incidentally, 'grace' and 'mercy' mentioned in the Qur'an have been interpreted as (prophethood and Imamate. (2)

Also the former has sometimes been interpreted as the general divine blessings and the latter has been interpreted as His specific blessings. According to an Islamic tradition, divine grace has been pointed out as Islam and His mercy is the Qur'an. Imam Bāqir (a.s.) said: "Divine grace consists of /salawāt/ and His mercy is Ali-ibn-Abitalib (a.s.)." (3)

:The verse says

"... ,Say: 'In the grace of Allah, and in His mercy "

Finally, we must be happy for all the divine blessings, especially the fact that He has blessed us with prophethood of Muhammad (p.b.u.h.) and Imamate of the Immaculate Imams (a.s.) and we must know that spiritual blessings are superior to all the material ones. The verse continues saying

".'in that let them rejoice, it is better than that which they hoard ..."

Say: ‘Have you considered what (things) Allah has sent down for you of “ ٥٩ sustenance, then you made some of it unlawful, and (some of it) lawful?’ Say: ‘Has “?”Allah permitted you, or do you forge a lie against Allah

Commentary: verse ٥٩

There have been mentioned in Sura Al-Mā'idah, No. ٥, verse ١٠٣ some examples of those unreasonable prohibitions which the polytheists invented. They used to lay aside part of their crops for their idols and idol-temples, thus making it forbidden for them. They also used to forbid whatever was in the wombs of animals for women while making them lawful for the use of men. The Qur'ān completely rejects all these superstitions. The verse says

Say: ‘Have you considered what (things) Allah has sent down for you of sustenance, “ then you made some of it unlawful, and (some of it) lawful?’ Say: ‘Has Allah permitted “?”you, or do you forge a lie against Allah

The main general principle upon the edible things is that they are lawful to be eaten, .except those whose being unlawful is proved by religion

We should also know that divine legislation is particular to Allah, the legislator, and no one is right to precede the lawgiver. Similar to the case no divine unlawful thing can be .changed into a lawful one, the lawful things cannot be counted unlawful either

However, to legislate an innovative law is a crime, and to forge it against Allah is .another crime

(٦٠) وَمَا ظَنُّ الَّذِينَ يَفْتَرُونَ عَلَى اللَّهِ الْكُذِبَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَذُو فَضْلٍ عَلَى النَّاسِ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَشْكُرُونَ

And what imagine those who forge lies against Allah, on the Day of Resurrection? “ ٦٠.
”..Verily Allah is the Lord of bounty to mankind, but most of them are not thankful

Commentary: verse ٦٠

In the previous verse, the act of certain prohibitions done by some people was criticized. In this verse we encounter Allah’s superiority and His uncountable Divine favors that deserve our gratitude, and at the same time, we are also criticized in all those cases where thanksgiving is lacking and false accusations are directed towards Allah. The verse says

And what imagine those who forge lies against Allah, on the Day of Resurrection? “
”... ,Verily Allah is the Lord of bounty to mankind

To ascribe false accusations towards Allah (s.w.t.) is a sin deserving of punishment. One must not make light the chance and respite that Allah has provided man in this world; neither must we forget and be oblivious to the Court of Justice which will be established on the Day of Judgment

Prohibition of Divine blessings is a repulsive act and leads one to deprivation in this world and brings shame and devastating consequences on the Day of Resurrection. Almighty Allah has done the utmost in being forgiving and kind towards man, though most people turn a blind eye to all those favors. They rarely engage in thanksgiving, thus paving the way for the utter denial and refutation of the fact that it is He who has provided all those favors. The verse says

”..but most of them are not thankful ...“

Point

Everything in the earth and the heavens is contained in the Open Book – There shall .not be any fear or grief for any friend of Allah

(٦١) وَمَا تَكُونُ فِي شَأْنٍ وَمَا تَتْلُوا مِنْهُ مِنْ قُرْآنٍ وَلَا تَعْمَلُونَ مِنْ عَمَلٍ إِلَّا كُنَّا عَلَيْكُمْ شُهُودًا إِذْ تُفِيضُونَ فِيهِ وَمَا يَعْزُبُ عَنْ رَبِّكَ مِنْ مِثْقَالِ ذَرَّةٍ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا فِي السَّمَاءِ وَلَا أَصْغَرَ مِنْ ذَلِكَ وَلَا أَكْبَرَ إِلَّا فِي كِتَابٍ مُبِينٍ

And you are not (engaged) in any affair, nor do you recite any part from the “ ٦١. Qur’ān, and nor any deed you (mankind) may be doing, but We are Witnesses over you when you enter into it. Nor is there hidden from your Lord (so much as) the weight of an atom on the earth or in the heaven, not anything lesser than that or greater but ”.are (recorded) in a Clear Book

Commentary: verse ٦١

The “Clear Book” is the ‘Preserved Tablet’ or Allah’s Comprehensive Knowledge which covers the entire cosmos including not only the actions of human beings but also the smallest details of everything in the heavens and the earth. With the utmost subtlety and eloquence, this verse announces that Allah is not only fully aware of the minutest facts in the heavens and the earth but He is also fully aware of the minutest details of .the actions of his subjects

Whatever the mood or state of meditation or an important affair you might be in, whatever part of the Qur'ān you might be engaged in reciting, and whatever action you begin, you can do nothing which cannot be seen or noticed by Allah when you start it. The verse says

And you are not (engaged) in any affair, nor do you recite any part from the Qur'ān, “and nor any deed you (mankind) may be doing, but We are Witnesses over you when ... you enter into it

Then more emphatically, it continues by saying that not slightest thing in the heavens and on earth, even that of an insignificant particle or greater than it can be hidden from Allah. All of these are recorded and registered in the Preserved Tablet and in the Open Book of Allah. It continues saying

Nor is there hidden from your Lord (so much as) the weight of an atom on the ... “earth or in the heaven, not anything lesser than that or greater but are (recorded) in a Clear Book

All Muslims are taught a great lesson by this verse, which can place them on the right track, leading them toward the Truth and preventing them from going astray

It calls our attention to the fact that not only does the Almighty comprehend our every thought, word and deed, but His angels are also carefully watching every step we take, every word we utter, every thought we entertain in our heads, wherever we cast our eyes, and in whatever state we are in

It is not without proper grounds that Imam Ṣādiq (a.s) said: “The Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h) whenever reading this verse, used to weep greatly”. If the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.), with all his sincerity and gratitude, with all the services he had rendered human beings, and with all his unparalleled worship of the Creator could be so concerned about his imperfections before Allah, how then, can we determine our state

”.Those who believe and constantly keep from evil “ .٦٣

For them are Glad Tidings in this world’s life and in the Hereafter. There is no “ .٦٤

”.change in the Words of Allah. That is the great success

Commentary: verses ٦٢–٦٤

In the previous verses, some of the characteristics of the polytheists and non-believers were explained, from now on, the characteristics of the true believers and those who struggle and strive, who constantly guard against evil and who are the exact opposite of the first group will be described. The verse attracts the attentions implying that there is no fear among the men of Allah and they will have no sorrows.

:The verse says

”;Behold! Verily no fear shall be upon the friends of Allah, nor shall they grieve “

Here sorrows and fears are those that relate to worldly matters for Allah’s worshippers are imbued with the awe of Him. This kind of fear is concerned with one’s failure to carry out ones duties and responsibilities and that kind of sorrow which one feels towards his lack of achievements during the course of his life. Here fear and sorrow have spiritual

.connotations, which help in man's perfection and development

This is quite contrary to the fear and sorrow that have a material basis and is the .source of degradation and deviations

The friends of Allah are those whose position requires no boundaries between them and their Lord and they are not distant from Him. Their hearts are open and unveiled and they see Him with all their hearts through the light of knowledge, faith, and good deeds which leaves them with perfect sincerity. It is because of such an acquaintance with Allah that, in their views, anything else other than Him is insignificant, of little :value, and ephemeral. The verse says

”.Those who believe and constantly keep from evil “

They are those who have become believers, continuously strive after virtue and make continence their habit. For them there is good news both in this world and in the Hereafter, because there are no changes in the Divine words and promises, for Allah always fulfils the promises He has made to His friends. This is a great victory and :happiness for the person concerned. The verse says

For them are Glad Tidings in this world's life and in the Hereafter. There is no change “ ”.in the Words of Allah. That is the great success

(٦٥) وَلَا يَحْزُنُكَ قَوْلُهُمْ إِنَّ الْعِزَّةَ لِلَّهِ جَمِيعًا هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ

And let not their speech grieve you. Verily the glory is wholly Allah's; He is All- "٦٥ .
".Hearing, All-Knowing

Commentary: verse ٦٥

As a good end awaits those who observe continence, the attainment of this goal requires one to pass through some great difficulties. Among them is that one can cite the struggle which the faithful experience within their hearts in the process of overthrowing and revising their aspirations. This can tend to make them feel hopeless, giving them the impression that the oppressors can overcome them. But this is not so, Allah, the Exalted in Majesty informs us that we must not let the oppressors make us sorrowful. The Majesty is entirely His. It is He Who is All-Hearing and Omniscient. This good news only applies to those whose existence embodies the characteristics of the friends of Allah. The verse says

And let not their speech grieve you. Verily the glory is wholly Allah's; He is All- "٦٥ .
".Hearing, All-Knowing

:In the Islamic texts one reads that

Amir-ul-Mu'mineen Ali-ibn-Abi-Talib (a.s.) once was asked about the meaning of Allah's words when He says: "Behold! Verily no fear shall be upon the friends of Allah, nor shall they grieve", and who the friends of Allah were Amir-ul-Mu'mineen answered: "The friends of Allah are those who are sincere in their worship, they are cognizant of the depth of those matters that are of the world, whereas others attach importance to the outward appearance of the world. These believe in the idea of the permanent character of the \(world while the others do not believe in its lack of permanence. ...”\(1\)

It is also narrated from Imam Bāqir (a.s.) who said that it is written in Imam Sajjād’s (a.s.), book concerning the friends of Allah that they are those who accomplish their religious obligations, and act according to the practice of Allah’s Messenger (p.b.u.h.). They are those who abstain from all that is forbidden, and have let the transient world go by, while they are only interested in what is dear to Allah. They make a living in accordance with the laws which consider these ways of earning a livelihood lawful. They abhor arrogance, shun the hoarding of wealth and pay all the obligatory religious dues. Allah has blessed them all for what they earn, and He has also fixed a .great reward for what they have saved in advance for their life in Hereafter

Commentary: verse ٦٦

Be aware that whosoever is in the heavens and on the earth belongs to Allah and is under His domination. The use of word /man/, mentioned in this holy verse (and we .translated it as whoever), signifies wise and intelligent men

That is, those who have been provided with intelligence and live in the heavens and on the earth are all under Allah’s power and control. When the rule is that all intelligent people, as individuals among His creation, must belong to Him, it follows that other existing beings should also follow the rule and they also belong to Allah. The fact that He specializes “the intelligent” as a separate category signifies their :elevation and magnification in that position. The verse says Behold! Verily to Allah belongs whoever is in the heavens and whoever is in the “ ”... ,earth

Those who follow idols are those who consider them as partners with Allah. The verse :continues saying

” ... ,and they do not follow any associates, who call on others besides Allah ...“

Those who select partners for Allah, follow nothing but their own conjectures simply following their forefathers in this case or it is because of mistake they have made thinking that they approach Allah therewith. If they think they can elevate themselves :and approach Allah in this way, they do nothing but lie. The verse says

”.they do not follow (anything) but conjectures, and they only lie ...“

Commentary: verse ٦٧

After rejecting all the partners of the polytheists, in calling the polytheists’ attention to His magnitude and His blessings, the Qur’ān implies that Allah made the night dark and the day illuminated so that they may find silence and comfort during the night and :make their living and earn their sustenance during the day. The verse says

”... .He it is Who appointed for you the night that you rest in it, and the day giving light “

Truly, these are clear proofs and reasons attesting to the Unity of Allah, the Glorified, :for no one else is able to do all this. The verse continues saying

They say, ‘Allah has begotten a son!’ Glory be to Him! He is Self-Sufficient! His is “ ٦٨ whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth! No warrant have you for this! ”?Do you say about Allah what you do not know

Commentary: verse ٦٨

To beget a son’ signifies ‘to be the father of someone, which differs from giving birth ‘ and having children. The polytheists considered the angels as the daughters of Allah, and the Jews took “Ezra” as an offspring of Allah, while the Christians called Jesus the .Son of Allah

Allah is neither afraid of being lonely so as to want to adopt an offspring, nor does He need any heir to adopt a son. He also does not need any help so that He chooses an assistant, nor does He need to ensure the survival of His species, so He does not need :a son. The verse says

”... !They say, ‘Allah has begotten a son!’ Glory be to Him! He is Self-Sufficient “

This phrase, means that Allah is absolutely self sufficient and He is absolutely far from what they say, because whatever is in the heavens and on the earth are His and fall :under His command. The verse says

”... !His is whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth ...“

Thus He absolutely does not need to have a son, for begetting offspring is to relieve oneself from one's lack of ability and weakness or to enrich oneself and get rid of poverty, but Allah is free from all this. If it is impossible for Him to have a real son, it is also impossible for Him to adopt a stepson and there are no reasons to support the authenticity of this claim. It says

”?No warrant have you for this! Do you say about Allah what you do not know ...“

If one wants to know about Allah, these words are to be regarded as blame, a censure and a threat from Allah, the Magnificent, to those who have made these unsanctioned and atrocious claims

Commentary: verses ٦٩–٧٠

Here the Holy Qur’ān mentions the ultimate disastrous end for all those who ascribe beliefs and false concepts to Allah. He addresses His Prophet (p.b.u.h.) that he should tell those who make false ascriptions to Him and those who make them only lie that :they will not be saved. The verse says

”Say: ‘Verily those who forge a lie against Allah will not prosper “

They might be able to attain worldly wealth through lies and false claims for a few days, but it is only a passing phenomenon in this world.(١) They will eventually return to Allah and He will punish them vigorously for their disbelief and their associating :partners with Him. The verse says

” .affair be not dubious to you. Then make decision on me, and give me no respite

Commentary: verse ۷۱

Allah the Exalted had commissioned His prophet that he should relate the news of the people of Noah to them, because this verse indicates that Noah (a.s.) used to receive support and encouragement from Divine sources, which made him not fear the threats and strategies of the enemy. Noah announces if listening to his useful instructions and advice with demonstrations and reasoning concerning the authenticity of Monotheism, Justice, prophethood and Resurrection are difficult and unbearable for them, and thus they have decided to kill him or they intend to cast him out, he does put all his hopes and trust in Allah, in which case, he will leave his fate in His will, with the conviction that He will save him from their wickedness and vice. The verse says

And recite to them the story of Noah when he said to his people: ‘O my people! if my stay (with you) and my reminding you of the Signs of Allah is grievous to you, yet I ... ,have put my trust in Allah

Haḍrat Noah then threw out a powerful challenge saying that they should collect their thoughts and invite their idols to participate in their decision-making so that nothing should be left hidden from them, there should be no ambiguity remaining in their plans, they should make the appropriate decisions and come up with the best stratagem concerning him. The verse continues saying so resolve on your affair, with your partners, so that your affair be not dubious to ... “

”... .you

Noah (a.s.) added telling them if they were able, they should go ahead and put an end to his life, and not spare him a single moment. Here is his statement

”’.Then make decision on me, and give me no respite ...“

It has been narrated that before noon on the Day of Ashura Imam Hussein (a.s.) also .recited this very verse to the Kufan army

This is a lesson for all Islamic leaders who might feel daunted when confronted by a multitude of enemies, rather; they must, by taking recourse to Allah and appealing to Him, with utmost decisiveness challenge them and humiliate them their power which .would reinforce the morale of their followers and lower that of their enemies

(٧٢) فَإِنْ تَوَلَّيْتُمْ فَمَا سَأَلْتُكُمْ مِنْ أَجْرٍ إِنْ أَجْرِيَ إِلَّا عَلَى اللَّهِ وَأُمِرْتُ أَنْ أَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ

But if you turn back, I have not asked you for any recompense, my recompense is “ .٧٢
 ”.(only upon Allah, and I am commanded to be of those (who) surrender (unto Him

Commentary: verse ٧٢

Anxieties often revolve around either one’s life or one’s wealth. In the foregoing verse, the issue in question centers on the conspiracy of their enemies with regard to the lives of the prophets. The issue dealt with in this verse relates to the prophets’
 .lack of expectations for reward and wealth from the side of people

Noah (a.s.) in this verse announced that if the unbelievers were to turn away from the truth, not accepting or following it, he did not expect any rewards for bringing them the message. This was his mission, so they should not balk at acceptance for fear of feeling that they would end up owing him something, which would be burdensome to
 :them. The verse says

But if you turn back, I have not asked you for any recompense, my recompense is “
 ”... ,only upon Allah

The verse also implies that if they turn away from accepting his words, he would not be at a disadvantage for he was not after their wealth (he did not covet) so that their turning away would put him at a loss, on the contrary, their rejection would turn out to .be at their own disadvantage

He emphasized that his reward for the prophetic mission and its accomplishment lay
 .with Allah alone

And Allah, the Gracious, had commissioned Noah (a.s.) to be among those who had submitted themselves to His commandments for, indeed, the best of what the servants of Allah can practice is to obey and submit to Him. The verse continues as follows

”.(and I am commanded to be of those (who) surrender (unto Him ...“

But they rejected him (Noah), So We delivered him and those with him, in the Ark, “ .٧٣ and We made them successors (in the earth), and We overwhelmed those who ”.rejected Our Signs. Then see what was the end of the warned ones

Commentary: verse ٧٣

The Holy Qur’ān presents the final destiny of Noah’s enemies and veracity of his prediction in the following way. The enemies refuted Noah while Allah saved him and all those who were with him in the Ark. Not only did He save them but He also replaced the oppressors by them and drowned all those who had denied His Signs. The verse says:

But they rejected him (Noah), So We delivered him and those with him, in the Ark, “ and We made them successors (in the earth), and We overwhelmed those who ”... .rejected Our Signs

Turning to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), Allah finally commands him that he should consider the ultimate destiny of those who did not heed the divine warning and threats and :were swept away. The verse says

” .Then see what was the end of the warned ones ... “

Noah’s companions were only eighty in number whilst the numbers of the unbelievers were manifold, however, by the grace of Allah, the Almighty, the unbelievers were .annihilated and the faithful became the inheritors of the earth

(٧٤) ثُمَّ بَعَثْنَا مِنْ بَعْدِهِ رُسُلًا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِمْ فَجَاءَهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَمَا كَانُوا لِيُؤْمِنُوا بِمَا كَذَّبُوا بِهِ مِنْ قَبْلُ كَذَلِكَ نَطْبَعُ عَلَىٰ قُلُوبِ الْمُعْتَدِينَ

Then, after him, We sent messengers to their people; they brought them the “ clear evidences, but they would not believe in what they had already rejected beforehand. Thus do We seal up the hearts of the transgressors

Commentary: verse ٧٤

In these verses, Allah, the Gracious, recounts the stories of those prophets who had (been appointed after Noah (a.s

After Noah and the annihilation of his people, several prophets were dispatched to their peoples who, as a result of marriage and reproduction, had multiplied by that (time. The purpose here is prophets ʾIbrāhīm, Hūd, Sāleh, Lot, and Shuʿayb (Jethro

These prophets went to those people with clear proofs and miracles that testified to their prophecy and provided reasons for their truthfulness. The verse says

Then, after him, We sent messengers to their People; they brought them the clear “ ... ,evidences

However, none of them any longer believed in what their divinely guided forefathers had believed. Just like the idol worshippers before them, they were also rebellious and stood in opposition to Divine guidance. The verse continues saying

“... .but they would not believe in what they had already rejected beforehand ...“

The holy phrase saying: ‘Thus do We seal the hearts of the transgressors’ means that Allah (s.w.t.) impresses the symbol of infidelity upon the hearts of those who do injustice against themselves and violate the Divine limits and laws laid down by the Almighty, so that they become condemned to reprimand, and are recognized by the angels. The verse

:says

”.Thus do We seal up the hearts of the transgressors ...“

Commentary: verse ٧٥

The meaning of the Arabic word /mala’/ is the eye-catching splendour of the courtiers
.and palace residents who were among the Pharaoh’s entourage

Pharaoh had divided the society into two categories: The Coptic palace-dwellers and the Sebti paupers. He had enslaved one group and the other group resided in wealth
.and luxury

The primary crime of Pharaoh was his claim to being a god, and of putting innocent
.boys to death and letting the girls live

Fighting against arrogant autocrats has been a major activity of the prophets, for .they fight the causes of corruption not only what is caused by it

:The verse says

Then, after them, We sent Moses and Aaron to Pharaoh and his chiefs with Our “

Commentary: verse ٧٦

The Essence of Allah, the prophets, the divine laws, miracles and whatever is .attributed to Him are all true and real

People do not always go after the truth. The adherents of the truth must sometimes
.go after the people

The Prophets entertain a direct link with the Lord and their miracles as well as their .program have their origins in the Divine nature

However, accusing someone to be a magician is the shrewdest, simplest and the most prevalent of the accusations leveled against the prophets. It is for this reason that .Moses (a.s.) was personally accused of being a sorcerer

:The verse says

So when the truth came to them from Us, they said: ‘Verily, this is a manifest “
”sorcery

Said Moses: ‘Do you say (this) about the Truth when it hath actually reached you? “ .٧٧
”Is this sorcery? But sorcerers do not prosper

Commentary: verse ٧٧

Moses asked the disbelievers why it was that when the Signs of truth reached them they kept claiming it was sorcery. Moses rejects the allegations that the Signs accompanying him were the products of sorcery, for sorcery is not like this, these were Signs of the Truth and independent investigation could vouch for that. The verse
:says

Said Moses: ‘Do you say (this) about the Truth when it hath actually reached you? Is “
”... ?this sorcery

However, they did not want to submit to the Truth, even if this truth had reached them from Allah. They claimed that the proofs that Moses brought was sorcery and simple-hearted people did not discriminate between sorcery and prophecy since both involved elements contrary to nature and habit. It was for this reason that they .became confused, mixing the two which led many astray

In such a case, people must be armed with knowledge so as to be able to distinguish miracle from magic and not to be so dominated by the confusion that sorcerers cause and reject the issue of prophecy. However this is a fact that sorcerers do not succeed.
:The verse says

”But sorcerers do not prosper ...“

(٧٨) قَالُوا أَجِئْتَنَا لِنَلْفِتْنَا عَمَّا وَجَدْنَا عَلَيْهِ ءَابَاءَنَا وَتَكُونَ لَكُمَا الْكِبْرِيَاءُ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمُؤْمِنِينَ

They said: ‘(O’ Moses) have you come to turn us away from what we found our “ .٧٨ fathers upon, and that the greatness in the land may be for you two? But we shall not ”.believe you two

Commentary: verse ٧٨

The people of Pharaoh continued their accusations against Moses, explicitly accusing .him and Aaron of wanting them to abandon the ways of their ancestors

They brought up the issues of ancestral traditions, and their fabulous glory to influence public opinion against Moses and Aaron, implying that they wanted to .belittle and ridicule the sacred objects and symbols of their society and country

They maintained then that Moses’ call to Allah’s religion and divinely inspired way was nothing but a lie. They claimed all of them were simply part of a stratagem of Moses and Aaron to seize power over the land and to put the reins of domination in their .hands

In fact, as they themselves made every effort to rule the earth oppressively, using all kinds of underhanded ways of seizing power, they ended up thinking of others as they thought of themselves, which included the struggles of the reformists and prophets. :The verse says

They said: ‘(O’ Moses) have you come to turn us away from what we found our “ ”... ?fathers upon, and that the greatness in the land may be for you two

For this reason they said that they were never going to believe in Moses for they thought his message and proofs were only but the act of sorcery in the service of a wider scheme for political aggrandizement. This was the first stage of their struggle :against Moses (a.s.). The verse continues saying

”But we shall not believe you two ...“

Commentary: verse ٧٩

In witnessing the miracles of Moses (a.s.), he had been rendered wretched and helpless in trying to find a way to remove them, Pharaoh, addressing his people, put the call out that all the best sorcerers in the land should come to him in order to get them to help him nullify Moses’ miracles. The verse says

”.’And Pharaoh said: ‘Bring unto me every knowing (expert) sorcerer “

Of course, Pharaoh did so in order that the sorcerers could help him in dismissing the achievement of Moses (a.s.), and thus he called on all of them because he did not want any craft of magic or sorcery to remain hidden from him which might be of potential use in combating what he perceived to be the powerful sorcery of Moses, little knowing that the Signs that Moses manifested were not the effects of sorcery and magic but miracles originating from Allah

Pharaoh wanted to render the divine movement of Moses inactive with the help of those expert sorcerers. They carried instruments and devices like ropes, wood etc, which by being mixed with some particular materials moved when the sunshine affected them

Commentary: verses ٨١–٨٢

Falsehood may have a parade and flaunt for a short time, but, at last, it is condemned to extinction. Allah does not support and improve the affairs of the mischief-makers. A .sorcerer is a mischief-maker, and sorcery is a corruption

:Therefore, it must be opposed with. The verse says

So when they had thrown, Moses said: ‘What you have brought is sorcery. Allah will “
”surely make it naught, verily Allah does not set right the work of mischief makers

Then Allah proclaims in the verse that Moses told them that he would definitely triumph in that quarrel and combat, for Allah had promised to unveil the truth and, through decisive logic and the astounding miracles of His prophets, He would expose the scandals of those who incite corruption even though some of the evil-doers, such .as Pharaoh and his supporters, would dislike that

In the beginning, the Qur’ān describes the situation of the first group of those who believed in Moses, saying that after this (event) no one believed in Moses except a group of his own offspring. This tiny group, which becomes apparent by use of the Qur’ānic word /ōurriyah/ (children), was formed mostly from among the youth and young adolescents. They were under tremendous pressure from the side of Pharaoh and his associates, and feared the Pharaohnic system which, by putting pressure upon the believers tried to dissuade them, and make them quit the religion of Moses. :The verse says

To comfort them and alleviate their pain in their souls, Moses, soothingly and affectionately said to them, that if they believed in Allah they should staunchly stand by their words, have faith, and submit to Him by putting all their hopes and trust in Him. They ought not to be fearful of the waves and the storm of afflictions, for Faith .(cannot be separated from trust in Allah (s.w.t

The real meaning of “trust”, here, is leaving one’s tasks in His hands and selecting Him .as one’s only true help in the times of adversity

The significance of trust does not imply abandoning one’s struggle, rather, it means that once man has done his utmost in struggling and has not been able to solve his difficulty, he must not be upset. He must rely upon Allah’s favor, support, and seek help from His pure Essence. He must have fortitude and continue on in his everlasting :struggle. The above holy verse says

And We revealed to Moses and his brother, saying: ‘Provide houses for your “ ٨٧ people in Egypt, make your houses into places of worship, and keep up prayer: and “.’give glad tidings to the believers

Commentary: verse ٨٧

Another stage of the uprising and revolution of Moses (a.s.), Hārūn (a.s.), and the Children of Israel against the Pharaonids is portrayed here

First, Allah says that He revealed to Moses and his brother that his nation should build houses in the land of Egypt. Particularly, they were to build these houses next to one another and facing them. The verse says

And We revealed to Moses and his brother, saying: ‘Provide houses for your people “ “... ,in Egypt, make your houses into places of worship

Then, they were to pay proper attention to spiritual self-actualization through regular prayers, thus purifying and strengthening themselves. The verse says

“... :and keep up prayer ...“

In order to remove the effects of fear and terror from their hearts, and thus regain their spiritual and revolutionary power, He orders them to give these tidings to the faithful, as to their eventual victory, and the bestowal of Allah’s favour and grace upon them. The verse continues saying

Commentary: verse ٨٨

The Qur’ān then refers to one of the reasons for the rebellion of the Pharaoh and his adherents, by mentioning the statement of Moses to his Lord where he talks about the wealth and luxury that Pharaoh and his followers had in the world. This wealth and :luxury had the effect of seducing the people away from the true Path. The verse says

And Moses said: ‘Our Lord! Verily You have given to Pharaoh and his chiefs “ adornment and wealth in the life of this world, Our Lord! so that they mislead (men)
”... .from Your Path

Thus Moses (a.s.) asked Allah to destroy their belongings so that they could not benefit from them, and to take their power away from them that they might be able :to reflect and meditate upon the reality of existence. The verse says

”... ,Our Lord! Destroy their wealth, and harden their hearts ...“

By losing these two capitals, they would quickly degenerate and move a step closer to annihilation, thus making it more possible for the Children of Israel to inflict the last blow upon them. This prayer was not because of revenge or retaliation but it was because they did not have the slightest preparedness for accepting faith. The verse
:says

”.’so they will not believe until they see the painful penalty ...“

Commentary: verse ٩٠

The last phase of the struggle of the Children of Israel with the followers of Pharaoh and their destiny has been depicted in a concise yet accurate and transparent manner here

The verse implies that Allah let the Children of Israel pass through the sea when confronted with the army of Pharaoh while were being pressured and chased by them. The verse says

“... ;And We made the Children of Israel to pass through the sea “

Pharaoh and his army chased them there in order to oppress and eliminate them though they were soon drowned in the midst of the stormy waves of the sea. The verse continues saying then Pharaoh and his hosts chased them in insolence and hostility, until when the ... “

... ,drowning overtook him

This course went on until the abyss surrounded Pharaoh who started floating on the waves and it was then that his blindness, arrogance and unconsciousness came to an end and the innate light of monotheism started shining. He shouted he believed in Him Whom the Children of Israel believed in, and he confessed that there is no one to be worshipped except Him :and he resigned himself to Him. The verse says he said: ‘I believe that there is no Allah but He in Whom the Children of Israel ... “ ”.’believe, and I am of those that surrender

