The fourth chapter discusses the writing, publication and translation of books, in addition to the study of culture. It also tackles the role of the Forum in writing schoolbooks, university scientific books and the translation of these books.

The fifth chapter looks at the cultural events and the Fourm's journal it also discusses (a) the reality and the challenges facing the Arabic language: (computerization and dualism), the effect of foreign languages on syntax, reading, composition, spelling and handwriting and (c) the role of the media in the dissemination of classical Arabic, the Arab- Palestinian identity under Israeli occupation and methods of enhancing the role of Arabic.

- 3. The Forum has been the only organization to express modern scientific thought in Arabic.
- 4. The Forum works on the revival of tradition and Arabization of terminology and its publication . it also takes part in different cultural activities.
- 5. The Forum faces several problems. The most important of which are:
