Dedictory:

I dedicate this book to my small family and all dears readers.

REDOUANE CHOUKRI.

You are the first

You are the first
You are the best
And you are the last
You'll be always in my heart
Without you I am lost

I can say just one word
You were only that I had
I am so lonely in this world
I have no one that I can hold
And this is too bad

You are the first
To live without you is the worst
Don't forget me so fast
I love you so much is the fact
I belong to you without any doubt

You are shining more than the gold
Your beauty is created by the lord
You make me warm when I feel so cold
Near to you I am so good
My heart will beat for you till the end.

When I am lonely

When I am lonely
They say that I'm so crazy
When I am with my baby
They say that I'm so lovely
They can say what they want to say

When I feel in love
My heart was all I had to give
You taught me to forgive
Darling, only with your love
I will stay forever alive

When I am lonely
They are so glad
When I stay all the time with you
They are too much sad
Sorry, they are exactly bad

When I think a lot of you
That means how I need you
I can do anything to protect you
I can't explain how I belong to you
Deep inside I hope to marry you.

Happy birthday my lover
I hope you to live with me forever
One day you will be a good mother
And me the best father

Today is a sunny day
We will celebrate together your party
In order to make you so happy
And this is unforgettable day

Happy birthday my beautiful
I wish you to be so joyful
This night will be wonderful
For your love I will stay faithful

You're the light which illuminates my life
You're the lonely who makes me feel safe
I am sure that you are my other half
And I want you to be my wife.

Where is the freedom?

Where is the freedom?
You can't tell the truth
In order to save your head
And to escape from the death
The policy is too bad
And it's against our faith

Where is the freedom?
The government prohibits the manifestations
And allow the repressions
The police multiply the arrestations
They don't care about people reclamations
And so they violate the constitutions

Where is the freedom?
Without a several documents
No one can leave a home
And everyone is asked by the racist
Where are you come from?
Is just a racism syndrome

Where is the freedom?
If you can't get what you want
Without money there is no light...
So the poor has to fight
All the day and at the night
This is wrong or right?

What is your name?

Tell me, what is your name?
Yesterday I saw you in my dream
I love to be with you all the time
I hope that you want the same
So keep me warm in your arm
Because I am sure that you're so charm

Say to me, what do you do?
I'm just an amateur poet
And a writer with a stories to relate
Why not to fix me a date
To go to dance all the night
Because our destiny is already built

Tell me, how old are you?
I'm thirty years old, and you?
I'm so young just like you
I want to spend the rest of my life with you
I write this poem just for you
So remember me like I remember you

Say to me, where do you live?
I was searching for you all the time
I want to protect you my life
And to play with you my best game
All parts of me desire you to be my wife
So tell me now your beautiful name.

Love means

Love means
Love means all good things
To express always our feelings
To realize all our dreams
To admit all our faults
To break all our problems

Love means
Love means that to live also the worst moments
To hold our lover in our arms
To give it all the flowers
To overcome all the obstacles
To forgive all the mistakes

Love means
Love means all unforgettable instants
To share every great events
To satisfy all our desires
To become true all our wishes
To keep all our promises

Love means
Love means that to forget all bad periods
To help our lover in any situation
To preserve forever a couple secrets
To respect the partner's ideas and opinions
But there're other keys of what love means.

There is no way

There is no way
How to explain you my lady?
What I feel when you go away
The minutes seem like a day
I'm so sad and lonely
And it's time to come back my baby
Because I need you honestly

There is no way
How can I escape?
It is a labyrinth of love
Which everyone knows at teenage
A sensation like a fire right inside
One day I'll find what I hope
And it will be a happy end

There is no way
How much time do I have to wait?
And how many years do I have to waste?
So without you in this world I'm lost
All the opportunities run away so fast
This situation is the most that I hate
There is no way but to fight.