In fact when the prophecies of Moses proved to be true one after another, and Pharaoh realized the truthfulness of the words of this great prophet over and again, on witnessing this final power, he had no excuse but to believe, maybe hoping that the Lord of the Children of Israel would save him the same way He had saved the Children .of Israel from the mountainous waves

Obviously, such a faith which is attained in the face of calamities, when one is caught in the jaws of death, is in fact a kind of “faith for emergencies”, which every criminal .claims when he is captured, and is of no value

It was for this reason that Allah, addressing him, informed him that he did become a believer, while before that he used to rebel, disobey and used to commit sin; lining up :alongside villains and those who were corrupt on the earth. The verse says

Commentary: verse ٩٢

Allah through the Qur’ān announces that He saves Pharaoh’s body from being lost in the sea today so that we can provide an instructive lesson for future generations for arrogant rulers, and for all oppressors and those enticing others into corruption as well as for the oppressed. The verse says

So this day We shall save you in your body, that you may be a Sign to those after “
” ... !you

At the end of the verse, the Qur’ān indicates that many people still remain ignorant of our verses and symbols and of all those instructive lessons which have been recorded over and over again in the history of man, and despite those clues which prove Our omnipotence? The verse continues saying

” .But verily, many among mankind are heedless of Our Signs ... “

It is narrated from Imam Riḍa (a.s.) in the commentary, Nūr-uth-Thaḳalayn and Aṣ-Ṣāfi that Pharaoh was armoured from head to toe which must have pulled him down deep under the sea drowning him but the waves drove the heavy body ashore atop a lofty rock. This itself was a divine miracle

Commentary: verse ٩٣

The ultimate victory of the Children of Israel and their eventual return to the Holy Land after their liberation from the men of Pharaoh, are explained in this verse as follows:

“... And certainly We lodged the Children of Israel a goodly lodging “

The objective meaning of the phrase /mubawwa'a ṣidqin/ (a goodly lodging) can be considered as alluding to the land of Egypt or the lands of Syria and Palestine

Then the Qur'ān adds that Allah provided them with the good things to eat but they did not appreciate the real value of this blessing. Contrarily, they sowed the seeds of discord and quarreled with each other, and this they did not until the knowledge was made available to them. The

:verse says

and provided them with good things, so they did not differ but after the knowledge ...“
”... ,came to them

Eventually, Allah will arbitrate among them as to what they disagreed upon on the Day of Resurrection. If they do not experience the punishment for their discord today,
:they will experience it in the future. The verse continues saying

So if you are in doubt as to what We have revealed unto you, then ask those who “ ٩٤. read the book (sent) before you. The Truth hath indeed come to you from your Lord, ”.so be not of the doubters

Commentary: verse ٩٤

How is it that the Qur’ān implies: O! Prophet, if you have any doubts about the Qur’ān, ask the People of the Book, despite the fact that he (p.b.u.h.) had never had any shadow of a doubt in this respect? Reason does not admit that a prophet might doubt the revelation sent to him. However, its meaning can be gathered in the same Sura, verse ١٠٤. Here Allah, the Exalted, has addressed the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) while this meaning addresses the whole people. The implication of it is that if the people are hesitating, they must ask those who have read the Qur’ān

To support this argument, there is a verse at the end of the current Sura in which Allah, the Gracious, addressing the people from the tongue of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), says: “O you people if you are in doubt as to my religion.” With this verse, Allah, the Gracious, made it transparent that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) had not been skeptical and His objective in addressing the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is really intended for other people. Likewise, there are other verses that apparently address the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) although, in reality, the :addressees are people other than the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) as well. The verse says

So if you are in doubt as to what We have revealed unto you, then ask those who “ read the book (sent) before

”... .you

Incidentally, some of the great commentators of the Qur’ān have stated that this doubt is of the type which is based upon supposition and probability and not upon certainty and through defining rules, like the verse which says: “If the Beneficent (Allah) had a son, ...” (1

Although the verse, “He begets not, nor is He begotten...”, categorically rules out the issue of Allah having a child. This proposition is in fact a conditional proposition. That is, were you to have the slightest doubt in this respect, you should ask those .knowledgeable People of the Book, because they are sure that you tell the Truth

Imam Ṣādiq (a.s.) is narrated who said that Haḍrat Muhammad (p.b.u.h.) never .doubted and never asked the People of the Book

And finally, besides the explanation offered in the above, the verse demonstrates the fact that the reasons for the appointment of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and whatever is revealed to him are not confined to his call to prophecy and his offering of miracles. There are allusions made to him in the Books of the preceding prophets and though those books are misrepresented and their authenticity questionable, there are numerous tidings here and there, amounting to sixty cases which are available to the .People of the Book

The holy sentence which says: “...The Truth has indeed come to you from your Lord,

you

that what has been passed to you is an authentic and genuine truth which leaves no room for any sort of skepticism. Thus, be firm in your beliefs in which case you should have no doubts, not refuting and denying the Divine verses, and continue your course

Commentary: verse ٩٥

The previous holy verse advised against maintaining any skepticism about the Qur’ān.

.This noble verse addresses itself to refutation of the verses

Many a time if skepticism remains unchallenged, it will lead to refutation. The verse
:says

”Nor be of those who belied the Signs of Allah, (for) then you shall be of the losers “

All investigation and analysis that had been applied to skepticism in the previous verse, may equally propound here as well, for refutation is worse than skepticism. There have been numerous verses and traditions which inform of the certainty the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) possessed. Therefore, the target and the addressees of such warnings are mankind, and not the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) in person. How can someone, who has led others to believe in something with certainty, be himself a skeptic, or
?refute that same thing

Commentary: verses ٩٦–٩٧

Allah tells the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), here, that there is a group among his opponents who are fanatic and obstinate and who cannot be expected to become believers. They have become so brainwashed in their thinking, and have been led astray to such an extent that they have lost their human consciences, becoming individuals who may not be impressed or influenced. However, explaining the subject with this connotation, the Qur’ān says that Allah’s commandment had been proven and was :unequivocal to them, though they will not become believers. The verse says

”,Verily those against whom the Word of your Lord has proved true will not believe “

Even if all Allah’s verses and symbols had dawned upon them, they would not become believers unless they witnessed the Divine Punishment with their own eyes, at which .time, their faith would be of no avail

Why was there not a township which believed, so that their belief should have “ .٩٨ profited them, except the people of Jonah (Yūnus)? When they believed, We removed from them the Penalty of Ignominy in the life of the world, and gave them enjoyment ”.for a while

Commentary: verse ٩٨

Allah, the Gracious, had said in the previous verses, Pharaoh’s repentance when he witnessed the Punishment was not accepted. In line with this account, the Qur’ān recounts the story of the nation of Jonah before the Punishment was imposed, asking the question why is it that the people of every settlement do not become believers ?when their faith would bring them dividends and is to their advantage

Allah, the Gracious, likewise has declared that accepting faith at the time when the punishment is imposed and death is near is of no avail. However, when the nation of Jonah witnessed the early signs of the Punishment they started to believe, and Allah relieved them from it, and allowed them to enjoy their lives until the end of their :lifetimes, and reap the fruits of His blessings. The verse says

Why was there not a township which believed, so that their belief should have “ profited them, except the people of Jonah (Yūnus)? When they believed, We removed from them the Penalty of Ignominy in the life of the world, and gave them enjoyment ”.for a while

According to Haḍrat Ṣādiq (a.s.), Haḍrat Jonah (a.s.) had been preaching for ۳۳ years, starting at the age of ۳۰ until the age of ۶۳. However, he only was successful in converting two people to the religion of monotheism. He then cursed the people for their recalcitrance. One of these two believers was a sage and philosopher. When he noticed the prophet's cursing the people and his departure, he went up to them and warned them in a loud voice. The people who were impressed, under his guidance, left the town distancing themselves from their children, and they cried and repented before Allah until they were forgiven. On his return, Jonah (a.s.) had noticed that township had not been annihilated. He asked the reason and was told the story:

.((Majma‘-ul-Bayān, and Aṣ-Ṣāfi

Man is free and faith is based upon one’s voluntary choice; it is not to be accepted
.under compulsion or by imposition

Allah is Omnipotent and Omniscient, employing His power in such a way that it does not run contrary to His Knowledge. And as His omniscience requires mankind to be .free, He never compels them to accept faith by force

The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) has compassionately insisted that people accept the faith on the :basis of voluntary acceptance and not through compulsion. The verse says

Say: ‘Observe you what is in the heavens and the earth! But neither Signs nor “ .١٠١
”.’warnings avail a people who do not believe

Commentary: verse ١٠١

In the previous verses the issue in question was that faith is a voluntary matter; it is not a matter that springs up in emergency situations, nor is it compulsory. It is for this reason that the means of acquiring faith is shown in this verse. Addressing the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), the Qur’ān implies that he should say to the unbelievers to carefully observe the wonderful, profound system at work in the skies and on the earth each part of which exhibits the magnitude, power, knowledge and wisdom of Allah. The
:verse says

”...!Say: ‘Observe you what is in the heavens and the earth“

The above sentence explicitly rules out the issue of fatalism and the lack of freedom of will. It indicates that accepting faith is consequential upon studying the world of
.existence which is a task left entirely in our hands

The Qur’ān adds, however, that despite all these verses and clues to the Truth, is it not surprising that some groups do not become believers, for those verses and clues, warnings and admonishments not only are of no benefit to those who lack preparedness for embracing the Truth, but they are not useful for those obstinate :people who will not become believers either. The verse continues saying

”.’But neither Signs nor warnings avail a people who do not believe ...“

(١٠٢) فَهَلْ يَنْتَظِرُونَ إِلَّا مِثْلَ أَيَّامِ الَّذِينَ خَلَوْا مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ قُلْ فَانْتَظِرُوا إِنِّي مَعَكُمْ مِنَ الْمُنْتَظِرِينَ

Do they then expect (anything) but the like of the days of those who passed away before them? Say: ‘Wait you then, verily I also with you, will be of those who wait’.

Commentary: verse ١٠٢

This verse is in the form of a question with a threatening tone. It declares that obstinate and faithless people expect to see a destiny other than that of former nations which suffered the painful Divine Punishment; the doom of Pharaohs, the Nimrods, Shaddāds, and their assistants and advocates. The verse says

Do they then expect (anything) but the like of the days of those who passed away before them

Towards the end of the verse, in order to warn them, Allah commands the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to tell them that now they are on such a track, and are not ready to reconsider their fate, that they should wait and look out for it as he was. The verse continues saying

’Say: ‘Wait you then, verily I also with you, will be of those who wait ...’

They wait in order to avoid and deny Allah’s call, and we wait for the evil and painful destiny which awaits them like that of the former oppressive nations of the past

Then (when Our wrath fell) We deliver Our messengers and those who believe. “ ١٠٣ .
”.Thus it is binding on Us (that) We deliver the believers

Commentary: verse ١٠٣

Our common sense tells us and we witness the fact that the good and evil are sometimes placed in the same category indiscriminately. The Qur’ān warns us also in verse ٢٥ of Sura Al-Anfāl that we must fear the calamities which not only are inflicted upon the oppressors but also upon the faithful as well. How is it, then, that this verse states that Allah saves the faithful in time of trouble? The verse says

”... .Then (when Our wrath fell) We deliver Our messengers and those who believe “

The answer to this verse is that if the faithful remain silent when they are among the disbelievers and the guilty, Allah’s punishment will encompass all of them. However, if the believers act according to their divine duty, which is forbidding the wrong, Allah may save them in time of trouble. The verse continues saying

Section 11: Profit or loss caused by Allah Unavoidable by anyone

Commentary: verse 104

Do not allow the skepticism of others to influence you. Decisiveness is the primary condition for leadership

Any reconciliation and agreement with the unbelievers is prohibited. You must expel the unbelieving front from among yourselves, making them despair. Beware that the enemy envies the leaders of Islam. You must declare your ostracism and position of differentiation from the unbelievers. Allah Who is in command of life and death is more suitable to be worshipped than idols, oppressors, and insignificant powers and puppets. Therefore, the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and, by extension, the believers have been commanded to be faithful and testify to :monotheism. The verse says

Say: "O you people! If you are in doubt as to my religion, then (know that) I do not "

” .uprightly, and never be of the polytheists

And do not call other than Allah on that which will neither profit you nor hurt you: “ .١٠٦
” .for if you do, then verily you will on that case be of the unjust

Commentary: verses ١٠٥–١٠٦

In the last verses of this Sura, Allah, the Supreme, has designated the responsibilities of the Messenger (the Prophet) as to what he must do in case the people did not follow him or hesitated in accepting his mission. The verse says

And (I have also been commanded) that ‘Set your face towards the Religion “
” .uprightly, and never be of the polytheists

The Prophet’s responsibility is to get the people to desist from the worship of self-styled gods and induce the sincere worship of the one Allah, “Allah”, to inculcate an honest faith in Him and to execute His Commandments whether apparent or hidden. They should not worship other gods and man-made idols, for by doing this they would be oppressing themselves because these false deities are of no advantage or disadvantage to them. He Who is really the only source of benefit and loss is no one :but “Allah”. The verse says

And do not call other than Allah on that which will neither profit you nor hurt you: for “
”if you do, then verily you will on that case be of the unjust

Man’s submission to idols and those manufactured deities he has made as partners with the Creator, is injustice to himself. If he does this, he will lose his identity which is one of the most precious endowments he is blessed with, and if he tries to persuade others to follow this road this can also be considered as oppressing the people by
.misleading them in their thinking

.Though this speech is addressed to the Prophet, in reality it is targeted at the people

Commentary: verse ١٠٧

If Allah causes you pain in cases of calamities or brings you hardships or sufferings, no one but He is able to release you by removing them, and if He gives you well-being in matters of health, blessings or affluence and so forth, no one can hinder Him or :block His way. The verse says

And if Allah afflicts you with any hurt, none can remove it but Him. And if He intends “
”... any good for you, none can repel His favor

Allah’s beneficence, which is always appropriate, extends in different circumstances for whom He pleases from among His servants and according to His wise Judgment and realistic evaluation. He is forgiving of the sins committed by his servants and He is :compassionate towards them. The verse says

(١٠٨) قُلْ يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ قَدْ جَاءَكُمْ الْحَقُّ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ فَمَنْ اهْتَدَىٰ فَإِنَّمَا يَهْتَدِي لِنَفْسِهِ وَمَنْ ضَلَّ فَإِنَّمَا يَضِلُّ عَلَيْهَا

Commentary: verse ١٠٨

This verse and the one following it are admonishments to mankind in general and to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) in particular. They complement the commandments that Allah .has explained throughout this Sura and with that, the Sura of Yūnus comes to an end

At first, as a general instruction, Allah commands the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to say to .mankind that the Truth has now reached them from their Lord

These instructions, this Heavenly Book, this program and this Prophet along with his miracles are all true and the evidence of their truthfulness is explicit and obvious. The :verse declares

”... Say: ‘O mankind! (Now) the Truth has come to you from your Lord “

In the light of this reality, he who is led by the light of this truth has been guided and will reap his own advantages while he who refuses and fails to submit himself when facing truth would have taken steps towards his own destruction. The verse continues :saying

Therefore, whoever is guided, he is guided for (the good of) his own self, and ... “
”... ;whoever strays he strays only against it

The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is instructed to say that he is not their agent; he does not act on :their behalf as an advocate, nor is he their guardian. The verse says

”and I am not a warden over you ...“

That is, neither is he commissioned to force them to accept the truth for accepting faith under compulsion is meaningless not could he save them from the Divine Punishment in case they did not accept the Truth. His duty is to call them to Islam, to bring Allah’s message to them, to guide them on the Straight Path, to lead them, and .to serve them as their leader

And follow (only) what is revealed unto you, and be patient till Allah judges, and “ ١٠٩ .
” .He is the best of the judges

Commentary: verse ١٠٩

In this noble verse, Allah sums up the duties of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) in two sentences: the first one says that he should act according to what has been revealed unto him.

:The verse says

”... ,And follow (only) what is revealed unto you “

The direction or his path has been fixed by what Allah has revealed to him and he is .not allowed to make the slightest deviation from it

Secondly there are numerous trials and tribulations facing him on this path and he must not let himself be distracted by these difficulties. He must wait, practice fortitude, and maintain his position until Allah issues His verdict concerning his success over his enemies, for Allah is the Best of those who decide because His decision is identical with the Truth, His wisdom is based on justice and His promise is never to be :broken. The verse continues saying

” .and be patient till Allah judges, and He is the best of the judges ... “

Sura Hūd

Point

(Revealed in Mecca)

(verses in ۱۰ sections ۱۲۳)

The Contents of Sura Hūd

This holy Sura was revealed during the last years of the Prophet's stay in Mecca, during which the Muslims were experiencing very hard times because of the passing away of Haḍrat Abū-Tālib and Haḍrat Khadijah

The blessed Prophet (p.b.u.h.) once said: "Sura Hūd made me age", for the verse recommending perseverance and persistence has been revealed within this Sura. It says: "Persevere and persist as you have been ordered and your followers with you

However, the impatience and lack of perseverance of the companions of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) annoyed him

The contents of this Sura, which comprises ۱۲۳ verses, deal with the history of the prophets; in particular, the story of Haḍrat Noah (a.s.). It also focuses upon economic problems. Attention is devoted to the history of the prophets, presenting their message as a continuous historical process, and not as some isolated affairs. It insists on the fact that the history of the prophets is governed by laws, the study of which reveals the secrets of the rise and fall, the glorification and degradation of nations.

This indicates that religion is not separate from

.society, and society's destiny depends entirely upon people's religion and way of life

The name of Haḍrat Hūd (a.s.) has been repeated five times in this Sura which equals
.the number of its recurrence throughout the rest of the Qur'ān

As for the virtues implied in this Sura, there is a tradition narrated from the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) who has said: "He who recites this Sura, will reap rewards, the size of which would equal the number of all those who believed in Hūd and the other prophets as well as those who refuted them, and he will be elevated in rank equal to those of the ".martyrs on the Day of Resurrection, and thus everything would be easy for him

Obviously, a mere cursory reading of the Sura would have not such a result; rather reading, meditating upon it and later combining it with practice, would place man
.along with the former believers and distance him from the rejecters of the prophets

Section ١ : Repentance earns pardon and the bounties from Allah

Point

The verses of the Qur’ān established in Wisdom – The Apostle Muhammad is a Warner and the Bearer of Glad Tidings from Allah

(١) الرِّكْتَابُ أَحْكَمْتُ آيَاتُهُ ثُمَّ فُصِّلَتْ مِنْ لَدُنِّ حَكِيمٍ خَبِيرٍ

Alif ‘A’, Lām ‘L’, Rā ‘R’. (This is) a Book whose verses are set firmly, then explained’ “ .١
” .in detail, from One All-Wise, All-Aware

Commentary: verse ١

The Qur’ān is made up of those very same alphabetical letters that are found in every Arabic text available for all. However, Allah has created a book out of these simple letters, the equivalent of which no one can produce

Just as man makes bricks and ceramics out of soil, Allah creates thousands of flowers and plants, fruits and animals as well as man, out of the same materials. Of course just as we can notice Allah’s omnipotence in the system of creation, we can observe His omnipotence in the Book of Divine legislation as well. There are some further explanations about the abbreviated letters mentioned at the beginning of Sura Al-Baqarah, No. ٢ which need not to be repeated here

The Qur'ān is a decisive Book, containing one fundamental spirit; that is, the spirit of monotheism; besides all its stories, exhortations, Divine commandments, and its verses are the explanations of this very line

The Qur'ān is a decisive book which has not been distorted nor is it to be doubted

It is not based on conjecture and presupposition, and so all its contents are irrevocable with sound foundations

The foundations of the Qur'ān are decisively firm and nothing will be able to penetrate or cause disruption in it. The further science advances, the more the secrets of this book are revealed and discovered

The Qur'ān is both demonstrative and irrevocable, while at the same time, encompassing all the dimensions of this worldly life and the life hereafter. The Qur'ān has been revealed to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) in its totality, after which, it has been extensively explained. And as Allah is Wise, His Book is decisive, and as He is All-Aware, He has dealt with the details of all needs. The verse says

It teaches) that you should worship none but Allah. Verily, I am for you from Him,) “ ٢ .
”a warner and a bearer of glad tidings

Commentary: verse ٢

This verse takes up the most important and the most fundamental issue of the Qur’ān, which is monotheism by explaining the campaign against polytheism as follows

Allah’s first and foremost call to mankind is that he should stop worshipping everything else but the Almighty. The verse says

”... .It teaches) that you should worship none but Allah) “

Secondly, the Divine call concerns the matter that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is surely acting on Allah’s behalf, as a messenger of warning and glad tidings

The duty of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) is that he warns people against disobeying Allah, injustice, corruption, polytheism and infidelity

He informs them of Divine punishment as a result of their evil actions, and give them glad tidings of a happy fate for their obedience, piety and virtuousness. The holy verse continued saying

”.Verily, I am for you from Him, a warner and a bearer of glad tidings ...“

(٣) وَأَنِ اسْتَغْفِرُوا رَبَّكُمْ ثُمَّ تُوبُوا إِلَيْهِ يُمَتِّعْكُمْ مَتَاعًا حَسَنًا إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ مُّسَيَّمٍ وَيُؤْتِ كُلَّ ذِي فَضْلٍ فَضْلَهُ وَإِن تَوَلَّوْا فَإِنِّي أَخَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ كَبِيرٍ

And that you seek the forgiveness of Allah and turn unto Him in repentance so that“ .٣
He may provide you with a goodly provision to an appointed term, and bestow His
.abounding grace on everyone endowed with grace

But if you turn away (from serving Him), then

”I fear for you the Penalty of a Great Day

Commentary: verse ٣

His third call is that people should repent from their sins, and purify themselves from
.all types of pollution

His fourth call for them is that they should turn to Him after purifying themselves from their sins by repentance, thus decorating themselves with Divine characteristics. This means that returning to Him means nothing more than acquiring those qualities that .are associated with Him

Afterwards, the holy Qur’ān recounts that the practical results which ensue from acceptance or rejection of the four commandments, mentioned in the above, are as follows: Whenever you act according to this schedule, Allah grants you a whole happy :life-time of enjoyment in your worldly life. The verse says

And that you seek the forgiveness of Allah and turn unto Him in repentance so that“
”... ,He may provide you with a goodly provision to an appointed term

Therefore, before enabling one to reap the fruits of his deeds in the After-Life, religion and religious ideologies tend to produce their fruits in this world. Moreover, the fact that everyone is rewarded according to his deeds in this world, and people’s individual differences are never overlooked, it is amazing how they can all act in accordance with those four principles mentioned above. Allah measures each in his virtue and every individual’s merit for whatever He bestows upon him. The verse
:continues saying

”... .and bestow His abounding grace on everyone endowed with grace ...“

However, if you turn against these principles, disobeying these ideological and practical commandments, I fear for you the punishment of a Great Day, when you :must stand in that great court of Justice for the Divine Judgment. The verse says

But if you turn away (from serving Him), then I fear for you the Penalty of a Great ...“

Commentary: verse ٤

At any rate, one should beware that regardless of who he is and whatever rank or position he may occupy, that ultimately, the one will return to Him. The verse says

”... To Allah is your return “

The above sentence points to the fifth principle of the fundamental principles of the Qur’ān, that is, the Resurrection

You should never think that your power is significant compared to the power of Allah, or you are able to disobey His orders, and escape His Court of Justice. Never give yourselves the benefit of a doubt that He would be unable to assemble your degenerated bones after death, providing them with a new life, because He is :Omnipotent and has the power over all things. The verse continues saying

”and He is All-Powerful over everything ...“

Behold! They fold up their breasts to hide them from him (the Prophet)! Behold! “ ٥. Even when they cover themselves with their garments, He knows what they conceal and what they reveal: Verily He is aware of what is in the hearts

Commentary: verse ٥

This verse, in general, makes allusions to one of the foolish behaviors of the Prophet’s (p.b.u.h.) enemies who, by using their subterfuge and hypocritical manner, i.e., distancing themselves from the Truth, sought to conceal their true nature from the public so as not to lend their ears to the words of truth

Thus, the holy Qur’ān implies that the unbelievers would approach each other in a very intimate manner, and draw alongside one another so as to conceal themselves and their words from the Prophet (p.b.u.h.). The verse says “...!(Behold! They fold up their breasts to hide them from him (the Prophet “

The interpretation of /yaθnūn/ probably refers to whatever act of concealment, whether apparent or hidden, that was performed by the enemies of the Prophet (p.b.u.h)

The Arabic verb /yaθnūn/ means placing two things next to each other. The word - ١ /iθnān/ means ‘two’, which also signifies bearing a grudge against someone

Therefore, the Qur’ānic phrase: (yaθnūna şudūrahum/ either means that the unbelievers converge and ally themselves for secret objectives

.and conspiracies against the prophets or that they bear grudges against them

Therefore, the holy Qur'ān hastens to add that we should beware of those who conceal themselves in their places, however they are not hidden from Allah as He has :knowledge of all secrets whether open or hidden. The verse also says Behold! Even when they cover themselves with their garments, He knows what ... “

”.they conceal and what they reveal: Verily He is aware of what is in the hearts

(٦) وَمَا مِنْ دَابَّةٍ فِي الْأَرْضِ إِلَّا عَلَى اللَّهِ رِزْقُهَا وَيَعْلَمُ مُسْتَقَرَّهَا وَمُسْتَوْدَعَهَا كُلٌّ فِي كِتَابٍ مُبِينٍ

And there is no moving creature on the earth but its sustenance is on Allah, and He “ ٦ .
” .knows its resting place and its depository. All is (recorded) in a clear Book

Commentary: verse ٦

The Arabic word /dābbah/, derived from the word /dabīb/ signifies ‘walking slowly’ and ‘taking short steps.’ However it also refers to every moving creature

The Qur’ānic word /rizq/ signifies the continuous bestowal of bounties, whether material or spiritual. Hence, we call to Allah in our prayers: “O Allah! Bestow upon me knowledge that is useful.” Whatever of sustenance He bestows is suitable for the relevant creature. For instance, the food that babies utilize, while still unborn, alters according to their needs after birth which changes into delicious milk, otherwise, how could a human being feed a baby in the womb of its mother? Or, how could a newly ?born baby receive its food

In another occurrence, the Qur’ān says: “And how many a living creature that does not carry it’s sustenance: Allah sustains it and yourselves.” \(١\)

Hadrat Ali (a.s.) says in his will to Imam Hasan (a.s.): “Sustenance, /rizq/, is of two kinds:
One kind is to be obtained through your own endeavor and struggle; the other kind is that which comes to you by itself, whether it be natural, such as sunlight and rain, or whether it be a potentiality in man such as intelligence and

p: ١٧٦

".memory

Thus, the verse does not tell us to sit around and wait for food to descend from Heaven; rather it tells us to struggle and to endeavor, as well as to consider whatever we obtain as Allah-given and is a bestowal from Him. He takes care of all creatures which necessitates the existence of a very accurate system to be permanently at work so as to keep track of all allotted portions and needs. That is, He must be aware of the numbers and places of all men, animals, marine animals, birds, and desert animals as well as creatures great or small with their various specifications and
:needs. The verse says

And there is no moving creature on the earth but its sustenance is on Allah, and He “
”.knows its resting place and its depository. All is (recorded) in a clear Book

If all knowledge is contained in the Holy Book, it follows that he who has a good command of the Book knows everything. We recite in the last verse of Sura Ar-Ra‘d: “...Say: ‘Allah is sufficient as a witness between me and you and the one with whom is (the knowledge of the Book.” (1

Both Shī‘ah and the Sunni quotations reaffirm the fact that the man in question in the (.foregoing sentence is Hadrat Ali (a.s

Concerning the provision bestowed upon the creatures, Allah’s way of treatment is of two kinds. One is providing them directly with those necessities for their existence and the other is providing for them through making the means and devices available which would enable them to meet their needs. Thus, obtaining one’s share is not .incompatible with the laws governing one’s endeavor in obtaining what he needs

p: ۱۷۷

In other words, one must not rely upon others for his needs, abandoning his own struggle. At the same time we must admit that our share is in Allah's control, for He has made available to us both the resources of our provisions as well as the reasons .and means for the exploitation, discovery, and acquisition of those resources

And He it is Who created the heavens and the earth within Six Days (periods), and “ .v His Throne was over the water so that He might try you, which of you is best in conduct. And, if you were to say to them: ‘Verily you shall be raised up after death’, ”.the unbelievers would surely say: ‘This is (not) but a manifest sorcery

Commentary: verse ٧

There are three principal issues discussed in this noble verse: First, the creation of the world of existence which represents a display of Allah’s Omnipotence, specially the initiation of creation which signifies His Power, as well as the reasons for His glory.

:The verse says

”... ,(And He it is Who created the heavens and the earth within Six Days (periods “

:The word ‘Days’ here means epochs, whether long or short. Then it adds

”... and His Throne was over the Water...”

