

University: King Khalid University
College : College of Sharia and Religious Principles
Section: Jurisprudence
Specialization: jurisprudence
Title of Thesis: Principles and their impact on Evidence (doctrinal study detailed application).
Student Name: Musa'ed Bin Abdulrahman Ali AL Jaber AL Qahtani.
University ID: 427813000
Supervisor Name: Prof. Abdulrahman Bin Ahmad AL Jorai
Discussion date: 13/7/1432H.

Abstract

This letter in the specialty of medical expertise entitled Principles and their impact on Evidence (doctrinal study detailed application). These included the message on the front and pave and five doors and a conclusion. Was provided in the statement the importance of the subject and the reasons for his choice and previous studies, methodology, and his plan.

The boot: was the means of proof in terms of definition and types and limited only to the extent that the evidence also included the definition of experience and said related words. As well as the definition of medicine, said words related to it.

Then the door I: Rooting for the experience of medical jurisprudence, adapted and conditions and methods of knowledge and measurement as well as the appointment of experts and their wages and their security and the rule of conflict, they said.

And Part II: In the proof of eligibility and symptoms in the medical expertise has been talking about the signs of puberty and mental illness, mental illness and the terrible death and signs of death.

And Part III: More proof of the family in terms of medical expertise and talk about the show and disadvantages of marriage and proof of the provisions of the numbers and percentages to prove medical expertise.

And Part IV: More proof of inheritance and the medical expertise to talk about gender selection, as well as sex-change corrected and proof of transmission of the shipwrecked and catabolism of medical expertise.

And Part V: In the proof of the criminal provisions of the medical expertise and talk about the proof of the attack on the self and below and proof of alcohol and drug abuse as well as proof of delay of punishment and retribution meet the medical expertise.

Conclusion and then indexes.