I hate your country

One day, my girlfriend said to me:
I hate your country too much
I have to go and don't touch me
And she added so fast at lunch:
Set me free and forget me
Now the divorce is all I want to reach
Although I'm sure that you love me
Because your family is against the church

In that day I answered:
Don't decide so quickly
Think twice and be a big minded
Before to repent it and be sorry
Because you'll never be loved
Like I do faithfully and honestly
And your religion wasn't ever respected
As I did fully and strongly

After three years she phoned me
She was crying and she supplied me
To forgive her for all what she did to me
At that moment I knew how my God is near me
I said you know what you mean to me
Your absence was killing me
Just tell me that you love me
Finally I said: you can come back to me.

I can't forget you

I can't forget you
You illuminated my darkness
Since the moment that I saw you
The lonely is a chronic illness
I brought my heart to you
I'll remember forever the first kisses
My soul was created just for you
So it wishes to live with you in happiness

I can't forget you
My heart beats just for you
My eyes all the time search for you
My hands caress one and only you
My lips miss too much to kiss you
My mind is occupied with you
My soul is already trapped by you
My life really belongs to you

I can't forget you
Neither your voice nor your whispers
Neither your smiles nor your tears
I can break down all your fears
I asked the moon for you
I wrote to you my poems
Which confess clearly my feelings
I hope that will come true our dreams.

A big difference

Between you and the others
You're so sweet and very nice
We live in our world like brothers
I think that you don't pertain a human race
We spend a long time together
The light is shining in your face
You're the best of the mothers

Between you and the rest
You're always ready to sacrifice
You're so faithful and honest
With you I got the experience
You taught me how to fight
The evil and the injustice
And to be so patient and prudent

Between you and them
Because they just give an appearance
Of being rich and handsome
I fell emptiness in your absence
And without you I'll die of boredom
You're against savagery and violence
And you defend all the meaning of freedom.

2012/08/09 at 00:43 a.m.

It's too late

It's too late
I've already told you
All the things that I hate
And I expressed my feelings for you
To be frank and right is very important
These characters which could bring me toward you
Now I'm sorry, I can't
In any case to forgive you

You had to see the other side
Although I was so kind
You hurt me deep inside
And I suffer from the pain that I try to hide
My decision is formerly made
So you are not what I need
Because of you I'm tired

It's too late
But now I said to you
You had to be modest
Alas you were selfish and unpleasant
You can't change yourself at this moment
Cause you had hesitated to do it
So you're no longer best
It's too late without any doubt.

2012/08/09 at 23:02 p.m.

Sorry, I couldn't

Sorry, I couldn't
I couldn't ask you
For a dance with you
I couldn't invite you
For a walk beside you
I feel in love with you
I was like a fool because of you

Sorry, I couldn't
I couldn't kiss you
In my arms to hold you
I couldn't tell you
My feelings towards you
I couldn't confess to you
How much I adore you

Sorry, I couldn't
I couldn't whisper to you
My heart is crazy for you
I couldn't write to you
My sweet words which describe you
I couldn't say to you
How I dreamt to marry you.

2012/08/10 at 00:48 a.m.

I don't want to know

Where you are now
Cause you've violated my laws of love
From now on you'll live in a sea of sorrow
So I have to be strong and brave
In order to change my tomorrow

I don't want to hear
Nothing about your new life
Now I can listen in peace to the music of slow
I am so happy and fine
It's winter and it starts to snow
And I'm at home with my new wife

I don't want to remember
Definitely our memories
I don't like you any longer
So I tore all your letters
I forgot your love forever
And all my past's mistakes

I don't want to know
How you're anymore
Your photograph which I drew
It was a big error
And now I've just one way to follow
With hope towards my future.

2012/08/10 at 14:39 p.m.

It is the end

It is the end
There is no solution
It's too complicated the equation
Have you ever been in this situation?
Our love was a very serious relation
But now it's finished without discussion

It is the end
We can't do anything
The power of our love was diminishing
All the time I was suffering
For to keep our couple I was fighting
But now I'll leave you in this evening

It is the end
No one else can understand
What I feel deep inside
Your defects you haven't to hide
And your faults that you made
A true love is all that I needed

There's neither hope nor a second chance
I've already said face to face
That you have to be with me so nice
You had to think twice
So I let you in peace.

One world

One world
I'll say just one word
On the one hand
We are one human kind
But the other hand
Everyone's life ends in a different road
The rich men in over the world
Violate the commands of God
And the poors of the third world
Still suffering in this mysterious land
The children are so sad
Their situations are too bad
The wars have shed much blood
They haven't enough food
They don't know neither to write nor to read
They're without home to protect them from a cold
And the politicians just want more and more gold
So we have to pray for good
One day the oppressed will be saved by the Lord
The love is all that the children need
At times to sleep beside them at the bed
Their birthday should be celebrated
On their way to school they wish to be accompanied...
So pray again for one world.

Every one of us

Has a dream to realize
Wishes to accomplish
The obstacles to unfreeze
Or something to reach

Has a big or a small secret
A plan or a project to execute
A long or a short story to relate Someone or something to protect

Every one of us
Feel or will fall in love
Is born with a purpose to achieve
Has a vocation to love
Has or will have a reason to live

Every one of us
Has at least a question without an answer
Has to believe in his inside power
To resist the wind like a flower
To listen to the Angel talker.

2012/08/11 at 23:40 p.m.

Our friendship

Our friendship
It will be forever
We are like brothers
We shared the best moments together
We were so close to each other
Do you remember?
Our first camping beside the river
Where we suffered from the fever

It's shining like a star
Although you're so far
It's so deep like a sea
And too strong like roots of the tree
It can keep us warm like a sun
It's so high like a mountain
And it's very important like a rain

It's innocent like a child
It can fly so high like a bird
It can jump above the obstacles
And bear all troubles
It knows really to forgive
It should help and give
Our friendship, so special, has to live.

Let him and don't worry

And don't care about him
It's fascinated your beauty
He abandoned you when you needed him
He hurt you so profoundly
You cried a long time for him
You stayed so lonely
And you were crazy because of him

Erase him from your mind
Delete him from your memory
Take off the ring from your hand
There's no need to cry
His lies have to end
And now he can't deny
The truth is hard to hide

And don't forgive him
He is a bad man and nasty
You have to forget him
You'll find a true love so easily
Don't think anymore about him
Get him out of your heart definitely
It was a big error to love him.

2012/08/13 at 13:54 p.m.

I want to sing this song

I want to sing this song
I can do all that I want
Cause I am now young
Trying to control me, that I hate
I avoid making a wrong
I always attempt to be right
And I am so strong
To struggle and fight

Don't test to attack me
I am robust to destroy you
Don't lie to me
I will unmask you
Don't hate me
I'll try hard to love you
So please don't envy me

I want to sing this song
Freedom is my best principle
Being faithful is a miracle
To survive is a hard battle
To be a hero is not to build a castle
But to illuminate the way even by a candle
To respect a child and a female
And all that is the meaning of this song in general.

2012/08/13 at 17 p.m.

All the time

I need you
Every night
I think of you
During the day
I wait for you
Every moment
I talk too much to you

All the time
I search for you
I hope to see you
Every minute
I wish to spend it beside you
I want to confess to you
There's no girl like you
So I guess that I'll marry you

All the time
My soul runs to you
In my mind
I memorized all the words for you
Listen to my heart
It beats just for you
Your presence makes me alive
So I can't live without you.

2012/08/14 at 23:53 p.m.

Since I knew you

Since I knew you
My happiness has gone with the wind
My suffering has grown because of you
You have made me mad and sad
My freedom has been stolen by you
You're selfish and son bad
My loneliness is so heavy beside you
And now my soul is dead

Since I knew you
I've felt the pain deep inside
I hadn't to say that I love you
Alas! My dream is disappeared
My eyes have adored seeing you
But now I'm disappointed
My ears have wished to hear you
But now I'm shocked

Since I knew you
My luck has diminished so quickly
My heart has stopped beating for you
We arrive at the end seriously
One day I will let you
And you'll be so lonely
It was a big crash to know you
And now, our relation is finished absolutely.