Some of the scientists believe that at very early time of creation, the world of existence was in the form of some molten materials, (or some extra ordinary pressed gases which had the form of some liquid materials

Then, some great bursts happened inside this very liquid substance and parts of its outside surface were continuously

.separated off which, finally, formed the stars and germs of the systems in the sky

Therefore, the world of existence, maybe, at first was located on this great material,
.the liquid like

The second issue hinted at in this verse, is the objective of the creation of the cosmos, the main aim of which refers to the supreme fruit of the process of creation, namely
.man

Man who must be subjected to educational processes, thus evolving and approaching
:the Almighty even further. It says

”... .so that He might try you which of you is best in conduct ...“

Imam Şādiq (a.s.) says: “Good conduct refers to that kind of conduct which is coupled with knowledge, sincerity and virtue, not a mere action which is practiced in abundance. Therefore, the heavens and the earth have been created for good deeds
”.and not for the sake of happiness, pleasure-seeking, and negligence

Definitely, those who deny the Day of Resurrection have no reasoning for their claim and they only take recourse to accusations of sorcery and hallucinations. The verse
:says

And, if you were to say to them: ‘Verily you shall be raised up after death’, the ... “
”.?unbelievers would surely say: ‘This is (not) but a manifest sorcery

(٨) وَلَئِنْ أَخَّرْنَا عَنْهُمُ الْعَذَابَ إِلَىٰ أُمَّهٍ مَّعْدُودَةٍ لَّيَقُولُنَّ مَا يَحْبِسُهُ أَلَّا يَوْمَ يَأْتِيهِمْ لَيْسَ مَصْرُوفًا عَنْهُمْ وَحَاقَ بِهِم مَّا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِءُونَ

And if We postpone the penalty from them until a limited period of time, they will “ surely say: ‘What prevents it?’ Beware! On the day it will come to them it shall not be turned aside from them, and they will be encompassed by that which they used to ”.mock at

Commentary: verse ٨

The word /’ummaḥ/ refers to a group which has a common aim and also means women. The aim in this verse is a definite period of time as we also recite in Sura Yūsuf /waḥkur ba‘da ’ummatin/ which means that the freed prisoner was reminded of .Yūsuf after the passage of a length of time

At any rate, Allah, the Gracious, remarks that if He postponed the tormenting punishment of these unbelievers for a certain period of time, delaying its certain arrival, they would sarcastically cry: If these punishments are certain to come, what has kept them back? In response, the Qur’ān implies that they should beware of the punishment whose late arrival they mocked about, for when He decides to let it come, no one would be able to reverse it, and when He wishes it to happen, no one can stop it, and they would be eradicated by the very punishment which they so mockingly .despised

:The verse says

And if We postpone the penalty from them until a limited period of time, they will “ surely say: ‘What prevents it?’ Beware! On the day it will come to them it shall not be turned aside from them, and they will be encompassed by that which they used to

".mock at

:Explanations

The postponement of the Divine punishment has a number of implications, namely, –١ providing a chance for the sinners to repent, the birth of faithful children from deviant parents, etc. Moreover, the existence of honest people and their prayers also delay
.the occurrence of Divine punishment

Imam Bāqir (a.s.) and Imam Ṣādiq (a.s.) have been quoted in a tradition as saying –٢ that the holy phrase: /'ummatin ma'dūdah/ in the verse refers to a limited group of like minded people, alludes to the friends of Haḍrat Mahdī (a.s.), whose number equals no more than ٣١٣, equivalent in size to the circle of Companions at Badr, who assembled
.like autumn clouds over the sea

Other interpretations have been made for the phrase /'ummatin ma'dūdah/ with –٣ documentations from the Qur'ānic verses and the sayings of the Ahl-ul-Bayt (a.s.)
which also exist in Sunni interpretations and we will not deal with them here for the .sake of brevity

Point

Patience and good deeds

earn pardon from Allah

The common nature of the people who rejoice and get proud when blessed by Allah and whenever any blessings is justly withdrawn, man gets dejected and becomes ungrateful – The infidels challenged to bring some chapters like those of the Qur’ān is .they be truthful – Tyrants cursed by Allah

(۹) وَلَئِنْ أَذَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ مِنَّا رَحْمَةً ثُمَّ نَزَعْنَا مِنَّا مِثْلَهَا إِنَّهُ لَيُؤْسِكُ كُفُورًا

If We make man taste mercy from Ourselves, (and) then take it off from him, verily “ ۹ .
”he is despairing ungrateful

Commentary: verse ۹

Allah’s blessings do not always reflect His compassion; nor does usually the withdrawal of His blessings signify His punishment and anger. Many a time, they could :mean that He might be putting someone through a special test. The verse says

If We make man taste mercy from Ourselves, (and) then take it off from him, verily “
”he is despairing ungrateful

As man does not understand the Divine wisdom and his own good, he tends to jump to conclusions, feels desperate and becomes ungrateful. However faith in Him is not based upon what we perceive to be our happiness in life. Allah’s blessings are the consequences of His judgment and His grace, not the results of our merit. Therefore, :despair of Allah’s blessings leads to ungratefulness. In this regard, the verse says

”verily he is despairing ungrateful ...“

(١٠) وَلَئِنْ أَذَقْنَاهُ نِعْمَاءَ بَعْدَ ضَرَّاءَ مَسَّتْهُ لَيَقُولَنَّ ذَهَبَ السَّيِّئَاتُ عَنِّي إِنَّهُ لَفَرِحَ فَخُورٌ

And if We make him taste (Our) favors after adversity has afflicted him, he will “ ١٠ .
”say, ‘The evils have departed from me’. Verily he is joyous, boastful

Commentary: verse ١٠

All the blessings which are handed down to man after hardships and sufferings must serve as a source of thanksgiving and remembering Allah (s.w.t.) and not as a means .of arrogance, boasting and self satisfaction

There are two risks to one’s joy, one is making a wrong analysis of events, and the .other is that this joy would result in a person’s arrogance

Worldly affairs do not always take the same path, on the contrary, as some Islamic traditions testify to, they have two sides to them; sometimes they run in your favor, at other times, they run against you. Once they are in your favor, you must not become arrogant, and once they are otherwise, you must keep your patience because, at any rate, you are the focus of the Divine attention, and you are in the course of Allah’s :trial. The verse says

And if We make him taste (Our) favors after adversity has afflicted him, he will say, “
”.’The evils have departed from me’. Verily he is joyous, boastful

****

(١١) إِلَّا الَّذِينَ صَبَرُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ أُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ

وَأَجْرٌ كَبِيرٌ

Except those who are patient and constant, and do deeds of righteousness; for “ ١١ .
” .them is forgiveness and a great reward

Commentary: verse ١١

All cases dealt with in the Qur’ān concerning good conduct are mentioned along with faith except in this verse which, says: “Except those who are patient and constant”. In this verse, too, ‘the patient’ refers to the true believers compared with those who .behave with intolerance

Patience is not confined only to cases of frustration and bitter events. On the contrary, in cases of abundant welfare and happiness, one must keep patience, otherwise, it will lead man to unruliness as the Children of Israel were when they were liberated from the yoke of Pharaoh and gained a more comfortable life and independence they went the path of aberration. They then started worshipping cows and when confronted by the protests of Hārun, they went so far in their rudeness that they were about to kill their prophet. The Qur’ān in this regard says: “Verily the people judged \(me weak and had well nigh slain me.”\(١\)

Therefore, being patient in times of joy and sorrow is one of the best examples of good conduct. A true believer is an integrated person who never despairs, neither is he blasphemous, happy-go lucky, nor arrogant. On the contrary, he is patient and .persevering

So perhaps you may (be inclined) to give up a part of what is revealed unto thee, “ ۱۲ and your breast becomes straitened by it lest they say, ‘Why has not a treasure been sent down unto him or an angel not come with him?’ Verily you are only a warner, and
”Allah is custodian over everything

Commentary: verse ۱۲

Once the unbelievers asked the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to turn the mountains of Mecca into gold through a miracle or they wished that an angel come to him, thus confirming him. Others, on the contrary, owing to their grudge and hatred, wanted him to say something related to Haḍrat Ali (a.s.) and whenever he would say something, they would reject all of it

Therefore, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) felt a strain in his heart, and consequently, he delayed conveying the messages. Incidentally, his delay did not intrude upon his infallibility nor was it incompatible with it, for at that time, there was no urgency to convey Allah’s message. Thus, owing to considerations which were not personal but based upon expediency, he could postpone conveying the verses. With the revelation of this verse, those considerations were set aside and the message had now to be conveyed without delay. The verse says

So perhaps you may (be inclined) to give up a part of what is revealed unto thee, and “ your breast becomes straitened by it lest they say, ‘Why has not a treasure been sent down unto him or an ”... ’?angel not come with him

Perhaps, the delay in conveying the revelations had been confined solely to a few obstinate people, of whose guidance the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) had despaired. However, Allah ordered that although they might not become believers, it was the duty of the :Prophet (p.b.u.h.) not to abandon them. The verse continues saying

”.Verily you are only a warner, and Allah is custodian over everything ...“

Therefore, a leader and an authority in propagating the message of Islam must be always decisive in propagating and conveying the word of Allah, remaining undaunted by the people’s words and pretexts, for Allah is the guarantor of a prophet’s duty and prophets are not responsible for the consequences. They must act according to their .duty and leave the rest to the Almighty

The unbelievers used to put pressure upon the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) under various
.pretexts. It was in addition to the physical tortures that they used to inflict upon him

Or do they say: ‘He has forged it’? Say, ‘Bring you then ten suras forged, like unto “ .١٣
”it, and call (to your aid) whomsoever you can, other than Allah, if you are truthful

Commentary: verse ١٣

The Qur’ān is not only a miracle of eloquence in itself, it is also a miracle from the view point of its wisdom and ideology, its admonitions, its reasoning, the news it gives of the invisible world and its legislations. The sentence, “and call to your aid whomsoever you can” is a call addressed to everyone, and not only to those Arabs who could comprehend the eloquence and the fluency of the noble Qur’ān .

In this regard He elsewhere reiterates: “Were men and jinn to combine together to bring the like of this Qur’ān, they could not bring the like of it, ...” \(١\)

The miraculous nature of the Qur’ān is multi-faceted. It is found in the sweetness of its words when read, the harmony of its content, etc. Although it had been revealed over a period of ٢٣ years, it had revealed scientific knowledge which had been non-existent at that time. It foretold affairs that eventually took place in the future. It provided information concerning the nations of antiquity which had left no trace from themselves. It stated comprehensive laws governing all dimensions of the individual and social life of man. And it has remained intact

throughout the ages free of all distortions, changes, and of becoming out-dated and forgotten

Despite making it easy for them and all these challenges, mankind is still rendered impotent. The Qur'ān elsewhere says: "...to bring the like of this Qur'ān..." (١) In the verse under discussion, it says: "Bring you then ten suras forged like unto it". In another place it makes it even easier by saying: "... then bring one Sura the like thereof ..." (٢) In addition to this, the Qur'ān issues thought-provoking challenges. Elsewhere it says: "Were men and jinn to combine together to bring the like of this Qur'ān." (٣)

Elsewhere it implies that if they call on all the think-tanks of the whole globe; they cannot produce anything like the Qur'ān. Here is the text: "... they could not bring the like of it, though some of them were aiders of others." (٤)

History has also clearly proven that enemies have waged numerous wars against Islam, they have planned conspiracies and yet they have never been able to produce even one Sura like that of the Qur'ān. Can any miracle performed be better than this

However, instead of using their reason, the unbelievers, accused the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) of fabricating the Qur'ān, saying that it is not the word of Allah, while the Qur'ān is the eternal miracle of history. The verse says

Or do they say: 'He has forged it'? Say, 'Bring you then ten suras forged, like unto it, "and call (to your aid) whomsoever you can, other than Allah, if you are truthful

If then they do not answer your (call), know that it is sent down by the knowledge“ .١٤
”?(of Allah, and that there is no Allah but He! Will you then submit (to Islam

Commentary: verse ١٤

The unbelievers accused the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) of having learned the Qur’ān from someone. The Qur’ān answers them that the source of this Book is Divine Knowledge and nothing other than that. Sometimes they also said that he had written the Qur’ān while receiving help from others. This verse provides a firm answer to all those .accusations

:It says

If then they do not answer your (call), know that it is sent down by the knowledge of“ ”?(Allah, and that there is no Allah but He! Will you then submit (to Islam

The noble Qur’ān is not a product of man’s conjectural suppositions, imaginations, or contemplations, it is based upon Allah’s Omniscience, recognizing no spatial, temporal, or racial boundaries and is not specific to only one particular generation for .it is based on Allah’s Knowledge Similar to the infinite knowledge of Allah, the secrets of the Qur’ān are infinite. Therefore, we must not waver in our opinion concerning the authenticity of the holy Qur’ān and in monotheism with regards to Allah because of infidelity and hesitation of .disbelievers

But) these are they for whom there is naught in the hereafter but the Fire: and) “ ١٦
”.what they have wrought in it shall fail, and vain shall be what they were doing

Commentary: verses ١٥–١٦

Their reward for their good conduct will be delivered to them without any diminution in this world and they will be amply rewarded, which is healthy and favours gifted to them, but there would be no rewards for them in the Afterlife, for they had no intention of meriting Allah’s approbation in their deeds and expected no compensation in the Hereafter

They had only intended to have what they gain in this world and this they have obtained. The verse says

Whoever desires the life of this world and its adornment, We shall pay them in full “
”.(the recompense for) their deeds therein, and they will not be defrauded therein

The foregoing holy verses present adequate proofs to the unbelievers and deniers by mentioning the reasons for the miracle of the Qur’ān

After the truth has been well-expounded and made crystal clear, some people abstain from submitting to it for their own material benefits. The Qur'ān refers to the fate of such people in this verse and in the one following by saying that those whose aims are simply to have a good and luxurious life are given their complete reward in this world .without losing anything

However, if their intention is to please Allah, they will be rewarded abundantly both in .this world and in the next

One could easily find examples of the above facts in his environment. The Western world, in its unceasing efforts, has split the unknown secrets of many sciences, thus controlling and dominating various forces in nature. It has attained affluence as a .result of its unity and its continuous struggle and resistance against difficulties

Thus, they will evidently reap the fruits of their labor and attain the fruits of victory. However, as their aim is solely confined to the worldly life, the natural consequences .of such acts will be only limited to the provisions of this material world

Therefore, in this verse the Qur'ān explicitly states that whatever they have done in this world (which are rewarded here) will be obliterated in the next world and they will get no rewards for whatever they have performed for all they have done for other :than Allah will become null and void. The verse says

But) these are they for whom there is naught in the hereafter but the Fire: and what) “ .they have wrought in it shall fail, and vain shall be what they were doing

Is he then (like unto him) who has a clear proof from his Lord and follows him a “ .١٧ witness from Him, and before it (is) the Book of Moses, a guide and a mercy (testifying it)? These believe in it; but whoever of the (different) parties disbelieves in it, the (Hell) Fire is the promised place; so be you not in doubt of it; verily it (the Qur’ān) is the truth ”.from your Lord, but most of the people do not believe

Commentary: verse ١٧

Allah has offered more than adequate reasons as to why people must be believers. The Qur’ān is a miracle on its own and, at the same time, a person like Ali-ibn-Abi-Tālib (a.s.), is also a witness which testifies to its authenticity. Moreover, the Torah had also provided good tidings as to the emergence of the Qur’ān long before it was .revealed

Therefore, the Qur’ān inquires whether he who brings clear evidence from his Lord, who is supported by a testifying witness, who is commissioned by Allah, and before whom the Book of Moses (Torah) had come bringing revelations as the forerunner of future blessings to come and heralding his magnitude to be regarded as equal to :those who lack all these qualities, signs, and proofs. The verse says

Is he then (like unto him) who has a clear proof from his Lord and follows him a “ witness from Him, and before it (is) the Book of Moses, a guide and a mercy ”...?(testifying it)

He is no one but the Prophet Muhammad (p.b.u.h.) and /bayyinah/ or the clear evidence he offers, is the glorious Qur’ān, and his witness, who testifies as to the truthfulness of his prophecy amongst the believers is none other than that righteous believer, Ali (a.s.), whose signs and characteristics had been depicted in the Torah long before his historical appearance. Therefore, the authenticity of his mission has :been verified in three ways

.First, the Qur’ān which is a clear evidence in his hands

Secondly, the previous holy Books which have precisely explained his signs, and whose adherents were very familiar with those signs during the era of the Prophet .(p.b.u.h

Thirdly, faithful followers, the leading figure of whom is Ali-ibn-Abi-Tālib (as.) who .testifies as to the truthfulness of his call and his words

Can one still doubt the authenticity of his call or compare him with others who claim to ?’be ‘prophets

Then, it makes an allusion to truth-seeking individuals and calls on them to become believers, telling them to adhere to such a prophet who carries so many clear proofs. :It says

”... ;These believe in it ...“

Following this statement, the Qur’ān mentions the fate of the unbelievers saying whichever of the various groups denies him, will meet the Fire of the Inferno, as there :is its meeting place. It continues saying but whoever of the (different) parties disbelieves in it, the (Hell) Fire is the ... “

”... ;promised place

As is the case with the style of the holy Qur’ān in most situations, it addresses the people through addressing the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), at the end of the verse as a general lesson it teaches that since the circumstances are as such and the authenticity of his call has been confirmed by so many witnesses, there should not be the least shadow of doubt cast as far as his mission is concerned, for this is a truthful word on the part of Allah though many people, because of their ignorance, fanaticism and ego-
:centrism would remain unbelievers in his mission. The verse says so be you not in doubt of it; verily it (the Qur’ān) is the truth from your Lord, but ... “

”.most of the people do not believe

In summary, the verse refers to the privileges of Islam and the Muslims, the righteous ones, and their reliance upon sound reasoning for choosing this divine school of thought, while, simultaneously, it also explains the wicked and evil destiny of the .arrogant unbelievers

Question: The Qur’ān has employed the word /’azlamu/ when referring to many sins while the utmost oppression must be one and not more than one. Why is it so

Answer: This inference is used in ۱۵ cases, all of which are concerned with spiritual mental deviations irrespective of polytheism, false accusations, covering up the truth and withholding it, and obstruction of the way and of the remembrance of Allah. Therefore, the most important of the oppressions is intellectual, cultural, and ideological

Sura Zilzāl, No. ۹۹, verse ۴ – ۲

Sura Al-’Isrā’, No. ۱۷, verse ۱۴ – ۳

Sura Nūr, No. ۲۴, verse ۲۴ – ۴

The Qur'ān in this verse, as well as in a few verses which come later, explains the situation, profile, and the fate of those who falsely accuse Allah as follows: The most oppressive individual is he who is deprived of Divine favors, denies the Day of Resurrection, distorts facts, obstructs the way of Allah and is neither able to escape Allah's domination in this world nor to seek assistance on the Day of Resurrection

He is the one whose punishment is multi-fold, his life has gone with the wind, his endeavors have become null and void, and his life and soul have become lost

Therefore, false accusations against Allah are the greatest of the unjust. Writers and preachers of religion must be on guard against wrong words and their writings and keep in mind the fact that there are many witnesses who will testify as to what they :have said and written on the Day of Resurrection. The verse says

And who is more unjust than he who forges a lie against Allah? (On the Day of “ Resurrection) these will be presented before their Lord and the witnesses (the prophets and angels) will say: ‘These are those who lied against their Lord!’ Beware!

Those who hinder (people) from the path of Allah and seek to make it crooked, “ ١٩

Commentary: verse ١٩

Enemies obstruct the Path of Allah through various methods including heresy, false accusations, personal interpretations, forging traditions, provoking skepticism, emptying mosques, abandoning and neglecting the teaching of Ahl-ul-Bayt, standing in the way of good conduct, fabricating pretexts to justify immoral entertainment, setting forth insignificant issues of hero worship, recommending and propagating falsehood, humiliating faithful believers, forbidding what has been allowed by religion, giving undue appreciation and recommendation of what is not appropriate, glorifying despots, etc

Among the clear examples of obstruction of Allah’s Path, one may cite closing the gate of the ‘House of Allah’, closing the ‘House of the men of Allah,’ and the ‘House of the Ahl-ul-Bayt of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.)’ as well as that of the immaculate and just leaders

The enemy obstructs the Path first, and if he is unable to do so, he diverts the course leading to the Path. The verse says

Those who hinder (people) from the path of Allah and seek to make it crooked, and “
”they are themselves unbelievers as to the hereafter

(٢٠) أُولَئِكَ لَمْ يَكُونُوا مُعْجِزِينَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا كَانَ لَهُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ مِنْ أَوْلِيَاءَ يُضَاعَفُ لَهُمُ الْعَذَابُ مَا كَانُوا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ السَّمْعَ وَمَا كَانُوا يُبْصِرُونَ

They will in no wise frustrate (His design) on the earth, nor shall there be for them “ .٢٠ any protectors besides Allah! The penalty will be doubled for them. They could not ”.(bear to hear (the truth), and they used not to see (it

Commentary: verse ٢٠

How can one reconcile the issue of the manifestation and multiplication of Allah’s ?punishment with Divine justice which seem to be incompatible with each other

Answer: He who misleads others, owing to his power and position, naturally must be .held responsible for their faults

Thus, the sin committed by knowledgeable people, because of their social function, is manifold when compared to that committed by ordinary people and this is identical with justice. Any way, the oppressors are under the yoke of the Divine wrath and :power, and will meet their own doom. The holy verse says

They will in no wise frustrate (His design) on the earth, nor shall there be for them “ any protectors besides Allah! The penalty will be doubled for them. They could not ”.(bear to hear (the truth), and they used not to see (it

Those who make false accusations must forget and give up the idea that being the .support of despots and being among their entourage will save them

(٢١) أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ خَسِرُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ وَضَلَّ عَنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يَفْتَرُونَ

These are they who have lost their own selves, and that which they used to invent “ .٢١
”.has failed them

”.Assuredly, they will be the greatest losers in the Hereafter “ .٢٢

Commentary: verses ٢١–٢٢

In Islamic culture, the world is compared to a marketplace where people are salesmen and the purchasing group consists of Allah, the Satan, one’s passionate self, etc., the number of which is numerous. The merchandise is the soul, property and .performance

This merchandise is on offer at an expensive or cheap price. Hence the words /’ajr/ (recompense), /θawāb/ (reward), /ḍif/ and /’iḍ’āf/, are used frequently in the Qur’ān to mean recompense; while the terms /xusr/ (loss) and /xusrānun mubīn/ (manifest loss) and /axsarīn/ (the most losers) are used about damage. The important warning is that we know that every loss can be compensated except the passage of one’s lifetime :which cannot be redeemed. The holy verse says

These are they who have lost their own selves, and that which they used to invent “
”.has failed them

Sometimes, wealth and property, position and power or one’s social status are lost. At .other times, man himself and his humanity are lost which is the greatest of all losses

Therefore, worldly losses can be compensated but losses incurred in the Hereafter :cannot be replaced. The verse says

”.Assuredly, they will be the greatest losers in the Hereafter “

(٢٣) إِنَّ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ وَأَخْبَتُوا إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ أُولَٰئِكَ أَصْحَابُ الْجَنَّةِ هُمْ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ

Verily those who believe and work righteousness, and humble themselves before “ .٢٣ their Lord, they will be Companions of the Garden, (paradise), they will abide therein ”.for ever

Commentary: verse ٢٣

The Qur’ānic word /axbatū/, is derived from /xabt/ which means both submission and .humility as well as comfort and confidence

.Reward and encourage have also been mentioned along with warnings and threats

Following the aforementioned verses which explained the fate of those who are involved in giving false accusations, this verse exposes the profile of those involved in righteous deeds. It implies that those who believe and perform righteous acts and behave well, who submit themselves before Allah and are confident of His promises, :will be among the Companions of Paradise, remaining there forever. The verse says

Verily those who believe and work righteousness, and humble themselves before “ their Lord, they will be Companions of the Garden, (paradise), they will abide therein ”.for ever

As one’s body has eyes and ears, one’s heart also has eyes and ears and as the blind and the deaf do not perceive the sensations of the world and do not enjoy them, obstinate individuals also stop enjoying the Divine acquaintance and do not enjoy it. Therefore, the Qur’ān inquires whether the deaf and the blind are equal to the hearing and the seeing in the eyes of a wise man. And as they are not equal, the faithful and the unbeliever are not identical either. Do you not meditate in this matter :so as to attain to the truth? The verse says

The similitude the two parties is like the blind and the deaf, and the seeing (ones) and “

Commentary: verses ۲۵–۲۶

Haḍrat Noah is the first prophet among those possessors of determination /’ulul ‘azm/ i.e., among the major prophets, who stood up against polytheism and idol worship, and as the human generation traces its genealogy back to him after the drowning of the unbelievers, he is addressed as the second Adam and, since his life-time was longest comparing that of other prophets, he is called Master of the Prophets. Allah, the Gracious, has told the story of the prophets of the past to warn the unbelievers and to soothe the Prophet (p.b.u.h). Taking up the story of Noah, the Qur’ān says that .he was sent to his people so as to warn them against worshipping other than Allah

:The verse says

”?And verily, We sent Noah to his people, (saying:) ‘I am a plain warner for you “

He started His call in a sincere manner inviting them to accept monotheism because it was the most supreme ideal, for no other act of worship would be accepted before :the All-knowing Allah, the sole and only Creator of the world. The verse says

”.That you serve none but Allah; verily, I do fear for you the penalty of a painful day “

Commentary: verse ٢٧

The opponents of the truth sometimes belittle and endeavor to weaken the Divine leaders. They claim that prophets are men like others and not superior to them. The :verse says

Then the chiefs of those who disbelieved among his people said: ‘We do not see (in) “ ”... ,you but a man like ourselves

At other times, humiliating the prophets’ followers, they claim that they are some :unimportant and insignificant people. The verse continues saying nor do we see that any follow you but those who are the meanest among us, at ... “ ”... ,first thought

At other times, they despise the entire school claiming that the adherents of this :school are naive and superficial who lack any depth of vision. The verse says

”nor do we see (in) you any excellence over us; nay, we think you are liars ...“

Arrogant people often detest being equal with the masses, especially with those who are deprived. Usually, the aristocrats have always allied themselves with the opponents of the prophets but those who take less interest in worldly affairs, become .believers more quickly and are more decent

Therefore, the opponents of the prophets lack reasoning and whatever they claim is .based on conjecture, speculation and on hallucinations

”?compel you to (accept) it while you are averse to it

Commentary: verse ۲۸

This holy verse provides answers to two objections of the unbelievers which were .raised in the foregoing verse

The unbelievers used to say that Noah (a.s.) was a man like themselves. This verse answers that although in appearance the prophets are like the unbelievers, they have merited Allah’s particular approbation since they receive revelations and perform
.miracles

The unbelievers would say that the followers of Haḍrat Noah (a.s.) were some simple minded, short sighted, and naive people. The verse answers that such was not the case, although apparently they were weaker than the unbelievers, they had become believers through witnessing the proofs shown to them by their prophet. Their .conviction, indeed, was not baseless and without reason

Despite all the false accusations and groundless protests, the prophets have always displayed a tolerant attitude towards their foes and they still took recourse to logic,
.reasoning and appeal to their emotions

Of all the things required of the prophets, offering proofs to the people and performing miracles combined with decisive reasoning leave no room for any excuses. Nothing must withhold people from exercising their free choice. Once they stick to their beliefs, they will prosper and once they refuse to do so they will be tormented. There is no :compulsion in that. The verse says

He said: "O my People! Bethink you, if I be upon a clear proof from my Lord, and He " has grant me mercy from His Presence, but has been obscured for you; shall we "?compel you to (accept) it while you are averse to it

Commentary: verse ٢٩

The secret of a preacher's success is his lack of over expectation with regard to people and not letting himself be stymied by the objections of the wealthy corrupt .classes

If the prophets were seeking illegitimate profits, they would call on the aristocrats and not the poor, on the princes not on the paupers. The followers of the prophets are the .oppressed people and they never neglect them

The prophets are never greedy for the people's property. Their sole purpose, according to their mission is to save the people from their ignorance and from the :Divine punishment. The verse says

And O' my People! I ask you no wealth for it. My reward is only upon Allah, and I will “ not drive away those who believe, (for) verily they shall meet their Lord, but I see you ”.are an ignorant people And O my people! Who will help me against Allah if I drove them away? Will you “ ٣٠ .

”?not then reflect

Commentary: verse ٣٠

The Qur’ān further explains the situation in this verse, and from the tongue of the prophet to his people, it implies that if he cast out this group, who in this world can :come to his assistance in that great Court of Justice? The verse says

”... ?And O my people! Who will help me against Allah if I drove them away “

Driving out the righteous and faithful believers is no easy matter. They can bear witness against the prophet on the Day of Resurrection and no one will be able to defend him then, while, at the same time, the Divine punishment might also face him in this world. And contemplating this would lead to knowledge that whatever the :prophet said was identical with the truth. The verse says

”?Will you not then reflect ...“

Allah is well aware of what is in ".their hearts; (for) verily then I should be of the unjust

Commentary: verse ٣١

Knowledge of Unseen, regarding anything and every condition, is absolutely with Allah. The Qur'ān says: "And with Him are the keys of the Unseen. None but He knows them ..." (١) which means that the keys to the invisible world are in His Own authority. However, due to Divine Providence and according to the Divine Will, men of Allah will sometimes find windows opened up for them. The Qur'ān in regard to this fact says:

﴿“These are of the tidings of the Unseen which We reveal unto you. ...”﴾ (٢)

Therefore, Allah's prophets are knowledgeable about the invisible world as the Qur'ān states: "The Knower of the Unseen! So He does not reveal His secrets to any," "Except to him whom He chooses as an apostle..." (٣). This verse means that He is knowledgeable about the invisible world, and no one is aware of this knowledge of the invisible except those whom He has selected from among His prophets.

Not only the knowledge of the invisible world is His own prerogative but the power to perform extraordinary works also rests with Him, though Allah can and will bestow something of whatever aspect of His power which He deems worthy upon anyone He chooses and to the extent that He wishes. For example, it is mentioned in the Qur'ān that death and life are in His Power: “Verily, it is He who makes one die and live” (1)

However, the Qur'ān also says that Haḍrat ‘Isā (a.s.) made the dead live with His permission “I make the dead live with His permission.” (2) Although Allah takes lives (“Allah takes the souls...” (3)

yet angels take lives with His permission: “The angel of death shall cause you to die, ...” (4) And although He is the sole Creator of all, “Allah is the Creator of every thing ...” (5)

But Haḍrat ‘Isā creates, however, with His permission: “...and when you did make of clay a thing like the shape of a bird, by My leave, ...” (6)

Theological research has shown that no one individual existing among the jinn and mankind can have access to the science of the invisible world apart from a limited amount of it which depends upon their potentialities. This type of knowledge in relation to them is not a science of the invisible after it is bestowed on them although it might be so for others. On the other hand, Allah has made the prophets and the Imams knowledgeable about the invisible world and aware of the past and future. For example, the blessed Prophet (p.b.u.h.) had foretold the news of the ‘Imamat’ of twelve persons, the sufferings inflicted on them, the intentional disappearance of Ḥaḍrat Mahdī (a.s.) and his reappearance, the events occurring during the last days, the establishment of his government, and the resurrection of the dead on the Day of Judgment, other similar matters have also been passed down to us from the other Imams (a.s.). Without doubt whatever has not been given to us in this respect is due to the lack of capacity on the part of the average man or has been withheld for reasons \(known only to Allah.\)

At the end of the verse, the Qur’ān goes back to the subject of oppressed believers, emphasizing that the prophet cannot say that those whom the disbelievers despise will not be rewarded by Allah. On the contrary, the blessings of this world and those of the next belong to the oppressed even though they are empty handed in this world. It is the wrongdoers who in their infatuation with the world consider goodness to be confined to wealth, position, youth, and the like, demonstrating their lack of knowledge of the truth and its true meaning. Even if one assumes that the oppressors are right and that the oppressed are indeed wretches, still Allah is more aware than us of what is in their minds, for we know nothing about them except what is indicative of their good faith and sincerity, and thus we are obliged to accept them. I am only required to judge and relate with men based on their outward

They said: ‘O’ Noah! You have disputed with us and multiplied disputation with us. “ ۳۲ ”.Bring us then what you have promised us (of divine punishment), if you are truthful

Commentary: verse ۳۲

Disputes are only valuable whenever they are honestly in pursuit of the truth and done in a respectful and polite manner; as the Qur’ān says: “...and argue with them in \(the best manner.” (۱)

If the dispute is based on what is wrong, it is of no value, as the holy Qur’ān says: “... and they disputed by means of the falsehood in order to stamp out the truth thereby. \(۲” (...)

Thus, as the unbelievers did not have logic on their side and accepted no logical arguments, they sought to bring the debate to an end by telling him to bring unto them what he had promised. The verse says

They said: ‘O’ Noah! You have disputed with us and multiplied disputation with us. “ ”.Bring us then what you have promised us (of divine punishment), if you are truthful

And my advice will not profit you, should I intend to give you advice, if Allah wills to “ .٣٤ ” .lead you astray. He is your Lord and unto Him you will be returned

Commentary: verse ٣٤

Noah said that his advice would have been of no use to them even though he
 .sincerely wished to counsel them

The punishment and retribution of the evildoers is up to Allah, and prophets are .nothing but agents for conveying the Divine message and admonishing the people

There is no way for man to resist or escape Divine justice and punishment, for Allah’s Will overcomes all other wills. Even if one is not punished in this world, Allah will deal
 .with him on the Day of Resurrection, and then he will see the final result of his deeds

However, the Arabic word /nush/ refers to the saying or deed by which sincere reformation is achieved, and the Arabic word /qayy/ is called to that kind of ignorance which has its roots in corrupt and evil convictions. The difference between /’idlāl/ and /’iqwā/ is that the doer of the former knows the destination but he has lost the way, while with respect to /’iqwā/ the aim and intention are both unknown. Attributing the actions of /’idlāl/ and /’iqwā/ to Allah is in the way of punishing those who are misled because of the obstinacy and corruption of their character. It does not mean that
 .from the beginning and without prior premise Allah goes on leading one astray

(٣٥) أَمْ يَقُولُونَ افْتَرَاهُ قُلْ إِنِ افْتَرَيْتُهُ فَعَلَيْ إِجْرَامِي وَأَنَا بَرِيءٌ مِمَّا تُجْرِمُونَ

Or they say: ‘He has forged it.’ Say: ‘If I have forged it, upon me is my sin, and I am “ .٣٥
”.’quit of the sins you commit

Commentary: verse ٣٥

Some of the unbelievers among the Quraysh claimed that these stories of the prophets had been fabricated by the Prophet himself (p.b.u.h.) which he then attributed to Allah. The Almighty instructs him to tell them that if he had fabricated them, it would be he alone who would suffer the consequences and they would not be held responsible, but the converse is also true with respect to their transgressions, that he is just as free of responsibility for their sins and offences. His duty is only to convey the message and nothing else, whether or not they accepted or rejected it.

:The verse says

Or they say: ‘He has forged it.’ Say: ‘If I have forged it, upon me is my sin, and I am “
”.’quit of the sins you commit

Apparently because of the Qur’ānic word /qul/, which means ‘say’, and owing to the news about the unbelievers of Mecca and the Prophet of Islam, the verse relates to the Apostle of Islam (p.b.u.h.). Anyway, he who commits an act will only be held responsible and it is no one else’s fault. The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) will not be involved in their sins either. The fact that they did not accept the faith and attributed false accusations to the Qur’ān, calling the Prophet a liar, all together resulted in grievous consequences while on his part, he had performed his mission in admonishing and conveying the message to them

The Arabic term /’ijrām/ and /jurm/ mean the picking of unripe fruits and which thereafter have been referred to whatever indecent behavior or offence or sin

Point

The Fate of Those Who disbelieved Noah

Noah directed to make an Ark – People of Noah scoff at Noah – The Deluge – Noah’s people drowned – Noah and his companions in the Ark saved

(۳۶) وَأَوْحَىٰ إِلَىٰ نُوحٍ أَنَّهُ لَنْ يُؤْمِنَ مِنْ قَوْمِكَ إِلَّا مَن قَدْ ءَامَنَ فَلَا تَبْتَئِسْ بِمَا كَانُوا يَفْعَلُونَ

And it was revealed unto Noah: ‘None of your people will believe except those “ ۳۶ .” who have already believed, so do not grieve as to what they used to do

Commentary: verse ۳۶

The previous holy verses thoroughly covered the stage of inviting the people to the religion on Divine unity and Noah’s indefatigable propagation and dissemination of the Divine message which he accomplished using all the devices he had available. This verse deals with the second stage of the campaign; the final stage of the propagation phase

Here, the second phase of the campaign has not been dealt with, it is the end of the propagation stage, and the second stage is the preparation for the Divine purge

At first, we read that it was revealed to Noah that no one else except those who had already adhered to him would become believers. The verse says

And it was revealed unto Noah: ‘None of your people will believe except those who “ ... ,have already believed

Reference is here made to the fact that alignments had already been made and finalized and no further call or reformation would have been useful, hence a state of readiness for the upheaval and

.the purge must be declared

Towards the end of the verse, consoling Noah, the Qur'ān implies that he should not :despair at all despite whatever wrongful deeds they used to do. The verse says

”.’so do not grieve as to what they used to do ...“

In the meantime, one can infer from this verse that Allah made those aspects of the knowledge of the secrets of the Unseen that He had deemed necessary, accessible so
.that His prophet should know

And make you the Ark under Our eyes, and as We reveal; and address Me not “ .٣٧
”about those who are unjust; verily they shall be drowned

Commentary: verse ٣٧

At any rate, this unruly and obstinate group must be punished with the kind of punishment that would remove their polluting existence from the entire world, thus
.liberating the faithful believers from their yoke

At first, the Qur’ān implies that Allah commanded Noah to build an Ark according to :His order and in His presence. The verse says

”... ;And make you the Ark under Our eyes, and as We reveal “

Towards the end of the verse, Noah is warned against any form of mediation on behalf of the oppressors. Saying to him that he should not ask for any amnesty or clemency for they are certainly condemned to chastisement and to be drowned as :soon as they are convicted. The verse says

”.and address Me not about those who are unjust; verily they shall be drowned ...“

One can very easily infer from this sentence that taking up the act of mediation requires certain preconditions which, when they are lacking in someone, even Allah’s
.prophet is not rightful to mediate on his behalf

(٣٨) وَيَضَعُ الْفُلُكَ وَكَلَّمَا مَرَّ عَلَيْهِ مَلَأَ مِنْ قَوْمِهِ سَخِرُوا مِنْهُ قَالَ إِنْ تَسَخَرُوا مِنَّا فَإِنَّا نَسَخَرُ مِنْكُمْ كَمَا تَسَخَرُونَ

And he began making the Ark; and whenever the chiefs of his people passed by “ ٣٨. him they scoffed at him. He said: ‘If you scoff at us, we (too) shall surely scoff at you, ’ as you scoff

Commentary: verse ٣٨

Let us briefly discuss the situation of Noah’s People. Instead of taking Noah’s call seriously for a moment, and allowing some room for accepting the probability of the truth of his repeated calls which might have had their origins in Divine Providence and that the subject of punishment through storms might be serious, Noah’s people went on mocking and ridiculing as is the case with all arrogant and vainglorious people, however he went on building the Ark. Whenever some of his people passed by him they would watch Noah and his companions struggle to prepare the timber, nails and other ship-building instruments, and they would laugh and ridicule them. The verse says:

And he began making the Ark; and whenever the chiefs of his people passed by him “ ... they scoffed at him

However, Noah pursued his goal with an extraordinary persistence whose origins lay in his faith, and paying no attention to what they said, he made rapid progress in his efforts. Day after day, the structure of the ship came closer and closer to completion. Noah would sometimes raise his head, and told them this short out expressive statement: “You ridicule us today, but we will surely do the same thing to you soon, the day when you are caught, lost and wandering in the storm, terrified, running in all directions with no shelter, crying in the midst of the waves, begging for mercy, the believers then and there will laugh at your negligence, and ignorance.” The verse

:says

”.’ He said: ‘If you scoff at us, we (too) shall surely scoff at you, as you scoff ...“

(٣٩) فَسَوْفَ تَعْلَمُونَ مَنْ يَأْتِيهِ عَذَابٌ يُخْزِيهِ وَيَحِلُّ عَلَيْهِ عَذَابٌ مُتَقِيمٌ

So you shall know soon to whom a Penalty (that) will confound him comes, and “ ٣٩ .
”upon whom there shall fall a lasting Penalty

Commentary: verse ٣٩

Point

The meaning of the punishment which is modified by the term /yuxzīhi/ is the devastating worldly punishment, i.e. their being drowned which would humiliate and belittle them, whilst the meaning of the term /‘aǒābun muqīm/ is the punishment to be imposed on the Day of Resurrection. The verse says

So you shall know soon to whom a Penalty (that) will confound him comes, and upon “
”whom there shall fall a lasting Penalty

In some Islamic narrations, one reads that forty years prior to the appearance of the storm, a type of disease had spread among the women of the People of Noah which had prevented them from giving birth to children. This event, in fact, marked the beginning of their punishment

:Noah’s Ark

Noah’s Ark, undoubtedly, was not an ordinary ship and its manufacture in those days with the technology of the time was not easily accomplished. It was a large vessel which, in addition to the believers, accommodated pairs of an extremely wide variety of animals, it also carried a large amount of food supplies for the human passengers, as well as food for the animals which was unprecedented for that time. In particular, this ship had to be safely navigated through a sea that covered the entire world with mountain-sized waves and still remain intact. In their commentaries, some Qur'ān commentators have expressed their admiration for the magnitude of the ship. Refer to the .comments of Majma'ul-Bayān for further information

But there believed not with him but a few

Commentary: verse ٤٠

:The Onset of the Flood

In the previous verses, we noted how Noah and the true believers became occupied in building the Ark of Salvation and, while subjected to all kinds of difficulties and sarcasms of the arrogant unbelieving majority, they prepared themselves for the flood. Here, the Qur’ān expounds upon the third highlight or the climax of the story which relates to the punishment inflicted upon this oppressive nation. First of all, it says that this situation continued until Allah’s command was issued and the dawning of the divine punishment appeared, and waters of the earth gushed forth. The verse says:

“... !(Thus it was) till, when Our Command came, and the oven gushed forth (water) “

Those people who were inattentive and unaware probably noticed the bubbling water in their wells, but, as usual, they did not heed these Divine warnings much less try to understand their meaning. They probably did not pay any attention to it at all to see if a cataclysm was about to occur, and maybe to at least

.entertain the possibility that Noah’s warnings might be real

At this time, the Command was issued to Noah that he should put a pair of each animal on the Ark so that they would not be exterminated in the flood. And that he, his family, except those for whom word had already had been marked for their punishment, and the believers should board the Ark of Salvation. However few were
:those who had believed in him. The verse says

We said: “Embark therein, of each kind a pair, and your family (apart from your ... “ wife and a son) – except for those him against whom the Word has already passed –
”.and whoever believed. But there believed not with him but a few

This verse, on the one hand, refers to the wife of Noah and his son ‘Kan’an’, who, deviating from the path of belief and being in collaboration with the sinners, had .broken off their relationship with Noah and were not entitled to embark on the Ark

On the other hand, it refers to the limited success that Noah (a.s.) had had in persuading people to follow his way of life during his long years of continuous struggle
.that had resulted in getting only a small number of believers

And he (Noah) said: ‘Embark in it! In Allah’s Name shall be its sailing and its “ .٤١
”’.berthing. Verily my Lord is the Forgiving, the Merciful

Commentary: verse ٤١

Noah assembled his relatives and companions quickly and as the time of the devastating storm and the striking Punishment approached, he ordered them to embark in the name of Allah and to remember Allah both when the Ark was in motion :or standing still for He is the All Forgiving, the All Compassionate. The verse says

And he (Noah) said: ‘Embark in it! In Allah’s Name shall be its sailing and its berthing. “
”’.Verily my Lord is the Forgiving, the Merciful

Owing to His blessings, Allah had made these instruments available to you, His faithful .servants, and because of His forgiveness, He may pardon your offences

So, it sailed with them amid waves like mountains. And Noah called out to his son “ .٤٢
”and he was aloof: ‘O my son! Embark with us and be not with the unbelievers

Commentary: verse ٤٢

At long last, the final moment arrived and the Command for the punishment of this unruly nation was issued. Dark and ominous clouds darker than the darkest night covered the entire sky, massing on top of each other in an unprecedented manner. There was the terrible clap of thunder and the flash of lightning ceaselessly filled up the sky. They informed of a great disaster mounting in magnitude and terrible in character.

It started raining. The droplets grew bigger and bigger in size. The level of underground water rose and gushing fountains emerged everywhere.

The surface of the earth was soon turned into an ocean, and with the wind howling, mountain-like waves raged over this ocean, rising over each other, to come crashing down upon the surface of the stormy sea. Noah’s Ark parted the mountain-like waves and made headway. The verse says

So, it sailed with them amid waves like mountains. And Noah called out to his son and “
”... :he was aloof

:Addressing his son, who was standing on the side and not far from him, Noah shouted

”O my son! Embark with us and be not with the unbelievers“...“

However, his son’s companionship and association with evil company had overtaken him to such an extent that his father’s compassion against annihilation made no impact upon him.

(٤٣) قَالَ سَاوِي إِلَى جَبَلٍ يَعْصِمُنِي مِنَ الْمَاءِ قَالَ لَا عَاصِمَ الْيَوْمَ مِنْ أَمْرِ اللَّهِ إِلَّا مَنْ رَحِمَ وَحَالَ بَيْنَهُمَا الْمَوْجُ فَكَانَ مِنَ الْمُغْرَقِينَ

He said: ‘I will take refuge in a mountain; it will save me from the water.’ Said he “ .٤٣ (Noah): ‘Today, there is no protector from Allah’s decree but (of whom) He has mercy.’

Commentary: verse ٤٣

Point

This obstinate and shortsighted son, thinking that he could escape Allah’s anger, shouted implying that his father should not be worried about him. He would take to the mountain which could never be overtaken by flood-waters, and it would shelter :him. The verse says

”...’.He said: ‘I will take refuge in a mountain; it will save me from the water “

Noah still did not despair. He advised his son once more, so as to lead him onto the True Path and overcome his son’s shortsightedness and arrogance. He said to him that no power was able to save anyone from Allah’s command. The only hope of being :saved remained for him who was covered by Allah’s blessing. The verse says

Said he (Noah): ‘Today, there is no protector from Allah’s decree but (of whom) He ...“
”...’.has mercy

At this time, a wave, coming between them, overwhelmed his son, uprooting him as if he was a straw, and placed him among the drowned ones. The verse continues :saying

” .And the waves came between them, and he was among the drowned ...“

As we notice, the main aim of the Qur'ān is to teach us lessons by recounting the didactic teachings of past history, from which one can draw the following inferences

Purging the face of the earth: It is true that Allah is Compassionate and Kind. – ۱ However, one must not forget that He is at the same time Wise. Whenever a nation becomes corrupt and does not answer the call of His messengers He judges it appropriate that that nation has no right to continue to live. Ultimately, their system will be overthrown through some natural or social revolutions

This has not been confined to the Noah's nation, nor has it been confined to a particular time and place. As a result of the Divine Providence this has taken place throughout all ages and among all nations up to our time. The first and the second World Wars might be regarded as examples of such a purge

Why Punishment was inflicted by a flood. It is true that a corrupt nation must be – ۲ exterminated, but their means of annihilation can vary. The holy verses of the Qur'ān provide evidence that punishments are commensurate with sins of the nations punished

The Pharaoh relied on the River Nile which was the backbone of his power, and, interestingly, it became the source of his annihilation

The People of Noah was an agricultural and a livestock-breeding nation. That ungodly nation had relied upon rainfall for everything, and ultimately that very nation was wiped out by rainfall

If we notice that our contemporary fellow human beings are being devastated with their most modern arms and ammunitions, we must not be surprised, for the advanced industries which they relied upon for the exploitation of

.oppressed nations, would be eventually used for their own destruction

Unreliable shelters of straw. It is usual for everyone to take shelter to something – ۳ when in need. Some take refuge in their wealth, some find shelter in their position, some rely upon their bodily strength, and finally, some rely upon their power of thinking. However, as the above verses show, and as history has demonstrated for us, none of these can resist the command of the Almighty, and they will easily .disappear just like a spider’s web standing in the storms

The ignorant and stiff-necked son of the prophet Noah committed the same fault. He thought that the mountains could protect him from Allah’s Wrath. But, what a grave .mistake! The sweep of a wave put an end to his life

The Ark of Salvation. As it has been quoted from the blessed Prophet (p.b.u.h.) – ۴ which is found in Shī‘ah and Sunni books, the Prophet’s family, which are the Imams and Ahl-ul-Bayt (a.s.), as well as the content of the school of Islam, have been designated as ‘the Ark of Salvation’. That is, when tremendous changes occur in the mental, ideological, and social spheres of the Islamic community, the only means of .(salvation is to take refuge in the School of the Ahl-ul-Bayt (a.s

The tradition which talks about this ‘Ark of Salvation’, the tradition of /safīnah/ (ship) has been generally accepted by the consensus of the Imamiah scholars and by more than ۱۰۰ Sunni scholars as well. It has been narrated as follows: “Abūthar, the great companion of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), while holding the knob of the door of the Ka‘bah, said with a loud voice: ‘O you people! I heard the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) saying with my own ears, that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said ‘The similitude of my Ahl-ul-Bayt (family) is like Noah’s Ark; he who embarks upon it is rescued, and he who distances himself from it, will perish.’ Certainly, other great personalities at the dawn of Islam like Abū Sa‘īd Khedri, Ibn Abbas, Abdullah–Ibn Zubayr, and Anas Ibn–Mālik have also quoted this tradition of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) which has been mentioned in the known books (of the Ahl al Sunna.)

If we place this sequential ‘Hadith’ (tradition) alongside another sequential ‘Hadith’ which says: “The Muslims will be divided into ۷۳ sects, out of which only one will be saved,” it would become evident that the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) himself considered this sect to be the one that follows the Ahl–ul–Bayt, (a.s.) and where he says ‘He who .(embarks upon it will be saved,’ he means the same term /nājiyah/ (saved

Commentary: verse ٤٤

The End of an Adventure

Noah left the ship up to Allah to take the rudder in His own hands. The waves had taken the ship in an undesignated direction. It has been quoted that the ship drifted for six months, passing by various places, including Mecca and the area surrounding .the House of the Ka‘ba

Eventually, the decree ending the punishment and the return of the earth to its original state was issued. This verse explains the details and the conditions as well as the ensuing consequences in a concise, and at the same time, extraordinarily beautiful and eloquent manner in a few sentences. The earth was commanded to absorb all its water and the sky was ordered to stop raining; the water subsided and :the work was accomplished. The verse says

And it was said: ‘O earth! Swallow down your water, and O sky! Withhold (your rain)!’ “
”... ,And the water abated, and the matter was ended

The ship came to rest on the slopes of Mount Judi, which is a famous mountain near Mosul and it was at this time that it was proclaimed that off with the oppressors! The
:verse says

and it (the Ark) rested on the (Mount) Judi, and it was said: ‘Away with the unjust ... “
”!people

According to a number of Arab men of knowledge this verse is counted as the most eloquent and the most fluent of the Qur’ānic verses. According to the narrations and the books of Islamic history it is said that some unbelievers of the Quraysh, starting a campaign against the Qur’ān, decided to fabricate verses like those of the Holy Book. Their supporters provided them with the best food and drink for forty days including the kernel of a particular type of wheat, mutton, and old wine, so that their minds would be free of every kind of anxiety in order to compose the verses. However, when they arrived at the above verse, they were so moved by it that they gazed at one another in surprise, saying: “These are words unsurpassed and unequalled by all means, and they do not resemble those made by human beings.” Saying this, they
.abandoned their decision and dispersed in despair

And Noah called unto his Lord, and said: “O my Lord! Verily, my son is of my family, “ .٤٥

Commentary: verse ٤٥

:The Tragic Story of Noah’s Son

In the foregoing verses, we noted that Noah’s son did not listen to his father’s advice,
.and did not stop being obstinate and stiff-necked to the last moment

Another part of this same story is being dealt with here. That is, when Noah noticed his son buffeted by the waves, his fatherly emotions were provoked and he was reminded of Allah’s promise that his family would be saved. Facing Allah’s sanctuary, he cried: that his son was a member of his family and He had promised him that He would save his family from the storm and His promises are always true. Allah is superior to all rulers, and He is a staunch keeper of His promise. This promise refers to the same subject that was discussed in the fortieth verse of this Sura. The verse
:says

And Noah called unto his Lord, and said: “O my Lord! Verily, my son is of my family, “
”.and certainly Your promise is true and You are the Most just of Judges

(٤٦) قَالَ يَا نُوحُ إِنَّهُ لَيْسَ مِنْ أَهْلِكَ إِنَّهُ عَمَلٌ غَيْرُ صَالِحٍ فَلَا تَسْأَلْنِي مَا لَيْسَ لَكَ بِهِ عِلْمٌ إِنِّي أَعِظُكَ أَنْ تَكُونَ مِنَ الْجَاهِلِينَ

He (Allah) said: ‘O’ Noah! Verily he is not of your family. Verily he is (of) conduct “ .٤٦
.other than righteous

So do not ask of Me that of which you have no knowledge! I admonish you, lest you
”should be among the ignorant

Commentary: verse ٤٦

However, the thought provoking answer was provided, recalling a stern reality and the secondary status of the family relationship as separated from religious school of thought. Allah tells Noah that he was not of his kind, on the contrary, he was an evil doer; a man of misdemeanor, whose family relationship was of no value and kinship of no avail owing to the fact that he was cut off from Noah’s school of thought, as such Noah should not make any requests about which he had no knowledge and :therefore he should not be among the ignorant. The verse says

He (Allah) said: ‘O’ Noah! Verily he is not of your family. Verily he is (of) conduct other“
.than righteous

So do not ask of Me that of which you have no knowledge! I admonish you, lest you
”should be among the ignorant

Imam Riḍā (a.s.) has been quoted as saying that one day he asked his friends: “How do the common folk comment on this verse, which says: ‘...Verily he is (of) conduct
’...’.other than righteous

One person from among the audience replied: “Some believe that it means that he ,who is referred to as Noah’s son that is, Kan‘ān was not his real son.” The Imam (a.s.) said: “No it is not so, he was his real son, though Allah refused him his kinship when he committed sins and disobeyed, leading himself astray. Those who also belong to our school but refuse to obey Allah

” should not be considered as of us

He (Noah) said: ‘O my Lord! Verily I seek refuge in You, lest I should ask You (for) “ .٤٧ that of which I have no knowledge. And unless You forgive me and have Mercy on me ”.’I should be of the losers

Commentary: verse ٤٧

Noah discovered that his request for Allah’s sanctuary had been out of the question, and that he should have never considered the salvation of such a son as being covered by Allah’s promise to save his family members. Therefore, turning to Him, he said that he would do seek refuge in Him for whatever good and evil he had no knowledge of, and so of making wrong requests. And unless He forgive him for having made such a request, and pardon him, he would be among the losers, indeed. The :verse says

He (Noah) said: ‘O my Lord! Verily I seek refuge in You, lest I should ask You (for) that “ of which I have no knowledge. And unless You forgive me and have Mercy on me I ”.’should be of the losers

It was said: ‘O Noah! Debark in peace from Us, and blessings upon you and on the “ .٤٨ nations of those with you; and nations whom We shall afford provision, then there ”.’shall afflict them from Us a painful chastisement

Commentary: verse ٤٨

Noah disembarked from the Ark safely. In this verse allusions are made to Noah’s .disembarkation, as well as to the regeneration of the earth

Firstly, the holy Qur’ān implies that Noah was addressed saying: that he should disembark from the Ark safely with Blessings from Allah to him and to those with him.

:The verse says

It was said: ‘O Noah! Debark in peace from Us, and blessings upon you and on the “ ...;nations of those with you

Obviously, the storm had devastated all signs of life, it destroyed cultivated lands, green pastures, and the orchards that had once flourished, and everything had been rendered infertile and arid. At this time, Noah and his companions were in grave narrowness as far as their lives and nutrition were concerned. However, Allah reassured this group of believers that the Divine blessings would not be withheld from them and therefore, they should stop worrying about their livelihood because an .appropriate and a blissful environment awaited them

Then it adds that there would descend from this faithful group, nations of people on whom We Allah would bestow different kinds of Blessings although some of them would become arrogant and negligent, and consequently a grave punishment would :be inflicted upon them. The verse says and nations whom We shall afford provision, then there shall afflict them from Us a ...“

”.’painful chastisement

(٤٩) تِلْكَ مِنْ أَنْبَاءِ الْغَيْبِ نُوحِيهَا إِلَيْكَ مَا كُنْتَ تَعْلَمُهَا أَنْتَ وَلَا قَوْمُكَ مِنْ قَبْلِ هَذَا فَاصْبِرْ إِنَّ الْعَاقِبَةَ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ

O Prophet!) these are of the tidings of the Unseen which We reveal unto you.) “ .٤٩ Before this, neither you nor your people knew them. Therefore, be you patient, verily
”.the end is for the pious ones

Commentary: verse ٤٩

This verse, by which ends the story of Noah in this Sura, sums up what had been covered previously. It implies that all this comes from the world beyond your powers of perception that Allah has revealed to the Prophet which neither he nor his people :knew of before. The verse says

O Prophet!) these are of the tidings of the Unseen which We reveal unto you. Before ) “
”... .this, neither you nor your people knew them

The gist of what was revealed to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) about Noah was that amidst all those difficulties he had encountered in the course of his calling, still he persevered. The Prophet too, should persevere because the final victory is reserved for those who :are pious. The verse says

”.Therefore, be you patient, verily the end is for the pious ones ...“

One can infer from this verse that contrary to what some people think, the prophets were aware of the invisible world with condition that their knowledge had its source in .the Divine will, and was confined to the extent that Allah wanted

We shall now leave the story of Noah at this point, despite all the wonders and didactic lessons that can be drawn from it, and take up another great prophet, that is Hūd, in whose name this Sura has been entitled

:The feature of Noah in the Qur'ān

The story of Noah (a.s.) is mentioned in six of the suras of the Qur'ān: Al-A'rāf, Hūd, Mu'minūn, Shu'arā, Qamar, and Nūh but, it is most extensively discussed in the current Sura, Hūd. The appointment of Noah to prophecy was made after Adam (a.s.) and during the time of the spread of unbelief, idol worship and oppression, his agenda consisted of enforcing and spreading monotheism and the daily prayers, encouraging people to decent conduct, dissuading them from committing the forbidden, and preaching justice, honesty and remaining faithful to one's own words

The duration of Noah's prophecy extended for ٩٥٠ years. When, at the end of his period, Allah told him that no one would accept his faith, he was discouraged and cursed the people. As a result, his wife and son, who did not belong to his school of thought, were drowned along with the other unbelievers

He was the first prophet with a universal mission, a Book and a sharī'ah (a specific religious law). The story of Noah (a.s.) has also been mentioned in the Torah, as well in the Books of the Chaldeans, the Hindus, the Chinese, the Greeks and the Zoroastrians. They have all regarded the Flood of Noah as a sign of Allah's anger because of people's oppression and corruption

Noah's mission was universal. As the planet earth cannot remain without a savior, the drowning of all the people was due to Noah's (a.s.) curse when he said: "... My Lord! \(Leave not upon the earth any dweller from among the unbelievers.\)" \(1\)

Sura Nūh, No. ٧١, verse ٢٤ -١

The holy Qur'ān testifies to the fact that the flood did occur. On the other hand, if that great man's mission had been regional and the area where the flood occurred was also limited to that region, there would have been no need for putting a pair of each animal onto the Ark in order to preserve generations of the animal kingdom on the .earth

The Story of Noah (a.s.): Noah's story is that of a life spanning a one thousand year history embodying the story of a world-devastating flood, the account of the extermination of an entire generation of man and the beginning of a new chapter in human history on this earth. It reflects the victory of truth against 'untruth' and Allah's acceptance of the prophets' curses. It is an example of how the relationship between a father and son can be broken for ideological reasons and it is a sign of the submission of existence in its entirety with respect to Allah's command. It shows the importance of the conservation and preservation of animal life and also indicates the extent to which man may be so despicable that he may not be moved by the admonitions of the prophets, on the contrary, he can disrespect their followers as villains, and think he could escape Allah's wrath by taking refuge in physical structures .like mountains

The Ministry of Hūd

The people had been exhorted by Hūd, to believe in and serve none but Allah – They rejected Hūd’s admonition and thus they were destroyed

(۵۰) وَإِلَىٰ عَادِ أَخَاهُمْ هُودًا قَالَ يَا قَوْمِ اعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ إِلَهٍ غَيْرُهُ إِنِّي أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا مُفْتَرُونَ

And unto (the people of) ‘Ād (We sent) their brother Hūd; he said: ‘O my people! “ ۵۰. ”?’ (Worship Allah! You have no god other than He. You are only forgers (of calumnies

Commentary: verse ۵۰

Hūd (a.s.) succeeded Noah (a.s.) as a prophet. The story of this prophet of Allah is recorded in verses ۶۵ to ۷۲ of the Sura Al-A‘rāf

:At first, the Qur’ān recounts

”... ;And unto (the people of) ‘Ād (We sent) their brother Hūd “

There is a point worth further clarification here. It provides us with the connotation, ‘brother,’ in the case of Hūd, which reflects the fact that Arabs refer to all the individuals of a tribe as ‘brothers’. Another connotation signifies that the behavior of Hūd had been very much like that of a brother in keeping with the other prophets’ relationships with their fellow tribesmen. They did not behave as ‘emirs’, as commanders or as fathers with respect to their children, but they related just like brothers irrespective of every privilege and superiority

Hūd's first call was like that of all the other prophets, it was the call to monotheism and the negation of idol worship in all its respects. Hūd called inviting them to worship :Allah since there is no other worth worshipping except Him. The verse says

"... he said: 'O my people! Worship Allah! You have no god other than He ..."