2012/08/15 at 15:36 p.m.

I will go there

I will go there
Where I hope to be with her
And I get out from here
It can be forever
My dreams will grow like flowers
It demands just some hours
There I can draw away all my fears
And to rub away all my tears

I will go there
To discover the west
To live the best
And avoid the worst
Here I feel lost
And stranger like a ghost
I am tired a lot
To stay here is a big fault

I will go there
Where I wish to find my Angel
To leave soon this jail
And to escape from the hell
There are no words to express what I feel
To be there is a delicious meal
So I have to face the real
And move from here to there.

2012/08/15 at 18:00 p.m.

You are a shining star

You are a shining star
So high in the sky
You're splendid and shy
When the sun shines so far
You disappear and I begin to cry
In your absence I'll die

Which light up my life
You're so attractive
You make me feel safe
My love is too positive
Although it can be relative

You are a shining star
You're a sign of my success
I suffer from love sickness
You're the remedy of my sadness
You're my company in my loneliness
So kill all my sorrows without tenderness

You are a shining star
It's forbidden to deceive you
It's impossible to forget you
It's strictly prohibited to insult you
Because my soul belongs to you
And I was born to love you.

2012/08/16 at 14:40 p.m.

I love you

I love you
I've already said it to you
When I was alone with you
In the beach I asked to kiss you
But you've said softly to me
That I have to wait till we will just you and me

I love you
There I was sleeping beside you
After I became so far from you
However I wrote to you
A long letter to explain to you
How much I missed you

I love you
How I've dreamt to be with you
But now my desires are vaporized
And I've hope to meet you
Anyway the miracles are finished
And my heart is torn in two because of you

I love you
Although I had to let you
I was made for loving you
And I wished so long to marry you
I remember every moment that I shared with you
This poem is a proof that I love you.

I am so sad

I am so sad
This place is too bad
I can't live in it
It's too hard
I'll migrate so far from it
To where I can be glad

I am so sad
I'm wasting my time
I'm killing my life
I don't remember even my name
I'm so tired of searching my wife
To stay alive or die is the same

I am so sad
Nobody cares about me
No one even ask for me
The world is crashing down over me
The emptiness is destroying me
But my God will protect me

I am so sad
I'm trapped in a vicious circle
And I'm really in deadlock
So I need a supernatural miracle
To get me out of the bottleneck
Cause my situation is so critical.

2012/08/17 at 13:45 p.m.

Even if

Even if
Even if I swear
That the end is too near
No one neither believes me nor cares
All the earth will be on fire and fear
So nobody will be able to bear

Even if the ancient civilisations
Have already talked about it clearly
People either ignore it definitely
Or don't know it absolutely
The problem is huge certainly

Even if the scientists confirm it
With events and proofs of the past
There're a lot of old documents
Which told us about it
But we still having questions

Even if
Even if we saw it in the movies
We heard it at TV and Internet documentaries
We still closing our eyes
We pass over the truth and the facts
But surely the end of the world comes.

2012/08/17 at 22:09 p.m.

My child, don't cry

My child, don't cry
I'm so near to help you
To show you the right way
I'm here just beside you
You can spread your wings to fly
I pray the God to protect you

My child, don't cry
It's so easy to explain to you
To indicate you how is difficult this life
I'll try hard to preserve you
Cause it can hurt you like a knife
I love you so much my child

My child, don't cry
I can't keep my feelings hidden
I hope you to live in heaven
Where your sorrows will be broken
Just count up to seven
And three wishes will be given

My child, don't cry
Your destiny is already determined
You past events are decided
Your suffering will be forgotten
Your sins are forgiven
And your future will be shown.

2012/08/18 at 14:29 p.m.

It's a bad time

It's a bad time
People are viperous
Their speech is venomous
Their critics are enormous
Their envies are murderous
So they are dangerous

It's a bad time
Nobody cares about you
No one asks for you
Except when either he needs you
Or he heard the bad news about you
So be careful of who you know

It's a bad time
Money is the root of all evil
For it, they're ready to go to jail
Money is the power
To get it, they can be the killers
So try hard to be a fair player

It's a bad time
The justice is diminishing
The racism is wildly increasing
The repression is spreading
The state terrorism is rapidly growing
So the extremism is quickly circulating.