He told them that in worshipping the idols and believing in them, they were wrong. .They only attributed falsity to Allah and claimed that those idols were His partners

:The verse continues saying

"?'(You are only forgers (of calumnies ..."

These idols should neither have been considered His partners nor could they have been sources of good or evil. They were of no use. No false accusation could have !been more humiliating than considering such worthless things as significant

(٥١) يَا قَوْمِ لَآ أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ أَجْرًا إِنِ اجْرِيَ إِلَّا عَلَى الَّذِي فَطَرَنِي أَفَلَا تَعْقِلُونَ Hūd said) ‘O’ my people! I ask you no reward for it. My reward is only upon Him) “ ٥١ .

”?Who created me. Have you then no sense

Commentary: verse ٥١

Hūd (a.s.) declared to his people that he did not expect any compensation for his call from them. He did not demand any rewards from them so that they might think that his appeals and his supplications were for the acquisition of wealth and position or :whatever else. It declares Hūd said) ‘O’ my people! I ask you no reward for it. My reward is only upon Him Who) “

”?created me. Have you then no sense

.The only compensation and reward for me is from Him Who has created me

He Who has bestowed upon me my soul and my body, and to Whom I owe
.everything; that is my Creator and it is He Who provides for my needs

In principle, if I take any steps in the direction of your guidance and happiness, it is for the sake of being obedient to His commandments and therefore I expect Him to .provide me with my sustenance, not you

****

(٥٢) وَيَا قَوْمِ اسْتَغْفِرُوا رَبَّكُمْ ثُمَّ تُوبُوا إِلَيْهِ يُرْسِلِ السَّمَاءَ عَلَيْكُمْ مِدْرَاراً وَيَزِدْكُمْ قُوَّةً إِلَى قُوَّتِكُمْ وَلَا تَتَوَلَّوْا مُجْرِمِينَ

And O my people! Ask forgiveness of your Lord, then turn unto Him repentant. He “ ٥٢. will send you the sky pouring abundant rain, increasing you strength unto your strength; and do not you turn back (from the Truth) as sinners

Commentary: verse ٥٢

Eventually, to encourage them and utilize all possible means of awakening the truth – seeking spirit of this misled people, he takes recourse to offering those material rewards that are conditional upon faith which Allah makes available to the faithful in this world; Hūd said to his people to ask the Lord for forgiveness for having committed sins, thus repenting and returning to Him. The verse says

”... And O my people! Ask forgiveness of your Lord, then turn unto Him repentant “

By doing so, (you will notice that) He will order the skies to provide you with enlivening rain in on a regular basis. The verse continues saying

”... ,He will send you the sky pouring abundant rain ...“

He will do all this so that your cultivated lands and your gardens would not fall into the grip of drought and would always remain green. Moreover because of your faith, virtue, abstinence from sin and returning to Him, your power would be increased. The verse says increasing you strength unto your strength; and do not you turn back (from the ... “ .Truth) as sinners

Imam Hasan (a.s.) has been quoted as saying that he once went to Mu‘awiyah. On his return, one of Mu‘awiyah’s gatemen told him that he had a great deal of wealth but he could not father a son. Then he asked the Imam to instruct him in a prayer so that He might enable him to have a child. The Imam (a.s.) answered: “Make repentance one of your primary goals.” That man repented over and over again, sometimes repenting seven hundred times a day. Then Allah bestowed upon him a son. On hearing the news, Mu‘awiyah asked the man why he had not asked the Imam as to why repentance carries such a tremendous influence. The next time he encountered the Imam, he thus made this query to which the Imam (a.s.) responded: “Have you not heard that Allah says in the story of Hūd “... and increasing strength upon your ”... ,strength

The Qur’ānic term /quwwah/ has been interpreted as property (wealth), children, and energy. In the story of Noah, verse ١٢, the Qur’ān implies that if you repent and .apologize, He will add to your prestige with children and property

One should not think that faith in Allah and focusing on Him signifies distancing .oneself from wealth and property

Were we to accept the faith, not only we would not lose anything, but also our wealth and property will be multiplied. If the Islamic state aspires towards economic .expansion, it must seek a strategy for expanding the spiritual state of its society

.At any rate, turning away from the prophets and neglecting them is a grave sin

(٥٣) قَالُوا يَا هُوْدُ مَا جِئْتَنَا بِبَيِّنَةٍ وَمَا نَحْنُ بِتَارِكِي آلِهَتِنَا عَنْ قَوْلِكَ وَمَا نَحْنُ لَكَ بِمُؤْمِنِيْنَ

They said: ‘O Hūd! You have brought us no clear proof, and we shall not abandon “ ٥٣ .
”!our gods for your word, nor are we believers in you

Commentary: verse ٥٣

Those who worship idols of stone and wood, and offer no solid reasons for their deeds, question the prophets whose way of life is to prove the truth of their claims by performing miracles and offering clear evidence. Disbelievers’ main response was that they would not abandon their idols for the sake of Hud’s words. They did not mention anything regarding lack of evidence as they were not after reasoning. They :reiterated

They said: ‘O Hūd! You have brought us no clear proof, and we shall not abandon our “
”!gods for your word, nor are we believers in you

The prophets met with fierce resistance from the idol worshippers in the first stage of .their call, but they never neglected their duty in propagating Allah’s message

We say nothing but that some of our gods have smitten you with evil. He said: “ ٥٤ ‘Verily I call Allah to witness and bear you (also) witness that I am quit of what you ”.(associate (with Allah

Commentary: verse ٥٤

The Arabic term /i'tirā/ means protest and cursing. Ascribing insanity to the prophets, as well as to revolutionaries, and community reformists, who have risen up against superstition, is nothing new. On the contrary, declaring their distance from and abhorrence of idol-worshipping and idol worshippers has always been in keeping with the spirit of all the Divine prophets which itself provides us with an example :confirming that one must stand decisively against superstition. The verse says

We say nothing but that some of our gods have smitten you with evil. He said: ‘Verily “
I call Allah to witness and bear you (also) witness that I am quit of what you associate ”.(with Allah

The resistance and challenging spirit of Hūd (a.s.) provides the reason for his legitimacy and the decisiveness of his path. It exhibits the fact that prophets fear Allah .only and are not frightened by any other power

***

(٥٥) مِنْ دُونِهِ فَكَيْدُونِي جَمِيعًا ثُمَّ لَا تُنظِرُونِ

Besides Him, (I am quit of everything you worship), therefore, scheme (your “ ٥٥ .
” .worst) against me, all together, and give me no respite

Commentary: verse ٥٥

Hūd further goes on to say that not only they are unable to be of any use to you, but also you, with such a large population still lack the power to do anything even with the aid of those whom you worship other than Him

So I dare all of you to unite and plan any kind of conspiracies you can against me, give me no chances, you cannot do anything against me. The verse says

Besides Him, (I am quit of everything you worship), therefore, scheme (your worst) “

Verily, I have put my trust in Allah, my Lord and your Lord! (For) there is no “ ٥٦. moving creature but He holds it (in His control) by its forelock. Verily my Lord is on a ”.Straight Path

Commentary: verse ٥٦

By relying on Allah, one can stand up against the entire world, for Allah is in full command of everything and besides being All-Powerful, He is also Just. Therefore one must rely on him who, besides having power, is just, too; such as Allah, the prophet and immaculate Imams. The verse says

Verily, I have put my trust in Allah, my Lord and your Lord! (For) there is no moving “ creature but He holds it (in His control) by its forelock. Verily my Lord is on a Straight ”.Path

One can speak of Divine anger and the Divine system of justice being at work when the issue involved is the enmity and obstinacy of the idol worshippers, so that they .may be transformed and become believers

(٥٧) فَإِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَقَدْ أَبْلَغْتُكُمْ مَا أُرْسِلْتُ بِهِ إِلَيْكُمْ وَيَسْتَخْلِفُ رَبِّي قَوْمًا غَيْرَكُمْ وَلَا تَضُرُّونَهُ شَيْئًا إِنَّ رَبِّي عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ حَفِيظٌ

But if you turn away (from my call), I have conveyed the Message with which I “ .٥٧ was sent to you and my Lord will make another People to succeed you, and you will “not harm Him in the least. Verily my Lord is Guardian over everything

Commentary: verse ٥٧

Eventually, Hūd’s last words to them are as that is they turn away from the Right Path, it is not he who will be at a loss as he has completed his mission which is :conveying Allah’s message. The verse says

But if you turn away (from my call), I have conveyed the Message with which I was “ ... sent to you

He means that they should not think that if his call had not been well received it would be a defeat for him. No, he completed his mission, and thus he had been the .successful

Then he warns them of the Divine punishment as the idol worshippers were threatened, saying that if they do not heed Allah’s call, the Lord will soon exterminate them, replacing them with another people, and He will not suffer any loss. The verse :says and my Lord will make another People to succeed you, and you will not harm Him ... “ ... in the least

This is the law of creation, which is, if a nation is not eligible to receive Allah’s .blessings, it will be removed and will be replaced by another more deserving nation

Also, they should beware, that Allah is the Guardian of everything and keeps a record of all accounts. He never misses a chance, He never forgets nor does He leave the prophets and His friends in the sea of oblivion. On the contrary, He is aware of everything and is in full command. The verse says

”Verily my Lord is Guardian over everything ...“

And when Our decree came, We saved Hūd and those who believed with him, by “ ٥٨ .
”a Mercy from Us and delivered them from a harsh chastisement

Commentary: verse ٥٨

Just as inflicting punishment takes place according to Allah’s decree, being rescued from it also is in His hands and the prophets and their companions are exempt from Allah’s penalty, because they obey His guidance. The verse says

And when Our decree came, We saved Hūd and those who believed with him, by a “
”.Mercy from Us and delivered them from a harsh chastisement

Merely having faith in the prophets is not enough, following them and supporting them is also necessary

We must also take note that the main source of all blessings is He, but His anger, estrangement and outrage have their roots in our conduct

(٥٩) وَتِلْكَ عَادٌ جَحَدُوا بِآيَاتِ رَبِّهِمْ وَعَصَوْا رُسُلَهُ وَاتَّبَعُوا أَمْرَ كُلِّ جَبَّارٍ عَنِيدٍ

And this was (the people of) ‘Ād; they rejected the Signs of their Lord, and “ ٥٩ .
”disobeyed His Messengers, and followed the command of every obstinate tyrant

Commentary: verse ٥٩

He summarizes the sins of the ‘Ād into three areas in this verse. First, He says the people of ‘Ād denied the Signs of their Lord obstinately, denying every sign sent as :evidence of the authenticity of their prophet. The verse says

”... ,And this was (the people of) ‘Ād; they rejected the Signs of their Lord “

Secondly, they opposed the prophets, with a roguish behavior and in an unruly :manner. The verse continues

”... ,and disobeyed His Messengers ...“

.Thirdly, they abandoned Allah’s decree and followed the order of any despot instead

”and followed the command of every obstinate tyrant ...“

What a greater sin can be found that they abandoned faith, opposed their prophets .and followed the obstinate tyrants

The Arabic word /jabbār/ is a term used to denote a person who furiously strikes, kills, and destroys and does not follow the rule of reason. And the term /‘anīd/ refers to someone who is extraordinarily hostile towards the truth and never acknowledges it. These two characteristics describe the profiles of despots and tyrants who, in every epoch, are noted for never lending their ears to the truth, and whenever they face an .opponent they mercilessly torture and eradicate him

(٦٠) وَأَتَّبِعُوا فِي هَذِهِ الدُّنْيَا لَعْنَةً وَيَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ أَلَا إِنَّ عَادًا كَفَرُوا رَبَّهُمْ أَلَا بُعْدًا لِعَادٍ قَوْمِ هُودٍ

And they were pursued by a curse in this world, and on the Day of Resurrection. “ ٦٠ .
”Behold! the ‘Ād disbelieved in their Lord: so away with ‘Ād, the people of Hūd

Commentary: verse ٦٠

In this verse which ends the story of Hūd and the tribe of ‘Ād, the Qur’ān explains the consequences of their evil acts and falsehood saying that they were damned and cursed in this world for their evil deeds and were made infamous with a notorious :history after their death. The verse says

And they were pursued by a curse in this world, and on the Day of Resurrection. “
”... :Behold! the ‘Ād disbelieved in their Lord

It will be said on the Day of Resurrection: “Let it be known on the Day of Resurrection
”that the people of ‘Ād refused to recognize their Lord and lost His favor upon them

Although the term ‘Ād is adequate for describing and introducing these people, the phrase “the people of Hūd” has also been mentioned in the above verse which emphasizes and makes allusion to the fact that this group of people is the same one which annoyed their compassionate prophet so much and hence, distanced :themselves from Allah’s favor. The verse continues saying

”so away with ‘Ād, the people of Hūd ...“

Verses number ٥٠ to ٦٠ of this Sura relate to the people of ‘Ād. They were of the Arab race and resided in the Jazirat ul Arab or the Arabian Peninsula, but the name of this group of people is not mentioned in the present Torah. They were a people who enjoyed a high standard of living and lived in the magnificent towns according to the suras Al-Qamar, Al Hāqqa, Al-A'rāf, Al-Sajdah, and Ash-Shu'arā those people were tall, vigorous and .had a unique civilization

As far as their system of belief was concerned, they worshipped idols and followed tyrants. Hūd invited them to worship the One and only God, and become monotheist. However, they did not submit and met their doom with Allah's anger which was manifested in the form of furious, burning storms. The people of 'Ād consisted of two groups; the first 'Ād and the second 'Ād. The latter used to live in Ahqāf (a region in .the Hijāz) or in the Yemen until seven hundred B.C

The Ministry of Ṣālih

Ṣalih exhorts the people of Thamūd to believe in and worship none but the only God –
 .They disbelieved and were destroyed

(٦١) وَإِلَىٰ ثَمُودَ أَخَاهُمْ صَالِحًا قَالَ يَا قَوْمِ اعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ إِلَهِ غَيْرُهُ هُوَ أَنشَأَكُمْ مِنَ الْأَرْضِ وَاسْتَعْمَرَكُمْ فِيهَا فَاسْتَغْفِرُوا لَهُ ثُمَّ تَوْبُوا إِلَيْهِ إِنَّ رَبِّي قَرِيبٌ مُجِيبٌ

And unto (the people of) Thamūd (We sent) their brother Ṣalih, He said: ‘O my “ ٦١ . people! Worship Allah! You have no god other than He. It is He Who produced you from the earth and settled you therein: so ask forgiveness of Him, and turn unto Him
 ”.’in repentance: surely my Lord is Nigh, Responsive

Commentary: verse ٦١

.Salih (a.s.) is the third prophet who succeeds Noah and Hūd (a.s.) in the Divine mission

The Qur’ānic story of the people of ‘Ād ended with all of its instructive lessons and now it is the turn of the people of Thamūd, the people, who, according to historical narrations, lived then in the land of “Wādi al Qurra” which was located between
 .Medina and Damascus

Here again we note that the Qur’ān, when mentioning their prophet, terms Salih as a brother, a compassionate person who had no other aim except wishing his people
 :well. The noble verse says

”... ,And unto (the people of) Thamūd (We sent) their brother Ṣalih “

:The verse also continues

”... .He said: ‘O my people! Worship Allah! You have no god other than He ...“

Afterwards, in order to elevate their sense of appreciation and their sense of gratitude, he refers to an example of Allah’s favor which, from the point of view of their existence itself, they would not be able to deny, he says

”... It is He Who produced you from the earth ...“

After referring to the blessings of creation, the verse reminds them of all the favors which Allah had bestowed upon them in being enriched in the earth, and implies that Allah is He who has left the development of the earth to you and has empowered you with the means of its exploitation. The verse says

”... :and settled you therein ...“

It is to be noted here that the Qur’ān does not claim that Allah developed the earth and made it available to them, on the contrary, it says that He left the development of the earth to them. Allusion is here made to the fact that all the means of exploitation had been readily available from all points of view, however, it is up to men to develop the land with their own toil, and obtain its resources. And they would not be able to claim any share of it without working and making the required effort

Since such is the case, they should seek repentance from their sins and return to Him for Allah is always near to His subjects and accepts their requests. The verse concludes so ask forgiveness of Him, and turn unto Him in repentance: surely my Lord is Nigh, ...“

They said: ‘O Salih! You have hitherto been a source of hope among us. Do you “ ٦٢ (now) forbid us to worship what our fathers worshipped? Truly we are in disquieting ”.’doubt as to that unto which you invite us

Commentary: verse ٦٢

The idol worshippers told Salih (a.s.) that before he used to be their source of hope and pride and because of this they loved him. They said this so that he might be encouraged to try to preserve the good relationship they used to have, and give up .his calling to them towards monotheism

They told him that he was their source of hope in the past and they used to appeal to him asking his counsel, they used to have faith in his wisdom, insight, and in his intelligence, and they never cast any shadow of a doubt upon his benevolence and .compassion

However, they told him that unfortunately, you made us lose hope in you with your opposition against our way of life which is the worship of idols and icons according to the way of our ancestors. This has been our source of pride and thus indicates that you do not have the slightest respect for our leaders, nor do you have any faith in our :wisdom and intelligence nor do you defend our traditions. The verse says

”... .They said: ‘O Salih! You have hitherto been a source of hope among us “

Do you actually want to dissuade us from worshipping what our fathers used to :worship? They declared

”... ?Do you (now) forbid us to worship what our fathers worshipped ...“

The fact of the matter is that we are in doubt as to the way of life to which you are calling us (that is monotheism) and, at the same time, we are also pessimistic about it.

:They said

”.’Truly we are in disquieting doubt as to that unto which you invite us ...“

and He hath sent Mercy unto me from Himself, who will then help me against Allah if I

Commentary: verse ٦٣

Metaphysically orientated religions and Divinely appointed prophets call on people to adopt monotheism and the worship of Allah by providing sound reasoning and .miracles, and not by force, threats and ignorance

The position of being appointed as a prophet is a special favor and a privilege .accorded to certain individuals by Allah

One should never abandon Allah’s way by imaginary and wishful thinking about popular support. We should take note of the fact that deviant people will add nothing to others except to their losses, for opposing truth itself is something very detrimental :for man. The verse says

He (Salih) said: ‘O’ my people! Bethink you if I be upon a clear proof from my Lord “ and He hath sent Mercy unto me from Himself, who will then help me against Allah if I ”.(were to) disobey Him? So you do not add to me other than loss

O my People! This she – camel of Allah is a Sign for you. So leave her alone to “ ٦٤ . graze in Allah’s earth, and do not touch her with any harm, lest a swift chastisement ”!will seize you

Commentary: verse ٦٤

The story of Salih’s she-camel has also been reiterated in suras Ash-Shu‘arā and Al-Qamar as well. (١)

Salih (a.s.) said to the people that he would ask their idols something and they also should ask something from His Lord. Whoever, provides the right answer, could be the object of his and their worship. The idol worshippers accepted and their request was for a pregnant she-camel to come out of the mountain just then and there. Allah accepted their request and a camel, meeting all those requirements, came out of the .mountain

.This she-camel of Salih was extraordinary in many respects

.١ It came out of the innermost part of the mountain .١

.٢ It was pregnant without having any contact with a male camel .٢

.٣ For one full day, she had drunk of the water of that village .٣

.٤ It provided a daily supply of milk that was sufficient for meeting the needs of the .٤ people of the area

.٥ The people had no responsibilities towards her .٥

.٦ It served as a reason and as a miracle which was quite tangible and understandable .٦ for the people

.Sura Ash-Shu‘arā No. ۲۶, verses ۱۵۵–۱۵۸, and Sura Al-Qamar No. ۵۴, verses ۲۷–۳۱ –۱

(٦٥) فَعَقَرُوهَا فَقَالَ تَمَتَّعُوا فِي دَارِكُمْ ثَلَاثَةَ أَيَّامٍ ذَلِكَ وَعْدٌ غَيْرُ مَكْذُوبٍ

So they hamstrung her. Then he said: ‘Enjoy yourselves in your abode for three “ .٦٥ ”days, (then will be your ruin). That is a promise not to be belied

Commentary: verse ٦٥

Through traditional narrations we are informed that only one person had killed the she-camel. Despite this, the Qur’ān says: /‘aqarūhā/ which means that all of them killed her. This indication signifies that there had been a consensus of opinion among them about the killing. From the Islamic point of view, the ideological bond between individuals causes them to be responsible for the sins of single individuals within the .context of that ideology

Question: What is the underlying philosophy of a three-day grace period? Firstly: So .as to give them a chance to repent

Secondly: To provide a means for spiritual pressure and augmentation of the penalty. If a person is told that he will be killed within three days, this very news will serve as .the greatest blow upon him psychologically speaking

Thirdly: It provided another good proof for the legitimacy of the Divine prophet since .fixing a dead line results from having access to news from the invisible world

However, one should never take Divine warnings as jokes or lies as scorning them will .cause the infliction of Divine penalties

And when Our Decree came (to pass), We saved Salih and those who believed “ .٦٦ with him by a Mercy from Us, and (delivered them) from the ignominy of that day. ”.Verily, your Lord is the All-strong, the All-mighty

Commentary: verse ٦٦

The Arabic term /xizy/, applied in this holy verse, means a kind of defect of deformity, .the appearance of which causes man embarrassment and loss of prestige

Natural catastrophes such as earthquakes, floods or dangerous epidemics may happen to both to the faithful as well as to idol worshippers, just like carelessness, which may be seen in one man, but the effects of which can be felt by all. However, when the issue in question is the Divine punishment, the faithful are secure and safe unless they have merited punishment owing to their lack of action, their condescension to oppression, or their ceasing to dissuade others from what has been :forbidden. The verse says

And when Our Decree came (to pass), We saved Salih and those who believed with “ him by a Mercy from Us, and (delivered them) from the ignominy of that day. Verily, ”.your Lord is the All-strong, the All-mighty

And the (mighty) Blast overtook those who were unjust, so they became “ .٦٧
”.motionless corpses in their abodes

As if they had never dwelt there. Behold! Verily Thamūd rejected their Lord. “ .٦٨
”!Behold! away with Thamūd

Commentary: verses ٦٧–٦٨

The Arabic term, /jāθimīn/ is derived from /jaθama/ which means sitting on one’s knees or falling on face, like the state in which one has received an electric shock .which renders one immobile, making that person lose the power to escape

.The Qur’ānic term /yaqnau/ is derived from /qiniy/ which means staying in one place

The record of these obstinate and oppressive people of Thamūd comes to a close in .this verse

Ṣaliḥ (a.s.) is one of the Arab prophets, and the tribe of Thamūd is an ancient tribe belonging to prehistoric period, which resided in Wādī-al-Qura, located between Medina and Damascus. They were a nation of farmers and used to engage in horticulture. The name of Salih has been mentioned in the Books of the Divine .prophets

The annihilation of the people of Salih by the mighty blast has been likened to and resembles that of the supersonic jets of today which break the sound barrier when their speed exceeds that of sound. The terrifying sound caused, shatters glass windows, can cause abortions in pregnant women, and hasten heart attacks. As a result of the mighty blast, the Thamūd people also were :annihilated. The verse says

And the (mighty) Blast overtook those who were unjust, so they became motionless “
”.corpses in their abodes

The end of time will also be associated with a Divine mighty blast which will
.exterminate everything

Sura Yāsīn, No. ۳۶, verse ۴۹ says: “They will not have to wait for anything but a single Blast: it will seize them while they are yet disputing (among themselves).” Again, Sura Yāsīn, No. ۳۶, verses ۲۹, ۳۲, say: “It was naught but a single (mighty) Blast, and behold!
They were (like ashes) quenched and silent.” “And all of them shall surely be brought before Us.” The raising up of the dead on the Day of Resurrection will also be made
.manifest in the same way

However, the Divine punishment inflicted upon the oppressors takes a similar course as a result of their injustice and cruelty. It must be noted that Allah’s retributions are not given only in the Hereafter, but injustice and cruelty will be rewarded even in this :very world, too. The verse says

As if they had never dwelt there. Behold! Verily Thamūd rejected their Lord. Behold! “
”!away with Thamūd

Ministry of Lot

The Angels sent by Allah first meet Abraham – Abraham’s wife given the glad tidings of Isaac and Jacob – Abraham pleads for the people of Lot but asked to leave the people to have their own earning – The Angels appear to Lot – Lot admonishes his people who reject the warning and thus were destroyed

(٦٩) وَلَقَدْ جَاءَتْ رُسُلَنَا إِبْرَاهِيمَ بِالْبُشْرَى قَالُوا سَلَامًا قَالَ سَلَامٌ فَمَا لَبِثَ أَنْ جَاءَ بِعِجْلٍ حَنِيذٍ

And certainly Our messengers (the angels) came to Abraham with glad tidings. “ ٦٩ .” .They said ‘Peace!’ He answered ‘Peace!’ and he did not delay to bring a roasted calf

Commentary: verse ٦٩

Now is time to focus on one of the highlights of the life of Abraham, the iconoclastic champion. Of course, only that part of his story, which deals with the story of the people of Lot and punishment of this unruly people is being discussed here. The Qur’ān says that Allah’s messengers (angels) came to Abraham, bearing good tidings, though they had come to deliver a message to Abraham (a.s.) before. The verse says

”... And certainly Our messengers (the angels) came to Abraham with glad tidings “

There are two hypotheses incompatible with each other, as to what message those angels were carrying

First; the message relates to tidings regarding the birth of Ismail and Isaac which were great good tidings for him

Secondly, Abraham, who was tired of the unruliness and corruption of the people of Lot, became happy on hearing of the mission of the angels to destroy them

When the messengers arrived they gave him the greetings of 'Peace' and he answered them likewise. Before long he had brought them a roasted calf. The verse
:says

They said 'Peace!' He answered 'Peace!' and he did not delay to bring a roasted ... "
".calf

The inference drawn from the sentence is that one of the rules of hosting a guest is that a meal should be prepared for him at the earliest possible time, after his arrival, for he can be both tired and hungry, especially when he is a traveler

(٧٠) فَلَمَّا رَأَىٰ أَيْدِيَهُمْ لَا تَصِلُ إِلَيْهِ نَكِرَهُمْ وَأَوْجَسَ مِنْهُمْ خِيفَةً قَالُوا لَا تَخَفْ إِنَّا أُرْسِلْنَا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِ لُوطٍ

But when he saw their hands extended not towards it, he mistrusted them, and “ .٧٠ conceived a fear of them. They said: ‘Fear not; we have been sent against the people
”.’of Lot

Commentary: verse ٧٠

Abraham’s (a.s.) fear is different from the kind of fear and weakness found in ordinary men when facing problematic situations, for he was the archetypical iconoclast in history who was never afraid of anything. Nevertheless focusing one’s attention on .possible dangers and on being a possible target is another matter

:The verse says

But when he saw their hands extended not towards it, he mistrusted them, and “ conceived a fear of them. They said: ‘Fear not; we have been sent against the people
”.’of Lot

At any rate, since Lot (a.s.) and his tribe was one of the groups under Abraham’s
.command, he had to be briefed before their annihilation

(٧١) وَأَمْرَأَتُهُ قَائِمَةٌ فَضَحِكَتْ فَلَبَسْنَاَهَا بِإِسْحَاقَ وَمِنْ وَرَاءِ إِسْحَاقَ يَعْقُوبَ

And his wife was standing (by) and she laughed when We gave her the glad “ .٧١
”tidings (of the birth) of Isaac, and after Isaac, of Jacob

Commentary: verse ٧١

There are several possibilities mentioned as to the reasons for the standing by of :Abraham’s wife; when the verse says

And his wife was standing (by) and she laughed when We gave her the glad tidings “
”.(of the birth) of Isaac, and after Isaac, of Jacob a- for worshipping

b- for serving the guests

.c- for witnessing the comings and goings of individuals and the discussions

Her laughter was either because she understood that their abstinence from eating was not a sign of danger for Abraham, or, as has been pointed out in some commentaries, Sārah, Abraham’s wife, was an elderly woman who had long passed her child bearing days when she suddenly heard this unbelievable news. However, while in this mood, she realized that the Divine Will was that she would have a child

However, each group of the Divine angels were commissioned to accomplish a particular affair. These group of angels followed two objectives. One of which was the extermination of the corrupt people of Lot, and the other was to give the good tidings .of a child to be bestowed upon Abraham (a.s.) and Sārah

(٧٢) قَالَتْ يَا وَيْلَتَى أَأَلِدُ وَأَنَا عَجُوزٌ وَهَذَا بَعْلِي شَيْخًا إِنَّ هَذَا لَشَيْءٌ عَجِيبٌ

She said: ‘Voe is me! Shall I bear a child when I am an old woman, and this my “ husband is an old man? Verily this is a wonderful thing

Commentary: verse ٧٢

Sarah, who had given up hope of having children, with a tone of tremendous wonder, exclaimed implying that alas for her. Might she give birth to a child despite her old age .and despite the fact that her husband too was old? That was a truly amazing matter

:The verse itself says

She said: ‘Voe is me! Shall I bear a child when I am an old woman, and this my “ husband is an old man? Verily this is a wonderful thing

That same Allah Who had made the fire cold for Abraham (a.s.) and had made him win over the idol-worshippers, is definitely able to make an infertile old woman fertile and .an old man sire a child

(٧٣) قَالُوا أَتَعْجَبِينَ مِنْ أَمْرِ اللَّهِ رَحْمَهُ اللَّهِ وَبَرَكَاتُهُ عَلَيْكُمْ أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ إِنَّهُ حَمِيدٌ مَجِيدٌ

They said: “Do you wonder at Allah’s decree? The grace of Allah and His blessings “ .٧٣
” .on you, O people of the House! Verily He is Praise worthy, Glorious

Commentary: verse ٧٣

One day, Amir-ul-Mu’mineen Ali (a.s.) gave greetings to a group of people which returned his greetings, saying: “Our greetings to you and may Allah’s favor and blessings be with you, the Ahl-ul-Bayt, and may His forgiveness and His paradise also be upon you as well.” Ali (a.s.) said: “Do not add anything to what the angels said to Abraham (a.s.), therefore, the phrase ‘And may Allah’s favour and blessings be with :you’ would suffice.” The verse says

They said: “Do you wonder at Allah’s decree? The grace of Allah and His blessings on “
” .you, O people of the House! Verily He is Praise worthy, Glorious Question: Considering the fact that in the above verse, the angels addressed Abraham’s wife using the phrase Ahl-ul-Bayt, and since, naturally, everyone’s wife is considered as part of one’s household, why is it then that in the verse of Tathīr in the Sura Al Aḥzāb, No. ٣٣, verse ٣٣,\(١\) the wives of the Prophet Muhammad (p.b.u.h.) are ?not included in his household

Answer: Regarding only the literal meaning of the word, it would be natural for the word Ahl-ul-Bayt to include reference

---

It says: “...Verily Allah only desires to keep away the uncleanness from you, O - ١
” .people of the House and to purify you a (thorough) purifying to one's wife. However, we have firm grounds regarding the fact that someone can be excluded from this denotation even when normally they would be included in its purview, like in the verse saying: "Verily he is not of your household" (١) where Noah's son is not counted as a member in Noah's household. Sometimes it also happens that there could be a reason to include someone who would normally not be considered as a member of the household, as has been said of Salmān: "Salmān belongs to our household (Ahl-ul-Bayt

There are numerous narrations concerning the verse of Tathīr which say that the blessed Prophet (p.b.u.h.) had taken certain people under his cloak calling them his Ahl-ul-Bayt, while he did not allow his wife, the pious Umm-us-Salamah, to enter

This Divine favor and blessings were not confined to that time and place. It has continued in this family, too. What Divine blessing can be superior to that bestowed upon the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and the Immaculate Imams (a.s.) who have emerged from this household

So when fear had passed from Abraham and the glad tidings reached him, he “ .٧٤
”began disputing with Us concerning the people of Lot

Commentary: verse ٧٤

Perhaps Abraham’s (a.s.) plea is the same one mentioned in Sura ‘Ankabūt, No. ٢٩, verse ٣١, where, in addressing the angels, he asked how they would overturn the land .when Lot (a.s.) still remained among them

They answered that they were well aware of their status, so they would save Lot and :his followers. The verse says

So when fear had passed from Abraham and the glad tidings reached him, he began “
”disputing with Us concerning the people of Lot

The angels removed his anxiety and in directly addressing Sarah they reinforced the good tidings of them being graced with progeny. Concern and anxiety in the face of possible danger are safety-orientated issues while having children has an emotional dimension. Safety issues relate to society as a whole and children are related to the .household

”Verily Abraham was indeed for bearing, tender-hearted, penitent “ .٧٥

O Abraham! Forsake this! Indeed the decree of your Lord has come to pass and “ .٧٦
”surely there is coming (upon) them an irreversible chastisement

Commentary: verses ٧٥–٧٦

Patience is a highly praised characteristic that enables someone to forbear any infliction in times of crisis and not try to avenge it. This is why Abraham wished to haply remove the punishment from the people of Lot. This good quality is very prominent in prophets, godly benevolent authorities, and knowledgeable people, for were it not to exist, they would not be able to tolerate the difficulties and troubles of their people, and therefore, they would not be able to achieve their objectives which .would include guidance

The Qur’ānic term /’awwāh/ means supplication and humility before Allah, along with .crying and weeping

:The verse says

”Verily Abraham was indeed for bearing, tender-hearted, penitent “

Here, Abraham shows compassion for the people of Lot, who are rather inextricably .entangled with having to suffer this awesome penalty

The Qur’ānic term /munīb/, mentioned in the first verse, denotes repentance and returning, and at the same time concentrating on Allah, for Abraham appealed to Him to forgive and not to condemn the people of Lot. However, Allah, the Blissful and Glorious, is so perfectly patient, forgiving, indulgent and compassionate that His servants can not even remotely conceive its extent. The crucial determining factor in all this, however, is that it all depends upon the suitability of the servant in point, which, when lacking in suitability sparing them is of no avail. Once the limits are exceeded, the mercy changes to rigor and this must be so of necessity, for mercy from the point of view of the sharp teeth that Allah gave to a panther is the other side of oppression from the point of view of the sheep in its jaws

The people of Lot had no more potential to be guided, and if they were left to continue, their evil acts would have permeated other spheres as well, just like a corrupt organ which, if not excised, would affect other organs, thus spreading the infection further. Therefore, in response, the angels said

O Abraham! Forsake this! Indeed the decree of your Lord has come to pass and “surely there is coming (upon) them an irreversible chastisement

At that point Abraham realized that there was no more room for mercy, he gave up pleading for them and the angels of death went forth to do their work executing the Divine order and exterminating the people of Lot

And when Our messengers (the angels) came to Lot, he was grieved for them and “ .٧٧ ”.’felt straitened to protect them. He said: ‘This is a distressful day

Commentary: verse ٧٧

When the angels came, Lot was engaged in farming outside the town. He noticed some handsome, well-dressed young men arrived. He became afraid that his people might take to them when they entered the town. He thought that it would be best to invite them to his house, which he did, and his invitation was accepted. As he was taking them home, he was worried that his people might pass by and notice them. He wanted them to go back where they came from, saying: “You should know that you are going to a despicable and evil people”. At this point, Gabriel said: “That’s one”. The reason why Gabriel said this was that Allah had told the angels that they should not hasten to destroy the people of Lot until Lot himself had testified to their evil three times. As they kept on going, for the second time Lot told them: “Really, you are going towards an evil people.” Gabriel this time said: “That’s the second time”. As Lot arrived at the gate of the town, he said for the third time: “You are going among an evil people .”from among Allah’s creatures.” Gabriel said: “That’s the third time

Lot entered the town followed by his guests. One by one they entered the house, and when Lot’s wife noticed their handsomeness she wanted to call the people and tell them

.about it. She climbed up on the roof of the house and lit a fire

When the evil people of the town came, she told them that there were some very .handsome young men in the house

Lot was at his wits end trying to find a way to get rid of these people, to save his guests from being the objects of their evil intentions and to protect his honor. He was having a hard time, because he was in a quandary as to what he should do. He murmured: "This is a very difficult day." On the one hand, how could he protect his guests from the wretchedness and evil of those people? On the other hand, how could he eradicate the evil that they had caused? And finally, what should he do about the spy on the inside, his wife, who was willing to reveal anything secret in his house to the enemy outside? As the Qur'ān says: "Allah sets forth an example to the Unbelievers, the wife of Noah and the wife of Lot. They were under two of Our righteous servants, but they acted treacherously towards them so they availed them nothing before Allah on their account, but were told: 'Enter you both the Fire along \(with \(others\) that enter!'\)" \(1\)

Sura At-Tahrīm, No. ٦٦, verse ١٠ -١

(٧٨) وَحِآءَهُ قَوْمُهُ يُهْرَعُونَ إِلَيْهِ وَمِنْ قَبْلُ كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ السَّيِّئَاتِ قَالَ يَا قَوْمِ هَؤُلَاءِ بَنَاتِي هُنَّ أَطْهَرُ لَكُمْ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَلَا تُخْزُونِ فِي ضَيْفِي أَلَيْسَ مِنْكُمْ رَجُلٌ رَشِيدٌ

And his people came rushing towards him, And aforetime they had been “ .٧٨ practicing abominations. He said: ‘O my people, here are my daughters they are purer for you. So fear Allah, and do no degrade me with my guests! Is there not among you ”?one upright man

Commentary: verse ٧٨

The Arabic term /yuhra‘ūn/ derived from /‘ihrā’/ means intensive driving. That is, the uninhibited passion of this rebellious people goaded them on towards Lot’s (a.s.) guests

The meaning of the term /aṭ-har/, in this verse, is not that sodomy has something pure about it but that marriage is purer. It means that for the sinner who is pursuing .the gratification his sexual instincts, it is preferable to get married than to commit sin

It is worthy to note that one’s potentialities can flourish when caught in the midst of anxieties and difficulties. If the Divine angels would have introduced themselves to Lot (a.s.) on their arrival, there would have been no need for moaning, sighing, crying for help and appealing to the emotions of the public, nor would there have been any :need to offer a marriage proposal. The verse says

And his people came rushing towards him, And aforetime they had been practicing “ abominations. He said: ‘O my people, here are my daughters they are purer for you. So fear Allah, and do not degrade me with my guests! Is there not among you one

”?upright man

Question: Why would a prophet propose his daughter for marriage to an unbelieving
?idol worshipper

Answer: Perhaps he might suggest that conversion be a condition for the marriage so that the marriage could facilitate and strengthen the belief in Allah. Maybe the meaning of the term /banātī/ is ‘people’s daughters’ as the prophet is considered the father of the nation and is speaking on their behalf. Or maybe, at that time, such marriages were common for the sake of convenience and expediency

:Explanations

Sometimes the norms of human society degenerate to such an extent that people – ١
.hasten towards committing sins being seduced by their unruly lower selves

To prevent people from doing what is forbidden, we must at first open up and show – ٢
.the true path to them so that they do not seek pleasure by committing sins

The meaning of the term ‘chastity’ is not isolation. On the contrary, it means purity – ٣
.in normal social intercourse

Marriage is the sole and only correct context for sexual gratification, other methods – ٤
.are unclean and sinful

Considering sin as a commonplace matter does not exempt man from his – ٥
.responsibility in dissuading others from performing forbidden acts

Showing hospitality is such an important matter that the noblest of men have – ٦
.tolerated a tremendous degree of suffering for its sake

Homosexuality has been forbidden, considered abominable, and has been rejected – ٧ in previous religions and is incompatible with one’s manliness, development and .chastity

(٧٩) قَالُوا لَقَدْ عَلِمْتُمْ مَالَنَا فِي بَنَاتِكُمْ مِنْ حَقِّ وَائِنَّا كَلْتَعْلَمُ مَا نُرِيدُ

(٨٠) قَالَ لَوْ أَنَّ لِي بِكُمْ قُوَّةً أَوْ آوِي إِلَى رُكْنٍ شَدِيدٍ

They said: ‘You know we have no right to your daughters, and verily you know “ .٧٩
”.’well what we desire

He said: ‘Would that I had the power against you or I might take refuge in a “ .٨٠
”.’strong support

Commentary: verses ٧٩–٧٨

Point

One’s deviation from the right path leads man to the point where he considers the forbidden act of sodomy as a correct and virtuous act and the religiously acceptable act of marriage as a vice and as wrong conduct. In other words, man is transformed as a consequence of sin, where the most natural way for him may seem to be the ugliest and the most vicious way becomes the most attractive. The verse, concerning :the people of Lot, says

They said: ‘You know we have no right to your daughters, and verily you know well “
”.’what we desire

In our holy religion, homosexuality is considered as one of the capital sins that require religious punishment. It consists of lashes, execution or both commensurate with the act, and is to be applied upon those who have committed the act according to the testimony of just witnesses. Muslim leaders and those in positions of responsibility must prevent it by all means. This is why Lot (a.s.) says that if he had faithful companions, he would have fought against those mean people, to defend his guests, :or at least he would have taken them to a safe place to shelter them. The verse says

He said: ‘Would that I had the power against you or I might take refuge in a strong “
”.’support

The Sin of Sodomy in the Qur’ān and Traditions

There are many accounts in the Glorious Qur’ān about the vicious and detestable act of this deviant people, all of which exhibit the magnitude and intensity of the sin. (Refer to Sura Al-A‘rāf, verses ٧٩-٨٠-٨٣, Sura Hūd verse ٨٢, Sura Al-‘Anbiyā verse ٧٤, (Sura An-Naml verse ٥٤

The Islamic literature highlights the grievous consequences for such behavior revealing how serious a sin it is in the religion of Islam. For example, it is said that if an adolescent commits or is the object of the act of sodomy, Allah’s heavens start .trembling and He will not speak to those involved on the Day of Resurrection Imam Ṣādiq (a.s.) has said that if someone can to be stoned to death twice, that person would be he who had committed the act of sodomy. We can also find in another Islamic from Imam Ṣādiq (a.s.) quoting the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) who said: “He who performs a sexual act with an adolescent, will enter the Day of Judgment in a state of uncleanness, Allah will be outraged, the perpetrator will be deprived of His favor and He will prepare a place in Hell for such a person and what an awful place it is!” Again he said: “If a male is involved in sex with another male, Allah’s heavens will (tremble.”(1

Numerous narrations severely denounce transvestites, i.e. men and women who make themselves up to look like the opposite sex which predisposes them to the act .of sodomy

They (the guests) said: ‘O Lot! Verily we are messengers of your Lord! Never shall “ ٨١ they reach you! So travel with your family in a part of the night, and let none of you look back, but your wife. Surely she shall be smitten by that which smites them. Verily ”?their appointed time is the morning: Is not the morning nigh

Commentary: verse ٨١

.’The Arabic term /’asri/ is derived from /’isrā’/ which means ‘movement by night

The phrase /’illamra’ataka/ (but your wife) has been exceptioned, either is derived from /ahlika/ which means: ‘Do move your whole family by night except your wife,’ or it has been exceptioned from /lā yaltafit/ meaning that none of them should look behind or pay attention to what was going on behind them except his wife, who, while leaving with him was worried about those corrupt people and would end up lingering behind and, consequently, became a victim of the Divine punishment

When the divine angels noticed Lot’s anxiety under the tormenting conditions he was in, they unveiled the secret telling him that they were messengers from Allah, that he should stop worrying and know that those people would not be able to bother him any :more. The verse says

They (the guests) said: ‘O Lot! Verily we are messengers of your Lord! Never shall “
”... !they reach you

Becoming aware as to who his guests were and what their mission was, provided him with the utmost comfort and ease of mind, he then realized that his time of troubles was about to be over and he would be free from association with the depravity of this
.vicious and scandalous tribe, the time for rejoicing was at hand

The guests ordered Lot to take his family that night and leave that land immediately, for good. However, they were told to be careful not to look back. The only person who violated this order was Lot’s wife, who, guilty of inclination towards the corrupt ones disregarded the order and was dealt the same punishment as the Sodomites. The
:verse says

So travel with your family in a part of the night, and let none of you look back, but ...“
”... .your wife. Surely she shall be smitten by that which smites them

The angels last words to him were that the time for imposing the penalty will be in the morning. As the last hours of the night approached, they told them to get up and depart from the town as soon as they can, because the morning time was near. The
:verse says

”?Verily their appointed time is the morning: Is not the morning nigh ...“

” .Marked with your Lord, and it is not far off from the unjust ones “ ٨٣

Commentary: verses ٨٢–٨٣

The Arabic term /sijjīl/ means a piece of baked clay which is neither as soft as clay nor
.as hard as stone

The Arabic word /mandūd/ means one on top of the other in succession. The objective of stones being marked either is that every piece of stone was meant for a particular
.person, or it means that those stones were different from the ones on the earth

.This holy verse explains the end result of the people of Lot

The people of Lot used to live during the time of Abraham (a.s), and Lot (a.s.), their prophet, was sent among them to propagate and disseminate the same religion of monotheism. Accompanying Abraham (a.s.) he went to Palestine then to a land called ‘Mu‘tafikāt’, where the people used to worship idols and openly sodomize. Lot (a.s.) started struggling against this corruption and social pathology. The more he struggled, the less he met with success until he was threatened with \(expulsion if he did not stop preaching.\)

Thereafter the angels of Divine punishment and death came down and after informing Abraham and Lot (a.s.), completed their mission turning the land of this corrupt tribe upside down

According to verse ١٣ of the Sura Al-Hijr, a blast occurred and overwhelmed the people of Lot. Perhaps, it was this horrible blast which turned the region upside down, stones were thrown out from within the earth and fell upon their heads similar to \(volcanic eruptions and the subsequent explosions which occur.\)

:Explanations

The punishment of those who go against human nature is the overturning of their \(cities and environment\). The verse says

”... ,When Our command came, We turned it (their township) upside down “

Oppressive people cannot escape Divine punishment as Allah’s anger can turn rain \(into stones and pelt them to death\). The verse says

”...and rained on it stones of baked clay, layer on layer ...“

Those nations who have a permissive attitude towards homosexuality such as is found in the West, must expect Allah’s punishment and the upturning of the region \(where this corruption takes place\). The verse says

”...Marked with your Lord, and it is not far off from the unjust ones “

Point

The Ministry of Shu‘ayb

Shu‘ayb preaches Unity of Allah and warns his people against dishonest life – The people rejected Shu‘ayb’s exhortation and were punished

(۸۴) وَإِلَىٰ مَدْيَنَ أَخَاهُمْ شُعَيْبًا قَالَ يَا قَوْمِ اعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ مَا لَكُم مِّنْ إِلَٰهٍ غَيْرُهُ وَلَا تَنْقُصُوا الْمِكْيَالَ وَالْمِيزَانَ إِنِّي أَرَاكُمْ بِخَيْرٍ وَإِنِّي أَخَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ مُّحِيطٍ

And to (the people of) Madyan (We sent) their brother Shu‘ayb. He said: ‘O my “ ۸۴ people! Worship Allah! You have no other Allah than He. And do not give short measure and weight. Verily I see you in prosperity and I fear for you the punishment ”.’of an all-encompassing Day

Commentary: verse ۸۴

Madyan whose name today is Ma‘ān, is a town to the east of the Gulf of ‘Aqaba. In the Torah its name is mentioned as Madyan. Its inhabitants were among the descendents of Ismail (a.s.) and they enjoyed good commercial ties with Egypt, Lebanon and Palestine. Some people regard the term ‘Madyan’ as the name of a tribe that used to .live around Mount Sinai

The types of corruption that were practiced by the different nations mentioned in the Qur’ān vary, and this very fact should be of note. The corruption of the people of Lot had been sexual deviation, and the corruption of the people of Shu‘ayb (a.s.) in this case was economic corruption, i.e. use of short weights; weighing less than what they were assumed to sell or measuring less and claiming to deliver the value of the goods exactly as their clients had ordered

In keeping with the ways of the other prophets (a.s.), this compassionate and brotherly prophet at first called them to believe in monotheism, the Unity of Allah, the most fundamental pillar of religion, exhorting his people to worship the one and only
:God. The verse says

And to (the people of) Madyan (We sent) their brother Shu‘ayb. He said: ‘O my “ ”... .people! Worship Allah! You have no other Allah than He

Then he turned his attention to the economic corruption of the people whose roots were found in the idol worship itself which was prevalent among the people of Madyan at the time. He said that they should not weigh out their goods less than their :value by using the wrong scales in their commercial transactions. The verse says

”... .And do not give short measure and weight ...“

This great prophet’s words can be interpreted as two reasons for them. At first he seems to be saying that by accepting this advice the gates of commerce will develop, prices will deflate, and peace and tranquility will prevail which will attract Allah’s grace upon the community. It is also possible to interpret this sentence to mean that Shu‘ayb sees them having affluence and tremendous wealth; thus, there is no reason for them to infringe upon people’s rights, by selling them less goods and charging them the same price. The second matter is that he also fears their insistence upon idol worship, and abusing Allah’s blessings will lead to their punishment on the Day of :Judgment. The verse continues saying Verily I see you in prosperity and I fear for you the punishment of an all- ... “

”.’encompassing Day

(٨٥) وَيَا قَوْمِ أَوْفُوا الْمِكْيَالَ وَالْمِيزَانَ بِالْقِسْطِ وَلَا تَبْخَسُوا النَّاسَ

أَشْيَاءَهُمْ وَلَا تَعْتُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ مُفْسِدِينَ

And O my people! Fill up the measure and the balance in justice, and do not “ ٨٥
”diminish the people their things: and do not mischief in the land, working corruption

Commentary: verse ٨٥

The Qur’ānic phrase /lā tabxasū/ is derived from the article /baxasa/ signifying ‘not to reduce’; while the Arabic phrase /lā ta‘θau/ means ‘not to commit evil or mischief’. Compromising people’s rights in economic matters is a prominent example of corruption, for ailing economies always lead communities to corruption. All economic transactions should be strictly supervised. Shu‘ayb insisted upon the establishment of a just economic system in this verse and along with dissuading his people from cheating others in economic transactions, he also called upon them to consider the rights of others, saying that they should use scales and weighing devices with :fairness. But this verse says

And O my people! Fill up the measure and the balance “

”... ,in justice

The establishment of justice and safeguarding everyone’s due rights are principles that must be administered throughout all of society. Taking this one step further, he said that they should not falsely ascribe faults and defects to other people’s goods, :thus reducing the value of their goods, properties and belongings. It continues saying

”... :and do not diminish the people their things ...“

Towards the end of the verse, going even further, he added that they should not :corrupt the earth by committing mischief. It says

”.and do not mischief in the land, working corruption ...“

The above two verses strongly indicate that next to the belief in monotheism, a healthy economy is of primary importance. It also shows that anarchy in an economic .system can be a major source of corruption in any society

The lawful wealth) which is left by Allah is better for you, if you be believers. And I) “ ٨٦
” .am not a guardian over you

Commentary: verse ٨٦

The Qur’ānic term /baqīyatullah/, mentioned in this verse, refers to the dividends which one can obtain through a godly and allowed capital, and it is certainly a hundred percent clean. However, according to the Islamic narrations, it refers to everything Divinely sanctioned that is left for humanity as a whole. One example of this are the faithful soldiers who return victoriously from a holy war, for they have remained alive by the Divine will. It refers also to the contemporary Imam, Imam Mahdī (May Allah hasten his auspicious advent), who is also known as /baqīyatullah/ since that noble person has been retained and stored for the guidance of mankind by the Divine Will. Some Islamic narrations denote that one of the names of this honorable man (Haḍrat Mahdī) is /baqīyatullah/ (١) whom we greet with this name saying: /’assalamu ‘alayka yā baqīyatullah fī ’arḍeh/. When he appears in Mecca, he will recite the above verse in a (٢) loud voice and say: “I am that promised Godly being kept by Allah. (٣)

./Certainly the other immaculate Imams (a.s.) have been also entitled as: /baqīyatullah

They said: ‘O Shu‘ayb! Does your prayer command you that we should leave off “ ٨٧ that our fathers worshipped, or we (should forsake to do) what we like with our ”?property? Truly you are the forbearing, the right minded

Commentary: verse ٨٧

Now let us look at how this obstinate people reacted in face of this Divinely reformist .voice

Those who idol-worshippers regarded their idols as symbols of their ancestral tradition and an emblem of their cultural identity, and who gained profit through fraudulent activity in their transactions, asked Shu‘ayb if it was his religion of prayer that ordered him to encourage them to abandon the worship of that which their fathers had worshipped, and interfere in their transactions to make them lose their :freedom in dealing with their own property. The verse says

They said: ‘O Shu‘ayb! Does your prayer command you that we should leave off that “ ?our fathers worshipped, or we (should forsake to do) what we like with our property ” ...

The people of Shu‘ayb wrongly thought that no one should set the minimum limits for proprietors, rights, regarding domination in their properties, when in fact financial affairs should always be governed by correct criteria. Such criteria are clearly elucidated by the Divine prophets otherwise society would see a great degree of .corruption

They wanted to know how could such a forbearing, patient and understanding man,
:have said such a thing. They said

”Truly you are the forbearing, the right minded ...“

Perhaps they thought that the particular movements and words of prayer would have had a negative effect on them, but if they truly meditated they would have found that prayer enlivens man’s sense of responsibility, virtue, abstinence, piety, and gratitude, and makes him remember Allah and His Court of Justice. For these reasons, man would be kept away from idol worship, blind obedience, short selling goods, and all .types of fraud under the light of prayer

Commentary: verse ٨٨

In the previous verse, the idol worshippers protested as to why they could not be free to dispose of their own property for good or, in this case, for evil. Shu‘ayb (a.s.) answered that if he had kept them from doing this, it would have been for the good of their own lives and their community, and it was not because of such things as hostility, envy, short sightedness or other things. Individual interests must not be detrimental to the public interest. The verse says

He said: ‘O My people! Bethink you’ If I be upon a clear proof from my Lord, and He “ has provided me with fair sustenance from Him? And I desire not, in opposition to you, to do that which I forbid you from it. I desire naught save reform so far as I am able “ ...

They had to stop thinking that a comfortable life could only be gained through ,crooked dealings and sinful activity and Allah’s prophets are an example that one could live a decent life without being polluted by these sins. We must keep in mind that he who commands others to what is good and dissuades others from what is bad must be a man of practice himself. The prophets themselves were not only planners and leaders; they themselves were the best examples of men of practice. Shu‘ayb :continues saying

And O My people! Let not (your) breach with me cause you to sin, lest befalls you “ ٨٩ the like of what befell the people of Noah, or the people of Hūd or the people of Sālih; ”.and the people of Lot are not far off from you

Commentary: verse ٨٩

Shu‘ayb advises his opponents that they should not burn their bridges behind themselves, i.e., because of their hostility to one person they should not destroy the destiny and happiness of themselves and their society. They should stop thinking that the tragic stories of their ancestors were simplistic and parochial in nature. The .histories of many people are similar and correspond with each other

We must note that Allah’s hands are always capable of meting out punishment. He can annihilate any nation anywhere regardless of what form they might take any time He wants. Just as He drowned the people of Noah (a.s.), swept away the people of Hūd by storm, blasted the people of Ṣālih (a.s.) to extermination, and annihilated the tribe of Lot (a.s.) by assailing them with stones and overturning the land with them.

:The verse says

And O My people! Let not (your) breach with me cause you to sin, lest befalls you the “ like of what befell the people of Noah, or the people of Hūd or the people of Sālih; and ”.the people of Lot are not far off from you

”.Verily my Lord is Merciful, Loving

Commentary: verse ٩٠

The dissidents and unbelievers must not only be warned and informed of the punishment to come, but they must also be shown the method by which they can reform themselves and the course of action that may attract Divine mercy. They must (be notified that in order to receive Allah’s favor and friendship) they must follow the path of the prophets and the leadership of the Sinless Ones. If they repent and reconstruct their lives, they will receive positive answers from Allah.

:The verse says

”... :(Then come) and ask forgiveness of your Lord, and turn unto Him (in repentance) “

Allah’s (s.w.t.) favor is not a passing affair, rather it is a continuous process and possesses numerous signs and characteristics, He does not only accept repentance,

Commentary: verse ٩١

The prophets and the divine preachers have had to bear the utmost contempt and humiliation in the course of their mission in leading mankind on to the Right Path. Shu‘ayb (a.s.) is one of those examples, for they did both to him. They ridiculed and belittled his words and saw him as someone weak and insignificant. They denigrated his family, threatened him with death, and did not give due regard to his honor. The :verse says

They said: ‘O Shu‘ayb! We do not understand much of what you say; and most surely “ we see you weak among us. Were it not for your family, we would certainly stone you; “and you are not mighty against us

The idol worshippers told Shu‘ayb (a.s.) that they did not grasp the meaning of his words. But what was his speech about which they claimed they did not understand? ?Was it not but the following

He said: ‘O my people! Is then my family more esteemed with you than Allah? And “ .٩٢ you cast Him behind your back, with neglect. Verily my Lord encompasses what you do ’.