2012/08/18 at 18:39 p.m.

It was just a dream

It was just a dream
To be near from her
To call her name
To whisper in her ear
To hold her in my arm
To confess my love to her

It was just a dream
To tell her what I fell
My life and the hell is the same
I have to use the sleeping pill
To be beside her in the calm
Not inside the cell

It was just a dream
To see again her face
To kiss her lips
To invite her to dance
To touch her skin with tenderness
To talk to her with kindness

To go out for a walk
To smell her sweet perfume
To swim with her in the lake
It makes me crazy her charm
I dreamt to listen, in her presence, to the pop music.

2012/08/19 at 16:00 p.m.

I can't trust in you

I can't trust in you
With him, I surprised you
I let you, so bye bye
I'll move away from you
And I'll go so far away
Cause you hurt who loves you

I can't trust in you
You are a hustler
I'll never believe in you
You're a big liar
You made me love you
You were so a falsifier

I can't trust in you
Although you're so beautiful
You still forever unfaithful
And you stay deceitful
So change yourself and be careful
Nobody else will rely on you

I can't trust in you
Selfhood is one of your characters
You're a double-dealer
My heart burns like a fire
You're my life ruiner
So to abandon you is easier than ever.

2012/08/19 at 21:26 p.m.

They are malignants

They are malignants
Leftists and rightists
They are both extremists
Socialism and communism
They are just theories
Liberals and capitalists
Are equal their origins
They are all criminals...

They are malignants
Face to face
They're telling the lies
They hate a human race
They always win in the elections
But they don't assume their responsibilities
Because they only defend their interests
And they don't care about rights of citizens

They are malignants
Clearly and frankly
All the policymakers are the same
Their mentalities will never change Definitely and certainly
They live for the power and money
And they kill the democracy and equality
They are just as evils.

2012/08/20 at 12:07 p.m.

My mother

My mother
The symbol of kindness
She wakes up all the night
It's infinite her tenderness
She's born to struggle and fight
Just for my happiness
She tries hard to be right
Her love is endless

My mother
She advises me like a friend
And she shows me the right way
She avoid to make me sad
She taught me to accept my destiny
She is like an Angel guard
She prays God to protect me everyday
To success at my study and be glad

My mother
She's the light in my darkest hours
She helps me to overcome my problems
She's always ready to face all events
I tell her all my secrets
I share with her all the moments
I can rely on her for my important matters
I dedicate to her all my poems.

2012/08/20 at 20:00 p.m.

I will never get married

In spite of being loved
Cause I'm so tired
Of unsuccessful relations
I hate to be trapped
More and more in this situation
I feel terrified and I'm scared

The marriage is a big responsibility
The ugly and sad reality
Nowadays there's no credibility
In our bad society
And now I miss my serenity
So I'm not ready
To lose forever my liberty

The marriage is a battlefield
Even if it's called the golden cage
Listen to you best friend
Think twice and be sage
Be careful and don't be blind
Your wife will make you mad and rage
It's just a little advice from a friend.

2012/08/21 at 11:42 a.m.

You are welcome here

In my country
Just be ready
To see and hear the mystery
In the parliament
They are sleeping
The government
Is always lying

The administration
Is fully corrupted
The elections
Are certainly falsified
Public money
Was totally looted

You are welcome here
The graduates of higher education
Are suffering from marginalization
And they are claiming insertion
Into public service
And the large population
Is deprived of her dignity and social justice.

2012/08/21 at 20:45 p.m.