Commentary: verse ٩٢

We should not give priority to the rights of the people, or of groups, parties, or even of international law over Divine rights. We must stop excluding Allah’s role in the political and social domains and not let it be dominated by any other matter. According to the verse, these people refrained from doing harm to Shu‘ayb because of the fear of :retaliation from his tribe. The verse says

”... ?He said: ‘O my people! Is then my family more esteemed with you than Allah “

Shu‘ayb’s response was why could they not accept his words simply for Allah’s sake? Given that Allah was infinitely more powerful than his tribe, they did not give any :importance to Him at all ignoring Him and violating His commandments. It continues

”... .And you cast Him behind your back, with neglect ...“

In fact they should stop thinking that Allah was not seeing what they did and did not .hear what they said, for one can be sure, that the Lord is aware of all of our deeds

:The verse concludes

”.’Verily my Lord encompasses what you do ...“

(٩٣) وَيَا قَوْمِ اَعْمَلُوا عَلٰى مَكَانَتِكُمْ اِنِّىْ عَامِلٌ سَوْفَ تَعْلَمُوْنَ مَنْ يَّاتِيهِ عَذَابٌ يُخْزِيهِ وَمَنْ هُوَ كَاذِبٌ وَاذْتَقِبُوا اِنِّىْ مَعَكُمْ رَقِيْبٌ

And O my people! Act according to your ability. I will do (my part). Soon you will “ .٩٣ know on whom comes the Penalty disgracing him, and who it is a liar. And watch you; ”.Verily I (too) am watching with you

Commentary: verse ٩٣

As the disbelievers of the people of Shu‘ayb threatened to stone him to death while giving him their last words, Shu‘ayb, declaring his stand in the face of these threats did not flinch from the threat and issued a challenge to them, instead he said that they would do whatever they could, and might not spare anything. He should do what is in :his power as well. The verse says

”... (And O my people! Act according to your ability. I will do (my part “

However, you will soon realize who will be the one suffering a humiliating punishment, :and who is a liar. So, wait and see and I will do the same. The verse continues saying .Soon you will know on whom comes the Penalty disgracing him, and who it is a liar ...“ ” ...

You try to win me over with your power, numbers, wealth, and your influence and I shall also wait and see how the Divine punishment will soon entangle you and your :misguided population, exterminating you from the face of the earth. The verse says

”.And watch you; Verily I (too) am watching with you ...“

(٩٤) وَلَمَّا جَاءَ أَمْرُنَا نَجَّيْنَا شُعَيْبًا وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا مَعَهُ بِرَحْمَةٍ مِنَّا وَأَخَذَتِ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا الصَّيْحَةَ فَأَصْبَحُوا فِي دِيَارِهِمْ جَاثِمِينَ

(٩٥) كَأَن لَّمْ يَعْنُوا فِيهَا آلَا بُعْدًا لِّمَدِينٍ كَمَا بَعَدَتْ ثَمُودُ

And when Our Command came, We saved Shu‘ayb and those who believed with him by a mercy from Us, and the (heavenly) Blast overtook those who were unjust, so they become motionless corpses in their abodes

As if they had never dwelt there. Behold! Away with (people of) Madyan, even as (the people of) Thamūd were cast away

Commentary: verses ٩٤–٩٥

Ultimately, the final stage did come. The Qur’ān implies that when Allah’s Command for the punishment of this misguided, oppressing and obstinate people was issued, after Shu‘ayb and those who believed with him were saved by Divine favor and blessings, the terrible sound from the skies and the great death-dealing blast came over the people of Madyan and took them all by the throat. The verse says

And when Our Command came, We saved Shu‘ayb and those who believed with him “... ,by a mercy from Us, and the (heavenly) Blast overtook those who were unjust

In the aftermath of the blast, the Qur’ān indicates that the people of Shu‘ayb lay face down on the earth, they had died in their houses as a result of this great blast, and their corpses were left there to provide others with didactic lessons. Their lives were terminated in such a way that it was as if they had never existed there before. The verse continues saying

”so they become motionless corpses in their abodes ...“

The Divine outrage is far superior in destruction than any other form of devastation, in the case of bombardment, for example, some people may have the chance to escape more or less unharmed, and some would remain alive after the event. However, when the time for Allah’s anger and punishment comes, it wipes the evildoers away in such a way that it is as if no one had ever lived there. The verse
:says

”... As if they had never dwelt there “

Eventually, as was explained at the end of the stories of the peoples of ‘Ād and Thamūd, Allah’s favor and blessings were removed from the people of Madyan as :they had been removed from the people of Thamūd. It says Behold! Away with (people of) Madyan, even as were cast away (the people of) ... “ ”.Thamūd

Point

The Ministry of Moses

Moses sent with clear sign and manifest authority – The dealing with the people on the Day of Judgment shall be with Perfect Justice – The punishment shall be as long as Allah wills – The people of Pharaoh punished

(٩٦) وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا مُوسَىٰ بِآيَاتِنَا وَسُلْطَانٍ مُّبِينٍ

(٩٧) إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَمَلَئِهِ فَاتَّبَعُوا أَمْرَ فِرْعَوْنَ وَمَا أَمْرُ فِرْعَوْنَ بِرَشِيدٍ

٩٦. “And indeed We sent Moses with Our Signs and a manifest authority”.

٩٧. “Unto Pharaoh and his chiefs; but they followed the command of Pharaoh, and the command of Pharaoh was not rightly guided”.

Commentary: verses ٩٦–٩٧

:The Champion against Pharaoh

After finishing the story of Shu‘ayb (a.s.) and the people of Madyan, the Qur’ān turns to part of the story of Musa bin Imran and his campaign against Pharaoh, which is the seventh story of the prophets referred to in this Sura

The story of Moses (a.s.) is more frequently mentioned in the Qur’ān than that of any other prophet. In over thirty suras, the adventures of Moses, the Pharaoh and the Children of Israel have been mentioned more than one hundred times

The special aspect of the story of Moses, when compared to that of the other prophets, is that while the other prophets launched their campaigns against misguided and seduced people, Moses, apart from campaigning against them, also had to fight against the Pharaonic system, the oppressive, as well

However, we must keep in mind that in this part of the story, we focus on one aspect of Moses' story, which, though small, yet carries an important lesson for all mankind

At first, the verse implies that Allah (s.w.t.) sent Moses (a.s.) empowering him with the performance of miracles and endowing him with a powerful argument. The verse says

”And indeed We sent Moses with Our Signs and a manifest authority “

Moses was sent armed with impressive miracles and a powerful argument to Pharaoh and his people. However, the followers of Pharaoh, who felt that their illegitimate interests were being jeopardized, were not ready to submit themselves to him, and accept his miracles and his logic. Thus, they followed Pharaoh's command. However, Pharaoh's command could never have guaranteed their happiness and was not conducive to their development and their salvation. The verse says

Unto Pharaoh and his chiefs; but they followed the command of Pharaoh, and the “ command of Pharaoh was not rightly guided

He shall go before his people on the Day of Resurrection and lead them into the “ .٩٨

Commentary: verse ٩٨

The Arabic term /wird/ means ‘the water which one enters into’. Originally it referred to movement towards water and approaching it. However, gradually, it came to mean
:‘to enter’ in all cases

At any rate, those who are leaders or Imams in this world would be pioneers by leading others towards Paradise or Hell in the Hereafter. A just Imam or an enlightened leader leads people towards Paradise, and the person leading others in :the direction of injustice, leads others towards the Hell Fire. The verse says

He shall go before his people on the Day of Resurrection and lead them into the Fire, “

And they are followed by a curse in this world and on the Day of Judgment, and “ .٩٩

Commentary: verse ٩٩

Those who become followers of Pharaohs and despots are always associated with infamy and curses and their notorious names are always recorded in the books of history as people seduced by evil. Thus they will be at a loss both in this world and in the next, and what a bad gift (i.e. the curse of Allah and being distanced from Him) is .that which is going to be their share

O' Our Apostle!) This is of the tidings of the towns (which) We relate to you; “ ١٠٠ .
”some of them are still standing and some have been mown down

Commentary: verse ١٠٠

The act of telling didactic stories which are correct and documented is often a divinely inspired act which we must not ignore. Qur'ānic stories are the most truthful and the most correct of stories for their story teller is Allah. The holy verse says

O' Our Apostle!) This is of the tidings of the towns (which) We relate to you; some of) “ ”them are still standing and some have been mown down

Incidentally, in some cases, Allah recounts that He had exterminated those disobedient people leaving only their traces behind. However, in other cases, He mentions that He had wiped out those evil doers completely together with all their effects.

However, story telling in the Qur'ān has an important role and carries with it significant repercussions. First of all the stories are impressive and attractive. Secondly it paves the way for accepting the influence of rational and demonstrative reasoning. Thirdly, it offers another proof of the miraculous nature of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) as an uninstructed individual who brings such news. And fourthly, it offers instructive lessons for its audience.

And We did no injustice unto them, but they were unjust unto themselves. When “ ١٠١ . the decree of your Lord came, their gods, whom they invoked other than Allah, ”.availed them not anything and they increased them naught but perdition

Commentary: verse ١٠١

The Arabic term /tatbīb/ is derived from /tabb/ which means ‘sequential loss and ?gradual death and destruction

To punish the oppressor is not called oppression. On the contrary, it is identical with .justice. One’s own destiny lies in his own hands, which is his own willful conduct

.No one can be man’s savior but Allah

.None is able to stand against the Will of Allah

And such is the grasp (of punishment) of your Lord when He grasps the “ ١٠٢ .
”townships that are unjust. Verily His grasp (punishment) is painful, severe

Commentary: verse ١٠٢

:It is certain that Allah’s punishment is quite hard and painful. The verse says

And such is the grasp (of punishment) of your Lord when He grasps the townships “
”that are unjust. Verily His grasp (punishment) is painful, severe

This is a general Divine law and an eternal tradition which says that every nation inflicts oppression, violates Divinely established limits, and ignores the leadership, admonitions and guidance of Allah’s prophets, it will be eventually arrested and .annihilated by Divine punishment

(١٠٣) إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً لِّمَنْ خَافَ عَذَابَ الْآخِرَةِ ذَلِكَ يَوْمٌ مَّجْمُوعٌ لَهُ النَّاسُ وَذَلِكَ يَوْمٌ مَّشْهُودٌ

Surely in that is a sign for him who fears the chastisement in the Hereafter, that “ ١٠٣ .
”.(is a Day (when) mankind are to be gathered to, and that Day witnessed (by all

” ١٠٤ .And We do not postpone it, but to an appointed term “

Commentary: verses ١٠٣-١٠٤

In the previous noble verses, it was explicitly stated that as a general rule those who deny the truth will be dealt with accordingly, and will receive their deserved punishment.

This subtle verse of the holy Qur’ān also states that these instructive accounts and the awful, painful events which our predecessors experienced, are some signs toward the path of truth for those who fear the punishments of the Hereafter to seek the truth and follow Divine guidance. The verse says

”... ,Surely in that is a sign for him who fears the chastisement in the Hereafter “

In every aspect, this fleeting world is very insignificant as compared to the Hereafter even in punishment and reprisal. The next world is much more expansive in extent, and those who believe in the Resurrection will be trembling when they confront these worldly Signs.

Towards the end of the verse, the Qur’ān refers to two characteristics of the Day of Resurrection, by saying that it is the Day which is going to be witnessed by all, in such a way

:that all human beings will be present and see it for themselves. The verse says that is a Day (when) mankind are to be gathered to, and that Day witnessed (by ... “

”.(all

****

In view of the fact that some persons may claim that such a Day is a remote probability and it is not clear as to when it will arrive, so the Qur’ān hastens to add that that Day will not be postponed except for a limited amount of time. This will be only done for the sake of expediency so that the people of the world may apprehend those scenes elucidated in the Qur’ān for their education and that the programs of the :prophets can be implemented as far as possible. The verse says

” .And We do not postpone it, but to an appointed term “

They will abide therein so long as the heavens and the earth endure, except as “ .١٠٧ ” .your Lord pleases. Verily your Lord is the (Mighty) Doer of what He intends

Commentary: verses ١٠٥–١٠٧

On the Day of Resurrection, the Reckoning Day, silence will prevail everywhere
.except for those who are permitted to speak

In the foregoing verses, allusion was made to the Day of Resurrection and the general assembly of people in that great Court. Here, the Qur’ān informs us of a part .of the fate of people on the Day of the Judgment

At first it implies that when the Day comes, no one can speak without Allah’s :permission. The verse says

”... .The day (when) it comes, no soul shall speak but by His leave “

On that Day, people will go through various stages, each one having its own specifications. In some stages no questions are to be asked, even our mouths will remain shut, only those organs which have been involved and have been imprinted by the performance of their owners would bear testimony by a mute tongue. However, in other stages, the silence imposed upon the mouths would be removed and mankind will start speaking with Allah's permission, confessing their sins. The guilty will blame each other, and try to attribute their own sins to others, holding them responsible for their deeds

Towards the end of the verse, the Qur'an divides all people into two categories, saying that some people are stone hearted and some are soft hearted, some are happy while others are unhappy. The verse continues saying

".Then some of them shall be wretched, and some happy..."

This toughness and stone heartedness, on the one hand, and the contentment and happiness on the other, are no more than the consequences of individual behaviors, words, deeds and intentions in this world

****

It then expounds upon the state of the wicked, stone hearted and vicious as well as the state of those prosperous and happy individuals in a concise, self explanatory sentence by saying that those who became wicked and stone hearted will be in agony, moaning and crying all the time. These reflect the conditions of those who are deeply regretful, the kind of crying which saturates them to the point that shows their utmost discomfort because of the severity of their punishment. The verse says

Then as for those who are wretched (they) shall be in the Fire, for them therein will "be moaning and sighing

****

It adds further that they will permanently stay in the Hell Fire until the heavens and the earth endure or unless Allah wishes otherwise, for Allah does whatever He wishes

:The verse says

They will abide therein so long as the heavens and the earth endure, except as your “ ” Lord pleases. Verily your Lord is the (Mighty) Doer of what He intends

Commentary: verse ١٠٨

:The means of Happiness and Wretchedness

Happiness, which is considered as a lost paradise for man, results from the provision of the means of development for an individual or a community. The opposite of it is wretchedness in which the conditions conducive to progress, development and victory are unfavorable

However, one must keep in mind that the primary source of happiness and prosperity as well as wretchedness lies in man's own will. It is he who can provide the means necessary for his own self actualization as well as that of his community. And it is he .who can fight the causes of wretchedness or submit to it completely

The logic of the prophets proclaims that the two are not inherent in man's nature and even the shortcomings of environment, family and heredity can be transformed through one's own determination. If, on the other hand, we deny the

Although Allah's Will has no limits even to expel the people in paradise, if we focus –١ our attention on the climactic highlight of the last verse and the promises given in other verses, we can conclude that He would not do such a thing and when one enters .Paradise he will remain there permanently principle of man's free will and take a deterministic approach in our attitude towards him, we will have to consider his happiness and wretchedness as inherent in him or as the effects of determinism which is definitely condemned in the literature of the prophets as well as in the school of rationalism

Interestingly, in narrations attributed to the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and the Imams of the Ahl-ul-Bayt (a.s.), one reads that the means which provide grounds for one's happiness or wretchedness have been indicated. The study of these Islamic narrations leads man to contemplate the Islamic way of thinking about this important problem, and gives him guidelines to help him seek objective realities and the true means of happiness instead of taking recourse in superstitious beliefs and wrong traditions

Imam Ṣādiq (a.s.), quoting his great grandfather, Amir-ul-Mu'mineen (a.s.) says: "The truth of the matter regarding prosperity is that the last stage of man's life ends with righteous deeds, and the fact of the matter concerning wretchedness is that the last stage of one's life comes to an end with a vicious act."<sup>(۱)</sup>

And again the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) declares: "Four conditions, if fulfilled, result in happiness and four conditions pave the way for wretchedness. The former consists of a wife with decent conduct, a spacious home, a worthy neighbor, and a good horse, while wretchedness consists of an evil doing wife, a bad neighbor, an awfully small house and a bad horse."<sup>(۲)</sup>

The Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h.) said: "Perfect happiness comes about when one's whole life is spent serving Allah."<sup>(۳)</sup>

Comparing the paths shown towards one's happiness and wretchedness in the above quotations and their objectivity, with the superstitious beliefs which still attract large numbers of people in this era of the atom and space travel, one is led right away to the reality that Islamic instructions are quite logical and extremely well calculated. And what a great number of people have there been who have become entangled in the complications arising from such superstitions preventing them from effectively
.living their daily lives bringing them only misfortune and pain

Regarding happiness and wretchedness, Islam obliterates all superstitious beliefs, and guides us in everything that we do strengthening and clarifying our ethical .responsibilities, attitudes, conduct, and way of thinking

(١٠٩) فَلَا تَكُ فِي مَرِيئِهِ مِمَّا يَعْبُدُ هَؤُلَاءِ مَا يَعْبُدُونَ إِلَّا كَمَا يَعْبُدُ آبَاؤُهُمْ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَإِنَّا لَمُوفُونَ نَصِيْبُهُمْ غَيْرَ مَنْقُوصٍ

So be not then in doubt as to what these (men) worship. They worship nothing “ ١٠٩ . but what their fathers worshipped before (them), and verily We shall pay them back ”.(in full) their portion undiminished

Commentary: verse ١٠٩

One result which can be inferred from the stories of the previous generations is that the prophets and those following them, those who were truly faithful, should not fear the abundance of the enemies and with no hesitation try to defeat the unjust idol worshippers they are confronted because the helps of Allah are certain

Therefore, He says to His Prophet that he should not have the shadow of a doubt as to what these people worship for they only follow in the footsteps of their ancestors and do not, in fact, really worship anything at all. Thus their destiny is no better than that of their forefathers. They shall be compensated in full and Allah will not give them short of what is their due (of punishment). And were they to return to the true path, :their share of Allah’s reward will be preserved. The verse says

So be not then in doubt as to what these (men) worship. They worship nothing but “ what their fathers worshipped before (them), and verily We shall pay them back (in ”.full) their portion undiminished

In actual fact, this verse depicts that whatever we have read about past generations had not been fairy tales or myths and their realities have not been confined to only the previous generations. They constitute eternal examples for all men, past, present, and future,

.though they may take place in different circumstances and with different forms

In the meantime, though this sublime verse is addressed to the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), it
.targets the people so that they may not be in doubt or be hesitant

Point

Exhortation to Shun Evil

Everybody's action shall be returned to him in full – Evil shall have an evil consequence hence shun it – The word of Allah is fulfilled, hence the Jinn and men shall be punished – Admonition and Reminder in the history preceding Apostles of Allah – Patience and good deeds and waiting for the End enjoined

(۱۱۰) وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْكِتَابَ فَاخْتَلَفَ فِيهِ وَلَوْلَا كَلِمَةٌ سَبَقَتْ مِنْ رَبِّكَ لَقُضِيَ بَيْنَهُمْ وَإِنَّهُمْ لَفِي شَكٍّ مِنْهُ مُرِيبٍ

And We certainly gave Moses the Book, then variance was (created) in it, and “ ۱۱۰. had not a Word gone forth before from your Lord, the matter would have been ”.decided between them: but they are in grave doubt concerning it

Commentary: 110

To console the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), the Qur'an adds that if his people raised objections and fabricated pretexts concerning the Qur'an, he should not worry, for Allah had also provided Moses with a Celestial Book (the Torah) and it became then an object for :their differences, some accepted it while others rejected it. The verse says

”... ,And We certainly gave Moses the Book, then variance was (created) in it “

Allah is not hasty in punishing His enemies; it is for the sake of expediency and pragmatism in their education which requires such a course of action. And if pragmatism in such a case did not allow for it, and the program which Allah had preordained for the Prophet in this respect did not require further delays, judgment would have been passed upon them and the punishment would have been inflicted upon them. Nevertheless, they had not yet believed in the Truth, everything about which they entertained with suspicion and viewed with pessimism. The verse :continues saying and had not a Word gone forth before from your Lord, the matter would have ... “

”.been decided between them: but they are in grave doubt concerning it

And certainly, to all will your Lord recompense them their deeds in full; verily He“ .۱۱۱
”is aware of what they do

Commentary: verse ۱۱۱

In stressing the matter further, the Qur’ān adds in this verse that Allah will remunerate both groups, the faithful as well as the idol worshippers, without any failing or shortcoming, in lieu of the kind of conduct they had been engaged in. the
:verse says

”... ;And certainly, to all will your Lord recompense them their deeds in full “

This does not create any difficulties for Allah, for He is well aware of everything and of :what they do. It continues saying

”...verily He is aware of what they do ...“

It is interesting to note that the Qur’ān says that Allah will return to them (the recompense of) their deeds. This is another allusion to the subject of the embodiment of deeds and that the reward and retribution of man, indeed, are his own deeds which .will change in form and reach him

Anyway, in the Divine system of belief, no deed will be left unanswered and uncompensated for; if it is good, it will be rewarded with good and if it is evil it will be .compensated for with the same

Therefore stand firm (O Prophet) as you are commanded, and (also) he who has “ .١١٢ turned (unto Allah) with you, and (O’ men) do not transgress (from the Path); verily He ”.sees well what you do

Commentary: verse ١١٢

:The Command of Steadfastness

After recounting the lives of the prophets and former tribes and the reasons for their success, and after reinforcing the will of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.), thereby in this verse He commands him (p.b.u.h.) the most important duty, saying that he must stand firm as .he had been commanded

:The verse says

”... ,Therefore stand firm (O Prophet) as you are commanded “

He must stand firm in propagation and guidance, in his struggles and battles, in .carrying out Allah’s orders, and in implementing the instructions of the Qur’ān

However, this stance must not be for the sake of pleasing others, nor should it be for bigotry, nor for the acquisition of titles, nor for acquiring wealth, position, success and power. It must be for the execution of Allah’s command as he had been instructed. However, this order does not concern the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) only, it also instructs those :who are following in his footsteps for approaching Allah. The verse continues saying

”...and (also) he who has turned (unto Allah) with you ...“

The Qur’ān advises the kind of persistence which avoids both extremes, neither more nor less, and the order not to be unruly, signifies the kind of persistence which avoids all kinds of transgression, for Allah is well aware of every action which we do. No cessation of movement or pause, and word or schedule remains hidden from Him. It
:says

”.and (O’ men) do not transgress (from the Path); verily He sees well what you do ...“

This is a sensitive yet disturbing verse. There is a hadith from Ibn Abbās which says: “There is no verse revealed more severe and more difficult for the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) than this verse. Therefore, when the companions of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) asked him why his hair had turned gray so soon, and the signs of age prematurely appeared on ”.his face, he said: “The Sura Al-Wāqi‘ah and the Sura Hūd made me age

Some other traditions indicate that when the above verse was revealed, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: “Fasten your belts! Fasten your belts (as it is time for struggling and
.working)”; and since that time, he was never seen smiling

The reason is clear, for there are four commands in this verse, each of which imposes
.a heavy duty upon man

Today, our responsibilities as Muslim leaders can also be summarized as: persistence, sincerity, leadership of the believers, abstinence from unruliness, and non-violence. Victory over our enemies, who have been surrounding us from all sides, exploiting us in all cultural, political, economic, social, and military spheres, might not be possible .without the implementation of the four principles mentioned above

****

(١١٣) وَلَا تَزَكُّنَا إِلَى الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا فَتَمَسَّكُمُ النَّارُ وَمَا لَكُم مِّن دُونِ اللَّهِ مِنْ أَوْلِيَاءَ ثُمَّ لَا تُنصَرُونَ

And do not incline to those who are unjust, lest the Fire will touch you; and you “ ١١٣ .
.have no protectors other than Allah, nor shall you be helped

Commentary: verse ١١٣

!Reliance upon the Unjust

This verse explains one of the most fundamental programs in the realm of social, political, military, and ideological spheres of activity. It addresses all Muslims, putting forward a decisive duty, it implies that we should not seek support from oppressors, and never rely upon them for such an act for it causes us to be surrounded by the Fire :of Hell and we have no one from whom to expect support but Allah. The verse says

And do not incline to those who are unjust, lest the Fire will touch you; and you have “
.no protectors other than Allah, nor shall you be helped

In which matters must one not rely upon the transgressors? In the first instance, obviously, we must not share in the atrocities they commit and seek support from them in this regard. Secondly, reliance upon them must stop where the Muslim community stands to be weakened, and its independence and self sufficiency jeopardized, this type of dependency will bear no fruit but frustration and loss of .independence on the part of Islamic communities

As to the idea that Muslims should establish commercial or scientific relations with non Muslim communities on the basis of protecting Muslim interests and independence as well as their security is not unprecedented in the history of Islam nor is it forbidden in Islam and it does not fit into the meaning of seeking assistance from the oppressors. During the era of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and after him such relationships with non Muslims had also existed. However, one must not, at the same time, obey the oppressors or put his hope in them, for we read in the narrations that friendship with the unjust and obedience to them are examples of submission to tyranny. In a narration, it has been said: “Do not put your hope in an oppressor even if he is a member of your family or a friend

In Al-Kāfī, there is also a narration which says: “Allah has forbidden you to spare even one minute when an oppressor is to be hanged, for, in such a case, you would have supported him.” Refer to Tafsīr al Burhān-As-Sāfī, Usul Al-Kāfī, and the Bihār-ul-Anwār for further information

:Explanation

1- Every kind of dependence on internal and external oppressors is prohibited

2- Oppression and assisting the oppressors or even relying upon them constitute capital sins and those affiliated with it are subversives. (Every sin which Allah has spoken of as being punishable with the Fire is considered as a capital sin

3- Relying upon and trusting the oppressor will lead to Allah’s Hell. Therefore, how is the situation of the oppressor himself going to be

4- Instead of taking recourse to the unjust, put your trust in Allah

5- The result of relying upon tyrants is isolation and estrangement

As the obedience from /ulul-'amr/ (the political and religions chiefs appointed to – ۶ issue decrees on behalf of Allah), is obligatory and, on the other hand, since relying upon and seeking the support of the unjust is forbidden, therefore the /ulul-'amr/ cannot be unjust, they must necessarily be “immaculate”, too, because sin is (... ,considered an example of injustice. (And do not incline to those who are unjust

Commentary: verses ١١٤–١١٥

:Prayer and Steadfastness

These two verses point to two of the most important Islamic instructions that embody the spirit of Islam and shape its foundation. At first, the Qur’ān commands us to establish the prayers, declaring that we must keep our prayers at both ends of the day and at the time of nightfall. The apparent meaning of the phrase /tarafay-in-nahār/ (on both sides of the day) is the morning and evening prayers and /zulaf/ is in keeping with the /‘išā’/ (the prayer of nightfall). In the meantime, as the midday prayer and the afternoon prayer have been explained in other verses, they have not been repeated here. However, according to one quotation, they are also mentioned in this verse as well, though this verse does not aim at explaining all the daily prayers. The
:verse says

And establish the prayer at the two ends of the day and at the approaches of the “ ”... ;night

Afterwards, to specifically stress the importance of the daily prayers, and other rituals, acts of worship and the performance of good deeds in general, it declares that good conduct nullifies evil acts.

:The verse continues saying

”... .verily the good deeds remove evil deeds ...“

:This is a reminder for those who try to lend ears to such matters. It says

”.That is a reminder for the mindful ...“

The above verse, like some other Qur’ānic verses, illustrates the influence of good deeds in removing the evil effect of evil deeds. Good deeds, which have their origin in Divine motives, bestow purity and beauty upon the human spirit which may wipe out .the effects of sin from it, turning the darkness of sins into light

:The Extraordinary Importance of Prayers

In the numerous narrations from the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and the immaculate Imams (a.s.) which concern the above verse, one easily finds interpretations which unveil the .extraordinary importance of prayers in Islam

Ali (a.s.) is quoted as saying: “The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) and I were waiting for our prayers inside the mosque when a man stood up saying: “O Messenger of Allah! I have committed a sin.” The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) turned his face away from him. When the prayers ended, the same man stood up and repeated the same sentence. The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: “Have you not joined us in prayer? And have you not done your ”? ablutions well for it

⤵The man answered: “Yes”. He said: “This is an atonement for your sin.”⤵

The sublime Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: “At the times of prayer, an angel is certain to say: ‘O people! Stand up and put out the Fire you have lit (against your selves), by means ⤵(of your prayers.’”⤵

p: ۳۳۵

And the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) also said: “The five daily prayers are like a stream running in front of your houses. Once you wash yourselves five times a day in that stream, you will be clean of all pollution. (It is the same as cleaning your soul from all kinds of pollution by establishing your five daily prayers.)” (1)

Ali ibn Abi Tālib (a.s.) said: “Whenever man is in the state of prayer, his body, clothes, (and whatever is found around him engage in giving glory of Allah.” (2)

However, prayer insures man who has committed sinful acts, by wiping his heart clean of the dust of sin

Prayer enables one’s potentialities to flourish in the depths of his soul. It also strengthens one’s will, purifies his heart and cleans up his spirit

Prayer in this way can be a superior school of education, provided that it is not just treated as a series of rituals in form without substance

****

Following the human shaping schedule of prayer, and the description concerning the impact of the virtues upon the vices, the Qur’ān commands perseverance in this verse, saying that we should stay patient, for Allah does not spoil the rewards of those who act with righteousness. The verse says

And be patient (and steadfast); for verily Allah does not waste the reward of the “ (righteous (ones

All of this means that performing decent acts is not possible without patience and perseverance

p: ۳۳۶

The Qur'ānic term /ṣabr/ includes all aspects of forbearance against difficulties, .oppositions, harms, emotions, outrage and disasters

Patience and perseverance is a fundamental general principle which is sometimes coupled in the Qur'ān with prayers. It is perhaps for the reason that prayer enables man to move and it ordains him to have patience and perseverance. And these two, that is 'movement' and resistance, when coupled with each other, are the main factors for victory. Finally, let us focus upon the most hopeful of the verses of the Qur'ān: Haḍrat Ali (a.s.) coming upon a group in discussion asked them: "Do you know which is the most hopeful of the verses of the Qur'ān?" In response, everyone named .one verse which suited his own mood

Some suggested the verse, which says: "Verily Allah does not forgive that anything should be associated with Him, and forgives what is besides that, ..." (١) means that .Allah forgives all sins except idol worship

Others were of the opinion that the verse in question is the one which says: "And whoever does evil or acts unjustly to his own self, then seeks forgiveness of Allah, shall find Allah forgiving, Merciful" (٢). This verse means that he who is a wrongdoer and a tyrant, if he asks for forgiveness, and apologizes, he will find Allah .compassionate and merciful Still others cited the holy verse declaring: "Say: 'O My servants who have acted extravagantly against their own selves! Do not despair of the mercy of Allah; surely (Allah forgives the faults altogether; verily He is the Forgiving, the Merciful.'" (٣)

---

Sura An-Nisā, No. ٤, verse ٤٨ – ١

Ibid, verse ١١٠ – ٢

Sura Az-Zumar, No. ٣٩, verse ٥٣ – ٣

Others were of the opinion that it was the verse saying: “And those who, when they commit an indecency or do injustice to their selves, remember Allah and seek forgiveness for their sins – and who forgives the sins except Allah? – And they (the pious) do not knowingly persist in what they have committed.”<sup>(۱)</sup> Meaning that those who have committed an evil act, oppressing themselves, think of Allah and ask
?forgiveness from Him, and who is there to forgive sins except Allah

After hearing all those views, Haḍrat Ali said: “I heard from my dear one, the Prophet of Allah (p.b.u.h.), who said: “I hope to a verse in the Book of Allah, which says: “ And establish the prayer at the two ends of the day and at the approaches of the night; verily the good deeds remove evil deeds. That is a reminder for the mindful.” Then the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) continued: ‘O Ali! By the One Who appointed me as a bearer of glad tidings and a warner towards people. Whenever a person makes ablution for prayer, his sins will fall off; and when he turns toward Qiblah he will become purified. O’ Ali! The example of the daily prayers resembles one who washes himself in a stream in front of his house, fives times every day.”<sup>(۲)</sup>

(١١٦) فَلَوْلَا كَانَتْ مِنَ الْقُرُونِ مِنْ قَبْلِكُمْ أُولُوا بَقِيَّتِهِ يَنْهَوْنَ عَنِ الْفَسَادِ فِي الْأَرْضِ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا مِمَّنْ أَنْجَيْنَا مِنْهُمْ وَاتَّبَعَ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مَا أُتْرِفُوا فِيهِ وَكَانُوا مُجْرِمِينَ

But why were there not, among the generations before you, persons possessed “ ١١٦ . understanding (and authority), prohibiting (people) from mischief in the earth, except a few whom We saved from among them? And those who were unjust pursued what ”.they were made to enjoy and they were guilty

Commentary: verse ١١٦

The Arabic term /baqiyyah/ means ‘remainder’, but it usually refers to ‘virtue’ and ‘power’ in Arabic, maybe because one stores his precious belongings with himself and preserves them to remain; or perhaps because some people who have more power stay on the scene. The holy word /baqiyyah/ has been employed three times in the .Qur’ān

In this verse, Allah has criticized a group of believers as to why they do not equip themselves with knowledge and power so as to warn the society. This warning, which .has repeatedly been used in the Qur’ān, is accompanied with the word /laulā

At any rate, in this holy verse and the previous one, a fundamental social principle, which stands out in saving human societies from corruption and self-destruction, has been mentioned. That is, in every society where there is a group of conscious learned and dutiful people who are committed to not remain silent in the face of corruption, who launch campaigns against it, and who lead in developing the ideological

.awareness of the people, that society will not suffer from self-destruction

But, when indifference and silence is the rule of the game everywhere, and then society is made defenseless against the elements of corruption, self-destruction will surely be its eventual outcome

Therefore, while referring to the previous peoples which had been the target of all kinds of disasters, the Qur'ān asks why it is that in the previous centuries, there were no righteous people of knowledge and power to prevent all kinds of corruption on the earth. The verse says

But why were there not, among the generations before you, persons possessed “... ,understanding (and authority), prohibiting (people) from mischief in the earth

The role of /'ulū baqiyyah/ (those possessed understanding and authority) in the survival of society, is so sensitive that one must say that without them the right of societies to survive will be removed from them. This is what the above verse implies

:To make an exception to this rule, the Qur'ān says

“... ?except a few whom We saved from among them ...“

Despite the fact that this small group observed the rules of persuading others to perform what was good and dissuading them from what was evil, their number was so limited that they could not have any success in reforming the society. This is reflected in examples like Lot and his small family, Noah and his limited number of believers, Salih and his few followers. The oppressors of these societies, who constituted the majority, pursued their extravagant way of life and were so proud and saturated with pleasures that they committed all kinds of sin. The verse says

And those who were unjust pursued what they were made to enjoy and they were ...“
”guilty

Such unrestricted affluence and hedonism are the sources of all kinds of deviations and usually originate among affluent families, as their carefree state hinders them from comprehending social realities and covers them with sin, leaving them no
.chance for becoming familiar with real human values

Whereas verse ۱۱۴ deals with prayers, this verse is concerned with dissuading others from doing evil deeds. It is appropriate to mention here some of the verses of the Glorious Qur’ān which deal with the subject of prayers together with persuading others to engage in decent acts and dissuading others from committing evil deeds.

:Such verses are as follows

Ⓐ. “... Verily prayer restrains from indecency and evil...” Ⓐ

Ⓑ. “... Verily the good deeds remove the evil deeds,...” Ⓑ

Ⓒ. “... Keep up prayer, enjoin the good and forbid evil,...” Ⓒ

D. Those who, should We establish them in the land, will keep up prayer and pay the Ⓓpoor-rate, and enjoin the right and forbid the wrong; ...” Ⓓ

The utmost responsibility thus lies with those who are knowledgeable and powerful, and the result of reformers’ sympathy and reformation in society is salvation from Allah’s anger and benefiting from His compassion. The key to the downfall of former generations has been their indifference and failure to dissuade others from doing
.wrong, hedonism, and criminal activity, the vicious triangle of destruction

We hope that Allah may save us, our children, and our coming generations from these .dangers and deviations

”.well

Commentary: verse 117

Allah (s.w.t.) removes His wrath from societies because of the presence of benevolent
.and righteous individuals who mend their society

Incidentally, simply being righteous is not sufficient, one must be encouraging others to be righteous as well. Therefore, to emphasize this reality, the Qur’ān implies that the reason why Allah eradicated these peoples was because there were no righteous reformists among them. It was not the case that the Almighty oppressively sought the destruction of established communities despite attempts being made to purify them
:of all impurities. The verse says

”.Nor would your Lord destroy the townships unjustly while their people acted well “

Whenever a society was oppressive as a whole but had rediscovered itself, and was about to reform and alter itself, there would be reason for it to remain, while if it remained oppressive and did not try to reform, and purge itself of its evil ways, there .would be no reason for it to survive

And had your Lord willed, He would have made mankind a single people: yet they “ .١١٨
” .cease not differing

Commentary: verse ١١٨

Allah’s way of treatment in creation of men is based on liberty, and freedom in choosing their own ideas and beliefs. Man’s choice and freedom to choose his way of life and ideas has been frequently referred to in the Glorious Qur’ān. That is, although Allah leads man towards Himself, He does not impose His will upon him by force, and He has not commanded the sublime Prophet (p.b.u.h.) to compel people, He has only demanded him to remind people of their duty, and show them the right path. The holy Qur’ān in this regard says: “Therefore do thou give admonition, for you are one to admonish”. “Thou art not one to manage (men’s) affairs.” \(١\)

Thus, Allah reveals the virtuous path in such a way that human nature, discriminating between good and evil, recognizes them from within itself, and for this reason, from out ward, He sends the prophets (a.s.) to guide mankind. It is the man himself who must fully and voluntarily select his own way, the Path of Truth or the path of evil and wrongdoing. Therefore, He has alluded to one of the prominent traditions in the course of creation which is the basis of other affairs that relates to human beings. It is the individual differences relating to the mind, the body, personal views, zeal and love .as well as the issue of man’s freedom of will

The Qur'ān remarks that if Allah wanted He could have created a single nation out of mankind (but He did not do such a thing) and human beings have always had differences to settle. This is emphasized in order to show that His insistence for obeying His commands does not reflect a lack of ability to put everyone on one track and on one predetermined path. It stands to reason that such a faith would be of no use. Nor would such a homogeneous, unified and compulsory faith based upon involuntary motives lead anywhere, it would reflect no personality distinctions, no .means of development and growth, and have no basis for rewarding the good

Man's supreme value essentially lies in his freedom of will which differentiates him from other existing beings. Different tastes, different ways of thinking, indeed, differences of personality and intellectual makeup all form parts of one society, providing multiple aspects of those dimensions that make man who he is and it is that .which gives him a distinct status

It is also natural that once freedom of will comes in the scene, differences regarding .ideas and schools of thought must exist

Commentary: verse 119

In this verse the Qur’ān indicates that the people disagree with each other in their acceptance of the Truth except those upon whom is Allah’s Mercy. The verse says

”... ;Except those on whom your Lord has Mercy “

However, this Divine blessing is not confined to a certain group, but all humankind can benefit from it if they want

Those who wish to come under Allah’s favor will find an open gate for His all inclusive Mercy and Grace which are made available to mankind through their own reasoning, the guidance of the prophets, and heavenly Books which have been revealed to them and for that (mercy) did He create them. And the Word of your Lord has been ... “ ”... :fulfilled

:The verse says

Once they utilize these favors and blessings the gates of Paradise and eternal bliss will be opened for them, otherwise, the command of Allah has been issued that He will fill Hell with the disobedient and arrogant ones from among the Jinn and men. The
:verse continues saying

”.’Certainly I will fill Hell with jinn and the mankind together“ ... “

Commentary: verse ١٢٠

In this verse and in the verses that follow, with which Sura Hūd ends, there is a .general conclusion which sums up the issues discussed thus far

As the main part of this Sura dealt with the didactic stories of the prophets and the former generations of mankind, the Qur’ān summarizes the precious results of these stories under four topics by saying that the stories of each of the prophets have been mentioned to reinforce the heart of the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) in order to strengthen his :will. The verse says

And all that We relate to you of the account of the messengers is something in order “ ... that with it We make firm your heart

Afterwards, referring to the second most important result of those stories, the Qur’ān implies that it brings to light the facts and realities concerning life and death, the victories and defeats, and the factors concerning the success and failure of :communities. It continues saying

”... ,and in this there has come to you the Truth ...“

The third and the fourth consequences are that they provide the faithful with :exhortations, and reminders of the results of good or bad conduct. It says

”.and an admonition and a reminder to the believers ...“

This verse stresses once again that the historical facts which have been revealed by the Qur’ān must not be taken lightly or used for amusing audiences, for they form the .best instructional guidelines in all aspects of life for all people in all times

Commentary: verses ١٢١–١٢٢

Allah commands the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) when confronting their stiff-neckedness and obstinacy to do the same as the previous prophets did and say what they said, that the disbelievers should do all that is in their power and do not spare in their efforts, :and the Prophet and the believers will do likewise. The verse says

And say to those who do not believe: ‘Act according to your ability; we shall do (our “ ”;(part

He also should tell the unbelievers to wait and see and the believers too, will wait and :see, for one side will win and the other will be defeated. The verse says ”.And wait you! We too are surely waiting “

The unbelievers seek the defeat of the believers but the latter will wait for the real Divine punishment which the unbelievers will receive either by means of the hands of .the believers or directly from the side of Allah

(١٢٣) وَلِلَّهِ غَيْبُ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَإِلَيْهِ يُرْجَعُ الْأَمْرُ كُلُّهُ فَاعْبُدْهُ وَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَيْهِ وَمَا رَبُّكَ بِغَافِلٍ عَمَّا تَعْمَلُونَ

And to Allah (alone) belong the Unseen of the heavens and the earth, and to Him “ ١٢٣ .
the whole affairs will be returned; Then worship Him, and put (all) your trust in Him,
”and your Lord is not heedless of what you do

Commentary: verse ١٢٣

The last verse of this Sura deals with monotheism: (the monotheistic nature of knowledge, the monotheistic view of acts, and also the monotheistic way of worship), just as the beginning verses of the Sura that had dealt with knowledge of monotheism

In fact, three sub sections of monotheism are indicated here. First, it refers to the monotheistic nature of Allah’s knowledge saying that the knowledge of the hidden realities of the heavens and the earth belongs only to Him, and it is only He Who is aware of all secrets hidden and revealed. The verse says

”... ,And to Allah (alone) belong the Unseen of the heavens and the earth “

The knowledge of everyone besides Him is confined and limited and even this very limited knowledge is received from the Divine source. Therefore, omniscience, the essential knowledge, regarding the whole things throughout the entire universe, is particular to Him alone

On the other hand, referring to the monotheistic nature of acts, the Qur’ān says that it is He Who is in command of all

:acts, and all things will be returned to Him. It continues saying

”... ;and to Him the whole affairs will be returned ...“

The third point is said as a conclusion to these statements which is that unlimited knowledge and endless power belong solely to Him and everything will eventually :return to Him, therefore we should worship Him alone and trust only in Him. It says

”... ,Then worship Him, and put (all) your trust in Him...“

This stage of monotheism is the stage of worship and abstinence from all unruly behaviour, misconduct, rebellion, and sin, for Allah is not unaware of all that we do. It :continues saying

”.and your Lord is not heedless of what you do ...“

:The Magnitude and Glory of the Qur'ān

The Qur'ān, which is a reflection of the magnificence and glory of Allah and is an eternal and everlasting miracle in itself, presents clear evidence and accurately foretells events. As a witness to these events, it presents true historical facts backed by strong logic and penetrating insight. It is the repository of a superior kind of grace and is a boundless ocean of merits. It offers strategies, it encourages while at the same time gives warnings, and it gives accounts of man's past while also predicting the future. It is unique in that it is as accessible to the common people as well as to the elite among the scholars. It contains material from the invisible world as well as from the physical world. It illustrates the causes for the enhancement one's honour and the factors which bring about one's wretchedness. It enlightens one's thinking, reasoning, and way of meditation and logic while we are alive and at the same time it provides companionship during our solitary confinement in the grave and on the Day of Resurrection.

The Qur'ān is a repository of all knowledge and every science, and is the only celestial Book which has not been distorted. The more science develops the more its secrets unveil. Its parables, metaphors and its similes are never wearisome and its repetitions often convey a wide variety of meanings. The Qur'ān can be used as a criterion for verifying the words of the men of Allah. We have been told that whenever we hear words attributed to those holy men we should compare them to the Qur'ān and if they do not conform to it, then we should reject them

The Qur'ān is considered as the “Greater Weighty Thing” and the Ahl-ul-Bayt (a.s.) are considered by the believers as “The Lesser Weighty Thing”. In this regard, the Prophet (p.b.u.h.) reiterated several times: “I have left two great gifts amongst you (Muslims) which will never be separated until the Day of Resurrection when they will join me at the Pool of Kauthar

Even now the Ahl-ul-Bayt, in the person of Haḍrat Mahdī, (may Allah hasten his advent) is still coupled with the Book of Allah, and any commentary written on the Qur'ān which ignores well documented narrations that originate from them are invalid and misleading, for the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) said: “If you take recourse to these two; the Book and my Ahl-ul-Bayt, you will never lose your way.” Certainly, taking recourse to the one and neglecting the other will lead to misguidance

****

Before beginning our discussion of the verses of this Sura, it is necessary to point out
:a number of points

All of the verses of this Sura, except a few, concern the beautiful, instructive – ١ biography of Haḍrat Yusuf (a.s.) and this is the reason why this Sura is called “Yusuf”.
And, it is also for this reason that out of the ٢٧ times that the name of Yusuf has been mentioned in the Qur’ān, ٢٥ of them are found in this Sura. The other two suras in which his name has been mentioned are in verse ٣٤ of Sura Al-Ghāfir, and in verse ٨٤
.of Sura Al-’An‘ām

The content of this Sura is well integrated in one reading and it presents different highlights of a single story expressed in ten sections through an extraordinarily fluent,
.concise, interesting, and attractive manner

Ignorant story tellers or those who have questionable objectives in mind, have sought to present this story as an exciting love story for the whimsical, they try to change everything around sexuality and present it as if it was a Hollywood romance,
.providing a distorted picture of the true Yusuf and his real biography

The Qur’ān, whose everything is paradigm, narrates the story revealing sublime lessons in chastity, abstemiousness, virtue, faith, and domination over individual selfishness. This has been so carefully arranged that if someone was to read it several times, he would still be involuntarily drawn by its powerful attraction. It is for this reason that the Qur’ān has called it the Best of Stories /ahsanul qaṣaṣ/ and the
.Sura has presented instructive lessons for contemplation

Focusing our attention on the verses of this Sura reveals the fact that the holy – ٢ Qur’ān is a miracle in all its dimensions, and the champions it presents in its stories are real, not imaginary and .unique in their class

There is Abraham, the iconoclastic champion who, with his sublime and
.unconquerable spirit stood alone opposing powerful despots

There is Moses, the hero who taught an obstinate people to go against a recalcitrant
.oppressor

And then there is Yusuf (Joseph) (a.s.), the champion who embodied righteousness,
.purity and virtue versus a passionate, beautiful and conniving woman

On reading this Sura we cannot help but be struck with wonderment at the revelation
.of the Qur'ān and its ability to relate a story of such subtlety and profundity

Among the many subjects covered by this Sura, the story of Yusuf also deals with the sensitive issue of love, the Qur'ān does not overlook or bypass these issues, indeed, it speaks of them in great detail but in such a way that no undesirable or negative effect
.would be left on the reader

It delves deeply into every issue and proposition but one would find that powerful
.rays of virtue may dominate the discussion at all times

:The story of Yusuf before and after Islam – ۳

.Undoubtedly, the story of Yusuf had been known before Islam

This story has been extensively mentioned in ۱۴ chapters (۳۷ to ۵۰) in the Book of Genesis. A careful reading of these ۱۴ chapters shows that what is found in the Torah is quite different from what is in the Qur'ān. A comparison of the two accounts reveals the extent to which the Qur'ānic version is void of all the superstitions found in the Torah. And the fact that the Qur'ān says to the Prophet: “Before this, thou too was among those who knew it not”, is a reference made to the Prophet's lack of prior awareness of the story and the sheer truth of this instructive biography. Indeed, whatever the prophets possess is God-given

After the dawn of Islam, historians also wrote accounts and interpretations of the story. In Persian poetry and literature, the first story told about Yusuf and Zulaykha is ascribed to Ferdowsī. Then the poems composed by Shahābuddīn ‘Am‘aq and Mas‘ūdī Ghomī, and later, we find the famous poetry entitled ‘Yusuf and Zulaykha’ composed by ‘Abdurahmān Jāmī, the famous poet of the 4th century A.H

Why is the story of Yusuf, unlike that of the other prophets, expounded in one – ۴ place? One of the characteristics of this story is that, unlike the story of the other prophets, it is discussed as a whole in one format. This is different from that of the stories of the other prophet which have been recounted in separate sections in various suras of the Qur’ān. The reason for this is that separation of the climaxes of this story destroys its integrity and in order to arrive at the proper and necessary conclusions, it must be offered as an integrated whole

Another specification of this holy Sura is that whereas the stories of the other prophets recounted in the Qur’ān, usually deal with the issue of their struggles and campaigns against unruly and rebellious peoples, but the story of Yusuf makes no mention of such matters. On the contrary, it revolves around the life of Yusuf himself and his passage through difficult stages of life which eventually culminates with him becoming a powerful man in the Egyptian government

:The virtues of Sura Yusuf –۵

The Islamic narrations cite numerous virtues for reciting this Sura, among which one can find a tradition by Imam Ṣādiq (a.s.) saying: “Whoever recites this Sura every day or every night, Allah will enable him to be resurrected on the Day of Resurrection having a beauty equal to that of the beauty of

Yusuf, he will have no difficulties on that Day and he will be among the righteous
".subjects of Allah

We have already pointed out repeatedly that the narrations that have come down to us concerning the virtues of reading the suras of the Qur'ān do not mean a superficial reading of the text without meditating and acting upon them. On the contrary, it means a careful reading that would encourage one to think and in turn lead to a .practical application of the text

Commentary: verse 1

This Sura also begins with the abbreviated letters of alif, lām, and rā' which exhibit the magnificence of the Qur'ān and the synthesizing of profound and meaningful verses
.out of simple letters of the Arabic alphabet

Perhaps, it is for this reason that after mentioning the abbreviated letters, Allah
:(s.w.t.) immediately refers to the magnificence of the Qur'ān by saying

”.These are the verses of the Book (which makes the truth) manifest..“

Incidentally, concerning the magnitude of the holy phrase /bismillah-ir-rahmān-ir-rahīm/ and the abbreviated letters with which the suras begin, please refer to the beginning of the suras Al-Hamd, and Al-Baqarah, and to the detailed narrations

Commentary: verse ٢

No matter in what language the Qur’ān had been revealed, other people would have had to become acquainted with that language. However, the revelation of the Qur’ān in the Arabic language has several advantages, among which are the following

A – The Arabic language has a very great capacity for word formation and has so fixed grammatical rules that cannot be easily found in any other language

B – According to some narrations, Arabic is the language spoken in Paradise

C – The region in which the Qur’ān was revealed was an Arabic speaking region, and it was apparently impossible for the Holy Book to be revealed into any other language

Regarding the revelation of the Qur’ān, Allah (s.w.t.) has employed the word descend /nuzūl/ the same word He has used for the falling of rain

In any rate, the aim of the Qur’ān is not merely reading, chanting, browsing through, or barely reciting it for blessedness. The main aim is understanding it, that kind of understanding which is comprehensive and goes deep into its meaning and encourages man to put what he reads into practice

The indication, occurred in ten suras, to the fact that the Qur’ān has been revealed in Arabic is an answer to the accusation that the holy Prophet (p.b.u.h.) had learned it from a non Arab and that its content was an imported way of thinking, and not a revelation

.originated from Allah

In the meantime, all Muslims must try to learn Arabic as a second language, for it is the language of Divine revelation and the key to understanding the holy Qur'ān and
.Islamic knowledge

(٣) نَحْنُ نَقُصُّ عَلَيْكَ أَحْسَنَ الْقَصَصِ بِمَا أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ هَذَا الْقُرْآنَ وَإِنْ كُنْتَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ لَمِنَ الْغَافِلِينَ

We relate unto you the best of stories, by that We have revealed to you this “ ٣ .
” .Qur’ān; though before this, you were of those who did it not know

Commentary: verse ٣

The Arabic term /qaṣaṣ/ means both a story, and the telling of a story. Stories and tales play an important role in man’s education, for they depict the life of a nation and provide practical examples of an Ummah. History is a mirror that reflects the deeds of nations and the more we are acquainted with the story of our predecessors, the more .we acquire the feeling of having lived their lives

Ali-ibn-Abitālib (a.s.) in a letter to his son, Imam Hassan, implied that he had studied the lives of the former nations in a manner that as if he had lived with them and did it .as long as their lifetimes

Perhaps one of the reasons why stories and tales leave such a great impact upon man is because he has an inherent love for stories. Usually, books on history, epics and myths have been successful throughout man’s cultural history, and understandable for the majority of people, while issues requiring rational proofs and intellectual .matters have been the concern of only a small group among them

’The Qur’ān calls the story of Haḍrat Yusuf the ‘best of stories

However, some narrations tell us that the entire Qur’ān is also called /ahsanul qaṣaṣ/ (the best of stories) and certainly, it is not incompatible with the previous definition of the Qur'ān, that the Qur'ān is the best among all the Holy Books, and the story of Yusuf is the best among the stories of the Qur'ān

:At any rate, the story of Haḍrat Yusuf is the best of stories for the following reasons

A) It is the most relevant to our experience

B) It deals with the struggle against one's innermost self which is the greatest of struggles

C) The hero of the story is Haḍrat Yusuf, a youth who possesses all human virtues in himself (patience, faith, piety, modesty, wisdom, trustfulness, forgiveness and kindness)

D) All persons of the story have a happy ending. For example Yusuf attains a high political position, the brothers repent, his father regains his lost sight, the famine stricken country is saved; complains and envies are converted into the full gratification of love

There are a number of opposites juxtaposed in this story: Departure and reunion, sorrow and joy, famine and plenty, loyalty and disloyalty, proprietor and tenant; palace and hovel, poverty and needlessness or wealth, servitude and domination; blindness and sight, chastity and making false accusations

In conclusion, these points illustrate that the Qur'ān, as far as telling stories and historical narratives, has utilized the best manner to educate man. Not only the Divine stories, but all the things of Allah are also the best /ahsan/, because

.He is the Best Creator – ١

.He has sent down the Best of Books – ٢

.He has produced the best of features – ٣

.He has the best of religions – ٤

.He provides the best of rewards – ۵

And finally, having such a background, He has demanded the best of actions from – ۶

Commentary: verse ٤

A Wonderful Dream and Difficulties Lead to Victory

This Holy Sura cites the profound and guiding role of extraordinary and meaningful Yusuf’s dream which herald the beginning of worldly difficulties and the inevitability of his eventual victory

The Qur’ān starts the story of Yusuf with an extraordinary and meaningful dream. This dream is, in fact the first in a number of important episodes that had far reaching effects in the epic life of Haḍrat Yusuf

One early morning when he was still very young, Yusuf excitedly went to his father to tell him about an experience, which, although on the surface did not seem very important, nevertheless seemed too vivid and extraordinary to keep to himself. Yusuf told his father that he had had a dream where eleven stars descended from the sky, followed by the sun and the moon and all lay prostrate before him. The verse says

When, Yusuf said to his father: ‘O my father! Verily I did see (dreamt) eleven stars “
”.’and the sun and the moon: I saw them prostrating themselves unto me

According to Ibn Abbas, the famous Islamic commentator, Yusuf had this dream the night before Friday which coincides with (Laylat-ul-Qadr) the night when destinies are determined

It is evident, of course, that the objective meaning of ‘prostration’ here is ‘humility and modesty’, else, prostration of people in the ordinary form unto sun and moon and stars is meaningless

According to the Late ‘Allāmah Tabātabā’ī in Al-Mīzān, his commentary of the Qur’ān, the story of Yusuf begins with a dream which brings him good tidings and gives him hope about the future, thus enabling him to pursue a divine course with patience and perseverance

Yusuf is the eleventh child of Haḍrat Ya‘qūb born after Benjamin. With the exception of Benjamin, his other brothers were born from a different mother. Haḍrat Ya‘qūb was the son of ‘Is-hāq who was the son of ‘Ibrāhīm. The Prophet (p.b.u.h.) has been narrated who said: “Al-karīm ibn-il-karīm-ibn-il-karīm, Yusuf ibn Ya‘qūb-ibn-‘Ishāq-ibn-‘Ibrāhīm.” This is: ‘A noble man, the son of a noble man; Yusuf the son of Ya‘qūb, the son of ‘Is-hāq, the son of ‘Ibrāhīm

The dreams of the men of Allah are of different types. Sometimes they require interpretation, like that of Haḍrat Yusuf, and at other times they require no interpretation being identical with reality, like the dream of Haḍrat ‘Ibrāhīm who was ordered to sacrifice ‘Ismā‘īl

:The sublime Prophet (p.b.u.h.) says about dreams and dreaming Dreams are of three types: They are either tidings from Allah or they are sorrows“ from Satan, or they are composed of the daily concerns that man dreams about

The Late ‘Allamah in his Tafsīr Al-Mīzān says that there are three worlds: The natural or physical world, the world of symbols or ideas, and the intellectual world

The human spirit, because of its subjective and non material nature, can communicate with the two other worlds in the dream and, according to the level of its capacity and potentiality, it may perceive some facts. If the spirit is perfected, it comprehends reality in a pure and translucent context.

If it has not reached the final stages of perfection, the reality would present itself to soul's consciousness clothed in different forms. For example a lion would come to symbolize courage, a fox would mean fraudulence and a mountain could mean exaltedness in our dreams, knowledge would be presented as a light, marriage in the form of clothing and ignorance as darkness. Those who see things in their dream are divided into three groups

The first group comprises those who possess perfected souls which are completely detached from the material world and, after their physical senses go to sleep, they enter a relationship with the world of the intellect where they apprehend realities which they perceive from the other world. (A somewhat relevant example is like that of a television whose antennae receive broadcast signals from far distant places from atop mountains and hills). Such dreams are received directly and are not clothed in symbolism, thus they require no interpretation

The second group are those who are in an intermediate spiritual state, their dreams also depict reality, but they are accompanied by imagined accumulations and resemblances which require a commentator to explain and clarify the subject of the dream.

The dreams of the third group are the dreams of those whose souls are so upset and unstable that their dreams make no sense

Such dreams cannot be interpreted, for they have no relationship with reality. In the Qur'ān, such dreams are regarded as /aḍqāθu 'aḥlām/ 'confused dreams

The Qur'ān has named some dreams as those which have proven to be true and became fulfilled; as follow

A- The dream of Haḍrat Yusuf (a.s.) regarding the prostration of eleven stars, the sun and the moon which was interpreted as his rise to power and the reverence with which his brothers and his parents would treat him

B- The dream of the two prisoners who were companion inmates with Yusuf, that later one of whom was freed and the other was executed

C- The dream of the Egyptian king of a fat cow being eaten by a thin one which was interpreted as the occurrence of famine and drought after affluence

D- The dream of the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) about the small number of pagans in the Battle of Badr which was interpreted as the defeat of the pagans at the hands of the Islamic army. The Qur'ān in this regard says

(Remember) when Allah showed them to you as few in your dream ...”(1)“

E- The dream of the Prophet of Islam (p.b.u.h.) about the entry of the Muslims into the Masjid ul Harām with shaved heads, which was interpreted as the conquest of Mecca by the Muslims and their pilgrimage to the House of Allah. Concerning it, the Qur'ān says: “Certainly Allah had shown to his Apostle the dream with truth;...”(2)

F- The dream of the mother of Haḍrat Moses who had placed her infant in a box and cast it into the water. The Qur'ān says: “When We revealed to your mother what was (revealed;” “Saying: ‘put him into a chest, then cast it into the river,...” (1)

The Islamic quotations confirm the view that the word ‘revelation’ in this verse
.”signifies “dream

G- Haḍrat ‘Ibrāhīm’s dream of sacrificing of his son ‘Ismā‘īl (mentioned in Sura Aṣ-Ṣafāt, No. 37, verse 102). Which says: “... he said: ‘O my son! Verily I have seen in a ”... ,dream that I should sacrifice you

So, as was mentioned earlier, the Qur’ān begins the story of Yusuf by narrating his