The sun and the truth

The sun smiles at the truth
But the truth still a mystery for the sun
Although it tries to open the enigma of the truth
And the truth can't understand the clarity of the sun
Even the sun illuminates the darkness of the truth
It's a large difference between the two

The truth can't see at night
Because of the sunset
So the truth sleeps a long time
And waits for the sunrise
The sun rises but the truth sets
It's a big contradiction in nowadays

The truth confronts the death
The sun has to fight
And struggle till the end
One day the truth will be found
The darkness will be let just behind
So the reality will be changed

The sun shines strongly
It can't be hidden completely
It will be spread certainly
And the truth will appear clearly
So we can say frankly
The sun and the truth live together with mystery.

2012/08/22 at 13:20 p.m.

It is my dream

It is my dream
My best dream
To go right there
Cause I can't stay here
My soul is out there
And I will find her

It is my dream
My only dream
My Angel is calling me
Just believe in me
And don't be afraid of being beside me
You have to die for me

It is my dream
My unique dream
It's time to love me
To do anything to save me
Your soul belongs to me

It is my dream
My mysterious dream
To leave this world to another
Where we will love each other
And it will be forever
My dream is that to reach you my lover.

He is only a child

He is only a child
Be patient to understand him
Hear him before to judge him
By his name, call him
Be strong to help him

He is only a child
Don't say what can hurt him
Especially don't hit him
To avoid the pain that can be caused to him

He is only a child
Go out to walk with him
Help him to make decisions

And always be frank with him
To improve your relation with him
Don't impose your ideas on him

Life is so strange

It's a long bridge
And the suffering into the cage
The majority aren't sage

It's full of bad surprises
And a bizarre ways
Unknown destinations
Unsupportable situations

Life is so strange
It's an ocean of tragedies
Where the injustice dominates
And money is master of masters

Life is so strange
You can't reach what you want
And that breaks your heart
You can't realize your dreams

One day

One day
The world will be changed
Borders will be opened
Jails will be closed
Diseases will be eliminated
Slavery will be abolished
Freedom will be established
And wars will be finished

One day
The earth will be happy
Where we will live friendly
We behave with children gently
We express our feelings kindly
We overcome our problems bravely
And we accept our destiny faithfully

The life will be perfect
Our thoughts will be different
Where there's no need to fight
And we have no reason to hate

I am waiting

I am waiting
The best moment
To say to my sweet heart
All that I felt
When I saw her at first time
I'll never forget her name
My soul is on fire
And I miss so much my calm

The right time
To tell my love
That my mind is too preoccupied

I am waiting
The important instant
To confess my feelings
To announce you my secrets
To realize all my pink dreams
You destroyed totally my sorrows
You overthrew definitely my fears
I am waiting for you, so open your arms.

2012/08/24 at 19:52 p.m.

Give me a sign

And you'll be mine
Before to know you
Deep inside I had a fire
And now I am so fine
Even you are thin

Give me a sign
And I'll be close to you
And I'll be in front of you
Don't be a mysterious file
And I'll fall in love with you
So be wise and not hostile
And I'll be just for you

Give me a sign
And I'll meet you immediately
There's no need to worry
At the end I'll sigh deeply
Oh girl! You're sweet and lovely
You are my ecstasy
And you love makes me crazy
So give me a sign clearly.

2012/08/25 at 13:37 p.m.

It was so nice

It was so nice
To know you
To keep you deep inside my heart
And my soul is attracted to you
The message is already sent
That I adore you
Our relation, in the sky, was built
And God will protect you

It was so nice
To meet you
You implanted the joy in my life
So I'm glad beside you
You excluded the thorns from my way
So I'm safe because of you
It was destined that you'll be my wife
So I was born for you

It was so nice
To marry you
Your eyes are shining like the stars
Your skin smells like the flowers
Your smile is wonderful
You're an incredible Angel
It's too nice to be with you.

2012/08/25 at 17:15 p.m.

My best chance

My best chance
That I was born free
To be agree or disagree
It depends of my own reality
You can't change my personality
To be quiet or angry
Before to judge me

My best chance
That I exist in this world
To be alive or dead
It's volition of our God
So to kill is too bad
Also to oppress is not allowed
To be human is all we need
It's very important indeed

That I have my Angels
They are like my friends
They close the hell's doors
They help me to make decisions
They advise me to avoid bad companions
My best chance that to be in seven heavens.

2012/08/26 at 21:25 p.m.

Not only in my mind

Not only in my mind
The terror is inside
I hate the oppressor
My enemy is dictator
The injustice is a factor
Of my suffering
The contempt is the origin
Of my uprising

Not only in my mind
I hate the wicked
He is the cause of the misery
He will be eliminated
I hope so deeply
That the evil will be abolished
From this planet rapidly
And my soul will be freed

Not only in my mind
I hate the profiteer
To be loyal is rare in our time
You can't trust neither your brother nor your sister
That is a big shame
The life is bitter
To live or die is the same
So forget even my name.

2012/08/27 at 21:42 p.m.

I have just one

Just one, just one
Her name is roumaissae
She has a wonderful smile
That attracts everyone
Her face is shining like the moon
Her eyes is sparkling like the sun

Her name means
A small star in the sky
My heart beats
When I see her beauty
My soul just belongs
To her my pretty

She is a lovely baby
She starts trying to talk sweetly
She is a funny baby
I can't let her lonely

2012/08/28 at 18:06 p.m.

It's over

It's over
The game is over
They are only the oppressors
Now it's very clear
And no one ignore
They are the killers
And that is sure
They stoke the fire

It's over
The lies shine like the sun
You can't close your eyes any longer
They exceeded the red line
They will stay in the hell forever
They shoot the innocents with the gun
They will never change their behaviour
For them, to massacre is a fun

It's over
The end starts now
The greed languish in their hearts
The perfidy nest in their souls
For money they sold their consciences
For power they're ready to kill all citizens
They intend to spoil our lives

2012/08/29 at 11:30 a.m.

It's a long journey

It's a long journey
To reach the freedom
To break the manacles
To expulse the enemy from home
To realize the miracles
The oppressors aren't welcome
They came from jungle
They behave cruelly

It's a long journey
To get all what you want
You have to be strong and patient
To triumph over your fears
There's a hero inside your heart
So be brave and wipe your tears
Stand on your feet and follow walking

It's a long journey
To arrive at your life's purpose
It's hard to be alone on your way
Sometimes you're not free to choose
So you must face the reality
Because it's probable that you'll lose
But never give up easily
It's a long journey and just be tenacious.

2012/08/29 at 19:28 p.m.

She sacrificed her life

She sacrificed her life
She struggled so hard
She was a wonderful wife
She fought till the end
She was stabbed with a knife
By her bad husband
But now she is safe
It was a miracle of God

She sacrificed her life
She bore all the hardships
She overcame the hardest obstacles
She learnt that there're no friendships
She renounced all her dreams
She suffered from all tragedies
She endured all kinds of problems
She confronted bravely the difficulties

She sacrificed her life
To educate her kids
In this savage world
Strongly like the hardness of diamond
She was very kind
Like her you'll never find
So I can't get her off my mind.

2012/08/30 at 00:30 a.m.

You have to be loyal

You have to be loyal
And love just one girl
Then confess what you feel
When your love is real
There's no reason to be treasonable
If you fall in the betrayal
You'll be hated by all people
So think twice and be careful

You have to be loyal
And venerate your kids
Be thankful for your friends
And respect the neighbourhood
Stay a faithful husband
It's finished the bachelorhood
Your wedding ring is placed on your left hand

You have to be loyal
And keep your decision
Look forward to your future
And don't change your opinion
Although the marriage is a difficult situation
Resolve your problems with conversation
And avoid the possibility of separation.

2012/08/30 at 11:39 a.m.

I want

I want to speak freely
Without any restrictions
Far away from all threats
To read and write plainly
Without any controls
To talk about anything openly
And criticize without exceptions

I want to go anywhere
Not under house arrest
To travel in any place
Only with my passport
To live in my country in peace
With no problem of transport
We are all one race
And there's no reason to be racist

I want to do all I want
You have no right to prohibit me
Don't do this, don't do that
So let me and don't order me
I wasn't born to be a servant
You can't stop me
And now I learnt to fight
